OUR customers appreciate the excellent quality of our milk—they know by experience that it comes up to the high standard of merit and healthfulness we claim for it—that it is unequaled for PURITY and RICHNESS.
Use our milk in your home.

Marchant Bros.,
Plainfield Milk and Cream Co.,
191 North Avenue.

A Big Business on a Small Scale
is done here. We serve a great number of customers with choice
Roasts, Chops, Steaks,
Provisions and Poultry. Special care is taken in warm weather in selecting meats. Inferior grades of meat are not permitted to enter our store. Our hygenic cold-air refrigeration is the only one in the city, thus ensuring health, fine flavor and condition, that's why our meats taste so good. Try a nice Leg of Lamb for your Sunday dinner. Prices are lower than ever.
Fine Fresh Fish of all kinds can be found in our Seafood Department. Saturday special sale
FRED ENDRESS.
131-135 W. Front St.

Teas and Coffees
The Very Best.
Their quality, flavor and blend are exceptionally fine—we guarantee them.
One taste convinces—they're sure to please.
Try them and you'll order of us again.
W. W. DUNN.
PARK GROCER,
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Only about 150 Special Bargains of High Class, properly restricted, residential and business locations, on Martine Estate on Park, Prospect, Watchung, Kensington, Hillside, Martine and Thornton avenues, and New avenue, to be an extension of Evergreen avenue. 80 feet wide, from Hillside to Park. Titles insurable. Prices low. Terms easy. Buyers of lots can have houses built to their own order, on terms easier than renting. Your own Broker, or WELLES & CO., 45 Broadway, N. Y. J. F. MACDONALD, 149 North avenue, Local Manager. Telephone. Don't Delay.

The Park Stables.
Livery and Boarding.
108 Somerset Street
Telephone 493 j. North Plainfield.
High-class Horses and Carriages.
Prompt Service.
JAMES D. FRAZER.

FRANK VAN WINKLE
129 North Avenue
Bicycles Photo Supplies
Kodaks and Cameras
Bicycles stored, cleaned and repaired
Developing, Printing and Mounting a specialty

SECOND-HAND LUMBER.
Will sell a large quantity of Window Frames, Doors, and all kinds of Second-hand Lumber and Firewood this week at your own price.
Call at building corner Washington and Sixth streets and get a bargain.
ALEX. KANE,
312 Filmore Avenue.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking out shares in
THE CENTRAL
Building and Loan Asso'n.
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDonald, Sec'y.
Smalley Building, No 149 North avenue 4 14 tf

NEW JERSEY'S TWELVE-ACRE STORE.
HAHNE & CO.,
BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STS., NEWARK.
Second Floor.
Final Half-Price Sale
Best Go-Carts Made
We had many calls after the last half-price sale, but whoever then bought the carts paid full price. When we make a time limit on special prices, in Go-Carts or anything else, we restore regular figures the moment the hours for that sale have closed.
This offer will close with our store on Friday night.
10.00 Go-Carts for 5.00
12.00 Go-Carts for 6.00
20.00 Go-Carts for 10.00
25.00 Go-Carts for 12.50
Our Superior $30.00 Go-Carts reduced to $15.00
NOTE—All these Carts have best quality of reed reclining backs, adjustable fronts, rubber-tired wheels, all are finely finished, and some have porcelain handles. See Broad St. window.
First Floor.
Shirt Waist Patterns.
Friday, 9 to 12 o'clock.
Embroidered Shirt Waist patterns, values up to $4.50, all neatly boxed. Choice of Batiste and Lawn. Three hour price, each, Friday..... 98c
Special in Women's Rain Coats.
Cravenette in herring-bone stripes, blue, tan and Oxfords, entirely new models, collarless effect, three box plaits, belt at waist line, newest bishop sleeve, sizes 32 to 44, value $18.50, for.... 12.50
Open Friday Evening and Closed at Noon Saturday This Week Only.
HAHNE & CO., NEWARK, N. J.

Trouser Sale.
Timely Summer Needfuls at Slaughter Prices.
2,000 Pairs on Sale.
Prices cut in two—½ off.
Style and Price alike, will tempt you to purchase.
WERNER'S Clothing House....
206 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Trolley Rides
these warm days, and evenings, are pleasant and healthy.
A convenient destination, or stopping-off place, is Newark, and our Soda Counters and Ice Cream Parlors are convenient to all car lines. A plate of Ice Cream, any two flavors, 10c; or a glass of Ice Cream Soda or other cooling drink at 5c makes a suitable addition to the evening's jaunt.
R. Welsh & Co.
Office 151 Market Street
Two Stores, 157 Market and 671 Broad, Newark N. J.
Factory 136-38 Front St

BUTTERMILK
WHY YES
we make it fresh every day, and Potcheese, too. Try some.
LINDSAY DAIRY,
Tel. 451 j. FARM MOUNTAIN AVENUE.

ICE CREAM
Wholesale and Retail.
I have vacated my store on Park avenue and am still making PURE ICE CREAM AT 32 BANK PLACE.
All orders by 'phone (No. 470y) or mail will receive prompt attention.
LAKE HOUSE NOW OPEN. JOHN H. TIER.

THE USE OF
REYNOLD'S PETROLEUM HAIR TONIC
Means Healthy Scalp, Natural Growth of Hair (no falling out), No Dandruff. 50 cents bottle. Prepared only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG
Corner North and Park Aves. THE APOTHECARY. Plainfield, N. J.

DR. GOSSOM'S KIDNEY & BLADDER CURE
Is guaranteed to quickly and permanently cure every symptom, irregularity or disease of the Kidneys and Bladder: Bright's Disease, Dropsy, Backache, Gout, every Urinary Disorder, etc.
It cures after all other medicines and physicians have failed. It never fails.
50 CENTS PER BOX.
T. S. ARMSTRONG,
Cor. North and Park Avenues.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.
We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wallpapers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes
WOOLSTON & BUCKLE,
145 North Avenue.

APPEARANCE COUNTS
when you want to sell or rent your property. Is your house attractively painted, decorated and papered? You can depend on us always for superior work in this line.
Convincingly Low Prices.
JAS. C. HANSEN.
141 East Front St.

G. A. Woolsey's Standard Paint.
The Best Ready-Mixed Paint in the Market.
—FOR SALE BY—
J. M. CAHART,
PAINTER AND DECORATOR.
DEALER IN
Paints, Oils, Glass, Wallpaper, Etc
Painting, Papering and Decorating. Estimates on application.
201 Park Ave., Cor. Second St.

I. N. WYCKOFF.
PAINTER and DECORATOR,
556 West Front Street.
Papering a specialty. First-class work my motto. Glass furnished and Glazing done.
TELEPHONE 292-L.

1904
WALL PAPERS.
Imported and American Goods.
C. CONOVER & CO.,
Decorators, Painters & Paperhangers. Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Place. 'Phone 226-J.

DRUGGISTS.
PRESCRIPTIONS
Called for and Medicines Delivered.
Telephone, write or call at any time. Let us know what drug store goods you need, and we'll send them right out, without extra charge.
Powers' Somerset Pharmacy.
45 Somerset St. Tel. 161

SODA
With Fruit Syrups Second to None.
MALLINSON'S
LIBERTY AND FOURTH STS.
Segars are one of my specialties

MILLER'S
VEGETABLE BLOOD PURIFIER
combines the best Tonic and Blood Purifying Remedies of the Vegetable Kingdom. Such as Sarsaparilla, Clover Tops, Golden Seal, Turkey Corn, Sassfrass, Burdock and Mandrake.
Contains no mercury.
DUDLEY S. MILLER, Druggist,
Park Ave. and Fourth St.

Seasonable Goods at Nagle's
Nagle's Egg Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, Extract of Malt, Beef, Wine and Iron.
Blands Iron Pills.
Nagle's Blood Purifier and Sarsaparilla, just the medicine for building one up.
Moth Balls, Camphor, etc.
C. M. NAGLE,
Telephone 477 r. Front and Grove Sts.

Hodges Pharmacy.
Reliable goods in all Departments.
Agency for Belle Mead Sweets.
Tel. 210 A. Y.M.C.A. Building.

NEW JERSEY HOLDUP

Treasurer O'Rourke Company Robbed Near Cedar Grove.

MASKED MEN MAKE $10,000 HAUL

Guns Presented In True Western Style, Three Construction Employees Overpowered and Money Carried Off.

CEDAR GROVE, N. J., Aug. 25.—On a wild road in the Orange mountains William White, a paymaster for the O'Rourke Engineering Construction company, which has offices in West Thirty-fourth street, New York, was held up and robbed of nearly $10,000 by four masked men. When the buggy in which he was riding with two companions, C. E. Eldrich and H. S. Taft, was in a heavily wooded section midway between Great Notch station, on the Greenwood lake branch of the Erie railroad, and this place, it was halted by the men, who sprang out of the underbrush at the roadside, and the horse was shot.

The horse was going at a walk when the men rushed out from the thick undergrowth of the woods. One of the four, an American, who was completely masked, leveled a revolver at the men in the buggy and called upon them to halt. The other three, Italians, who wore blue goggles, also trained their weapons on the paymaster and the guards.

White showed fight, and when he attempted to prevent one of the thieves from getting into the wagon he was struck from behind with a gun in the hands of one of the men and knocked almost senseless. Eldrich, who did not attempt to use his revolver, and Taft were quickly overpowered, and in the struggle one of the highwaymen seized the bag containing the money and made off with it. He was followed by his three companions.

Before the driver could stop the horse the American shot the animal in the head and it fell dead. Acting as spokesman for the robbers, he warned White and the other occupants of the buggy that if they made any suspicious move they would be shot. While the Italians covered them with their revolvers the American went to the buggy, took the bags of money one by one and tossed them into the road.

He then stepped back and one of the Italians came up and gathered up the bags which he put into a small gunny sack. Telling the Italian who had the booty to hurry on ahead, the American, with the other two Italians, remained in the middle of the road until their companion got out of sight.

Then, walking slowly backward, the trio kept the men in the buggy covered until they were out of pistol range. They then dashed into the thick woods and disappeared.

White and the other two men, as soon as the highwaymen were gone, ran to the reservoir and told of the bold holdup. Brody telephoned at once to Little Falls, a station twenty-one miles out from Jersey City and two miles farther out than Great Notch.

At the offices of the O'Rourke company Mr. Miller, the superintendent, said that he had been informed of the holdup, but had learned little concerning it. When asked if it was true that White had $10,000 he replied:

"He had a large amount of money."

He said that he did not know the exact amount, but that it was not less than $9,000. The police of Paterson, Montclair, Newark, Bloomfield, Jersey City and other New Jersey towns have been notified and are keeping a close watch on all roads, trolley lines and railroads.

New York Guardsmen Won.

FORT RILEY, Kan., Aug. 25.—The first event of the national rifle competion, the national team match, closed last evening, with the New York national guard team having the highest score for the three days' shooting. The four service teams followed, with the navy team in second place, army infantry third, army cavalry fourth and marine corps fifth. The District of Columbia national guard team was sixth. These teams will participate in the distribution of the trophies, cash prizes and medals.

Seventh Day Adventists.

MORTONVILLE, Kan., Aug. 25.—The national conference of the Seventh Day Adventists has opened here, with over 300 delegates in attendance from all parts of the United States. The conference continues until Aug. 29. President Post of Chicago is in charge. Lieutenant Governor George H. Utter of Rhode Island is one of the delegates.

Governor Odell's Father Ill.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Aug. 25.—B. B. Odell, father of Governor Odell, was taken with a fainting spell while attending a performance in a local theater last night. He was assisted to the lobby by his son Hiram and his grandson Herbert. A physician was summoned, and Mr. Odell after reviving somewhat was taken to his home.

Ship Lost Off Labrador.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 25.—The schooner Selina has been lost off Labrador. Four of the crew went down with the vessel. It is feared that there have been other disasters in those waters, as a heavy gale has been sweeping the coast for the past week.

Senator Hoar's Condition.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 25.—A bulletin from the home of Senator George F. Hoar is as follows: "Senator Hoar is more comfortable. The throat and lungs are not causing trouble. He has taken a little more nourishment."

TO END THE STRIKE

Chicago Wants to Get Rid of Great Labor Trouble.

CITY COUNCIL TO FORCE SETTLEMENT

Many Shooting Affrays Disturb Stockyards—One Man Dead as Result of Train Riot and Another's Life Despaired Of.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—The city authorities are to make a second effort to settle the stockyards strike. At a meeting of the city council last night a resolution was passed empowering Mayor Harrison to appoint a committee of eleven aldermen who are to make it their business to bring about a settlement.

There was some opposition to the resolution, a number of the aldermen declaring that there would be no good results. The resolution was passed, however, and the committee appointed by the mayor.

Invitations were at once sent to the leaders of the strikers and to representatives of the employers inviting them to meet the members of the committee today. President Donnelly of the Butchers' union will be before the committee, and in the invitation sent to the packers they were asked to appear later.

The aldermanic committee has not mapped out any particular programme, but intends to see what it can do after it has listened to statements from both sides.

Another shooting affray that probably will cost a life has marked the progress of the stockyards strike, and in addition the second casualty of the long struggle was recorded in the death of one of the men who was wounded in the train riot of last Saturday evening.

The man who was shot and whose life is despaired of is Albert Brohn, a striking cattle butcher, and the man who fired upon him is said to have been Charles Morrell, a nonunion fireman employed at the Nelson Morris power house. Morrell escaped. The man who died as a result of the train riot was Dennis Ryan.

Went Down a Hundred Feet.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 25.—While the submarine torpedo boat Shark was being prepared for a submerged run she sank to the bottom in a hundred feet of water and remained there for some time before the crew could move her. The cause of the sinking is not known. The accident occurred near the Brenton's Reef lightship, Lieutenant Nelson being in charge of the boat, with Lieutenant Shepley and a crew of eight men aboard. The men displayed no excitement over the situation, but tried a number of experiments before the boat could be raised. Finally, after forty minutes, they succeeded by use of the hand pumps in bringing her to the surface. The boat apparently was not damaged.

Sent Bogus Telegrams.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 25.—J. T. Laney, alias A. P. Standish, formerly receiving clerk of the Western Union Telegraph company at Dallas, Tex., has been arrested here on a telegram from the company in Dallas. The telegram specified no charges, but Laney, who is under twenty years of age, admitted to the officers that he and a confederate whose name he gave as Black, alias Edmund Seaborn, had stolen $11,000 on bogus telegrams. According to Laney's story his father is now chief operator for the Western Union company in Dallas. He admitted that as receiving clerk he sent bogus telegrams for money to a confederate who traveled from city to city.

Held on Murder Charge.

AUBURN, N. Y., Aug. 25.—After preliminary examination James Mansell and Edward O'Connor, accused of the murder of Robert Shields, have been held for the grand jury. The star witness was the widow of the victim, who was an eyewitness to the deathblows and heard her dying husband's last plea to spare his life. She swore that both of the accused men pounded him on the head with stones as they held him between them. The murder was committed in the town of Genoa and was the outcome of a drunken row of the day before.

Racing at Fair Grounds.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—Fruit, badly outrun in the first part, got up in time to beat Loretta M. ten lengths in the fair grounds feature. Troxler, who rode Loretta M., struck Howell, on Arlena, with his whip just after passing the wire. Troxler claimed Howell crowded him into the heavy going, causing him to lose the race. Judge Murphy fined Troxler $50 and warned Howell against rough riding.

Carlyle McKinley Dead.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 25.—Carlyle McKinley, associate editor of the News and Courier, has died here after a long illness. He was the author of "An Appeal to Pharaoh," an argument for deportation of negroes to Egypt, which attracted much attention. Some of his poems have been widely quoted. He was a distant relative of the late President McKinley.

Governor Sparks For Senator.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Chairman Taggart has received a dispatch from Senator Newlands of Nevada saying that the Democrats of that state had indorsed Parker and Davis and nominated a strong state ticket. Governor Sparks was indorsed for senator to succeed William M. Stewart.

Weather Probabilities.

Showers; south winds.

Sale of Toilet Articles.

BAMBERGER'S
THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE
MARKET & HALSEY STS.

Sale of Enameled Ware.

The Marvelous "Telantograph"

Or Magic Pen.

We have on exhibition on our first floor one of the wonders of the St. Louis World's Fair—the Telantograph, or "Writing Telegraph." This little machine reproduces handwriting, sketches and similar matter at a distance, and has proven a decided sensation wherever exhibited.

The "Telantograph" mystifies the children and delights and interests adults. It is free—come in and see it work.

Sale of Autumn Weight Coats

Difficult to imagine a more opportune offering---in fact, it's only a matter of days until you will require the sort of garments we tell of today so sharply under regular. Jaunty effects, cut and tailored according to Fall Fashion's latest mandates and just as practical as can be---everyone should have a Fall weight coat, and here's the opportunity of the year.

12.50 Jackets 7.98—Box coats, fitted coats and corset styles of fine tan covert, well made and handsomely tailored. Just the thing for cool evenings. Actual value $12.50, special for this sale..... 7.98

15.00 Jackets 9.98—Fine covert, black broadcloth or cheviot, strap seams, silk lined, short jaunty styles or of medium length. This is a regular $15 jacket built for this sale and we marked them..... 9.98

Black Silk Jackets—Eton, blouse or box effects, short or medium lengths, high grade taffeta or peau de soie, actual values $12.50 and $15.00, but we are going to offer them to you at the special price..... 7.50

Here's a Shirt Waist Suit Chance—An odd lot embracing China and Foulard Silks. Newest and prettiest styles imaginable and ones that you will like straightaway. Remember we only have a small lot and the regular price was $15; they will not last very long when folks find out we are selling them at 8.50

New Jersey's Greatest Mail Order Store.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.
NEWARK, N. J.

New Jersey's Greatest Mail Order Store.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR
BALLANTINE'S IDEAL MALT EXTRACT

"ALL THE MALT."
BUILDS UP THE SYSTEM AND CREATES APPETITE.
TRY IT FOR SLEEPLESSNESS.

THE PLEASURE

of a smoke depends on the quality of the Cigar! Spend the lazy hours of your vacation in smoking and you'll find you've got your money's worth every time. Our Cigars are good and the price is low. Sold singly or by the box.

OUR CIGARS,

KIRBY'S
106 Park Avenue, Plainfield.

Butter, Milk,
Poultry and Eggs
direct from the best Jersey farms.
Also Ham, Bacon,
Bolognas and Sausages.
H. H. Smith,
228 Park Avenue, Opp. North.

Why It Pays To Buy Fish Of Ivamy.

"Better to handle one thing and handle it well."

We are "Specialists" in Fish and guarantee the Freshness and Quality of every Fish we sell.

You'll find here a better assortment of fine Fresh Fish than at stores making this only a side line.

Reasonable prices.

Special Cash Sale Saturday.

FRED IVAMY,
(Successor to Rogers & Co.)
232 W. Second Street.
Telephone 140

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
PARK AVENUE,
Opp. North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Dealers in
BEST LEHIGH COAL,
LUMBER,
MASON MATERIALS,
&c. &c.
Sole Agents N. J. Pulp Plaster

FLORISTS.

PHONE 398 L.
CHARLES L. STANLEY,
144 NORTH AVENUE.
A large stock of all seasonable Flowers always on hand. Flowering Plants, Palms and Ferns in large assortment. Floral Designs, Baskets and Centre Pieces artistically made up at short notice. Lowest prices. Greenhouses, South Ave., Nethe- od. Phon- w- 1.

LAKE HOPATCONG.

10-room cottage, boat house and landing, three hundred dollars for season. Store room to let one of best location in Plainfield. City property and farm to let, for sale and exchange. Ira L. LaRue, North and Watchung avenues.

Use Press Want Ads.

ADIRONDACK HANDICAP.

Broadcloth Best Pasadena For Stake at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Broadcloth won the Adirondack handicap, the stake event, by three lengths from Pasadena. Bluecoat made the pace to the stretch. Up to this point Broadcloth was running second under wraps. There Burns let him go, and he won breezing. Pasadena had many fanciers. He was backed down from 3 to 1 to 17 to 10.

Good Cheer, the favorite, won the first event by a head. Inquisitive Girl made the running well into the stretch, but stopped midway in the last furlong. Good Cheer finished strong under a drive.

Trek took the last hurdle of the steeplechase first, and that was the only place where he led. Malden beat him by a length.

Naughty Lady, also the favorite, won the fifth by two lengths.

Bluebird, favorite in the sixth, was badly beaten. Gamara won in a drive by three-quarters of a length. Caper Sauce tired in the stretch and nearly lost second money.

BASEBALL SCORES.

Results of Yesterday's Games In National and American Leagues.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At Chicago—
New York	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	—	3
Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	0

Batteries—Mathewson and Bowerman; Briggs and Kling.

Second Game—

New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	—2
Chicago	0	0	0	1	1	0	0	0	0	—2

Batteries—Ames and Warner; Lundgren and O'Neill.

At Cincinnati—

Brooklyn	0	3	2	0	1	0	0	2	0	—8
Cincinnati	1	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	—3

Batteries—Jones and Bergen; Walker and Peitz.

At Pittsburg—

Philadelphia	0	1	0	0	2	1	2	0	0	—6
Pittsburg	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	1	—3

Batteries—Sparks and Doolin; Flaherty and Phelps.

At St. Louis—

Boston	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0—3
St. Louis	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—1

Batteries—Pettinger and Marshall; O'Neill and Grady.

Second Game—

Boston	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—1
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	—1

Batteries—Wilhelm and Marshall; Nichols and Grady.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

Clubs.	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	74	31	.705
Chicago	65	40	.619
Pittsburg	61	44	.581
Cincinnati	63	46	.578
St. Louis	56	50	.537
Boston	41	68	.376
Brooklyn	37	70	.346
Philadelphia	29	79	.209

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At Boston—

Chicago	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	3
Boston	0	1	1	0	0	2	0	0	—	4

Batteries—Owen and Sullivan; Dineen and Farrell.

At Philadelphia—

Detroit	1	0	0	0	2	0	2	0	2	—7
Philadelphia	0	1	0	2	0	2	0	0	0	—5

Batteries—Killian and Drill; Henley and Schreck.

At Washington—

Cleveland	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	—1
Washington	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	—2

Batteries—Hess and Bemis; Townsend and Clark.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

Clubs.	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	63	40	.612
Boston	64	42	.604
Chicago	63	45	.583
Philadelphia	58	43	.574
Cleveland	57	46	.553
Detroit	46	58	.442
St. Louis	40	61	.396
Washington	24	80	.231

Handmore Was a Surprise.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 25.—Three favorites and two second choices came to the relief of the form players at Highland park, but one of the winning choice, Mum, was held at 1 to 3 and out of reach of the small bettors. A mile handicap was the feature event, and it furnished a surprise in a victory for Handmore, who despite his clever winning over practically the same company a few days ago was made third choice to Early Boy and Wire In. The Chicago filly Jade won another easy victory in the five furlongs for two-year-olds. Jockey Shaver's success in piloting three winners was one of the features of the day.

Race Won Without a Jockey.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—In the first race at Hawthorne Allie Virgie threw Jockey Larsen just as the race commenced, but continued along with the field just as though she was in the race. Loud cheers from the grand stand urged her on as she came down the stretch, and she passed the other horses one by one, going first under the wire by a neck. The race was of course decided without reference to her. In the second race Jockey Monahan was thrown under the feet of the horses that were following his mount, Evander, and was kicked along the track for thirty feet. He was senseless when picked up, but was not seriously injured.

Racing at Goshen Track.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 25.—The races at Goshen were witnessed by more than 7,000 people and proved exciting from start to finish. The 2:14 class trot, purse $500, was won by Alex Campbell, who took the second, fourth and fifth heats, the General second, Little Patsy third. Best time, 2 minutes 11½ seconds. In the Orange County Hunt race Lottie K. won first and second heats and race, Duke second, Dean McGregor third. Best time, 2 minutes 27¼ seconds.

Autoists Out For a Record.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 25.—The automobilists en route from Chicago to New York reached Cleveland at 7:05 o'clock last night and left for Erie at 7:20. The run from Chicago was made in seventeen hours and five minutes. The roads were in good condition. A. J. Schmitt and Edward Apperson made the run from Toledo to Cleveland, Jerome Ellis and Elmer Apperson going by train from Toledo to Erie.

Consuela S. Won $1,500 Stake.

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 25.—The Massachusetts stake, the richest prize on the harness turf for 1904, valued at $15,000, was won by Consuela S. after five fiercely contested heats. There were twelve starters. Best time, 2 minutes 7¾ seconds.

WAR IN FAR EAST

Army and Navy Working For Port Arthur's Fall.

JAPAN'S SHIPS AIDING LAND FORCES

Outer Defenses of Czar's Stronghold Reported to Be Falling One by One, Bringing the End Near.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—It is reported from Weihaiwei that the Japanese have captured several forts belonging to Port Arthur's western line of defenses. If this position has been taken and occupied, it is realized that unless the Japanese are at once dislodged the whole chain of forts will be breached and the position of Port Arthur rendered critical.

Advices from Chefu say that the Japanese armored cruisers Niasin and Kasaga have bombarded and silenced the Russian forts east of Golden hill, at the entrance of Port Arthur.

The forts referred to are very close to Forts Taipangtze and Chaochanko.

The Japanese have succeeded in occupying Antseshan fort, as well as another fort, probably Etschau, about a mile southwest of Antseshan.

They have driven the Russians from the parade grounds, which lie about two miles north of the harbor; they have destroyed two forts at Chaochanko, which is within the eastern fortifications, and they have advanced to a point near Chaochanko.

Scarcely a building in Port Arthur remains undamaged. The town hall, which was used as a magazine, has been destroyed.

Four large warships, unable to fight, are at Port Arthur. Only one ship, a vessel with two masts and two funnels, has guns on board.

The fire of the forts not captured by the Japanese, together with the effect of land mines, is given as the reason why the Japanese have not yet conquered the Russian stronghold.

A Shanghai report says that the Chinese ministry of foreign affairs has given the Russian warships now here four days in which to make repairs and leave the harbor.

Advices from Tokyo say that further details of the disabling of the Russian battleship Sevastopol have been received. While engaged in shelling the Japanese land forces from a position outside of Port Arthur the battleship struck a mine and was disabled by the explosion. She was then towed into Port Arthur. The Japanese battleship Asahi has been detailed to watch the Sevastopol.

Novel Argument For Peace.

MYSTIC, Conn., Aug. 25.—Two of the principal speakers at the meeting of the Connecticut Peace society in Mystic grove were C. C. Haskell of Norwich and Bradford Peck of Brookline, Mass. The former in his address on "Scientific Living, the Path to Peace," asserted that all war and commotion arises over food and claimed that a person can live from fifty to a hundred days without eating. He read a letter from a woman who said she was doing her housework on the fifty-first day of her fasting. She had suffered from a disease the cure of which, the letter said, had been declared by physicians to be impossible.

Said He Would Be Dead.

WEBSTER, Mass., Aug. 25.—Carl Robert Dietrich, many years paymaster in the Slater Woolen mills, left Webster a week ago without notifying his friends or employers. He had been suffering from nervous trouble for a long time. Mr. Dietrich went to New London, Conn., and took a boat for New York. In his stateroom was found a letter addressed to Charles Gerber, a friend in Webster, in which word was sent that Dietrich would be dead when he (Gerber) should receive the letter, and in it Dietrich also wrote that he had been contemplating the step some time.

Tourists Stayed on St. Bernard.

ROME, Aug. 25.—There is no truth in the statement circulated in the United States that two hundred English, French, German and American tourists had a narrow escape from death while climbing Mount St. Bernard and that rescuers were led to them by dogs. The story may have had its origin in the fact that about a hundred tourists were in the St. Bernard monastery when heavy snow began to fall, and they considered it prudent to remain there. They received the most cordial treatment from the monks and were at no time in danger.

Three Cornered Fight In Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 25.—A complete state ticket, including presidential electors, is to be nominated by the Republican state convention here today. Interest centers in the nomination for the governorship. A sharp three cornered fight is on between the friends of Governor Heber W. Wells, now serving his second term; John C. Cutler of Salt Lake City and Secretary of State James H. Hammond.

Two Killed by Cave-in.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 25.—A cave-in occurred on the Knoxville and Augusta branch of the Southern railway at a point where workmen were excavating for the foundation of a bridge pier at Little river. A heavy freight train had just passed over the point when the earth gave way, and six men were buried, of whom two were killed and four injured.

H. H. Mauck Nominated.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 25.—H. H. Mauck of Nelson has been nominated for congress by the Democrats and Populists of the Fifth Nebraska district.

Advertised Mail Matter.

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 22, 1904.
R. H. BIRD, P. M.

Abbington, C	Lachy, Mr James
Bustrim, Mr F O	Lodge, Secretary Daniel
Baumler, Miss Teresa	Lewis, Mr E A
Burges, Mr S	Mercier, Mr Joseph
Bond, Mr Hurbert	McGovern, Mr John
Bilts, Miss Ella B	McCobe, Mr M J
Burton, Miss Mary	Manelle, Mr Tanere
Buckingham, Mr W K	Mancieie, Miss Mabel
Coriell, Mrs R M	Motley, Miss Katherine
Coburn, Mrs	Mathiasen, Mrs K
Callinan, James H	Mascowity, Mr Henry
Curtis, Thomas W	Mullison, Mrs H L
Clark, Mr Henry W	Mullison, Miss Hattie
Carkhuff, Mrs Julia	Neuley, Mrs Sarah
Carroll, Mrs T H	Noyes, Mr Joe C
Dudley, Mrs Seuner	Norman, Mr Fred
Dunham, Miss Susan	Nellis, Mr Abraham
Douglass, Miss Ruth	Opdyke, Mrs N W
Daly, Miss Ellen M	Riek, Mr Chas
Farrington, William	Rose, Mrs David
Fralyn, Miss Sadie	Saunders, Charles W
Fallon, Alfred	Sivindale, Miss M
Falconer, Mrs John	Sumter, Miss Ellie M 2
Freeman, Mr & Mrs Geo	Squires, Mr Theo
Groff, Mr George	Stimley, Mr Josh
Gearhart, Mr Henry	Sutton, Mr H E
Hart, Mr Chas R	Sturges, Mrs Mary
Henderson, Mrs John	Sutton, Miss Margaret
Howley, Mr James	Stanley, Mr Joshnea
Holiway, Miss Sarah	Simonds, Mrs H
Hand, Miss Katie G	Sindgren, Mr Emil
Hand, Miss Meyella	Sank, Mr Chas
Jennings, Mr Thomas M	Trup, Miss En
Kumatat, Mr A	Valley, Mr T J
Kaffen, Miss	VanFelt, Mr Geo
Kinsley, Mr A C	Wheeler, Miss Jessie O
Lawrence, Mrs Benj.	Wanges, Mr J
Long, Mr A E	Woods, Mr Geo C
Lewis, Mr James	Younge, Miss, E E

Please say "Advertised."

Just received an assortment of new style

BOX PAPERS.

Also a full line of the leading Magazines and Weeklies constantly on hand.

Harper's,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

LIPPINCOTT'S
MONTHLY MAGAZINE
A FAMILY LIBRARY
The Best In Current Literature
12 COMPLETE NOVELS YEARLY
MANY SHORT STORIES AND PAPERS ON TIMELY TOPICS
$2.50 PER YEAR; 25 CTS. A COPY
NO CONTINUED STORIES
EVERY NUMBER COMPLETE IN ITSELF

HARRY K. LISTER,
161 North Ave. Opp. Depot.
Bicycles, Sundries, Phonographs and Records.
Edison Gold Moulded Records....35c
Columbia X. P. Records.....25c
Bicycles and Phonographs Repaired.

Cheap Shears—Then Disappointment

Don't buy a cheap shear—it is false economy.

Buy a WISS SHEAR—a fully guaranteed cutting tool—acknowledged the best by cutlery men for more than half a century.

They will out-last any other shear. In many homes the same pair of WISS SHEARS or Scissors has been in use since Grandma was a little girl. We have a full line.—Call and see them.

Note the trade mark.

Campaign Pocket Knives

Like the Candidates,
First-class,
Fully Guaranteed
and all right on the Tariff.

GAYLE HARDWARE CO.,
Front St. and Park Ave.

Come All to the Great Sale.

BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY!

EVERY ARTICLE IN THE STORE IS A BARGAIN.

Our Fall Line of Ladies' Tailor-made Suits and Jackets is up to date. You can't afford to be without one. Now is your chance to buy it at less than one-third of its original cost. Sale continues for nine days more. Don't wait. The early buyers get the biggest bargains.

Boston Cloak and Fur Store
245 West Front Street, Plainfield. Opp. Postoffice

TRY 5 GALLONS
WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER.

Orders by mail promptly filled.
Patent swinging crate, very convenient

Plainfield Spring Water Co
Box 743. Plainfield, N. J.

-:- PUTNAM & DEGRAW -:-

Royal Tooth Powder, can	10c
Royal Talcum Powder, can	10c
Mennen's Talcum Powder, can	18c
Witch Hazel, bottle	10c
Violet Toilet Water, bottle	25c
Lyons' Tooth Powder, can	19c

THE DAILY PRESS.

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

205 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year—in advance. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada. Delivered by carrier or by mail.

THE PRESS has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district. Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office. Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day MUST be in this office by 9 a. m.

WHILE ON YOUR VACATION, DON'T FORGET TO HAVE THE DAILY PRESS MAILED TO YOU, AND IN THIS WAY KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME DOINGS. NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR MAILING, AND ADDRESS CHANGED AS OFTEN AS DESIRED. BEST SERVICE GUARANTEED.....

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 25, 1904.

Judge Parker insists on the gold standard, but Chairman Taggart is not so particular.

An exchange prints a story on "How to live on $6 a week." Undertakers should distribute the formula.

The testimony of the "Outraged Democracy" is not sufficient to send Senator Smith to the political gallows.

That Pine Brook man who was poisoned by liquid from an extinguisher is not the first one to be harmed by fire water.

The Evening News objects to the way the gubernatorial possibilities are being slandered. So do the objects of the attacks.

The "Jim Crow" law is being enforced on the Atlantic City beach and yet the people in this section decry the way the black man is treated down south.

Democrats are wrought up over a dispute as to who is entitled to credit for defeating Abbett. Almost as important at this time as "who killed Billy Patterson."

The first man who reads The World's nine and a half column address on Theodore Roosevelt's "record" is entitled to a share of the Andrew Carnegie hero fund.

Bishop Potter's subway tavern is to be "reformed" by an order prohibiting women from drinking in the establishment. Another great gain for the cause of temperance.

What is politics but buncombe? And the man who shows the most buncombe is the winner—Secretary of State Layton at the Union Republican State convention in Delaware.

What frankness!

Now is the question whether Miss Roosevelt wore a live snake as an ornament going to become an issue of the campaign? Probably the correspondent's vision was made defective by getting too near the punch-bowl.

The man who attempts to write about a thing before he gets a good firm mental grasp of it is a good deal like a fool rider who would commence to whip and spur his horse before he gets hold of the reins and his feet in the stirrups. The wise advertiser makes it a rule to not only understand the article but to understand just why people should be interested in what he has to offer.—Jed Scarboro.

Wanted—Immediately, a Democrat willing to run for Congress. Address, with full particulars as to condition of finances, The Elizabeth Evening Times.

Reward—Information as to where the Fowler people have buried their hatchets will be paid for. Call on John Kean, Ursino.

Lost—"A full dinner pail." Finder will please return to the workingman and receive reward. No questions asked.

For Exchange—A lot of letters expressing confidence for a few notes made at the bureau of engraving and printing. Address, Cortelyou.

Master Frank DeWan, of Grant avenue, has returned from his trip to Atlantic City.

Miss Lydia A. Bates, of Jersey City, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Pangborn, of the borough.

Walter E. Lane, of Somerset street, has left for Philadelphia, where he will spend a few days with friends before continuing his journey to the World's Fair at St. Louis. Mr. Lane plans to spend two weeks en route to the fair, stopping at the more important cities on the way. He will be at the fair until the middle of September.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

George Fosbre, of West Sixth street, will spend his vacation at Asbury Park.

Patrick Kiely, of The Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is riding a new wheel.

George Nichols, of West Sixth street, has resigned his position at The Plainfield Auto Garage.

Thomas Quinn and Clinton Shannon drove to Belmar yesterday. They will spend several weeks at that place.

James Scott, formerly of The Potter Press Company's plant, has signed to play ball with the fast Hudson team, of Kearney.

Lawrence Bray, of Plainfield avenue, has returned to his position at Maher's blacksmith shop after a few days' sickness.

William O'Loughlin, of The Potter Press Company's plant, who was injured in a ball game two weeks ago, is still on the sick list.

James Muldowney, of Pond place, who fell from a building several days ago, is convalescing. There were no bones broken, but one finger was dislocated. He will be able to return to his position in a few days.

Two strikes, affecting 2,000 men, were declared yesterday by the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers against the plants of the Republic Iron and Steel Company on the south side, and the Monongahela Steel and Iron Company, near McKeesport. The refusal of the companies to abide by the association wage agreement is the cause of the strike order.

PERSONAL.

Miss Elizabeth Sheridan, of South Second street, is visiting her grandparents at Somerville.

Mrs. T. A. Garthwaite and daughter, of West Front street, have returned home after a delightful week at Asbury Park.

Miss May McHugh, of New York, who recently completed her education abroad, is the guest of Miss Kathryn O'Brien, of Grant avenue.

Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer has received an invitation from Senator Samuel S. Childs, of Bernardsville, asking him to spend Saturday at that place. The invitation includes the entire Swackhamer family. Senator Childs is the representative from Somerset county; he is the owner of the system of quick lunch restaurants in New York city.

—Have you had any plums this season? Better try some of Neuman Brothers' Damson variety. They have just been received. They are also selling a superior grade of wild grapes.

C. N. B.

An account carried with THE CITY NATIONAL BANK will give you much satisfaction. The Bank is an exceptionally strong one. Its investments are made in accordance with strict business principles, and as liberal interest as is consistent with sound and conservative banking, is paid on satisfactory balances.

C. N. B.

SPECIAL TOWEL SALE.

We have always endeavored to give extra values in Towels. This effort on our part far exceeds all previous ones. These goods are from a great New York City clearance sale and are way below regular prices. They are new goods and in every way desirable. This sale is a towel event of great importance to every prudent housekeeper.

Lot 1—At 10c ea or $1.10 doz—17x33 Full Bleached Hemstitched Huck Towels. Good weight and soft finish.

Lot 2—At 18c ea or 3 for 50—20x38 Full Bleached Huck Towels with all-over damask pattern, border to match and plain hem.

Lot 3—At 15c ea—(No dozen price) 22x42 Hemstitch Towels, full bleached, fine, soft. An unparalleled towel bargain.

Lot 4—At 25c ea or $2.75 doz—25x42 Pure Linen Hemstitch Huck Towels. These towels are actually worth 35c each.

Lot 5—At 25c ea (No dozen price) 22x42 Hemstitched Huck Towels with Damask border. Made of pure linen, they are very sightly and exceedingly durable.

Our Cake Department is now open. With improved facilities we'll be able to serve you better than ever before. Come in and learn the art of cake making—see what elegant cakes we make. Angel Food, Sunshine, Gold, Nut and Layer Cakes are now on sale.

AUGUST FURNITURE SALE

Without a doubt this sale is the greatest money-saving opportunity you've had in a long while. If you don't need the goods now, pay a deposit on them and we will hold them and deliver whenever you say.

SALE OF SIDEBOARDS.

The 10.98 ones, now....9.25
The 11.98 ones, now....9.75
The 12.98 ones, now....10.25
The 14.98 ones, now....12.50
The 18.50 ones, now....14.98
The 19.98 ones, now....16.50
The 21.50 ones, now....18.25
The 24.50 ones, now....19.75
The 26.50 ones, now....22.50
The 29.50 ones, now....24.75

SALE OF BED OUTFITS.

Bed Outfit No. 1—Regular price 8.50, sale price.... 5.98

Bed Outfit No. 2—Regular price 10.50, sale price.... 7.98

Bed Outfit No. 3—Regular price 12.50, sale price.... 9.98

SALE OF MATTRESSES.

Mattresses at 1.98.
Filled with excelsior, with soft tops, fancy striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 2.50.
Cotton top, excelsior filled, with blue and white striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 3.98.
Combination, with cotton top, bottom and sides, one or two parts. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 5.98.
Pure white cotton, full 45 lbs, best grade of ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 6.98.
The Union Felt, made in two parts, full 45 lbs, good quality fancy striped ticking.

Mattresses at 9.50.
The Purity Felt, superior to the best quality hair, made in two parts, full 45 lbs.

Mattresses at 10.98.
The Windsor Felt, equal to any high grade Mattress made, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

Mattresses at 15.50.
Ostermoor patent elastic Felt, best quality ticking, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

SALE OF COUCHES

Reg. 5.00 Couches now....3.48
Reg. 6.50 Couches now....4.25
Reg. 8.00 Couches now....5.98
Reg. 10.00 Couches now....7.75
Reg. 12.50 Couches now....9.25
Reg. 15.00 Couches now....10.98

SALE OF DINING CHAIRS

Lot 1— 1.29 Regular Price $1.50

Lot 2— 1.48 Regular Price $2.00

SALE OF REFRIGERATORS.

No. 51	No. 52	No. 53	No. 54	No. 56	No. 57
6.98	7.98	9.50	10.98	12.98	14.98
Usually 7.98.	Usually 9.75.	Usually 10.98.	Usually 12.75.	Usually 15.75.	Usually 18.50.

WOODHULL & MARTIN.

FREEHOLD AND PLAINFIELD N.J.

Levy Bros'

TWO STORES

BIG ALTERATION SALE

115-117 West Front Street 'Phone 220 Plainfield, N. J.

STORE IS TEEMING WITH BARGAINS.

Ladies' Silk and Covert Cloth Jackets, suitable for Fall. Values 6.00 to 10.00, in two lots, 4.98 and.... 3.98

Wool Dress Goods, values up to 50c, per yard....19c

50c all-Silk Foulards....25c

Lonsdale, Fruit of Loom and other popular brands of 9c and 10c Muslins....7½c

White Parasols, value 2.00, for....98c

More Ladies' Wrappers.... More Muslin Gowns.... Special at.... 29c

More Ginghams at....4½c

More Corset Covers at....7c

More Muslin Drawers (hemstitched) at....15c

Ladies' 12½c Ribbed Vests....7½c

49c Stock Collars....25c

"The President" Suspender, sold everywhere at 50c, for....39c

White Lawn Shirt Waists, formerly 75c and 88c, now....49c

All our 5.00 and 5.98 Voile and Brilliantine Skirts at....3.98

Good Domet Flannel....4½c

Ladies' 15c Black Stockings, 3 prs 25c

Bleached Table Damask....29c

Sheets, ready for use....39c

Twill Dress Satines, medium and dark colors, suitable for school dresses, the unheard of price, yd. 8c

White Pique and fine Cheviot Wash Skirts, were 1.50 and 2.00, for..98c

Wide All Silk Ribbons, No. 80, value 25c, for....12½c

Children's 25c Ribbed Hose, pr..15c

Ladies' Lisle finish Hose, val 25c. 15c

Men's Overalls....39c

Men's Silk Finish Emb. Socks, pr. 9c

Men's Madras Shirts....29c

Proposals.

For Completing the Heating Plant of Fire Headquarters, North Plainfield, N. J.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Borough Clerk, 218 West Front street, until 8 p. m., August 29th, 1904.

For the furnishing of all materials and labor required to complete Heating plant in the new Fire Headquarters on Somerset street, North Plainfield, N. J.

Specifications and full information can be obtained from the architect, Chas. H. Smith, 128 Grove street, North Plainfield, N. J.

The Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Mayor and Council.

FRANK ROWLEY,
Borough Clerk.

8 22 6

USE PRESS WANT ADS

WE GIVE BLUE EXCHANGE STAMPS

I. H. BOEHM

109-111-113 West Front Street.
126 Park Avenue.

AUGUST SALE.

We are offering Special Bargains in all Departments, but lack of newspaper space permits the mentioning of only a few of the many good values we are offering.

7c yd—500 yds of new Dress Ginghams, extra quality and all new patterns, val. 9c and 10c yd.

8c yd—1,000 yds of extra heavy Outing Flannel, all new Fall patterns and good colors, val. 11c yd.

10c yd—500 yds Mercerized Voiles, in pink, old rose and light green, reg. price 25c yd.

12½c yd—Special lot of new White Goods, extra fine quality and very desirable patterns, value 15c and 18c yd.

59c yd—10-4 white and gray Blankets, extra heavy quality, reg. value 75c pair.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

49c—Men's Madras Shirts, all new goods and nice patterns, reg. price 75c and 1.00 each.

49c—Men's sateen working Shirts, in black and white stripes and plain black, value 69c.

49c—Men's black and white Cheviot working Shirts, reinforced back and front, val. 69c ea.

95c—Men's Madras Shirts, extra fine quality Madras and extra well made, reg. sold for 1.25 ea.

25c—Men's working Shirts. We are selling an extra good working Shirt for 25c, in black and white stripes, made of good quality Cheviot, value 39c.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

We are showing our new Fall lines of Ready-to-Wear Felts. We have only the newest and most up-to-date styles, in all colors and prices.

Our assortment of Millinery is the largest and prices the lowest in the city.

We are showing all that is new and up-to-date in Breasts, Pompons, Shapes, etc.

HATS PURCHASED HERE TRIMMED FREE.

Little Talk Is Needed.

Come to

PECK'S.

ESTABLISHED 1888 E. H. CLEVELY. TELEPHONE 398 W

Restaurant and Lunch Rooms.

OYSTERS will start season on Saturday, August 27. For a good Stew or Fry, follow the crowd.

Horton's Brick Cream 40c a quart.
Take home a Brick. Will keep hard one hour.

155, 157, 159 North Avenue, Opposite C. R. R. Depot.
Local Agent For Horton's New York Cream.

Wholesale——Retail.

KIRCH J. PHILIP KIRCH. CIGARS

We are offering as a special inducement during the dull season, short smokes, such as Robt. Burns, Petit Ducs, Hoffman House, Magnums, Telonettes, and all high grade Tobaccos and Turkish Cigarettes at reduced prices—just to liven things up. The latest is to have your Monogram on your Cigarettes. The additional cost is slight.

120 NORTH AVENUE. Phone 487 J.

YOUR EDUCATION HAS BEEN NEGLECTED

If you have not been taught the value of money and the advantage of SYSTEMATIC SAVING.

DO NOT ALLOW YOUR CHILDREN

To reach the age of manhood and womanhood without a little money of their own to help them along.

The PENNIES that they have saved,
The DOLLAR that you will add, (and oftentimes more,)

AND THE

DIME SAVINGS INSTITUTION

will accomplish a good result for them.

Extraordinary Sale of Men's Suits

$12.00 and $15.00 Suits at $6.50.

Talk about your bargains! Why, we've got the trade wild over the offer. They never saw anything like it. You never did either, and you may not again this year. Almost every sort of suit in this lot, including blacks. Do not neglect this offer—$12.00 and $15.00 Suits, special at $6 50.

The greatest Trousers selling of the year and just in time for you to make the old suit last out the season.

$1.50 for $3.00 Trousers.

They are equal to the $3.00 pants you can buy in any store.

$2.00 for $3.50 and $4.00 Trousers.

Very fine dress pants in Worsteds, Cassimeres and Tweeds.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
202-204 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Pants Clearance.

Positively the best values ever offered in Men's and Boys' Pants will be found here during this Clearance Sale. Our usually low prices have been still further reduced, and the result is a genuine surprise to every purchaser.

Men's and Boys' strong working Pants, reduced to.... 75c

Strictly all wool Pants, that will stand washing well, reduced to.... 1.90

Fine fancy worsted Pants, regularly sold for 3.50, reduced to.... 2.50

Finest all wool worsted Pants, equal to any custom made, never sold less than 6.00 reduced to. 4.00

Our reductions in Suits still continue. Same applies to Furnishings, Hats and Shoes.

The Surprise Store

324 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.
REMEMBER THE NUMBER.

THE PRESS is for Sale at—
UNION NEWS CO. . . . . E. R. Station
J. M. HARPER . . . . . 411 Park Ave
S. A. LAIRD . . . . . 140 W. Front St
A. D. HALLIDAY . Fourth and Liberty Sts
TROLLEY WAITING ROOM . . Watchung Ave
M. ESTIL . . . . . 111 Park Ave
W. E. MATTISON . . . . . 85 Somerset St
GEO. SCRIBNER . . . . . 331 Watchung Ave
J. HATFIELD . . . . . 318 Watchung Ave

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from any of the following agents for 1c a week.
DUNELLEN . . . . . Wm. Giddes
" . . . . . George Vliet
NEW MARKET . . . . . Herbert Dunham
SOUND BROOK . . . Union News Company
SOMERVILLE . . . . . John Cornett
WESTFIELD . . . C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
SCOTCH PLAINS . . . . . Chas. Elliott
SOUTH PLAINFIELD . . . . . Walton Smith
CLINTON AVENUE. Mrs. Meader, John Ryan
FANWOOD . . . . . Chas. Elliott
BETHERWOOD. L. Undal, J. Riley, T. Leacock
THE PRESS is also on sale at station.)

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The Levering & Garrigues' shops at West Dunellen, opened this week, after a shut down of several weeks with a force of about 140 men. The firm has plenty of work and enough orders to last to New Year's. On Monday a large contract was received. This is welcome news to all who have been thrown out of work so long.

The Black Diamond Express took one minute to make a little more than two miles, yesterday from the coal heaps, South Plainfield, to the signal box at the gate tower, New Market. This may seem incredible to some, but the tower man says he recorded the time with his watch—just 60 seconds.

Prayer meeting was held in both the local churches last evening. At the Methodist church, George Schenck led the services in the absence of the pastor, who is spending the week at the Ocean Grove camp meeting.

M. C. Worley has resigned as chief engineer of Levering & Garrigues' works, and has accepted a similar position with the American Engine Company, of Bound Brook.

Thomas Todd is minus a pair of overalls which some laboring "hobo" appropriated from the Lincoln chamois factory, where Mr. Todd has been working the last few days.

Mr and Mrs. Charles Rogers and the former's mother, spent Monday at Boynton Beach. The day was Mr. Rogers' birthday, which was well remembered by his friends.

Louis Block, William Demker, William Schenck and Joseph Egany have accepted positions this week as conductors on the Public Service Corporation trolley lines.

Alexander Rogers pulled up a bass Tuesday, which he claims takes the record for South Plainfield this year. Unfortunately, the fish escaped from the fisherman's hook.

The farm stock and implements of Calvin Drake were sold at auction yesterday afternoon at 2:30. He intends to move to Stelton and cease farming.

The Vail-Alberts refreshment store, which has lately been placed at the trolley terminus, next to Dr. Brakeley's store, is doing a good business.

New Market lake, on account of the fine weather, has been the scene of a good many boating parties lately.

A number of boroughites are spending today on the New Jersey Central's excursion to West Point.

John and Walter Nelson are working this summer on a farm near New Market.

Miss Ethel Case, of Phillipsburg, is visiting Miss Edna Vail, of North avenue.

A party of boroughites took in the attractions of Riverside Park last evening.

Miss Stella Kick returned yesterday from a visit with friends in Annandale.

Percy Abbott spent yesterday visiting friends in Somerville.

Abner Coriell is out of town on his vacation.

Any Rheumatic Pains?

Rheumatism is a most painful and annoying malady. Why let it get a hold on your system?

Randolph's Special Rheumatic Tablets

effect a speedy cure for rheumatism, muscular rheumatism and gout. They are effervescent—not unpleasant to take.

If you've ever been attacked by the acute pains of rheumatism, you know what suffering is. Why be crippled by it—incapacitated for business and enjoy no pleasure? Why suffer longer? Get a bottle of these tablets.

Price 35c a Bottle.

Agency for Huyler's Candies.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
The City Pharmacy,
143 W. Front St.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Since the roads between Plainfield and Springfield have been in such good condition, the thoroughfare known as the Springfield road has become the favorite track for automobilists. Innumerable machines pass through the village daily, many on extended tours, who find the Springfield road more suitable to their tastes than the county road. The majority of the autos, however, are out for pleasure and are run by the owners. It is needless to say that if professional chauffeurs will at times have accidents which result fatally, there is a great deal of danger when reckless amateur autoists speed through the village as they do. Only a short time ago, a group of children were playing in the road in front of the hotel when a large touring car swooped down upon them from around the corner and narrowly escaped running them down. There are a great many children in the neighborhood of the hotel, and it is not always convenient for parents to continually watch them. It is to be hoped that those who have been in the habit of speeding recklessly through the village will discontinue the practice before some fatal accident occurs.

Clifford Smith, of this village, who captained the baseball team which played the local team Saturday afternoon, is very desirous that a return game be played. He was much disappointed when the next open date was closed with the Colored Giants' team. Mr. Smith has every confidence in the ability of his aggregation to win in another game, as he well might. With a little more practice the O. F. C. could develope into a fast baseball team. All of the players have had a good deal of experience at the game, though they have not been playing recently. Several of the players figured on the Plainfield High School team in its most prosperous days, while others have played the game with the borough team. It is worth the while of the local team to arrange another game with the Orange Field Club, as it would be no small honor to defeat them when in good form.

The local baseball team showed clearly by their game last Saturday that they need practice together and lots of it. Individually the players are nearly all good, but they do not play well together. When three men all go for the same ball, it's time some team work was employed. Let the team get out and practice hard every chance they get and Scotch Plains will not have a bad representation on the diamond by a long shot.

John Radin, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Radin, of the village, was buried in the local cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral was held from the home of his parents. Rev. G. M. Shott officiated.

George Randolph, who is in the employ of the Central Railroad, has begun to enjoy his vacation. He will probably be out of town for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, who have recently returned from Europe, report that they had a very pleasant voyage, both going and on the return.

Charles Layton entered upon his duties last night as nurse for Mr. John Thys, who is confined to his home by illness.

William McNear is painting his house. He expects to do all the work himself.

Roy Day has been visiting friends in Asbury Park today.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Dr. W. J. Nelson is planning a change of climate for his health. He will leave this week, probably for Mt. Pocono, Pa., and if he finds it necessary, he may go later to California. Dr. W. Kempton Browning will take charge of his practice.

Mrs. L. C. Meeker is entertaining her sister, Miss Augusta Acken and her mother, Mrs. Acken, of Metuchen.

Mrs. W. E. Smith returned home yesterday after a month's visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Miss Gladys Thorne spent yesterday visiting Miss Edith Ayers, of Westervelt avenue, Plainfield.

Mrs. Oscar Thorne is entertaining relatives from Flemington.

W. B. Manning is resting comfortably at his home.

$8.00 to Niagara Fall and Return Via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Grand Labor Day excursion. Tickets on sale September 2 and 3, good returning until September 5, inclusive. A trip of four days to the famous Cataract at minimum cost. Side trip tickets to Toronto and Alexandria Bay on sale at Niagara Falls, at low fares, to holders of excursion tickets. Ask city agent, 218 Front street, for further particulars. 8 19 11

Twelve for Naturalization.

The naturalization committee from this city visited the county clerk's office at Elizabeth last evening with a delegation of foreigners from this city. Twelve men were naturalized, papers being duly drawn up by County Clerk Howard. The Plainfielders took the 7:08 train from here and returned late in the evening.

BUTTER

THE KIND THAT ALWAYS PLEASES.

Rockdale Print, lb - - 25c
Rockdale Creamery Butter, lb 24c
Elgin Creamery Butter, lb - 23c

The quality of this butter is unsurpassed by any in the State.

Neuman Bros
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St.

Straw Hats, Negligee Shirts Fancy Socks
J. R. BLAIR
205 Park Avenue
Summer Underwear etc., etc.

SILK UNDERWEAR AT $2.00 PER SUIT

HORSE RACES AT SOMERVILLE

TOM BRANTINGHAM'S "LAWYER" WINS ONE EVENT.

The speedway at Somerville was crowded yesterday with horsemen from all parts of the country, including several local enthusiasts. There were eight races during the afternoon, which were skillfully managed by Louis Bellis, of Somerville.

Several Plainfield horses were entered in the races, and from the number, Tom Brantingham's "Lawyer" won his race, and Dr. Albert Giddis' bay mare, "Bridget," driven by Tom Brantingham, was also a winner. David O. Smalley was one of the judges.

There are many local horsemen who are interested in the Somerville speedway, who would be in favor of having a speedway in this city. Considering the fact that there are so many men interested in horses in the vicinity, there is no doubt that a speedway here would pay. In all probability further measures will be taken toward securing a speedway for Plainfield before another season.

To Renew Bank's Charter.

The charter of the National Bank of New Jersey, of New Brunswick, which has a life of twenty years from Nov. 21, 1884, will expire on Nov. 21 of this year. The board of directors has issued circulars to the stockholders asking their consent to the renewal of the charter, a formal procedure. The National Bank of New Jersey was organized in 1854 as the Bank of New Jersey. In 1864 it was chartered as the First National Bank of New Brunswick, and in 1884 was chartered again as the National Bank of New Jersey.

—Neuman Brothers' peach supply is excellent. It's the same old story. You can't beat their Delaware peaches. There are a few baskets left.

Use Press Want Ads

Last Salt Water Day
(for White People)
AT BOYNTON BEACH
Saturday, August 27.
Special trains from Long Branch and Newark.

AUCTIONEER LATOURETTE says he had tender perspiring feet since childhood . .
Thorp's Foot Relief
cured them. Ask him about it. 50c per bottle. All druggists.

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER.
JAMES BRONIS, Agent.
Olivers rented. Other makes repaired.
A postal to P. O. Box 761 brings Bronis. 8 4 1m

DR. JOS. E. WRIGHT,
EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE.
Office, Woodhull & Martin Bldg
Hours Tues., Thurs. and Sat.
2-5 p. m., and by appointment.

DR. E. B. STOWE,
Graduate Chiropodist,
For Gentlemen and Ladies. Babcock Building.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m., 1 to 6 p. m.
Telephone 367 w. All Instruments Sterilized

DR. FRED HEINECKE
...GRADUATE CHIROPODIST...
For Ladies and Gentlemen.
Woodhull & Martin Building.
Also Manicuring by Mrs. Heinecke.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 6 p. m.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street, opposite First Baptist church.

Townsend's Granite Works
Fourth and Richmond Sts.
Tel. Call 2274. Westfield Trolley Passes My Office

T. A. MOORE,
Undertaker and Embalmer,
OFFICE 308 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
RESIDENCE 303 LaGRANDE AVENUE.
Tel. 461 j. Office open day and night.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
120 W. Second St. Telephone 152.
Office open Day and Night.

ESTABLISHED 1872.
P. CASEY & SON,
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS.
Office: 16 Park Ave Tel. 1062
Residence: 417 W. Third St.
Office open Day and Night

DIED.

GALBRAITH — Suddenly, in this city, August 24, 1904, Peter Galbraith, in his 60th year.

Funeral from his late residence, 524 West Fourth street, Saturday, August 27, at 8:30 a. m. and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m., where a requeiem mass will be offered for the repose of his soul. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. Please omit flowers. 8 26 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

Advertisements under this head one cent per word for first insertion and half a cent per word for each additional insertion. No advertisement received for less than ten cents.

☞ Please be sure and mention that you saw the advertisement in The Daily Press.

RAFFIA hats made to order. No. 70 Franklin avenue. 8 25 2

FOR RENT—At bargain, on Webster place, new house, 8 rooms and bath; up-to-date little gem; electric lights and all improvements. Inquire 809 Kensington avenue. 8 25 3

WANTED—Room in private house for storage van load furniture. Address with price by year, Storage, Daily Press. 8 25 3

WANTED—A lady, (familiar with face massage,) to use Benna tonic in her business. Full particulars Woman's Exchange. 8 25 3

WANTED—Good woman to wait upon elderly lady; must have good references. 815 Park Ave. 8 25 2

$15 Buys very fine rosewood piano; big bargain. 315 West Front. 8 25 3

LARGE furnished rooms to let; reasonable. 127 North Ave. 8 25 6

BARGAIN — International Cyclopedia, 20 volumes; cost $66, sell less than ½ cost. Address Cyclopedia, care Press 8 25 3

WANTED—A respectable man as driver. Apply Frank Linke.

WANTED—By young married couple, furnished room, with board if possible; private family preferred. Address F. D., care Press.

TO LET—Seven-room house. Inquire 103 Grandview Ave. 8 25 3

WANTED—White cook and laundress to help with housework. Call, with references, 510 West Seventh street.

SIX room house to let, 645 East Sixth street. Apply Chas. H Hand. 8 25 2

MIDDLE-AGED lady wants room and board in private family; reasonable terms. Address Home, care Press.

GOOD cook wants situation, country preferred; understands making butter. Call 517 West Sixth street.

MILKMEN wishing to sell their routes, call 397 Watchung Ave.

IF you have any real estate, for sale, exchange, or to let; send or bring full particulars to Charles L. Moffett, No. 209 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 tf

ALWAYS have list of desirable properties for sale or rent; fire, life, burglar and accident insurance; first mortgage loans. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

CROCHET baby sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. 4 6 tf

WANTED—A $8,500 house centrally located; East Second street preferred; also have a cash customer for a $1,400 house. Abbott & Manning, 168 North avenue. 5 13 tf

FOR SALE—Choice building lots on West End and Rockview avenues at reasonable prices; best location in North Plainfield; short distance from Grant Avenue station and trolley; 50x170; restricted from $1,800 houses up. Call or address P. S. Browne, 109 Park avenue. 7 11 tf

FARMS for sale; real estate and insurance. Wm. H. Rogers, Plainfield, N. J. tf

TO LET—Eight-room flat over Powers drug store. Inquire Alex. Thorn, 87 Somerset street. 1 12 tf

LOTS at great bargain; plot 150x150 feet on Watchung avenue; $8 per foot. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

BARN TO LET on East Second street, near Watchung Ave. Apply at the Daily Press office. 6 7 tf

BIRDS, dogs, cats boarded week or month. Bird store, 48 Somerset street. 8 11 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 323 W. Front St. 5 10 tf

WANTED—Second-hand piano; must be in good condition. Address O. N. A., care Press, stating price and name of make. 8 17 12

CELERY plants for sale; choice varieties. Thos. Mair, 20 Leland avenue, North Plainfield. 8 13 tf

WANTED—An experienced white cook. 1208 Watchung avenue. 8 17 tf

NEWLY decorated rooms with strictly first-class table; also table board. 1121 Putnam avenue. 7 30 1m

$1,500 to loan on first mortgage, improved city or borough property. Geo. F. Brown, 94 Somerset street. 5 27 tf

FOR SALE—A complete collection of foreign and American stamps; will sell as an entire collection or in lots to suit purchaser. Address Stamp, care Press. 8 9 tf

FIRST-class help at H. Briske's Intelligence office, 409 Watchung avenue. 8 22 6

WANTED—$3,500 on first mortgage, at 5 per cent. Address J. F., care Press. 8 22 4

FOR SALE — Farm near Fanwood depot; over twenty acres; would make fine poultry farm; easy terms. Charles L. Moffett, Attorney, 209 North avenue. 8 23 tf

FRESH cow for sale, an extraordinary good one. Address Oscar W. Fingerhut, Gillette, N. J. 8 23 3

A FINE four-year-old thoroughbred broken to harness and saddle, also a two wheeled Brewster cart and gentleman's riding saddle for sale, cheap. Address O. S. T., postoffice box 741, Plainfield, N. J. 8 22-23-26

TO RENT—Furnished or unfurnished, residence of Mrs. James H. Hallock, situated at 965 Madison avenue For particulars apply 424 West Eighth street. 8 23 4

FOR SALE—Lot corner Leland and Midway avenues, 68x171; price $350 on easy monthly payments. Enquire 603 Park avenue. 8 23 tf

HAVE client who desires to buy an 8 room house, with or without improvements; in the borough; on very easy terms; excellent party. William Jeffery, 321 Park avenue. 8 8 tf

WANTED TO RENT—Small house with furnace and all improvements; within 10 minutes' walk of station Address Adults, care Press. 8 24 2

WANTED—Improved or unimproved property in or near Pittsburg, Pa., in exchange for a nice residence in Netherwood; house is modern in every respect with plenty of land, shade and fruit. Currier Bros., 119 West Front street. 8 23 tf

NEW Century Typewriter for sale; bargain; practically new; $60. 145 East Fifth street. 8 23 3

TO LET—Eight-room house, all improvements, with barn. Inquire Mrs. Kenyon, 819 College place. 8 23 5

WANTED—Young man to assist in office; give references, wages, experience. Address Box X, Press office. 8 23 3

WANTED—Man to run gas engine and oil machinery; give wages, reference. Address Steady, care Press. 8 23 3

WANTED—A first-class cook and laundress, also chambermaid and waitress. 964 West Seventh street. 8 24 2

RICH pasture lands for horses and cows. David Hand, Netherwood. 8 24 2

GIRL wanted for general housework; German or Swede preferred. 983 Hillside Ave.

TO LET—Two or three furnished or unfurnished rooms; man and wife pref'erred. Address Furnished, care Press. 8 24 3

TO LET—First floor of new house, corner Fifth street and Stanley place; five rooms; water in kitchen; rent $10 Apply Adam Young, 815 South Second street. 8 24 6

FOR SALE—Road horse; light built; young, sound and kind; price $135. Address P. O. Box 206, Plainfield. 8 24 3

WANTED—Three more students to complete a class in Spanish. German and French taught also. Address P. O. Box 280. 8 24 2

Hill & Shupp
Store News
Thursday and Friday
93c Sale of Muslinwear
CONTINUES FOR TWO DAYS MORE THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, AUG. 25-26.

A New Purchase of Garments will be added Thursday Morning, and every garment offered will be regular $1.25 value. GOWNS, CHEMISE, SKIRTS, CORSET COVERS, DRAWERS and the NEW "MARGUERITE" CORSET COVER CHEMISE.

Wash Goods—We will also sell Thursday and Friday—an entire line 15c and 12½c Wash Goods 9½c

This lot will include many desirable goods for Children's School Dresses, Boys' Waists, etc.

Housefurnishing Summer Goods at Cut Prices

Oil Stoves.
39c . . . . . from 59c
89c . . . . . from 1.10
1.47 . . . . . from 1.65
and larger Stoves at same reduction.

Ice Cream Freezers.
1.98 . . . . . from 2.69

Lawn Mowers.
2.69 . . . . . from 3.25

Refrigerators.
9.98 . . . . . from 10.98
10.26 . . . . . from 11.39

Porch Rockers.
79c . . . . . from 1.12
1.39 . . . . . from 1.75

Screen Doors.
79c . . . . . from 98c
98c . . . . . from 1.25

Watch Friday Store News for details of our 39c Sale.

This sale will include goods that actually represent two or three times the price in value.

GENUINE
Oil Paintings
2 for 25c.

At considerable expense we have secured the services of Prof. Steenstra, the Lightning Brush Artist, who will work in one of our show windows for a limited time. He carries the work along on three separate pictures at the same time, and finishes them all within 5 minutes. Don't fail to see the Professor work and secure some of these Oil Paintings while they can be had at this price, 2 for 25c

FOR SALE CHEAP—7-room house, new; lot 40 feet front; flagged and curbed; terms to suit. W. H. Abbott, North avenue. 8 14 tf

FOR SALE—1083 feet front on Park avenue at Oak Tree Station, Lehigh railroad, $3 per foot; get after it quick if you want to make money. F. M. Bacon, 103 North avenue. 6 1 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence Office, 23 Somerset place. 5 4 tf

SIX-ROOM flat, with improvements. Call 30 Somerset place. 5 6 tf

HORSE WANTED — Suitable for family use; must be sound, kind and fearless. Address, stating price, Horse, care Press. 8 23 6

THIS highest cash price paid for household goods, furniture, etc. Fred W. Hand, Auctioneer, 136 East Second St. 'Phone 1722. 4 25 tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room, central location, airy and cool; terms moderate. Address Moderate, Press office. 7 20 tf

FOR SALE—Milburn wagon with spiral springs; good as new. Belleview avenue nursery, off Park avenue. 8 23 tf

TO LET—6 rooms; apartment house; rent $10. Inquire on premises, cor. Williver and View avenues, opposite Safe Works. 8 23 6

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board, at 219 East Fifth street. 8 22 1m

THERE are people if they could sleep well would find it easy to make the price of a farm in a year in their business. Whoever is willing to make the effort, will locate them on a good farm; healthy location; commutation distance N. Y.; moderate price. Ira L. LaRue, Coward building. 8 19 tf

FOR SALE—Properties from $1,600 to $17,000 to close estate, all in fine condition and good paying investments, and other properties for sale and rent; insurance placed in best companies; also several good lots for sale very reasonable. Mulford's real estate office, opposite depot. 7 15 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, 209 North avenue. tf

THE WALDORF
132-134 Crescent Ave., Plainfield, N.J.
Desirable rooms with board, all conveniences, refined surroundings, superior table, excellent service, transient and table guests accommodated. Summer season, United States Hotel, Ocean Grove, N. J. E. V. and A. L. Waldorf.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
August 17, September 2, October 4—St. Louis Exposition.
These are all ten-day parties.
Office: 181 North Avenue, Plainfield

EDUCATIONAL.

Mr. Leal's School For Boys.
1882—1904
Has sent boys to College every year for twenty-two years.
Average number in recent graduating classes is ten.
Boys have entered sixteen different Colleges, but the great majority have gone to Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Columbia.
Next school year begins on Tuesday, September 13th.
JOHN LEAL,
Principal.

Cedarcroft School
For Boys
Opens September 14th.
For information apply to
R. M. HUSE, Principal,
8 15 1m 1003 Park Ave., Plainfield.

Plainfield Seminary
will re-open
Thursday, Sept. 15, 1904.
Thirty-seventh Year.
Principals { MISS KENYON / MISS ARNOLD

Plainfield Business College
Opens September 1

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION.
Miss Emerson, pupil of Prof. Markees, Berlin, Germany. Fall term begins Sept. 9. Babcock Building, Studio 305. For particulars address Carnegie Hall, 874, New York.

Use Press Want Ads

SPORTS AND ATHLETICS

Miss May Sutton, the remarkable young tennis player who holds the Pacific coast and national championship titles, has acquired the title of western champion at the recent tournament at Chicago. After easily winning her way to the finals, she obtained the title by default, as the former holder, Miss Myrtle McAteer, of Pittsburg, was prevented by illness from defending it. Although only 17 years of age, Miss Sutton is a remarkable player. She has all the characteristics of a man in her play, and hits the ball even better than did Miss Pound, a former western champion, noted for her strong strokes, but instead of throwing the force and weight of her whole body into the stroke, as Miss Pound did, Miss Sutton uses only the swing of her arm to give the ball momentum In this way she never loses control of her foot-work and is always to be found wherever the ball is. Her ability to follow the ball around and get set in the right place to return it, is the best feature to her playing, critics declare. She is always ready to meet the ball and she generally gets in position with very little effort. Her drives are strong and decidedly accurate, and it is seldom that she makes a "double." At the net she has developed a phenomenal smash, which she uses with manlike strength. All of her strokes are as strong as most men players'. In comparison with her rivals, she far outshines them in the strength of her strokes. She is much stronger physically. Though decidedly fast on her feet and a quick thinker, Miss Sutton is a calm, cool, deliberate and steady player throughout. Miss Sutton does not wear spiked shoes, as is customary among all the other players in the west. Instead, she plays in common, every-day, rubber-soled tennis slippers. She says she has always been used to them and that she likes them far better than the spiked shoes. Tennis is Miss Sutton's favorite sport. She is, however, an excellent golf player, proficient in basketball and a good swimmer. She is, in fact, one of the best all-around woman athletes in the country. This is her sixth year at tennis. She began playng when she was 11 years old. Her improvement was so rapid in this one season, however, that she induced her parents to permit her to enter tournament competition the following year. She won match after match and finally the championship of the Pacific coast. Since then her game has become better year after year. She is to-day without a peer in the country among the women players.

Miss May Sutton.

A. H. Parker, of Bedford, Mass., who recently paid $32,000 for Bingen, 2:06¼, one of the most sensational racing and breeding stallions of the age, invested a larger sum in one piece of horseflesh than anyone had done in 12 years. Bingen will head the stud of what promises to rank with the greatest stock farms of the United States This splendid horse is 11 years old, and he was bred at Lexington, Ky. In New England he is regarded as one of the greatest speed sires in the world. Only two or three times in the history of horse breeding has a trotting sire brought as much as Bingen under the hammer. In 1889 the young stallion Bell Boy, 2:19¼, was sold at Lexington, Ky., for $51,000, and shortly afterward Anteeo, 2:16¼, brought $55,000 at the same place, but there were doubts about the genuineness of the latter transaction. E. H. Harriman paid $41,000 for Stamboul at the closing-out sale of W. S. Hobart's stud in 1892, since when the price paid by A. H. Parker for Bingen has not been approached at public sale.

A. H. Parker.

Matt Storm, well known throughout the United States as a horse trainer and owner of thoroughbreds, died at San Francisco the other day, aged 50 years.

John J. Flanagan, of the Greater New York Irish Athletic association, heaved the 16-pound hammer a distance of 173 feet the other day, beating his own previous best of 171 feet nine inches.

Judge Hazen, of the Kansas district court, has decided that Sunday baseball can be played in oTpeka. One of the Missouri Valley league players had been arrested on the charge of playing Sunday ball. The court held that the Kansas laws did not name baseball as a Sunday offense.

Two new bicycle records have been established on the Salt Lake City saucer track by W. E. Samuelson, of Utah, professional, and E. B. Heagren, of California, amateur. Samuelson rode ten miles in a competition race from scratch in 21:29 3-5, lowering the record held by W. A. Vaughn by nine seconds. Heagren established a new amateur record for a two-mile competition race, riding the distance in 4:06 2-5, or 6 2-5 seconds under the former record.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Aug. 28: "Church Benevolences."—II Cor. ix, 6-9.—The Hardest Task of Paul.

The contribution box is one of the surest tests of religion that we have. It reveals a Judas and develops a Paul. It works as well now as it ever did. It is a sifter and sorter of men. It sizes them up very accurately.

More than this, it is one of the best means of cultivating piety. Its capacity for good is not measured altogether by its dimensions in inches or by the amount of the collection in dollars and cents.

The cash given has value in its power to relieve the physical needs of people and to provide material things. Its worth should be recognized at the full valuation, but we need to be careful not to overestimate it.

That of most value in all giving is not the amount of the cash contributed—this is too often lost sight of. In the anxiety to get dollars we are apt to forget the more important part of the giving, which is the cultivation of an interest in the needy person and of a desire to give of our good things to those who have less than we.

It is worth while to study this lesson a little more carefully than usual and find the estimate Paul places on Christian giving.

He says that the contributions the churches of the gentiles were sending to the church at Jerusalem would supply the wants of the poor in the mother church, but would also do much more than that. It would prove to the Jewish Christians that the Grecians were truly converted to Christ and would make them glad at this unexpected evidence of the mercies of God.

The hardest task of Paul's life was not to get the heathen to believe the gospel, nor to get them to live consistent and pure lives. All this was difficult enough, but the work which taxed to the utmost all his powers of argument and persuasion was to get the Jewish believers in Jesus to understand that a heathen could become a Christian without first becoming a Jew. This collection taken in all the churches of Macedonia and Greece would prove to the Jerusalem Christians that the love of Christ had got a hold on the gentiles to make them give so liberally for the needs of people they had never seen and in whom they had no conceivable interest except as Christians.

This would serve to correct the false notions and narrowness of the Jewish branch of the church, would enlarge their ideas as to God's purpose in the gospel and lead them to take an interest in the spread of the truth among the heathen, arouse them to pray and work for this end instead of despising gentiles as cursed of God.

The gift would also be the means of awakening in the givers the true spirit of fellowship and break down the caste feeling which has ever been one of the worst hindrances to all human progress. Charity would replace enmity and jealousy.

This has ever been and must ever be the chiefest worth of all offerings. The giving fosters good fellowship, awakens prayerful interest in the progress of God's purposes and leads directly to consecration of self to the service of God. It kills bigotry and gives birth to charity.

Useless Forebodings.

What a vast portion of our lives is spent in anxious and useless forebodings concerning the future, either our own or that of our dear ones! Present joys, present blessings slip by and we miss half their sweet flavor, and all for want of faith in Him who provides for the tiniest insect in the sunbeam. Oh, when shall we learn the sweet trust of God our little children teach us every day by their confiding faith in us? We who are so mutable, so faulty, so irritable, so unjust, and He, who is so watchful, so pitiful, so loving, so forgiving! Why cannot we, slipping our hand into His each day, walk trustingly over that day's appointed path, thorny or flowery, crooked or straight, knowing that evening will bring us sleep, peace and home?—Phillips Brooks.

Those We Condemn the Most.

Self protection may be carried to an unwarrantable extent. We have no right to injure others if we can possibly avoid it. The rightness of our position seems to justify us in doing those things which would bring untold suffering to innocent people, but the infliction of punishment ought in every case to be tempered with charitableness and calm judgment. Those we condemn the most may, if we knew all the facts, be more sinned against than sinning.—Philadelphia Methodist.

The Sinews of Goodness.

The sinews of goodness are courage, moral and physical—a fact which places all really good men and women beyond the reach of ridicule and above the high water mark of contempt.—F. Marion Crawford.

The Bloom and the Light.

Back of the gloom—
The bloom!
Back of the strife—
Sweet life
And flowering meadows that glow and gleam,
Where the winds sing joy and the daisies dream,
And the sunbeams color the quickening clod
And faith in the future and trust in God.
Back of the gloom—
The bloom!

Fronting the night—
The light!
Under the snows—
The rose!
And the vales sing joy to the misty hills,
And the wild winds ripple it down the rills,
And the far stars answer the song that swells
With all the music of all the bells!
Fronting the night—
The light!

—Frank L. Stanton

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

Linden Lodge, Linden, N. J.
87 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
Prudential Building, Newark, N. J.
768 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.
10 West 23d Street, New York City.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

CESSPOOLS AND GARBAGE.

MRS. JOHN BROWN

Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
From $3.00 Upwards.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North Avenue. Postoffice box 718

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

GARBAGE REMOVED

Walter M. Ingraham.
TERMS MODERATE.
Address P. O. Box 635, City

Best Lehigh COAL.

Order now and save money.

KEELY COAL CO.

725 South Ave. Telephone 162.

CHAS. E. VAIL,

103 PARK AVENUE,

Watches, Jewelry and Silverware.
Repairing in all its branches.
EYES EXAMINED FREE.

HERMAN HANSEN,

CARPENTER AND BUILDER,

Estimates Furnished.

269 Watchung Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Tel. 454 R.

Plainfield Window Cleaning Co

Floors Oiled and Polished.
Furniture Packed for Shipping.

General House Cleaning a Specialty.

Frank DeHart, 402 E. Third St.
Wm. A. Kline, 611 W Third St.

TITUS H. LAURY,

Mason and Builder,

Office, 323 E. Front St.

Tile Setting, Mantel & Front work

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd.

STOCK HAS Got To Go!

This "Midsummer Sale" means business, straight to the core! Every price is cut so low it commands notice and wins sales!

Lowest Prices, below all OTHERS' prices—terms easier than any others give—privilege of reserving goods 'til later and paying when you can!! Cash does more for you here than 'twill do at any OTHER store!!

$4.98 for $7 Golden Oak Desks.

$4.89 for $6.50 Oak Chiffoniers.

$14.98 for $20 Golden Oak Bed Suits.

$3.69 for $5 Reed Rockers.

CARPETS.
Ingrains, 35c Yd.
Brussels, 52c Yd.
Moquettes, 98c Yd.

$6.25 for $8.50 Velour Couches.

$7.98 for $12.00 Oak Extension Tables.

All the Refrigerators and Ice Chests at a big, liberal price cut.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

Be sure you see "No. 73" and first name "AMOS" before entering our store.

ACCOUNTS OPENED—EASY PAYMENTS

73 MARKET ST., NEWARK, N. J.
Near Plane St., West of Broad St.
All trolleys transfer to our door.

HENRY MEHRTENS,

The Manufacturing Confectioner.

Pure Home-made Candies, Chocolates and Bon Bons fresh daily. Cold Drinks of all kinds. Crushed Fruits. Ice Cream and Water Ices.

Orders delivered promptly.

Telephone. 131 East Front St.

JOHN J. LEAHY,

PLUMBING AND HEATING.

Sewer and Water Connections.

First-Class Work at Reasonable Figures.

302 Richmond St., near Third.

M. ARMSTRONG,

Plumbing and Tinning.

330 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

TELEPHONE 232.

McCULLOUGH'S

STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield, N. J.

R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

A. H. ENANDER,

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for Sewer Connections.

210 Park Avenue.

Allen B. Laing,

Electrician —

Tel. 333-J. 134 North Ave.

WILLIAM H. POPE,

ELECTRICIAN.

All kinds of Electrical work done at reasonable prices.

116 North Avenue.

LIEFKE & LAING,

Insurance and Real Estate

No. 146 Park Avenue.

Real Estate Appraised. Properties Sold and Rented. Loans Negotiated.

TenEyck & Harris,

—DEALERS IN—

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Office 121 Watchung Avenue. Branch Office Frank Rowley's Drug Store, 216 W. Front st. TELEPHONE 26-F.

PRESS WANT ADS PAY

William Hand & Son

MOVING VANS and STORAGE WAREHOUSE for Furniture, Pianos, etc.

136 E. 2nd St., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1722.

TRUCKMEN AND RIGGERS.

All work will receive prompt attention.

W. W. WARNOCK,

THE BAKER,

144 West Front St.,

COMPTON'S OLD STAND.

Bread, Cakes, Pies, Etc.

Made of the best Materials.

Early Morning Delivery.

ICE CREAM A SPECIALTY.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Avenue.

William D. Thickstun, John P. Emmons.
Telephone 601.

JOHN JOHNSTON.

All the best grades of

COAL.

929 South Ave. 'Phone 193.

ALEX. LUSARDI.

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.

211 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

E. B. MAYNARD.

New Shop, New Furniture, Best Service.

Tonsorial Artist.

Also choice Cigars.

141 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Expressman and Truckman.

All kinds of Express and Trucking business promptly attended to.

Leave your orders at store of Joseph Battels, Pianos and Organs, No. 108 North Avenue, and the same will receive immediate attention.

TRY

DOBBINS'

NICKEL YARA CIGARS.

228 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Aug. 28.

Topic.—National missionary heroes.—Heb. xi, 32-40.

In the sense in which we use the word missionary today it requires a considerable stretch of the imagination to look upon Barak, Samson, Jephtha or even David and Samuel as missionaries. They were great national heroes, but they never carried the truth of God to foreign peoples. And yet they did stand for God and for the truth of God as against the errors of the nations around about them, and the prophets at least proclaimed the truth of God in such a way as to include in God's gracious mercy even the gentiles, for Isaiah saith, "For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth."

Moreover, these ancient worthies of Israel possessed the traits of all workers for God, whether it be mission work at home or abroad.

1. Israel's national heroes were men of faith. They believed in God and based their lives upon their faith in God. They were men "who through faith" performed the deeds attributed to them. Missionary heroes must have faith. They must believe in God and believe that others need to know Him and believe in Him in order to be saved. No half hearted faith will suffice for a missionary, nor will any compromising faith be sufficient for him. He cannot believe that all faiths are equally good if men are sincere. He must believe that his God is the only true God and that those who are without Him are without God.

2. Israel's national heroes were men of consecration. Service was the keynote of their lives. They "subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises," etc. They were men of deeds. Zeal for God's house and work possessed them. Consecration is also a necessary qualification for a successful missionary. A lazy man would certainly be a misfit on a mission field. Indefatigable workers are needed here, and in all our missionary efforts we must put forth zeal and energy. A lifeless missionary Endeavorer and missionary committee will never win any stars for their crown.

3. Israel's national heroes were men of self denial. Through self sacrifice and suffering they sustained and carried forward God's work. They were mocked, scourged, bound, imprisoned, stoned, sawn asunder, slain with the sword and driven into exile. Here is the heroic missionary spirit. Have we got it? Do we deny ourselves for the spread of Christ's kingdom? He gave His life for us. What are we giving for Him?

BIBLE READINGS.

Judg. iv, 1-9; vi, 33-40; xiii, 24, 25; I Sam. i, 24-28; xii, 18-25; Isa. vi, 1-8; John iii, 1-10; Matt. x, 1-8; Luke x, 1-9; Acts xiii, 1-5; II Cor. xi, 23-33.

An Opinion From the Transvaal.

One of the students who are pursuing the Christian Endeavor course of the correspondence school is Mr. David N. Robertson of Langlaagte, in the faraway Transvaal. In an examination paper he gives the following excellent reasons why the Christian Endeavor movement is peculiarly needed by the church of today:

First.—Because so many of the members of churches are not in active service. The movement provides activities for the rising generation.

Second.—Because it is not often evident to outsiders whether a man is a Christian. The movement provides opportunity for confession of Christ.

Third.—Because in the present day, when denominational bonds have been loosed, young people are likely to wander from church to church and become unsettled, whereas the society requires regular attendance at one's own church.

Fourth.—Because interdenominational fellowship is in every way desirable in the present day.

Endeavor Is "Going."

Other wise ones tell us that the day of Endeavor is passing. Yes, I think Endeavor is going, but "going" in quite a different sense. It no longer shines like the fitful firefly, but rather with the steady glow of a white heat. "The shouting and the tumult die," but the steady, sure service of Endeavor glows like a hidden fire in the heart of the church. In some instances Endeavor has gone—that is, it has gone away ahead of the church in aggressive, common sense soul saving and soul building effort. "It is going"—yes, going on gloriously. When the present generation is forgotten, two things will be more alive and vigorous in their influence than ever—the Bible and Christian Endeavor.—Rev. John H. Elliott, D. D., in Endeavorer.

More and More.

God's promises are ever on the ascending scale. One leads up to another, fuller and more blessed than itself. In Mesopotamia God said, "I will show thee the land;" in Canaan, "I will give thee all the land and children innumerable as the grains of sand." It is thus that God allures us to saintliness—not giving us anything till we have dared to act, that He may test us; not giving everything at first, that He may not overwhelm us, and always keeping in hand an infinite reserve of blessing. Oh, the unexplored remainders of God! Who ever saw His last star?—Rev. F. B. Myer in Christian Endeavor World.

Christian Endeavor.

I promise that as best I may
I'll do my little task each day
And nothing shirk.
I'll let Christ have His way in me,
I'll show unswerving loyalty
In all my work.

—John R. Clements in Binghamton Press.

DRESS AND MILLINERY.

A New Material—The Vogue of Lavender—Touches of Black.

There is a new material belonging to the voile family, but which is even cooler if possible. It is very similar to voile, but much finer, and so glossy that its appearance in certain lights gives the effect of spun glass. Light shades are almost always used, and dresses of this description are generally trimmed with the coarser varieties of lace, which set off the pretty gloss to its best advantage.

A great deal of white is still used, but pink and rose shades are fast coming into favor. For evening wear trains are growing longer, and the Marie Antoinette bodice of silk, satin or messaline is draped with priceless lace. Rose petals and sparkling paillettes are pressed into service for trimming evening frocks.

PICTURE HAT.

White jeweled lace forms a beautiful evening trimming. It is used on transparent black frocks. This lace also appears on black satin souple. A great deal of lavender is being worn in Paris, chiefly in crepe de chine, satin and brocades. It is trimmed with deep purple embroideries. There are also some very magnificent panne embroideries in this shade on groundwork of lace, the edges being appliqued with gold and silver thread.

The chief feature of smart Parisian millinery is the touch of black velvet.

The heavily embroidered blouse of ecru batiste is very smart if appliqued with figures of ecru lace and little figures done in heavy white silk. A dressy waist of this description is usually worn with a veiling skirt in a white or cream shade.

In the cut we have a picture hat of shirred pink tulle trimmed with a cluster of black tips.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

CHIC MODES.

Becoming Veils For Seashore Wear. Mushroom Hats.

The most becoming veils for seashore wear include veils of brown or black chiffon decorated with dots quite large and far apart.

The mushroom hat is to be seen made of many dainty materials. The smart milliner, however, raises this style of headgear on a bandeau so as to obviate any chance of its assuming a flat, dowdy appearance. It is quite becoming to most faces, and to give it added quaintness it is lined with delicate tinted effects. One of the prettiest of these mushroom hats is trimmed with ribbon of a faded turquoise shade and a flat bow in front caught with a long velvet buckle.

PLAID SILK COSTUME.

The paradise plume is once again in favor, and it is seen in charming tints of yellow shading into orange and brown or pink growing by subtle gradations to claret. Hitherto it has always been placed in a drooping position, but now it is shortened and placed a little erect to one side of the hat.

Painted lace is coming once more into fashion. On one or two handsome Parisian coats it made its appearance recently and created a very smart effect. In one instance it was introduced on a beautiful coat of pompadour silk with a hood of real valenciennes, the pattern of which was picked out in pink and pale blue.

The picture shows a costume of plaid silk trimmed with pipings of darker silk.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

LITTLE FRANCE

A ROMANCE OF THE DAYS WHEN "THE GREAT LORD HAWKE" WAS KING OF THE SEA

BY

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

Author of "Commodore Paul Jones," "Reuben James," "For the Freedom of the Sea," etc.

Copyright, 1901, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

Through the broken window-panes the rain beat and the wind swept in mournful harmony with the thoughts of the people who crowded the room. At the lower end were congregated a body of the most influential citizens of the town. Their plain but rich dress, comfortable cloaks, prosperous appearance, proclaimed that they were men of substance and condition. A little apart from them stood the officers of the colonial militia in bedraggled, weather-stained uniforms.

The merchants faced de Ramesay boldly. The eyes of the citizen soldiery sank to the ground, and they looked everywhere but at him. They shifted uneasily under the stern gaze of the veteran commander, while their hands played nervously with their sword-hilts. De Ramesay was attended by the officers of his staff, able soldiers all; some of them were drenched with rain and covered with marks of their exposure to the inclement weather, which showed they had just come from the ramparts. Among them were Rouvigny, St. Luc, Fiedmont, and Joannes the town major, and with them de Vitre, still under restraint by de Ramesay's order.

The governor stood at the great table with his officers grouped around him. The merchants and militia officers drifted together at the opposite side. A stranger would have instantly recognized that here were two parties to debate a serious proposition. Sadness was the predominating note in de Ramesay's face; haughty pride and contempt flashed from the eyes of the nobles and professional soldiers at his back; dogged determination was evidenced in every line in the portly figures of the merchants; and stubborn shame spoke from the drooped heads of the militia officers.

"Messieurs," said the governor quietly, "you have asked an audience for a purpose which I can but too well divine. Will you speak your mind and have done with it? The gentlemen of the counter first."

He turned inquiringly to the merchants, but no one apparently cared to break the silence. No one wished to assume the stigma of being the first to make the proposition in furtherance of which they had assembled.

"What, gentlemen!" continued de Ramesay sarcastically, " are your desires so base that none of you have even courage to mention them? Monsieur Daine, it was at your house, I am informed, that the gentlemen held their meeting this morning. Will you speak?"

"Monsieur le Chevalier," stammered Daine, flushing and paling by turns, "we are—we cannot—we do not—in short, we came to beg you to surrender the town."

"Ah!" said the governor, "and why should I give up a charge devolved upon me by his majesty the king?"

"We are starving, monsieur," answered Daine more boldly; "our dwellings, our shops, our warehouses are ruined. We can do no more. If the English break into the town, if they storm the walls, we have over 2,000 women and children here. Think of them, sir!"

"True," said de Ramesay, "but so long as we have arms in our hands the English will not break through the walls. Is it not so, gentlemen?"

"Vive la nouvelle France!"

"Let us die for the flag!"

"Vive le roi!"

"Death to the English!" broke in confused acclamations from the little group of officers behind the chevalier. The others were silent.

"How is it that I hear no response to my appeal from the officers of the militia?" continued the governor. "Gentlemen, do you allow your brothers of the regular army to outdo you in patriotism?"

"By God, sir!" ripped out one of the leading officers of the militia, "we cannot fight any more, and there's an end to it! Our men are deserting by hundreds, and we are hungry! We have had nothing to eat since last night, nothing to drink either! 'Tis ill keeping guard and fighting on nothing! The English are there in thousands, curse them! We cannot keep them out. My men won't fight any longer!"

"Nor mine!"

"Nor mine!" rang through the hall.

"And you, monsieur, has your stomach for fight also left you?" asked de Ramesay, frowning upon the man.

"Yes, it has!" snapped out the officer furiously. "'Tis a hopeless contest, the city is lost!"

"Yes, yes, he is right!"

"Surrender!"

"Give up the town!"

"We are lost!" cried one after another.

There was no doubt either of their unanimity or of their determination.

"You cowards!" exclaimed the governor bitterly, turning upon them with a withering glance of contempt. His calmness gone, he stamped his foot in passionate scorn and anger.

In the midst of the confusion, which well indicated the disorganization in the town, an officer burst into the hall and shouldered his way through the struggling mob toward the governor. The crowd became silent as they recognized his presence and instinctively felt that he had news of importance. His face was grave with anxiety.

"Monsieur," he cried, saluting, "the English are about to storm the St. Charles gate! Monsieur le Garneur, who commands there, has sent me to say that the town troops have thrown down their arms and have refused to fight! He has no force to stay the advance. For God's sake, send reinforcements, or we are lost!"

Even as he spoke another officer came running into the room from the walls on the other side.

"Monsieur le Gouverneur," he cried, as he entered the apartment, "the colonial troops have withdrawn from the walls! Capt. Le Moyne says that the English battalions are mustering for an immediate attack. He has not enough regulars to man the guns! He must have reinforcements immediately, and the men are hungry!"

"Is there an ounce of bread left," asked the governor, turning to the quartermaster, "to feed the soldiers who are faithful and these cattle?"

"Nothing, sir," answered that functionary sadly, "the last ration was issued last night."

"You see, sir," cried the merchant, "to what straits we are reduced! My children cry for bread!"

"My wife suffers with hunger; we are ruined!" cried another.

"My soldiers starve!" exclaimed a third.

"Gentlemen," said the unfortunate chevalier, turning to the militia, "you have some influence with your men surely! Return to them, beg them to fight one more day! Monsieur de Levis will surely succor us. Upon us depends the fortune of New France. When we strike the flag we give up a province, an empire! For God's sake, messieurs, for the king, for your own lands, once more to the walls! Vive la nuvelle France!"

The militia officers stood in gloomy silence in the face of this appeal. The feeble acclamations of the loyal officers of the line were drowned by a dreadful crashing sound, followed by a detonating explosion, which hurled the people in the room in every direction. A shell from the batteries burst in the hall.

"STRIKE THE FLAG."

"Sauve qui peut!" cried one in the smoke.

"We have no safety anywhere!"

"Strike the flag!"

"Fly, fly, messieurs!"

The room was filled with men, dead, wounded and stunned. Groans, curses, shrieks resounded. Scarcely knowing what had happened, the governor, de Vitre, and the rest, blinded, dazed, and choking, found themselves swept out of the chateau to the terrace in front of it overlooking the river. From the tall staff above them floated the white flag of France. There was an excited group of men around it. Two or three eager hands clutched at the halliards. Slowly, as if with reluctance, the proud banner came drooping down to the earth.

De Vitre, Rouvigny, Joannes, Fiedmont and two or three others with drawn swords ran into the midst of the mob, driving back the townspeople and the officers. With eager hands they strove to hoist the flag, but the halliards had been cut and they could only lift it in their hands a little space above the sodden ground. As they realized the effort, their antagonists swept down upon them again. The governor's spirit was unabated, but his resolution at this gave way. He succumbed to the inevitable.

"Let be!" he cried, breaking his sword and throwing the pieces far from him, "the flag is down. Be it remembered that it was not my hand that struck it! You cowards, you have your way! It is the end of New France."

He stood, with the tears trickling down his rugged old face, a picture of shame and sorrow.

One by one the big guns that ringed the city ceased to pour their shot upon the town, as the English saw the flag come down. Although the heavy smoke still hung low in the sodden air, a silence ominous and gloomy for the Frenchmen succeeded the roar of the cannonade. The ships in the harbor were soon black with men. From the meadows on the Plains of Abraham the sound of cheering could be heard faintly, and down by the St. Charles gate, where the columns of the English were massed, came back an echo of the joyful sound. It was the death-knell of the province.

Maj. Joannes, reluctantly complying, while bitterly protesting, was dispatched with a white flag to Gen. Townshend's headquarters. With the cessation of the bombardment the townspeople, regardless of the rain, poured into the streets. The plateau in front of the chateau was soon filled with people shouting, gesticulating, laughing, crying, sobbing like mad. The grim old governor, with the officers about him, stood at the foot of the flagstaff looking over that marvelous prospect which should never again belong to France. Presently Joannes returned.

"The terms, major?" cried the governor.

"The garrison to march out with the honors of war, with their arms, two pieces of cannon, and 20 rounds; afterward to be transported to France with such of the townspeople as choose to go with them. The free exercise of our religion permitted and the rights and property of the people respected."

"And the alternative, monsieur?"

"Immediate attack."

"Have you the paper?"

"Within my breast, sir," answered Joannes.

"Let us go to the chateau; we will sign it."

Presently the two reappeared on the terrace.

"Say to the English that the people are starving, and ask them in the name of the women and children to send us something to eat at once," said the governor.

Joannes saluted, turned away, and was gone. The people watched him disappear in silence.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE PLAY, THE STAKE, AND THE PLAYERS.

MEANWHILE, what of the Countess Anne and Capt. Grafton? They had passed through a week of such mingled emotions, such alternations of joy and sorrow, of love and jealousy, of remembrances and anticipation, as could scarcely be described.

When the woman he loved left him alone the night he recognized her, after that rapturous exchange of kisses, Grafton felt himself transported to Heaven. He forgot, in the happiness consequent upon his discovery of her identity, the racial antagonism which should lie between them; he forgot the great gulf of war which held them asunder; he even forgot the engagement of Anne to de Vitre. But the next morning, when the first glow of his passion had left him, he was enabled to view things in a clearer light.

He carefully took account of the different obstacles which separated, or might tend to separate, him from the woman he loved. He intended to win her, come what might, and as the campaign was like to prove a difficult one, in which the odds were mainly against him, it behooved him to take stock of all opposition and carefully look over the field. He must think, he must plan, he must leave no stone unturned, lose no point in the game.

First of all he was an American, and that was different from an Englishman. Anne, although she showed little of it to a casual inspection, was an American as well. That was a point gained. The war, he believed, would presently be over. That was another point in his favor. If she loved him—if she loved him! Who could doubt it after last night? But did she love him enough to brave the anger and defy the opposition of her grandfather? Did she love him enough to marry him in despite of country, nationality, public opinion? He thought so.

She had great pride of race, and from the French point of view she would be condescending ineffably in marrying a mere commoner. For the matter of that, he thought, in his loving humility, that no man was fit to possess this priceless jewel of womanhood. He placed her upon a level so high that she would have been compelled to condescend to marry even a king, much less a simple American gentleman. Marriage with him meant for her the renunciation of title, rank, station, possessions, country, family, friends, traditions—he piled up the catalogue of sacrifices involved, in gloomy, ever-deepening humility. Still, other women had done such things; these were not insuperable obstacles.

[CONTINUED]

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

The Standard Railroad of America.

PROTECTED THROUGHOUT BY THE ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC BLOCK SIGNAL SYSTEM.

On and After June 26, 1904.

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

f 2 55 a m—Main Line Express daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor Cars, for Pittsburg and Cleveland, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

f 2 55 p m—Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily, for Nashville (via Cincinnati and Louisville), Indianapolis, Chicago and St. Louis; Dining Car.

f 6 45 p m—Western Express, daily, with Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, for Pittsburg and Chicago.

f 8 07 p m—Pacific Express, daily, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars for Pittsburg, Toledo and Chicago, daily, for Knoxville, via Shenandoah Valley Route, for Cleveland, except Saturday.

Seaboard Air Line Express, f 1 04 p m daily.

FOR BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH—2 58, 3 34, 9 07, 10 08 a m, 1 04, 10 08 p m On Sunday 2 58, 9 07, 10 08 a m, 1 04 and 10 07 p m

FOR NEWARK AND NEW YORK—3 02, 4 07, 5 44, 6 12, 6 32, 6 58, 8 05, 7 15, 7 50, 7 55, 8 05, 8 07, 8 19, 8 30, 8 45, For 9 17, 9 32, 9 45, 10 17, 10 47, 10 58, 11 05, 11 07 a m, 12 05, 1 04, 1 55, 2 20, 3 15, 3 28, 3 45, 4 41, 4 55, 4 56, 5 26, 5 45, 6 00, 6 27, 6 42, 6 56, 7 05, 7 31, 7 56, 8 28, 9 04, 9 12, 9 45, 10 12, 10 44, 10 47, 11 12, 11 20 (Saturdays only) p m and 12 12 night. Sundays, 3 02, 4 07, 5 00, 7 54, 8 50, 9 50, 9 52, 10 15, 10 27, 10 58 a m, 12 20, 12 44, 1 28, 2 20, 3 05, 3 40, 4 52, 5 04, 5 45, 6 05, 7 05, 7 35, 7 55, 8 30, 9 08, 9 45, 10 18, 10 44, 11 05, p m and 12 12 night; For New York only, 7 45 a m, and 2 45, 5 49 p m week days.

FOR TRENTON AND PHILADELPHIA—1 01, 6 45, 7 10 (Trenton only), 8 06, 8 36, 9 07, 9 38, 10 06, 11 40 a m, 12 40, 1 04, 2 04, (Trenton only) 3 58, 6 43, 7 25, 7 44, 8 07, 10 08 p m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 10 06, 10 40 a m, 1 04, 5 52, 6 43, 7 44, 8 07, and 10 07 p m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Through Vestibuled Express Trains, Buffet Parlor Cars, Passenger Coach, and Combined Coach, 10 38 a m, and 3 35 p m, week-days. Express 1 01, 6 45, 9 38 a m, 12 40 p m, Sundays, 1 01, 6 45 and 9 38 (Through Vestibuled Train, Pullman Parlor, Dining and Smoking Cars and wide Vestibule Coaches) a m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Via Delaware River Bridge, 1 01 a m, 12 40 and 3 35 p m week days; 1 01 and 6 51 a m. Sundays.

FOR CAPE MAY—Express, 1 01 night, daily.

FOR RAHWAY—1 01, 4 25, 6 40, 6 45, 7 10, 8 06, 9 00, 9 07, 9 46, 11 14, 11 40 a m., 1 21, 1 42, (Saturdays only) 3 04, 3 40 (Saturdays only) 3 11, 3 48, 4 22, 4 50, 5 09, 5 30, 5 36, 6 47, 6 55, 6 05, (except Saturday), 8 12, 9 12, (except Saturday), 9 25, 10 51, 11 08, 11 59 p m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 9 46, 10 40 a. m, 12 42, 1 50, 5 53, 7 43, 8 12, 9 13 and 10 07 p. m.

FOR WOODBRIDGE AND PERTH AMBOY—6 40, 9 46, 11 14, a m, 1 58, 3 11, 4 50, 5 47, 6 13, 7 18, 9 54 p m, and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 56, 11 44 a m, 5 40 and 10 15 p m.

FOR EAST MILLSTONE—7 10 a m, 12 40 and 5 38 p m week-days.

FOR LAMBERTVILLE, PHILLIPSBURG, MANUNKA CHUNK AND STROUDSBURG, VIA TRENTON—6 30, 10 38 a m, 12 40 (Saturdays only), 3 04 and 6 43 p m, week days, 6 51 a m and 6 43 p m Sunday.

FOR FLEMINGTON—10 38 a m and 3 04 p m.

FOR JAMESBURG VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10 a m, 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR FREEHOLD VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10, 8 06 11 40 a m, 4 38 and 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR LONG BRANCH, ASBURY PARK, OCEAN GROVE, AND POINTS ON NEW YORK AND LONG BRANCH R. R., 4 25, 8 19 and 9 36, a m, 1 03, 3 06, 3 44, 5 43 and 7 38 p m week-days. Sundays, 9 05 and 10 25 a m, and 5 40 p m. Stop at North Asbury Park for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

FOR BROOKLYN, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats of Pennsylvania Annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

LEAVE NEW YORK FOR ELIZABETH—From West Twenty-third Street Station, 6 05, 6 35, 7 25, 8 10, 8 25, 8 55, 10 25, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 25, 12 55 (Saturdays only), 1 25, 1 55 (Saturdays only), 2 25, 3 05, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 5 10, 5 25, 5 40, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 8 10, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 45 and 12 10 night. Sundays—8 05, 7 55, 8 25, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 25, 1 55, 2 40, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 5 10, 5 40, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 8 10, 8 55, 9 55, 10 55 p m, and 12 10 night.

"f" Stops on notice to Agent or on signal.

For time from Desbrosses and Cortlandt streets consult local time-tables to be procured from agents.

W. W. ATTERBURY, Gen'l M'g'r. J. R. WOOD, Pass. Traffic M'g'r.

GEO. W. BOYD, General Passenger Agent.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF,

EAST FRONT STREET.

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accomodations and private dining room.

Hotel Kensington,

(Licensed)

J. H. STAATS, Prop.,

107, 109, 111 North Avenue.

Everything New and Up to Date. An Inspection Solicited

JOHN WIRTH

Successor to Henry Liefke

Bakery and Confectionery 201-203 W. Front St

Telephone No. 723 All orders delivered at short notice.

L. Moraller & Son,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY.

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HOAGLAND'S

EXPRESS and BAGGAGE TRANSFER.

Office 302 Park Ave. Tel. 322 W.

WILLIAM H. KIRCH,

Carpenter and Builder,

66 Duer Street.

Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

Telephone 402 J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS.

110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING At DOANE'S, 115 PARK AVE.

LAING MACHINE-AUTO REPAIR COMPANY,

416 Sycamore Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Office—134 North Avenue. Telephone 333-J

GREAT

REMOVAL SALE OF

Bicycles, Bicycle Sundries, Pianos, Musical Instruments, Sheet Music.

224 Park Ave. 224 W. Front St.

SPECIAL LOW PRICES

For all Summer Dresses. Linen Suits a Specialty.

S. Hirsh, - 432 Watchung Ave

Reading System

New Jersey Central.

Stations in New York foot of Liberty, and South Ferry, Whitehall Streets.

Time Table Corrected August 15, 1904

For New York—2 17, 3 07, 5 03, 6 02, 6 30, 6 57, 7 25, 7 35, 7 45, 7 55, 8 05, 8 11, 8 30, 8 55, 9 46, 9 57, 9 59, 10 26, 11 00 a. m., 12 05, 12 44, 1 15, 3 01, 3 42, 3 48, 5 44, 6 12, 6 47, 6 52, 7 52, 8 25, 9 05, 9 38, 9 45, 10 17, 11 25 p. m. Sunday—3 17, 3 57, 5 05, 7 51, 8 01, 8 55, 9 46, 10 06, 11 10 a. m., 12 05 p. m., 12 58, 1 45, 2 43, 3 17, 3 30, 5 42, 6 45, 8 32, 9 18, 9 32, 9 42, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark—3 30, 3 39, 7 05, 8 07, 7 05, 7 35, 7 45, 8 11, 8 34, 8 46, 9 09, 9 17, 11 25 a. m., 1 15, 3 01, 3 42, 3 44, 5 12, 5 52, 6 32, 6 52, 7 05, 8 30, 9 40, p. m. Sunday—7 41, 8 32, 10 08, 11 10 a. m., 12 07, 1 45, 3 17 3 30, 5 42, 6 45, 8 32, 9 18, 9 32, 9 42, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville—6 35, 7 12, 9 21, 9 34, 9 55, 11 00 a. m., 1 02, 3 02, 5 11, 5 34, 6 25, 8 05, 8 20, 8 57 p. m. Sunday—8 45 a. m., 12 09 night.

For Flemington—7 12, 11 00 a. m., 2 11 5 10 6 19 p. m. Sundays—8 45 a. m., 6 37 p. m.

For Phillipsburg and Easton—6 35, 8 21, 9 54 a. m., 2 11, 5 20, 6 41 p. m. Sunday—8 45 a. m., 2 05, 6 35 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Manch Chunk—6 35, 9 54 a. m., 2 11, 5 20 p. m. Sundays—8 45 a. m., 6 35 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—6 35, 9 54 a m; 5 48 p m. Sundays—8 45 a m, 2 05 p m.

For Long Branch and Ocean Grove, etc—6 11, 11 00 a m, 2 44, 6 22 p m. Sunday (except Ocean Grove)—8 53 a m, 12 56, 6 30, 8 18 p m.

For Red Bank—6 11, 11 00 12 56, 1 12, 2 44, 4 47, 6 22, 11 32 p m. Sundays—8 53 a m, 6 30, 8 18 p m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—(9 11 Lakewood only) 9 27 a m, 1 12, 2 40, (5 44 p m, Lakewood only). Sundays—8 53 a m.

For Toms River and Barnegat—9 27 a m, 1 12, 5 44 p m. Sundays—8 53 a m.

For Philadelphia—5 17, 7 12, 7 44, 8 44, 9 51, 9 44, 10 44, 10 51, 11 44 a m, 12 46, 1 01, 1 50, 2 45, 3 44, 4 55, 5 47, 6 45, 9 47 p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 51 a m, 12 46, 4 55, 6 45, 6 55, 9 47 p m, 1 25, 1 17 night.

For Trenton—5 17, 7 12, 7 44, 8 44, 9 44, 10 44, 11 44 a m, 12 46, 1 01, 1 50, 3 44, 4 55, 5 47, 6 45, 9 47 p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 51 a m, 2 45, 4 55, 5 57, 6 45, 9 47, 11 35 p m, 1 17 night.

For Reading and Harrisburg—5 17, 9 25 a m, 9 54, (10 44, 11 44 Reading only), a m, 2 11, (5 45 through train), 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 2 05, 5 57, 6 35 p m, 1 17 night.

For Pottsville, Sunbury and Williamsport—5 17, 8 35, 9 54 a m, 2 11 5 21 p m, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 2 05 p m, 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—1 17, 5 51, 10 51, a m, 2 45, 6 45, 7 47 p m. Sundays 10 51 a m 2 45, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. C. M. BURT, Gen. Pass. Agent

Lehigh Valley Railroad

Time Table in Effect Nov. 29, 1903.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

6:08 a.m. daily (except Sunday) local to Manch Chunk.

8:42 a. m., daily for Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Rochester, Buffalo and principal intermediate stations, connects at Depew Junction for Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge.

2:12 p. m., daily local for Easton, Manch Chunk, Hazleton, Pottsville and Shenandoah.

4:38 p. m. daily (except Sunday) "Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Express" Solid vestibule train to Wilkes-Barre, Through Parlor Car via D. & H. R. R. to Scranton and Carbondale.

6:21 p. m. daily (except Sunday) local to Easton.

6:40 p. m. daily solid vestibule train to Buffalo, Toronto and Chicago and principal intermediate stations except Rochester

FRANK BOWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J Telephone 117-E.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE,

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.

On Saturday's close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:30 p. m.

Close—7:20, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:4 a. m.; 1:00, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m.

Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30 and 5:30 p. m.

Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA—West of Easton.

Close 12:35 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30, 5:30 p. m.

Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 7:00 p. m.

Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m. 12:35, 4:30, 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for West and South close 4:30 and 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for East, close 1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE & GALLIA (Mt. Bethel)

Arrive—1:30 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

Watchung—Arrive 6:45 p. m. Close 8:30 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 8:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

STONE AT BARTLE'S STONE YARD.

Yard: Corner Church and Second Streets.

Cut Stone, Building Stone—ALL KINDS.

FLAGGING AND CURB STONE.

Have some 18-inch and 2 and 3-ft. walk very cheap. Leave orders for your foundation and cesspool stone with us.

SMALLEY BROS.,

147 North Ave.

Butchers.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Roasting and Broiling Chickens a specialty.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83-A.

H. EGGERDING,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c Cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana Cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of Domestic Cigars.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

Game in Season. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Telephone No. 465 J.

LADIES DESIRING—

Knife-Pleating or Pinking

done, will please leave their orders at No. 22 Duer Street, and it will receive prompt attention.

MRS. PORCH.

SPEAKS FOR HIMSELF.

Former Secretary of War Positively Declines to Run.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 25.—"My final word has been spoken. That I am to be considered in any sense in connection with the New York governorship is out of the question." Former Secretary of War Elihu Root made this statement last night.

Chairman George B. Cortelyou of the national committee and Mr. Root have arrived at Oyster Bay and are guests of President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill. They came to confer with the president as to the latter's letter of acceptance of the nomination made by the Chicago convention and to discuss with him various matters relating to the national campaign. New York politics will naturally be considered during the visit of Mr. Roosevelt's campaign manager and his trusted friend, but assurance is given that no determination will be reached regarding the candidate for the gubernatorial or any other nomination. While it is known that the conference is important, it is not deemed desirable that its details should be made public.

Mr. Root said that he had been "up in the country" bent entirely upon recreation and that he knew very little about the political situation.

"I came to New York on some legal business," he continued, "and have run down here to see the president about some matters on which he desired to consult me."

BAD TROLLEY WRECK.

Thirty-five People Hurt Near Pittsford, N. Y.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Fully thirty-five persons have been injured in a trolley wreck on the Rochester and Eastern railway near Pittsford, though no one was fatally hurt. About a dozen people suffered fractured limbs or were seriously bruised, and the remainder suffered minor injuries, most of which were caused by broken glass.

A train of two cars bound from Canandaigua to Rochester collided with a single car running east. The former was late and, according to the statement of officers of the company, ran past the siding where it was to have met the car from Rochester. It was exactly similar in that respect to the accident at Manitou Beach a short time ago. The trains met on a sharp curve. A lineman in the employ of the road was at work near the scene of the accident and saw the two trains approaching it. He flagged the eastbound train, and it had nearly stopped when struck by the other train, which was running at a good speed. All three of the cars were full of passengers.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Closing Stock Quotations.

Money on call nominally 1 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 3½@4½ per cent; exchanges, $174,590,478; balances, $9,286,239.

Closing prices:

Amal. Copper	56⅝	N. Y. Central	121½
Atchison	81	Norf. & West	65⅝
B. & O.	85⅝	Penn. R. R.	124
Brooklyn R. T.	63⅝	Reading	57
C., C., C. & St. L.	75⅝	Rock Island	24½
Ches. & Ohio	37⅝	St. Paul	151½
Chi. & Northw.	184	Southern Pac.	57
D. & H.	162½	Southern Ry.	29
Erie	26⅝	South. Ry. pf.	93½
Gen. Electric	164	Sugar	131½
Ill. Central	137½	Texas Pacific	29⅝
Lackawanna	273½	Union Pacific	99½
Louis. & Nash.	120⅝	U. S. Steel	11⅞
Manhattan	154½	U. S. Steel pf.	58⅝
Metropolitan	122	West. Union	90
Missouri Pac.	96½

New York Markets.

FLOUR—Firm, but inactive; Minnesota patents, $6.10@6.50; winter straights, $5@5.25; winter extras, $3.45@4; winter patents, $5.25@5.50.

WHEAT—Weak and lower on poor cables, good weather news and general liquidation; September, $1.11⅛@1.11¾; December, $1.11¼@1.11⅝.

TALLOW—Quiet; city, 4½c.; country, 4¼@4¾c.

HAY—Steady; shipping, 67½c.; good to choice, 95c.

POTATOES—Easy; Long Island, $1.50@1.62; Jersey and southern, $1.37@1.50; Jersey sweets, $2@2.50.

STRAW—Steady; long rye, 90c.@$1.

BEANS—Quiet; marrow, $2.85; medium, $1.90@1.95; pea, $1.82½; red kidney, $3.10.

WOOL—Firm; domestic fleece, 32@35c.

HOPS—Firm; state, common to choice, 1903, 27@35c.; 1902, nominal; olds, 7@13c.; Pacific coast, 1903, 28@30c.; 1902, nominal; olds, 7@12c.

BUTTER—Firm; good demand; extra western creamery, 18½c.; extra nearby prints, 20c.

EGGS—Steady; fair demand; nearby firsts, 19½c. at mark; western firsts, 19@20c. at mark.

CHEESE—Unchanged; New York full cream, choice to fancy, 9¾@9¾c.; New York full creams, fair to good, 9@9¼c.

FRESH FRUITS—Apples, Alexander, hand picked, per double head barrel, $2@3; Duchess of Oldenburg, $2@2.75; Gravenstein, $1.75@2.50; Twenty Ounce, $1.75@2.50; Maiden Blush, $1.50@2.25; Codlins, $1.50@2.25; Nyack Pippin, $1.50@2.25; Orange Pippin, $1.50@2; Sour Bough, $1.50@1.75; Sweet Bough, $1.25@1.50; open heads, $1@2.25; Vindcalls and common, 50c.@$1; pears, Bartlett, per barrel, $2@4; per half barrel basket, 50c.@$1.

VEGETABLES—Potatoes, Long Island, in bulk, per 180 pounds, $1.50@1.62; Jersey, $1.37@1.50; Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, round, per barrel or bag, $1.50@1.60; Jersey, long (Giants), $1.25@1.35; southern, per barrel, $1.15@1.25; common, 75c.@$1; sweet potatoes, Jersey, yellow, per barrel, $2@2.75; cabbages, per 100, $1@2.50; cauliflowers, per bushel basket, $2; cucumbers, per bushel basket, 25@50c.; cucumber pickles, per 1,000, $1.25@2; corn, per 100, 40c.@$1.25; celery, fancy, large, per dozen bunches, 40@60c.; small to medium, 10@30c.; eggplants, per barrel, 60@90c.; lettuce, per half barrel basket, $1.75@2; lima beans, potato, per bag or basket, $1@1.50; flat, per half barrel basket, 50c.@$1; onions, yellow, per barrel, $3; red, $1.75@2; white, per basket, $1.50@2; peppers, per barrel, 50@75c.; per basket, 25@40c.; peas, bag, 50@90c.; string beans, wax, per basket, 50c.@$1; green, 60c.@$1.12; turnips, rutabaga, per barrel, 50@75c.; tomatoes, per box, 15@50c.

LIVE POULTRY—Steady; fowls, 13½@14c.; old roosters, 9@9½c.; spring chickens, 15@16c.; ducks, old, 11@12c.; do., young, 12@13c.

DRESSED POULTRY—Firm; choice stock wanted; fowls, choice, fresh killed, 14½c.; do., fair to good, 13½@14c.; old roosters, 9½c.; nearby broilers, choice, 18@20c.; do., fair to good, 16@17c.; western do., choice, 16@18c.; do., fair to good, 13@15c.

DRESSED MEATS—Calves firm, with city dressed veals selling at 8@12c. per pound; country dressed at 7½@11c.; grassers and buttermilks at 5@6c.; mutton steady at 7@10c. per pound; lambs in fairly good demand at 8½@12c.

Live Stock Markets.

CATTLE—Supply light; market slow; choice, $5.60@5.80; prime, $5.35@5.40; fair, $3.40@4.10; veal calves, $7@7.50.

HOGS—Receipts light, market active; prime heavies, $5.70@5.72½c.; mediums, heavy Yorkers and light Yorkers, $5.30@5.55; pigs, $5.75@6.85; roughs, $4.60@4.75.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply light; market steady; prime wethers, $4.20@4.40; common sheep, $1.50@2; spring lambs, $4@6.50.

ALEXIS NICHOLAEVITCH.

Heir to the Czar Christened at Peterhof Palace.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 25.—A great wave of rejoicing and festivity swept over Russia with the rising of the sun on the christening day of the heir to the Russian throne, culminating when the "Te Deum" softly chanted in the beautiful little church of the Peterhof palace announced that the ceremony was accomplished. The news was heralded to the world with out by the roar of cannon and the chiming of innumerable church bells echoing from the Baltic to the Black sea and from the frontiers of Poland to the confines of the farthest east.

Notwithstanding the momentous events passing at the front the whole population turned gladly for the time being from more serious considerations to participating in the day of glittering ceremonial and pageantry at Peterhof, where the tiny successor of the great white czar received at the hands of the church the name of Alexis Nicholaevitch.

The center of interest of course was the golden state carriage, drawn by eight milk white horses, with outriders and walking grooms, in which sat the Princess Galatzin, mistress of the empress' household, with the imperial heir. At the door of the coach on one side rode the grand equerry of the court, Lieutenant General de Grunwald, and on the other side the commander of the household troops, Lieutenant General Hesse, both superbly mounted and uniformed like glittering equestrian statues. Following the coach came an armed escort, with poised lances, of the famous Blue Cossacks of the Don, of which the baby heir is now ataman or commander in chief.

The emperor, his face wreathed in smiles and with the dowager empress on his arm, led the procession, followed by the other members of the imperial family, the grand dukes and grand duchesses, in the order of their rank, the baby bringing up the rear. His majesty was met at the door of the church by the metropolitan of St. Petersburg with raised cross. But here the emperor retired, as the rules of the Orthodox church give him no place in the ceremony, in which the baby was presented by his spiritual parents to the Heavenly Father.

The "Te Deum," melodiously chanted by a hidden choir, was the signal to the bells overhead, which swung clamorously, while from the royal yacht off the shore of the gulf thundered a salute of 301 guns. The signal was taken up at Cronstadt and St. Petersburg, and Moscow's 500 bells chimed while the guns of the Kremlin told the glad news to Russia's ancient capital.

PANIC AT ASUNCION.

Reported Defeat and Capture of Government Troops.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 25.—The panic at Asuncion, capital of Paraguay, is indescribable. Foreigners in all parts of the country are leaving under the protection of the diplomatic corps.

Preparations for hostilities and negotiations looking to the settlement of the questions at issue between the revolutionists and the government are proceeding simultaneously.

The belief is growing that the government must yield.

It is rumored that a land engagement has been fought between the revolutionists and government troops, resulting in the defeat of the latter and the capture of 400 men.

Pneumatic Mail Tube in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Chicago's pneumatic tube mail service has been formally opened. After the first batch of mail had been sent through the bore the system was formally turned over to the government and was accepted in behalf of the federal authorities by Postmaster General Payne. The system consists of nine miles of brass t

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Emil Batch has been purchased by the Brooklyn Nationals. Batch played one game with Scotch Plains last season.

Warren McLaughlin, the local pitcher, is doing great work this year for New London. He is also leading his team in batting, and stands at the top of the list as a winning pitcher. Last Thursday he defeated Meriden, 2-0, striking out eight men. Three hits were secured off his delivery.

Umpire Watts' decisions on last Saturday at Westfield were considered very yellow. It would be a step toward good clean baseball on the part of the Westfield management to secure a man who understands the game, and who can follow a curve ball. These requirements Umpire Watt seem uncapable of filling. In the game last week he showed plainly that his eye was not quick enough to follow the pitched balls. From the decisions he gave out it could be judged how much he understands about the National game.

AUTOMOBILING.

A number of automobilists have run from here to Asbury Park within the past month. It is reported that the road from Matawan to Red Bank is in bad condition. Edward Laing found that by taking the country road from Matawan to Red Bank the run is three miles shorter, and fair riding, much better than the county road. Anyone going to the Park will appreciate this trip.

Next Saturday afternoon the Rahway and Woodbridge Driving Club will hold an automobile meet in conjunction with a number of horse racing events. The racing will commence at 2:30 sharp, special class races for horses of 2:35, 2:30 and 2:25 being part of the programme. There will be a parade in Rahway before the races; the automobiles and horse-drawn vehicles will meet at the corner of St. George's avenue and Grand street at 1 p. m. sharp and proceed to the track. All owners of automobiles have been invited by the Driving Club to take part in the parade and also in the races later in the day. Quite a number of the members of the New Jersey Automobile and Motor Club have signified their intention of being present at the meet.

General Sporting News on Page 8.

New York Wins Shoot.

The New York militia team won the national shooting match, at Fort Riley, Kansas, scoring 4,322, despite a strong southwest wind. The New Yorkers thereby captured the trophy voted by congress and the cash prize of $500. The federal navy team was second with a score of 4,274, which won for them the Hilton trophy. The federal infantry was third, the cavalry, fourth, and the United States marines, fifth. Pennsylvania was seventh and New Jersey tenth. The most startling shakeup of the day was the advance of the army cavalry team from ninth place to No. 4 and the dropping of New Jersey's team from second to tenth. New Jersey lost second place by being penalized 83 points for shooting beyond the time limit. General Spencer has notified the authorities that he will appeal to the National Rifle Association. Such action may result in a change of the rules, but the fact remains that so far as 1904 is concerned New Jersey is out of the game.

Hoyt's Team Won.

A scrub team composed of local baseball players captained by Marcus Hoyt, defeated a Westfield team yesterday afternoon at Westfield by the score of 13 to 10. The game was well played. Craig, who covered second, was the strong point of the Plainfield aggregation, playing in his usual form. Hoyt pitched a good game for his team, allowing but few hits.

Things That Endure.

Why place your money in enterprises or schemes of mushroom growth, investments that may appear attractive on the surface, but are risky and soon go under?

The purchase of one or more of our fine

Houses And Lots

will afford you the best opportunity for sound investment.

Every dollar you put in them is absolutely secure and will yield you a handsome return.

Why not buy today?

Elston M. French.

171 North Avenue,

Tel. 24. Plainfield, N. J.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Adoption degree will be worked at the regular meeting of Wetumpkah Tribe tomorrow evening.

Arrangements have been completed for the purchase of a piano for the rooms of the Plainfield Camera Club in the Babcock building. Now that the summer is almost over, the social committee is planning a series of social entertainments to be held during the winter months. The club has been without a piano since the Babcock building fire, when two expensive instruments were destroyed.

The members of Bernards Lodge, No. 67, Ancient Order of United Workmen, of Basking Ridge, which some time ago bought the old schoolhouse property, are developing it into a handsome lodge property and are about to issue bonds to the amount of $1,500 for the purpose of raising funds to put it in order. The bonds may be issued in any amounts desirable, so that it may become a popular loan.

The State division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, which opened its annual convention in the Catholic Lyceum at Camden, has concluded its labors by electing these officers: President, James Brennan, Jersey City; vice president, Richard Hughes, Florence; secretary, Frank Devereaux, Camden; treasurer, Thomas Gillarton; chaplain, W. T. McLaughlin, of Newark. The next State meeting of the A. O. H., two years hence, will be held in New Brunswick. The secretary's report showed that there are 5,237 members in the society, and the treasurer's report showed that there is $41,170.35 in the treasury.

PLAYING GREAT BALL NOW

SCOTCH PLAINS TEAM, WEARING SOMERVILLE UNIFORM, DOING WELL.

Since the Scotch Plains team was transported to Somerville, where it is playing under the name of the West Ends, it has made a remarkably fine record with "Smiling Jimmie" Montross in the box. Three victories and a tie game is the result. In the coming month the West Ends will line up against some stronger propositions.

On Saturday the Aeolians, of Garwood, who defeated Westfield three out of four, will be the opposing team, and a big crowd is assured as the Somerville people are anxious to get a line on Plainfield and Westfield's strength and believe they can do so when the Aeolians play.

On September 3, John Harkins, who brought a team from New Brunswick several weeks ago that met defeat at the hands of Captain Allen and his band will again try his luck in this place with a nine, he says, will be a great improvement over the other team. John is out for revenge.

On Labor Day a great crowd is expected at the two games scheduled with Clinton, as the Pythian Field Day will be held there. Montross will probably pitch the morning game and in the afternoon George Wiltse, of the New York Nationals, may be in the points. His home is in Somerville and he expects to be able to get away for this one occasion.

Saturday, September 10, Flemington, the nine the played the tie, will be the attraction.

Spanish War Vets Consolidate.

The United Spanish War Veterans of New Jersey, an organization recently formed by the consolidation of the Spanish-American War Veterans and the Service Men of the Spanish War, held their first annual State encampment since organization at New Brunswick yesterday. Col. E. W. Hine, of Jersey City, was chairman. There were about seventy-five delegates to the convention. The most important business of the day was the election of State officers and delegates to the National Encampment to be held at St. Louis next month. A social time followed the business session.

After Dryden Trophy.

Although it is more than a week before the meeting of the National Rifle Association at Sea Girt, Lieut. Albert S. Jones, the secretary, has received entries from 11 teams that will take part in the Dryden trophy match. The teams entered this year are Connecticut, Rhode Island, Vermont, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, U. S. Army, U. S. Navy, U. S. Marine Corps, Maryland and Ohio. It is expected that Massachusetts and New York will both enter teams. Lieut. Jones received the entry from Ohio Monday afternoon.

Sunday at Hope Chapel.

The pulpit at Hope chapel will be filled on Sunday by Rev. George W. S. Wenrich, who preached excellent discourses last week. The subjects for the two services will be "The Divine Solicitude for the Soul" in the morning, and "Crumbs from the Master's Table" in the evening.

—Use Press Want Ads.

Luna Park's Great Free Circus.

One of the dozens of stupendous attractions at Luna Park, Coney Island, is the free circus, which surpasses any three-ring performance in this or any other country. Hair-raising acts abound, and marvelous feats which bewilder the spectator are going on continuously. It is called the mid-air circus, the reason being apparent by a glance at the picture shown above.

POLITICAL CHAT.

PARTY NOMINATIONS.

REPUBLICAN.
For President—Theodore Roosevelt
For Vice President—Charles W. Fairbanks.

DEMOCRATIC.
For President—Alton B. Parker.
For Vice President—Henry G. Davis.

POPULIST.
For President—Thomas E. Watson
For Vice President—Thomas W. Tribbles.

PROHIBITION.
For President—Silas C. Swallow.
For Vice President—George I. Carrol.

SOCIALIST.
For President—Eugene V. Debs.
For Vice President—Benj. Hanford.

SOCIALIST-LABOR.
For President—Charles H. Coregan.
For Vice President—William A. Cox.

Former Assemblyman Wm. Harrigan, of Newark, is not pleased with the intimation in the statement made by City Clerk James F. Connelly that the latter used Mr. Harrigan to bring about the defeat in 1898 of Former Governor Leon Abbett for United States Senator and the election of James Smith, Jr. He says: "At that time I took the responsibility of having Mr. Smith's name brought before the Essex Democratic members of the Assembly as a candidate for United States Senator, and all the Assemblymen were pleased, though one or two had not at that time made up their minds how they would act, but all felt favorably toward him. Mr. Smith and James F. Connelly knew nothing about my plans for the advancement of Mr. Smith until the day that I called a meeting of the Assembly members from this county."

LITERARY.

Edith Wynne Matthison, whose performances in "Everyman," the fine old morality play, and in standard comedy, have given her an enviable position in two seasons, will probably branch out this season, and it is not impossible that she may be seen in a great role. The last twenty years have seen the development of no other actress who has impressed the thoughtful with a belief in her tragic genius as has this young Englishwoman, whose greeting in this country has been so warm, that she is disposed to remain here always.—The Players, Everybody's Magazine for September.

New Jersey Gets $702,301.

By a decision of Federal Comptroller Tracewell, the State of New Jersey will be a beneficiary to the extent of $702,301. It was shown that the State expended that amount for interest on bonds issued by the State in aid of the United States Government during the Civil War. It was decided by the auditor having charge of the claim that the amount due was $479,888. Comptroller Tracewell, in revising the claim, added $222,418.

P. R. R. Elevated Tracks.

Pennsylvania Railroad trains will run on four tracks through New Brunswick next Monday and the work of elevating the tracks there will then be complete, after having been in progress over two and a half years.

—Neuman Brothers are advertising some especially fine Bartlett pears. They have fifty baskets, which will soon be gone if you do not get in before the rush.

VIEW OF CONGRESSIONAL FIELD

TAMENESS OF THE CONDITION IN THE FIFTH DISTRICT AT PRESENT.

The Newark Evening News takes this view of the political field in the Fifth district:

"What a change has come over the Fifth Congressional District. Two years ago both parties were as hot as a burning brush heap; now both are as cold as the ashes thereof soaked by a shower. Two years ago the Republicans were split into the Kean and Fowler factions; now there isn't enough interest to make a faction possible, and the coming convention promises nomination without animation, exaltation or insubordination. Two years ago the Democrats had one candidate; now they haven't any. DeWitt C. Flanagan is not anxious to make a second sacrifice, and James E. Martine, the ever defeated, but never discouraged, declines to play his usual role; Wheeler H. Peckham, of Mountainside Borough, Westfield, the "original Parker man," is suggested as an available candidate, but he has not yet sent a telegram on the subject.

"Meanwhile The Evening Times of Elizabeth, the new Democratic organ of Union County, urges the party leaders to come forward and do something to make the campaign a little interesting. That this unusual quiet means perfect peace is not to be believed. The Republican leaders have buried their hatchets, but the rank and file of the party still carry concealed weapons. If the Democrats could find a good, active, able, available candidate, as different from Mr. Flanagan as a horse is from an oyster, he would make an excellent run; but unless the unexpected happens, and such a nominee is placed on the ticket, Mr. Fowler will have a plain, unobstructed walkover, both for the nomination and the election."

Smoke Caused Alarm.

A fire started in the kitchen range at the house owned by John Bowman at 211 New street, caused an alarming back-draught in the chimney early yesterday afternoon. A telephone message sent to fire headquarters at 2:40 in the afternoon summoned the apparatus to the house. The rooms were found filled with dense smoke, but there was no occasion for the use of an extinguisher, as no fire could be seen. The trouble arose from the fact that the chimney flue had long been unused.

Ground Broken for School.

Ground was broken this morning for the new schoolhouse at the corner of Somerset street and Park place, adjoining the present Somerset school building. The contractor has six teams at work and the excavating will be rushed as quickly as possible.

NEW FACTORY LAW SEPT. 1

MEASURE REGULATING CHILD LABOR TO BECOME EFFECTIVE.

In common with every factory in the State all those of this city will pass under the provisions of the new factory law September 1, which becomes operative on that date. The law was passed by the Legislature last winter and was approved March 24.

The principal matter covered in the new law is the question of child labor, about which there has been active agitation for over a year. The law makes fourteen years the limit, under which children shall not be employed in factories, and provides a penalty of $50 for each violation.

Specific directions are given as to the matter of ascertaining the ages of children employed who are believed to be under age, and affidavit blanks much more elaborate and complicated than those in use under the old law, for certifying to the age, are provided for. A penalty of $50 is provided for a parent or guardian falsely swearing to the age of a child.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunck, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and a Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and, as its name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful places. On August 28, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Chunk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1.50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 8 23 5 c

To Remodel Jail.

A remodelled jail will cost Middlesex county from $32,000 to $34,000, according to the plans that were submitted to the Board of Freeholders yesterday. The Board received plans and bids but did not take any action, referring the matter to the County Buildings Committee for a decision.

We Are PREPARED

to put up the best awnings at most reasonable prices. A good awning properly put up will last for years. Let us estimate on yours.

We have specially interesting prices on Carpets, Mattings and Window Shades.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON, Babcock Building

Special Prices in FISH

at Roth & Co.'s

Small Salmon, - -	10c per lb
Cod Steak, - -	8c per lb
Cod to boil, - -	6c per lb
Porgies, - - -	6c per lb

Soft Shell Crabs and all kinds of Fresh Fish in season.

ROTH & CO.,

132 East Front Street. Telephone 208

--AUTOMOBILES--

We are making a great hit; we have come to force prices down. Already our great floor is crowded with bargains in new and second-hand cars.

Pope Hartford.

Pope Hartford.

The best all-around family car, the best hill climber and long distance car in America for the money—finish equal to any high priced car.

Pope Tribune.

The finest runabout on the market today. Call and inspect its merits before purchasing elsewhere.

Oldsmobiles.

A number of second-hand Oldsmobiles at your own price—other second-hand Auto's cheap to make room for our new stock. Inspection invited. We have or can get the car you want at much lower prices than others.

PLAINFIELD AUTO GARAGE,

114-120 West Second St., near Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

The woman who once tries "Queen Quality" Oxfords will rarely ever accept any other afterward. They spell every letter in the word "Satisfaction."

P. S.---Our Tan Oxford is town talk.

A. WILLETT & SON

107 PARK AVENUE.

Continued Special Prices on Summer Goods.

Window Screens—The adjustable pattern—hardwood—
18 inches high, 17c each — 24 inches high, 22c each
28 inches high, 26c each — 30 inches high, 27c each

Screen Doors—98c—Hardwood, fancy spindles, hardware, complete..... 98c

Ten per cent Reductions on all Oil Stoves, Ovens, Refrigerators, Ice Chest, Water Coolers, Hammocks.

Ice Cream Freezers—
Alaska—3 quart size,....1.78 — 4-quart size,.....2.19
White Mountain—3-qt....1.98 — 4-quart size.....2.42

"THE NEWEST THING OUT"

Combination Rod and Reel

See it in our show window.

A. M. Griffen, 119-123 E. Front St.

USE PRESS WANT ADS.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 5:21 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:42 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted at 7:42 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
fair and and cooler tonight. Saturday, fair Ther. 74.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887 — PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1904. — TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

CHURCH JUBILEE LASTS SIXTY DAYS

Father Miller Receives Important Circular Letter From Bishop McFaul, of Trenton.

BEGINS SEPTEMBER 8

FATHER EGAN ALSO RECEIVES SIMILIAR ORDER FROM BISHOP O'CONNOR.

Conditions of Plenary Indulgences —Other Favors—Full Text of the Episcopal Message.

A circular letter has been received by the pastors of the different Catholic churches in the Trenton diocese, including Father Miller, of St. Joseph's church, North Plainfield, instructing them to notify their people of the promulgation of the encyclical of his holiness Pius X, which announces the jubilee that will be held from September 8, the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin, until December 8, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the day on which Pius IX dogmatically defined the mystery of the virgin mother's immaculate conception. The letter which is dated August 1, states among other things:

"We hereby declare St. Mary's cathedral the jubilee church for this our episcopal city; the oldest church in other cities or towns where there is more than one church, and in those places where there is but one church that church is designated."

The conditions required by the sovereign pontiff to gain the plenary indulgence and other favors of the jubilee are:

First—To visit three times the cathedral and in other places the parish church, or, if there are two or more churches in the place, the church designated by the ordinary. The three visits may be made on one day or on different days.

Second—Devout prayers are to be recited at each visit for the liberty and the exaltation of the church and the apostolic see, the extirpation of error and heresies, the conversion of sinners, the concord of Christian rules and the peace, unity and salvation of the faithful.

Third—To fast one day. The fast means that no food is to be taken before noon. At the one full meal fish, eggs, milk, butter or the like. Only bread, fruit and vegetables are permitted at the collation.

Fourth—A worthy confession and communion. This obligation is distinct from the annual or Easter duty. One confession and communion will not satisfy for both.

Travelers on land or sea who return to their homes after December 8, if by traveling they have been prevented from making the exercises within the time prescribed, may gain the indulgence by visiting the church designated for the place they live, or have as temporary domicile, and complying with the other conditions prescribed within one week after their arrival.

After setting forth these conditions, the letter continues:

"During the above specified three months we, by these presents, grant all diocesan confessors, designated by the encyclical, such faculties as it may be lawful for us to grant them by its tenor, and we remind these confessors that the powers mentioned, the dispensations and commutations enumerated therein are to be used in accordance with the prescriptions of the same, and the rules laid down by approved authors.

"The jubilee may be gained by every rightly disposed Catholic, young or old, sick or well, cloistered or secular, since the conditions may be commuted by confessors.

"Let the reverend rectors read this letter to their people, exhort them from time to time to profit by the favors of the jubilee, explain the conditions required and remind them of complying with the loving invitation of the venerable head of the church. May the jubilee in honor of heaven's queen bring to mother church and this diocese many blessings; may the almighty our out upon all those entrusted to our charge the abundance of his tender mercies and may they remember the supreme pontiff and their bishop in their petitions to the most high."

The Right Rev. Bishop John J. O'Connor has given to the printer a circular letter to be issued to the priests of the Roman Catholic diocese of Newark, calling for a fitting cele-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.)

NEW THEATRE, MAYBE FOR PLAINFIELD SOON

Several Rumors That An Opera House Will Be Erected Here.

TWO PROPOSITIONS

NEW YORK ARCHITECTS ARE INTERESTED IN A COLOSEUM.

Men Looking at Hotel Rosell As a Site—Another Location Also in View by the Promoters.

Several rumors are afloat today concerning the erection of a theatre in this city, but the reports are vague to a great extent. One is that a movement is on foot to establish an open-air show house, on lines similar to the great amphitheatre at the University of California. Another is that New York and Philadelphia capitalists propose to build a model opera house in the heart of the business section.

At a dinner recently held in Washington, D. C., plans were discussed by leading architects of the country for the erection of a coloseum, or open air theatre, near Plainfield, the venture to be in the nature of an experiment. If successful the scheme is to build similar attractions in other localities. Mr. Crowley, of New York, was selected as supervising architect, and Edward Shinn, another New York architect, was designer. William R. Hearst, editor of a syndicate of well-known papers, donated the open-air theatre which has been so successful in California and which is said to be the incentive to the New Yorkers.

An unconfirmed report comes from Philadelphia that a $200,000 theatre is planned by capitalists for this city and that it will be erected in the business section. The cost of the structure, as given, appears to be absurd to the average person. Such an outlay is considered far above a reasonable figure. During the last two weeks, several New Yorkers, one of whom is a Mr. Laughlin, have visited the Hotel Rosell to examine the property. They gave it out that it was their intention to erect a model hotel and a theatre in this city. These men claimed that they already had an option on one site, but wished to get some figure on the hotel property, at the corner of Park avenue and Second street, before taking definite action. Mr. Rosell has a ten years' lease on the premises and when he furnished them with an estimate of the amount he would take to relinquish his lease, the New Yorkers declared that there was "nothing doing."

SNEAK THIEVES AT WORK

MONEY TAKEN FROM G. S. LARKIN'S HOUSE IN DUNELLEN.

Sneak thieves were busy again in Dunellen yesterday afternoon and made a haul of money at the home of George S. Larkin, of Walnut street. Larkin is a market gardener who raises vegetables on his farm in Dunellen and sells them in this city. Yesterday morning he made the trip as usual with his wagon, returning to Dunellen shortly after noon with $75 in cash.

When he went to work in the vegetable patch after dinner, he left the money in a pocketbook on the kitchen table, thinking it perfectly secure because he was working within a few feet of the back door. On returning to the house later, the money was gone. Larkin thinks the robbery was the work of sneak thieves, and suspects some of the numerous tramps who have visited his house within the past few days.

Trolley Party.

Miss Pauline Denton, of Washington avenue, and Miss Nellie Brown, of Dunellen, made up a trolley party of their friends yesterday afternoon and spent the evening at Boynton Beach. About fifteen young people from this city and Dunellen made up the party; they left on the 1 o'clock car from the North Avenue station and stayed at the beach resort until late in the evening.

Peter Galbraith, Sr.'s Funeral.

Funeral services over the body of Peter Galbraith, Sr., who died suddenly Wednesday afternoon, will be held from his late home on West Fourth street tomorrow morning at 8:30 and from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

THREATENED WOMAN SEEKS AID OF POLICE

Mrs. Ida M. Strauss Causes the Arrest of Maynard Lauyon, An Elizabethan.

COMMITTED TO JAIL

SHE SAYS HE VOWED TO KILL HER AND HIMSELF.

Formerly Resided in Plainfield and Attained Notoriety Through Charge of Bigamy Preferred Against Her Husband.

Mrs. Ida M. Strauss, a former well known resident of this city who gained wide publicity through the matrimonial tangles of her husband, Baldwin F. Strauss, has attracted attention to herself in Elizabeth by causing the arrest of Maynard Lanyon, who resides at 26 West Grand street, that city.

The Elizabeth police took him in custody Monday night, Mrs. Strauss declaring that he had threatened to shoot her and kill himself unless she left her home on Chestnut street and lived with him. He was arraigned before Judge Mahon Tuesday morning and held in bonds to keep the peace. He could not furnish the amount and was committed to the county jail.

Lanyon is very well known in Elizabeth and according to the police of that place he and Mrs. Strauss have been in each other's company a great deal of the time since she moved there from Plainfield last fall. For some reason they had a disagreement and becoming incensed Lanyon went to Mrs. Strauss' home and so terrified her by his declarations of contemplated murder and suicide that she was compelled to make the charge against him.

The troubles of the Strauss's are familiar to Plainfielders through the arrest of the husband for bigamy. Through a demand made upon him for unpaid alimony, it was learned that he had another wife living in Brooklyn beside the one in this city. He was arrested and locked up in Raymond street jail but eventually was released. The bigamy charge was never proven against him in court and though the local Mrs. Strauss forgave him on his release, she refused to live with him again. She removed with her son and daughter to Elizabeth and the husband has since been residing in Brooklyn.

PLAINFIELD MACHINE IN HAWAII

HANDSOME MAGAZINE IN DISTANT TERRITORY PRINTED ON A SCOTT PRESS.

The "Paradise of the Pacific," a twenty-eight page monthly magazine issued at Honolulu, Hawaiian territory, is now being printed on a modern Walter Scott two-revolution press. In it's August issue it gives a cut of the handsome machine and a detail account of its parts. The working speed of the press is up to 2,400 impressions an hour and it embraces the latest improvements applied to its style of make. The machine is similar to the one in use in The Daily Press office.

This is only one of the presses sent by the Scott Company to the Pacific territory and there are dozens of newspaper offices in that section which have big and large machines, turned out at the local factory. Western manufacturers nearer the shipping points have made strong bids for the orders but the Plainfield concern has so far distanced all competitors. The "Paradise of the Pacific" is one of the most important publications in Hawaii and the fact that its management selected the Scott machine speaks well for its construction.

Informal Reception.

An informal reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. George A. LeMatty who were married Wednesday evening. The affair was given by the grooms parents at their home. Only the bridal party and immediate families were present.

Mr. Heywood's New Position.

C. E. A. Heywood, formerly physical director of the local Y. M. C. A., has accepted a position as physical instructor at the new Y. M. C. A. at Birmingham, England. He will sail tomorrow.

—Preserving time is here again. Why not get some of those fine preserving plums at Neuman Brothers? Low prices, quality high.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS REOPEN ON SEPT. 13

New Faces to be Seen Among the Teaching Corps in the City and Borough.

BUILDINGS RENOVATED

MISS NILES TO RETURN AFTER A LONG LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

The Schoolhouses Repainted and Repaired—Many Changes in the Faculties This Fall.

Refreshed by their long vacation spent at seashore and mountain, Plainfield's corps of public school teachers is beginning to return in expectancy of resuming work left off last spring. September 13 is the date set for the opening and when the pupils assemble in their respective buildings, made fresh and bright by paint and varnish during their absence, they will find many familiar faces missing. By appointments to other positions and from other causes the faculties have been greatly changed.

At the High School there will be several new faces. Samuel B. Howe, Jr., formerly a principal at Saugerties, N. Y., will succeed Miss Grace E. Burroughs. Miss Eloise Santee, who had charge of the work in German, resigned her place to enter a New York High School and her place will be taken by Miss Mary Ethel Ferry, a graduate of the New York State Normal School. Miss Ariadne Gilbert, of this city, has been appointed teacher in English. Miss Ellen E. Niles, refreshed after a year's trip abroad, will assume her place with the Junior class and Mr. Best, Miss Ball and Miss Cummings will return also. Principal Travell is at present at Bradley Beach, where he has been all summer, but expects to return to the city early next month.

Four new teachers will be at the Franklin School; Miss Caroline M. Shaver, Miss Alice C. Miller, Miss Mary Bannister and Miss Mary L. Searle, the latter three graduates of the Westfield, N. Y., Normal School. Several changes have been made at the Washington, Irving and Lincoln buildings through transfers and resignations but at the Whittier the faculty will remain the same.

The Stillman High and Irving buildings have received the greater part of attention in the repairs and are now in excellent condition. The interiors and exteriors have been painted and the plumbing and heating systems have been gone over thoroughly. At the others many small matters were attended to and the final touches are being rushed to completion.

The North Plainfield schools will open on the same date and everything is already prepared for a smooth beginning for the term's work. No changes or improvements of great account have been made during the summer. New desks and chairs have been installed in the fifth and sixth grade rooms, the ones replaced being used to supersede other and obsolete furniture on the main floor.

More important are the changes in the faculty where a number of familiar faces will be missed, and there will be some new teachers. Miss Glass will be succeeded in the department of German and French by Miss Helen T. Stahlberger, A. B., a graduate of Syracuse University, who comes from Stamford, N. Y. The place of Miss Marian Bush as instructress in English, will be filled by Grace McKenzie Bradley, an A. B. of Elmira College, who last year was an preceptress in the Windsor, N. Y., High School. Margaret S. Hallock, who holds a B. L. degree from Mount Holyoke and who spent last year at Lindon Hall School, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., preparing pupils for Vassar College, takes charge of the courses in Latin and history, formerly the province of Miss Gertie Snodgrass. Miss Genevieve Deneen, of South Orange, takes charge of the instruction in cooking, sewing and dress-making, while Prof. J Edmund Skiff, who succeeded Miss Maxfield last year when the latter resigned to go to fill a similar position in the city schools of Paterson, will be a member of the teachers corps. For the rest, the faculty will be made up as before, consisting of Bertha E. Peek, Beatrice King, Mary A. Yoran, Alberta E. Waterbury, Mary C. Weller, Maude L. Bateman, Verona M. Carpenter, Ruth C. Hill, Sarah Mackey, Elizabeth M. Powers, Edith

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.)

7TH GAME BETWEEN PLAINFIELD-WESTFIELD

Tomorrow's Battle on Crescent Oval Diamond Sure to Attract a Big Crowd.

NO PITCHER SELECTED

MANAGER JOHNSTON NOT READY TO ANNOUNCE HIS TWIRLER.

Manager Denman Names His Line-up—Plainfield Needs to Win All of the Remaining Games.

Local fans are looking to another hot contest on the diamond tomorrow afternoon when the Plainfield A. C. and Westfield teams cross bats on the former's grounds. It will be the seventh in the series of ten games and Manager Johnston declares the best end of the score must come his way. To a Daily Press reporter today, he confidently whispered that his men were in the pink of condition, but when asked who the pitcher would be he looked out of the corner of his eye and said, "It might be Jones and it might be Brown."

Virgil Garvin, the Brooklyn pitcher who did the slab work for the locals on one occasion, was released yesterday by Manager Hanlon, but he claims he has not signed with Plainfield. Hanlon stated that Garvin gave him more trouble than all the other men on the team and besides had the faculty of getting his other men discontented and into mix-ups.

Manager Denman says his line-up for tomorrow's game will be thusly: Cotter, c; Waller, p; Smithson, ss; Rochford, 1b; Quinby, 2b; Barry, 3b; MacManus, lf; Mallen, cf; Seward, rf. According to their views all they require to win out is a little ginger and a few base hits.

For the mathematically disposed here is the situation of the series: Of the six games played, Westfield has credit for four and Plainfield two. Of the remaining games to be played, four, Westfield needs one to tie and two to win. Plainfield must win three of the four to tie and requires all of them to get the pennant. The four games are scheduled: Tomorrow and September 10 on Plainfield A. C. grounds and September 3 and 24 at Recreation Park

The local field is in excellent condition and Ground Supervisor Mumford says there is nothing on it to prevent good, snappy ball.

PHIL JAHN, CHAMPION EATER

THE C. C. OF PERSEVERANCE LODGE DEFEATS THE P. C. OF UNITY LODGE.

Unity Lodge, No. 102, Knights of Pythias, held a business meeting last evening at the lodge rooms at the conclusion of which a watermelon social was held. The object of the business meeting was to arrange upon plans for the annual Field Day at Somerville, which will take place September 5.

As the railroad and trolley accommodations on that date will be limited, the members decided to proceed to Somerville in a four-horse float, which they will enter in the parade. It will be of an allegorical nature, representing familiar Pythian groups and the insignia of the order. A committee composed of Jere VanWinkle, Jr., Frank Putnam, Harry Werner, T. C. Smith and Amos Andrews was appointed to receive the names of all Unity men who wish to go. They will also design the float's decorations.

The visitors at the meeting last evening were members of Perseverance Lodge, and Phillip Jahn, of Perseverance Lodge and Jeremiah VanWinkle, of Unity Lodge, contested for the championship in eating watermelon. The stunt was to eat the most watermelon in any way possible and with no time limit. The melons were cut in small pieces. Jahn won. Of course the rest of the gathering had their chance at melons.

The Last of the Season.

Hope chapel's Sunday-school excursion goes to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove tomorrow and it will be the last from this city this season. The train leaves Grant Avenue station at 7:50, Plainfield at 8 o'clock and the return trip commences at 7:55, thus giving a full day at the shore. From present indications it will be one of the best excursions of the season, as the committee has left nothing undone to provide comfort and a good time for everybody.

DEMOCRATS ISSUE CALL FOR CONVENTION

The State Chairman Formally Announces That the Party Will Meet September 15.

PRIMARIES, SEPT. 13

MEETING IN THE STATE STREET THEATRE, TRENTON, AT NOON.

Basis of Representation — Fractional Votes—State Headquarters in Newark Are Open.

The call for delegates to the Democratic State convention to be held in Trenton Sept. 15, was issued today by the State Executive Committee.

State headquarters have already been opened in the Jefferson Club on West Park street, Newark, and Chairman Gourley and Secretary William K. Devereux, of Asbury Park, will be in attendance with a corps of clerks and helpers. The headquarters will remain open until the close of the campaign.

The convention call follows:

The Democratic State Convention will be held on Thursday, Sept. 15, 1904, at the State Street Theatre, in the city of Trenton at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor and candidates for electors for President and Vice President of the United States.

Primaries for the selection of delegates for this convention will be held in pursuance of law on the thirteenth day of September, 1904. The basis of representation as fixed by law is one delegate for every 200 votes cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1901, and one delegates for each fraction there of over 100, provided that each ward or township or borough without wards shall be entitled to at least one delegate.

Each delegate from a ward, township or borough without wards which cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1901, less than the number of votes aforesaid required for one delegate, shall have in the convention a full vote.

William B. Gourley,
Chairman Democratic State Committee.
William K. Devereux, Secretary.
Dated Aug. 20, 1904.

SADIE MESLER IS PROSTRATED

GIRL WHO ACCIDENTALLY KILLED MAN IS A NERVOUS WRECK.

Sadie Mesler, the former Plainfield girl who accidentally shot and killed Pasquale Aquino, a young Italian on Fourteenth street, New York, Wednesday, is in a dangerous condition at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Montfort. Soon after the shooting when the seriousness of the affair became apparent to her, she swooned away and has since been in a hysterical state.

"I've killed him," is her constant cry, and it was only when powerful opiates had been administered last night that she secured any sleep. Even then she moaned and cried softly, as though the memory of the accident still haunted her drugged slumber. Mrs. Montfort is a nervous wreck as well as the girl.

Coroner Scheier was not very much pleased with the sympathy that was extended to the girl by the public today.

"I believe that the shooting was accidental," he said, "but it was due to carelessness and could very well have been avoided. Care in that section of the city is especially desirous, for there are any number of people there who have revolvers and they handle them with the same unconcern they would firecrackers. The parents of Pasquale Aquino are prostrated, and I have postponed the inquest for a week or ten days on their account. The girl is being held under bonds until that time."

Trolley Party From Newark.

Two big special cars, containing about 200 members of the Epworth League of Trinity Methodist church, Newark, reached the North Avenue trolley station at about 10 o'clock last night. The leaguers brought lots of noise machines with them and kept up a continuous racket while they were waiting for their cars to start back again. No stop was made here by the party.

—Telometes, 10 in package, 11c; special for Friday and Saturday at Kirch's cigar store, 120 North avenue.

NEWARK'S COPPERS WON BURLESQUE GAME

Plainfield's "Finest" Defeated on Crescent Oval by Score of 17 to 5.

VISITORS ENTERTAINED

JOLLY TIME AT THE HOTEL WALDORF FOLLOWS CONTEST.

"Rue" Daily Made Twelve Errors —City Officials Witness the Slaughter—The Lineups.

A certain New York character who makes the East Side his particular stamping ground was once asked if his father had been hung for stealing sheep and he languidly replied, "Aw, forget it." The same expression might be used inelegantly and yet to the point with respect to all queries about yesterday's so-called baseball game between teams representing the local police and the Newark Fourth precinct on the Plainfield A. C. grounds. Five hundred fans who gave up a quarter each to hold down the hard side of a board are trying to "forget it" but it will long linger in their memories as one of the worse burlesques on the national sport they ever looked over. The score? Well, yes, it was 17 to 5 in favor of the Newarkers but if the game hadn't been called in the seventh inning they might have been at it yet.

Just who is responsible for the allegation that Plainfield's finest could play ball will never be known as the rascal took care to cover his tracks. He evidently got confused and meant to say ping pong or checkers but baseball—never. There is one exception, Peter Hamilton, who held down the initial bag in a manner that made his brother coppers look like the proverbial thirty cents half spent. He played ball while the others looked wise and handled the sphere as if it were composed of the same material the outside of eels are covered with. The men from Essex county openly walked from base to base and the Plainfielders simply got in each other's way when they tried to get them out. Manager Charlie Flynn, but sh—let it be said only that he failed to be regular at rehearsals.

Fred Winn did the slab work for the locals and stood good for one inning. After that the ball was out in deep center oftener than it was anywhere else, two and three baggers being common in the fourteen hits that the scorer recorded. "Rue" Daily was behind the bat but he had evidently left his glasses home and felt around for the ball as a rule, two minutes after it had passed him He was credited with a large portion of the twelve errors that Plainfield made.

Newark's playing was nothing exceptional but it was steady throughout and there were no great bungles. They were checked up with one error and their pitcher held the locals down to three hits, one of them a "homer" made by Daily in the second when the bases were filled, netting four runs. The other was actually given Plainfield in the seventh. The slaughter was witnessed by Chief Kiely and many other officials and the former has promised that eight-ninths of his colts will be farmed out for a spell before they get back in uniform.

The line-up of the two teams was as follows:

Plainfield—Daily, c; Hamilton, 1b; Helmer, 2b; McGinley, ss; C. Flynn, 3b; Higgins, rf; Winn, p; J. Flynn, cf; Messler, lf.

Newark—Horter, rf; Watts, 3b; Schoreder, ss; Bonnett, c; Hook, 2b; Reilely, p; Carr, 1b; Meier, cf; Jeremias, lf.

Following the game, victor and vanquished adjourned to the Waldorf Hotel where the visitors were entertained in a royal manner. After an address of welcome by City Judge Runyon to which a response was made by Captain Brown, of Newark, an excellent supper was served. Good-natured, airy persiflage floated around its disposal and there were numerous cheers and songs in conclusion. A return game will be played at Newark on September 6.

Borough Health Good.

The home of Thomas Rutledge at Manning and Franklin avenues, was disinfected today by Health Inspector Pangborn. A young son in the family has been ill with diphtheria. There are only two other cases of contagious disease in the borough and the quarantine on these will be lifted Monday.

—Use Press Want Ads.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

M. C. VanArsdale is selling all his summer ware at a great reduction in order to allow room for the fall and winter stock. Now is your chance to get the bet bargains.

Haven't you heard that the price of coal is likely to go up before long? Then why don't you get in your order at John Johnson's before you have to pay the winter prices?

The next time you feel like doing yourself a favor, go into Hodge's and get a glass of his soda, or try his ice cream. You will find both most refreshing and will be less inclined to kick about the heat.

See C. Conover, the paper hanger, about brightening up that room by a new dress of wall paper. He has a great variety of styles on display at his office on Kimwood place. Stop at the place and look them over.

Want a bicycle, a phonograph, records or musical instruments? Frucht's new West Front street store has a large line of all mentioned at never-before-heard-of prices. Drop in and look around. All the latest sheet music.

Watches and clocks require expert attention when they get out of order. You can do no better than by taking them to J. Hervey Doane, the Park avenue jeweller for repair. A full line of wedding and birthday gifts in silver and gold.

Alexander Kane is now occupied with making the building which he owns in Galvin's Park, but he will be glad to stop and do any work for you if you have buildings you want carried away. He also does grading and lays sidewalks.

Fred Endress is receiving fresh assortments of meat daily. It's a great treat to have good meat whenever you want it, and you'll find that Endress will never fail you. You can't help getting good meat as that's all Endress deals with.

Wiss shears cut. Don't buy cheap shears or scissors, it's false economy. If you've ever bought cheap shears, you are convinced of this. Wiss shears are fully guaranteed, good, lasting cutters. The Gayle Hardware Co. has a full line of them.

James R. Blair, the Park avenue haberdasher, is showing some very neat watch fobs that are becoming all the rage. Ask to see one, "no trouble at all to show goods." By the way, Blair is beginning to receive fall styles of Hawes hats.

Right now is the time to give that order for meat to Smalley Brothers. Never mind all the talk about high prices resulting from the Chicago strike. Smalley Brothers have not altered theirs at any time and they are just as ready as ever to supply any demands, for the very best cuts.

W. W. Dunn's grocery is located at Duer street and Lincoln place. It is stocked with the very best of staple and fancy goods and to secure the proof of this assertion it is only necessary to give him a trial order. It will be delivered promptly and there is no doubt about satisfaction being given.

Planning a trip? Of course, then, you will want a suit case, trunk or grip. Shirley & Johnson, in the Babcock building, have one of the largest displays to be seen this side of New York and at prices that cannot be qualled in the city. Their suit cases are guaranteed to be able to stand wear and tear and not become streaky in a few months. They make and lay carpets, too.

What is advertised as the greatest sale of trousers of the season is now being conducted at Weinberger's West Front street men's furnishing store. The same firm is advertising a big sale of men's light weight suits at practically half price. It isn't so near the end of the season when days come along that you feel most comfortable in a light suit. Call at the store, look over the bargains and make your selection.

Right in the front rank of fish and meat markets in this city you will find Roth & Co.'s big East Front street store. That is a place where you get the best; other butchers advertise the same fact about their stores, but look at Roth's prices and you will see why you should get the best there. All kinds of seasonable meat at the lowest prices in the city for the best quality. Their fish department receives fresh consignments daily, right from the hooks and nets

$8.00 to Niagara Fall and Return Via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Grand Labor Day excursion. Tickets on sale September 2 and 3, good returning until September 5, inclusive. A trip of four days to the famous Cataract at minimum cost. Side trip tickets to Toronto and Alexandria Bay on sale at Niagara Falls, at low fares, to holders of excursion tickets. Ask city agent, 218 Front street, for further particulars. 8 19 11

The Misses Elliott, of Madison avenue, have gone to Asbury Park for a part of their vacation.

The Fair

130 West Front Street, Plainfield

Last Day Of The CLEARANCE SALE

Grasp the importance of this event. The last day of the Great Clearance Sale. Then come to The Fair tomorrow prepared to find the greatest money-saving opportunities ever presented. Tremendous Price Concessions, making the day memorable for its Unparalleled Savings.

Great Sale of Women's Garments.

	WERE	NOW
White Washable Shirt Waist Suits	4.00-5.98,	1.98 to 2.98
Fancy Washable Suits	3.90-7 50,	1.98 to 3.98
Washable Dress Skirts	75c-2.98,	43c to 1.69
Tailor-made Suits	10.00-25.00,	4.48 to 9.98
Tailor-made Skirts	2 48-10.00,	1.19 to 4.98
Silk Skirts	10.00-12.50,	4.98 to 6.98
Covert Coats	7.50-10.00,	3.48 to 5.98
Silk Coats	7.50-10.00,	3.98 to 5.98
Silk Waists	2.48-3.98,	1.39 to 1.98
Children's Silk Coats	5.00-10.00,	2.48 to 3.98

Women's Hosiery.

Cotton Stockings, fast black, seamless, double feet, heel and toe, value 15c, special at..... 10C

Women's Imported Cotton Stockings, Richelieu ribbed, Hermsdorf dye, also a lot of over lace Stockings in black. Not a pair worth less than 25c, at..... 19C

Women's Vests.

Regular 15c Cotton Ribbed Vests, low neck, no sleeves, neck and arms neatly finished, very elastic. They come in pink, blue, black and white; 15c Vests, at..... 10C

Women's 25c Vests or Pants, Vests are either straight or shaped, 29c values, at..... 19C

Sale of Corsets.

Summer weight Coutille, Batiste and Net, straight front, French shapes and girdles in pink, blue and white, 50c to 75c values, at... 48c-25c

Sale of Wrappers.

Women's Lawn Wrappers, light and dark figures and stripes, with fancy braid, embroidery and lace trimming. 1.00 and 1.25 values, special this sale at..... 75c

Infants' and Children's Wear.

Children's Body Skirts of Cambric, wide hem, 25c. Infants' long Slips, finished with ruffle..... 25c

Children's Suspender Dresses of Chambray, with white Lawn Waists, 89c values, at..... 59c

The woman who once tries "Queen Quality" Oxfords will rarely ever accept any other afterward. They spell every letter in the word "Satisfaction."

P. S.---Our Tan Oxford is town talk.

A. WILLETT & SON

107 PARK AVENUE.

Special for Saturday and Monday at

GULLEN'S

We give Gold, Green, Red and Blue Stamps.

100 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at.....70c
70 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at.....60c
50 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at.....50c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Baking Powder at.....45c
50 Stamps with 1 lb Coffee, Special.....30c

Pure Leaf Lard, lb	10c	5 gallon Oil	60c
California Ham, lb	11c	1 gallon Oil	13c
Pony bas. Sweet Potatoes	20c	Best Elgin Creamery Butter, lb.	21c
Lemon Cakes, lb	4½c	6 lb Rice	25c
Ginger Snaps, lb	4½c	Power, box	5c
1 lb bag Salt	3c	1 qt. Syrup	7c
Canned Ham	4c	2 packages Soapine	5c
Canned Tongue	4c	2 packages Scourine	5c
Canned Beef, 1 lb	12c	Bag Superlative Flour	75c
Imported Sardines, can	10c	Columbia River Salmon, can	15c
Good Soap, cake	2c	3 lb can Boston Beans	8c
Toilet Soap, 2 cakes	5c	Canned Tomatoes, best	7c
Crest Milk, 3 cans	25c	Canned Peas	7c
12 kinds fancy Cakes, lb	10c

Fine Delaware and Jersey Peaches Cheap.

FRANK CULLEN'S, 1001 South Second Street. Telephone Call 430-w.

Advertise in The Daily Press.

Your 'Cash' Has Double Power Over Here.

As you pay us CASH for all you buy, we give you all the benefits of "Cash" prices, and generous lots of Red Star Stamps besides—as you save us the costly losses of "credit accounts," we SAVE YOU the extravagances of high prices the credit grocers HAVE to ask! The Scheuer Stores are for the people 365 days in the year; their gains are the PEOPLE'S gains always

This Sale for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Best Laundry Starch, 3c lb.	Fairbanks Fairy Soap, 3½c cake.	U-lika Buscuits, 3c package	Nabisco Crackers, assorted flavors, 19c box.

$12.00 worth of Stamps with 1 lb New Crop 70c Teas, any flavor.
$10.00 worth of Stamps with 1 lb New Crop 60c Teas, any flavor.
$7.00 worth of Stamps with 1 lb New Crop 50c Teas, any flavor.
$3.00 worth of Stamps with 1 lb of our 35c Teas, any flavor.

Swift's Lard 8c lb.	Marshall's Kippered Herring 13c can.	Mustard Sardines, large tin 8c.	Masons Quart Jars, 49c doz.

$3.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Best Mocha and Java Coffee, per lb..32c
$2.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Premium Java Coffee, per lb.....27c
$2.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Maracaibo Coffee, per lb.....23c
$1.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Golden Santos Coffee, per lb.....18c

20 Stamps with ½ bushel Potatoes, 45c.	10 Stamps with pony basket Sweet Potatoes, 29c.	10 Stamps with pony basket Red or Yellow Onions, 33c.	10 Stamps with pony basket Apples, 19c basket.

IN OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT.

Five Dollar's worth of Stamps with 5 lbs Plate Corned Beef.
Two Dollar's worth of Stamps with each Leg of Lamb.
Two Dollar's worth of Stamps with a Leg of Mutton.
One Dollar's worth of Stamps with each Shoulder of Lamb.
One Dollar's worth of Stamps with 2 lbs Hamburg Steak.
One Dollar's worth of Stamps with ½lb Boiled Ham.

1.00 IN STAMPS with following articles:
1 Bottle Grape Juice.....23c
1 bottle Vanilla Extract,.....15c
1 large bot Worc. Sauce.....12c
1 bot Premium Catsup.....13c
1 bottle Premium Vinegar.....10c
1 bot Ammonia.....10c
1 bot Blue.....10c
1 bot. Royal Shoe Polish.....10c
1 box Tooth Powder.....10c
1 box Talcum Powder.....10c

1.00 In stamps with any of the following articles:
3-lb box Argo Starch.....20c
3 lb box choice Rice.....20c
3 lbs Pearl Barley.....15c
1 pkg Macaroni.....10c
1 pkge Pearl Tapioca.....10c
1 package Hasty Tapioca.....10c
1 pkge Premium Farina.....10c
1 package Rolled Oats.....10c
1 pkg Parlor Matches,.....12c
1 pkg Washing Powder.....10c

1.00 In stamps with any of the following crackers:
1 lb Chocolate Sensations.....15c
1 lb Sultana Fruit Crackers.15c
1 lb Fig Newtons.....13c
1 lb Grandma's Cookies.....12c
1 lb choice Mixed Cakes.....12c
1 lb pkge Graham Crackers.12c
1 pkg Butter Thin Crackers.10c
1 lb Currant Wheels.....12c
2 package Social Teas, ea.....10c
2 pkge 5 O'clock Teas, ea.....10c

S. SCHEUER & CO.

Why It Pays To Buy Fish Of Ivamy.

"Better to handle one thing and handle it well."

We are "Specialists" in Fish and guarantee the Freshness and Quality of every Fish we sell.

You'll find here a better assortment of fine Fresh Fish than at stores making this only a side line.

Reasonable prices.

Special Cash Sale Saturday.

FRED IVAMY,
(Successor to Rogers & Co.)
232 W. Second Street.
Telephone 140

TELEPHONE 467 J.

Schreiner's
PARK AVE. AND SECOND ST.
PHARMACY

RUBBER GLOVES—
Very goods to wear for housework, they keep the hands clean and prevent cracking of skin.

Ice Cream Soda and Confectionery.

Brokaw's Creamery

Everything clean, sanitary and up-to-date.

My own make of Butter is simply elegant, so we are told every day; and our Sweet Butter without salt is selling like hot cakes.

My Buttermilk is unsurpassed, everybody says it's the best in the city. A trial will convince you.

One specialty is Fresh Eggs direct from the farm.

Call and we will be pleased to show you what a first-class Creamery is like.

We have everything in the Dairy line, also a nice line of Crackers and Bread.

186 East Front St.

Porch Rockers. Lawn Settees. Willow Chairs.

Powlison & Jones,

149 & 151 East Front St.

Butter, Milk,
Poultry and Eggs
direct from the best Jersey farms.
Also Ham, Bacon,
Bolognas and Sausages.
H. H. Smith,
228 Park Avenue, Opp. North.

LAKE HOPATCONG.

10-room cottage, boat house and landing, three hundred dollars for season. Store room to let one of best location in Plainfield. City property and farm to let, for sale and exchange. Ira L. LaRue, North and Watchung avenues.

Jos. W. Gavett.

FRUIT JARS. JELLY GLASSES.
STONE POTS.
. . . JAR RUBBERS . . .

SWEPT CHAUTAUQUA

Five Thousand In Panic at Parkhurst's Grove.

FOUR DEAD, TWO PROBABLY WILL DIE

Storm Suddenly Struck Stockton Town Picnic—Horses Stampeded, Trampling the Crowd — Many Buildings Laid Low.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A tornado swept through Chautauqua county late yesterday afternoon, leaving death and great destruction in its path. Parkhurst's grove, where the Stockton town picnic was being held, was directly in the path of the storm. Five thousand people were on the grounds when the storm broke. Four people were killed and several injured.

The dead are Mrs. Austin E. Pierce of Fredonia, Miss Ina Scott of Shumla, Orin Dalrymple, sixty years old, and an unidentified child.

The injured are Mrs. Orin Dalrymple of Shumla, who will probably die, and Arthur Bills of Portland.

The storm came up suddenly. Trees in the grove were struck by lightning, many of them were blown down, and the rain fell in torrents. The people who took refuge under the trees at the first signs of the storm were caught by the falling branches and either killed or injured. Many horses were killed in the same manner. Some of the animals stampeded, trampling upon the injured people who were lying upon the ground.

The buildings in the vicinity were blown flown and others were unroofed. Hundreds of forest and fruit trees were blown down, and corn and oat fields were laid waste, entailing a loss of thousands of dollars.

At the assembly grounds at Chautauqua many trees were uprooted, and a portion of the fence around the grounds was demolished. The men's clubhouse was badly damaged.

Theatrical Women's Parker League.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Judge Parker has been more than usually busy entertaining a number of men whose missions were political, as well as a delegation representing the Theatrical Women's Parker league. The candidate was told that 120 women are members of the league, which, the delegation said, controls 160 votes in the theatrical profession. The members propose to turn all of these votes into the Democratic column and as many more as can be reached by their influence. The delegation was composed of members of companies now rehearsing in New York and received a cordial reception.

Salvation Army Barracks Burned.

STAMFORD, Conn., Aug. 26.—Joseph Zink, an itinerant tailor, was suffocated in a fire which gutted a three story building occupied by the Salvation Army and several families. Zink was a lodger in the army barracks and evidently succumbed while asleep in a bunk, the fire afterward charring the body. William Ferguson, another lodger, who has two artificial limbs, reached a second story window and dropped out, being probably fatally hurt. He is forty years old, and Zink was sixty-five. Many of the other occupants of the building received burns and bruises. The fire loss is $3,000.

Their Food Supply Exhausted.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 26.—Cloudbursts and washouts in Tonapah and along the lines of the Tonapah and Carson and Colorado railroads are the most disastrous in the history of these districts. People at Tonapah and Goldfields are on the verge of starvation. They are being temporarily relieved by the rushing in of supplies via Ocean Springs, Silver Peak and Candelaria by wagon trains. But this is only temporary, and as over 5,000 people must be fed in the different camps extraordinary measures must be taken for their relief. Food supplies are practically exhausted.

Blow to Save Killed Him.

KINGSTREE, S. C., Aug. 26.—A coroner's jury found Harry Hardy not guilty of murder of his deaf mute brother, whom he struck with his fist in order to knock him from the track to avoid a fast approaching train on the Atlantic Coast line. The deaf mute was drunk and refused to respond to his brother's warning, but foolishly tried to make signals to the engineer to stop. Harry struck him a violent blow in the face, and the jury found that the blow caused the deaf mute's death. Harry was released from custody.

Eggleston-Dunn Wedding.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Mabel E. Dunn, only daughter of Colonel and Mrs. George W. Dunn, and Dr. Horace Wardner Eggleston, first assistant physician at the Binghamton state hospital and son of the novelist, George Cary Eggleston. The ceremony will be in the First Presbyterian church in this city on the evening of Sept. 8.

Suicide In World's Fair Camp.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—Cristobal Salvator, a corporal in the Philippine constabulary, encamped at the world's fair, has committed suicide by shooting. He was found in his tent with a Winchester rifle lying near him. He left a letter stating that ill health caused him to take his life.

Platt and Party For Adirondacks.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Senator T. C. Platt, Mrs. Platt and party of ladies stopped here last night on their way to the Adirondacks. Governor Odell dined with them and accompanied them to the train.

DOLLY SPANKER.

Won Saranac Handicap at Saratoga Track.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Dolly Spanker won the Saranac handicap, the stake race. Fort Hunter, the favorite, pulled up lame in the stretch. St. Valentine, on the rail, was a head in front when the barrier rose. Dolly Spanker went out in front, however, before the quarter post was reached and was never headed. Fort Hunter ran second all the way to the stretch, where Odom eased him.

Canteen, favorite in the first event, won all the way and was two lengths in the lead under the wire.

Malden won the steeplechase by two lengths from Libretto, who challenged gallantly. Hark Forward pulled up lame.

Merces won the third by a head after Princess Eris, the favorite, had made the pace all the way.

Jack McKeon beat the favorite in the fifth by two lengths.

In the sixth Merry England, the favorite, was at all times best and won by a length.

BASEBALL SCORES.

Results of Yesterday's Games In National and American Leagues.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At Pittsburg—
Philadelphia..... 0 1 3 0 3 0 0 1 0—8
Pittsburg..... 0 1 1 1 0 3 4 1 —11
Batteries—Mitchell, Fraser and Dooin; Case, Leever and Phelps.
Second Game—
Philadelphia..... 0 0 3 1 2 2 0 2—10
Pittsburg..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0—1
Batteries—Suthoff and Dooin; Philippi and Phelps. Game called on account of darkness.
At St. Louis—
Boston..... 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—2
St. Louis..... 2 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 —5
Batteries—McNichols and Marshall; McFarland and Grady.
Second Game—
Boston..... 0 4 1 0 0 0 0 0 1—6
St. Louis..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0—1
Batteries—Fisher and Marshall; Dunleavy and McLean.
At Chicago—
New York..... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 3—4
Chicago..... 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1
Batteries—McGinnity and Warner; Welmer and Kling.
Second Game—
New York..... 0 1 0 2 4 0 5 —12
Chicago..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1
Batteries—Wiltse and Warner; Wicker and O'Neill.
At Cincinnati—
Brooklyn..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2
Cincinnati..... 0 0 0 0 2 1 1 0 —4
Batteries—Scanlon and Ritter; Hahn and Feitz.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

Clubs.	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	77	31	.713
Chicago	65	43	.602
Pittsburg	62	45	.579
Cincinnati	64	47	.577
St. Louis	59	52	.582
Boston	43	69	.384
Brooklyn	28	71	.349
Philadelphia	20	80	.273

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At Boston—
Chicago..... 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 1 0—3
Boston..... 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1 0—2
Batteries—Altrock and McFarland; Young and Criger.
At Philadelphia—
Detroit..... 2 2 0 0 2 0 1 0 0—7
Philadelphia..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1—2
Batteries—Kitson and Beville; Waddell and Schreck.
At Washington—
Cleveland..... 2 0 4 0 0 2 0 0 0—8
Washington..... 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 2—4
Batteries—Bernhard and Bemis; Wolfe and Clark.
At New York—
St. Louis..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1
New York..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1—2
Batteries—Glade and Sugden; Powell and Kleinow.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

Clubs.	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	64	40	.615
Boston	64	42	.598
Chicago	64	45	.587
Philadelphia	58	44	.569
Cleveland	58	46	.558
Detroit	47	58	.448
St. Louis	40	62	.392
Washington	24	81	.229

The Pet and Navigator.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 26. — The players of favorites and special good things made bookmaking an unprofitable business at Highland park. The ring was hard hit on several races and particularly by the steeplechase, which was won by Navigator, who was the medium of a very heavy play. The Pet, who made her first appearance at the meeting, easily won the feature event of four and a half furlongs, for which she was a strong second choice to Darthula, who took the place. Easy Trade surprised the talent by repeating in the fifth race at the good price of 6 to 1. Nugget was the good thing in the first race and won by a nose in a drive with Jigger. By Play and Christine A. were winning favorites in the second and third races.

Racing at World's Fair.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—Tom Shelley and Woodlands, coupled in the betting at 1 to 50 as the Schreiber entry, easily won the Missouri Futurity at the fair grounds. J. B. Sheridan was third, two lengths behind Woodlands. In the second race Franco dislocated his knee just as he got his head in front of Princess Orna, 100 yards from the wire. The colt faltered, but gamely continued his run on three legs, being beaten two lengths from first place, but finishing two lengths in front of King's Trophy.

Peter J. at Hawthorne.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—The surprise of the day at Hawthorne came in the second race, when Peter J., who has been beaten off in cheap company a number of times, came to the wire ahead of Sylvia Talbot and Princess Tulane. He took the lead at the start and held it to the finish. Ahola ran a good race in the third and caught Bragg just before reaching the wire. It looked as though she did not have a chance when they turned for home, but Ahola had a world of speed and took the race in a close finish.

Saratoga Polo Team Won.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 25.—The Saratoga Polo club's annual tournament began here with the opening play for the Grand Union Hotel cup. The Saratogas defeated the Albany second team by 25¾ points, the Albanys failing to score.

Halifax to New York Record.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26. — The Red Cross line steamer Rosalind has established a new record for the passage between Halifax, N. S., and New York. She made the pier here in forty-four hours from the Halifax dock.

MULLINS & SONS

89.50 Will Furnish 4 Rooms.

A Little Down and A Little A Week Will Furnish A Home.

Why Pay More Elsewhere?

COUCHES

BEAUTIFUL COUCHES, in an almost endless variety are found here; deep, rich colors Made for solid comfort.

3.75 to 75.00.

COUCH—Plain design, hardwood frame, upholstered in velour.....3.98

COUCH—Handsome velour covering, tasty, neat and latest style, comfortable head, tempered steel springs; good value at 10.00. Special....7.50

AT 22.00—This Couch is upholstered in very fine grade velour, fancy tufted seat, handsome hand-made fringe, made by expert mechanics, and at this price is really a snap for some folks. Special.....22.00

GO-CARTS

What a marvel of lightness and compactness is our Folding Go-Carts — They are so light and so easily handled.

FOLDING GO-CARTS—Golden oak, neat design, takes up very little room.....1.98

AT 7.50—Reed Body; the woodwork is of maple; has patent foot brake, green enameled gear, strong and durable, worth 10.00. Special...7.50

AT 11.50—Made of a very high grade of selected reed; the strong and supporting post is wound with the same material and all being well finished in shellac; the running gear contains everything known in the line of up-to-date improvements. It is a bargain at.11.50

PARLOR SUITS

WELL-MADE FIVE-PIECE PARLOR SUIT, mahogany finish, with covering of figured damask, soft springs. Special..... 16.50

AT 24.75—It is an elegant suit, made in the finest manner, mahoganized frame neatly carved, beautifully and thoroughly upholstered; steel tempered springs; several styles of coverings; real value 36.50. A strong special at 24.75

HERE'S A SUPERB PARLOR SUIT, fully 16.00 under what it's really worth; exquisite inlaid marqueterie work in this 5-piece Parlor Suit, sumptuously upholstered in damask, two different patterns of highly polished frames. Specially priced at..... 29.75

UPRIGHT REFRIGERATORS $4.10.

MULLINS & SONS.

218 Market Street, Newark, N. J.

Campaign Pocket Knives

Like the Candidates,
First-class,
Fully Guaranteed
and all right on the Tariff.

GAYLE HARDWARE CO.,

Front St. and Park Ave.

BUTTERMILK

WHY YES

we make it fresh every day, and Potcheese, too. Try some.

LINDSAY DAIRY,

Tel. 451 J. FARM MOUNTAIN AVENUE.

TRY 5 GALLONS WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER.

Orders by mail promptly filled.
Patent swinging crate, very convenient

Plainfield Spring Water Co
Box 743. Plainfield, N. J.

-:- PUTNAM & DEGRAW -:-

Royal Tooth Powder, can.....10c
Royal Talcum Powder, can.....10c
Mennen's Talcum Powder, can.....18c
Witch Hazel, bottle.....10c
Violet Toilet Water, bottle.....25c
Lyons' Tooth Powder, can.....19c

THE PLEASURE

of a smoke depends on the quality of the Cigar! Spend the lazy hours of your vacation in smoking and you'll find you've got your money's worth every time. Our Cigars are good and the price is low. Sold singly or by the box.

OUR CIGARS,

KIRBY'S

106 Park Avenue, Plainfield.

Advertised Mail Matter

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 22, 1904.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Abbington, C
Bustrim, Mr F O
Baumler, Miss Teresa
Burges, Mr S
Bond, Mr Hurbert
Bilts, Miss Ella B
Burton, Miss Mary
Buckingham, Mr W K
Coriell, Mrs R M
Coburn, Mrs
Callinan, James H
Curtis, Thomas W
Clark, Mr Henry W
Carkhuff, Mrs Julia
Carroll, Mrs T H
Dudley, Mrs Seuner
Dunham, Miss Susan
Douglass, Miss Ruth
Daly, Miss Ellen M
Farrington, William
Fralyn, Miss Sadie
Fallon, Alfred
Falconer, Mrs John
Freeman, Mr & Mrs Geo
Groff, Mr George
Gearhart, Mr Henry
Hart, Mr Chas R
Henderson, Mrs John
Howley, Mr James
Holiway, Miss Sarah
Hand, Miss Katie G
Hand, Miss Mayella
Jennings, Mr Thomas M
Kumatat, Mr A
Kaffen, Miss
Kinsley, Mr A C
Lawrence, Mrs Benj.
Long, Mr A E
Lewis, Mr James
Lachy, Mr James
Lodge, Secretary Daniel
Lewis, Mr E A
Mercier, Mr Joseph
McGovern, Mr John
McCobe, Mr M J
Manelle, Mr Tamere
Mancicire, Miss Mabel
Motley, Miss Katherine
Mathiasen, Mrs K
Mascowity, Mr Henry
Mullison, Mrs H L
Mullison, Miss Hattie
Neulry, Mrs Sarah
Noyes, Mr Jos C
Norman, Mr Fred
Neilis, Mr Abraham
Opdyke, Mrs N W
Riek, Mr Chas
Rose, Mrs David
Saunders, Charles W
Sivindale, Miss M
Sumter, Miss Ellie M 2
Squires, Mr Theo
Stimley, Mr Josh
Sutton, Mr H E
Sutges, Mrs Mary
Sutton, Miss Margaret
Stanley, Mr Johnes
Simonds, Mrs H
Sindgren, Mr Emil
Sank, Mr Chas
Trup, Miss Em
Vaiige, Mr T J
VanFelt, Mr Geo
Wheeler, Miss Jessie O
Wanges, Mr J
Woods, Mr Geo C
Younge, Miss, H E

Please say "Advertised."

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

PARK AVENUE,

Opp. North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Dealers in
BEST LEHIGH COAL,
LUMBER,
MASON MATERIALS,
&c. &c.

Sole Agents N. J. Pulp Plaster

Just received an assortment of new style

BOX PAPERS.

Also a full line of the leading Magazines and Weeklies constantly on hand.

Harper's,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

LIPPINCOTT'S
MONTHLY MAGAZINE
A FAMILY LIBRARY
The Best In Current Literature
12 COMPLETE NOVELS YEARLY
MANY SHORT STORIES AND PAPERS ON TIMELY TOPICS
$2.50 PER YEAR; 25 CTS. A COPY
NO CONTINUED STORIES
EVERY NUMBER COMPLETE IN ITSELF

HOAGLAND'S
EXPRESS and BAGGAGE TRANSFER.
Office 302 Park Ave. Tel. 322 W.

WILLIAM H. KIRCH,
Carpenter and Builder,
66 Duer Street.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
Telephone 402 J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

FLORISTS.

IPHONE 398 L.

CHARLES L. STANLEY,
144 NORTH AVENUE.

A large stock of all seasonable Flowers always on hand, Flowering Plants, Palms and Ferns in large assortment. Floral Designs, Baskets and Centre Pieces artistically made up at short notice. Lowest prices. Greenhouses, South Ave., Nethe- od. Phone 7 J.

Pants Clearance.

Positively the best values ever offered in Men's and Boys' Pants will be found here during this Clearance Sale. Our usually low prices have been still further reduced, and the result is a genuine surprise to every purchaser.

Men's and Boys' strong working Pants, reduced to..... 75c
Strictly all wool Pants, that will stand washing well, reduced to..... 1.90
Fine fancy worsted Pants, regularly sold for 3.50, reduced to..... 2.50
Finest all wool worsted Pants, equal to any custom made, never sold less than 6.00 reduced to. 4.00

Our reductions in Suits still continue. Same applies to Furnishings, Hats and Shoes.

The Surprise Store

324 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.
REMEMBER THE NUMBER.

WE GIVE BLUE EXCHANGE STAMPS

I. H. BOEHM

109-111-113 West Front Street.
126 Park Avenue.

AUGUST SALE.

We are offering Special Bargains in all Departments, but lack of newspaper space permits the mentioning of only a few of the many good values we are offering.

7c yd—500 yds of new Dress Ginghams, extra quality and all new patterns, val. 9c and 10c yd.
8c yd—1,000 yds of extra heavy Outing Flannel, all new Fall patterns and good colors, val. 11c yd.
10c yd—500 yds Mercerized Voiles, in pink, old rose and light green, reg. price 25c yd.
12½c yd—Special lot of new White Goods, extra fine quality and very desirable patterns, value 15c and 18c yd.
59c yd—10-4 white and gray Blankets, extra heavy quality, reg. value 75c pair.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

49c—Men's Madras Shirts, all new goods and nice patterns, reg. price 75c and 1.00 each.
49c—Men's sateen working Shirts, in black and white stripes and plain black, value 69c.
49c—Men's black and white Cheviot working Shirts, reinforced back and front, val. 63c ea.
95c—Men's Madras Shirts, extra fine quality Madras and extra well made, reg. sold for 1.25 ea.
25c—Men's working Shirts. We are selling an extra good working Shirt for 25c, in black and white stripes, made of good quality Cheviot, value 39c.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

We are showing our new Fall lines of Ready-to-Wear Felts. We have only the newest and most up-to-date styles, in all colors and prices.
Our assortment of Millinery is the largest and prices the lowest in the city.
We are showing all that is new and up-to-date in Breasts, Pompons, Shapes, etc.

HATS PURCHASED HERE TRIMMED FREE.

Continued Special Prices on Summer Goods.

Window Screens—The adjustable pattern—hardwood—
18 inches high, 17c each 24 inches high, 22c each
28 inches high, 26c each 30 inches high, 27c each

Screen Doors—98c—Hardwood, fancy spindles, hardware, complete.....98c

Ten per cent Reductions on all Oil Stoves, Ovens, Refrigerators, Ice Chest, Water Coolers, Hammocks.

Ice Cream Freezers—
Alaska—3 quart size,....1.78 4-quart size,.....2.19
White Mountain—3-qt...1.98 4-quart size.....2.42

"THE NEWEST THING OUT"
Combination Rod and Reel
See it in our show window.

A. M. Griffen, 119-123 E. Front St.

Trouser Sale.

Timely Summer Needfuls at Slaughter Prices.

2,000 Pairs on Sale.

Prices cut in two—½ off.
Style and Price alike, will tempt you to purchase.

WERNER'S Clothing House....
206 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

R. W. Barnes
Telephone 344-L 217 Park Avenue

FINEST FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND GROCERIES

SUMMER SAUSAGE, BOILED PORK TENDERLOIN, HAM, CORNED BEEF, PICKLES, FANCY CHEESES, PLAIN AND PHOSPHATE SYRUPS, ETC.

ICE CREAM
Wholesale and Retail.

I have vacated my store on Park avenue and am still making PURE ICE CREAM AT 32 BANK PLACE.
All orders by 'phone (No. 470y) or mail will receive prompt attention.
LAKE HOUSE NOW OPEN. JOHN H. TIER.

USE PRESS WANT ADS.

JAP FIRE DOMINATES

Port Arthur Fortifications Becoming Untenable.

CZAR'S SHIPS SUNK BY MINES.

New European Section of the Fortress Reported In Flames—Tokyo Preparing to Celebrate the Capture.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Advices from Chefu say that Golden hill, White Marble mountain and Liaoti mountain are not the only main forts securely held by the Russians at Port Arthur. Others are occupied by them, but they are subjected to an artillery fire which renders their tenure uncertain. Fort No. 5, which has frequently been reported taken by the Japanese and retaken by the Russians, is again declared to be in the hands of the Japanese.

It is reported that the new European section of Port Arthur is in flames. Owing to the mud and brick construction of the buildings, however, it is probable that the fire can be controlled.

It is said that the Japanese are using guns taken from the harbor defenses of Kobe, Nagasaki and Yokohama. These guns, numbering 300, are of heavy caliber.

While five steamers and three torpedo boat destroyers which had emerged from Port Arthur were at work clearing away floating mines one of the vessels, a two funneled torpedo boat destroyer, struck a mine two miles off Liaoti promontory and sank immediately. Five minutes later a second destroyer with four funnels ran against another floating mine, which exploded. This second vessel was at once surrounded by other Russian ships and towed into Port Arthur, the entire flotilla accompanying her. These occurrences were seen from various Japanese watch towers. The Japanese cruiser Hashidate also witnessed the explosions. The action of the Russians in attempting to clear the channel of mines indicates the intention of the fleet again to sally from Port Arthur.

A Tokyo report says that all the Russian defenses immediately about the harbor are now within range of the besiegers' guns. Notwithstanding the severity of the bombardment a number of the Russian forts continue a vigorous fire. It is feared that the death roll will be greatly increased before they are captured.

The direction taken in the attack creates the impression that the city and the defenses on either side of the harbor will fall first and that the final stand will be made at Liaotishan. It is believed that both sides have lost heavily and that the final record will show that the siege and assault have been the bloodiest since Sedan.

The people of Tokyo are decorating houses and streets and preparing triumphal arches to celebrate the fall of the Russian stronghold.

Viceroy Alexeieff has reported to St. Petersburg that the Japanese have stormed and captured the Ouglovaya fort after a heavy bombardment and the fortifications on the north and part of those on the east front, from Wolf hill. They are intrenching before Sinshin and over the entire Lunhe valley.

Shanghai reports say that the Russian cruiser Askold and the torpedo boat destroyer Grozovoi have gone out of commission, but the work of repairing them is being continued.

There was no formal ceremony, but their flags are not now flying. A simple announcement was made by the commanders of the two warships that the vessels would remain in port until the war was over. The work of dismantling them has begun. The crews of the two vessels, with the exception of the necessary guards, will be paroled and allowed to return to Russia.

The Shanghai newspapers unanimously regard the outcome of the recent situation as due in no small measure to the diplomacy and tact of John Goodnow, the American consul general there.

It is announced at St. Petersburg that the Baltic fleet, with the exception of the new battleship Orel, has left Cronstadt on a ten days' cruise.

Got Western Union's Cash.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 26.—A special from Rome, Ga., says Dick Brook, the alleged partner of Joe Laney, Jr., has been arrested there. Laney, who is only sixteen years old, is under arrest at Atlanta, charged with embezzling $11,000 from the Western Union Telegraph company at Dallas, Tex. When arrested Laney gave his partner's name as Black and said they had spent $3,000 of the money and that his partner had the remaining $8,000 in his possession. He now denies his statements in this connection.

Auto Record Fiends Heard From.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Late last night a telephone message was received from Messrs. Ellis and Schmitt, who are trying to break the Chicago-New York automobile record, saying that they would do well if they reached this city by 5 o'clock this morning. They expected to reach here at 8:30 last night. They encountered a heavy storm at Olean that threw them behind time eight or ten hours.

Magistrate Shot by Supervisor.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 26.—A special from Sumter, S. C., says that Magistrate Richard C. Folk was shot and killed by County Supervisor W. H. Seale at Providence, S. C. The men had a dispute on the road near Seale's house.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; west winds.

THE DAILY PRESS.

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.

S. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

125 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year—in advance. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada. Delivered by carrier or by mail.

THE PRESS has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day MUST be in this office by 9 a. m.

WHILE ON YOUR VACATION, DON'T FORGET TO HAVE THE DAILY PRESS MAILED TO YOU, AND IN THIS WAY KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME DOINGS. NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR MAILING, AND ADDRESS CHANGED AS OFTEN AS DESIRED. BEST SERVICE GUARANTEED.....

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 26, 1904.

That Ohio baby named "Theodore Alton Roosevelt Parker" is bound to be a winner.

The New York girl who offers a reward of $2 for her sweetheart is bidding just $1.70 too much.

Elihu Root emphatically refuses to become a candidate. When a Republican declines a nomination, it's a bad sign.

Almost anything be preferable to Murphy in the gubernatorial chair. We're speaking soberly in more senses than one.

The Union County Democrats made their trip on the steamboat Cygnus yesterday. What a pity to waste all that wind.

Their "turn" now: Murphy and McCarren; Port Arthur; Bishop Potter's Tavern, and desertions from party ranks.

The meek Mr. Roosevelt no doubt holds up his hands in holy horrors when he thinks of the rotten condition of his party in Delaware.

There is a noticable absence of "viewing with alarm" in the Democratic platforms. Probably they are being saved up until after the election returns come in.

Hearst for governor of New York? Well, while he's running (?) for the nomination the "beelers" will be working "for revenue only." That was the game in this State when he sought the Presidential nomination.

To E. B. Haines, care of The Paterson Evening News: Keep right on clipping our editorial paragraphs and pray don't for a moment think we're offended because no credit is given us when you place them in your own editorial column.

In a two-column editorial the New Brunswick Times arraigns Judge Woodbridge, the County Prosecutor and other officers of the court. If what it says is true, and there appears to be no reason to doubt it, Middlesex County is sorely in need of reform.

Another trolley load of Newarkers visited Plainfield last night, but having heard that a crowd from Essex's county seat came near being landed in jail for carrying off some articles as souvenirs the night before, made no attempt to cart home those precious Italian shanties on Watchung avenue.

The man who attempts to write about a thing before he gets a good firm mental grasp of it is a good deal like a fool rider who would commence to whip and spur his horse before he gets hold of the reins and his feet in the stirrups. The wise advertiser makes it a rule to not only understand the article but to understand just why people should be interested in what he has to offer.—Jed Scarboro.

Jerseymen are just beginning to find out that two or three of New Jerseys' leading morning newspapers are printed in New York city. The rumor that the New York Press and the New York Tribune are about to change their names and move to Newark and Paterson respectively is said to have no foundation in fact.—Newark Evening News.

What a cruel remark to make of such enterprising, wide-awake and influential sheets!

Miss Mabel Maxson, of West Seventh street, is summering at Belmar, N. J.

Dr. W. K. Browning, of Park avenue, is entertaining out-of-town friends.

Among the Plainfielders who are still at Asbury Park, are the following: Miss Amie Emmons, Mrs. M. E. Smith, Henry Eggerding and Webster Littell.

CHURCH JUBILEE LASTS SIXTY DAYS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

bration of the golden jubilee of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, in accordance with the recent encyclical of Pope Pius X, in which he announces a jubilee from September 8, the Feast of the Blessed Virgin, to December 8, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. The jubilee is in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of the day on which Pope Pius IX dogmatically declared the mystery of the Immaculate Conception, and Pope Pius X desires a universal observance of the event by priests and people. Bishop O'Connor will himself pontificate at a high mass in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Newark, on September 8. The priests who will assist him have not yet been selected. There will be special music for the occasion. The services will be conducted with all the solemnity and pomp usual in Catholic churches on such important and historical occasions.

PERSONAL.

A. M. Vanderbeek has resumed his position with A. M. Griffen after a short vacation.

Kenneth Phillips, of Madison avenue, has left for Long Island, where he will spend a few weeks.

The Misses Marsh, of Madison avenue, have gone to Belmar, to visit at the home of Samuel St. J. McCutchen.

Mrs. Flanders, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Yerkes, is spending a couple of weeks at Asbury Park.

Miss Clara Long, of Park avenue, has returned from Asbury Park, where she has been spending a few weeks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, of Central avenue, has returned from Sag Harbor, N. Y., where she has been spending the summer.

Theodore Shirley, of Cottage place, is spending a week at Chicago, after which he expects to attend the St. Louis Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Serrell and family, of Myrtle avenue, have returned from their summer outing at Taylor-on-the-Schron, N. Y.

Edward A. Laing has returned from Asbury Park, where he went last Sunday in his automobile. He has made the trip to South Jersey several times this summer.

Messrs. J. Hegeman Foster and Eugene Gray Foster, of New York, were among the ushers at the large and fashionable wedding in Woodstock, Vt., of Miss Mary Catharine Vail, daughter of Henry Vail, to Roger Sherman Baldwin, all of New York, which occurred yesterday noon at St. James church. The Messrs. Foster are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Foster, who are stopping for the season at the home of their relative, D. N. Groendyke.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, etc., etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

OF ALL SIZES.

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

SPECIAL TOWEL SALE.

We have always endeavored to give extra values in Towels. This effort on our part far exceeds all previous ones. These goods are from a great New York City clearance sale and are way below regular prices. They are new goods and in every way desirable. This sale is a towel event of great importance to every prudent housekeeper.

Lot 1—At 10c ea or $1.10 doz—17x33 Full Bleached Hemstitched Huck Towels. Good weight and soft finish.

Lot 2—At 18c ea or 3 for 50—20x38 Full Bleached Huck Towels with all-over damask pattern, border to match and plain hem.

Lot 3—At 15c ea—(No dozen price) 22x42 Hemstitch Towels, full bleached, fine, soft. An unparalleled towel bargain.

Lot 4—At 25c ea or $2.75 doz—25x42 Pure Linen Hemstitch Huck Towels. These towels are actually worth 35c each.

Lot 5—At 25c ea (No dozen price) 22x42 Hemstitched Huck Towels with Damask border. Made of pure linen, they are very sightly and exceedingly durable.

SALE OF MATTRESSES.

Mattresses at 1.98.
Filled with excelsior, with soft tops, fancy striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 6.98.
The Union Felt, made in two parts, full 45 lbs, good quality fancy striped ticking.

Mattresses at 2.50.
Cotton top, excelsior filled, with blue and white striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 9.50.
The Purity Felt, superior to the best quality hair, made in two parts, full 45 lbs.

Mattresses at 3.98.
Combination, with cotton top, bottom and sides, one or two parts. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 10.98.
The Windsor Felt, equal to any high grade Mattress made, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

Mattresses at 5.98.
Pure white cotton, full 45 lbs, best grade of ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 15.50.
Ostermoor patent elastic Felt, best quality ticking, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

The Last Saturday of The AUGUST FURNITURE SALE

If you value making your money do double duty, you'll take full advantage of this sale on Saturday.

OUR CAKE DEPARTMENT

is now in full running order, and we're just as busy as bees supplying your wants. Kindly leave your order early in the day as possible for Saturday delivery.

SALE OF SIDEBOARDS.

The 10.98 ones, now...9.25
The 11.98 ones, now...9.75
The 12.98 ones, now..10.75
The 14.98 ones, now..12.50
The 18.50 ones, now..14.98
The 19.98 ones, now..16.50
The 21.50 ones, now..18.25
The 24.50 ones, now..19.75
The 26.50 ones, now..22.50
The 29.50 ones, now..24.75

SALE OF DINING CHAIRS.

Lot No. 1.....1.29
Usually 1.50.

Lot No. 2.....1.48
Usually 1.75.

Lot No. 3.....1.78
Usually 2.00.

SALE OF BED OUTFITS.

The prices named include Bed, Spring and Mattress.

Bed Outfit No. 1—Regular price 8.50, sale price..... 5.98

Bed Outfit No. 2—Regular price 10.50, sale price..... 7.98

Bed Outfit No. 3—Regular price 12.50, sale price..... 9.98

Bed Outfit No. 4—Regular price 15.00, sale price..... 12.98

Bed Outfit No. 5—Regular price 17.00, sale price..... 14.98

Bed Outfit No. 6—Regular price 19.50, sale price..... 16.98

SALE OF COUCHES

Reg. 5.00 Couches now.....3.48
Reg. 6.50 Couches now.....4.25
Reg. 8.00 Couches now.....5.98
Reg. 10.00 Couches now.....7.75
Reg. 12.50 Couches now.....9.25
Reg. 15.00 Couches now.....10.98

WOODHULL & MARTIN.

FREEHOLD AND PLAINFIELD N.J.

Levy Bros' TWO STORES

MORE SPLENDID VALUES.

115-117 West Front Street 'Phone 220 Plainfield, N. J.

Our Great Alteration Sale with its many Bargains puts forth unusual attractions for tomorrow.

1.50 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 98c

2.00 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 1.48

45 inch table Oilcloth, yard.....14c
Extra large and heavy Huck Towels, value 15c, for.....10c
75c quality blue and black Brilliantine, 52 inches wide, yard.....49c
3 special lots all Silk Ribbons.....10c, 12½c, 15c
All extraordinary values.

Children's 50c white Aprons.....35c
Summer Corsets.....19c
Shirt Waists, were 75c, for.....39c
Lot of Umbrellas, very elaborate silver plated handles.....85c
Window Shades with fringe, were 49c and 39c, now.....29c
Boys' 25c School Stockings.....15c

Extra heavy Muslin, (unbleached), value 9c, for.....6½c
All wool Dress Goods for School Dresses, value 50c, yard.....19c
1.25 Wrappers.....69c
98c Wrappers.....49c
Black Mercerized Underskirts, worth 98c, for.....49c

Ladies' Fall Walking Hats in the Latest Effects, Now on Sale.

Proposals.

For Completing the Heating Plant of Fire Headquarters, North Plainfield, N. J.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Borough Clerk, 218 West Front street, until 8 p. m., August 29th, 1904.

For the furnishing of all materials and labor required to complete Heating plant in the new Fire Headquarters on Somerset street, North Plainfield, N. J.

Specifications and full information can be obtained from the architect, Chas. H. Smith, 128 Grove street, North Plainfield, N. J.

The Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Mayor and Council.

FRANK ROWLEY,
Borough Clerk.

8 22 6

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS

August 17, September 2, October 4—St. Louis Exposition. These are all ten-day parties.

Office: 18 North Avenue, Plainfield

YOUR EDUCATION HAS BEEN NEGLECTED

If you have not been taught the value of money and the advantage of SYSTEMATIC SAVING.

DO NOT ALLOW YOUR CHILDREN

To reach the age of manhood and womanhood without a little money of their own to help them along.

The PENNIES that they have saved,
The DOLLAR that you will add, (and oftentimes more,)

AND THE

DIME SAVINGS INSTITUTION

will accomplish a good result for them.

USE PRESS WANT ADS.

Little Talk Is Needed.

Come to PEGK'S.

ESTABLISHED 1888 E. H. CLEVELY. TELEPHONE 398 W

Restaurant and Lunch Rooms.

OYSTERS will start season on Saturday, August 27. For a good Stew or Fry, follow the crowd.

Horton's Brick Cream 40c a quart.

Take home a Brick. Will keep hard one hour.

155, 157, 159 North Avenue, Opposite C. R. R. Depot.

Local Agent For Horton's New York Cream.

Wholesale——Retail.

KIRCH J. PHILIP KIRCH. CIGARS

We are offering as a special inducement during the dull season, short smokes, such as Robt. Burns, Petit Ducs, Hoffman House, Magnums, Telonettes, and all high grade Tobaccos and Turkish Cigarettes at reduced prices—just to liven things up. The latest is to have your Monogram on your Cigarettes. The additional cost is slight.

120 NORTH AVENUE. Phone 487 J.

The Balance of the $19,000.00 Sale

Must Be Sold. Cost Is Not Considered.

At the request of our friends and patrons, we extended the sale till Saturday, August 27.

Don't miss this great opportunity, buy your goods now while the prices are in reach of everyone. No matter what your circumstances may be, you can't afford to miss this sale.

Our 20.00 and 15.00 Ladies' Tailor-made Suits reduced to..... 5.98

Our fine line of Jackets and Skirts must be sold and will be sold at 25c on the dollar.

In order to prove our statement we refer you to the thousands of buyers who have attended this sale.

Sale continues until Saturday, August 27th.

Boston Cloak and Fur Store

245 West Front Street, Plainfield. Opp. Postoffice

$1.19.

Women's Dongola Lace, C. D. & E. wide, were 1.50 and 1.75.

$1.19.

M. C. VanArsdale

127 EAST FRONT ST.

Bonn's 140 WEST FRONT ST.

AN INDEX.

Our window display of Mourning Millinery points to fifty trimmed Hats and Bonnets—no two alike—and all accessories.

We Are PREPARED

to put up the best awnings at most reasonable prices. A good awning properly put up will last for years. Let us estimate on yours.

We have specially interesting prices on Carpets, Mattings and Window Shades.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON, Babcock Building

THE PRESS is for Sale at—
UNION NEWS CO. . . . . E. R. Station
J. M. HARPER . . . . . 411 Park Ave
C. A. LAIBE . . . . . 149 W. Front St
A. D. HALLIBSON . Fourth and Liberty Sts
TROLLEY WAITING ROOM . . Watchung Ave
M. ESTIL . . . . . 111 Park Ave
W. L. MATTISON . . . . . 85 Somerset St
GEO. SCRIBNER . . . . . 331 Watchung Ave
J. HATFIELD . . . . . 218 Watchung Ave
THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from any of the following agents for 10c a week.
DUNELLEN . . . . . Wm. Gidden
" . . . . . George Vliet
NEW MARKET . . . . . Herbert Dunham
SOUTH BROOK . . . Union News Company
SOMERVILLE . . . . . John Gernert
WESTFIELD . . . C. F. Wittke, A. S. Snyder
SCOTCH PLAINS . . . . . Chas. Elliott
SOUTH PLAINFIELD . . . . Walter Smith
CLINTON AVENUE. Mrs. Meader, John Ryan
FANWOOD . . . . . Chas. Elliott
ETHERWOOD. L. Ubdal, J. Kiley, T. Leacock
THE PRESS is also on sale at station.)

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

On September 6 the local schools will reopen after the long summer vacation. Both the buildings have been undergoing needed repairs which add more greatly to the comfort of the pupils and teachers. The committee in charge of this work deserves the thanks of the public for such a wise expenditure of money.

For the first time in its history, a naptha launch floats on New Market pond. Chester Briggs and William Williams, of Albert street, Plainfield, brought the boat over to thee water yesterday. The launch is a neat looking affair and was built altogether by hand.

A certain young man from Plainfield became so engrossed with some pleasant company while rowing on New Market lake that he received a severe blow from the Lehigh Valley bridge girder.

Dr. Brakeley returned today from a few days' visit with his family, who are camping out at Lake Hopatcong. The Doctor reports that fishing is at its best and that the weather is glorious.

The Steele house on Prospect avenue, vacated by Mr. Wilcox, will be occupeid by J. B. Norris, the yard master of the Central R. R. at Jersey City. He expects to move in next week.

From the way that the Dunellen A. C. handled Clinton Avenue, Saturday, it looks as if New Market will do some hustling to get Dunellen's scalp.

Colonel Downey, who has been spending several weeks with relatives in New York, has come back. He attended his daughter's wedding there.

Miss Loretta Clawson and Mr. and Mrs. Wiegand, of Lyman place, Clinton avenue, leave today for Blocks Island, where they will stay a week.

Dennis O'Scioneay, who has been spending some time with Charles Thornton and family, has returned to his home in Jersey City Heights.

The Sunday-school of the Holy Innocents' church is holding its annual picnic this afternoon on the Washington camp grounds.

Political leaders in the borough are rather shy on election matters at present, but the political ball will soon be rolling.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Larrabee left yesterday for the Adirondack Mountains, where they will spend several weeks.

The walks around the Whittier School have been trimmed up by the janitor, Peter Apgar.

Mrs. H. S. Garretson and family are spending the day at Midland Beach, Staten Island.

A large number of boroughites attended the farmers' picnic at Riverside Park yesterday.

John Schafer has been entertaining relatives from Jersey City for the last few days.

Margaret Coriell has returned home from a visit with friends in Harrisburg, Pa.

James Egany, who has been sick for several weeks, is able to be around again.

Any Rheumatic Pains?

Rheumatism is a most painful and annoying malady. Why let it get a hold on your system?

Randolph's Special Rheumatic Tablets

effect a speedy cure for rheumatism, muscular rheumatism and gout. They are effervescent—not unpleasant to take.

If you've ever been attacked by the acute pains of rheumatism, you know what suffering is. Why be crippled by it—incapacitated for business and enjoy no pleasure? Why suffer longer? Get a bottle of these tablets.

Price 35c a Bottle.

Agency for Huyler's Candies.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
The City Pharmacy,
143 W. Front St.

The Peters' house on Dunellen avenue is being repainted by John Kinney.

Russel Garretson is visiting his grandfather at Raritan Landing.

Miss Janie Churchill has returned from a stay at Ocean Grove.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The band concert at Plainfield will be held at the park this evening and may possibly be the last of the season. Those who are anxious to hear one more concert will do well to attend the one this evening as they may not get another chance. It all depends upon the amount of money which is raised between now and next Friday. If those who are particularly fond of good music will drop an extra nickel or so in the hat when it is passed around, the required funds may be raised.

There was much surprise caused among the local residents when they read in the New York papers the other day that Miss Sadie Mesler had shot a boy in New York. Miss Mesler lived in this village several years ago, her family having moved in Plainfield recently. Many people here remember her well, though she was only eight years old when she left the village. She has been residing with her aunt in New York for some time.

As result of a passing trolley car, a horse driven by Andy Raymond became frightened yesterday morning, and breaking into a gallop, ran into John Benner's rig which was coming in the opposite direction. The shafts were broken on Raymond's wagon, but aside from that no other damage resulted, and the horse was quickly brought to a standstill.

The members of the Amity Club who went to Midland Beach the day before yesterday were so well pleased with the time they had on the trip that they have decided to make other excursions from time to time. They have not yet come to a conclusion as to the next place which they will visit.

Rev. Mr. Shott is one of the most enthusiastic fishermen in the village. He has taken nearly all his vacations this year in fishing trips and it is not a all unusual to see him returning from Seawaren or some other fishing place with a basket well filled with good specimens.

A large number of local residents and citizens of Fanwood attended the excursion of the Warren chapel which went to Asbury Park yesterday. A good time was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to take advantage of the fine weather.

Edward Hand, the township clerk, has posted notices of the meeting of the Township Committee which will take place at the town rooms tonight. Important business will be transacted and a full attendance is desired.

The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League, of the Methodist church, will be held tonight at the church parlors. The meeting will take place at 8 o'clock, and will be a business meeting.

The local school will open earlier than the schools in Plainfield, the date being set for September 6. The building has been thoroughly cleaned and put in good condition for the fall term.

The bleachers on the baseball field have been torn down and will shortly be removed to Somerville, where they will be used by the ex-Scotch Plains team, who are playing for Somerville now.

The weekly prayer meeting of the Baptist church will be held as usual this evening at the church. The service will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. G. M. Shott.

There was a meeting of Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., last night. The usual business was transacted, after which a social time was enjoyed.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the postoffice; Mrs. Stevens, William H. Stevens, Rev. L. O. Scofield, Martha Snope.

William Buckley will return from Massachusetts, where he has been spending the week, next Monday.

John Wade, who has recently returned from Connecticut, was in Newark yesterday, visiting friends.

Georeg Paff, who is confined to his homee with appendicitis, is doing as well as can be expected.

The Methodist prayer meeting will be held tomorrow evening as usual.

Mrs. T. M. Paff has been entertaining friends from out of town.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD

Rev. J. A. Cubberley has returned from a short stay at Hamilton Square, where he preached last Sunday at a union service held by the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches of the place.

Edward Guttshall will take a vacation of two weeks about the first of September. Melvin Teeple will substitue in his place as baggage master at the railroad station while he is absent.

It is estimated that the recent heavy rains have done several thousand dollars' damage to the roads and bridges in the township, which will have to be repaired.

Reuben Laing, of Perth Amboy, brother of T. C. Laing, died suddenly yesterday morning.

The County Board of Elections met today to name the election officers for the county.

Jack Douglass was sporting with his canoe on the lake here yesterday afternoon.

Gussie Clawson has been spending the week with her grandparents, at Dunellen.

The Union School building is being renovated and cleaned for the fall opening.

BUTTER

THE KIND THAT ALWAYS PLEASES.

Rockdale Print, lb - - 25c
Rockdale Creamery Butter, lb 24c
Elgin Creamery Butter, lb - 23c

The quality of this butter is unsurpassed by any in the State.

Neuman Bros
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St.

Straw Hats, Negligee Shirts Fancy Socks
J. R. BLAIR
205 Park Avenue
Summer Underwear etc., etc.
SILK UNDERWEAR AT $2.00 PER SUIT

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Daniel Page, of Harrisburg, Pa., is spending a few days with Mrs. Herbert Templeton, of North avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Deane and son, William, of East Seventh street, have returned from Moscow, Pa., where they have been spending a two month's vacation.

—Fresh vegetables, plenty of them, at Neuman Brothers: Lima beans, Evergreen and Country Gentleman corn.

EDUCATIONAL.

Mr. Leal's School For Boys.

1882—1904

Has sent boys to College every year for twenty-two years.

Average number in recent graduating classes is ten.

Boys have entered sixteen different Colleges, but the great majority have gone to Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Columbia.

Next school year begins on Tuesday, September 13th.

JOHN LEAL,
Principal.

Cedarcroft School
For Boys
Opens September 14th.
For information apply to
R. M. HUSE, Principal,
8 15 1m 1003 Park Ave., Plainfield.

Plainfield Seminary
will re-open
Thursday, Sept. 15, 1904.
Thirty-seventh Year.
Principals { MISS KENYON / MISS ARNOLD
New York School { 35 Nassau St., New York City. { 'Dwight Method' of Instruction.
Students may take Day School or Evening School. LL.B. in two years; L.L.M. in three years. High standards. Prepares for bar of all States. Send for catalogue.
8 1 eod 2m GEORGE CHASE, Dean.

Plainfield Business College
Opens September 1

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION.
Miss Emerson, pupil of Prof. Markees, Berlin, Germany. Fall term begins Sept. 9. Babcock Building, Studio 305. For particulars address Carnegie Hall, 874, New York.

Rev. Henry Kllott Mott, of Elizabeth, will again occupy the pulpit of the Crescent Avenue church Sundpy. Rev. Alexander F. Irvine, of New Haven, Conn., will preach at Warren chapel.

CHATTEL MORTGAGE SALE

By virtue of a chattel mortgage executed by Anna Gwynette and Harry Gwynette, to James B. Guttridge, I have been authorized to sell at public auction on Monday, the 29th day of August, 1904, at two o'clock, at the farm of Douglass L. Darby, situated on Martin avenue, Fanwood, N. J.: One black stallion (Sable Wilks, Jr.), with trial 2:27 when 4 years old; one brown stud colt (Sidney Lealand), 4 years old, unbroken; one sorrel mare (Darya), 9 years old, record 2:27¼, kind, gentle and safe for a lady to drive; also one jogging cart and one set of track harness. The horses mentioned above are all registered and must be seen to be appreciated.

HEZEKIAH HAND,
8 26 2 Auctioneer.

Auction Notice!

There will be no sale at Latourette's room tomorrow, but you will find a large lot of good Second-hand Furniture that can be bought at reasonable Prices. Call and see for yourself. Auction Sales promptly attended to and charges reasonable.

Latourette, Auctioneer,
322 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J. No 'phone.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
Steam Granite Works.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Townsend's Granite Works,
Fourth and Richmond Streets.
Tel. call 2214. Westfield trolley passes my office.

T. A. MOORE
Undertaker and Embalmer
Office—508 Watchung Avenue Telephone
Residence—503 LaGrande Avenue 491-J
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

GEO. W. COLE
Undertaker and Embalmer
200 W. Second St. Telephone 153
Office Open Day and Night.

Established 1872
P. CASEY & SON
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Res. 417 W. Third St.
Office open day and night. Tel. 1082

DIED.

GALBRAITH — Suddenly, in this city, August 24, 1904, Peter Galbraith, in his 60th year.

Funeral from his late residence, 524 West Fourth street, Saturday, August 27, at 8:30 a. m. and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m., where a requeim mass will be offered for the repose of his soul. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.
Please omit flowers. 8 25 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

Advertisements under this head one cent per word for first insertion and half a cent per word for each additional insertion. No advertisement received for less than ten cents.
☞ Please be sure and mention that you saw the advertisement in The Daily Press.

TO LET—Two or three furnished or unfurnished rooms; man and wife preferred. Address Furnished, care Press. 8 24 3

FOR SALE—Road horse; light built; young, sound and kind; price $125. Address P. O. Box 206, Plainfield. 8 24 3

HAVE client who desires to buy an 8 room house, with or without improvements; in the borough; on very easy terms; excellent party. William Jeffery, 231 Park avenue. 8 8 tf

PLAINFIELD property for sale, to let and exchange; now is the right time to buy; have some bargains. Ira L. LaRue, Coward Building, 109 Park avenue. 8 26 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for a paying business; 90 acres fertile soil near school, church and village; running stream; 2 houses and buildings in best condition; all stock and machinery; price $6,000, free and clear; for free and clear property. Ira L. LaRue, Coward building. 8 26 tf

GERMAN couple with baby wants 2 or 3 furnished rooms for light housekeeping; in good neighborhood. Address R. L., care Press.

IF you have any real estate, for sale, exchange, or to let, send or bring full particulars to Charles L. Moffett, No. 309 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 15 tf

ALWAYS have list of desirable properties for sale or rent; fire, life, burglar and accident insurance; first mortgage loans. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

CROCHET baby mosques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. 4 6 tf

WANTED—A $3,500 house centrally located; East Second street preferred; also have a cash customer for a $1,400 house. Abbott & Manning, 163 North avenue. 5 13 tf

FOR SALE—Choice building lots on West End and Rockview avenues at reasonable prices; best location in North Plainfield; short distance from Grant Avenue station and trolley; 50x170; restricted from $1,800 houses up. Call or address P. S. Browne, 109 Park avenue. 7 11 tf

FARMS for sale; real estate and insurance. Wm. H. Rogers, Plainfield, N. J. tf

TO LET—Eight-room flat over Powers drug store. Inquire Alex. Thorn, 87 Somerset street. 1 12 tf

LOTS at great bargain; plot 150x150 feet on Watchung avenue; $8 per foot. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

BARN TO LET on East Second street, near Watchung Ave. Apply at the Daily Press office. 6 7 tf

BIRDS, dogs, cats boarded week or month. Bird store, 43 Somerset street. 8 11 tf

WANTED—Second-hand piano; must be in good condition. Address O. N. A., care Press, stating price and name of make. 8 17 12

CELERY plants for sale; choice varieties. Thos. Mair, 20 Leland avenue, North Plainfield. 8 13 tf

WANTED—An experienced white cook. 1208 Watchung avenue. 8 17 tf

NEWLY decorated rooms with strictly first-class table; also table board. 1121 Putnam avenue. 7 30 1m

FOR SALE—A complete collection of foreign and American stamps; will sell as an entire collection or in lots to suit purchaser. Address Stamp, care Press. 8 9 tf

FIRST-class help at H. Briske's Intelligence office, 409 Watchung avenue. 8 23 6

FOR SALE — Farm near Fanwood depot; over twenty acres; would make fine poultry farm; easy terms. Charles L. Moffett, Attorney, 309 North avenue. 8 23 tf

TO RENT—Furnished or unfurnished, residence of Mrs. James H. Hallock, situated at 965 Madison avenue For particulars apply 494 West Eighth street. 8 23 4

WANTED—Improved or unimproved property in or near Pittsburg, Pa., in exchange for a nice residence in Netherwood; house is modern in every respect with plenty of land, shade and fruit. Currier Bros., 119 West Front street. 8 23 tf

TO LET—Eight-room house, all improvements, with barn. Inquire Mrs. Kenyon, 819 College place. 8 23 5

RAFFIA hats made to order. No. 70 Franklin avenue. 8 25 2

FOR RENT—At bargain, on Webster place, new house, 8 rooms and bath; up-to-date little gem; electric lights and all improvements. Inquire 809 Kensington avenue. 8 25 3

WANTED—Room in private house for storage van load furniture. Address with price by year, Storage, Daily Press. 8 25 3

WANTED—A lady, (familiar with face massage,) to use Beuna tonic in her business. Full particulars Woman's Exchange. 8 25 3

WANTED—Good woman to wait upon elderly lady; must have good references. 615 Park Ave. 8 25 2

$15 Buys very fine rosewood piano; big bargain. 315 West Front. 8 25 3

LARGE furnished rooms to let; reasonable. 127 North Ave. 8 25 6

BARGAIN — International Cyclopedia, 20 volumes; cost $66, sell less than ½ cost. Address Cyclopedia, care Press. 8 25 3

TO LET—Seven-room house. Inquire 102 Grandview Ave. 8 25 3

SIX room house to let, 645 East Sixth street. Apply Chas. H. Hand. 8 25 2

OLD PAPERS for sale; put up in packages of 100 for 20c. Apply at this office. First come, first served. 2 26 tf eod

WANTED—General housework girl; no washing or ironing; white preferred. Apply 608 Park Ave. 8 26 tf

HOUSE to let; 7 rooms; all improvements. 487 East Fifth street. 8 26 2

WANTED—Experienced young man in butcher shop. Apply 196 Somerset street. 8 26 3

TWO girls want positions as chambermaid and waitress. 308 Madison avenue.

BOY WANTED—About 15 years of age. Apply Boun's millinery store.

MAN wants situation on gentleman's place; can give best of reference. Address Edwin Grafton, Lincoln, N. J.

WANTED—White girl for general housework in small family; reference required. 628 East Front street. 8 26 3

LOST—At ball game, yesterday, a gold watch. Finder will receive reward by returning to Roth & Co.

WANTED—Furnished house with stable; send full particulars and price. Address Furnished, care Press. 8 26 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply 811 College place. 8 26 2

39c Sale

Will Open Saturday Morning at Nine o'clock.

Remember, the morning buyer has an excellent advantage, as many lots are not large enough to last all day. Some good additions will be made to the sale for Saturday evening, however.

Many exceptional bargains in every department. This ad. can only give mention of a few.

Four Oil Paintings.....
Ladies' 98c Percale Wrappers
Ladies' 50c Lace Hose.....
5 prs 12½c Ladies' Hose....
Square yd 69c Linoleum....
Yard of 50c Grass Matting, any quantity wanted.....
Ladies' Muslin Gowns.....
Ladies' full size Muslin Street Skirt .....
Ladies' 69c White Waists...
4 yards 15c White Madras...
5 yards 10c White Apron Check.....
10 Spools Coates' Cotton....
6 cakes genuine Buttermilk Soap.....
50c Bleached Hemmed Sheets
50c Bleached Table Linen...
50c Dress Goods.....
5 boxes of Royal Talcum or Tooth Powder.....
8 yards Corded Madras.....
8 yards Apron Gingham.....
2 Ladies' 29c Swiss Ribbed Vests,.....
Men's 50c Fancy Neckwear..
Full Size Umbrellas.....
5 yards Silicia Dress Lining, odd shades.....

39c 39c 39c 39c 39c
ALL FOR

Don't Forget Sale Opens at Nine o'clock, prompt.

Hill & Shupp

FOR SALE CHEAP—7-room house, new; lot 40 feet front; flagged and curbed; terms to suit. W. H. Abbott, North avenue. 8 14 tf

FOR SALE—1033 feet front on Park avenue at Oak Tree Station, Lehigh railroad, $3 per foot; get after it quick if you want to make money. F. M. Bacon, 103 North avenue. 6 1 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place. 5 4 tf

SIX-ROOM flat, with improvements. Call 30 Somerset place. 5 6 tf

HORSE WANTED — Suitable for family use; must be sound, kind and fearless. Address, stating price, Horse, care Press. 8 22 6

THE highest cash price paid for household goods, furniture, etc. Fred W. Hand, Auctioneer, 186 East Second St. 'Phone 1722. 4 25 tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room, central location, airy and cool; terms moderate. Address Moderate, Press office. 7 20 tf

FOR SALE—Lot corner Leland and Midway avennes, 68x171; price $350 on easy monthly payments. Enquire 608 Park avenue. 8 23 tf

TO LET—6 rooms; apartment house; rent $10. Inquire on premises, cor. Williver and View avenues, opposite Safe Works. 8 23 6

TO LET—First floor of new house, corner Fifth street and Stanley place; five rooms; water in kitchen; rent $10. Apply Adam Young, 815 South Second street. 8 24 6

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 322 W. Front St. 5 10 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board, at 219 East Fifth street. 8 23 1m

FOR SALE—Properties from $1,600 to $17,000 to close estate, all in fine condition and good paying investments, and other properties for sale and rent; insurance placed in best companies; also several good lots for sale very reasonable. Mulford's real estate office, opposite depot. 7 15 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, 309 North avenue. tf

ARE YOU SATISFIED
with your present position and salary? If not, write us for plan and booklet. We have openings for Managers, Secretaries, Advertising Men, Salesmen, Bookkeepers, etc., paying from $1,000 to $10,000 a year. Technical, Clerical and Executive men of all kinds. High grade exclusively.
HAPGOODS (Inc.)
Suite 510, 309 Broadway, New York.
Offices in New York, Chicago and 12 other cities

THE WALDORF
132-134 Crescent Ave., Plainfield, N.J.
Desirable rooms with board, all conveniences, refined surroundings, superior table, excellent service, transient and table guests accommodated. Summer season, United States Hotel, Ocean Grove, N. J. E. V. and A. L. Waldorf.

Ten Hours at the Sea Shore!
HOPE CHAPEL
SUNDAY SCHOOL
Excursion
TO ASBURY PARK
Saturday, August 27,
stopping at Long Branch both ways.
Baggage car for lunch baskets, baby carriages, bicycles, etc. Leave Grant Avenue at 7:55. Plainfield, 8 a. m. Leave Asbury Park, 7:35 p. m.
Tickets, $1.25; Children 90c.

--BOYNTON BEACH--
Saturday, August 27, 1904
GREAT SALT WATER DAY
(for White People)
Fine Bathing, Many New Attractions.
MUSEUM
New bill for this week.
Every act a feature.
Every feature a Head-liner.
GRAND HOPS
Every Week-day Evening (Monday excepted.)
Trolleys direct to Beach.

AUCTIONEER LATOURETTE says
he had tender perspiring feet since childhood . .
Thorp's Foot Relief
cured them. Ask him about it. 50c per bottle. All druggists.

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER.
JAMES BRONIS, Agent.
Olivers rented. Other makes repaired.
A postal to P. O. Box 761 brings Bronis. 8 4 1m

DR. JOS. E. WRIGHT,
EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE.
Office, Woodhull & Martin Bldg.
Hours Tues., Thurs. and Sat.
2-5 p. m., and by appointment.

DR. FRED HEINECKE
...GRADUATE CHIROPODIST...
For Ladies and Gentlemen.
Woodhull & Martin Building.
Also Manicuring by Mrs. Heinecke.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 6 p. m.

DR. E. B. STOWE,
Graduate Chiropodist.
For Gentlemen and Ladies. Babcock Building.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 6 p. m.
Telephone 367 w. All instruments Sterilized

USE PRESS WANT ADS

BRITISH SHIPS SAIL

With Imperative Orders to Russian Cruisers.

TO STOP ALL NEUTRAL SEIZURES

Prime Minister Balfour Makes Extraordinary Announcement to London Merchants Who Were Making Vigorous Protests.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Prime Minister Balfour announced last night that the British government had ordered two cruisers from the squadron at the Cape of Good Hope without delay to locate the Russian volunteer fleet steamers Smolensk and St. Petersburg and to convey to them the orders of the Russian government that they must not further interfere with neutral shipping. The premier stated that this action was taken at the request of the Russian government.

This extraordinary statement was made when the premier by appointment received a deputation of the London chamber of commerce. The deputation was appointed at a meeting held earlier in the day by the China and East India section of the chamber, which was attended by representative shipowners and others interested in trade in the far east and at which the following resolution was passed:

"This meeting of members of the London chamber of commerce concerned in trade with the far east views with grave apprehension the continued uncertainty of the position of British trade and shipping with regard to what constitutes contraband of war as interpreted by the Russian government. The meeting trusts that his majesty's government will take such immediate and effective steps as will afford all reasonable protection to British shipping and insure to it the same degree of immunity from vexatious stoppages and examinations as is apparently enjoyed by shipping of other nationalities."

At the same time the meeting prepared a letter addressed to Lord Lansdowne, the foreign minister, in which it was stated that the continuance of the present situation was having a disastrous effect on shipping and was causing irreparable damage to the whole course of trade with Japan and the far east. The letter further said that the commercial community would welcome any measures, however stringent, that might be necessary to place British commerce on the same footing with that of other nonbelligerent countries in the treatment of "so called" contraband of war.

Prior to receiving the deputation Mr. Balfour during the day had been busily engaged in connection with the question which had been raised with regard to British shipping. After giving a number of private interviews the premier held an important meeting at the foreign office to which representatives of the intelligence department of the war office, the admiralty, the foreign office and the board of trade were summoned.

Members of the deputation quoted the cases of the Portland and Asiatic line steamer Arabia and the British steamer Calchas. The former was allowed to proceed, while the latter was still at Vladivostok, and the members pointed out that both cases were equal so far as the nature of the cargoes was concerned. The cases of the Peninsular and Oriental company's steamer Malacca and the Hamburg-American line steamer Scandia were also quoted. Each of these vessels had ammunition on board, but the Scandia was allowed to proceed. The deputation next referred to the sinking of the British steamer Knight Commander and the German steamer Thea by the Vladivostok squadron and pointed out that compensation had been paid in the case of the Thea, while it had not been even promised in that of the Knight Commander. Members of the deputation also stated that it was notorious that shipments of contraband of war had been made from Antwerp and Hamburg, while insurance rates from those and from French ports were much lower than from English ports.

Premier Balfour in reply said that the government would take every possible step to end such a disastrous state of things. The deputation must remember that belligerents had rights as well as neutrals, and the premier added:

"We ourselves may have to appeal to the law of nations to protect our rights as belligerents, and in the interests of our self preservation we may be obliged to ignore the interests of neutral shippers engaged in the risky, though legitimate, operation of carrying contraband of war."

The premier appealed to the deputation in the interest of themselves and of the world at large to view both sides of the question and to approach it in a spirit of moderation.

Explains Smolensk's Action.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 26.—Ambassador Bonkendorff has been ordered to advise the British foreign office that the cruiser which overhauled the British steamer Comedian off the southeast coast of Cape Colony on Aug. 21 was probably the Smolensk, in which case her action could only be explained on the supposition that the orders telegraphed to her by the Russian admiralty after the Malacca affair have failed to reach her commander.

Another British Ship Stopped.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—News has reached England that the Russian auxiliary cruiser Ural stopped and examined the British collier Pencalenick on Aug. 12. The Pencalenick was bound from Cardiff for Malta with coal for the British navy.

MARCHANT'S MILK IS THE STANDARD-BEARER of HEALTH

OUR customers appreciate the excellent quality of our milk—they know by experience that it comes up to the high standard of merit and healthfulness we claim for it—that it is unequaled for PURITY and RICHNESS.
Use our milk in your home.

Marchant Bros.,
Plainfield Milk and Cream Co.,
191 North Avenue.

A Big Business on a Small Scale
is done here. We serve a great number of customers with choice
Roasts, Chops, Steaks,
Provisions and Poultry. Special care is taken in warm weather in selecting meats. Inferior grades of meat are not permitted to enter our store. Our hygenic cold-air refrigeration is the only one in the city, thus ensuring health, fine flavor and condition, that's why our meats taste so good. Try a nice Leg of Lamb for your Sunday dinner. Prices are lower than ever.
Fine Fresh Fish of all kinds can be found in our Seafood Department. Saturday special sale
FRED ENDRESS
131-135 W. Front St.

Teas and Coffees
The Very Best.
Their quality, flavor and blend are exceptionally fine—we guarantee them.
One taste convinces—they're sure to please.
Try them and you'll order of us again.
W. W. DUNN.
PARK GROCER,
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Only about 150 Special Bargains of High Class, properly restricted, residential and business locations, on Martine Estate on Park, Prospect, Watchung, Kensington, Hillside, Martine and Thornton avenues, and New avenue, to be an extension of Evergreen avenue, 80 feet wide, from Hillside to Park. Titles insurable. Prices low. Terms easy. Buyers of lots can have houses built to their own order, on terms easier than renting. Your own Broker, or WELLES & CO., 45 Broadway, N. Y. J. F. MACDONALD, 149 North avenue, Local Manager. Telephone. Don't Delay.

The Park Stables.
Livery and Boarding.
108 Somerset Street
Telephone 493 J. North Plainfield.
High-class Horses and Carriages. Prompt Service.
JAMES D. FRAZER.

FRANK VAN WINKLE
129 North Avenue
Bicycles Photo Supplies
Kodaks and Cameras
Bicycles stored, cleaned and repaired
Developing, Printing and Mounting a specialty

SECOND-HAND LUMBER.
Will sell a large quantity of Window Frames, Doors, and all kinds of Second-hand Lumber and Firewood this week at your own price.
Call at building corner Washington and Sixth streets and get a bargain.
ALEX. KANE,
312 Filmore Avenue.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking out shares in
THE CENTRAL
Building and Loan Asso'n.
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDonald Sec'y.
Smalley Building, No 149 North avenue 4 14 tf

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.
FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:
Linden Lodge, Linden, N. J.
87 Bread Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
Prudential Building, Newark, N. J.
768 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.
10 West 23d Street, New York City.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

CESSPOOLS AND GARBAGE.
MRS. JOHN BROWN
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
From $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North Avenue. Postoffice box 718
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

GARBAGE REMOVED
Walter M. Ingraham.
TERMS MODERATE.
Address P. O. Box 635, City

Best Lehigh COAL.
Order now and save money.
KEELY COAL CO.
725 South Ave. Telephone 162.

CHAS. E. VAIL,
103 PARK AVENUE,
Watches, Jewelry and Silverware.
Repairing in all its branches.
EYES EXAMINED FREE.

HERMAN HANSEN,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
Estimates Furnished.
269 Watchung Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Tel. 454 R.

Plainfield Window Cleaning Co
Floors Oiled and Polished.
Furniture Packed for Shipping.
General House Cleaning a Specialty.
Frank Dellart, 402 E. Third St.
Wm. A. Kline, 611 W. Third St.

TITUS H. LAURY,
Mason and Builder,
Office, 323 E. Front St.
Tile Setting, Mantel & Front work

A Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd.
STOCK HAS Got To Go!
This "Midsummer Sale" means business, straight to the core! Every price is cut so low it commands notice and wins sales!
Lowest Prices, below all OTHERS' prices—terms easier than any others give—privilege of reserving goods 'til later and paying when you can!! Cash does more for you here than 'twill do at any OTHER store!!

$4.98 for $7 Golden Oak Desks.

$4.89 for $6.50 Oak Chiffoniers.

$14.98 for $20 Golden Oak Bed Suits.

$3.69 for $5 Reed Rockers.

CARPETS.
Ingrains, 35c Yd.
Brussels, 52c Yd.
Moquettes, 98c Yd.
$6.25 for $8.50 Velour Couches.

$7.98 for $12.00 Oak Extension Tables.

All the Refrigerators and Ice Chests at a big, liberal price cut.
AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Be sure you see "No. 73" and first name "AMOS" before entering our store.
ACCOUNTS OPENED—EASY PAYMENTS
73 MARKET ST., NEWARK, N. J.
Near Plane St., West of Broad St.
All trolleys transfer to our door.

HENRY MEHRTENS,
The Manufacturing Confectioner.
Pure Home-made Candies, Chocolates and Bon Bons fresh daily. Cold Drinks of all kinds. Crushed Fruits. Ice Cream and Water Ices.
Orders delivered promptly.
Telephone. 131 East Front St.

JOHN J. LEAHY,
PLUMBING AND HEATING.
Sewer and Water Connections.
First-Class Work at Reasonable Figures.
302 Richmond St., near Third.

M. ARMSTRONG,
Plumbing and Tinning.
330 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
TELEPHONE 232.

Mc CULLOUGH'S
STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
210 Park Avenue.

Allen B. Laing,
Electrician —
Tel. 333-J. 134 North Ave.

WILLIAM H. POPE,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of Electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 North Avenue.

LIEFKE & LAING,
Insurance and Real Estate
No. 146 Park Avenue.
Real Estate Appraised. Properties Sold and Rented. Loans Negotiated.

TenEyck & Harris,
—DEALERS IN—
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office 121 Watchung Avenue. Branch Office Frank Rowley's Drug Store, 218 W. Front st.
TELEPHONE 28-F.

PRESS WANT ADS PAY

William Hand & Sons
MOVING VANS and STORAGE WAREHOUSE for Furniture, Pianos, etc.
136 E. 2nd St., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1722.
TRUCKMEN AND RIGGERS.
All work will receive prompt attention.

W. W. WARNOCK,
THE BAKER,
144 West Front St.,
COMPTON'S OLD STAND.
Bread, Cakes, Pies, Etc.
Made of the best Materials.
Early Morning Delivery.
ICE CREAM A SPECIALTY.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
297 North Avenue.
William D. Thickstun, John P. Emmons.
Telephone 601.

JOHN JOHNSTON.
All the best grades of
COAL.
929 South Ave. 'Phone 193.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

E. B. MAYNARD.
New Shop, New Furniture, Best Service.
Tonsorial Artist.
Also choice Cigars.
141 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Expressman and Truckman.
All kinds of Express and Trucking business promptly attended to.
Leave your orders at store of Joseph Sattels, Pianos and Organs, No. 108 North Avenue, and the same will receive immediate attention.

TRY
DOBBINS'
NICKEL YARA CIGARS.
228 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.
We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wallpapers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes
WOOLSTON & BUCKLE,
145 North Avenue.

APPEARANCE COUNTS
when you want to sell or rent your property. Is your house attractively painted, decorated and papered? You can depend on us always for superior work in this line.
Convincingly Low Prices.
JAS. C. HANSEN.
141 East Front St.

G. A. Woolsey's Standard Paint.
The Best Ready-Mixed Paint in the Market.
—FOR SALE BY—
J. M. CAHART,
PAINTER AND DECORATOR.
DEALER IN
Paints, Oils, Glass, Wallpaper, Etc
Painting, Papering and Decorating. Estimates on application.
201 Park Ave., Cor. Second St.

I. N. WYCKOFF.
PAINTER and DECORATOR,
556 West Front Street.
Papering a specialty. First-class work my motto. Glass furnished and Glazing done.
TELEPHONE 292-L.

1904
WALL PAPERS.
Imported and American Goods.
C. CONOVER & CO.,
Decorators, Painters & Paperhangers. Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Place. 'Phone 226-J.

DRUGGISTS.
PRESCRIPTIONS
Called for and Medicines Delivered.
Telephone, write or call at any time. Let us know what drug store goods you need, and we'll send them right out, without extra charge.
Powers' Somerset Pharmacy.
45 Somerset St. Tel. 161

SODA
With Fruit Syrups Second to None.
MALLINSON'S
LIBERTY AND FOURTH STS.
Sugars are one of my specialties

MILLER'S
VEGETABLE BLOOD PURIFIER
combines the best Tonic and Blood Purifying Remedies of the Vegetable Kingdom. Such as Sarsaparilla, Clover Tops, Golden Seal, Turkey Corn, Sassfrass, Burdock and Mandrake.
Contains no mercury.
DUDLEY S. MILLER, Druggist,
Park Ave. and Fourth St.

Seasonable Goods at Nagle's
Nagle's Egg Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, Extract of Malt, Beef, Wine and Iron.
Blands Iron Pills.
Nagle's Blood Purifier and Sarsaparilla, just the medicine for building one up.
Moth Balls, Camphor, etc.
C. M. NAGLE,
Telephone 477 r. Front and Grove Sts.

Hodges Pharmacy.
Reliable goods in all Departments.
Agency for Belle Mead Sweets.
Tel. 210 A. Y.M.C.A. Building.

HARRY K. LISTER,
161 North Ave. Opp. Depot.
Bicycles, Sundries, Phonographs and Records.
Edison Gold Moulded Records....35c
Columbia X. P. Records.....25c
Bicycles and Phonographs Repaired.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE WORLD OF DRESS.

Novelties In Waistcoats—A New Shade of Brown.

Novelties in waistcoats include pique, velvet, suede and silk. They are, however, only worn with the severe type of tailor made and particularly with the basque coat. White suede or kid is perhaps more chic than any other.

Among the season's novelties designed to wear with black gowns is the petticoat of black batiste. It is made exactly similar to other petticoats, and the flounces are trimmed with black, white or cream colored Calais lace, the petticoat being made very full with many frills.

Little girls' frocks for the warmer days are very pretty made of white linen gathered full into a linen yoke embroidered with scarlet or pale blue. They are caught far below the waist with belts of scarlet or blue leather, below which there are a couple of full embroidered frills, and the little sleeves are likewise gathered into bands of embroidered linen. Other frocks of scarlet linen are fashioned in the same manner. The same material is used for the Russian blouse costumes worn by the little boys. These last are usually trimmed with a row of large pearl buttons down the front and a large white linen collar.

TAFFETA COAT.

There is a new shade of brown, known as onion color, which we are told will have a great vogue during the coming season. A dress in this particular tone was carried out in voile. It had a very short bolero coat over a slip of alencon lace. The skirt was simply trimmed with two deep frills.

A pretty hat of the directoire type seen recently was carried out in pink straw, the brim bound with little kilted frills of champagne colored tulle, while the only trimming was a large bird of paradise in black and pink.

The picture shows a taffeta coat trimmed with frills and English embroidery. This is worn with a checked plaited skirt and a black and white hat.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION'S MIRROR.

Lightweight Serges and Linens Worn at This Time of the Year.

Some of the lace used on linen and cambric gowns is of the heavy Paraguay or Irish crochet type. In a deep ecru or string color it is very attractive on red, deep blue or the pastel tint of cotton.

Linen in its natural shade is always popular for tailor mades, and the greater number are made in coatee or bolero style. The most chic gowns of this description are also embroidered.

A DAINTY WAIST.

Flat tucks, bands of lace and stitched strappings of different colorings, not to speak of spotted ones, glorify the plain linens and even the lightweight serges worn at this time of the year. Cotton, canvas and voile or mercerized hopsack are also favored, and the last named is made up Eton fashion and worn with blouses of muslin de soie.

Full styles prevail, and the hip line is hidden by the all round fullness at the waist. The height is unfortunately in this fashion materially decreased.

Old rose linen, spotted with a mercerized dot, which gives a silky effect, is very becoming to young people. This material is charming when trimmed with oriental embroideries and a touch of white.

The picture shows a waist of china silk, dotted net and insertion.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

LITTLE FRANCE

A ROMANCE OF THE DAYS WHEN "THE GREAT LORD HAWKE" WAS KING OF THE SEA

BY

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

Author of "Commodore Paul Jones," "Reuben James," "For the Freedom of the Sea," etc.

Copyright, 1901, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

The last difficulty was the greatest. There was de Vitre—a stumbling-block, indeed. No man could have done more for another than he had done for the young Frenchman. He had twice saved his life, he had established his honor, and, by a singularly ironic trick of fate, he feared he had been the means of bestowing upon him the hand of the woman they both loved.

His own sense of the obligation he had conferred upon that young Frenchman lay heavily upon his soul. He could not demand from him freely or even take from him by force what he would have wrested cheerfully from another. A benefit conferred, however it may be considered by the recipient as a benefit forgot, invariably establishes a sense of obligation on him who confers it. Therefore, de Vitre was an obstacle of the most serious moment to the future progress of his happiness. How to contend with him he knew not. Certainly he could not make the relinquishment of the Frenchman's desire for Anne the price, or the reward, of his own past services. A genuine man, he could not even bear to have these services mentioned; and that they so persistently remained in his thoughts gave him honorable uneasiness. A very exalted and chivalric nature had Philip Grafton. He was particularly nice on the point of honor.

That was not all either, for connected with de Vitre was the honor of the de Rohans. Anne, in the most public manner and of her own free will, had betrothed herself to the young Frenchman. She had voluntarily entered upon the relationship and assumed the obligation. Her sense of honor was not less keen than his. She was a woman, he remembered, imbued with all the traditions of that race whose proud boast it was that while they had not been born to the kingly degree and they would not condescend to the princely rank, yet they were Rohans. Was Anne capable of sacrificing her word for her love? It was doubtful.

The last consideration that arose in his mind was an acute conjecture that the marquis would not be much better satisfied with de Vitre for a suitor for his granddaughter than he would have been with Grafton. The old man probably, nay, certainly, had formed his own plans, and there was without doubt a third suitor of his personal choosing awaiting Anne in France. This meant much. If Grafton could succeed in matching the marquis' determination against Anne's will-power, between de Vitre and the other, he might the more easily achieve success.

He realized all these things, weighed them carefully, considered them exhaustively, and racked his brain in an endeavor to solve the problem. His resolute determination was unabated. That, his love for her, and her feeling for him, were the three things he counted upon to enable him to have his way and win her for his own. He was no longer a boy; he did not approach the problem lightly and carelessly, but with a deliberate calmness which outwardly belied his passion. He was a man thoughtful by nature and strengthened in character by the responsibilities of his position as the captain of a ship, and he deliberately determined to win the person, as he already possessed the heart of the French girl.

It was a sort of game he played, with her for the stake. The grim old marquis, with his pride of race, family and nation, and his ardent patriotism; the handsome, dashing young Canadian, the unknown suitor, who was sure to be a man of parts and condition, and the stubborn, determined little Englishman would all prove famous players. Which would win? Well, come what might, Grafton already had Anne's heart, de Vitre her promise, the marquis her duty, and the unknown as yet, nothing. The heart was the strongest card, he decided.

Of her love he felt no doubt; but love and marriage were two things that rarely went together in the mind of the high nobility of France in those days. But stay! Anne was different. As a child, when he had known her best, she had known none of these disagreeable convenances of the society of her day. Had her sojourn in Canada, her entrance into the gay little world of New France, effected a revolution of her character? He did not believe so.

These were torturing questions all. Evening found him still thinking of them and thinking alone. His wants had been attended to by Josette or Jean-Renaud, now allowed free access to him. His anxious inquiries for the countess had been met by the statement that she was ill and could not come to see him—a declaration which added alarm to his longing and disappointment. His progress toward recovery had been rapid, but on the second day of her continued absence from his room he nearly fretted himself into a fever. He found that he could be more calm and cool in theory than in practice. Dr. Arnoux looked very grave when he paid his afternoon visit that day, and, ignorant of the real situation, spoke some blunt words to mademoiselle.

"This Englishman," he said, "is pining, worrying, fretting. Unless something can be done to restore his peace of mind I fear the consequences may be serious; inflammation may set in in his feverish condition, and then ——"

His ominous gesture frightened her greatly.

"Can't you, mademoiselle, cheer him up, distract his mind in some way?" he asked.

Anne knew only too well what ailed her patient. She had distracted him too much already, possibly; yet, when she heard of the threatened danger, with her usual impetuosity she threw prudence to the winds, broke her promise to herself and fled to the chamber. He heard her fleet step on the stair, and when she entered he faced her from the pillow with such a smile of hope and joy as completely transformed him.

"Anne! Anne!" he murmured, reproachfully, "for two whole days I have lain here alone thinking, thinking, thinking, dreaming, loving, until I wonder I did not go mad! And you never came!"

"I sent Josette, monsieur."

"Josette! You might have sent every woman, every messenger in the world, and I would have thought only of you! How could you be so cruel? You love me, yet you left me!"

"How can I love the enemy of France, monsieur?" she answered, gazing down upon him with eyes that gave the lie to the cold words on her lips.

"I know not how you can, but you cannot deny that you do. Anne, sweet Anne, you are half American. This land is the home of your mother. Let it be the home of your heart as well!"

"And my grandfather, the marquis? He would never consent."

"Faith, your own consent is all that is necessary, sweetheart. If you love me enough——"

"But I am betrothed to Monsieur de Vitre."

"Why did you do it at the last moment, after you had recognized me, when fate—happy fate—threw me at your feet?"

"I—I——"

"You do not love him, Anne, dearest? Come, the truth! The de Rohans were ever true, you told me."

"Ah, monsieur, I respect and admire Monsieur de Vitre. He is a brave and noble gentleman."

"Yes, but you do not love him?"

"How dare you catechise me in this manner?" she cried, piteously, shrinking from his persistent questioning. "I will withdraw, sir. What warrant have you——"

But she made no motion to leave the apartment. On the contrary, he saw her body sway uneasily toward him. She could not control her feelings. If he had not been so ill, so weak, so pathetically helpless, he would have appealed less strongly to her, she might have resisted better. She was angry at herself for her lack of control, and bitterly mortified. Was this man her master in truth? And he wore another woman's picture! Shame on her, shame! Could he compel her to break her word, defy everything, and marry him against her will? Ah, but was it against her will? There was the rub.

She stood helpless before him. The whole current of her being flowing toward him, only her stubborn will and pride holding her back. But the struggle could not be maintained for long. He marked the rise and fall of her breast. Her fingers moved restlessly, her knees trembled, her eyes swam, her color came and went. The constraint she was under was terrible.

The girl loved him with all her soul. Yet she struggled on: she would not yield. 'Twas an unequal combat. She fought two: his will and her love. The end was certain. He felt it was almost cruel as he watched her and knew it would come. All she needed in that moment to bring her to him was time. He was wise enough not to be hasty. He put equal constraint upon himself; indeed, his love was no less than her own.

"I have only the warrant of my love for you to plead my cause," he answered at last.

"Have you loved me all the time?" she cried, coming a step nearer.

"I know not," he answered honestly before her truth-compelling gaze, "but at least I have loved no one else, and since the night in the tower there has not been a day in which I have not thought of you. But never in my wildest visions did you appear so beautiful as you are to-day, Anne, sweet Anne! Dear Little France! My heart knew you, even though my false eyes told no story to my bewildered mind. 'Twas God that brought us together again. We cannot be separated, my sweet, my own!"

"But Monsieur de Vitre, my engagement——"

"I ask you again why it was you entered upon it so suddenly?"

"I saw that locket you wear over your heart, Sir Philip, whose secret you guard so jealously, from which you will not be parted. You did not know me. You had forgotten me. There was some one else," she murmured. "I cannot marry the enemy of my country. I should be an outcast. despised. You fainted in the hall of the chateau. Monsieur de Vitre was there. When I knelt beside you I—I—looked at you, monsieur. I forgot myself—a little. I betrayed myself unsought—unknown even. Monsieur de Vitre cried out before them all that I loved you. The thought stung me—my pride, you know. I could not bear it. There was but one way. He had besought me for my hand. I dared not trust myself before you unpledged. They looked at me so earnestly. It was a foretaste of what I should meet. I stopped every gossiping tongue, stifled every suspicion by saying 'Yes' to my brave countryman. I—I do not regret it."

She forced herself to lift her head and look at him white-faced and trembling. His bold, burning glances plunged through her defenses like a sword-blade.

"This from the truthful de Rohan!" he murmured coldly, but with a breaking heart. "If you looked at me dying then—and perhaps dying now after that word—if you looked at me then as you look at me this moment, there were no ground for de Vitre's suspicion. Is this your fidelity! Go! You have not—you do not love me."

She buried her face in her hands beneath his stern accusing gaze—his reproaches seared her heart. She had not told the truth to him.

"Go, mademoiselle!" he continued, pitilessly, ruthlessly turning the weapon he had thrust into her heart. "The other night—does my imagination mock me, or did I dream of Heaven, of your kisses? Were the lips that now betray those that met my own? Was it that sweet head that lay upon my breast? Was it all a vision? Did I ever live for an hour with you in that old dark tower by the sea? Was I indeed the knight of that gentle child who wrapped herself around my heart? You weep, mademoiselle. Why? Happiness opens before you. You are the betrothed of de Vitre——"

"No more!" she cried, tearing her hands from her face and springing toward him. She seized his arm and unwounded shoulder with a grasp that was painful in its intensity. "No more! No more! You torture me beyond endurance! 'Tis no dream. I love you, I adore you, my king, my king! What are country, and grandfather, and friends, and all the world to me beside you!"

She bent her glorious head once more and kissed him as she had kissed him in the moonlight two nights before. Had he won? This time he did not lose control of himself. She was living that moment in the present, he could still, while sharing her emotion, think of the future. He would strike at once.

"But de Vitre?" he exclaimed.

She drew herself away from him slowly, rose tremblingly to her feet, and looked down upon him again.

"You remind me," she said, brokenly, "of my word, my duty. I know not how it is," she continued, "why I am so weak before you. Is it the strength of your love or the strength of mine? But I will be mistress of myself. I cannot break my word. I cannot break my old grandfather's heart. I cannot dishonor the name of my family. I am a de Rohan though but a woman. I will not——"

"Hear me, Anne!" cried Grafton, stretching out his hand to Heaven, "before God I swear you shall! You shall break your word with de Vitre! You shall put aside your country! You shall cross the will of your people! You are mine by prior right. I will make you do it! You shall be my wife!"

"How, monsieur, will you bring about these things?" she cried boldly, every nerve in her body thrilling and quivering in passionate response to the imperious affection in his words. "What power have you? What is it that will give you strength?"

"The power of love, Anne!" answered Philip. "When two love each other as we love nothing can come between them."

She looked long and earnestly at him. He spoke the truth, and she knew it, yet with the stubbornness of a man and the devotion of a woman she clung to her negation. Presently, as he said nothing further, she turned to leave the room.

"Wait!" he cried from where he lay exhausted by his own feelings. "Before you go, promise me that you will come again? That each day you will let me see you at least once?"

"I promise you, Sir Philip," she answered, "but I must have no more of this. Indeed, I cannot stand it. 'Tis not right, it comports not with my honor. You must promise me, too. I am pledged still to Monsieur de Vitre."

She was almost humble in her petition, as if to say, "You have the power, you know it, oh, abuse it not, if you indeed love the woman who has given you her heart." Her appeal met with an immediate and generous response from him.

"God bless you, Anne, for the saving grace of that word 'still'!" he cried. "I promise you. I shall ask no kiss of you, expect no caress from you, beg no further word of love, until your engagement with de Vitre is broken."

"That will never be, monsieur," she said sadly, yet taking heart and cherishing hope from his bold assurance. "Au revoir."

(CONTINUED)

World's Fair Coach Excursions.

Via the picturesque Lehigh Valley Railroad, $18 for ten-day round trip. The Lehigh Valley Railroad announces the following dates for its coach excursions to the St. Louis Exposition: August 31; September 7, 14, 21 and 28; October 5, 12, 19 and 26. For full information consult Frank Rowley, city ticket agent, 261 West Front street. 8 6 eod

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

The Standard Railroad of America.

PROTECTED THROUGHOUT BY THE ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC BLOCK SIGNAL SYSTEM.

On and After June 26, 1904.

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

f 9 26 a m—Main Line Express daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor Cars, for Pittsburg and Cleveland, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

f 2 35 p m—Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily, for Nashville (via Cincinnati and Louisville), Indianapolis, Chicago and St. Louis; Dining Car.

f 6 42 p m—Western Express, daily, with Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, for Pittsburg and Chicago.

f 8 27 p m—Pacific Express, daily, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars for Pittsburg, Toledo and Chicago, daily, for Knoxville, via Shenandoah Valley Route, for Cleveland, except Saturday.

Seaboard Air Line Express, f 1 01 p m daily.

FOR BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH—12 58, 3 24, 9 07, 10 08 a m, 1 04, 10 08 p m. On Sunday at 12 58, 9 07, 10 08 a m, 1 04 and 10 07 p m.

FOR NEWARK AND NEW YORK—5 23, 4 57, 5 44, 6 12, 6 30, 6 58, 7 15, 7 39, 7 45, 7 56, 8 04, 8 07, 8 10, 8 20, 8 25, 8 48, 8 52, 9 17, 9 22, 9 45, 10 17, 10 47, 10 56, 11 08, 11 47 a m, 12 45, 1 04, 1 55, 2 20, 3 15, 3 20, 3 45, 4 01, 4 53, 4 58, 5 26, 5 46, 6 00, 6 27, 6 46, 6 56, 7 08, 7 31, 7 56, 8 22, 8 54, 9 15, 9 45, 10 12, 10 44, 10 47, 11 42, 11 50 (Saturdays only) p m and 12 12 night. Sundays, 5 05, 6 57, 7 56, 8 20, 8 50, 9 51, 10 16, 10 57, 12 05 a m, 12 50, 12 56, 1 08, 3 22, 3 49, 5 44, 6 02, 6 54, 7 02, 7 08, 7 36, 7 52, 8 30, 9 08, 9 45, 10 18, 10 44, 11 56, p m and 12 12 night. For New York only, 7 45 a m, and 2 46, 8 49 p m week days.

FOR TRENTON AND PHILADELPHIA—1 01, 5 46, 7 10 (Trenton only), 8 06, 8 52, 9 07, 9 38, 10 06, 11 40 a m, 12 40, 1 04, 2 04, (Trenton only) 3 38, 6 42, 7 35, 7 44, 8 37, 10 08 p m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 10 08, 10 40 a m, 1 04, 5 02, 6 42, 7 44, 8 37, and 10 07 p m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Through Vestibuled Express Trains, Buffet Parlor Cars, Passenger Coach, and Combined Coach, 10 02 a m and 3 36 p m, week-days. Express 1 01, 5 46 and 9 38 a m, 12 40 p m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51 and 8 32 (Through Vestibuled Train, Pullman Parlor, Dining and Smoking Cars and wide Vestibule Coaches) a m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Via Delaware River Bridge, 1 01 a m, 12 40 and 3 35 p m week days; 1 01 and 6 51 a m. Sundays.

FOR CAPE MAY—Express, 1 01 night, daily.

FOR RAHWAY—1 01, 4 25, 5 46, 6 46, 7 10, 8 06, 9 00, 9 07, 9 46, 11 14, 11 40 a m., 1 21, 1 42 (Saturdays only), 3 04, 3 40 (Saturdays only) 3 11, 3 49, 4 38, 4 50, 5 09, 5 30, 5 36, 6 47, 5 56, 6 05, (except Saturday), 6 12, 6 15, (except Saturday), 6 28, 6 45, 7 04, 7 08, 7 18, 7 46, 8 12, 8 54, 9 04, 10 07, 11 42 p m., and 12 20 night. week-days. Sundays, 1 01, 1 01, 6 51, 9 46, 10 36, 10 40 and 11 44 a. m., 12 42, 1 50, 3 47, 3 58, 4 43, 5 19, 5 46, 5 52, 7 08, 7 27, 7 44, 8 14, 9 47, 9 18, 10 15, 11 00 and 11 56 p. m.

FOR NEW BRUNSWICK—1 01, 6 46, 7 10, 8 06, 9 07, 11 40 a. m., 12 40, 1 42 (Saturdays only), 3 04, 4 26, 4 38, 5 09, 5 36, 6 05, (except Saturday) 6 45, 7 44, 8 37, 10 08, 10 07 p. m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 9 46, 10 18 and 11 14 a. m., 12 42, 1 50, 3 47, 3 58, 4 43, 5 19, 5 46, 5 52, 7 08, 7 27, 7 44, 8 14, 9 47, 9 18, 10 15, 11 00 and 11 56 p. m.

FOR WOODBRIDGE AND PERTH AMBOY—6 40, 9 46, 11 14, a m, 1 21, 4 15, 4 50, 5 07, 6 12, 7 10, 9 54 p m, and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 36, 11 44 a m, 5 40 and 10 15 p m.

FOR EAST MILLSTONE—7 10 a m, 12 40 and 5 38 p m week-days.

FOR LAMBERTVILLE, PHILLIPSBURG, MANUNKA CHUNK AND FROUDSBURG, VIA TRENTON—6 25, 10 36 a m, 12 40 (Saturdays only), 3 04 and 6 42 p m, week days, 6 51 a m and 6 42 p m Sunday.

FOR FLEMINGTON—10 36 a m and 3 04 p m.

FOR JAMESBURG VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10 a m, 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR FREEHOLD VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10, 8 06 11 40 a m, 4 36 and 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR LONG BRANCH, ASBURY PARK, OCEAN GROVE, AND POINTS ON NEW YORK AND LONG BRANCH R. R., 4 25, 8 19 and 9 26, a m, 1 03, 3 06, 3 44, 5 43 and 7 36 p m week-days. Sundays, 9 05 and 10 26 a m, and 5 40 p m. Stop at North Asbury Park for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

FOR BROOKLYN, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats of Pennsylvania Annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

LEAVE NEW YORK FOR ELIZABETH—From West Twenty-third Street Station, 6 05, 6 35, 7 25, 8 10, 8 25, 8 55, 10 25, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 25, 12 55 (Saturdays only), 1 25, 1 55 (Saturdays only), 2 25, 3 55, 4 55, 4 25, 4 55, 5 10, 5 25, 5 40, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 55, 8 10, 9 55, 9 25, 10 55, 12 01 night. Sundays—8 05, 7 55, 8 25, 9 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 55, 2 40, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 6 10, 6 40, 6 55, 7 25, 7 55, 8 25, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55 p m, and 12 10 night.

"f" Stops on notice to Agent or on signal. For time from Desbrosses and Cortlandt streets consult local time-tables to be procured from agents.

W. W. ATTERBURY, Gen'l M'g'r. J. R. WOOD, Pass. Traffic M'g'r.

GEO. W. BOYD, General Passenger Agent.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF,

EAST FRONT STREET.

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accomodations and private dining room.

Hotel Kensington,

(Licensed)

J. H. STAATS, Prop.,

107, 109, 111 North Avenue.

Everything New and Up to Date. An Inspection Solicited

JOHN WIRTH

Successor to Henry Liefke

Bakery and Confectionery 201-203 W. Front St

Telephone No. 723

All orders delivered at short notice.

— EXPERT — WATCH REPAIRING At DOANE'S, — 115 PARK AVE.

LAING MACHINE-AUTO REPAIR COMPANY,

416 Sycamore Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Office—134 North Avenue. Telephone 333-J

GREAT

REMOVAL SALE OF

Bicycles, Bicycle Sundries, Pianos, Musical Instruments, Sheet Music.

224 Park Ave. 224 W. Front St.

SPECIAL LOW PRICES

For all Summer Dresses. Linen Suits a Specialty.

S. Hirsh, - 432 Watchung Ave

Reading System

New Jersey Central.

Stations in New York foot of Liberty and South Ferry, Whitehall Streets.

Time Table Corrected August 15, 1904

For New York—5 10, 6 20, 7 05, 8 07, 7 05, 7 35, 7 45, 8 11, 8 34, 8 44, 9 03, 9 37, 11 35 a. m., 1 18, 2 31, 3 45, 3 44, 5 43, 5 53, 6 23, 6 37, 7 03, 8 03, 9 25, 10 25, 11 00 p. m. Sunday—2 17, 3 07, 5 05, 7 01, 8 01, 8 52, 9 40, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 53, 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 45, 6 53, 8 13, 8 35, 9 43, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark—5 10, 6 20, 7 05, 8 07, 7 05, 7 35, 7 45, 8 11, 8 34, 8 44, 9 03, 9 37, 11 35 a. m., 1 18, 2 31, 3 45, 3 44, 5 43, 5 53, 6 23, 6 37, 7 03, 8 03, 9 25, 10 25, 11 00 p. m. Sunday—2 17, 3 07, 5 05, 7 01, 8 01, 8 52, 9 40, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 53, 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 45, 6 53, 8 13, 8 35, 9 43, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville—5 25, 7 12, 8 31, 9 33, 9 55, 11 00 a. m., 1 01, 3 09, 3 11, 3 53, 4 53, 5 39, 5 57, 6 04, 6 10, 6 41, 7 12, 7 33, 8 03, 8 21, 9 07, 10 02, 11 30 p. m., 12 59 night. Sunday—5 45, 8 45, 11 14 a. m., 2 03, 3 40, 5 07, 6 05, 8 30, 10 15, 11 16, 11 25 p.m.

For Flemington—7 13, 11 00 a. m., 3 11 5 10 6 12 p. m. Sundays—5 45 a. m., 5 07 p. m.

For Phillipsburg and Easton—5 25, 7 12, 8 31, 9 33, 9 55, 11 00 a. m., 3 11, 5 39, 6 41 p. m. Sunday—5 45 a. m., 2 03, 5 35 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5 25, 9 34 a. m., 3 11, 5 39 p. m. Sundays—5 45 a. m., 2 03, 5 35 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5 25, 9 34 a. m; 5 45 p m. Sundays—5 45 a m, 5 35 p m.

For Long Branch and Ocean Grove, etc—8 11, 11 00 a m, 3 44, 6 32 p m. Sunday (except Ocean Grove)—8 53 a m, 12 05, 3 33, 9 13 p m.

For Red Bank—8 11, 11 00 12 05, 1 13, 3 44, 4 47, 5 55, 11 23 p m. Sundays—8 53 a m, 3 33, 9 13 p m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—(8 11 Lakewood only) 9 27 a m, 1 13, 3 40, (5 44 p m, Lakewood only). Sundays—8 53 a m.

For Toms River and Barnegat—9 27 a m, 1 13, 5 44 p m. Sundays—8 53 a m.

For Philadelphia—4 17, 7 12, 7 44, 8 44, 8 51, 9 44, 10 44, 10 51, 11 44 a m., 12 44, 1 01, 1 30, 2 45, 3 44, 5 45, 7 47, 8 21, p m., 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 51 a m, 3 45, 4 55, 6 45*, 8 37 7 47, 9 47 p m, 1 25, 1 17 night.

For Trenton—5 17, 7 12, 7 44, 8 44, 9 44, 10 44, 11 44 a m, 12 44, 1 01, 1 30, 3 44, 5 45, 7 47, p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 51 a m, 3 45, 4 55, 6 45, 8 37, 9 47 p m, 1 25, 1 17 night.

For Reading and Harrisburg—4 17, 8 30, 9 54, (10 44, 11 44 Reading only), 2 m, 3 11, (5 45 through train), 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 3 03, 5 37, 6 35 p m, 1 17 night.

For Pottsville, Sunbury and Williamsport—5 17, 8 30, 9 54 a m, 3 11 5 31 p m, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 3 03 p m, 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—1 17, 8 51, 10 51, a m, 2 45, 6 45, 7 47 p m. Sundays 10 51 a m 2 45, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres & Gen. Mgr. C. M. BURT, Gen. Pass. Agent

Lehigh Valley Railroad

Time Table in Effect Nov. 29, 1903.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

6:05 a.m. daily (except Sunday) local to Mauch Chunk.

8:42 a. m. daily for Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Rochester, Buffalo and principal intermediate stations, connects at Depew Junction for Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge.

2:12 p. m. daily local for Easton, Mauch Chunk, Hazleton, Pottsville and Shenandoah.

4:58 p. m. daily (except Sunday) "Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Express" Solid vestibule train to Wilkes-Barre. Through Parlor Car via D. & H. R. R. to Scranton and Carbondale.

6:21 p. m. daily (except Sunday) local to Easton.

6:40 p. m. daily solid vestibule train to Buffalo, Toronto and Chicago and principal intermediate stations except Rochester

FRANK BOWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 215 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J Telephone 112-b.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m. On Saturday's close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:20, 6:00 6:20 p. m. Close—7:20, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.

Arrive—8:4 a. m.; 1:20, 3:15 and 7:20 p. m. Close—7:20 a. m.; 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:20 and 5:20 p. m. Close—1:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA—West of Easton.

Close 12:35 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:20, 5:20 p. m. Close—7:20, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:20 and 7:20 p. m. Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m., 12:35, 4:30, 7:45 p. m.

Through fast mail for West and South close 4:30 and 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for East, close 1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE & GALLIA (Mt. Bethel)

Arrive—1:20 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

Watchung—Arrive 6:35 p. m. Close 5:30 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

STONE AT BARTLE'S STONE YARD.

Yard: Corner Church and Second Streets.

Cut Stone, Building Stone—ALL KINDS.

FLAGGING AND CURB STONE.

Have some 18-inch and 2 and 3-ft. walk very cheap. Leave orders for your foundation and cesspool stone with us.

SMALLEY BROS.,

147 North Ave.

Butchers.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Roasting and Broiling Chickens a specialty.

Orders called for and delivered. Telephone 83-A.

H. EGGERDING,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c Cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana Cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of Domestic Cigars.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

Game in Season. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Telephone No. 463 J.

LADIES DESIRING—

Knife-Pleating or Pinking

done, will please leave their orders at No. 22 Duer Street, and it will receive prompt attention.

MRS. FORCE.

TO ROB BOOKMAKERS.

Dynamite Caps Exploded by Crooks at Hawthorne Track.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—By the explosion of some dynamite caps and in the panic that followed it three persons were injured at the Hawthorne race track. It is supposed that the caps were thrown on the floor of the betting ring with the idea of creating a panic, during which the cash boxes of the bookmakers might be robbed. An attempt was made to rob one bookmaker, but it failed.

Frank Williams and Mitchell Bruno were badly wounded, and A. M. McGill received a severe scalp wound and was badly bruised in the panic in the ring.

The first explosion was caused by Williams, who while walking through the east side of the ring stepped on a cap. It exploded, tearing off his shoe and lacerating his foot severely. He fell to the floor with a cry, and instantly there was a shout that an insane man was discharging his revolver at random. Immediately there was a wild panic, and while the bookmakers, seizing their cash boxes, bent low in their booths, the crowd rushed across to the south side of the ring in an effort to escape. Just as the thick of the throng reached this side of the ring somebody trod on another cap, and the crowd tore back to the place where it had started on the first run. McGill was knocked down during this rush and was trampled upon.

A third explosion took place some minutes after the panic had been allayed. It occurred just beneath a chair on which Bruno was sitting, threw him to the floor, and a portion of the cap striking his foot tore it badly.

While the excitement was at its highest a man made an effort to grab the cash box of a bookmaker doing business under the name of the Chicago club. He was knocked down by a clerk and ran away before he could be arrested.

A search of the betting ring made after the injured had been removed revealed a number of caps lying about the floor.

There is no clew to the identity of the persons who placed them there.

John C. Cutler Nominated.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 26.—After a bitter fight John C. Cutler of Salt Lake City has been nominated for governor by the Republican state convention on the second ballot. The fight for the governorship was a three cornered one between Governor H. V. M. Wells, now serving his second term in that office; J. H. Hammond, present secretary of state, and John C. Cutler, a prominent merchant of Salt Lake City, and absorbed the attention of the delegates to the exclusion of the rest of the ticket. Mr. Hammond withdrew after the first ballot. The second ballot stood: Cutler, 239; Wells, 221.

Swift to Command the Maine.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26. — Announcement has been made at the navy department that Captain William Swift of the general board had applied for command of the battleship Maine and probably will be assigned to that vessel.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Closing Stock Quotations.

Money on call nominally 1 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 3½@4½ per cent; exchanges, $185,229,997; balances, $8,867,641.

Closing prices:

Amal. Copper	56⅝	N. Y. Central	122
Atchison	81⅝	Norf. & West	65⅝
B. & O.	96⅝	Penn. R. R.	125
Brooklyn R. T.	53⅞	Reading	58½
C., C., C. & St. L.	78½	Rock Island	25½
Ches. & Ohio	35⅝	St. Paul	152⅝
Chi. & Northw.	184½	Southern Pac.	57
D. & H.	164⅝	Southern Ry.	29¼
Erie	27⅛	South. Ry. pf.	94
Gen. Electric	164	Sugar	131¼
Ill. Central	138¾	Texas Pacific	30½
Lackawanna	273½	Union Pacific	99⅞
Louis. & Nash.	121⅝	U. S. Steel	12
Manhattan	155	U. S. Steel pf.	59
Metropolitan	122¾	West. Union	90
Missouri Pac.	96⅞

New York Markets.

WHEAT—Firm but quiet.

CORN—Firm.

OATS—Half a cent lower.

BUTTER—Firm; good demand; extra western creamery, 18½@19; nearby prints, 20c.

EGGS—Steady; fair demand; nearby firsts, 19½c. at mark; western firsts, 19@20c. at mark.

CHEESE—Firm and a shade higher; New York full creams, choice to fancy, 8¾@9¼c.; New York full creams, fair to good, 8@8¼c.

FRESH FRUITS—Apples, Alexander, hand picked, per double head barrel, 2@3; Duchess of Oldenburg, $1.75@2.75; Gravenstein, $1.75@2.50; Twenty Ounce, $1.75@2.50; Malden Blush, $1.50@2.25; Codling, $1.50@2.25; Fall and Nyack Pippins, $1.50@2.25; Orange Pippin, $1.50@2; open heads, $1@1.25; windfalls and common, 50@60; pears, Bartlett, per barrel, $2.50@3; per half barrel basket, 75c.@$1; Clapp's Favorite, per barrel, $3@4.50; Flemish Beauty, $1.50@2.50; Kiefer, Southern, $1@2; cooking sorts, $1@2; plums, blue, large, table varieties, per 6 pound basket, 20@25c.; Green Gage, 15@20c.; egg, 15@20c.; Lombard, 14@16c.; Burbank, 10@14c.; common green, 10@15c.; per carrier, 40@75c.; per quart, 2@5c.; peaches, Jersey, per basket, 40@85c.

HAY—Old, prime, per 100 pounds, 92½@95c.; No. 1, 80c.; No. 2, 77½@82½c.; No. 3, 70c.; new, prime, per 100 pounds, 87½c.; No. 1, 85c.; No. 2, 75c.; No. 3, 65@70c.

VEGETABLES—Potatoes, Long Island, in bulk, per 180 pounds, $1.50@1.62; Jersey, $1.37@1.50; Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, round, per barrel or bag, $1.37@1.50; Jersey, long (Giants), $1.25@1.37; southern, per barrel, $1.12@1.25; common, 75c.@$1; sweet potatoes, Jersey, yellow, per barrel, $2@2.50; per half barrel, $1.12@1.25; southern, yellow, per barrel, 75c.@$2.

LIVE POULTRY—Steady; fair demand; fowls, 13½@14c.; old roosters, 9@9½c.; spring chickens, 15@16c.; ducks, old, 11@12c.; do., young, 13@15c.

DRESSED POULTRY—Firm; fair demand; fowls, choice, fresh killed, 14½c.; fair to good, 12½@13c.; old roosters, 9½c.; nearby broilers, choice, 18@20c.; fair to good, 16@17c.; western do., choice, 16@18c.; fair to good, 12@15c.

DRESSED MEATS—Veals firm at 8½@12½c. per pound for city dressed veals; 9@11c. for country dressed; grassers and buttermilks steady at 5@7c.; a few choice sheep and wethers selling at the range of 9@10c.; dressed lambs firm at 9@12c.

Live Stock Markets.

CATTLE—Supply light; market steady; choice, $5.00@5.50; prime, $5.35@5.60; fair, $3.40@4.10; veal calves, $7@7.50.

HOGS—Receipts light and market slow; prime heavies, $5.70@5.72½; mediums, $5.50@5.55; heavy Yorkers and light Yorkers, $5.80@5.85; pigs, $5.75@5.82½; roughs, $4@4.75.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply light; market steady; prime wethers, $4.20@4.40; common sheep, $1.50@3; spring lambs, $4@6.50.

HAD A HALLUCINATION.

Officer Ended His Life, Accusing Himself of Drunkenness.

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 26.—The funeral of the late First Lieutenant Guilford S. Garber, artillery corps, U. S. A. has occurred here and was largely attended by the Grand Army post, Indiana national guards, Companions of the Loyal Legion and friends.

As a consequence of tropical service overstudy and perhaps homesickness Lieutenant Garber suddenly became possessed with the hallucination that he could not stop drinking and ended his life. He and he alone was his accuser. He was not given to excess in drinking, as is well known at his home, and has been abundantly attested by unsolicited letters received since his death by officers with whom he served in the Spanish war, the Philippines, at San Francisco and Honolulu and by official reports to the war department.

The war department received only favorable reports of his service at all times. He was regarded as the best Spanish scholar in his regiment in the Philippines, passed very high examinations, especially in mathematics, and was an instructor of the California coast artillery.

He had every reason to live and none to die, except such as a brain overtaxed or a nervous system disordered by tropical service suggested.

At San Francisco army officers are much dismayed at the suicide of their brilliant young comrade and were asking "Who next?" as young Garber was able, vigorous and ambitious and stood well in army and civilian life.

THREE DROWNED.

Sailboat Capsized on Oquaga Lake Near Deposit.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Aug. 26.—By the capsizing of a sailboat late y

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY solicits savings accounts.

It pays 3 per cent interest on accounts of $5.00 or more and compounds such interest twice a year.

Deposits that are made before the 4th of any month draw interest from the first of that month.

Questions regarding this department of the Company's business will be cheerfully replied to.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST CO.

Capital - -	$100,000
Surplus - - -	100,000
Deposits - -	1,000,000

PUBLIC SCHOOLS REOPEN ON SEPT. 13

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

VerPlanck, Lizzie Southworth, May Butler, Edna French, Emma Tantum, Emily M. Sturtevant, Clare L. Atherton, Mabel Hare, Catherine S. Buell, Bessie Morris, Elizabeth Kiernan, Pearl A. Williams, Edna M. Richards, Cora P. Lyndon, Myrtle M. Montague, Laura M. Sydenham, Miss L Holcomb and M. K. W. Heicher and Robert M. Sander.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., will confer the third rank on one candidate this evening.

The Good and Welfare committee of Benevolent Council, No. 256, Jr. O. U. A. M., has prepared an entertainment out of the ordinary for this evening.

Runaway Smash-Up.

A delivery wagon belonging to W. W. Warnock, of West Front street, was badly smashed in a runaway yesterday. The wagon was driven by Gus Rose, who was at the time delivering goods in a house on Liberty street. While the driver was in the house the horse became uneasy, and started to walk home. As the animal was crossing Fourth street, a trolley car came along, and caused the horse to plunge forward. Having no one to restrain him the horse ran wildly from one side of the street to the other. As a result of the runaway the wagon was badly demolished, though no injury occurred to the horse.

Two Engagements.

The double announcement of the engagement of the Misses Sterling, of 334 West Eighty-fifth street, New York city, was made known yesterday. Miss Emma Hawley Sterling, the elder of the sisters, is soon to marry Preston H. Skidmore, of New York, while Miss Marjorie Canfield Sterling is engaged to Harold W. Sherrell, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The date for the wedding, which will probably be a double one, has not yet been announced. The Sterling family moved to New York city about two years ago, after having long been residents at Sycamore and East Sixth streets.

Co. K Practice.

The Company K armory will be open tonight for the final practise before the last shoot at Sea Girt tomorrow. All those who have not qualified as marksmen are requested to be present at the armory tonight as an effort will be made to have all the men qualify tomorrow. There is only one more chance for the local company to beat the Princeton aggregation with whom they are at present tieud. This will be at the ranges tomorrow and both Co. K and Co. L will make the best of the chance.

Undertakers' Convention.

The annual convention of the New Jersey Undertakers' Association will be held at Trenton on September 14 and 15. It is the intention of the Legislative Committee of the State body to get authority to submit to the next Legislature a retaliatory measure against the New York undertakers, who succeeded in getting a law passed to prohibit undertakers from other States conducting funerals in New York.

Vote of Freeholders' Abolition.

The voters of Middlesex County will have another opportunity this fall to vote upon the question of whether the Board of Freeholders should be abolished and a business-like commission substituted in their place. The question was voted upon here once before, but it was defeated. That was soon after the Strong act became a law, and the public was not fully awakened to the meaning of the act.

DEMOCRATS ENJOYED THE DAY

UNION COUNTY POLITICIANS SPENT THE TIME ON LONG ISLAND.

The seventh annual outing of the Elizabeth City Democratic Committee, held yesterday at Point View Grove, Long Island, was one of the most successful in the history of the organization. It was attended by 800 of the faithful, among whom were many from this city. Everybody had a thoroughly good time and while politics were discussed at every opportunity somewhere in the crowd, there was "lots doing" in the way of athletic games, music and hand-shaking. The return to Elizabeth was made at 10 o'clock last night without a single accident having occurred to mar the day.

Among some of the Plainfielders who were conspicuous in the crowd were James E. Martine, Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer, Walter L. Hetfield, Sr., Frank J. Shattle, J. V. F. Dilts and Justice H. K. Hand. DeWitt Clinton Flanagan, of Morristown, who is said to be grooming himself for the congressional nomination in the Fifth district, was one of the first to arrive at the dock and he put in a busy day giving and getting the "jolly" act.

Democrats Begin Campaign.

The New Jersey Democratic State Committee opened yesterday its headquarters in the Jeffersonian Club, Newark. The campaign in the State will be directed from there from now on. Secretary William H. Devereaux is in charge of the bureau. Chairman Gourley will come down from Paterson at intervals during each week and will devote much of his time to campaign business. Robert A. Haggerty will act as sergeant-at-arms at the headquarters, he having replaced Abram A. Naar. Secretary Devereaux says the campaign in New Jersey will be pushed vigorously.

Y. M. C. A. Orchestra Reorganized.

It was decided at the meeting last evening, to reorganize the Y. M. C. A. Orchestra. Mr. Korff, who led the orchestra last year, was present and consented to conduct the rehearsals for the public again this winter. The first rehearsal will be held about the middle of September, and practice for the performance will begin next Monday evening. After the discussion of business the members of the orchestra enjoyed a social hour, and ice cream and cake were served.

William Weightman Dead.

William Weightman, the richest man in Philadelphia, and one of the best known manufacturing chemists in the country, died at his home in the Quaker City yesterday. He was ninety-one years old and was the grandfather of Aubrey H. Weightman, who married Miss Fanny Cox, of West Seventh street, last year. His wealth is variously estimated at from $50,000,000 to $150,000,000.

No Trace of Wagner.

Despite determined efforts on the part of the local police no trace has yet been found of Fred Wagner, the German who robbed the home of Charles C. Randolph on Dunellen avenue of $300 worth of jewelry, Wednesday afternoon. Chief Kiely went to Philadelphia, yesterday, in search of him.

After Naturalization Papers.

The Naturalization Committee from this city will make another trip to County Clerk Howard's office at Elizabeth tomorrow afternoon, and all who are desirous of securing their papers can do so by accompanying the committee. The party will leave the North Avenue station on the 1:18.

Mrs. Ida Green Buried.

The funeral of Mrs. Ida Green, who died Tuesday, was held yesterday afternoon at her late home on Netherwood avenue, and was in charge of Rev. J. W. Musson, pastor of Faith chapel. The pall bearers were nephews of the dead woman. She was buried at Hillside.

—Use Press Want Ads.

POLITICAL CHAT.

PARTY NOMINATIONS.

REPUBLICAN.
For President—Theodore Roosevelt
For Vice President—Charles W. Fairbanks.

DEMOCRATIC.
For President—Alton B. Parker.
For Vice President—Henry G. Davis.

POPULIST.
For President—Thomas E. Watson
For Vice President—Thomas W. Tribbles.

PROHIBITION.
For President—Silas C. Swallow.
For Vice President—George I. Carrol.

SOCIALIST.
For President—Eugene V. Debs.
For Vice President—Benj. Hanford.

SOCIALIST-LABOR.
For President—Charles H. Coregan.
For Vice President—William A. Cox.

The Union County Colored Auxiliary Republican committee will meet tonight at the Republican headquarters in the Dix building, Elizabeth.

The Republican Congressional Convention will be held about a week previous to the county convention. The Congressional committee will meet in Morristown Monday and select time and place.

The Democratic banner raising which was to have taken place in Elizabeth Wednesday night didn't materialize. The excuse given is that there are too many wires in front of Democratic headquarters.

Thursday, October 6, was selected at the meeting of the Union County Republican Committee as the time for the county convention. The place of meeting, to be in Elizabeth, was left to Chairman Kean, who will arrange to hold it in the Lyceum Theatre.

Delegates from all portions of the State are being elected to attend the State League of Republican Clubs' convention at Asbury Park on September 2. A big mass meeting will be held in the afternoon, at which Governor Murphy will preside. The main speech of the day will be given by a Republican of national prominence. Interesting contests are expected over the selection of delegates to the National convention of league clubs at Indianapolis on October 5 and 6.

William J. Bryan's Chicago speech, delivered soon after the last New York State Convention, will go into 250,000 pamphlets, ordered by Harry S. New, of the Republican Executive Committee, for circulation throughout the Central and Western States. In this speech Judge Parker was harshly criticised by Mr. Bryan, who said he was not fit to be the nominee of the party for President. Editorial articles written by Bryan for his paper will also be included in the pamphlet

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Use Press Want Ads.

—Rev. A. F. Irvine, of New Haven, was the weekly speaker at the large men's meetings that were held for two years in the New Haven Opera House. He also addressed large outdoor meetings in the summer. He will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—Permit has been granted Elmer W. Poinier for an extension at the side of his residence on East Third street. The addition will measure 16x16 feet and will be one story in height. J. Gottlieb, of Westfield, has been secured for the mason work, and J. Campbell, also of Westfield, will be in charge of the carpenter work.

Delayed the Sale.

A legal hitch in the power of William Pangborn, of North Plainfield, to act in the capacity of auctioneer at a sale of horses and wagons at Boice's Hotel yesterday afternoon, caused considerable delay in the auction proceedings. When the sale was called, the bidders refused to allow Pangborn to act in crying the sale, on the grounds that he was unauthorized to act. Auctioneer P. H. Latourette was secured.

Transfer of Business.

A transfer of the auction business controlled by P. H. Latourette, the auctioneer, was effected Wednesday by which Charles E. Utter, of West Fourth street, has secured control of the West Front street rooms for the sale of second hand furniture.

Visited Central Lodge.

District Deputy Grand Master Workman James T. Cunningham, of Paterson, and Past Grand Master Workman V. W. Nash paid a visit of inspection to Central Lodge, A. O. U. W., last evening.

Fraternal Visit by Juniors.

A delegation of twenty-five members of Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U. A. M., paid a fraternal visit to Twilight Council at Scotch Plains last evening.

Archie Pullan, formerly of this city, but now of Worcester, Mass., is the guest of his sister, Miss Florence Pullan, of West Fourth street.

CHILD CORNETIST.

Hilda E. Gaul, the child cornet soloist, will be the special musical feature at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon. Miss Gaul has played at the men's meeting twice before and has been received with great favor.

COLORED VOTERS' CALL.

State Convention to Name Negro Member of Committee.

A call has just been issued by A. B. Cosey, of Newark, for a convention of colored Republicans of the State on September 2, at Asbury Park, to consider the political situation. The chief object of the convention, however, is to name a colored representative for the Republican State Committee, which position is now held by Charles M. Robinson, of Camden.

The call for the convention follows: "In pursuance to the demands of the colored citizens of New Jersey for a State convention to consider the political situation in our State, I am requested by a committee of citizens, and the Colored State Republican Association to call a State convention of colored citizens to be held at Lyric Hall, Asbury Park, N. J., September 2, 1904.

"Counties are entitled to the following delegates: Atlantic, 15; Burlington, 25; Bergen, 20; Camden, 40; Cumberland, 15; Cape May, 15; Essex, 50; Gloucester, 5; Hunterdon, 5; Hudson, 40; Monmouth, 35; Mercer, 35; Middlesex, 20; Morris, 20; Ocean, 5; Passaic, 35; Salem, 5; Somerset, 15; Sussex, 5; Union, 35; Warren, 5.

"The delegates to be elected by county conventions. Where county conventions are not held, the chairman may appoint. Call for county conventions must be published or posted in a public place at least three days prior to the convention.

Rahway-Elizabeth Trolley.

Materials for the Public Service trolley line between Rahway and Elizabeth were received at Rahway yesterday. Only a single track will be laid at first, though the franchise right calls for two. There has been a holdup of the line at Elizabeth, but the contractor has assured Street Commissioner John Bedow that before next winter the cars would be running by way of Linden, shortening the present route about six miles.

Contract Cases.

The contract cases of Fannie Gross against James Egan and against Edward Hoppock are returnable Sept. 3 at Justice Mosher's court.

Lewis H. Morgan, formerly of this city, but now of Ridgeway, Pa., where he is superintendent of a large machine shop, is stopping at the Hotel Kensington for a few days.

ELECTION OFFICERS.

Appointments for the City Democratic Boards Have Been Made.

The Democratic Boards of Election for the city have been appointed as follows: First ward, First district, V. L. Frasee and M. J. DeCourcy; Second district, Jacob Voehl, Jr., and W. H. Drake; Second ward, First district, Charles Messersohmith and Joseph Harrigan; Second, Hezekiah Hand and James B. Guttridge; Third ward, First district, J. H. Harkins and Thomas O'Keefe; Second, W. H. Harding and Edwin Fluck, Jr.; Fourth ward, First district, John F. Casey and M. R. Flynn; Second, Clinton Shannon and James J. Kane; Third, Joseph Hurlbut and John J. Kinnery.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunck, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and a Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and, as its name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful places. On August 28, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Chunk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1 50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 8 23 5 c

Alfred DeNice's Son Dead.

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred DeNice, of Stone street, died this morning at his home after a short illness. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon.

—Delaware peaches, the very best quality, at Neuman Brothers. Special display tomorrow.

--AUTOMOBILES--

We are making a great hit; we have come to force prices down. Already our great floor is crowded with bargains in new and second-hand cars.

Pope Hartford.

Pope Hartford.

The best all-around family car, the best hill climber and long distance car in America for the money—finish equal to any high priced car.

Pope Tribune.

The finest runabout on the market today. Call and inspect its merits before purchasing elsewhere.

Oldsmobiles.

A number of second-hand Oldsmobiles at your own price—other second-hand Auto's cheap to make room for our new stock. Inspection invited. We have or can get the car you want at much lower prices than others.

PLAINFIELD AUTO GARAGE,

114-120 West Second St., near Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

ROTH & CO.

Keep Up The Good Work

For Saturday, Aug. 27.

Porterhouse Steak
Sirloin Steak
Round Steak

10 Cents Per Pound

ROTH & CO.

NEW JERSEY'S LEADING BUTCHERS,

132 East Front Street Tel. 208. Plainfield, N. J.

202-204 West Front Street.

WEINBERGER'S

202-204 West Front Street.

Whether you need clothing or not buy it now and profit by these

AUGUST SACRIFICE PRICES.

You never saw better bargains than we are offering in our Great August Sales. If you value economy you can't afford to miss this event.

$15.00 Suits reduced to..$7.95	The Princely Shirt, regular 75c values, special at.....45c
$12.00 Suits reduced to..$6.50	Regular 50c Balbriggan Underwear reduced to.....25c
$10.00 Suits reduced to..$5.95
$8 & $9 Suits reduced to..$4.75
$3.50 & $4 Trousers reduced to.....$2.00	Special 20th Century Collars, all styles and all sizes, regular 15c collars, special at.....7c
$3.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.69
$2.50 Trousers reduced to..$1.45	Boys' Wash Suits in all the latest styles, regular 75c kind, special at.....39c
$2.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.25
$1.50 Trousers reduced to..85c

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

202-204 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

THE USE OF REYNOLD'S PETROLEUM HAIR TONIC

Means Healthy Scalp, Natural Growth of Hair (no falling out) No Dandruff. 50 cents bottle. Prepared only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG

Corner North and Park Aves. THE APOTHECARY. Plainfield, N. J.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 5:22 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:41 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted at 7:41 p.m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair today; fair and warmer tomorrow. Ther. 74.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887 — PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, AUGUST 27, 1904. — TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

WHAT PLAINFIELD WAS LIKE FIFTY YEARS AGO

Lewis E. Barkalew Discovers a Map of the Town Published in 1852.

THEN IN ESSEX COUNTY

ONLY FOUR OF ONE HUNDRED SUBSCRIBERS ARE LIVING.

Interesting Facts About the Streets and Buildings—Some of Those Indicated and Pictured on the Map.

After it had lain unnoticed in a dark corner of an attic for nearly three decades, Lewis E. Barkalew, of Lincoln place, yesterday brought to light a Plainfield relic of fifty years ago. It is a map of the town as it then existed and after looking it over and comparing it with those of today, the owner is inclined to believe that he has been living in a municipality that has certainly grown.

The map, which is still in an excellent state of preservation despite rough usage, contains the announcement that it was "lithographed and printed by Bevan & Boell, Commercial building, Jersey City," and also that it was "published in 1852 by John Bevan, city surveyor." In one corner is a list of 100 subscribers to it and a glance over the names shows that but four of them are living today: John B. Brown, James M. Dunn, S. S. Vermeule and Mr. Barkalew, all of whom were local business men at the time. Still another printed notice in one corner says it is "a map of Plainfield, Essex county, New Jersey," and two crude pictures represent the general grocery building of Webster & Marsh, now the Couriers-News building, and the residence of Stephen Vail at "Fifth and Center streets," but which today is Fifth street and Central avenue, where the Seventh Day Baptist church stands.

According to the map the town's western boundary then was "William street," now Plainfield avenue, and on the east it was evidently Richmond street, although the thoroughfare indicated contains no name. The present day Tier's lake is designated as "Green pond" and the city's only park on West Eighth street is labelled "Stillman Park." Another part which has no name is marked off at what is now East Front and Richmond streets, running back to Second. East and West Front streets were then plain, unpretentious "Main street" and from the number of buildings marked on both sides, it was then what it is now, the principal business thoroughfare. Other streets which are indicated are "Cherry street," now Park avenue; "Mechanic street," now Madison avenue; New and Liberty streets; Second to Ninth streets, the latter being the southern boundary; "Peace street," now Watchung avenue; "Water street," now Elm place; "Union street," now Arlington avenue; "Dunham street," now College place, and "South street," now Prospect avenue. The Third and Second places of today were "West" and "Washington" streets.

At the extreme western end, "Main" street is marked as being "The road to Somerville and Easton" and on the East as "The Road to Elizabethtown." All that is shown of North Plainfield is a section of Somerset street, Pearl and Chatham streets. Beyond these the borough seems to have consisted of nothing more than apple orchards and woods. The "Central Railroad of New Jersey" entered the town by way of Third street and followed it up to a point near Arlington avenue, where it curved to the south. East of the station it curves to the right and then to the left toward Scotch Plains.

Among some of the business houses and residences indicated are those of the following: Robert Anderson, J. V. Arrowsmith, Joseph Annin, T. S. Alberti, George N. Angleman, John B. Brown, Daniel Bullman, Cornelius Boice, Rev. Louis Bond, William Burt, John Y. Burt, John Briant, L. E. Barkalew, Boice & Thickstun, H. A. Cory, J. H. Coward, Milton F. Cushing, Drs. John W. and Lewis Craig, Richard R. Coriell, W. S. and C. Dunham, R. Dunham, Jr., George N. Dewey, Rev. D. T. Drake, James M. Dunn, William Dunn, D. M. Dorman, Ephraim Drake, H. Dayton, P. M. French, Nathan D. Frazee, John L. Frazee, J. A. Freeman, Lewis M. Force, Martin Giles, Edgar Harriott, William F. Harris, Heath & Dunning, J. C. Huff, D. P. Huff, Cadwallader

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.)

J. WHITNEY BAKER WINS GOLF TROPHY

Local Man Captures the Sylvester Cup in Tournament at Shelter Island.

HE IS AN EXPERT

DEFEATS OPPONENT BY 6 UP AND 5 TO PLAY.

Enters From the Maidstone Golf Club, of East Hampton—Is a Member of the Hillside Club Here.

More honors on the golf course has come to J. Whitney Baker, of Stelle avenue, a Princeton student, who has gradually won his way to the front ranks among the leading players in the East. Yesterday he won the chief trophy, the Sylvester cup at Shelter Island. He entered from the Maidstone Golf Club, of East Hampton, and was matched against Walter Kobbe, of Shinnecock Hills Golf Club.

Baker, who is regarded as the most expert player in the tournament, was looked on as an easy winner, but Kobbe gave all hands a complete surprise by his brilliant play in the morning rounds, when he showed himself in every respect to be the equal of his opponent. He started off by winning the first hole in par golf, and he retained the lead until the fifth hole, which Baker won in a par 3, and the match remained all square at the turn, seven of the nine holes being halved. He played equally as well on the homeward journey. Baker won the tenth and thirteenth holes and Kobbe the eleventh and fourteenth. The twelfth, fifteen, sixteenth and seventeenth holes were halved. It was only by winning the eighteenth hole by 4 to 5 that Baker secured the lead by 1 up on the first half of the match. Their cards were:

Baker	4 5 4 4 3 4 6 5 6	—41
Kobbe	3 5 4 4 4 4 6 5 6	—41
Baker	5 6 3 4 5 4 5 5 4	—41—82
Kobbe	6 5 3 6 4 4 5 5 5	—48—34

There was a great gathering in the afternoon to witness the last half of the match, but the gallery was partially doomed to disappointment, as the pace set by Baker was a trifle too fast for Kobbe. The bogie for the first nine holes is 42, but Baker went out in the par golf of 38, while Kobbe, who also played good golf, took 40, two strokes under bogie. Baker won the first three holes in succession, and at the fifth he was 5 up. Kobbe won the seventh and eighth in par golf, the bogie for the seventh being 6. Baker still led by 3 up at the turn, and by winning three of the next four holes, won the match by 6 up and 5 to play. Their cards were:

Baker	4 3 4 3 3 5 5 6 5	—38
Kobbe	5 4 5 3 5 5 4 4 5	—40
Baker	5 5 4 5	—19—57
Kobbe	6 5 5 7	—23—63

REV. L. E. LIVERMORE RETIRES

PASTOR OF NEW MARKET SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST PREACHS FAREWELL SERMON.

Rev. Dr. L. E. Livermore preached his farewell sermon this morning in the Seventh-Day Baptist church, New Market, before a large congregation. He expects to leave next week for Lebanon, Conn., where he will make his home in the future. Services will be held regularly at the church until the new pastor arrives in the fall.

Dr. Livermore's retirement from the ministry removes an influential divine from the Seventh-Day Baptist denomination. For many years he has been actively engaged in the ministry, having several important charges. Twice he has served the New Market Seventh-Day Baptist church as pastor and his work there has been fruitful. Not only in the ministry, but in his literary work, has he been successful. It is with reluctance that his resignation was accepted at New Market, but Mr. Livermore feels the need of rest from active work and he will be succeeded by a younger man.

Their Nephew Dead.

Mrs. Corra Ryno, of Codington avenue, and Mrs. G. S. Martin, of Somerset place, have been called to Phillipsburg to attend the funeral services of their nephew, Stafford Thompson Hornby, fifteen-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Hornby, who died Thursday from meningitis. The funeral services will be held from the late home at Phillipsburg tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Hornby was formerly Miss Emma Sutphen, of this city.

FIRST SERVICES IN THE NEW SYNAGOGUE

Impressive Ceremonies at the Edifice of the Congregation, Children of Israel Tomorrow.

BUILDING DESCRIBED

SAMUEL DREIER TO UNLOCK THE DOOR WITH SILVER KEY.

Structure Cost $12,000—Accommodates Nine Hundred People—Cornerstone Laid Thanksgiving Day.

Invitations have been issued by the Congregation of the Children of Israel for the opening exercises to be held on the occasion of the first service at the new Hebrew Temple on New street, tomorrow afternoon. The exercises will be of a formal nature, commencing early in the afternoon by the actual unlocking of the doors of the Temple, by Samuel Dreier, chairman of the building committee. According to custom, the key with which this ceremony is to be performed, a solid silver one, was auctioned off to the highest bidder at a meeting of the Congregation of the Children of Israel last evening and was finally bought by Kalman Rothberg, whose bid was $50. Rothberg immediately presented the key to Samuel Dreier, who is to perform the ceremony of the unlocking.

The Temple, which has been erected at a cost of $12,000, is a brick structure at New street and Orchard place. The cornerstone was laid Thanksgiving Day and the actual work of construction was completed about two weeks ago. Sufficient seats have been installed for the accommodation of 900 people, including the seating capacity of the ladies' galleries on either side of the New street entrance. In the centre of the main room is the altar, a handsome piece of workmanship in itself, and directly behind this is the cantor's stand. A feature of the new building is the scroll rack, against the rear wall. This is two feet deep and some six feet square, and it is here that the religious scrolls will be kept when not in use. It is lined with zinc. The ceiling is high and vaulted and the plastering is of a light color.

Downstairs is a large room when the Sunday-school will hold its sessions and there are also various society and committee rooms. The building is lighted throughout by electricity and is also piped for gas.

Near the entrance to the Temple is a large memorial stone tablet erected by Samuel Dreier in memory of his wife, who died several years ago. The Plainfield Hebrew Juvenile Auxiliary Society has presented a handsome chandelier of more than ninety lights; this will occupy the centre of the main room. A graceful brass candlestick has been presented by five boy members of the Sunday-school and forms a part of the altar furnishings. The ladies auxiliary of the Congregation has done much toward furnishing the room downstairs and have fitted up their own special meeting room.

Speakers and church officers from neighboring cities will assist in the dedication exercises of the afternoon. The building committee is composed of Samuel Dreier, Harry Dreier and Morris Abrams.

Lodge's Dog Show.

Now that the watermelon contest between the lodgemen of this city is past and gone, and the championship decided for the time being at least, the members of Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., are making plans for a "Dog Show" to be held next month. All sorts of dogs are to be entered, apparently the more mongrel and ragged, the more likely to win the ribbons to be awarded by the judges. Jerry VanWinkle has been appointed chairman of the committee to arrange for the exhibition and the plans are rapidly being made.

Wanted Faithless Lover Arrested.

Police headquarters received a "hurry up" call for a policeman at Fourth street and Darrow avenue yesterday and Patrolman Higgins was sent out. Arriving at the place mentioned he found a young colored woman in the last stages of hysteria who pleaded with him to arrest a faithless lover. With much difficulty the policeman explained that he had no authority to act and the forsaken one accepted his advice to see a lawyer.

Mrs. C. P. Walrod, of 208 North avenue, is home after spending some time with friends at Jamestown, N. Y.

PHYSICIAL DIRECTOR TAKES CHARGE THURSDAY

Fred A. Henckel to Assume His Duties as Mr. Heywood's Successor at the Y. M. C. A.

SKETCH OF THE MAN

SOME OF HIS PLANS ARE ALREADY ANNOUNCED.

Gymnasium Opens October 2—Exhibition to be Held as Usual by the Classes.

Fred A. Henckel, who has been chosen physical director of the local Y. M. C. A. to succeed C. E. A. Heywood, will arrive in town and assume his duties on September 1. Mr. Henckel was selected in the latter part of June by the committee composed of William D. Murray, John Valiant and Stephen Osboone. He is a present a resident of Albany, N. Y., where he has lived for the last five years. Mr. Henckel is a graduate of the Eastern Training School of the Y. M. C. A. at Springfield, Mass., where he became acquainted with Kenneth Robbie, the boys' secretary at the association. He has served as physical director for two years and has assisted his brother, who is in charge of the Y. M. C. A. at Montclair.

Fred A. Henckel.

Mr. Henckel is already well known to a few of the members of the local association, with whom he was associated at Camp Cahoone this summer. He was one of the leaders' corps at Lake Hopatcong, and made many friends among the boys as well as the assistant leaders.

As yet the plans for the gymnasium work for next year have not been definitely decided upon, as the directors are waiting for the new physical instructor to outline his own methods. It is known, however, that there will be several new and important features introduced into the work, which have heretofore proved impracticable. In all probability a women's class will be formed, while regular class days for the local high schools will be provided. Mr. Henckel has in mind the formation of a league between the local schools similar to the one which existed in the northern section of the State several years ago.

The date set for the opening of the gymnasium is October 2, though it may yet be changed. According to the present plans the usual exhibition will be held at the gymnasium, which will mark the beginning of the fall classes.

ANOTHER CONCERT CERTAIN

PROCEEDS FROM LAST NIGHT'S ATTENDANCE MEAN A CONTINUANCE.

Leader Ben LaVere's appeal for a large attendance on the grandstand at last night's band concert met with a ready response and enough funds were secured to warrant another concert next week. This announcement was made at the conclusion of the programme and it caused general satisfaction to the large audience. The municipal baseball game to be played on September 7 will net additional funds and these will also be applied to the band treasury.

The concert last night was one of the best of the season. "Billy" Redmond and David McFadyen, the latter a newcomer, were the vocal soloists and received ovations. McFadyen has a deep, strong voice and his songs were rendered with good effect. Louis Atz contributed a piccolo solo that was one of the features of the programme.

—Use Press Want Ads.

—Now that there will be no more shooting at Sea Girt, further practice at Co. K's armory will be dispensed with until October 1.

PUTTNAM TO PITCH FOR PLAINFIELD TODAY

New York American Twirler is Signed by Manager Johnston for Westfield Game.

LINEUPS OF TEAMS

ALL READY FOR SEVENTH CONTEST OF OF THE SERIES.

Farmer Behind the Bat—Plainfield Rooters Will Have to be on Hand Early—Waller to Pitch for Westfield.

Manager George Johnston, of the Plainfield A. C., arranged last night to have Puttnam, of the New York Americans, pitch today against Westfield on Crescent Oval. Farmer will catch, he having recovered from his recent injuries. Otherwise the lineup will be the same.

Over a month ago, Clark Griffith sent Puttnam to the New York State League, farming him out for a time. He pitched winning ball, his work being of the first order. Last week he was recalled to New York by the manager of the New York Americans and Manager Johnston was successful in getting him for today. The game will be called at 3:45 o'clock, and as Westfield will bring a large crowd of rooters, the local fans want to be on hand early to get seats.

This will be the lineup of the teams:

Plainfield—Cusick, 2b; Bassford, rf; Oregan, lf; Courtney, 3b; Dietrich, cf; Puttnam, p; Farmer, c; Smith, 1b; Walton, ss.

Westfield—Cotter, c; Waller, p; Smithson, ss; Rochford, 1b, Quinby, 2b; Barry, 3b; McManus, lf; Mallen, cf; Seward, rf.

THAT OPEN-AIR THEATRE

WASHINGTON, D. C. STAR TELLS OF THE PROPOSED PLAYHOUSE.

Concerning the scheme to erect an open air theatre near this city, as told in The Daily Press yesterday, the Washington, D. C., Star, contains this news item:

"The project of building open-air theatres is at present provoking much interest among the leading artists and professional men of this country. Already one of the great California universities has erected such a structure, fashioned after the Greek type, in which not only out-door theatrical performances, but concerts and college assemblies, have been successfully held, and now the feasibility of constructing one in the East is being seriously considered.

"At a dinner held recently at the country home of The Architectural Record's editor, to which several of the Cornish colony of artists were bidden as guests, a plan for such work was put into practical form. The place selected is near Plainfield, and will be accessible to Gotham's residents and suburbanites. Mr. Croly is to be the supervising architect Everett Shinn the chief designer, St. Gaudens has partially promised to do the decorative sculpture and Maxfield Parrish the mural decorations.

"These men will give their services free, and funds for the erection of the permanent structure are to be derived through the receipts of an experimental season. Boston also is giving considerable thought to the establishment of such a theatre in a nearby rural district, and if New York and Boston are to be thus enriched, why not Washington?"

Young Abrams Improving.

The condition of little Jacob Abrams, the son of Morris Abrams, of West Front street, whose right hand was pierced by a meat hook at Watts' meat market Tuesday evening, is so far improved as to allow him to be about the house with his arm in a sling. He was up yesterday for the first. The attending physician does not anticipate tetanus complications.

New Cars for Local Lines.

The Public Service Corporation has announced that ten new cars will be placed on the Plainfield lines as soon as the present open ones are withdrawn at the approach of cool weather. They will be twenty-two feet in length, which is slightly larger than those now in use, and will be equipped with up-to-date heating apparatus.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Hummer, of the borough, leave today for a two weeks outing in Hunterdon county.

CHARLES L. MOFFETT IS NOT A CANDIDATE

Plainfield Democrat Declares He Will Not Accept a Renomination for Assembly.

DEMOCRATIC SITUATION

ASSEMBLYMEN HAGUE AND GUNN HAVE NOT COME OUT.

Embare, Coyne and Tillman Are Slated by the Republicans and Are Likely to be Elected.

While the Republicans are settled upon the men to be nominated for Assembly, the Democrats have not fixed up a slate as yet in Union County and there does not appear to be many anxious for a nomination. The explanation for the lack of Democratic "possibilities" is found in the fact that this is Presidential year and as Union County is certain to be swept by the Republicans, no member of the minority party is desirous of dropping his spare change while chasing a rainbow.

At present the county is represented by three Democrats in the lower house, the factional fight in the Republican party last fall, having been responsible for their election. They realize full well, it is said, that the cause is hopeless at this time so far as the Assembly is concerned. Assemblyman Charles L. Moffett, of this city, who received a flattering vote here last fall, declares that he is not a candidate for any office and under no consideration will accept a renomination. In an interview with a reporter for The Daily Press today, Mr. Moffett said: "It is very kind of the Elizabeth Evening Times, our Democratic paper, to say that I will stand, but the fact is I can not spare the time from my business to enter into any campaign for an office. My business demands my undivided attention. I fully appreciate the kindness of the people of Union County for having sent me to Trenton, and can only say that I used all my endeavors to be true to the great trust they imposed upon me. I will give my hearty support to the nominees of the Democratic party, having confidence that they will be men entitled to the votes of the county's best citizens."

Elizabeth is anxious that Joseph Hague of that city, accept a renomination, but he has given no promise as yet and neither has Assemblyman Joseph Gunn, of Springfield.

The three men slated by the Republicans are G. H. Embree, of Westfield; Peter Tillman, of Rahway, and Edward Coyne, of Elizabeth.

HE NEARLY LOST HIS LIFE

M'NAUGHTON'S THRILLING EXPERIENCE WHILE ATTEMPTING A RESCUE.

While on a trip to Woodmont, near New Haven, Conn., last week, Walter M. McNaughton, the well known athlete, of this city, nearly lost his life in endeavoring to rescue two men whose boat was adrift in a choppy sea stirred up in New Haven harbor by a heavy gale. The men to whose assistance he went were bent on the recovery of a small boat which was drifting about two hundred yards from shore. They swam out to it and climbed aboard when they discovered there were no oars in it and as they were too tired to swim back immediately the tide was carrying them out when McNaughton appeared in a surf-boat, having run a quarter of a mile along shore to procure it on seeing their predicament.

When still too far to throw the men a line however, McNaughton's boat capsized and he had a hard swim to make the shore. By the best possible good fortune the two men drifted near the ruin of an old breakwater, whence a rope was thrown and they were brought in safely. Residents at Woodmont state that he put up a most creditable fight against the currents which make the waters at that point the most treacherous in bad weather.

Third Anniversary.

Benevolent Council, No. 256, Jr. O. U. A. M., last evening celebrated its third anniversary in its rooms in the Washington Hall building on West Second street. The good and welfare committee had provided sandwiches, cake and coffee, and piano and vocal selections were rendered by Harry C. Runyon, Charles Suhr, Orra Baker, "Tippe" VanMiddlesworth, "Snapper" Terry and "Bill" Adams.

OLDEST PAINTER DIED LAST NIGHT

William Fuller Adams Passed Away After Long Illness at Age of 78 Years.

STORY OF HIS CAREER

HE RESIDED HERE FOR THE LAST THIRTY YEARS.

Survived by a Wife and Two Children — Funeral Services on Monday Afternoon.

William Fuller Adams, aged seventy-eight years, of 145 East Sixth street, died last night at Muhlenberg Hospital, where he has been during the past two weeks under treatment for a form of Bright's disease which has given him more of less trouble during the past two years.

Mr. Adams was probably the oldest painter in the city, being one of the first to locate here. He was born in Newton, Mass., and after a short residence in South Jersey he moved to this city about thirty years ago and continued his residence here until his death. He had two paint stores during his active business career, one on Park avenue and the other on East Front street. Among those who were employed by him in the early days and afterward became successful are J. F. Buckle and L. B. Woolston, who are now in partnership on North avenue. Mr. Adams was successful while conducting his stores and when advanced in years he gave up business on a large scale and worked for himself. He was a resident of Duer street for many years. About two years ago he moved to East Sixth street, this city. He was a member of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M.

He is survived by a wife, a daughter, Miss Emma L. Adams, who is librarian at the Plainfield Public Library; a son, Oscar Fay Adams, of Boston; also a brother, Bentley F. Adams, of South Orange, and two sisters, who live at Brighton, Mass.

The funeral services will be held from the late home Monday afternoon at 2:30 and interment will be in Hillside Cemetery. Rev. T. Logan Murphy will have charge of the services.

HELD THEIR FINAL PRACTICE

COMPANY K BOYS ALREADY FOR QUALIFYING SHOOT AT SEA GIRT.

The final practice before the last qualifying shoot at Sea Girt today was held at the Company K armory last night. About twenty members of the company were present and those who had not yet qualified made a special effort to better their scores. At the present time the local company stands one ahead of its rival from Princeton in the number of men qualified. Plainfield has thirty-seven to Company L's thirty-six.

Both the Princeton and local companies will hold their last try at Sea Girt today, and the contest for the trophy will be keen. It is expected that Captain Martin will have returned from Fort Riley, and will be present at the shoot to coach the local boys. Credit is due Lieutenant Lewis, who has been encouraging them, and his efforts have not been without effect. The following will appear at the range today prepared to do their best: Sergeant Seiders, Corporal Phillips, Corporal Whitney, Privates Niles, Mosher, Pearson, Meeker, Ford, Smith, McDonald, Lambert, Darby and Bond.

Only five out of the eight men who were requested to compete for a position on the regimental team will be able to attend the shoot on Monday. They will be Sergeant Hort, Corporal Bilyeu, Corporal Brennan, Private Frazee and Private Forst.

Borough Firemen Recognized.

The North Plainfield Paid Firemen's Relief Association has been recognized by the state organization and yesterday the officers were instructed to have representatives at the convention to be held in Atlantic City, September 14. The delegates to go are Frank Schuck, Jerry Foss and Edward Terry.

Quietly Married.

Richard Harris, of Madison, and Miss Pearl Riley, of North Plainfield, were quietly married Wednesday evening, by Judge Clark at his home in Scotch Plains. Only the necessary witnesses were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Harris will reside at Madison.

—Use Press Want Ads.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

All kinds of express and trucking business will be promptly attended to by H. J. Wierenga. Orders may be left with Joseph Battels, of North avenue.

J. J. Leahy, the plumber, does first class work at low prices and with great dispatch. When you leave an order for him to call "at once," he gets there. Tinning and roofing a specialty.

Woolston & Buckle are the best interior decorators in the city. They do most of the work in Plainfield buildings. This ought to have some weight with you, if you are intending to repaper or paint your house.

Nobody ever "kicks" at the treatment accorded them at the Waldorf Hotel. Proprietor Windham exercises personal supervision for the benefit of his guests and he always makes sure that they have every convenience.

Latest styles in white goods can be found this week at Putnam & DeGraw's West Front street department store. Special sales of school necessities in children's clothing—boys and girls. Agency for the May Manton patterns.

Have you "had one" at L. W. Randolph's beautiful soda fountain lately? Apricot and peach sondaes have recently been added to the list of ice cream creations. Both soda and cream are of the best in town and "must be seen to be appreciated."

You will do well to examine J. W. Gavett's stock of cut glass and china ware before buying wedding or birthday presents. He has some artistic and serviceable goods on his shelves, and you'll be sure to find something that you will like.

A door bell is a necessary article and a great convenience. Electrical bells are acknowledged the best and A. B. Laing, of North avenue, is ready to undertake contracts for their installation at any time and do it in a satisfactory manner.

Do you trade at Warnock's? That's the only place where you can get pastry and bread without the characteristic baker shop taste. If you're fond of home-made bread and don't want any more baker's goods, it's because you haven't tried Warnock.

"Tommy" Timbo's restaurant and lunch room is the place to have a meal, day, night or between meals. Go there to eat, and what you want is always on the bill. Not the same old stand-byes alone, but fresh and seasonable viands as they come on the market.

When you see a smoker going down the street puffing on his cigar with keen enjoyment, you can be sure it is one of Dobbins' Nickel Yaras. A better cigar for the money was never made and the fact that Dobbins sells thousands of them every year is proof of the assertion.

Ever had a suit made to order at Harry Werner's? You don't know what good clothes are if you haven't. You had better take a look at his fall and winter stock before having your winter clothes made. He will soon be able to show you as good a line of cloth as you will find anywhere. His tailoring is done by the most expert workmen.

Sixty seconds make one minute, sixty minutes one hour and a poor time keeping watch will make trouble for everybody. If yours is one of the kind that is always three minutes fast or six minutes slow, let L. Moraller & Son, the Park avenue jewellers look, it over. They will soon have it set right and fix it so that it will stay that way. Repair work is their specialty but they also sell watches, clocks and diamond jewelry of all kinds.

One of the oldest and yet most convincing of saws is: "Don't wait until the horse has been stolen to lock the stable door." Dozens of people who go away in the summer and return to find that their homes have been entered by thieves and valuables gone, bemoan the fact that they did not put them in safe place. The City National Bank is equipped with safety deposit boxes and storage vaults which they rent at the most moderate terms. It is the best way of guarding valuables and private papers from fire and theft.

World's Fair Coach Excursions.

Via the picturesque Lehigh Valley Railroad, $18 for ten-day round trip. The Lehigh Valley Railroad announces the following dates for its coach excursions to the St. Louis Exposition: August 31; September 7, 14, 21 and 28; October 5, 12, 19 and 26. For full information consult Frank Rowley, city ticket agent, 281 West Front street. 8 6 eod

Mrs. Samuel Montross, of Manning avenue, is greatly improved from her recent severe illness. She is still at Muhlenberg Hospital.

Miss Ida Manning, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. F. Moore, of North avenue, has returned to her home in Pennsylvania.

DR GOSSOM'S KIDNEY & BLADDER CURE

Is guaranteed to quickly and permanently cure every symptom, irregularity or disease of the Kidneys and Bladder: Bright's Disease, Dropsy, Backache, Gout, every Urinary Disorder, etc. It cures after all other medicines and physicians have failed. It never fails.

50 CENTS PER BOX.

T. S. ARMSTRONG,
Cor. North and Park Avenues.

Why It Pays To Buy Fish Of Ivamy.

"Better to handle one thing and handle it well."
We are "Specialists" in Fish and guarantee the Freshness and Quality of every Fish we sell.
You'll find here a better assortment of fine Fresh Fish than at stores making this only a side line.
Reasonable prices.

Special Cash Sale Saturday.

FRED IVAMY,
(Successor to Rogers & Co.)
232 W. Second Street.
Telephone 140

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
PARK AVENUE,
Opp. North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Dealers in
BEST LEHIGH COAL,
LUMBER,
MASON MATERIALS,
&c. &c.
Sole Agents N. J. Pulp Plaster

THE PLEASURE
of a smoke depends on the quality of the Cigar! Spend the lazy hours of your vacation in smoking
OUR CIGARS,
and you'll find you've got your money's worth every time. Our Cigars are good and the price is low. Sold singly or by the box.
KIRBY'S
106 Park Avenue, Plainfield.

Just received an assortment of new style
BOX PAPERS.
Also a full line of the leading Magazines and Weeklies constantly on hand.
Harper's,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Butter, Milk,
Poultry and Eggs
direct from the best Jersey farms.
Also Ham, Bacon,
Bolognas and Sausages.
H. H. Smith,
228 Park Avenue, Opp. North.

ESTATE OF Margaret A. Mulford, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, Administratrices of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the sixteenth day of June, 1904, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

LAURA M. LEWIS,
ELIZABETH M. CUTTER,
MARGARET M. TOWNSEND,
Administratrices.

6 18 9s

HOAGLAND'S
EXPRESS and BAGGAGE TRANSFER.
Office 302 Park Ave. Tel. 322 W.

"Your Goose Is Cooked" to a turn as it comes from the Gas Range
Oven. Game and meats prepared quickly.
RANGES,
$8.50 to $13.50
$2 Down.
$2 Per Month.
ALL CONNECTIONS FREE.
GAS DEPARTMENT,
PUBLIC SERVICE.
Too many cooks spoil the goose.

The Fischer PIANOS

The New Small Grand is the latest art product of our manufacture. Competent judges pronounce it The Most Remarkable Grand Piano of Its Size Ever Made. It occupies but a trifle more space than the upright and supplies a need where economy of room-space must be considered, and at the same time practically possesses all the Tone-power, Sweetness, Purity and Breadth of Melodic Expression that marks the FULL GRAND.
It is unique in design and satisfies the aesthetic sense of the most exacting. It must be seen and heard to be appreciated.
New Small Grand
164 Fifth Ave. bet., 21st & 22d Sts.
and 68 West 125th St.
NEW YORK CITY

WE GIVE BLUE EXCHANGE STAMPS
I. H. BOEHM
109-111-113 West Front Street.
126 Park Avenue.

AUGUST SALE.
We are offering Special Bargains in all Departments, but lack of newspaper space permits the mentioning of only a few of the many good values we are offering.
7c yd—500 yds of new Dress Ginghams, extra quality and all new patterns, val. 9c and 10c yd.
8c yd—1,000 yds of extra heavy Outing Flannel, all new Fall patterns and good colors, val. 11c yd.
10c yd—500 yds Mercerized Voiles, in pink, old rose and light green, reg. price 25c yd.
19½c yd—Special lot of new White Goods, extra fine quality and very desirable patterns, value 15c and 18c yd.
59c yd—10-4 white and gray Blankets, extra heavy quality, reg. value 75c pair.
MEN'S FURNISHINGS.
49c—Men's Madras Shirts, all new goods and nice patterns, reg. price 75c and 1.00 each.
49c—Men's sateen working Shirts, in black and white stripes and plain black, value 69c.
49c—Men's black and white Cheviot working Shirts, reinforced back and front, val. 69c ea.
95c—Men's Madras Shirts, extra fine quality Madras and extra well made, reg. sold for 1.25 ea.
25c—Men's working Shirts. We are selling an extra good working Shirt for 25c, in black and white stripes, made of good quality Cheviot, value 39c.
MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.
We are showing our new Fall lines of Ready-to-Wear Felts. We have only the newest and most up-to-date styles, in all colors and prices.
Our assortment of Millinery is the largest and prices the lowest in the city.
We are showing all that is new and up-to-date in Breasts, Pompons, Shapes, etc.
HATS PURCHASED HERE TRIMMED FREE.

Trouser Sale.
Timely Summer Needfuls at Slaughter Prices.
2,000 Pairs on Sale.
Prices cut in two—½ off.
Style and Price alike, will tempt you to purchase.
WERNER'S Clothing House....
206 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

R. W. Barnes
Telephone 344-L 217 Park Avenue
FINEST FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND GROCERIES
SUMMER SAUSAGE, BOILED PORK TENDERLOIN, HAM, CORNED BEEF, PICKLES, FANCY CHEESES, PLAIN AND PHOSPHATE SYRUPS, ETC.

ICE CREAM
Wholesale and Retail.
I have vacated my store on Park avenue and am still making PURE ICE CREAM AT 32 BANK PLACE.
All orders by 'phone (No. 470y) or mail will receive prompt attention.
LAKE HOUSE NOW OPEN. JOHN H. TIER.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR
BALLANTINE'S IDEAL MALT EXTRACT

"ALL THE MALT."
BUILDS UP THE SYSTEM AND CREATES APPETITE.
TRY IT FOR SLEEPLESSNESS.

IF you have never succeeded in getting glasses that improved your vision, don't you think it advisable to drop in and see us? It will cost you nothing unless you choose to give us an order.

STILES & CO.
Philadelphia EYE SPECIALISTS
107 E. Front St.
Every Thursday.
Hours:—11:15 a. m. to 1 p. m. and 2:45 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR NEW YORK HERALD AND THE WORLD RECEIVED AT THE DAILY PRESS OFFICE AT REGULAR RATES.

Advertised Mail Matter.

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 22, 1904.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Abbington, C	Lachy, Mr James
Bustrim, Mr F O	Lodge, Secretary Daniel
Baumler, Miss Teresa	Lewis, Mr E A
Burges, Mr S	Mercier, Mr Joseph
Bond, Mr Hurbert	McGovern, Mr John
Bilts, Miss Ella B	McCobe, Mr M J
Burton, Miss Mary	Manelle, Mr Tamere
Buckingham, Mr W K	Mancicre, Miss Mabel
Coriell, Mrs R M	Motley, Miss Katherine
Coburn, Mrs	Mathiasen, Mrs K
Callinan, James H	Mascowity, Mr Henry
Curtis, Thomas W	Mullison, Mrs H L
Clark, Mr Henry W	Mullison, Miss Hattie
Carkhuff, Mrs Julia	Neuiry, Mrs Sarah
Carroll, Mrs T H	Noyes, Mr Jos C
Dudley, Mrs Seuner	Norman, Mr Fred
Dunham, Miss Susan	Nellis, Mr Abraham
Douglass, Miss Ruth	Opdyke, Mrs N W
Daly, Miss Ellen M	Riek, Mr Chas
Farrington, William	Rose, Mrs David
Fralyn, Miss Sadie	Saunders, Charles W
Fallon, Alfred	Sivindale, Miss M
Falconer, Mrs John	Sumter, Miss Illie M 2
Freeman, Mr & Mrs Geo	Squires, Mr Theo
Groff, Mr George	Stimley, Mr Josh
Gearhart, Mr Henry	Sutton, Mr H E
Hart, Mr Chas R	Sturges, Mrs Mary
Henderson, Mrs John	Sutton, Miss Margaret
Howley, Mr James	Stanley, Mr Joshua
Hollway, Miss Sarah	Simonds, Mrs H
Hand, Miss Katie G	Sindgren, Mr Emil
Hand, Miss Mayella	Sank, Mr Chas
Jennings, Mr Thomas M	Trup, Miss Em
Kumatat, Mr A	Valley, Mr T J
Kaffen, Miss	VanFelt, Mr Geo
Kinsley, Mr A C	Wheeler, Miss Jessie O
Lawrence, Mrs Benj.	Wanges, Mr J
Long, Mr A E	Woods, Mr Geo C
Lewis, Mr James	Younge, Miss, E E

Please say "Advertised."

WILLIAM H. KIRCH,
Carpenter and Builder,
66 Duer Street.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
Telephone 402 J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

FLORISTS.
PHONE 398 L.
CHARLES L. STANLEY,
144 NORTH AVENUE.
A large stock of all seasonable Flowers always on hand. Flowering Plants, Palms and Ferns in large assortment. Floral Designs, Baskets and Centre Pieces artistically made up at short notice. Lowest prices. Greenhouses, South Ave., Netherwood. Phone 398 L.

PERSONAL.

Thomas Buckley, of Watchung avenue, is in Washington, D. C., on business.

Miss Helen Martin, of Elizabeth, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pope, of East Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Russell, of East Fifth street, are entertaining relatives from Rondout, N. Y.

Miss Jennie Vroom, of the employ of Morris VanArsdale, will shortly leave for her vacation.

W. F. Moore, of East Second street, has returned from a two weeks' vacation spent in Vermont.

Mrs. Frank Gaffney, of Somerville, has returned home after spending several days with Plainfield relatives.

Mrs. Lucy Hooley and grandson, George Hooley, of Washington Park, have returned home from Delaware Water Gap.

M. C. VanArsdale and family, of Norwood avenue, will return Monday from Asbury Park, where they have been spending a few weeks.

George J. Plank, of East Second street, has returned home after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plank, at their home in Somerville.

Irving S. Darnell, of Delaware Water Gap, is the guest of Ralph S. Bingamin, at his home on East Ninth street. Darnell, who graduated from Hackettstown with the class of 1904, was a schoolmate of Bingamin's, who is a student at the same institution.

AMUSEMENTS.

Henry Lee, who has lately returned from Europe, will make his first appearance in New York at Keith's during the coming week, and head the bill, which is another of those all around vaudeville entertainments, for which the Union Square Theatre is noted. Lee has been abroad studying some new characters, which he will present in his celebrated act, "Famous Men Past and Present." In addition to his new creations he will of course, give his wonderful impersonations of the Czar, Mikado, Pope Leo XIII, Emperor William, "Mark Twain," President Roosevelt, General Grant and General Robert E. Lee.

More than 100,000 people passed the entrance gates at Dreamland last Sunday. Fully 20,000 of this number were brought to this seaside resort by Dreamland's own line of steamboats, the only line running direct from New York—starting at Harlem—and Newark to Coney Island's famous amusement park. The attractions at Dreamland are so many and diversified that entertainment is provided to the liking of every taste and fancy. "Fighting the Flames" has drawn the greatest crowds because of the novelty presented of a genuine fire with fire apparatus and firemen working to control the conflagration and their methods of saving life. "The Fall of Pompeii" has also drawn crowds. The historical interest of this wonderful spectacle appeals to students and those interested solely in a fire display, from the graphic and accurate picture story of one of the most terrible calamities the world has ever known.

The Grand Opera House will open on August 27 with a two weeks' engagement of Williams & Walker, the royal comedians and their company of colored singers, dancers and humorists who are on their first American tour, after an engagement of nearly two years in London and through the provinces of England. During their engagement in London they were commanded to appear before the King, and the royal party assembled to celebrate the birthday of Prince Edward. The court paragraphers have recorded that on this occasion Bert Williams and George Walker and all of their company were a tremendous success. The unanimous verdict of the Royal party agreeing that it was the most unique entertainment they had ever witnessed. An endorsement by the King of England and a triumphant success on Broadway where the sovereign people of Uncle Sam's metropolis, crowded that large theatre for one hundred nights, warrants the prefix of "royal comedians," and if to the victor belongs the spoils, Williams & Walker, their brilliant wives, Lottie Williams and Aida Walker, and their supporting company can be sure of a large share when the public dispense their patronage for these stars and their associates are the laurel wreathed conquerors of two nations, victorious over all competitors.

LITERARY.

The collection of photographic reproductions in the September Burr McIntosh Monthly are even a trifle better than the magnificent and truly artistic master works in previous numbers. This magazine stands alone in a field which none but such a man as Mr. McIntosh would dare to enter and it's success is best demonstrated by the large sales each month at the various news agencies and stationery stores in Plainfield. Everyone of the portraits are worthy of a handsome frame and in a year's time it is easy to obtain a collection that would challenge comparison anywhere.

MAFIA'S VENGEANCE

"Black Hand" Struck a Blow at Athens, Pa.

ONE OF THE VICTIMS MAY DIE

Two Men In Packer Hospital as the Result of a Murderous Attack by Italians Said to Be of the Mysterious Band.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 27.—The "Black Hand" of the Mafia society struck a blow of vengeance in Athens, Pa., last night, and two men are lying in the Robert Packer hospital at Sayre as a result of that mysterious band of Italian bandits. The men who were attacked are Dominico Mostello and Giuseppe Scirona, Italians. Some time ago Mostello informed the Lehigh Valley railroad detectives of the identity of the three members of the Mafia gang who held up a large number of Italians at Lake Carey and levied tribute on them. The members of the "Black Hand" were arrested, but it was impossible to convict them; as Mostello and all the other Italians were afraid to testify against them in open court. Soon afterward two of the three men robbed Mostello of $100.

As darkness came on one of the three, said to be a member of the Mafia band of New York, leading some recruits made from the Athens Italian colony, attacked Mostello and Scirona, and they secured considerable money from Mostello and $75 from Scirona.

Then the leader of the band deliberately shot Mostello twice and stabbed him several times with a stiletto. Scirona was shot through the face and two teeth knocked out and the base of his tongue injured.

It is probable that Mostello's injuries will prove fatal. Immediately after the shooting this story was procured through an interpreter, but none of the Italians will tell anything of the mysterious affair, and as a result the police are unable to make arrests.

YACHT IN DISTRESS.

Schooner Spoke to Crew of Sloop Laboring In Terrific Gale.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Aug. 27.—An unknown sloop yacht in distress, with one man lost overboard, was passed about midnight last night in Pollock Rip slue by the schooner John Douglass, which has arrived here from Bangor. A terrific gale was blowing at the time from the westward. Those on the yacht asked to be towed to the Vineyard, but the Douglass was unable to render assistance owing to the gale. When last seen the sloop was laboring heavily in the deep seas off Stone Horse shoal.

The yacht was headed southwest through the slue and had evidently come around Cape Cod. She appeared to be unmanagable.

The Douglass was able to get within hailing distance, but could not ascertain her name, although it was learned that a man had been lost.

Prominent Men's Sons Arrested.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.—Paul Harper, fifteen years old, son of Dr. W. R. Harper, president of the Chicago university, and three friends, Fred Taylor, aged seventeen, son of a New York broker; Fred Gates, aged seventeen, and Frank Gates, aged fifteen, sons of Frederick G. Gates, business manager for John D. Rockefeller, were arrested at the world's fair grounds on charges of disturbing the peace and destroying property. The Jefferson guards, who made the arrests, claim that the boys broke down a side door at the Moorish palace on the Pike. The boys declare that they became lost in the mazes of the exhibit and pushed through the door in order to get out.

Bathers Drowned a Life Saver.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 27.—Al Davis, one of the oldest life guards on the beach here, was drowned under sensational circumstances. Davis had rescued a bather off the foot of Virginia avenue. When the bather was taken into a boat, Davis started to swim ashore with the life line. There was the usual great throng of bathers along the beach, and a crowd seized hold of the shore end of the line and began to run along the sand, with the idea of pulling the man out of the ocean. Their intentions were good, but it was by reason of their action that Davis was drowned. He was dragged under the water and was unable to raise himself.

Victim of Cedartown Lynch Mob.

CEDARTOWN, Ga., Aug. 27.—John Sexton, a young farm laborer who was shot during the lynching of the negro Jim Glover here last Monday night, is dead at his home in Eastview. The shooting of Sexton occurred during the reckless firing of the mob. Whether Sexton was taking part in the lynching is not known. It is thought, however, that he was standing near the negro and one of the pistol bullets intended for the negro struck Sexton in the upper part of the abdomen.

Peter Sells In Critical Condition.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 27.—Peter Sells, the well known showman, has suffered a stroke of paralysis. It seemed slight at first, but soon affected his speech, and he fails to recognize his daughter and other members of the household. His physicians regard his condition as critical. He is fifty-seven years old.

A. J. Drexel Edward's Guest.

MARIENBAD, Aug. 27.—Anthony J. Drexel of Philadelphia was among the fourteen persons present at a dinner given by King Edward here last night.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair and warmer; north winds.

JAPSPRESSFORWARD

Attack Kuropatkin's Position All Along the Line.

RUSSIAN OUTPOSTS DRIVEN IN

Kuroki Selected Tantziaputzy as the Point For His Attack—Latest Reports Say He Was Repulsed With Loss.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Advices from Liaoyang say that a big battle has taken place twenty-three miles east of that town, the Japanese having resumed their advance all along the line of their former positions.

The Russian intrenched position along the Taitse river was strongly assaulted by the Japanese under General Kuroki's immediate command. The fighting has continued two days between Liandiansian and the town of Liaoyang.

Since the rains ceased a week ago there have been continuous intimations that General Kuropatkin was about to assume the offensive, but instead of that it was the Japanese who attacked the Russian commander's eastern and southern positions.

A Japanese column 30,000 strong was reported to be marching up the right bank of the Li river, which would seem to indicate that three Japanese armies are co-operating in enveloping three sides of Liaoyang.

General Kuroki selected Tantziaputzy as the point for his attempt to drive the wedge into Kuropatkin's outer defenses at Anping and Liandiansian, which are situated respectively ten miles northwest and southwest of Tantziaputzy, the latter being on the Lianhe river, eight miles from the confluence of the Taitse river, whence a mountain ridge runs westward.

The capture of the Taitse river bridge was the first obstacle of the Japanese and entailed severe fighting, in which the Japanese were greatly assisted by the superiority of their mountain guns.

The Japanese drove in the Russian outposts, and when the column reached a point a couple of miles west of Liandiansian the Japanese attempted to install batteries, but they met with such a hot fire that they only succeeded in placing one battery, which was soon compelled to change its position.

The Japanese pushed their attack against the Russian right flank and center, concentrating their fire upon the First battery of the Third brigade. Three officers and several men were wounded early in the day, but the battery held its position and replied to the Japanese fire with such marked effect that General Ivanoff, who commands the late General Count Keller's corps, sent a congratulatory message to its commander.

The Japanese several times attempted to cross the Tankcho (Liank river), but only a few succeeded, and these were forced to hide in the fields of Chinese corn.

Later the artillery fire became as hot as it was at Vafangow, but it fluctuated considerably, and occasionally the Russian fire almost silenced that of the Japanese. Rain fell in torrents, but it did not stop the fighting, and late in the evening several Russian companies moved forward to the attack.

It is not yet possible to state definitely the result of the battle, but it is claimed that the Russians were successful in repulsing the attack.

A Chefu report says that a fort near Etseshan is believed to have been the object of the recent fighting at Port Arthur, as the Japanese, being already in possession of Etseshan, it would be comparatively easy for them to capture the adjoining stronghold. This move brings the Japanese advance guard close to the section of Port Arthur known as the new European settlement, which was reported in flames. Japanese here expect that their army may at once enter the residence and business district of Port Arthur, but that this would not necessarily mean the fall of the Russian stronghold. The Russian defenses are arranged with the idea of resisting as long as there is a man left, and the nature of their defenses suggests that the final stand will occur at the Tiger's Tail or Liaoti mountain fort.

FALL INEVITABLE.

Baron Kentaro Keneko, Special Envoy of the Mikado, Speaks.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—The fall of Port Arthur is inevitable according to Baron Kentaro Keneko, the special envoy of the mikado of Japan to this country, who is now visiting in Boston. Baron Keneko added in a statement which he made to the press that the capture of the fort was certain to come not only because Japan planned at the very outset of the campaign to lose, if necessary from 40,000 to 50,000 men in its capture, but because also the whole population of Japan regards it as "a point of national honor that the port should be retaken from the Russians and returned to the nation into whose possession it rightfully came ten years ago." In closing, Baron Keneko said:

"From a reliable source I have word that Port Arthur has not a building in it uninjured; that it is impossible to shelter the wounded; that the ammunition is getting scarce, and that, with the Russian fleet scattered, the defenders are cut off from supplies of food as well as of ammunition. The blockade of Port Arthur by land and sea from the surrounding world is effective. The fortress cannot hold out more than a few days."

Says Town Is Impregnable.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—Raymond Recouli, correspondent of the Temps at Liaoyang, telegraphs an interview he had with an American military attache who has just come from Port Arthur. The attache left Port Arthur on Aug. 14, when the Japanese were seven versts away from the port. He says that the Russians have positions on steep hills, 700 feet high, protected with trenches, mines and cannon and are practically impregnable by assault. Shells fall into the town, but each house is provided with a cave to protect its inhabitants.

CLAIM STRIKE IS OVER.

Mayor Harrison and Council Fail to Get a Settlement.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—The conferences of the city council committee appointed earlier in the week to attempt a settlement of the stockyards strike with the parties to the dispute resulted in nothing. There is no present prospect that they will result in anything in the future, and the chances of an agreement between the packers and the strikers appear very meager. The strike leaders appeared before the committee and stated their side of the case. They did not suggest to the aldermanic committee that it make any overtures to the packers, but simply gave their side of the case.

The representatives of the packers, T. J. Connors, Edward Tilden, Thomas L. Wilson and J. E. Maurer, then appeared before the committee and after a session that lasted three hours Mayor Harrison said:

"The packers have said just what they said before—that they are running their plants and have nothing to arbitrate and that there is no reason why they should confer with the men."

"Then it is all off?"

"That is about what it amounts to."

"We heard a review of the entire strike trouble," continued the mayor, "and the packers say that in every community except Chicago and Omaha the strike is practically over, and they claim that with 75 per cent of the men they employed in Chicago before the strike they are now turning out 92 per cent of their normal output."

NATURALIZATION FRAUDS.

J. R. Miknatis Arrested by Federal Officials at Waterbury.

WATERBURY, Conn., Aug. 27.—After an investigation conducted by the department of justice in connection with the alleged naturalization frauds, upon which the United States officials have been at work for some time, the arrest of J. R. Miknatis of this city has been made by D. T. Callahan, a secret service man. Rocco A. Figlinolo, an interpreter employed by the department of justice, was with Callahan when he made the arrest.

Miknatis is charged with obtaining naturalization papers through fraudulent methods and sending them to men in Haiti and South America so that those who received them might be assured the protection from exorbitant taxes which they give as American citizens. It is alleged that Miknatis swore falsely before the clerks of the courts here which grant the papers and that he had secured a large number of certificates, from which he was able to make a good profit.

Secret Agent Callahan and the interpreter have been in this city several days working on the case, coming here from New Haven, where a long consultation was held with the federal authorities in that city. It was one of the papers issued from this city that led to the arrest in New York some time ago of Alexander Seferchakan, a Haitian, who had with him naturalization papers issued Nov. 19, 1903. The holder could give no description of this city, and he was arrested on suspicion.

Advise Nomination of Herrick.

CATSKILL, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The Democratic members of the bar of Greene county have met here and unanimously adopted the following resolution: "The Democratic members of the bar of Greene county recommend and earnestly advise the nomination of Hon. D. Cady Herrick of Albany for chief judge of the court of appeals. This expression is not intended to detract from the merit of others who have been suggested for the chief judgeship, but with the full assurance that Justice Herrick as a citizen and a jurist measures up to the high standard required for such position."

Two Drowned at the Soo.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Aug. 27.—Herbert D. Hill, a clerk in the Imperial bank, and James C. Patterson, a teller of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the Canadian Soo, were drowned in the river here. Their boat was capsized by wind. Patterson was a son of J. C. Patterson of Ottawa, former lieutenant governor of Manitoba and minister of justice. Hill was the son of Archdeacon Hill of the Episcopal church of St. Thomas, Ont.

Condemned Negro Warned His Race.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 27.—Henry Jones, the negro murderer of Constable Columbus Jones, was hanged at the jail in Pickens in the presence of 1,200 men, of whom not more than fifty were negroes. Jones made a brief address warning his race against the possession and use of firearms. The large crowd dispersed quietly after the execution.

Gadski as Senta at Munich.

MUNICH, Aug. 27.—Madame Gadski for the first time in nine years took part in the Wagnerian festival and scored an immense success as Senta in "The Flying Dutchman." A great audience greeted the distinguished singer.

Senator Hoar's Condition.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 27.—The following bulletin was issued late last night from the home of Senator George F. Hoar: "The action of his heart has been weaker, but he is more comfortable."

MARCHANT'S MILK IS THE STANDARD-BEARER of HEALTH

OUR customers appreciate the excellent quality of our milk—they know by experience that it comes up to the high standard of merit and healthfulness we claim for it—that it is unequaled for PURITY and RICHNESS.
Use our milk in your home.

Marchant Bros.,
Plainfield Milk and Cream Co.,
191 North Avenue.

A Big Business on a Small Scale
is done here. We serve a great number of customers with choice
Roasts, Chops, Steaks,
Provisions and Poultry. Special care is taken in warm weather in selecting meats. Inferior grades of meat are not permitted to enter our store. Our hygenic cold-air refrigeration is the only one in the city, thus ensuring health, fine flavor and condition, that's why our meats taste so good. Try a nice Leg of Lamb for your Sunday dinner. Prices are lower than ever.
Fine Fresh Fish of all kinds can be found in our Seafood Department. Saturday special sale
FRED ENDRESS
131-135 W. Front St.

Teas and Coffees
The Very Best.
Their quality, flavor and blend are exceptionally fine—we guarantee them.
One taste convinces—they're sure to please.
Try them and you'll order of us again.
W. W. DUNN.
PARK GROCER,
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Only about 150 Special Bargains of High Class, properly restricted, residential and business locations, on Martine Estate on Park, Prospect, Watchung, Kensington, Hillside, Martine and Thornton avenues, and New avenue, to be an extension of Evergreen avenue, 80 feet wide, from Hillside to Park. Titles insurable. Prices low. Terms easy. Buyers of lots can have houses built to their own order, on terms easier than renting. Your own Broker, or WELLES & CO., 45 Broadway, N. Y. J. F. MACDONALD, 149 North avenue, Local Manager. Telephone. Don't Delay.

The Park Stables.
Livery and Boarding.
108 Somerset Street
Telephone 495 J. North Plainfield.
High-class Horses and Carriages. Prompt Service.
JAMES D. FRAZER.

FRANK VAN WINKLE
129 North Avenue
Bicycles Photo Supplies
Kodaks and Cameras
Bicycles stored, cleaned and repaired
Developing, Printing and Mounting a specialty

SECOND-HAND LUMBER.
Will sell a large quantity of Window Frames, Doors, and all kinds of Second-hand Lumber and Firewood this week at your own price.
Call at building corner Washington and Sixth streets and get a bargain.
ALEX. KANE,
312 Filmore Avenue.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking out shares in
THE CENTRAL
Building and Loan Asso'n.
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDonald, Sec'y.
Smalley Building, No 149 North avenue 4 14 tf

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.
We call your attention to our fine display of
New Wallpapers.
We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.
Paints, Oils and Varnishes
WOOLSTON & BUCKLE,
145 North Avenue.

APPEARANCE COUNTS
when you want to sell or rent your property. Is your house attractively painted, decorated and papered? You can depend on us always for superior work in this line.
Convincingly Low Prices.
JAS. C. HANSEN,
141 East Front St.

G. A. Woolsey's Standard Paint.
The Best Ready-Mixed Paint in the Market.
—FOR SALE BY—
J. M. CAHART,
PAINTER AND DECORATOR.
DEALER IN
Paints, Oils, Glass, Wallpaper, Etc
Painting, Papering and Decorating. Estimates on application.
201 Park Ave., Cor. Second St.

I. N. WYCKOFF.
PAINTER and DECORATOR,
556 West Front Street.
Papering a specialty. First-class work my motto. Glass furnished and Glazing done.
TELEPHONE 292-L.

1904
WALL PAPERS.
Imported and American Goods.
C. CONOVER & CO.,
Decorators, Painters & Paperhangers Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Place. 'Phone 226-J.

DRUGGISTS.
PRESCRIPTIONS
Called for and Medicines Delivered.
Telephone, write or call at any time. Let us know what drug store goods you need, and we'll send them right out, without extra charge.
Powers' Somerset Pharmacy.
45 Somerset St. Tel. 161

SODA
With Fruit Syrups Second to None.
MALLINSON'S
LIBERTY AND FOURTH STS.
Segars are one of my specialties

MILLER'S
VEGETABLE BLOOD PURIFIER
combines the best Tonic and Blood Purifying Remedies of the Vegetable Kingdom. Such as Sarsaparilla, Clover Tops, Golden Seal, Turkey Corn, Sassafras, Burdock and Mandrake. Contains no mercury.
DUDLEY S. MILLER, Druggist,
Park Ave. and Fourth St.

Seasonable Goods at Nagle's
Nagle's Egg Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, Extract of Malt, Beef, Wine and Iron.
Blands Iron Pills.
Nagle's Blood Purifier and Sarsaparilla, just the medicine for building one up.
Moth Balls, Camphor, etc.
C. M. NAGLE,
Telephone 477 r. Front and Grove Sts.

Hodges Pharmacy.
Reliable goods in all Departments.
Agency for Belle Mead Sweets.
Tel. 210 A. Y.M.C.A. Building.

HARRY K. LISTER,
161 North Ave. Opp. Depot.
Bicycles, Sundries, Phonographs and Records.
Edison Gold Moulded Records....35c
Columbia X. P. Records.....25c
Bicycles and Phonographs Repaired.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.
FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:
Linden Lodge, Linden, N. J.
87 Bread Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
Prudential Building, Newark, N. J.
768 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.
10 West 23d Street, New York City.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS DESIGNS COPYRIGHTS &C.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

CESSPOOLS AND GARBAGE.
MRS. JOHN BROWN
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
From $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North Avenue. Postoffice box 78
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

GARBAGE REMOVED
Walter M. Ingraham.
TERMS MODERATE.
Address P. O. Box 635, City

Best Lehigh COAL.
Order now and save money.
KEELY COAL CO.
725 South Ave. Telephone 162.

CHAS. E. VAIL,
103 PARK AVENUE,
Watches, Jewelry and Silverware.
Repairing in all its branches.
EYES EXAMINED FREE.

HERMAN HANSEN,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
Estimates Furnished.
269 Watchung Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Tel. 454 R.

Plainfield Window Cleaning Co
Floors Oiled and Polished.
Furniture Packed for Shipping.
General House Cleaning a Specialty.
Frank Dellart, 402 E. Third St.
Wm. A. Kline, 611 W. Third St.

TITUS H. LAURY,
Mason and Builder,
Office, 323 E. Front St.
Tile Setting, Mantel & Front work

PARAGUAYAN REVOLT.

Government Train, With Officers and Stores, Seized by Rebels.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 27.—It is now confirmed that the Paraguayan revolutionists have seized a train containing stores and which had a number of government officials on board.

A delegation headed by former Minister of Finance Moreno, accompanied by two representatives of the Paraguayan government, have arrived at Formosa, Argentina. The delegation is now on the way to Buenos Ayres under the protection of an Argentine gunboat to confer with the Argentine government and with the Paraguayan minister, Manuel Viera.

Two hundred and fifty citizens of the Argentine Republic are returning from Paraguay under diplomatic protection.

The Paraguayan deputy, Senor Soler, who is seeking the recognition of the revolutionists as belligerents, is acquiring a stock of arms and other munitions of war from manufacturers in this republic.

It is announced from Buenos Ayres that when Deputy Soler had completed the object of his present mission it was his intention to return to Paraguay with re-enforcements for the revolutionists.

BASEBALL SCORES.

Results of Yesterday's Games In National and American Leagues.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At Pittsburg—
Philadelphia	1	0	0	0	1	1	2	0	1	—6
Pittsburg	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	—2

Batteries—Cronin and Doolin; Lynch and Phelps.

At Chicago—
New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
Chicago	0	0	2	0	0	2	0	1	—	5

Batteries—Elliott and Warner; Brown and Kling.

At St. Louis—
Boston	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	—	2
St. Louis	0	0	3	0	1	0	2	0	—	6

Batteries—Willis and Marshall; Nichols and Grady.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

Clubs.	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	77	31	.713
Chicago	65	43	.602
Cincinnati	64	47	.577
Pittsburg	62	45	.574
St. Louis	60	52	.536
Boston	43	70	.383
Brooklyn	38	71	.349
Philadelphia	31	80	.279

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At Boston—
Chicago	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—1
Boston	1	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	—	3

Batteries—Smith and McFarland; Gibson and Criger.

At Washington—
Cleveland	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—	1
Washington	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—	0

Batteries—Patton and Kittridge; Joss and Bemis.

At New York—
St. Louis	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	—	2
New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	—	3

Batteries—Howell and O'Connor; Chesbro, Clarkson and Kleinow.

At Philadelphia—
Detroit	2	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	—	4
Philadelphia	0	0	0	9	6	1	0	0	—	7

Batteries—Mullen and Beville; Bender and Powers.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

Clubs.	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	64	40	.615
Boston	65	43	.602
Chicago	64	46	.582
Philadelphia	59	44	.573
Cleveland	58	46	.558
Detroit	47	59	.443
St. Louis	40	62	.392
Washington	24	81	.229

Auto Racing at Detroit.

DETRIOT, Mich., Aug. 27.—The contests between Barney Oldfield and Earl Kiser were the centers of interest at the first session of Detroit's fourth annual automobile meeting at the Grosse Point track. The much looked for record breaking failed to result from the competition, however, and the best time of the day for any mile was over three seconds slower than Kiser's 52 4-5 seconds, made at Cleveland early in the week. Oldfield's best mile was the second in the five mile feature heat for the Manufacturers' cup, done in 56 4-5 seconds. The five miles in this race were finished in five minutes flat.

Grand Circuit at Readville.

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 27.—The grand circuit meeting was concluded, favorites winning two out of the four events. Major Delmar and Prince Alert were sent against the world records at their respective gaits and but for a strong wind would have probably been successful. Major Delmar was sent away first after the 2:02¼ mark, the best made by a trotter without a pacemaker in front. With all the disadvantages against him, he circled the track in exactly the time set out to beat. The time by quarters was: Quarter, 30½; half, 1:00¾; three-quarters, 1:31; mile, 2:02¼.

Irene Lindsay at Hawthorne.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Irene Lindsay won the feature at Hawthorne, a six furlong handicap. She carried 116 pounds and ran away from her field all the way. In the fourth race Dungannon, a 15 to 1 shot, won from Gold Mineral, who was made a heavy first choice. Colonel Ruppert in the first race had been given out as a sure winner, but his owners did not think he was just right and did not back him. He opened at 6 to 1 and was 20 to 1 at post time. He was never in trouble and won easily.

Otto Stifel at Fair Grounds Track.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.—Kept out of the early pace and brought with a rush at the finish, Otto Stifel, giving weight to every horse in the race, won the fair grounds feature. Commodore and Evening Star led to within a furlong of the finish, where Otto Stifel made his running, winning by a length from Evening Star, who was the same distance in front of Commodore. Death and Fruit were the other winning favorites.

Racing at Goshen.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The last day's racing at Goshen was witnessed by 3,000 people. Good time was made despite cool weather and a stiff breeze. Vance Nuckols, who drove Ginger to victory in three successive heats in the 2:16 class pacing after coming in seventh in the first heat, was fined $100 at the close of the race for holding up the first heat.

THE CHAMPION WINS

Jeffries and Munroe In Royal Battle.

FOR WORLD'S HEAVYWEIGHT BELT

San Francisco Aroused Over This Fight More Than Has Been the Case In Ten Years of Many Great Encounters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—This city was intensely excited over the big fight between James J. Jeffries and Jack Monroe before the Yosemite Athletic club for the heavyweight championship of the world.

Jeffries won the fight in the second round.

There have been many great pugilistic encounters held in the Golden Gate city during the last ten years, but none has ever aroused more public interest than this royal battle.

It was the sole topic of conversation on the streets, in restaurants, clubs and homes, and for the nonce everything else of a public nature seemed to have been forgotten.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES.

While both fighters have about an equal number of well wishers, it is a different thing when it comes to betting money. Jeffries was a 10 to 4 favorite at the ringside.

Both men were in the pink of condition, and both were calm and confident as they entered the ring. Sporting men were present from all over the country. Munroe certainly was a marvel of self control. He betrayed no more excitement over the encounter than he would were he due to visit a theater instead of facing the biggest man in the ring.

Under the style of fighting agreed to by Jeffries and Munroe for this contest the spectators saw hitting in the clinches. The men were allowed to slug each other so long as they complied with the Queensbury rules regarding clinches.

The giants battled head to head like a couple of bantams when they got close together. Heretofore in most of the heavyweight contests the fighters were ordered to break clean, and the referee has been empowered to rush between them and drag them apart when there seemed to be a disposition to land a blow on the breakaway. But Referee Graney did not put his hands on the contestants in this battle, and many are thinking that Manager Pollock made a point for his man, Munroe, when he settled this innovation in fighting methods.

Some of the wiseacres of the sporting brigade, especially those from the middle west and east, said that Jeffries was only good on the surface and would be unable to stand a gruelling contest.

Warm friends of the champion just smiled at this. They were the most confident of the confident.

Munroe attended a show at the Orpheum, accompanied by James Coffrath of the Yosemite club. As soon as the audience caught sight of Jack it arose en masse and gave him one of the finest ovations ever given a fighter.

Munroe stood up, bowing on all sides till the noise had subsided. He simply said: "I thank you gentlemen for this reception. Although I am the short end in the betting, I am surely going to win the fight with the champion of the world. I am in the finest possible condition and a great deal better than I ever was before in my life. I beat him at Butte and will repeat the performance in Frisco."

Jeffries was so confident that he spent some time talking over plans for a triumphal tour.

In talking over his plans for the battle Munroe said:

"I intend to win this fight by setting a fast, untiring pace. I know that I can last longer than Jeffries by the way he acted in our battle at Butte. Although I was a greenhorn then, I was able to exchange blow for blow, and succeeded in sending him flying to the ropes with a hard body blow. I will repeat the same tactics and expect to have him pumped out at the end of the sixth round."

Chadwick at Johannesburg

JOHANNESBURG, Aug. 27.—Rear Admiral Chadwick and other officers of the United States south Atlantic squadron are the guests here of Lord Milner, British high commissioner for South Africa. A banquet was given the officers last night at the Athenaeum club.

THE DAILY PRESS.

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.

E. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

109 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year—in advance. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada. Delivered by carrier or by mail.

THE PRESS has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district. Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office. Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day MUST be in this office by 9 a. m.

WHILE ON YOUR VACATION, DON'T FORGET TO HAVE THE DAILY PRESS MAILED TO YOU, AND IN THIS WAY KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME DOINGS. NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR MAILING, AND ADDRESS CHANGED AS OFTEN AS DESIRED. BEST SERVICE GUARANTEED.....

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 27, 1904.

It is announced that George Fred Williams will not make any speeches during the campaign, but William Jennings Bryan is not so kind.

A retail dealer affirms that "well-advertised articles do not linger long on the way from the manufacturer to the consumer. There is a lively movement about them at all times that means profit to the retail merchant."—Ex.

A Pinckamin man drove off with a Peapack man's horse at Somerville the other day, while as The Unionist-Gazette puts it, "suffering with a temporary aberration of the mind." The place to get that sort of an "aberration" is in a Somerville saloon.

The Somerset Democrat is booming Alvah A. Clark for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, predicting that he would carry the Democratic counties by an old-time majority and would make great inroads into the Republican vote in the enemy's counties.

"Now that the days are growing shorter, and we have our proof behind us," says the Elizabeth Times, "may we not ask: What do you think of Elizabeth as a summer resort?" To which the Plainfield Press adds: "Alienists please note." This is rude in the Plainfield editor. Elizabeth is a fine old place and just as pleasant to inhabit in summer as in winter, as any number of good people will testify. Interurban trolley lines seem not to draw sister cities closer together, somenow. Perhaps the Elizabeth sports put over to Plainfield for their likker too often. Funny how the average man likes to go to a strange town to do his drinking. Not that Plainfield is a strange town, of course. Estranged, perhaps, from its own bed-fe'low, but not strange. Speaking of strangers—,—Newark Evening News.

Plainfield would be a mighty poor place for Elizabethans to get their "likker." Liquor laws are rigidly enforced here, but as for Elizabeth you can get all you want there. Sundays included.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Harry C. Bush, of Orchard place, is convalescent after a week's illness.

Miss Alice Thompson, of Rockview Terrace, has gone to Easthamton, L. I., to visit.

Christie Dufford, of Middle Valley, is the guest of his brother in North Plainfield.

Wm. H. Stockton, of East Front street, has gone to Flushing, L. I., to spend two weeks.

Mrs. Harry Moore and her son, Herbert Moore, have returned from their vacation spent out of town.

John Doane and family, of East Seventh street, have returned from their summer outing at Moscow, Pa.

The family of H B. Phillips, of Rockview avenue, have returned from Belmar, where they have been visiting friends.

Mrs. George Strathie, of Plainfield avenue, has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. M. Higgins, at her home in South Branch.

George J. Plank, of East Second street, has returned after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plank, of Raritan.

Rev. Nathan Stanton, of Buffalo, who has been spending some time with friends in this city, is now seriously ill with typhoid fever at New London, Conn.

Patrolman Thomas Flynn, of the New York police department, is spending his vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Flynn, of West Fourth street. Mr. Flynn is attached to the Thirty-seventh street station and for the past two years has guarded the crossing at Broadway and Thirty-fourth street, one of the busiest in the metropolis.

WHAT PLAINFIELD WAS LIKE FIFTY YEARS AGO

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

Jones, E. Kirkpatrick, John Layton, James Leonard, Rebecca Lyon, Benjamin Laing, J. W. Laing, Augustus Martin, J. W. S. Martin, John Morris, John Mullener, Washington Marsh, Ira Pruden, George R. Pound, Joseph Perine, Randolph Perine & Company, Smith W. Parker, Roeap & Sheppard, Isaac M. Runyon, William B. F. Randolph, Phineas F. Randolph, Oliver Runyon, Elisha Runyon, Randolph Runyon, William Roberts, W. M. Richardson, Dr. C. H. Stillman, Rev. J. Stockbrigde, U. S. N., Robert Steward, Rev. George Sheldon, Andrew J. Steward, Abram Smith, James M. C. Smith, J. S. Soper, A. D. Titsworth, R. Titsworth, E. B. Tistworth, Jacob S. Tingley, Jacob Thorn, George Thorn, Peter P. Tenbrosck, Stephen Vail, Andrew Vanderbeek, Manning Vermeule, Mahlon Vail, George B. Vermeule, S. S. Vermeule, Webster & Marsh, Thomas Worth, Israel Webster, William M. Webster, B. F. Webster, A. P. Walker and L. H. Water.

HOPE PEOPLE AT ASBURY

IN TRAIN OF SIXTEEN CARS LEFT FOR SHORE THIS MORNING.

Despite the postponement from last Saturday on account of the rain, Hope chapel mustered a good crowd to attend the annual excursion to Asbury Park today. A train of sixeten cars, thirteen of which were well filled, left the North Avenue station shortly after 8 o'clock this morning with more than 800 people, bound for a day at the shore.

Fifteen members of Co. K, in charge of Sergeant Augustus Seiders, went with the excursionists as far as Asbury Park, en route to Sea Girt. Some of the men went to complete their shoothing and others to do additional work at the range in order to increase the company score.

The Sunday-school committee in charge of the excursion consisted of Henry C. Squires, chairman; Mrs. Hugh Gray, Mrs. Johnson, James Penny, Thomas M. Muir, George H. Firstbrook and Robert Kenney. The train was in charge of Conductor Lester Wightman, while William Smith, of Westfield, was the engineer.

The excursionists are advertised to leave Asbury Park at 7:55 this evening for the homeward trip. The train should arrive in this city at about 10 o'clock.

Alonza G. Conant, and family, of Watchung avenue, have returned after spending a week at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Asa Collier, of East Sixth street, who has been visiting relatives in Baltimore, is expected to return to her home the first of next week.

C. N. B.

An account carried with

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK

will give you much satisfaction. The Bank is an exceptionally strong one. Its investments are made in accordance with strict business principles, and as liberal interest as is consistent with sound and conservative banking, is paid on satisfactory balances.

C. N. B.

SPECIAL TOWEL SALE.

We have always endeavored to give extra values in Towels. This effort on our part far exceeds all previous ones. These goods are from a great New York City clearance sale and are way below regular prices. They are new goods and in every way desirable. This sale is a towel event of great importance to every prudent housekeeper.

Lot 1—At 10c ea or $1.10 doz—17x33 Full Bleached Hemstitched Huck Towels. Good weight and soft finish.

Lot 2—At 18c ea or 3 for 50—20x38 Full Bleached Huck Towels with all-over damask pattern, border to match and plain hem.

Lot 3—At 15c ea—(No dozen price) 22x42 Hemstitch Towels, full bleached, fine, soft. An unparalleled towel bargain.

Lot 4—At 25c ea or $2.75 doz—25x42 Pure Linen Hemstitch Huck Towels. These towels are actually worth 35c each.

Lot 5—At 25c ea (No dozen price) 22x42 Hemstitched Huck Towels with Damask border. Made of pure linen, they are very sightly and exceedingly durable.

SALE OF MATTRESSES.

Mattresses at 1.98.
Filled with excelsior, with soft tops, fancy striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 6.98.
The Union Felt, made in two parts, full 45 lbs, good quality fancy striped ticking.

Mattresses at 2.50.
Cotton top, excelsior filled, with blue and white striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 9.50.
The Purity Felt, superior to the best quality hair, made in two parts, full 45 lbs.

Mattresses at 3.98.
Combination, with cotton top, bottom and sides, one or two parts. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 10.98.
The Windsor Felt, equal to any high grade Mattress made, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

Mattresses at 5.98.
Pure white cotton, full 45 lbs, best grade of ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 15.50.
Ostermoor patent elastic Felt, best quality ticking, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

The Last Saturday of The AUGUST FURNITURE SALE.

If you value making your money do double duty, you'll take full advantage of this sale on Saturday.

OUR CAKE DEPARTMENT

is now in full running order, and we're just as busy as bees supplying your wants. Kindly leave your order early in the day as possible for Saturday delivery.

SALE OF SIDEBOARDS.

The 10.98 ones, now...9.25
The 11.98 ones, now...9.75
The 12.98 ones, now...10.75
The 14.98 ones, now...12.50
The 18.50 ones, now...14.98
The 19.98 ones, now...16.50
The 21.50 ones, now...18.25
The 24.50 ones, now...19.75
The 26.50 ones, now...22.50
The 29.50 ones, now...24.75

SALE OF DINING CHAIRS.

Lot No. 1.....1.29
Usually 1.50.

Lot No. 2.....1.48
Usually 1.75.

Lot No. 3.....1.78
Usually 2.00.

SALE OF BED OUTFITS.

The prices named include Bed, Spring and Mattress.

Bed Outfit No. 1—Regular price 8.50, sale price..... 5.98

Bed Outfit No. 2—Regular price 10.50, sale price..... 7.98

Bed Outfit No. 3—Regular price 12.50, sale price..... 9.98

Bed Outfit No. 4—Regular price 15.00, sale price..... 12.98

Bed Outfit No. 5—Regular price 17.00, sale price..... 14.98

Bed Outfit No. 6—Regular price 19.50, sale price..... 16.98

SALE OF COUCHES

Reg. 5.00 Couches now.....3.48
Reg. 6.50 Couches now.....4.25
Reg. 8.00 Couches now.....5.98
Reg. 10.00 Couches now.....7.75
Reg. 12.50 Couches now.....9.25
Reg. 15.00 Couches now.....10.98

WOODHULL & MARTIN.

When the Bell Rings Look Out When Passing

PECK'S STORE

Look In.

ESTABLISHED 1888 E. H. CLEVELY. TELEPHONE 308 W

Restaurant and Lunch Rooms.

OYSTERS will start season on Saturday, August 27. For a good Stew or Fry, follow the crowd.

Horton's Brick Cream 40c a quart.

Take home a Brick. Will keep hard one hour.

155, 157, 159 North Avenue, Opposite C. R. R. Depot.

Local Agent For Horton's New York Cream.

Wholesale——Retail.

KIRCH J. PHILIP KIRCH. CIGARS

We are offering as a special inducement during the dull season, short smokes, such as Robt. Burns, Petit Ducs, Hoffman House, Magnums, Telonettes, and all high grade Tobaccos and Turkish Cigarettes at reduced prices—just to liven things up. The latest is to have your Monogram on your Cigarettes. The additional cost is slight.

120 NORTH AVENUE. Phone 487 J.

The Balance of the $19,000.00 Sale

Must Be Sold. Cost Is Not Considered.

At the request of our friends and patrons, we extended the sale till Saturday, August 27.

Don't miss this great opportunity, buy your goods now while the prices are in reach of everyone. No matter what your circumstances may be, you can't afford to miss this sale.

Our 20.00 and 15.00 Ladies' Tailor-made Suits reduced to..... 5.98

Our fine line of Jackets and Skirts must be sold and will be sold at 25c on the dollar.

In order to prove our statement we refer you to the thousands of buyers who have attended this sale.

Sale continues until Saturday, August 27th.

Boston Cloak and Fur Store

245 West Front Street, Plainfield. Opp. Postoffice

FREEHOLD AND PLAINFIELD N. J. Levy Bro's TWO STORES

MORE SPLENDID VALUES.

115-117 West Front Street (Phone 220) Plainfield, N. J.

Our Great Alteration Sale with its many Bargains puts forth unusual attractions for tomorrow.

1.50 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 98c

2.00 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 1.48

45 inch table Oilcloth, yard.....14c
Extra large and heavy Huck Towels, value 15c, for.....10c
75c quality blue and black Brilliantine, 52 inches wide, yard.....49c
3 special lots all Silk Ribbons.....10c, 12½c, 15c
All extraordinary values.

Children's 50c white Aprons.....35c
Summer Corsets.....19c
Shirt Waists, were 75c, for.....39c
Lot of Umbrellas, very elaborate silver plated handles.....85c
Window Shades with fringe, were 49c and 39c, now.....29c
Boys' 25c School Stockings.....15c

Extra heavy Muslin, (unbleached), value 9c, for.....6¼c
All wool Dress Goods for School Dresses, value 50c, yard.....19c
1.25 Wrappers.....69c
98c Wrappers.....49c
Black Mercerized Underskirts, worth 98c, for.....49c

Ladies' Fall Walking Hats in the Latest Effects, Now on Sale.

Pants Clearance.

Positively the best values ever offered in Men's and Boys' Pants will be found here during this Clearance Sale. Our usually low prices have been still further reduced, and the result is a genuine surprise to every purchaser.

Men's and Boys' strong working Pants, reduced to..... 75c

Strictly all wool Pants, that will stand washing well, reduced to..... 1.90

Fine fancy worsted Pants, regularly sold for 3.50, reduced to..... 2.50

Finest all wool worsted Pants, equal to any custom made, never sold less than 6.00 reduced to. 4.00

Our reductions in Suits still continue. Same applies to Furnishings, Hats and Shoes.

The Surprise Store

324 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

REMEMBER THE NUMBER.

Proposals.

For Completing the Heating Plant of Fire Headquarters, North Plainfield, N. J.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Borough Clerk, 218 West Front street, until 8 p. m., August 29th, 1904.

For the furnishing of all materials and labor required to complete Heating plant in the new Fire Headquarters on Somerset street, North Plainfield, N. J.

Specifications and full information can be obtained from the architect, Chas. H. Smith, 128 Grove street, North Plainfield, N. J.

The Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Mayor and Council.

FRANK ROWLEY,
Borough Clerk.

8 22 6

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS

August 17, September 2, October 4—St. Louis Exposition. These are all ten-day parties.

Office: 181 North Avenue, Plainfield

YOUR EDUCATION HAS BEEN NEGLECTED

If you have not been taught the value of money and the advantage of SYSTEMATIC SAVING.

DO NOT ALLOW YOUR CHILDREN

To reach the age of manhood and womanhood without a little money of their own to help them along.

The PENNIES that they have saved,
The DOLLAR that you will add, (and oftentimes more,)

AND THE

DIME SAVINGS INSTITUTION

will accomplish a good result for them.

USE PRESS WANT ADS.

TRY 5 GALLONS

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER.

Orders by mail promptly filled.

Patent swinging crate, very convenient

Plainfield Spring Water Co

Box 743. Plainfield, N. J.

We Are PREPARED

to put up the best awnings at most reasonable prices. A good awning properly put up will last for years. Let us estimate on yours.

We have specially interesting prices on Carpets, Mattings and Window Shades.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON, Babcock Building

THE PRESS is for Sale at—
UNION NEWS CO. . . . . E. R. Station
J. M. HARPER . . . . . 411 Park Ave
E. A. LAING . . . . . 149 W. Front St
A. D. HALLIBSON, Fourth and Liberty Sts
TROLLEY WAITING ROOM . . Watchung Ave
M. ESTIL . . . . . 111 Park Ave
W. E. MATTISON . . . . . 85 Somerset St
GEO. SCRIBNER . . . . . 331 Watchung Ave
J. HATFIELD . . . . . 216 Watchung Ave

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from any of the following agents for 10c a week.
DUNELLEN . . . . . Wm. Gibbon
" . . . . . George Vliet
NEW MARKET . . . . . Herbert Dunham
SOUTH BOUND BROOK . . . Union News Company
SOMERVILLE . . . . . John Gernert
WESTFIELD . . . C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
SCOTCH PLAINS . . . . . Chas. Elliott
SOUTH PLAINFIELD . . . . . Walter Smith
CLINTON AVENUE . Mrs. Meader, John Ryan
NORWOOD . . . . . Chas. Elliott
HATHERWOOD . L. Uhdal, J. Kiley, T. Leacock
(THE PRESS is also on sale at station.)

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The Dunellen A. C. meets the New Market Y. M. A. this afternoon at 3:30, on the latter's grounds. Dunellen has won three red hot games and intends to put up a strong fight for the fourth. The town will be well represented by a lusty crowd of rooters.

A well known young man in town "accidently" annointed his hair with a quantity of kerosene oil, mistaking it for bay rum. He has tried every known remedy, and readily recommends oil as an ointment of lasting strength and enduring perfume.

The Rev. L. E. Livermore will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church tomorrow in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. W. Casselburry.

The naptha launch which was put in commission Thursday on the lake, broke down on its first trip and is laid upg for repairs.

Charles Coriell, who has been spending a week in the Catskills, is now enjoying the rest of his vacation at Asbury Park.

Joseph Gailey, of Nebraska, spent a short time in town yesterday with his cousin, Ruliff J. Fisher.

Services in the Methodist church will be conducted by a man from the Plainfield Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. John Herbert has been confined to her home with illness for the last few days.

William Danz is laid up with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

The weeds in the town park have been treated to their annual cutting.

Fred Dayton spent Thursday in Ocean Grove and Asbury Park.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Even the oldest members of Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., say they cannot recall when they have spent a more pleasant evening than they did Thursday night when Somerset Council, from Plainfield, joined in their fun-making. The usual business was quickly disposed of, and preparations were made to entertain the seven or eight, as they thought, members from Somerset who were coming to visit them. Instead of this number, the local members were pleasantly surprised by the arrival of about twenty of the Plainfield men who came down on the trolley prepared to make themselves agreeable and to add to the evening's enjoyment. William Guest, of the local council, was in the chair, and introduced the Plainfield speakers in a well worded speech. Several Somerset members made eloquent addresses setting forth the worth of their order with much fraternal spirit. Among the spekers was Peter Latourette, who won much applause by his remarks. Refreshments were served by the local lodge.

The baseball team will cross bats with another Plainfield team this afternoon on the home grounds. They will play the Cuban Giants, who have a good reputation for playing ball. The locals are slated to line-up as followds: Frents, p; McCauley, c; Trotter, 3b; Vanderbilt, lf; McCauley, rf; Jahn, 1b; Reich, 2b; Eller, ss; Mooney, cf.

Any Rheumatic Pains?

Rheumatism is a most painful and annoying malady. Why let it get a hold on your system?

Randolph's Special Rheumatic Tablets

effect a speedy cure for rheumatism, muscular rheumatism and gout. They are effervescent—not unpleasant to take.

If you've ever been attacked by the acute pains of rheumatism, you know what suffering is. Why be crippled by it—incapacitated for business and enjoy no pleasure? Why suffer longer? Get a bottle of these tablets.

Price 35c a Bottle.

Agency for Huyler's Candies.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
The City Pharmacy,
143 W. Front St.

Rev. W. B. Coon, pastor of the Methodist church, is expected to return from Ocean Grove today, where he has been spending a week. He will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church tomorrow as usual.

Jess Farlee has been secured to assist in the nursing of John Thys, who is confined to his home by illness. Mr. Thys' condition is said to be very critical.

Mrs. Charles Goodwin will spend next year in Chatham, where she will stay with relatives. She expects to return to her home in Fanwood next summer.

The regular weekly service of the Epworth League, of the Methodist church, was held as usual last evening in the church parlors.

Among the recent arrivals from Asbury Park are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McGown, who have been staying for a month at the shore.

Mrs. Whitenack has returned from Roselle, where she has been visiting relatives for a few weeks.

Fred Johnson spent yesterday at Boynton Beach fishing. He reports it to be unusually poor.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

It has been decided at a joint meeting of the Freeholders of Middlesex and Somerset Counties that the bridge recently damaged near Bound Brook, belongs to Middlesex, and will have to be repaired by this county.

Among the jurymen drawn to serve at the September term of court are Firman Walker, David Blackford and Henry Hummer, of this township.

The Christian Endeavor service at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening, will be conducted by Mrs. J. A. Cubberley.

Rev. J. A. Cubberley has gone to Wallingford, Conn., to spend Sunday.

The public schools of the township will reopen on September 6.

Henry Meeker will spend Sunday with friends in Brooklyn.

TYGARD ENGINE A SUCCESS

INVENTOR TO HAVE THEM MADE AT THE RATE OF TWENTY-FIVE A WEEK.

The Tygard double-acting gasoline engine, exhibited at the automobile show in Madison Square Garden, last winter, has successfully stood a three months' test at the home of the inventor on South avenue, this city, and others will shortly be ready for immediate delivery, arrangements having been made with a large manufacturer to build them at the rate of twenty-five a week.

Mr. Tygard is having a shop constructed on his South avenue property, 40x25 feet inside. A cement floor will be laid and the proper machinery and tools installed to enable the engines to be quickly and reasonably placed in motor vehicles, whether new or simply changed by taking out the engine originally furnished with them.

The engine has shown an increase of practically four-fold power for a given weight in comparison with ordinary automobile motors and in addition is practically noiseless as well as being air-cooled without the use of even a fan. The many good points of the motor have so impressed numerous New York autoists, that I. W. Lyon, the tooth-powder manufacturer, one of the founders of the Automobile Club of America, together with a dozen or more other prominent members, have already placed orders for engines to supersede the ones now in their cars.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ethel Mayberry, of Junction, is the guest of friends in this city.

Miss Estella Brooks, of Duer street, will spend her vacation in Warsaw, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Summit avenue, are entertaining Mrs. Cora VanInwagen and family, of Passaic.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Mansfield Smith, of West Fourth street, have returned home after spending a week with Stanford Apgar at Bloomsbury.

Rev. T. L. Tomkinson and wife have returned to their home in Mount Carmel, Pa., after a visit to their son, C. C. Tomkinson, of Grove street.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron M. Higgins, of Libery street, have returned after spending a few weeks at the home of Mrs. Higgins' father, C. B. Stout, at Centreville.

$8.00 to Niagara Fall and Return Via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Grand Labor Day excursion. Tickets on sale September 2 and 3, good returning until September 5, inclusive. A trip of four days to the famous Cataract at minimum cost. Side trip tickets to Toronto and Alexandria Bay on sale at Niagara Falls, at low fares, to holders of excursion tickets. Ask city agent, 218 Front street, for further particulars. 8 19 11

—Rev. Alexander F. Irvine will speak and Hilda E. Gaul, the child cornet soloist, will play at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4 o'clock.

BUTTER

THE KIND THAT ALWAYS PLEASES.

Rockdale Print, lb - - 25c
Rockdale Creamery Butter, lb 24c
Elgin Creamery Butter, lb - 23c

The quality of this butter is unsurpassed by any in the State.

Neuman Bros
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St.

Straw Hats, Negligé Shirts Fancy Socks
J. R. BLAIR
205 Park Avenue
Summer Underwear etc., etc.

SILK UNDERWEAR AT $2.00 PER SUIT

EDUCATIONAL.

Mr. Leal's School For Boys.

1882—1904

Has sent boys to College every year for twenty-two years.

Average number in recent graduating classes is ten.

Boys have entered sixteen different Colleges, but the great majority have gone to Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Columbia.

Next school year begins on Tuesday, September 13th.

JOHN LEAL,
Principal.

Cedarcroft School
For Boys
Opens September 14th.
For information apply to
R. M. HUSE, Principal,
8 15 1m 1003 Park Ave., Plainfield.

Plainfield Seminary
will re-open
Thursday, Sept. 15, 1904.
Thirty-seventh Year.
Principals { MISS KENYON / MISS ARNOLD

Plainfield Business College Opens September 1

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION.
Miss Emerson, pupil of Prof. Markees, Berlin, Germany. Fall term begins Sept. 9. Babcock Building, Studio 305. For particulars address Carnegie Hall, 874, New York.

Notice to Boards of Registry and Election.

In accordance with the provision of section 11 of "A Further Supplement to an Act, entitled 'An Act to Regulate Elections' (Revision of 1898), approved April fourth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight." Approved April 14, 1903: Notice is hereby given to the Boards of Registry and Election in and for the city of Plainfield, that the following places have been selected for the purpose of registry and election:

FIRST WARD.
1st District—At No. 123 North avenue.
2nd District—At No. 521 East Second street.

SECOND WARD.
1st District—At No. 319 Watchung avenue.
2nd District—At No. 699 South avenue.

THIRD WARD.
1st District—At the Casino.
2nd District—At Clifton's barn, corner Spooner avenue and West Seventh street.

FOURTH WARD.
1st District—At No. 204 West Second street.
2nd District—At corner Spooner avenue and South Second street.
3rd District—At No. 836 South Second street.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY,
City Clerk.
Dated, Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 24, 1904. 8 26 2s

—Capt. Wm. H. Hand & Son, of East Second street, on Wednesday removed two van loads of furniture from Brooklyn, N. Y., to Burnt Mills, Somerset county, for E. G. Skillman, who has purchased a fine country residence with 125 acres of land.

—Mountain Rose peaches, a prize Jersey product, on sale at Neumans' this afternoon and evening at the special sale price of seventy-five cents a basket.

Use Press Want Ads

CHATTEL MORTGAGE SALE

By virtue of a chattel mortgage executed by Anna Gwynette and Harry Gwynette, to James B. Guttridge, I have been authorized to sell at public auction on Monday, the 29th day of August, 1904, at two o'clock, at the farm of Douglass L. Darby, situated on Martin avenue, Fanwood, N. J.: One black stallion (Sable Wilks, Jr.), with trial 2:27 when 4 years old; one brown stud colt (Sidney Lealand), 4 years old, unbroken; one sorrel mare (Darya), 9 years old, record 2:27¼, kind, gentle and safe for a lady to drive; also one jogging cart and one set of track harness. The horses mentioned above are all registered and must be seen to be appreciated.

HEZEKIAH HAND,
8 26 2 Auctioneer.

Plainfield Property
For Sale, To Let and Exchange.
Now is the right time to buy—have some bargains.
IRA L. LaRUE,
Coward Building, 109 Park Avenue.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
Steam Granite Works.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Townsend's Granite Works,
Fourth and Richmond Streets.
Tel. call 2214. Westfield trolley passes my office.

T. A. MOORE
Undertaker and Embalmer
Office—508 Watchung Avenue Telephone
Residence—503 LaGrande Avenue 461-J
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

GEO. W. COLE
Undertaker and Embalmer
200 W. Second St. Telephone 153
Office Open Day and Night.

Established 1872
P. CASEY & SON
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Res. 417 W. Third St.
Office open day and night. Tel. 1082

DIED.

ADAMS—On Friday, August 26, 1904, William F. Adams, aged 78 years.

Funeral services at his late residence, 145 East Sixth street, on Monday, August 29, at 2:30 p. m.

WANTS AND OFFERS

Advertisements under this head one cent per word for first insertion and half a cent per word for each additional insertion. No advertisement received for less than ten cents.

☞ Please be sure and mention that you saw the advertisement in The Daily Press.

POULTRY raisers attention; new caponizing set for sale; $2. Address Poultry, care Press.

WANTED—About October first, a house in Plainfield, furnished or unfurnished, for the winter or longer. F. D. Warren, 280 Broadway, New York City. 8 27 2

WANTED—First-class cook and laundress; colored. 911 West Seventh street. 8 27 2

CHEAP, to close an estate; property, 112 Westervelt avenue corner Jackson avenue; lot 100 x 165 Apply Chas. J. Silvers, Executor, 772 Broad street, Newark, N. J. 8 27 3 s-m-w

TO LET—7-room house; all improvements; rent $16. Inquire 934 West Fourth street. 8 27 3

TO LET—10-room house. John Ross, East Sixth street.

WANTED—Competent colored cook and laundress; also chambermaid and waitress. Apply 1000 Central avenue. 8 27 tf

WANTED—A competent woman to do general housework; a good plain cook, who will also assist with washing; good references required. Apply at 238 East Ninth street, after 7:30 p. m. 8 27 2

TO LET—Furnished room, good location, in private house; convenient to station. Address E. E. care Press.

ROOMS with board; also table board. 311 East Fifth street. 8 27 1m

LOST—Singer Manufacturing Co.'s receipt book. Return 331 West Front street. Reward. 8 27 3

IF you have any real estate, for sale, exchange, or to let, send or bring full particulars to Charles L. Moffett, No. 209 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 15 tf

ALWAYS have list of desirable properties for sale or rent; fire, life, burglar and accident insurance; first mortgage loans. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

CROCHET baby sacques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. 4 6 tf

WANTED—A $8,500 house centrally located; East Second street preferred; also have a cash customer for a $1,400 house. Abbett & Manning, 163 North avenue. 5 18 tf

FOR SALE—Choice building lots on West End and Rockview avenues at reasonable prices; best location in North Plainfield; short distance from Grant Avenue station and trolley; 50x170; restricted from $1,800 houses up. Call or address P. S. Browne, 109 Park avenue. 7 11 tf

FARMS for sale; real estate and insurance. Wm. H. Rogers, Plainfield, N. J. tf

TO LET—Eight-room flat over Powers drug store. Inquire Alex. Thorn, 87 Somerset street. 1 12 tf

LOTS at great bargain; plot 150x150 feet on Watchung avenue; $8 per foot. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

BARN TO LET on East Second street, near Watchung Ave. Apply at the Daily Press office. 8 7 tf

BIRDS, dogs, cats boarded week or month. Bird store, 48 Somerset street. 8 11 tf

WANTED—Second-hand piano; must be in good condition. Address O. N. A., care Press, stating price and name of make. 8 17 12

CELERY plants for sale; choice varieties. Thos. Mair, 10 Leland avenue, North Plainfield. 8 13 tf

WANTED—An experienced white cook. 1206 Watchung avenue. 8 17 tf

NEWLY decorated rooms with strictly first-class table; also table board. 1121 Putnam avenue. 7 30 1m

FOR SALE—A complete collection of foreign and American stamps; will sell as an entire collection or in lots to suit purchaser. Address Stamp, care Press. 8 9 tf

FIRST-class help at H. Briske's Intelligence office, 409 Watchung avenue. 8 22 6

FOR SALE—Farm near Fanwood depot; over twenty acres; would make fine poultry farm; easy terms. Charles L. Moffett, Attorney, 209 North avenue. 8 23 tf

WANTED—Improved or unimproved property in or near Pittsburg, Pa., in exchange for a nice residence in Netherwood; house is modern in every respect with plenty of land, shade and fruit. Currier Bros., 119 West Front street. 8 23 tf

TO LET—Eight-room house, all improvements, with barn. Inquire Mrs. Kenyon, 819 College place. 8 23 5

FOR RENT—At bargain, on Webster place, new house, 8 rooms and bath; up-to-date little gem; electric lights and all improvements. Inquire 809 Kensington avenue. 8 25 3

WANTED—Room in private house for storage van load furniture. Address with price by year, Storage, Daily Press. 8 25 3

WANTED—A lady, (familiar with face massage,) to use Beuna tonic in her business. Full particulars Woman's Exchange. 8 25 3

$15 Buys very fine rosewood piano; big bargain. 815 West Front. 8 25 3

LARGE furnished rooms to let; reasonable. 127 North Ave. 8 25 6

BARGAIN — International Cyclopedia. 20 volumes; cost $66, sell less than ½ cost. Address Cyclopedia, care Press. 8 25 3

TO LET—Seven-room house. Inquire 103 Grandview Ave. 8 25 3

HOUSE to let; 7 rooms; all improvements. 437 East Fifth street. 8 26 2

WANTED—Experienced young man in butcher shop. Apply 198 Somerset street. 8 26 3

WANTED—White girl for general housework in small family; reference required. 628 East Front street. 8 26 3

WANTED—Furnished house with stable; send full particulars and price. Address Furnished, care Press. 8 26 3

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply 811 College place. 8 26 2

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 322 W. Front St. 5 10 tf

TO LET—Two or three furnished or unfurnished rooms; man and wife preferred. Address Furnished, care Press. 8 24 3

FOR SALE—Road horse; light built; young, sound and kind; price $125. Address P. O. Box 206, Plainfield. 8 24 3

LOST—At ball game, yesterday, a gold watch. Finder will receive reward by returning to Roth & Co. 27 3

FOR SALE—Billiard table, size 5x9, first-class conditon; recently overhauled; including set balls, cues, rack and markers complete; $90. Address Billiards, care Press. 8 27 2

YOUNG lady wishes home in exchange for light duties, sewing, etc.; references. Address H. L., care Press. 8 26 3

BOY WANTED—About 15 years of age. Apply Bonn's millinery store.

TO LET—Furnished apartment in perfect order for light housekeeping; or table board near. 127 East Ninth street. 8 27 3

SACRIFICE SALE — Oldsmobile in perfect running order. Address Oldsmobile, care Press. 8 27 6

39c Sale

Will Open Saturday Morning at Nine o'clock.

Remember, the morning buyer has an excellent advantage, as many lots are not large enough to last all day. Some good additions will be made to the sale for Saturday evening, however.

Many exceptional bargains in every department. This ad. can only give mention of a few.

Four Oil Paintings.....
Ladies' 98c Percale Wrappers
Ladies' 50c Lace Hose.....
5 prs 12½c Ladies' Hose....
Square yd 69c Linoleum....
Yard of 50c Grass Matting, any quantity wanted.....
Ladies' Muslin Gowns.....
Ladies' full size Muslin Street Skirt .....
Ladies' 69c White Waists...
4 yards 15c White Madras...
5 yards 10c White Apron Check.....
10 Spools Coates' Cotton....
6 cakes genuine Buttermilk Soap.....
50c Bleached Hemmed Sheets
50c Bleached Table Linen...
50c Dress Goods.....
5 boxes of Royal Talcum or Tooth Powder.....
8 yards Corded Madras.....
8 yards Apron Gingham.....
2 Ladies' 29c Swiss Ribbed Vests,.....
Men's 50c Fancy Neckwear..
Full Size Umbrellas.....
5 yards Silicia Dress Lining, odd shades.....

ALL FOR 39c

Don't Forget Sale Opens at Nine o'clock, prompt.

Hill & Shupp

FOR SALE CHEAP—7-room house, new; lot 40 feet front; flagged and curbed; terms to suit. W. H. Abbott, North avenue. 8 14 tf

FOR SALE—1083 feet front on Park avenue at Oak Tree Station, Lehigh railroad, $2 per foot; get after it quick if you want to make money. F. M. Bacon, 109 North avenue. 6 1 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place. 5 4 tf

SIX-ROOM flat, with improvements. Call 30 Somerset place. 5 6 tf

HORSE WANTED — Suitable for family use; must be sound, kind and fearless. Address, stating price, Horse, care Press. 8 22 6

THE highest cash price paid for household goods, furniture, etc. Fred W. Hand, Auctioneer, 136 East Second St. 'Phone 1722. 4 25 tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room, central location, airy and cool; terms moderate. Address Moderate, Press office. 7 20 tf

FOR SALE—Lot corner Leland and Midway avenues, 68x171; price $350 on easy monthly payments. Enquire 603 Park avenue. 8 23 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for a paying business; 90 acres fertile soil near school, church and village; running stream; 2 houses and buildings in best condition; all stock and machinery; price $6,000, free and clear; for free and clear property. Ira L. LaRue, Coward building. 8 26 tf

TO LET—8 rooms; apartment house; rent $10. Inquire on premises, cor. Williver and View avenues, opposite Safe Works. 8 22 6

TO LET—First floor of new house, corner Fifth street and Stanley place; five rooms; water in kitchen; rent $10. Apply Adam Young, 815 South Second street. 8 24 6

WANTED—General housework girl; no washing or ironing; white preferred. Apply 608 Park Ave. 8 26 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board, at 919 East Fifth street. 8 22 1m

FOR SALE—Properties from $1,600 to $17,000 to close estate, all in fine condition and good paying investments, and other properties for sale and rent; insurance placed in best companies; also several good lots for sale very reasonable. Mulford's real estate office, opposite depot. 7 15 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, 209 North avenue. tf

THE WALDORF
132-134 Crescent Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Desirable rooms with board, all conveniences, refined surroundings, superior table, excellent service, transient and table guests accommodated. Summer season, United States Hotel, Ocean Grove, N. J. E. V. and A. L. Waldorf.

This is the man who caters to the 'inner man'

TIMBO'S DINING ROOMS
133-135 North Avenue. Tel. 372 J
Order what you will, you'll find it on our bill. Prices are low; Timbo makes them so.

--BOYNTON BEACH--
Saturday, August 27, 1904.
GREAT SALT WATER DAY
(for White People)
Fine Bathing, Many New Attractions.
MUSEUM
New bill for this week.
Every act a feature.
Every feature a Head-liner.
GRAND HOPS
Every Week-day Evening (Monday excepted.)
Trolleys direct to Beach.

AUCTIONEER LATOURETTE says he had tender perspiring feet since childhood . . .
Thorp's Foot Relief
cured them. Ask him about it. 50c per bottle. All druggists.

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER.
JAMES BRONIS, Agent.
Olivers rented. Other makes repaired. A postal to P. O. Box 761 brings Bronis. 8 4 1m

DR. JOS. E. WRIGHT,
EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE.
Office, Woodhull & Martin Bldg
Hours Tues., Thurs. and Sat. 2-5 p. m., and by appointment.

DR. FRED HEINECKE
...GRADUATE CHIROPODIST...
For Ladies and Gentlemen.
Woodhull & Martin Building.
Also Manicuring by Mrs. Heinecke.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 6 p. m.

DR. E. B. STOWE,
Graduate Chiropodist,
For Gentlemen and Ladies. Babcock Building, Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 6 p. m. Telephone 367 w. All Instruments Sterilized

USE PRESS WANT ADS

Home Health Club

By DAVID H. REEDER, Ph. D., M. D. La Porte, Ind.

I one time described quite briefly the sweat glands of the skin, and their functions, showing the importance of these little organs in the human system, their effect on the heat of the body and in throwing off the toxins produced in the ordinary physiological process.

There are nearly a dozen ways that the secretions of the sweat glands of the skin may be increased, many of which are very familiar, such as increase of temperature of the air surrounding the body, increased heart action, rise of the temperature of the blood, or a combination of the two latter, due to exercise. A diluted condition of the blood due to excessive drinking of water is well known to affect perspiration, while friction or percussion of the skin has been observed by many as stimulating to the sweat glands. Many drugs known as diaphoretics, and electric stimulation of the secretory nerves, will cause increased activity of the glands, while mental excitement and morbid conditions of the system, such as fever, rheumatism, etc., cause local or general perspiration. The increased perspiring in a damp atmosphere is probably more apparent than real, a person being more conscious of the activity of the glands because the evaporation of the secretions is retarded by the moisture in the air.

There are not nearly so many ways of checking or decreasing the activity of the sweat glands, but the one of cold applications to the skin is known to all. Certain drugs are known to check the activity, and in some forms of disease, as paralysis and diabetes, the same results are observed. The layman is not so familiar with the fact that the sweat glands work in a sort of complementary manner with the kidneys and bowels, being active when these organs are relatively passive and vice versa.

During the warm summer months, when perspiration is freely exuded, the function of the kidneys is comparatively light, the urine secreted being very much less than during the cold winter months, and the skin is treated through hydrotherapy in many cases of kidney troubles in a better manner than those affections can be otherwise handled.

In the skin are found also the sebaceous glands which secrete the fatty oils which keep the hair and skin in good condition. The secretions of these glands are much affected by heat, as applied through water.

In the treatment of all maladies by the use of water, one of the most important effects is that directly produced on the nervous system. The skin in that part of the body which first comes in contact with the external world and imbedded in it are an enormous number of small nerves that are connected with and are a part of the central and sympathetic nervous systems. Through these small nerves the sensations of touch and temperature are received, while through others the motor impulses are enforced, the glands made active, and the ordinary responses to external stimuli effected. Now the tactile sense, that of touch, is variable, at different places on the body, the variation being due to location of the nerves. The pressure sense is very different in different areas, the forehead, lips, cheeks, temples, back of fingers and forearm, front of legs being more sensitive than other parts of the body. Hence it will be seen that the same pressure applied to one area of the body surface will not produce the same effect that it will if applied to another, and the consequent reaction from the same stimulation will be different when water is applied to different parts of the body.

In the sensation of temperature, two different sets of nerves are involved, one that receives impressions of heat and one that receives impressions of cold. These nerves are so distributed in the skin that there are certain spots where cold sensations only are perceptible, and others where hot sensations only are sensed. Some of the most interesting effects that can be produced in the human machine are the reactions from stimulations of these different spots, and it is with these reactions that hydrotherapy mostly deals. While these spots are not sensitive to pain or pressure impressions, they may be chemically excited, the cold spots responding to the stimulation from menthol, while the hot spots respond from carbon dioxid. Thus it will be seen that an application of these substances to the skin will produce effects similar to those of changes in temperature of the air.

Like the pressure sense, that of temperature varies in different parts of the body, the most sensitive areas being the tips of the fingers, eyelids, cheeks, lips, neck, arms, back of hands, palms, legs and back. Some of these will sense variations in temperature as slight as one-tenth of a degree, and when large areas are subjected to thermal changes the sensation is of greater intensity than when small areas are stimulated. Thus, water in which the whole arm is immersed feels several degrees warmer than water of the same temperature in which only one finger is immersed. Another curious effect directly opposed to this, is the one produced by suddenly plunging the whole body into cold water. Here the result is less shocking to the nervous system than where the body is slowly immersed, the effect being due probably to the fact that there is a limit of sensibility to all cold impressions. Another peculiar effect is due to the combination of pressure and temperature, cold water producing a greater sensation of pressure than hot water. The stimulation of cold is much more readily sensed than that of heat, being felt almost instantly, while the latter must act for a certain period of time before it is perceptible, and then is gradually felt, although, of course, the time employed in the sensation is extremely short.

Water is one of the very best media for conveying temperature to the body, as the nerves are much more affected by good conductors of heat than by poor ones. Different sensations of temperature are produced by different substances that are of the same temperature, the impressions from good conductors of heat being much more intense.

Painful impressions of heat are not appreciated until a temperature of 130 degrees is reached, and the body is more sensitive to slighter changes of heat and cold near the temperature of the blood, namely from 80 to 90 degrees. Sudden changes from heat to cold, everyone knows the more shocking to the nervous system than the constant application of either one, because the temperature sense may become fatigued in the latter case. Like all other senses this one may be cultivated to distinguish finer sensations, as anyone may learn with a little practice.

Now when it is remembered that the nerves that produce the temperature sensation are connected with the brain and spinal cord centers that control the heat of the body, it will be readily seen how important is a line of treatment that acts directly on the temperature sense as does hydrotherapy. When it is considered that the arteries and veins are controlled by nerves that dilate and contract those vessels when properly stimulated, it will be seen that any stimulation from the surface of the body will have a wonderful effect on any part that may not be performing its normal functions. Thus it is at once apparent that by changes in pressure or temperature at the surface, some most remarkable physiological results may be obtained, and it is with these that hydrotherapy deals.

CLUB NOTES.

Hayesville, O.—Dr. David H. Reeder, Laporte, Ind.—Dear Sir: Please give in the Home Health Club department the indications and treatment for locomotor ataxia. My legs seem so weak, and I am so lean in flesh. You gave in your lecture on June 22 directions for reducing flesh; please give directions for gaining flesh.

I am a club member, and, as I have two homes, I left my record number at the other end of the line. A. N.

It is by no means clear from your letter that you have locomotor ataxia, as simply a weakness of the legs and loss of flesh would not be enough evidence. Locomotor ataxia is a disease that is commonly due to an affection of the spinal cord, and while unsteadiness of gait is the most common symptom of all, yet merely a weakness in the lower extremities does not indicate the disease. It is not possible for me to give a full description of the malady in so short a space as I am here allotted, but if you will write me more fully regarding your symptoms I may be able to give you other directions which will be more satisfactory.

In regard to gaining flesh I will state that I have intended to write something about this subject for a long time, and probably will do so ere long. Loss of flesh may be due to so many causes that it offers quite a field for writing. In your case let me suggest as the first requisite for the gain of flesh, the injunction: Do Not Worry.

You probably never saw a large, heavy person, of a nervous, excitable temperament, and nearly every individual you have ever seen with that kind of temperament has been thin. In this world of many cares we permit ourselves to be easily worried, and expend a very large part of the nutrition that comes into our stomach in nervous waste.

Do Not Worry.

All communications for the Home Health club must be addressed to Dr. David H. Reeder, Laporte, Ind., and inclose full name and address with four cents in postage.

Compote of Peaches.

Peel, halve and remove pits from 12 ripe peaches. Put into a clean saucepan, two cupfuls of cold water, one of sugar and the kernals of half the peaches, scalded and blanched. Boil and skim, add the peaches and cook from six to eight minutes. Remove carefully and pile in a glass dish. Boil the syrup down to about one-half its original bulk, then pour over the peaches, chill and serve.—Washington Star.

Potato Puffs.

Easy Potato puffs for breakfast are made by previously boiling 12 or more good size potatoes. Drain, mash smoothly and lightly. Beat two eggs, melt some butter and stir it into the eggs; beat this mixture into the mashed potatoes, salt and pepper to taste. Shape into little balls, or put in gem pans half full of the mixture, and only brown them delicately. Serve hot.—Boston Globe.

Cherry Tapioca Pudding.

Soak one small cupful of tapioca in water over night; in the morning add a pinch of salt and cook until clear; then add butter the size of an egg, one cupful of sour cherries, half a cupful of sherry wine and sugar enough to sweeten. Flavor with vanilla, turn into an earthen dish, grate nutmeg over the top and bake until it bubbles up; serve cold with cream.—Household.

MICROBES KILL RATS

GERMS PITTED AGAINST VERMIN SCORE A VICTORY.

Experts of Pasteur Institute in France Test Efficacy of Novel Means of Protecting Vineyards.

In certain portions of the agricultural districts of France the depredations of rats and mice have been so extensive that the losses arising therefrom have been little less than a plague. The attention of the officials in charge of the Pasteur institute was called to the matter, and they were induced to attack the problem, which they did with such eminent success that a medal in recognition of their services has been awarded to the institute by the government through the minister of agriculture. This recognition took the form of the award of a much prized decoration to the manager of the institute and another to his assistant.

These rodents swarmed the fields and invaded the houses of the farmers. In many cases smaller specimens of the domestic animals were attacked and killed and partially devoured by the overwhelming hordes. It was a common experience for a farmer to find an entire field of truck ruined by the animals which sometimes ate the roots of the plant and at other times selected the stalk.

The problem which confronted the experts of the Pasteur institute was to devise some method of killing the rats without injuring the other domestic animals which might be found around the farm. They have certainly succeeded in finding the means of wiping out the rodents, says a Paris report, but there is some doubt yet whether the poison will not have some serious effect on other animals which might devour the soup.

Having made up his deadly dose of microbes, Dr. Roux prepared for a battle royal with the rats. The ground selected for this mortal combat covered a space of 2,965 acres, and extended over the communes of Aigre, Oradour and Mons. Here various kinds of cereals, vines and trees abound, and here also the sowing of various kinds of grain last autumn had been completely destroyed by these rodents. This meant also the destruction of fodder for cattle—such as lucern—hence butter and milk production was seriously affected. The ground throughout the district was literally perforated with holes, which seemed to be connected underground with little passages. Such was the condition of the scene of operation of Dr. Roux, which certainly seemed to offer a severe test for the efficacy of his discovery.

Dr. Roux succeeded in interesting the farmers of the district in these very important experiments, and soon the celebrated scientist had organized a corps of assistants on the spot. These assistants, under the direction of Dr. Roux, dipped quantities of wheat, oats and pieces of bread into the bouillon, and which consequently became immediately impregnated with the microbes which the bouillon, or soup, contained.

Then the poisoned wheat, etc., was placed in and about the holes where the rats and mice were known to be. The total quantity of poisoned "paste" distributed amounted in all to 4.2 metric tons of bread and 9.3 metric tons of oats, while the quantity of bouillon, or soup, used was 1,190 bottles. The total area of these experiments, as above indicated, was 2,965 acres.

To determine the effect of this poisoned paste on these destructive little animals Dr. Roux had the fields that had been microbe treated plowed up in order to see the condition of the rodents after they had eaten the paste and to fix approximately the number of rats and mice that had succumbed to the poison. The results obtained surpassed all expectations on the part of the simple farmer. Rats and mice were dead in almost alarming quantities and became quite as much of a pest when dead and putrefying as when they had been alive, but happily, in another sense of the word. Dr. Roux estimates that he destroyed no less than 95 per cent. of the rodents by these experiments. As many as 15 to 20 rats were sometimes found in one hole.

Not satisfied with this ocular demonstration of the success of his paste, Dr. Roux proceeded to a field of an area of about two and one-half acres and surrounded by vines. Here he had a number of rat holes counted, this number being fixed at 12,484, which were carefully closed. Two days later the holes were again visited, and it was found that 1,304 had been reopened by the rats. The poisoned paste was again brought into requisition. Eight days afterward the field was again visited and the holes which had been opened counted, the process being again repeated two days later. The holes that had been opened by them were found to be 37.

The minister of agriculture, on being satisfied with the results thus obtained by Dr. Roux and acting on the advice of the eminent scientist, proposes to introduce into the chamber of deputies a bill for the purpose of compelling farmers in rat infested districts to cooperate in using the above described paste.

The First White Man.

The first white man to visit what is now the site of the city of St. Paul, Minn., was Louis Hennepin, a native of Holland and a friar of the order of St. Francis, who came in 1689 and named the falls above the city in honor of his patron saint.

Really a Strong Swimmer.

Beach—They tell me your son is a great swimmer?

Strand—You bet. Why, I believe he could swim with one of those excursion steamer life preservers strapped to him!—Boston Transscript.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd.

STOCK HAS Got To Go!

This "Midsummer Sale" means business, straight to the core! Every price is cut so low it commands notice and wins sales!

Lowest Prices, below all OTHERS' prices—terms easier than any others give—privilege of reserving goods 'til later and paying when you can!! Cash does more for you here than 'twill do at any OTHER store!!

$4.98 for $7 Golden Oak Desks.

$4.89 for $ 6.50 Oak Chiffoniers.

$14.98 for $20 Golden Oak Bed Suits.

$3.69 for $5 Reed Rockers.

CARPETS.
Ingrains, 35c Yd.
Brussels, 52c Yd.
Moquettes, 98c Yd.

$6.25 for $8.50 Velour Couches.

$7.98 for $12.00 Oak Extension Tables.

All the Refrigerators and Ice Chests at a big, liberal price cut.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.

Be sure you see "No. 73" and first name "AMOS" before entering our store.

ACCOUNTS OPENED— EASY PAYMENTS

73 MARKET ST., NEWARK, N. J.

Near Plane St., West of Broad St.

All trolleys transfer to our door.

HENRY MEHRTENS,
The Manufacturing Confectioner.
Pure Home-made Candies, Chocolates and Bon Bons fresh daily. Cold Drinks of all kinds. Crushed Fruits. Ice Cream and Water Ices.
Orders delivered promptly.
Telephone. 131 East Front St.

JOHN J. LEAHY,
PLUMBING AND HEATING.
Sewer and Water Connections.
First-Class Work at Reasonable Figures.
302 Richmond St., near Third.

M. ARMSTRONG,
Plumbing and Tinning.
330 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
TELEPHONE 232.

McCULLOUGH'S
STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
210 Park Avenue.

Allen B. Laing,
Electrician —
Tel. 333-J. 134 North Ave.

WILLIAM H. POPE,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of Electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 North Avenue.

LIEFKE & LAING,
Insurance and Real Estate
No. 146 Park Avenue.
Real Estate Appraised. Properties Sold and Rented. Loans Negotiated.

TenEyck & Harris,
—DEALERS IN—
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office 121 Watchung Avenue. Branch Office Frank Rowley's Drug Store, 218 W. Front st.
TELEPHONE 28-F.

PRESS WANT ADS PAY

William Hand & Sons
MOVING VANS and STORAGE WAREHOUSE for Furniture, Pianos, etc.
136 E. 2nd St., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1722.
TRUCKMEN AND RIGGERS.
All work will receive prompt attention.

W. W. WARNOCK,
THE BAKER,
144 West Front St.,
COMPTON'S OLD STAND.
Bread, Cakes, Pies, Etc.
Made of the best Materials.
Early Morning Delivery.
ICE CREAM A SPECIALTY.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Avenue.
William D. Thickstun, John P. Emmons.
Telephone 601.

JOHN JOHNSTON.
All the best grades of
COAL.
929 South Ave. 'Phone 193.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

E. B. MAYNARD.
New Shop, New Furniture, Best Service.
Tonsorial Artist.
Also choice Cigars.
141 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Expressman and Truckman.
All kinds of Express and Trucking business promptly attended to.
Leave your orders at store of Joseph Sattels, Pianos and Organs, No. 108 North Avenue, and the same will receive immediate attention.

TRY
DOBBINS'
NICKEL YARA CIGARS.
228 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THEIR LIVES ARE NARROW.

Women of Spain Do But Little to Identify Themselves as Bread Winners.

Although I see much to admire in the women of my country, I am frequently saddened by their lack of education, says Lieut. Col. Ferretti, in Lady's Pictorial. I ask myself, what could we not expect of Spain if the mothers of our men were versed in the great history of humanity, and capable, like the women of other lands, of feeling an interest in the affairs of state and of conversing with men on the sacrifices necessary for the welfare of the nation?

I regret that my countrywomen are so little inclined to travel, for, being very appreciative and imitative, they would learn much that would beautify their lives. But with the inertia peculiar to our land they always continue in the same groove, visit year after year the same watering places of the peninsula, where they always meet the same people. My countrywomen would be astonished if they saw the ladies' clubs in London and the fields of activity open to women in England. What might they not learn from the maxims engraved on the walls of the Pioneer club in London: "In small things liberty, in great things unity, in all things charity!"

The simple, somewhat fantastic way in which some Spanish women seek in their limited way to identify themselves with the breadwinner's work is seen in a photograph of the wife of Senor A. Palacio Valdes, the eminent novelist, whose translated works, "The Grandee," "The Fourth Estate," etc., are well known in England and America. Here we see the young Sevillan lady, for she is not 23 years old, with her doll Sara, dressed for the carnival in the costume of Demetria, the heroine of her husband's last book called "The Lost Hamlet."

THE BEARD MAY COME BACK

Clean Shaven Faces Have About Had Their Run and Men May Change.

Barbers are seriously considering the question whether the present custom of men being clean shaven has not almost had its run, says a metropolitan paper. In the last five years one after another of their customers with desperate resolve ordered his mustache or his beard removed, looked at himself a little foolishly in the glass after the operation, and then went about his business, sometimes having to introduce himself to old friends.

The result has been that the shaving area of humanity has largely increased, naturally cutting into the profits, as it takes a little longer to shave each customer. But a thing that is causing real alarm among the thoughtful tonsorial artists is the evidence that not a few of their customers have recently raised beards.

It would be well if they simply let their mustaches grow again, but the real thing in the way of hairy faces is to be dreaded by the trade. Of course these must be trimmed, but that is not like the daily shave with the daily tip. The worst of it, according to the barbers, is that the doctors, who were largely responsible for the clean-shaved face as a matter of hygiene, have now taken the other view and are advising patients with weak throats to let their beards grow.

The barbers are fully aware that men are as subject to fashions as women, and that if the beard comes in vogue they will be seriously affected.

CLERGYMEN GAIN CONTROL.

Scotch Ministers Given Power Over Free Church by the House of Lords.

Ecclesiastical history affords no parallel to the state of affairs produced by the decision of the house of lords in connection with the Scottish Presbyterian church. That judgment places $30,000,000 worth of property in the undisputed control of 24 obscure clergymen, and gives them authority to dismiss every other Free church minister in Scotland, says a recent Edinburgh report.

After many years of negotiation a great fusion was effected in 1900 between the Free church of Scotland and the United Presbyterian church under the name of the United Free Church of Scotland.

Eleven hundred clergymen were concerned. Twenty-four Free church ministers in remote parts of the highlands and the islands of Scotland refused to assent to the fusion scheme. They contended that the union was not in accord with the tenets of the ancient Free church, and, further, that the fusionist church has no legal control over the trust funds of the Free church.

The suit they brought was fought through every Scottish court, and the decision just rendered by the house of lords is final, the house being the ultimate court of appeal.

The judges held that nothing could exempt the Free church from the rule that funds given for one purpose could not be diverted to another. Therefore the Free church property remained in trust with the 24 ministers who dissented from the fusion.

Left in the Rush.

Richard—Why aren't you married, Rebecca?

Rebecca—Oh, statistics show there are not enough men to go around, and I never was good at any kind of scramble.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Sailing Vessels Record.

A new record for sailing vessels has been established by the new vessel named Preussen, which made the trip from Germany to Iquique, Chili, in 57 days. The Preussen is the largest sailing vessel afloat.—N. Y. Post.

ARTISTIC MODES.

Elbow Sleeves Are Very Elaborate, Volle Increases In Popularity.

A frock of pure white mull seen recently had real valenciennes lace inserted all the way down the plain pouched bodice and flowing skirt, which was cut somewhat in umbrella fashion over a multitude of ruffles from the knees down. Two rows of quaint old buttons and loops of black velvet baby ribbon also decorated the bodice and skirt, and the belt was wide and made of black velvet caught up high at the back with a curious old

BLACK CHIFFON HAT.

French enamel buckle. To be worn with this there was a black hat with a sweeping white ostrich plume.

Elbow sleeves of the most frivolous description figure largely on summer gowns. They are designed in such a manner that they show the prettiness of the arms, while preserving the full outlines fashion demands.

Volle increases in popularity, and the closer and silkier makes are extremely smart when trimmed with good lace.

The eighteenth century modes are still holding their own.

Belts are quite an important item of dress at present, and the latest is the wide shaded belt finished with two lines of ruching back and front. All these belts are made on a boned and fitted lining so that they fit like corselets. A pink belt seen recently was finished with small butterfly bows.

The picture shows a black chiffon hat trimmed with an ostrich feather and velvet ribbon.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION HINTS.

Gray For Day and Evening Wear. Revival of Taffeta.

Gray is always an attractive color for tailor made suits whether in cloth or mixtures.

In direct contrast to some of the large picture hats we have small three cornered and toque shapes. One of the prettiest of the latter is of shirred red silk of two shades trimmed with two curved red quills.

In a few weeks birds and wings will take the place of flowers on the tailor made hat.

Simplicity is the order of the hour for picture hats, and the high crowned model with its one long ostrich plume or single costly flower blends admirably with the dressy gown and chiffon stole.

GRAY COSTUME.

Taffeta has enjoyed a great revival and is employed for entire gowns, which are much ruched and frilled and trimmed with handsome lace. Old fashioned tints are the smart thing for these silk gowns, and cigar and snuff brown makes up very well in silk of the taffeta order.

Gray is a smart color even for evening wear, and exquisite gowns of gray tulle, chiffon and net have been seen at smart evening functions this summer. They promise to be even more popular in the fall.

Embroidered linens have proved costly and unsatisfactory, as they launder badly as a rule.

A new weave of coarse woolen lace looks well on pale rose or deep cream cloth. Light cloth gowns, by the way, are excessively useful for cool evenings in summer. The cream white dresses in particular are very smart when they are enriched with laces and embroideries worked in with gold thread.

The picture shows a tailor made costume of gray cloth. It has the long shouldered effect. The revers are of green silk, and the cuffs and girdle are of the same. JUDIC CHOLLET.

LITTLE FRANCE

A ROMANCE OF THE DAYS WHEN "THE GREAT LORD HAWKE" WAS KING OF THE SEA

BY

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

Author of "Commodore Paul Jones," "Reuben James," "For the Freedom of the Sea," etc.

Copyright, 1901, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

With reluctant feet the girl turned and left the chamber. She sank down before the prie-dieu in the room which she had occupied since Grafton came, and poured out her soul to the mother of sorrows in appeals for pity and help. He loved her, O Blessed Virgin, and she loved him. How masterful he was! He had sworn she would be his wife. His wife, yet, pitying Heaven, that other woman whose face he wore over his heart! She tore the lace at her breast in wild and jealous pain at the thought. Was it possible for a girl to be at the same time so happy and miserable?

Poor Denis de Vitre!

CHAPTER XIX.

ANNE DE ROHAN SAYS—FAREWELL!

GRAFTON saw Anne de Rohan daily after that. She kept her promise, and, touched by her dependence, he did the same. Yet not without a struggle, for the effort told on each of them. She had ventured into his room timorously the next day, but as he allowed his love to express itself only through the medium of his eyes, which drank in her beauty as the field the rain, she had become somewhat reassured, and had not hesitated to come to his chamber more frequently.

It was lucky for him that her relative had died before he fell at her door, and it was also fortunate that, unconsciously, the frank freedom of Anne's American blood permitted her to do things to which, as a French girl, she could never have consented. She was thoroughly French in her emotions and quite American in her instincts—a delightful combination indeed.

Meanwhile, under the skilled nursing he received, aided by a sound and vigorous constitution, he made rapid progress toward recovery from his wounds. The first time he sat up in his chamber Anne happened to be with him. Jean-Renaud had dressed him and assisted him to a capacious chair which was placed near the window and from which he had a clear view of the street. The little family, by Anne's orders, had kept close at home, and the tremendous events which had culminated in the surrender of the town were as yet unknown to them.

The rain, which had been drearily pouring down for a day or two, had cleared away, and the September sun was shining brilliantly outside. The day was mild, the air balmy, and Philip sat at the open window drinking in the freshness of the morning. He looked handsomer than ever to the girl who stood by his side. The unusual pallor of his illness had been modified and a faint flush of color upon his pale cheek told of returning health.

There was a blowing of bugles, a rattling of drums, the sound of martial music heard in the street. They listened. It grew louder. Troops were approaching.

"Those are not French drums," said Grafton. "Hark! 'Tis an English roll! They are playing the British Grenadiers! What has happened?"

He leaned forward anxiously, but Anne checked his motion to rise, and thrust her head out of the window.

"Soldiers are approaching," she said.

"Yes," he cried. "Their uniforms?"

"They wear red coats and shining caps. They are English. They are coming nearer. You can see them in a moment. What can it be?"

"'Tis a surrender!" cried Philip exultingly.

"Alas! yes, it must be so," answered the girl, turning toward him.

"Forgive my inconsiderate triumph, Anne," he answered softly, siezing her hand and carrying it to his lips.

She covered her face with her other hand and the tears trickled silently down her cheeks, while the advance guard of the British Grenadiers coming to take possession, marched gally by amid the silence of the people looking gloomily on.

HE SAT UP.

There was a step outside on the stair. De Vitre, pale and haggard, entered the room.

"Monsieur de Vitre!" cried the girl, surprised and disquieted. "What means this unceremonious entrance?"

"Mademoiselle Anne," answered the Frenchman, bowing profoundly, "forgive my haste, the city has surrendered. The English troops are approacning. I came to protect you, fearful lest——"

"The English soldiers war not upon women, Monsieur de Vitre," interrupted Grafton sharply, leaning forward, his face full of color at the presence of his rival. "Besides, I am here."

"But you are ill, sir, and while I respect the English soldiers, there are always evil-minded persons in the wake of an army, and surrender brings out all the vicious elements in our own population. I love Mademoiselle de Rohan, as you know. She is betrothed to me. I am but this moment released by the governor. Naturally I came to her."

"And you are right, Monsieur de Vitre. I doubt not I shall need your protection," said Anne, determined at last that all should be ended now.

"Mademoiselle, you honor me," cried the delighted Frenchman. "I hope to deserve your confidence now and always."

In spite of his jealous anguish, Philip could not refuse to accord his rival a meed of praise. He was a tall, handsome, gallant-looking sailor, whose every movement was full of grace. There was no doubt as to the depth of his affection for Anne de Rohan either. A hard task indeed was before Master Philip Grafton.

"Oh, Mademoiselle," continued de Vitre, stepping nearer her and seizing her hand, "you made me so happy by what you said in the chateau. I have chafed in my restraint, wondering if it were true, fearful that I have dreamed it. For what had I done to deserve it?"

"Monsieur," said Anne quickly, catching sight of Grafton's clinched hands and convulsed face, which nothing but his own passion kept from the observation of the Frenchman, "Monsieur, I seize the first opportunity to say what I had scarcely time to explain, or what you probably did not comprehend, when I bestowed upon you my hand. I have given my promise to you, and that promise I mean to keep, but, monsieur, there is another who must be consulted. The Marquis de Chabot, my grandfather; the ultimate disposal of my hand and fortune rests with him. Before the engagement is ratified or—in short, monsieur, I beg you to treat me as your friend, until you have gained the consent of the head of my house to this marriage."

A load that had crushed Philip to the earth was lifted from his heart as he heard these words. It was a respite she was giving him. At least he would not have the torture of the thought that the lips which had melted upon his own should quiver, however reluctantly, under the touch of de Vitre—not yet.

Time, only give him time. He would find a way to take her, even if he had to snatch her from the very heart of France, from the steps of the throne even. He breathed again as he listened.

"At least," murmured de Vitre, who was visibly disconcerted by this deliberate statement from the woman he loved, "at least say that you love me."

Philip's heart stood still for a moment; but the girl was equal to the situation.

"Monsieur," she answered, "I did not say that in the hall, I can not say it now. I respect you, I esteem you."

"Is there any other one?" he cried jealously.

"Monsieur de Vitre, there is no gentleman of France who stands higher in my regard than you do; let that suffice you, sir."

Whether he noticed the equivocation or not she could not tell, for she gave him no opportunity to interrogate her further. "You must press me no more, monsieur," she added. "I have said enough."

"Good God, de Vitre!" exclaimed Grafton impatiently at this moment. "Aren't you satisfied with what you have, man? Half of New France is filled with envy and would fain stand in your shoes, I warrant you."

"Monsieur Grafton," cried de Vitre haughtily at this unheard-of interruption, "by what right do you presume—but stop—I forgot myself. You have every right. Say what you will, captain. I can not forget that I owe you life, liberty, and love! I can never repay you, but upon the honor of a Canadian, a Frenchman, you can ask nothing of me that I will not grant."

The truth that was behind the grateful words sealed Grafton's lips. For the moment he almost wished he had not interfered to save his rival's life—but he instantly put the thought away as unworthy a gentleman.

"'Tis nothing," he murmured, "you would have done as much for me, for any man. You put too much value——"

"Mademoiselle Anne," cried Josette, entering the room in great agitation, "a messenger from the Monsieur de Ramesay!"

Anne took the paper and tore it open.

"A summons, gentlemen!" she said, "the governor requires me and my servants to attend him at once at the Chateau St. Louis. He thinks we will be safer with him. He knows of your presence, Monsieur de Vitre, for he says you will escort us."

Anne was glad to have the scene over. The emotions of the last few moments had been almost too much for her. As Josette brought her hat and wrap she turned to Grafton, extending her hand.

"Farewell, monsieur!" she said.

"'Tis not good-bye, Mademoiselle de Rohan!" cried Grafton, seizing her hand, "I shall see you again!"

"I shall always be glad to see you, monsieur," she answered simply, biting her lip to control its quivering. "Come, Monsieur de Vitre."

"My friend," said de Vitre, ere he followed her from the room, "have no anxiety. I will see that some one comes to you at once."

"But Mademoiselle de Rohan?" cried Grafton.

"I will take care of her, monsieur," returned the Frenchman meaningly. "Remember, 'tis my right."

In one sense de Vitre was as good as his word, for the room was soon filled with English officers, who welcomed Grafton as one risen from the dead. They had given him over for lost at last, not having heard from him, and he had the pleasure later on of reading his own obituary in the general orders commending his conduct on the debarkation of the troops, which had been published by the vice admiral.

Several days passed without his seeing or hearing anything from Anne de Rohan in spite of his inquiries, days filled with the most consuming anxiety. Yet he had endeavored to be patient, having set himself resolutely to get well, and had made much progress in recovering from his wounds. He realized that he could not afford to lose any time in the fight for Anne. On the fourth day a note was put into his hand:

"Philip, my Philip," it read, "my knight, my love, I am calling you so for the last time. When you read this I shall be far down the river on board a ship for France. With the first of the refugees I was permitted to go, and—forgive me, my own—I could not trust myself to see you again. I will not deny—indeed, how can I?—that I have loved you with a love that more than matches your own. Yet you wear one woman's picture over your heart, dear, and I humiliate myself by sending you this counterfeit presentment of another. Alas, 'tis all of me that you may ever have! Look upon it, monsieur as you have loved me in spite of the other and then break it, and—forget me. Farewell!

"ANNE."

In a little diamond-studded, heart-shaped locket, which he had often seen on her breast, there was a cunning miniature of the woman he loved. He pressed it to his lips and then slipped it and the letter in a pocket near his heart. Then, with the assistance of the English sailor who had been detailed to wait upon him, he made ready to leave.

He looked long and earnestly about the room, hallowed by their meeting, filled with blessed associations of her presence, ere he crossed the threshold, for he did not intend to return.

He was informed by Gen. Townshend, then in the patched-up Chateau St. Louis, when he reported to him, that three days since, the first shipload of fugitives who had chosen to leave Canada rather than remain under the rule of the English, had departed. Among them was Mademoiselle de Rohan and her servants.

"Who commanded the cartel?" asked Grafton.

"A Canadian officer, who was to be exchanged in Europe."

"And his name, Gen. Townshend?"

"Lieut. Denis de Vitre, he is called, I believe," answered the young English general, looking curiously at him. "By the way, I have a paper for you. You are gazetted to the command of the frigate Maidstone, and you are to carry dispatches to Sir Edward Hawke. Vice Admiral Saunders also recommends you to be given command of the first ship of the line vacant, for your distinguished services here. I congratulate you, captain," added the general, handing him the paper.

"When does the Maidstone sail, sir?"

"As soon as you are able to take her, I believe. She has been provisioned for her voyage and lies in the basin. She will be the first of the English ships to get to sea. Another fast frigate will be sent to Europe with dispatches, but Admiral Saunders thinks it is of the utmost importance that Hawke, who is blockading Brest, as you know, should be informed of the fall of Quebec; and you are to tell him that Saunders will join him at the earliest possible date, and with the combined fleets they may have a chance to crush the French under Conflans. I suppose you will start in a day or two?"

"I start now, at once, general."

"But your wound?"

"'Tis nothing any longer. A breath of sea air will set me up again. By the way, where was the cartel, commanded by Monsieur de Vitre, bound for?"

"For Brest. He is to be exchanged there and the refugees landed."

"Ah! And his ship, general? Was it a speedy one, do you know?"

"'Tis said he selected the speediest Frenchman in the basin."

"And the Maidstone—do you know anything of her qualities?"

"The vice admiral told me that he had chosen the fastest ship in the fleet for you, so you may have a chance of overhauling her, if you care to, although they have three days' start. Well, I wish you bon voyage, captain. You will, of course, report to Vice Admiral Saunders before you leave. Good-bye."

"I wonder what he's up to?" thought the general, as Grafton saluted, turned on his heel, and hurriedly left the room.

(CONTINUED)

Use Press Want Ads.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

The Standard Railroad of America.

PROTECTED THROUGHOUT BY THE ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC BLOCK SIGNAL SYSTEM.

On and After June 26, 1904.

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

† 9 26 a m—Main Line Express daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor Cars, for Pittsburg and Cleveland, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

† 2 35 p m—Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily, for Nashville (via Cincinnati and Louisville), Indianapolis, Chicago and St. Louis; Dining Car.

† 6 43 p m—Western Express, daily, with Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, for Pittsburg and Chicago.

† 8 37 p m—Pacific Express, daily, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars, for Pittsburg, Toledo and Chicago, daily, for Knoxville, via Shenandoah Valley Route, for Cleveland, except Saturday.

Seaboard Air Line Express, † 1 04 p m daily.

FOR BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH—12 56, 6 26, 9 07, 10 00 a m, 1 04, 10 05 p m On Sunday at 12 56, 9 07, 10 00 a m, 1 04 and 10 01 p m

FOR NEWARK AND NEW YORK—5 23, 6 07, 6 44, 6 52, 6 59, 7 30, 8 04, 8 30, 9 04, 9 07, 9 30, 10 00, 10 07, 10 30, 10 47, 10 56, 11 05, 11 47 a m, 12 05, 1 04, 1 55, 2 20, 3 15, 3 26, 3 45, 4 41, 4 55, 5 06, 5 24, 5 45, 6 00, 6 27, 6 45, 6 56, 7 02, 7 21, 7 56, 8 32, 8 54, 9 12, 9 45, 10 18, 10 44, 10 47, 11 18, 11 30 (Saturdays only) p m and 12 12 night. Sundays, 5 05, 6 57, 8 50, 7 54, 8 59, 9 31, 9 51, 10 15, 10 57, 11 56 a m, 12 28, 12 46, 1 23, 2 20, 2 56, 3 44, 4 52, 5 04, 5 45, 7 02, 7 09, 7 35, 7 55, 8 30, 9 08, 9 45, 10 15, 10 44, 11 44, p m and 12 12 night; For New York only, 7 48 a m, and 2 46, 5 49 p m week days.

FOR TRENTON AND PHILADELPHIA—1 01, 6 45, 7 10 (Trenton only), 8 05, 8 35, 9 07, 9 35, 10 05, 11 40 a. m, 12 40, 1 04, 2 04, (Trenton only) 3 33, 6 42, 7 35, 7 44, 8 37, 10 06 p. m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 10 06, 10 40 a. m, 1 04, 5 32, 6 42, 7 44, 8 37, and 10 07 p. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Through Vestibuled Express Trains, Buffet Parlor Cars, Passenger Coach, and Combined Coach, 10 35 a. m. and 3 35 p. m. week-days. Express 1 01, 6 45 & 9 36 a. m., 12 40, p. m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51 and 8 38 (Through Vestibuled Train, Pullman Parlor, Dining and Smoking Cars and wide Vestibule Coaches) a. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Via Delaware River Bridge, 1 01 a m, 12 40 and 2 35 p m week days; 1 01 and 6 51 a. m. Sundays.

FOR CAPE MAY—Express, 1 01 night, daily.

FOR RAHWAY—1 01, 4 25, 6 45, 8 45, 7 10, 8 05, 9 00, 9 07, 9 46, 11 14, 12 40 a. m., 1 21, 1 42, (Saturdays only), 2 04, 2 40 (Saturdays only) 3 11, 3 49, 4 33, 4 50, 5 20, 5 28, 6 07, 6 55, 6 05, (except Saturday), 6 13, 7 15, 9 18, (except Saturday), 6 25, 6 45, 6 51, 7 05, 7 18, 7 44, 8 13, 8 54, 9 54, 10 07, 11 42 p. m., and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 8 41, 9 46, 10 25, 10 40 and 11 44 a. m., 12 42, 1 50, 2 47, 3 35, 4 43, 5 19, 5 40, 5 52, 7 05, 7 21, 7 44, 8 14, 5 47, 9 18, 10 18, 11 00 and 11 46 p. m.

FOR NEW BRUNSWICK—1 01, 6 45, 7 10, 8 05, 9 07, 11 40 a. m., 12 40, 1 42 (Saturdays only), 2 04, (4 55 a. m. Sundays only), 6 05, (except Saturday) 7 30, 8 45, 7 44, 9 37, 10 05, 10 07 p.m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 7 07, 9 46, 10 40 a. m., 12 42, 1 50, 6 52, 7 44, 9 18 and 10 07 p. m.

FOR WOODBRIDGE AND PERTH AMBOY—6 45, 9 46, 11 14, a m, 1 03, 3 11, 4 50, 5 47, 6 18, 7 19, 9 54 p m, and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 26, 11 44 a m, 5 40 and 10 15 p m.

FOR EAST MILLSTONE—7 10 a m, 12 40 and 5 28 p m week-days.

FOR LAMBERTVILLE, PHILLIPSBURG, MANUNKA CHUNK AND STROUDSBURG, VIA TRENTON—8 26, 10 35 a m. 12 40 (Saturdays only), 2 04 and 5 43 p m, week days, 6 51 a m and 5 43 p m Sunday.

FOR FLEMINGTON—10 35 a m and 2 04 p m.

FOR JAMESBURG VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10 a m, 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR FREEHOLD VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10, 8 05 11 40 a m, 4 38 and 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR LONG BRANCH, ASBURY PARK, OCEAN GROVE, AND POINTS ON NEW YORK AND LONG BRANCH R. R.—4 30, 9 15 and 9 35, a m, 1 03, 2 04, 3 44, 5 43 and 7 35 p m week-days. Sundays, 9 05 and 10 25 a m, and 5 40 p m. Stop at North Asbury Park for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

FOR BROOKLYN, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats of Pennsylvania Annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

LEAVE NEW YORK FOR ELIZABETH—From West Twenty-third Street Station, 5 05, 6 25, 7 25, 8 10, 8 55, 10 05, 11 05 a m, 12 25, 12 55 (Saturdays only), 1 25, 1 55 (Saturdays only), 2 25, 3 45, 5 05, 5 25, 5 10, 5 25, 5 40, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 8 10, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 45 and 12 10 night. Sundays—5 05, 7 55, 8 25, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 55, 1 55, 2 40, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 5 10, 5 40, 5 55, 7 25, 7 55, 8 25, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55 p m, and 12 10 night.

† Stops on notice to Agent or on signal. For time from Desbrosses and Cortlandt streets consult local time-tables to be procured from agents.

W. W. ATTERBURY, Gen'l M'g'r. J. R. WOOD, Pass. Traffic M'g'r.

GEO. W. BOYD, General Passenger Agent.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF,

EAST FRONT STREET.

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accomodations and private dining room.

Hotel Kensington,

(Licensed)

J. H. STAATS, Prop.,

107, 109, 111 North Avenue.

Everything New and Up to Date. An Inspection Solicited

JOHN WIRTH

Successor to Henry Liefke

Bakery and Confectionery 201-203 W. Front St

Telephone No. 723. All orders delivered at short notice.

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING At DOANE'S, 115 PARK AVE.

LAING MACHINE-AUTO REPAIR COMPANY,

416 Sycamore Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Office—134 North Avenue. Telephone 333-J

GREAT

REMOVAL SALE OF

Bicycles, Bicycle Sundries, Pianos, Musical Instruments, Sheet Music.

224 Park Ave. 224 W. Front St.

SPECIAL LOW PRICES

For all Summer Dresses, Linen Suits a Specialty.

S. Hirsh, - 432 Watchung Ave

Reading System

New Jersey Central.

Stations in New York foot of Liberty, and South Ferry, Whitehall Streets.

Time Table Corrected August 15, 1904

For New York—2 17, 3 37, 5 32, 6 03 a m, 6 37, 7 25, † 7 45, † 8 05, 8 11, 8 34, 9 03, 9 37, 11 25 a. m., 1 18, † 2 31, † 3 40, 3 44, 5 12, 5 55, 6 26, 6 36, 7 05, 7 25, 8 25, 9 40, 10 17, 11 25 p. m. Sunday—2 17, 3 37, 5 06, 7 41, 8 01, 8 32, 9 40, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 05 p. m., 12 58, 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 5 30, 6 42, 6 46, 8 32, 9 15, 9 32, 9 43, 10 23 p. m.

For Newark—5 25, 6 25, 7 05, 6 37, 7 05, 7 25, † 7 45, 8 11, 8 34, 8 44, 9 03, 9 37, 11 25 a. m., 1 18, † 2 31, † 3 40, 3 44, 5 12, 5 55, 6 26, 6 36, 7 05, 7 25, 8 25, 9 40, p. m. Sunday—7 41, 8 01, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 05 p. m., 1 45, 2 17 3 20, 5 41, 6 45, 6 46, 8 32, 9 15, 9 32, 9 43, 10 23 p. m.

For Somerville—5 25, 7 12, 8 21, 9 25, 9 55, 11 00 a. m., 1 01, 2 02, 3 11, 4 55, 6 02, 6 32, 6 57, 8 04, 8 19, 9 41, 7 25, 8 05, 8 21, 9 07, 10 22, 11 20 p. m., 12 50 night. Sunday—5 45, 8 48, 11 14 a m., 2 05, 5 40, 6 57, 8 25, 9 30, 10 15, 11 35, 11 25 p.m

For Flemington—7 12, 11 00 a. m., 2 11 5 10 6 19 p. m. Sundays—5 45 a. m., 6 07 p. m.

For Phillipsburg and Easton—5 25, 8 21, 9 54 a. m., 2 11, 5 10, 6 41 p. m. Sunday—5 45 a. m., 2 05, 6 25 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Manch Chunk—5 25, 9 54 a. m., 5 10 p. m. Sundays—5 45 a. m., 6 25 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5 25, 9 54 a m; 5 45 p m. Sundays—5 45 a m, 5 05 p m.

For Long Branch and Ocean Grove, etc—8 11, 11 00 a m, 3 44, 6 22 p m. Sunday (except Ocean Grove)—8 50 a m, 12 56, 3 05, 5 18 p m.

For Red Bank—8 11, 11 00 12 56, 1 12, 3 44, 4 47, 6 22, 11 32 p m. Sunday—9 02 a m, 5 20, 6 18 p m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—(3 11 Lakewood only) 9 27 a m, 1 18, 2 45, (3 44 p m, Lakewood only). Sundays—8 52 a m.

For Toms River and Barnegat—9 27 a m, 1 18, 3 44 p m. Sundays—8 52 a m.

For Philadelphia—5 17, 7 12, 7 44, 8 44, 9 51, 9 44, 10 44, 10 51, 11 44 a m, 12 56, 1 01, 1 32, 3 44, 4 47, 5 05, 6 22, 7 44, 8 51, p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 05, 10 51 a m, 2 45, 4 55, 5 37, 6 45, 8 51, 11 15 p m, 1 17 night.

For Reading and Harrisburg—5 17, 8 44, 9 44, (10 44, 11 44 Reading only), a m, 3 11, (5 45 through train), 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 2 05, 5 37, 6 35 p m, 1 17 night.

For Pottsville, Sunbury and Williamsport—5 17, 8 25, 9 54 a m, 5 11 6 31 p m, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 2 02 p m, 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—1 17, 5 51, 10 51, a m, 2 45, 6 45, 7 47 p m. Sundays 10 51 a m 2 45, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. C. M. BURT, Gen. Pass. Agent

Lehigh Valley Railroad

Time Table in Effect Nov. 29, 1903.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

9:05 a.m. daily (except Sunday) local to Manch Chunk.

8:42 a. m. daily for Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Rochester, Buffalo and principal intermediate stations, connects at Depew Junction for Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge.

2:12 p. m. daily local for Easton, Manch Chunk, Hazleton, Pottsville and Shenandoah.

4:58 p. m. daily (except Sunday) "Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Express" Solid vestibule train to Wilkes-Barre, Through Parlor Car via D. & H. R. R. to Scranton and Carbondale.

6:21 p. m. daily (except Sunday) local to Easton.

6:40 p. m. daily solid vestibule train to Buffalo, Toronto and Chicago and principal intermediate stations except Rochester

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 213 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J Telephone 115-B.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE,
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturday's close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND RASTON.

Arrive—8:4 a. m.; 1:20, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30 and 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA—West of Easton.

Close 12:35 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30, 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m. 12:35, 4:30, 7:45 p. m.

Through fast mail for West and South close 4:30 and 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for East, close 1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE & GALLIA (Mt. Bethel)

Arrive—1:30 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

Watchung—Arrive 6:45 p. m. Close 5:30 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

STONE AT BARTLE'S STONE YARD.

Yard: Corner Church and Second Streets.

Cut Stone, Building Stone—ALL KINDS.

FLAGGING AND CURB STONE.

Have some 18-inch and 2 and 3-ft. walk very cheap. Leave orders for your foundation and cesspool stone with us.

SMALLEY BROS.,

147 North Ave.

Butchers.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Roasting and Broiling Chickens a specialty.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83-A.

H. EGGERDING,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c Cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana Cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of Domestic Cigars.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Fresh and Salted Meats,

Game in Season. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Telephone No. 463 J.

LADIES DESIRING—

Knife-Pleating or Pinking

done, will please leave their orders at No. 22 Duer Street, and it will receive prompt attention.

MRS. FORCE.

PHTHISIS MICROBE FOUND.

Advances That Have Lately Been Made in the Investigation of Cancer and Consumption.

Widespread attention has been directed to the distinct advances in the investigation of the greatest scourges of humanity, consumption and cancer, which have been chronicled, says a recent London report.

Thus the discoveries of Prof. Schroen, of Naples, as the result of 16 years study of the microbe of phthisis, are of far greater importance than Dr. Koch's investigation. He has been able to show, by means of 16,000 micro-photographic negatives and other evidences, that phthisis and tuberculosis are two entirely distinct diseases. The well known Koch bacillus is comparatively harmless.

The phthisis microbe is in the form of spiral or twisted threads. It is a parasite of enormous volume, rapid extension and unheard of virulence. Prof. Schroen demonstrates not only the germ itself, but its development down to the fourth secretive product, which is a prism, while that of tuberculosis is a rhomb.

It was likewise discovered by him that it is possible by the detection of the latter in expectoration to diagnose a tubercular disease before the appearance of Kock's bacillus. The new phthisis microbe is of a nature heretofore unknown in tuberculosis. It can remain latent for years and is relatively curable, while phthisis is fatal.

Further study and report of the cancer investigation shows little encouragement beyond the fact that there is no danger of infection. A false diagnosis, unhappily, is the explanation of most of the reported cures. Thus the Cancer Research institution examined this year 1,786 cases which the medical faculty had pronounced to be cancer and found that 127 were mistaken cases, although there was every evidence of the disease according to the tests available to ordinary physicians.

The presence of the disease in the remotest corner of the earth and among all vertebrate animals tends to show that diet and the methods of modern life do not account for the disease. While the committee is strongly of the opinion that the apparant increase of the scourge is due to closer and truer diagnosis, the only practical advice offered as the result of the investigation thus far is that all growths which are even possibly cancerous should be removed by an operation without delay. The removal of the parasite furnishes the only hope of a cure, and every day it is suffered to remain increases the probability of its passage into some other portion of the body.

FISHING FOR COMPLIMENTS

As Herein Instanced It Sometimes Results in Something Besides Gratification.

In a North Highland car the other day was a sweet-faced old lady who seemed the very personification of kindness, her black bonnet shading eyes that fairly beamed with cheerfulness. At Penn avenue a young woman boarded the car and took a seat beside the elder, relates the Pittsburg Gazette.

"My, I am so glad to see you, auntie," exclaimed the girlish-looking one, as she bestowed a kiss on her relative.

From the conversation that followed I gathered that the younger woman was a bride of about two weeks. She was chock full of news, and began to dilate on the glories of housekeeping. As she paused for a moment the old lady said:

"Now, Mary, let me give you a little advice that may be helpful to you. When your Uncle George and I were married, oh! so many years ago, I made the natural mistake of all women. I began to apologize for my cooking. Not that it was really bad, but just because I wanted him to say that it was good.

"One day I made some bread, and that evening when your uncle came home to supper—we called our evening meal supper in those long-ago days—we were hardly seated at the table when I told him that the bread was not so good as I had hoped it to be, and even fibbed by saying that the flour was not up to the stanadrd. All through the meal I noticed that Uncle George gave his bread a wide berth, and by the time dessert was served I felt so badly that I just broke down and cried.

"He asked me what was the matter, and I said: 'George, you haven't eaten any of my new bread.'

"'Well, Mary, you told me that it wasn't good, and I didn't want to eat bad bread,' said he.

"After that I never fished for compliments, and as trusting husbands have not changed a bit in the last 50 years, I wish, dear, that you would always remember this little story. It may save many a heartache."

Never Too Late.

It is never too late to learn. Harvard university summer school has one pupil who is 83 years old. He is Edward Robie, a doctor of divinity of Greenland, N. H. Dr. Robie graduated from Bowdoin college in 1840. At the present term of the summer school the energetic old gentleman is taking a course in the preparation and theory of sermons at the divinity school. He says his parishoners, to whom he has preached for 52 years, are particular as to the quality of sermons they have to listen to; just as particular as any of the Boston congregations.—Boston Globe.

Couldn't Fool Him.

"What do you know about the destruction of Jerusalem?" asked the teacher at the night school.

"It hasn't been destroyed," responded the young man who had been visiting relatives in St. Louis. "It's only gone into the hands of a receiver."—Chicago Tribune.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

R. G. Dun & Co. Report Decided Crop Improvements.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Trade has improved somewhat, chiefly because of better crop prospects and the fact that last week's variations in prices of steel products failed to demoralize that industry. The industrial atmosphere is still disturbed by labor controversies, however, and it will be impossible to fully restore national prosperity until the proportion of voluntarily unemployed wage earners is greatly reduced. Dispatches from leading cities indicate irregular conditions, but there is increasing confidence in the future. Prospects are considered bright on the Pacific coast, because of the high prices paid for farm products; retail trade is sluggish at Cincinnati, but wholesale business is active in fall and winter fabrics; Boston reports current trade quiet, yet there is encouragement regarding the future; jobbing trade at Baltimore is active, although collections are slow; Pittsburg reports a better demand from agricultural centers than manufacturing districts, and few window glass factories will open on Sept. 1; lumber dealers and importers of chemicals for use in the textile industry at Philadelphia have large orders on hand; seasonable weather stimulates retail trade at Chicago, and interior buyers place large orders in staple lines.

Foreign commerce at this port for the last week was unfavorable, exports showing a loss of $1,091,905 as compared with the same week last year, while imports decreased $3,267,773. Money has at last begun to move away from this center, yet rates are still easy, and the financial institutions are in a position to lend freely, which is calculated to stimulate speculation in commodities as well as securities.

Boot and shoe shops of New England have received sufficient additional fall contracts to give practical assurance of activity well into October. Sales of leather are of moderate proportions, a firm tone prevailing because of small production.

Violent speculation in the leading staples produced some striking fluctuations in prices. The boom in wheat collapsed suddenly, speculators for the long account liquidating rapidly in order to secure profits, while crop news from the northwest was less discouraging.

Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for August aggregate $5,379,761, of which $2,490,587 were in manufacturing, $2,496,207 in trading and $392,967 in other commercial lines. Failures this week numbered 205 in the United States against 176 last year, and in Canada 30 compared with 33 a year ago.

Thieves Shot Plaistow Farmer.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Aug. 27.—John Kelley, a farmer of Plaistow, N. H., near this city, has been shot and seriously injured by two unknown men. While Kelley was at work in a field he saw two strangers enter his home, and when he investigated he found the two men collecting valuables. When the thieves saw the farmer they shot him in the neck and made their escape. It is thought that he will recover. Two suspects are under arrest at Kingston, N. H.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Closing Stock Quotations.

Money on call easy at 1 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 3¾@4½ per cent; exchanges, $177,341,855; balances, $6,375,269; total imports of dry goods at the port of New York for the week ending today were valued at $2,598,867.

Closing prices:

Amal. Copper	57½	N. Y. Central	122¼
Atchison	81	Norf. & West	67¼
B. & O.	86¾	Penn. R. R.	124½
Brooklyn R. T.	53⅞	Reading	57⅝
C., C., C. & St. L.	79⅞	Rock Island	25⅛
Ches. & Ohio	38⅝	St. Paul	152⅜
Chi. & Northw.	187½	Southern Pac.	56⅜
Erie	26⅞	Southern Ry.	28⅝
Gen. Electric	164	South. Ry. pf.	94⅜
Ill. Central	137⅝	Sugar	130⅜
Lackawanna	273½	Texas Pacific	30½
Louis. & Nash.	121	Union Pacific	99⅝
Manhattan	155	U. S. Steel	12¼
Metropolitan	123¾	U. S. Steel pf.	59⅜
Missouri Pac.	95⅞	West. Union	90

New York Markets.

HAY—Quiet; shipping, 67½c.; good to choice, 95c.

HOPS—Steady; state, common to choice, 1903, 27@35c.; olds, 7@13c.; Pacific coast, 1903, 26@30c.; olds, 7@13c.

BEEF—Steady; family, $10.50@11.50; mess, $8.50@9; beef hams, $24@25.50; packet, $9.50@10.50.

PORK—Steady; family, $14.50@15; short clear, $13.50@15.50; mess, $13.25@13.75.

BUTTER—Firm; extra western creamery, 19c.; extra nearby prints, 20c.

EGGS—Steady; nearby firsts, 19½c. at mark; western firsts, 19@20c. at mark.

CHEESE—Quiet, but firm; New York full creams, choice to fancy, 8¾@9¼c.; New York full creams, fair to good, 8@8¼c.

POTATOES—Quiet; Long Island, $1.50@1.62; Jersey and southern, $1.37@1.50; Jersey sweets, $2@2.50.

FRESH FRUITS—Apples, Alexander, hand picked, per double head barrel, $2@2.75; Duchess of Oldenburg, $1.75@2.50; Wealthy, $1.75@2.50; Gravenstein, $1.50@2.25; Twenty Ounce Saving Made Easy.

You say you cannot save. All you want is a start. A Life Insurance Policy supplies that want. Begin with that and you will go ahead.

Visit The Prudential's Exhibit, Palace of Education, World's Fair, St. Louis.

The Prudential

Insurance Co. of America. Home Office, NEWARK, N. J.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. EDGAR B. WARD, 2d Vice President.
LESLIE D. WARD, Vice President. FORREST F. DRYDEN, 3d Vice President.
EDWARD GRAY, Secretary.

C. E. BALL, Sup't., Rooms 2-3-4, Bank Building, E. Front St. and Park Ave. 1949
Box 796, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone No. 334-L
FREDERICK J. POPE, District Manager Ordinary Dep't, 179 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

In a double header at Providence on Thursday against Buffalo, Hickman, formerly of Westfield, but now of Providence, had nine put-outs, one hit, seven assists and no errors.

Duquett, pitcher for the Madisons and Emeralds, has won every game he pitched for Paterson, of the Hudson River League, this season. The most number of hits secured off his delivery in any contest was five.

A return game will be played at the Crescent field next week between Marcus Hoyt's team and a team from Westfield, captained by Peter Randolph. The last game was won by the local aggregation, and they are anxious to secure the second victory. They have signed Smith and Davis, of the Dunellen team, to occupy the pitcher and catcher positions. With these two sharks in the game the local team ought to have an easy victory.

ROD AND GUN.

Walter Wyckoff, who made a fishing trip to Sewaren Thursday, showed a fine mess of 20 good sized weakfish on his return to this city as a result of the day's sport. Wyckoff says that he hooked 18 of his fish within one hour at the turn of the flood. He fished almost the entire day and landed but two, but having heard of the biters on the flood, he waited till the end of the flood. The fish began to bite just on the run of the tide at about 6 o'clock.

AUTOMOBILING

Some one, and his identity is pretty well known, had an interest in as beautiful a case of knocking of White steamers on the St. Louis run as was ever known. Reports were altogether too frequent regarding the burning of the White cars. As a plain matter of fact, the White steamers, as usual, went through the tour with all honors, and not one of seven or more cars was incapacitated for service. The "knocker" hurt, though, for he placed in circulation reports which it will be very hard to correct. The very fact that seven White cars got to St. Louis, and that there were more White cars than any other make, is glowing evidence of their worth. Thomas S. Wheeler, of Park avenue, is the owner of one of these cars.

Formal permission has been granted by the Board of Supervisors of Nassau County to hold the Vanderbilt automobile cup race over a course in Nassau County on Oct. 8. The course is about 32½ miles long, and the distance to be covered in the race is about 300 miles. The start is to be made near the pumping station on the Jericho road, and the course will lead the machines through Westbury, Queens, Jericho, Hicksville and Hempstead. The county will provide men to police the course during the racing, but the men must be paid by the association. There are various restrictions and conditions, all of which are satisfactory to the association. There will be a number of Plainfield auto owners attend this race.

General Sporting News on Page 3.

Things That Endure.

Why place your money in enterprises or schemes of mushroom growth, investments that may appear attractive on the surface, but are risky and soon go under?

The purchase of one or more of our fine

Houses And Lots

will afford you the best opportunity for sound investment.

Every dollar you put in them is absolutely secure and will yield you a handsome return.

Why not buy today?

Elston M. French.

171 North Avenue,
Tel. 24. Plainfield, N. J.

RED MEN PLAN BIG TIME

MIANTONOMO TRIBE ARRANGES TO CELEBRATE ITS ANNIVERSARY.

In the course of arrangements for the fifteenth anniversary of the establishment of Miantonomo Tribe of Red Men to be held in this city in October, a committee of three was appointed last evening at the regular meeting of the tribesmen to make up the programme for the occasion and to arrange all details. It will take place Friday evening, Oct. 7. The men appointed were Charles Holstein, chairman, Andrew J. Stiglitz and Peter Sheridan.

The anniversary exercises of the occasion are to be open to the public and will include a full assemblage of the tribesmen in war paint. The local tribe will be visited by the complete delegation of fifteen members of the State Board of Great Chiefs. At the conclusion of the anniversary ceremonies red men and pale faces will join in the war dance; a special orchestra is to be engaged to furnish the dance music.

Sunday Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

There is no more popular resort for a Sunday than Mauch Chunck, and to reach it entails a delightful rail journey, and a Mauch Chunk there is a diversity of amusements, the chief of which is a ride over the Switchback. This journey occupies more than one hour, and leads over and around the mountains with widely changing scenes at every turn. The Switchback is a gravity road, and the speed attained is close to a mile per minute. Another feature is Flagstaff, the summit of which is reached by trolley, and from its pinnacle point there is a view extending over miles and miles of beautiful country. An interesting spot close at hand is Glen Onoko, a short distance above Mauch Chunk, and, as its name implies, is a beautiful glen, with falls, cataracts, mountain paths leading to cool and delightful places. On August 28, the New Jersey Central is to run a popular excursion to Mauch Chunk from Plainfield by special train leaving at 9:20 a. m. Returning train will leave Mauch Chunk at 5:40 p. m., and the round trip will cost but $1.50. Frequent train service will be in effect between Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, and trains on the Switchback run every few minutes. 8 23 5 c

Peter Galbraith, Sr., Buried.

The funeral services of Peter Galbraith, Sr., who died Wednesday, were held this morning at his home on West Sixth street, and at St. Mary's church, both being conducted by Father Egan. The pall bearers were Bernard Brady, Alexander McGuiggan, James Mottley, John Tobin, Frank Burke and Morris Shannon. The body was buried at St. Mary's cemetery.

"Tip" O'Neill, of the Murray Hills and Orange A. C., has been catching during the past week for Jersey City, of the Eastern League. On Thursday out of nine times at the bat he secured six hits. This was in a double header.

W. D. MURRAY'S BIBLICAL WORK

PLAINFIELDER THE AUTHOR OF THE MESSAGE OF THE TWELVE PROPHETS.

In a recently published Bible prospectus, which quotes the names of the best books on Bible study, considerable space is given to the description of a new Biblical text book written by William D. Murray, of this city. The volume will be published by January 1 and is entitled "The Messages of the Twelve Prophets."

Mr. Murray is considered one of the best Bible students in the country as he has made a thorough study of the Bible from an historical as well as a spiritual point of view. He has written several books on Bible study, but the last work is said to be the most complete.

The book, as the name would suggests deals with the lives of the minor prophets, and its object is to provide interesting and instructive topics for daily study. The aim of the author, as stated by himself, is to make the messages which were spoken to the men of old become real and timely to the men of the present day. The work is remarkable for the combination of simplicity and scholarliness, while naught but the fundamental features are brought out.

POLITICAL CHAT.

An interview with William B. Gourley, chairman of the Democratic State committee, in which he is made to say that equal taxation is not an important issue this year has been going the rounds of the press during the past three days. His attention was called to it yesterday and he said: "That is not accurate at all. I was asked if equal taxation was important in Passaic County, and I answered that it was not as vital with us as in some other counties, but that it was still important. This is demonstrated by the fact that the four Passaic Republican members of the House of Assembly last winter bolted their caucus and voted for the Hudson bill because they did not dare to do otherwise and return to face their constituents. Equal taxation will be the main issue in the State campaign, and Charles C. Black, of Hudson, will lead in the fight for it. I made it plain that I thought so in the interview of last week. I also wish to make it plain that whatever money the State government now collects in taxes from the railroads must be safeguarded and the excess which equal taxation in localities will produce distributed amongst the municipal governments. That is my opinion anyhow. In common with most Democrats I am opposed to a State tax. But I speak only as an individual who expects to retire from the party management as soon as the nomination is made."

PERSONAL.

Robert Love will conduct the service at the New Brunswick Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon.

Among the guests at the Victoria are Mr. and Mrs. E. White of Plainfield. Mr. White entered the dry goods business at an early age and is now one of the youngest retired business men in the state. He has his automobile with him, and is considered by his friends as a jolly good fellow.—Asbury Park Press.

Says Shattle Is Influential.

Frank J. Shattle, the Union County Democrat, whose name was signed to the address entited "An Outraged Democracy," is a Plainfield man, and a member of the Union County Democratic Committee. He was active in the campaign of the Hearstites four months ago, and was one of the delegates from this county who bolted the State convention, and participated in the proceedings of the rump affair which was held after it was found that the Smith-Gourley, Thompson faction intended to ignore the Hearst men. He is well known and influential among the Democrats in the county.—Elizabeth Journal.

Improving a Store.

J. H. Case, agent for Mrs. W. H. Brower, owner of the building on Park avenue, one of the stores of which is occupied by P. Casey & Son, has made a decided improvement to Messrs. Casey's store by painting and papering and wainscoting the ceiling. Miss Casey, who has charge of the store, has draped the interior of the windows and the store now looks very neat.

Work of Tramps.

Two tramps beating their way east aboard a New Jersey Central freight, yesterday afternoon, attempted to raid Mrs. Eden Boice's clothes-lines on West Third street, upon which was hanging some shirts. An alarm frightened them. They dropped the shirts, but got away with a counterpane and some pillow-cases.

Arrivals.

A 12-pound girl arrived yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmonda F. Duchesne, 368 Somerset street.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Moore, of 911 West Seventh street, on Thursday.

DOMINIE BOOMED A. A. CLARK

REV. J. B. CLEAVER ADVOCATED THAT HE BE NOMINATED.

In reporting the farmers' picnic at Flemington, The Newark Evening News says:

"Rev. J. B. Cleaver, of Bound Brook, who had been sitting patiently on one of the trying benches all of both days, waiting for his turn to come, was the next speaker. He declared he was a Republican, but it was difficult to make out what particular party he was speaking for. No one entertained the audience more than he did for he had a seemingly inexhaustible fund of funny stories and he told them well.

"After holding the platform for some time he said he had the ideal candidate for Governor for the Democrats. 'A man who will run like a scared dog and who would kick up the dust in Hudson so that not a single Populist could be seen. He would run well and is such a vote-getter that he would get the independent Republican vote and the vote of every well-meaning Populist. He was born right over here and is one of you. He was the candidate of the Democratic party for United States Senator and he is Alvah A. Clark, of Somerville.'"

T. J. WEARREN & CO. FAIL

FIRM ASKS U. S. COURT TO BE DECLARED A BANKRUPT.

Thomas J. Wearren and Patrick M. Wearren, of Rock avenue, trading as Thomas J. Wearren & Co., yesterday filed a petition in the United States District Court at Trenton, asking that the firm be adjudicated as bankrupt. Inspection of the schedule showed the company's assets to be but $1,820, while the liabilities amount to $9,491.

The firm has been in business in this city for over a year, coming here from New Market, where they are well known. The cause of the failure is said to be the recent increased price in lumber and building materials and the loss of money through several contracts.

Spend Vacation Canoeing.

Fred Kirch, of A. M. Griffen's hardware store, accompanied by Wilbur Bentlif, of this city, started this morning on a two-weeks' vacation. Mr. Kirch recently built an eighteen foot canoe and the young men planned to take a trip in it. They started from Bound Brook, proposing to follow the canal as far as Bordentown. From there they will go to Camden and while away will visit friends at Beverly, this State. They will stop en route for their meals.

Mr. Webb Was Badly Hurt.

The injuries which H. H. Webb, of Westervelt avenue, sustained as a result of the carelessness of S. W. Frucht in running his auto into him, are more serious than was at first supposed. Dr. Buchanan has been attending Mr. Webb and says that he is in a bad nervous condition. Mr. Webb declines to state at present whether he will bring action against Frucht.

—Peaches for Sunday! A big consignment of Jersey peaches, "Mountain Rose" variety, has been received at Neumans' and will be on sale this afternoon and evening for seventy-five cents a basket.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Howell Division, Sons of Temperance, will have a regular meeting Monday evening.

Plainfield Lodge No. 44, I. O. O. F. will meet Monday night, and pass the third degree on one candidate.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF INTEREST TO PLAINFIELD CHURCHGOERS.

(Notices for this column will be inserted free if they reach this office by 10 o'clock Saturday morning).

Baptist.

First—Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school; Rev. Dr. H. A. Griesmer, of Baltimore, will preach morning and evening.

Park Avenue—Rev. A. E. Finn, pastor—10:30, preaching by Rev. J. R. Ellis, of Albany.

Faith chapel, Rev. J.W. Musson, pastor—9:30 Sunday-school; 11:00, preaching, subject, "Saint's Compared to Palm Trees"; 7:15, Christian Endeavor; 7:45, sermon, subject, "Regeneration."

Reformed.

Trinity, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor—No services Sunday, August 28; church closed for cleaning and repairs.

German Rev. John Justin, pastor—Rev. Geo. Bower will preach. Morning, 10:30 in German; 7:30, services in English.

Marconnier chapel—2:30, Sunday-school; no evening service.

Presbyterian.

Hope chapel, Rev. I. R. Howard, pastor—services 10:30 and 8.

Bethel chapel, Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—services 11 and 8.

Episcopal.

Grace, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector; Rev. Erskine M. Rodman, rector-emeritus — 7:30 Holy Communion; 10:30, morning prayer, Litany and sermon; 5, even song and sermon; 8, mission service in chapel.

Church of the Holy Cross, Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, rector—11, morning prayer.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest, Rev. Robt. T. Walker, rector—9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning service. Holy Communion, first Sunday of each month.

St. Stephen's, Rev. A. S. Peck, rector—9:45 Sunday-school; 11, morning service

Methodist Episcopal.

First, Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor—10:00 Sunday-school; 11, preaching by Rev. Dr. John Handley, of Long Branch; 7, Epworth League. All service in Vincent chapel.

Grace M. E. church—9:45 Sunday-school; 11, and 7:45, preaching by Rev. Ralph Dunn, of Drew Theological Seminary; 7:00, Epworth League, subject, "Christian Benevolence"; leader, Miss Emma E. Smalley.

Roman Catholic.

St. Mary's, Rev. Andrew M. Egan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 2:30; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's Rev. Wm. H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3; Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:30.

Friends.

Meeting held in meeting-house First-day and Fourth-day at 11 a. m. First-day school at 10 a.m.

Unitarian.

All Souls, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—Will reopen Sunday, September 4, at 10:30 a. m.

Not Classified.

Y. M. C. A.—4, address by Rev. A. F. Irvine, of New Haven; Hilda E. Gaul, the child cornet soloist, will play.

W. C. T. U.—4.

Christian Church, Rev. Phil A. Parsons, pastor—11, regular weekly communion service; 2:30, Sunday-school; 8, preaching, subject, "Peter: His Fall and Return."

German Lutheran, Rev. Mr. Melhorn, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school: 10:30, preaching.

Rescue Mission—4, Rev. Robt. H. Middlehitch, of Westfield, will be in charge.

Wilson Memorial chapel—3.00, Sunday-school; 8, John Leal will speak and E. C. Martin will sing.

Swedish Lutheran church—8, Rev. C. Bohmon, of Upsala College, will preach.

THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paint toward the painting.

Wears and covers like gold.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it.

8 and 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M., and mix 6 gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.

These Celebrated Paints are sold by Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains.

Campaign Pocket Knives

Like the Candidates,
First-class,
Fully Guaranteed
and all right on the Tariff.

GAYLE HARDWARE CO.,

Front St. and Park Ave.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW

Royal Tooth Powder, can	10c
Royal Talcum Powder, can	10c
Mennen's Talcum Powder, can	18c
Witch Hazel, bottle	10c
Violet Toilet Water, bottle	25c
Lyons' Tooth Powder, can	19c

THE USE OF
REYNOLD'S PETROLEUM HAIR TONIC
Means Healthy Scalp, Natural Growth of Hair (no falling out), No Dandruff. 50 cents bottle. Prepared only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG
Corner North and Park Aves. THE APOTHECARY. Plainfield, N. J.

202-204 West Front Street.

WEINBERGER'S

202-204 West Front Street.

Whether you need clothing or not buy it now and profit by these

AUGUST SACRIFICE PRICES.

You never saw better bargains than we are offering in our Great August Sales. If you value economy you can't afford to miss this event.

$15.00 Suits reduced to..$7.95
$12.00 Suits reduced to..$6.50
$10.00 Suits reduced to..$5.95
$8 & $9 Suits reduced to..$4.75

$3.50 & $4 Trousers reduced to.....$2.00
$3.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.69
$2.50 Trousers reduced to..$1.45
$2.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.25
$1.50 Trousers reduced to..85c

The Princely Shirt, regular 75c values, special at.....45c

Regular 50c Balbriggan Underwear reduced to.....25c

Special 20th Century Collars, all styles and all sizes, regular 15c collars, special at.....7c

Boys' Wash Suits in all the latest styles, regular 75c kind, special at.....39c

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
202-204 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

--AUTOMOBILES--

We are making a great hit; we have come to force prices down. Already our great floor is crowded with bargains in new and second-hand cars.

Pope Hartford.

Pope Hartford.

The best all-around family car, the best hill climber and long distance car in America for the money—finish equal to any high priced car.

Pope Tribune.

The finest runabout on the market today. Call and inspect its merits before purchasing elsewhere.

Oldsmobiles.

A number of second-hand Oldsmobiles at your own price—other second-hand Auto's cheap to make room for our new stock. Inspection invited. We have or can get the car you want at much lower prices than others.

PLAINFIELD AUTO GARAGE,

114-120 West Second St., near Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Continued Special Prices on Summer Goods.

Window Screens—The adjustable pattern—hardwood—
18 inches high, 17c each 24 inches high, 22c each
28 inches high, 26c each 30 inches high, 27c each

Screen Doors—98c—Hardwood, fancy spindles, hardware, complete.....98c

Ten per cent Reductions on all Oil Stoves, Ovens, Refrigerators, Ice Chest, Water Coolers, Hammocks.

Ice Cream Freezers—
Alaska—3 quart size,....1.78 4-quart size,..... 2.19
White Mountain—3-qt...1.98 4-quart size..... 2.42

"THE NEWEST THING OUT"
Combination Rod and Reel
See it in our show window.

A. M. Griffen, 119-123 E. Front St.

BUTTERMILK
WHY YES

we make it fresh every day, and Potcheese, too. Try some.

LINDSAY DAIRY,

Tel. 451 J. FARM MOUNTAIN AVENUE.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 5:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:38 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted at 7:38 p.m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight; Tuesday, partly cloudy. Ther. 84.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887 — PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, AUGUST 29, 1904. — TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

LIVELY CHASE AFTER SUPPOSED MURDERER

Police Surround a Central Freight Train and An Exciting Time Follows.

CONROY — HE FALLS

PISTOL DISCHARGES ACCIDENTALLY AND UPROAR IS WORSE THAN EVER.

Patrolman Higgins Finally Corners Henry Eig, Who Proves to be Only a Thoroughly Frightened German.

Messages received at police headquarters, yesterday afternoon from Newark and Elizabeth announcing the fact that an Italian who had committed a murder in the former place was approaching Plainfield on a New Jersey Central freight train, led to one of the most exciting chases the local authorities have taken part in but all for naught.

Dropping the telephone receiver as soon as the word came, Chief Kiely summoned Patrolmen Higgins and Overbaugh, Patrol Driver O'Gorman and Special Officer Conroy, he hurried them to the railroad near the station and had them spread out on both sides of the track. The freight train on which the supposed murderer was on board soon came in view and at the chief's request, the operator held it up. As it came to a stop four men jumped off and fled in all directions but there were quickly captured. A glance sufficed to show they were not wanted and the fourth man who was streaking it down the tracks answered the description of the Italian as near as they could make out.

Conroy, who had been hiding behind a pile of ties, suddenly sprang in front of him and called upon him to halt but the fellow only swung over and started on another track. Conroy attempted to follow but his foot caught in a rail and he was thrown several feet with great force. As he landed his revolver was accidentally discharged and with a yell the fleeing man sprang down the embankment and ran with the speed of a race horse into East Fifth street. His move had been anticipated by Patrolman Higgins and as he reached Franklin place, "Carrie" headed him off and brought him to bay. Almost exhausted and practically frightened to death, the prisoner was marched to police headquarters and there described himself as Henry Eig, of Elizabethport, a German out of work and on the way to Bound Brook to secure a position.

Further word came from Newark later in the afternoon that the murderer had not continued to Plainfield but had boarded a Lehigh Valley train at Aldene and had evidently gone through South Plainfield. This proved that Eig was not the man wanted and when arraigned in the city court, this morning, still quaking and shivering with fear, Judge Runyon suspended sentence, advising him to remain away from the railroad in the future. Eig explained to Chief Kiely that he ran simply because he did not want to get arrested for stealing the freight train ride.

OLD RAILROADERS' OUTING

CENTRAL'S VETERAN EMPLOYES ENJOYED A CLAMBAKE SATURDAY.

About forty railroad men, including John Rowland, J. A. Haynes and Charles H. Schermerhorn, of this city, representing the Veteran Employes' Association, of the New Jersey Central, were entertained at a clam-bake at Green Gables, Monmouth County, on Saturday, in honor of the second anniversary of the founding of the organization.

Vice President and General Manager W. G. Besler, in a brief address, congratulated the members upon the growth of the organization. In conclusion he promised to arrange matters next year so that every member of the association could attend.

He Steals Flowers.

If the miserable cur who steals flowers and vases from the graves in the North Plainfield cemetery, could only be detected, The Daily Press would gladly publish a picture of him. The cemetery authorities have been notified of a recent theft and are endeavoring to find the guilty person.

—Quality high, price low, aptly describes those seventy-five baskets of Bartlett pears that Neuman Brothers will place on sale tomorrow.

CLOSING SERVICES AT NETHERWOOD HOME

Rev. W.B. Fleming Addressed the Children at the Fresh Air Institution Yesterday.

SOME GOOD MUSIC

MEETINGS TO BE HELD DURING THE WEEK.

Church Societies in Charge of the Services — Trinity Endeavor and First Young People's Societies to be There.

The last regular Sunday afternoon meeting of the season at the Mary Morgan Fresh Air Home, Netherwood, took place yesterday and was well attended by those interested in the work which has been carried on this season at the Home. Rev. W. B. Fleming, of Maplewood, N. J., was present and made the address of the afternoon—an object talk to the children at the camp.

In illustration of his remarks upon every-day life as a Christian and upon the spiritual conditions which arise as a result of temptation, Dr. Fleming used three walnuts, one a mere empty shell to illustrate the heart entirely void of Christianity, "swept and garnished for the reception of the Devil;" another partially bad, the Christian heart where temptation has begun work of destruction, but the last a good, sweet, not, representing the ideal Christian spirit.

Clarence Titus was in charge of the singing during the meeting, while David M. Torrey read passages from the scripture and led the prayer. Mrs. Anna VanBrackle was at the organ and also sang two soprano solos during the course of the meeting.

The evening services to be held this week at the Mary Morgan Home, Netherwood, are to be in charge of various Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Societies of this city, Cranford and Westfield. As this is the last week which the camp will be open this season, it is possible that there will be a large attendance of those interested in the work.

This evening, the service will be in charge of the Epworth Leagues from St. Paul's M. E. church, of Cranford, and from Grace M. E. church, of this city. Tuesday evening, delegations from the Christian Endeavor Societies of the First Presbyterian churches of Cranford and this city will be at the camp, and on Wednesday evening, J. H. Strawbridge, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Elizabeth, will address those at the home. The Trinity Christian Endeavor and the First Baptist Young People's Societies will conduct services at the home Thursday evening and delegations from the local Congregational church and from Hope chapel will be in charge of the last of the evening meetings of the season, the one to be held Friday evening.

The concluding meeting and closing exercises of the season on next Sunday afternoon, in accordance with the recent action of the executive committee, close the Home on that day for the season. The meeting at that time will be a general one; it is expected that George A. Chapman, of the First Baptist church, will conduct the meeting. On this occasion, Miss Sara Curry, matron of the Home, will give a talk on the work accomplished there during the summer season now concluding; there will also be addresses of similar nature by David M. Torrey and Clarence Titus, Miss Curry's coworkers among the children, and by Mrs. D. M. Runyon, and others interested in the work.

There will be special music, singing and recitations by the children, nearly 200 of whom are at present visiting the Home from their homes in New York city. A special programme has been arranged.

Permit to Erect House.

Plans have been filed and a building permit granted for a two story frame house to be erected by Philip Bronsten, of Manson place, on Munroe avenue, near Fourth street. The building will measure 28x28x29. E. N. Hussey, of Westfield, is the architect and carpenter, and Walter Wikoff, of Richmond street, has secured the contract for mason work. Ground will be broken immediately.

Mr. Wharton Captured Golf Cup.

Playing in championship form, J. H. P. Wharton, formerly of this city, scored three points for first place in the weekly competition for the August cup at Baltusrol on Saturday, and won first prize in the ball sweepstakes.

MANY GOLF EVENTS ATTRACT ENTHUSIASTS

W. L. Glenney, F. O. Reinhart and C. E. Halsted Win Points for Golf Committee Cup.

LOW SCORES RETURNED

HAROLD ROBERT AND HENRY L. HALL TIE FOR GASTON CUP HONORS.

Rev. Dr. H. H. Carroll and Gus W. Faber Win First Honors at Park Golf Club—Results at Westfield Golf Club.

The number of players on the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club course on Saturday showed that many are returning from their summer outing and are once more engaging in their favorite exercise. While the course was well filled with players, only a small number returned their scores in competition for the Golf Committee and Gaston cups. The course was in excellent condition.

W. L. Glenney won first honors for the Golf Committee cup, while Frank O. Reinhart and C. E. Halsted finished second and third. These scores were posted:

W. L. Glenney, 73, plus 1—74; Frank O. Reinhart, 72, plus 4—76; C. E. Halsted, 84, 6—78; Leighton Calkins, 82, 1—81; E. E. Iremonger, 92, 11—81; Henry L. Hall, 101, 18—83.

Henry L. Hall and Harold Robert tied for first honors for the Gaston cup, each making an 101 net and each receiving two and one-half points. T. W. T. Maxwell won the one remaining point. These scores were returned:

Henry L. Hall, 101, 0—101; Harold Robert, 101, 0—101; T. W. T. Maxwell, 107, 2—105; Evarts Tracy, 108, 1—107; G. H. Condict, 124, 41—20.

Not many members of the Park Golf Club have as yet returned from their vacations and Saturday's play for the President's and Park Golf Club cups was marked by a limited number of contestants. Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll, Gus. W. Faber and Raymond B. Carroll won the points for the President's cup, while Gus. W. Faber won first honors for the scratch cup and Raymond B. Carroll and O. O. Faber were tie for the remaining honors with a gross score of 97. These scores were returned:

Rev. Dr. H. K. Carroll, 103, 22—81; Gus. W. Faber, 86, 0—86; Raymond B. Carroll, 97, 7—90; O. O. Faber, 97, 3—94; George T. Rogers, 110, 15—95.

At the Westfield Golf Club on Saturday there was the concluding qualifying play in the Governors competition, R. H. Middleditch and J. A. Woodward were successful. Next Saturday there will be the first round at match play in this event. These scores were returned on Saturday:

R. H. Middleditch, 99, 23—76; J. A. Woodward, 87, 10—77; H. E. Knight, 105, 27—78; R. L. VanDyke, 104, 24—80; W. M. Townley, 92, 11—81; H. M. Wilcox, 106, 25—81; John Platt, 102, 18—84; E. H. Clear, 110, 26—84; H. W. Gladwin, 111, 25—86; J. A. Werth, 106, 12—94; W. M. Bastable, 125, 30—95.

On Wednesday there will be a women's competition, 18 holes, the lowest scores on nine holes to count.

SEA GIRT SHOOT WEDNESDAY

INTER-STATE CONTESTS FOR SEVERAL TROPHIES.

Everything is in readiness at Sea Girt for the Interstate shooting tournament, which will begin next Wednesday.

General Spencer is president of the National Rifle Association of America and the vice presidents are Brigadier General George H. Harries, commanding D. C. N. G.; Brigadier General Lawrason Riggs, commanding Maryland N. G., and J. Amory Haskell, of New York. The treasurer is Lieutenant Reginald H. Sayre, I. S. A. P., Squadron A., N. G. N. J. The secretary of Lieutenant Albert S. Jones, of Passaic.

There are ten matches of the National Rifle Association. The most important of these are the Wimbledon cup match and the president's match. The latter is for the military championship of the United States.

Scotch Plains Won.

A team known as the Plainfield Colored Giants played the team at Scotch Plains on Saturday, and was easily defeated by a score of 27 to 2. Frouts and MacCauley formed the battery for the home nine.

LIGHTED LAMP FALLS ON BED

MERLE TODD'S CARELESS ACTION ALL BUT COSTS HIM HIS LIFE.

Reading in bed with a lighted lamp by his side but cost Merle Todd, of Orchard place, his life, Saturday night. Falling asleep his foot was unconsciously thrown outward and the lamp was knocked from the table on which it stood and dropped on the bedclothes. Before Todd was thoroughly awake they were in flames and several parts of his body were singed.

His cries brought his brother, John Todd, to the room and the latter seized the blazing covers and threw them out of a window. By that time they were a mass of flames and he was also slightly burned. Had he not responded quickly when his brother first called a conflagration and a fatality would undoubtedly have been the result of the younger Todd's action.

DATE FOR CITY CONVENTION

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE ARRANGE MANY MATTERS AT MEETING.

Local Republicans made definite plans for campaign work at the meeting of the city executive committee Saturday evening at Newcorn's law office on West Front street. A committee consisting of Mayor Olin L. Jenkins, chairman, James F. Buckle and J. Hervey Doane was appointed with complete power to make arrangements for opening a permanent Republican headquarters in this city.

The banner committee reported that pictures of the candidates had been secured and placed in position on the big campaign banner. Chairman Jame F. Buckle, of this committee, announced that the banner will be placed in position at Front street and Park avenue by the end of the week. The banner measures 16 by 34 feet.

The date of the city convention was announced as September 29, but the committee in charge has not decided upon a place. The secretary was authorized to issue a call for primaries and for the convention.

LITTLE CRIPPLES' OUTING.

Netherwood Home Children Entertained by Miss Wagstaff.

Fifteen of the little cripples included in Miss Sara Curry's colony at the Netherwood home, enjoyed a delightful time Thursday afternoon as the guests of Miss Lou K. Wagstaff on the lawn about her home on Crescent avenue. They had ice cream and cake in abundance and in various ways Miss Wagstaff entertained them so that not a moment lagged. The little party was the result of a visit which she paid the camp when she was touched by the keen enjoyment the children derived from a simple stroll on the lawns and in the grass.

The little cripples in the party were unable to get to the trolley cars to reach her home and the transportation problem was solved by Walter Thompson, a big hearted local expressman. Filling his wagon with straw he placed all fifteen in it, carried them to Miss Wagstaff's home and after they were tohroughly tired out, called around and carried them back to the camp.

Recovered Stolen Booty.

Morris Higgins, of South Plainfield, whose place was robbed about three weeks ago, yesterday found one of the checks taken from the money drawer, together with his Red Men's ticket, books and receipts. These were found back of Norman's Hotel at South Plainfield. The check was made out for $2.50 by Agnes Vail. Another check for $12 is still missing. The thieves took the money drawer and contents. Mr. Higgins feels certain that he is on track of the thieves and that it will not be long before they will be arrested.

Guests of Saengerbund.

Aurora Singing Society, a German organization of New Brunswick, visited the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein at Saengerbund Grove yesterday afternoon. The visitors, with their wives and families, number about sixty and the afternoon was passed in organized singing and games. Dinner and supper were served at the grove.

Rev. Dr. Griesener Preached.

In the absence of Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Rev. H. A. Griesener, of Baltimore, preached at that church both morning and evening yesterday. Rev. Dr. Griesener will substitute for Rev. Dr. Chambliss for for several Sundays.

FARMER LAMBERT IS AFTER THE 'PHONE CO.

Says the Northeastern People Must Pay Him Another $200 for Using His Ground.

A FRANCHISE GRAFT

FANWOOD TOWNSHIP PROPERTY OWNERS FOLLOWING OFFICIALS' ACTION.

Corporation Meeting With Many Obstacles in Getting Its Line Along Raritan Road—Case in 'Plains Court.

Reasoning within themselves that if the Northeastern Telephone and Telegraph Company is rich enough to pay Fanwood township $1,000 for the privilege of running its line along Raritan road, the farmers owning property on the route are of the opinion that its treasury will stand further demands. Many of them have already been paid as high as $200 for a three-foot right of way over their ground on which to set anchor posts to support poles and now Isaac Lambert believes he should have $200 more because he found the construction gang taking five feet in some places.

Lambert was one of many who signed a contract giving the privilege before it was made public that the township had secured $1,000 for a small franchise and when this became known the farmers "kicked themselves" because they had not gotten more. When Lambert discovered the men were putting the anchor posts two feet beyond where the contract called for, he asked for further payment from the supervisor but his request was refused. He then threatened suit but this had no effect on the company, the officials claiming that they had to go over in some instances on account of the manner in which the fences were built and that it was no fault of theirs. Finding that threats had no effect, Lambert went before Justice Clark, of Scotch Plains, Saturday, and preferred complaint in tort against the company for $200 damages. Summons was issued at once and the case will be heard Friday afternoon unless the Northeastern people secure a non-suit or an adjournment. Should Lambert be successful in his action, it is declared his neighbors who have given the three-foot franchise and found the company going over the mark, will sart similar suits.

Since it became widely known that Fanwood township was paid a good sum for allowing wires to be strung over two miles of its road, the company has met with opposition right and left in the territory it had mapped out. In some instances the same franchise was given them for nothing and now the authorities are seeking any possible way to go back on their agreement and get something for it. The property owners heard of the money being paid their wise Fanwood brethren after they had said "go ahead" to a request for the anchor post privilege gratis and they too, are wondering how to get the better of the contract which they signed.

BOAT CAPTAIN RESCUED THEM

ALFRED BERRY MARSH AND WILLIAM PORTER ESCAPE WATERY GRAVES.

Camp Hope, Lake Hopatcong, August, 29, 1904.

Alfred Berry Marsh and William Porter had a thrilling experience Saturday while on the lake in a row boat. The two young men, in endeavoring to make fast time, made a sail our of a coffee bag and an oar, and had it not been for the prompt action of Capt. Jack, of the San Toy steamer, both young men would probably have been lost. The incident caused great excitement among the men and women on the pavilion, who happened to be out, and the captain had much trouble in keeping the young men above water while the rescue was being made.

The boys were busy Friday evening at the grand ball given at the dance pavilion by the musicians, taking care of the dancers and spectators. The Hope boys, as in previous years, had full charge of the same. V. W. Nash, Jr., acting as floor manager, assisted by L. Texier and R. McVoy, while William Porter and William Hoffman had charge of the doors. About 150 couples made up the merry party, which stayed until early in the morning.

Visitor.

—Use Press Want Ads.

CHILDREN OF ISRAEL DEDICATE THEIR TEMPLE

Handsome New Edifice on New Street Formally Taken Possession of Yesterday.

A LARGE ATTENDANCE

SAMUEL DREIER OPENS DOORS WITH SOLID SILVER KEY.

Exercises Continue Until Late at Night—Principal Address of the Day Was Made by William Newcorn.

In the presence of nearly 1,000 people, many of whom were from various religious denominations throughout the city, the handsome new Temple of the Congregation of the Children of Israel, located on New street, was yesterday formally dedicated and taken possession of by the band of worshippers. The exercises were of decided interest to both participants and observers and were carried out in a highly satisfactory manner.

Beginning at 3 o'clock with the formal opening of the Temple doors by a silver key in the hands of Samuel Dreier, the congregation and its friends took possession of the building. Kalman Rothberg, the president, called the gathering to order and in his official capacity introduced the various speakers. Prayer was offered by Rev. H. L. Weinburg, of Boston, in opening, and was followed by Rev. M. A. Bernstein, of Elizabeth, who made an address in which he congratulated the people on their success in securing so beautiful a home.

As he concluded Assemblyman William Newcorn was introduced and made the address of the day in English. Although his remarks were extemporaneous they were fraught with salient religious points in keeping with the occasion. He traced the history of Judeaism from its inception to the present day, dwelling upon the fact that it was the beginning of all religious faiths wherein there is a belief in the Supreme Being. He pictured the obstacles which have beset the path of the Hebrew race for thousands of years, yet while its numbers have been scattered over the earth its religion is as firm and everlasting as when the tribes were together. He paid a tribute to the race's religion as having elevated mankind, promoted art, science and laws. Directing his remarks toward the congregation he pointed out the duty that lies before the members in order to upbuild their Temple, care for their needy and establish Sabbath classes for the children.

A short address in German was given by Rev. M. A. Wondrowski, of Elizabeth, and another in English by Rev. Weinburg. As the latter concluded, Mr. Newcorn arose and in behalf of I. A. Compass, of New York, who has been greatly interested in the growth of the local congregation, presented it with a silver pointer, handsomely engraved, which is used in reading the Holy Scroll. It was accepted by President Rothberg with an able response and then a second presentation of a Scroll was made by Samuel Dreier. The latter is a costly work of art containing the Five Books of Moses, in hand lettering. Mr. Compass has been one of the warmest supporters of the Temple movement and at the corner stone laying ceremonies he paid $100 for the privilege of setting the first brick in is place.

The church exercises concluded at 6 o'clock, adjournment being taken at that time for one our. Reassembling at 7 o'clock the congregation members and visitors adjourned to the lower part of the building where nine long tables had been arranged for the serving of a banquet. Fully 500 people sat down to the feast and as it progressed many impromptu addresses were made by leading members of the congregation. It was 11 o'clock before the last one was given and the exercises were declared at an end.

The building will now be occupied regularly for services and meetings and in course of time other branches of church work will be established. Yesterday's exercises were arranged and in charge of the building committee composed of Morris Abrams, Samuel Dreier, Harry Dreier, Kalmon Rothberg, Julius Shrager and Jacob Sacher.

—In Neuman Brothers' vegetable display tomorrow: Evergreen and Country Gentleman corn, lima beans, lettuce, string and wax beans and many others. Large lot to select from.

PLAINFIELD, TWO; WESTFIELD, NOTHING

By Playing an Errorless Game the Local Team Wins the Seventh Contest in Series.

BASSFORD'S 3-BAGGER

PUTNAM STRIKES OUT THIRTEEN MEN AND ALLOWS BUT FIVE HITS.

"Al" Farmer Receives An Ovation Westfield in Hard Luck —The Scores in Detail.

For the third time this season the Plainfield A. C. whitewashed Westfield in the seventh contest in the series on Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon, and the local fans were happy. The score was 2 to 0. Putnam, of the New York Americans, who has been pitching for Providence, twirled for the local team. He struck out thirteen men and allowed but five hits. He was caught in fine style by "Al." Farmer, whose return to the game here was the occasion for a great ovation. The Plainfield boys played a perfect game, not an error being charged to them. Bassford aroused the cranks in the eighth inning by making a corking three bagger and coming home on a wild throw by Quinby.

Westfield was somewhat in hard luck. Cotter, the regular catcher, did not show up and Rochford went behind the bat for several innings when he injured his hand. Patience then caught and Rochford went to first base.

There was more or less kicking about Merity's decisions, but the opinion of the crowd was that he was generally fair. His work was a decided improvement over that of Watt, the Westfield man. A fast double play by Courtney and Smith concluded the contest in the ninth.

The score in detail:

PLAINFIELD A. C.

	R	1B	PO	A	E
Cusick, 2b	0	0	1	1	0
Bassford, rf	1	1	1	0	0
Oregan, lf	1	2	0	0	0
Courtney, 3b	0	1	1	3	0
Dietrich, cf	0	0	0	0	0
Farmer, c	0	2	12	1	0
Smith, 1b	0	0	12	1	0
Walton, ss	0	0	0	1	0
Putnam, p	0	0	0	6	0
	2	6	27	13	0

WESTFIELD.

	R	1B	PO	A	E
Quinby, 2b	0	0	1	0	1
Seward, rf	0	0	1	0	0
Smithson, ss	0	0	0	3	0
Rochford, 1b, c	0	2	9	1	1
Barry, 3b	0	0	2	1	0
McManus, lf	0	1	1	0	0
Patience, 1b, c	0	1	8	1	0
Mallen, cf	0	0	1	0	0
Waller, p	0	1	1	1	0
	0	5	24	7	2

Score by innings:

Plainfield..1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 x—2
Westfield..0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

Earned run—Oregan. Two-base hit—Oregan. Three-base hit—Bassford. First on balls—Off Putnam 1; off Waller 0. Struck out—By Putnam 13; by Waller 10. Left on bases—Plainfield 5; Westfield 5. Double plays—Courtney to Smith, to Courtney. Wild pitch—Putnam 1. Passed ball—Rochford 1. First base on error—Plainfield 1. Hit by pitcher—Mallen. Time of game—1 hour 45 minutes. Umpire—Merity. Attendance—1,500.

First inning—Quinby started the game by fanning the breeze, Seward walked, Smithson hit at three good ones and then sat down, Rochford singled, Barry died, Cusick to Smith. NO RUNS.

Cusick foul flied to Barry, Bassford did the fan act, Oregan cracked a two timer to left, Courtney singled to right, scoring Oregan, Courtney stole second, Dietrich flied to Mallen. ONE RUN.

Second inning—McManus out, Putnam to Smith; Patience singled, stole second, Mallen struck out, Putnam's wild pitch advance Patience to third, Waller struck out. NO RUNS.

Farmer singled through second, Smith hit to short stop, forcing Farmer at second, Smith reaching first on fielder's choice, Smith advanced to third on Rochford's passed ball; Walton struck out, Putnam died, Smithson to Patience. NO RUNS.

Third inning—Quinby struck out, Seward out, Cusick to Smith; Smithson flied to Cusick. NO RUNS.

Cusick foul flied to Patience, so did Bassford, Oregan singled, Courtney

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.)

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

TenEyck & Harris are now ready to take your order for the winter's supply of coal. The firm guarantees the quality to be the best and the prices are right.

Dudley Miller, the Park avenue druggist, has the reputation for fair dealing. His drugs and medicines can always be depended upon to be the best in the market.

Charles E. Vail, the Park avenue jeweler, would like to show you his handsome stock of fine jewelry, diamonds, watches and novelties. He is sure he can please you.

Ring up Fred Ivamy and order some of his fresh fish for tomorrow's dinner. All kinds of fish are received daily, and in no place in town can you secure better service.

John Wirth, the baker, has fresh pastry and bread any time you want it. All orders are promptly attended to. If you haven't had any of those pies that mother used to make, you can get them at Wirth's.

The Hotel Kensington needs no introduction. It is already known as the best hotel in town. Meals served at any time of the day or night. The hotel is conveniently situated, being but three minutes from he station.

When you place your savings in the Dime Savings Bank you can rest assured that they are absolutely safe. Depositors in this institution never lose any sleep or worry about their account and besides they get a liberal interest.

Get your lunch at Ted Clevely's North avenue restaurant when you're in town again noon time. You can pick up a good "feed" there at any time. It's an "all night." They fix you up well, too. You've been in before, drop in again.

The First National Bank is the best assurance for your money which you can possible want. If you are not satisfied with your present investment, place your money where you know you've got it. Don't lose your money on poor investments.

The Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company have excellent teas and coffees. If you have not yet tried them you owe yourself a treat. The prices on these goods are very reasonable. You can't get better value anywhere. Read the advertisement in The Press ad columns.

J. P. Kirch, the mason, is looking for your contract. Ask anyone, neighbor or inspector, about Kirch's work. Foundation work a specialty. Look him up and get an estimate before you award your masonry contract, if you are going to build. He can save you money.

When you are in search of high grade groceries and first-class cuts of beef, go to S. Schener & Co.'s store on West Front street. You will not only get the best, but the prices will astonish you and please you as well. This firm is out for business, but the quality of goods is never sacrificed for the price. That is why such success is attained

Just because the big clearance sale held all last week at the "Fair," on West Front street, has been concluded, don't think that there won't be a continuation of bargains, at least in other departments. It will pay you to keep your eye on the ad of that enterprising West Front street firm; by so doing you can save many dollars in the course of a month's shopping.

LITERARY.

Collier's Weekly, in the issue of August 20, editorially says: "We are reading every day speculations on whether 'Mr. Murphy' is to be allowed by Judge Parker to name the Democratic nominee for Governor of New York. As long as this system of selecting the people's servants continues in vogue, the principles of a man like La Follette will be the most living issues."

Up the Hudson.

On August 4, 18 and September 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run its usual midsummer excursion to the "Upper Hudson," under personal escort. Special excursion tickets will be sold on these dates for regular trains arriving at Jersey City prior to 10:05 a. m., good to return on same day on any regular train leaving Jersey City after arrival of steamer. A stop will be made at West Point, giving those who disembark an hour and a half at that point, and enabling them to view the United States Military Academy. In order to insure an early return, no stop will be made at Newburgh, although the steamer will run to a point off that city and there turn. Round-trip rates: Princeton, $2; New Brunswick, Metuchen and Perth Amboy, $1; Rahway, 80 cents; Elizabeth, 75 cents; Newark, 50 cents. Proportionate rates from other points.

7 26 6 o a w

George M. VanOrden, of Stonybrook road, is confined to his home suffering from an attack of malarial fever.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

With the line now open to Trenton, there is every possibility that the line will soon be connected with the Camden and Trenton line, thus making it possible to go from this city to Atlantic City and Cape May, and the most southern town in New Jersey.

By the purchase of the Trenton and New Brunswick line, the Public Service Corporation has secured a complete service between Jersey City and Trenton, and all that it now requires for the through service from the latter city to Camden, is the Camden and Trenton line with which it connects. It is very probable that this line will be shortly joined to the Public Service Corporation as negotiations to that end have been under way for some months. The addition of this company would give the big corporation a through system from Jersey City to Woodbury, and thence to Glassboro, and other South Jersey towns.

Word has been received from the Plainfield young men who have been spending the summer at the Silver Bay Hotel, Lake George, N. Y., reporting that they are having a fine time. M. K. Heicher, instructor in the North Plainfield High School, and Raymond Stevens, of Grandview avenue, have been spending the entire summer at the hotel, and Al and Christopher Utzinger have recently gone up for a week's stay. The young men have been running a store during the summer, and have found the occupation much to their liking. Mr. Heicher is bookkeeper at the hotel general store, and Stevens is clerk. Recent letter from the clerk announces that a short time ago there were seven hundred college girls at the hotel and nearby cottages while evidently there was a great shortage of men. The general household furnishing and souvenir store at the hotel was the scene of all the attraction, and a rushing business was carried on during the few weeks. The young men are intending to return about the last part of next week. Mr. Heicher will resume his duties as instructor and Mr. Stevens will return to college.

Work of demolition commenced recently on the barn in the rear of the premises occupied by Mrs. Mary Jenkins, at Sixth and Washington streets, by Alexander Kane, the contractor, has brought to light much in the methods and material of construction which tend to show that the building was erected almost 120 years ago. The lumber used for frames and joist proves to be solid oak, 12 inches square, fastened together throughout with pegs instead of spikes. The outside lumber is Georgia pine. The bone of a human leg was found on one of the larger beams of the building, where it was placed twenty years ago by Dr. Jenkins. The incident was entirely forgotten, and only brought to the doctor's mind by the discovery of the workmen. Contractor Kane believes the building to have some time belonged to a man of his own occupation, as in remote chambers in it were found various pulleys, machinery and tools, doubtless used in housemoving. Aside from these there was a hetrogenious collection of colonial household goods and farming implements. The old barn has been standing on its present site about fifty years and was moved there in the time of Dr. Jenkins' father, from its former position at Fifth street and Watchung avenue. Contractor Kane characterizes it as the most interesting building he ever demolished.

Judge Coddington at Asbury.

Judge W. A. Coddington, of Plainfield, who for fifteen years has been the law partner of ex-Senator Charles A. Reed, is among the recent arrivals at the Bristol. The judge is well known in Asbury Park, where he has as many friends as he has at home. He boasts of a fair supply of avoirdupois, and it is said when he enters the ocean for a bath the waters swell with pride.—Asbury Park Press.

$8.00 to Niagara Fall and Return Via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Grand Labor Day excursion. Tickets on sale September 2 and 3, good returning until September 5, inclusive. A trip of four days to the famous Cataract at minimum cost. Side trip tickets to Toronto and Alexandria Bay on sale at Niagara Falls, at low fares, to holders of excursion tickets. Ask city agent, 218 Front street, for further particulars. 8 19 11

Mrs. A. G. Kellogg, of London, Eng., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place.

Alexander Irvine, who addressed the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday, and who preached at Warren chapel, was the guest of Joseph W. Gavett, of Third place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph K. Miner, of this city, are at Oriskany Falls, N. Y. Mr. Miner returned home yesterday and Mrs. Miner will remain away for several weeks.

The Fair

130 West Front Street, Plainfield

Last Day Of The CLEARANCE SALE

Grasp the importance of this event. The last day of the Great Clearance Sale. Then come to The Fair tomorrow prepared to find the greatest money-saving opportunities ever presented. Tremendous Price Concessions, making the day memorable for its Unparalleled Savings.

Great Sale of Women's Garments.

	WERE	NOW
White Washable Shirt Waist Suits	4.00-5.98,	1.98 to 2.98
Fancy Washable Suits	3.90-7.50,	1.98 to 3.98
Washable Dress Skirts	75c-2.98,	43c to 1.69
Tailor-made Suits	10.00-25.00,	4.48 to 9.98
Tailor-made Skirts	2.48-10.00,	1.19 to 4.98
Silk Skirts	10.00-12.50,	4.98 to 6.98
Covert Coats	7.50-10.00,	3.48 to 5.98
Silk Coats	7.50-10.00,	3.98 to 5.98
Silk Waists	2.48-3.98,	1.39 to 1.98
Children's Silk Coats	5.00-10.00,	2.48 to 3.98

Women's Hosiery.

Cotton Stockings, fast black, seamless, double feet, heel and toe, value 15c, special at..... 10C

Women's Imported Cotton Stockings, Richelieu ribbed, Hermsdorf dye, also a lot of over lace Stockings in black. Not a pair worth less than 25c, at..... 19C

Women's Vests.

Regular 15c Cotton Ribbed Vests, low neck, no sleeves, neck and arms neatly finished, very elastic. They come in pink, blue, black and white; 15c Vests, at..... 10C

Women's 25c Vests or Pants, Vests are either straight or shaped, 29c values, at..... 19C

Sale of Corsets.

Summer weight Coutille, Batiste and Net, straight front, French shapes and girdles in pink, blue and white, 50c to 75c values, at... 48c-25C

Sale of Wrappers.

Women's Lawn Wrappers, light and dark figures and stripes, with fancy braid, embroidery and lace trimming. 1.00 and 1.25 values, special this sale at..... 75C

Infants' and Children's Wear.

Children's Body Skirts of Cambric, wide hem, 25c. Infants' long Slips, finished with ruffle..... 25C

Children's Suspender Dresses of Chambray, with white Lawn Waists, 89c values, at..... 59C

FREE TRIP TO MEXICO

The finest equipped special train that ever crossed the Continent will leave New York City on December 3rd, 1904, for the great La Luz mining district in Mexico. This trip will be absolutely free—every expense being paid by this company.

The Richest Gold and Silver Mines in the world are located in the La Luz district, which has produced nearly two billions of dollars, one mine alone having produced over one hundred and thirty-six million dollars.

We have an exhaustive historical report on these famous mines which we will send free to all inquirers, together with particulars of the free Mexican trip. Send for it at once.

"LA LUZ DRAINAGE & TRANSPORTATION TUNNEL CO."

705-709 Pennsylvania Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

Continued Special Prices on Summer Goods.

Window Screens—The adjustable pattern—hardwood—
18 inches high, 17c each — 24 inches high, 22c each
28 inches high, 26c each — 30 inches high, 27c each

Screen Doors—98c—Hardwood, fancy spindles, hardware, complete..... 98c

Ten per cent Reductions on all Oil Stoves, Ovens, Refrigerators, Ice Chest, Water Coolers, Hammocks.

Ice Cream Freezers—
Alaska—3 quart size,....1.78 — 4-quart size,.....2.19
White Mountain—3-qt...1.98 — 4-quart size.....2.42

"THE NEWEST THING OUT"

Combination Rod and Reel

See it in our show window.

A. M. Griffen, 119-123 E. Front St.

Pants Clearance.

Positively the best values ever offered in Men's and Boys' Pants will be found here during this Clearance Sale. Our usually low prices have been still further reduced, and the result is a genuine surprise to every purchaser.

Men's and Boys' strong working Pants, reduced to..... 75c

Strictly all wool Pants, that will stand washing well, reduced to..... 1.90

Fine fancy worsted Pants, regularly sold for 3.50, reduced to..... 2.50

Finest all wool worsted Pants, equal to any custom made, never sold less than 6.00 reduced to. 4.00

Our reductions in Suits still continue. Same applies to Furnishings, Hats and Shoes.

The Surprise Store

324 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

REMEMBER THE NUMBER.

THE BALANCE OF THE $19,000 SALE

Must Be Sold This Week. Cost Is Not Considered.

Don,t miss this great opportunity, buy your goods now while the prices are in reach of everyone. No matter what your circumstances may be, you can't afford to miss this sale.

Our 20.00 and 15.00 Ladies' Tailor-made Suits reduced to..... 5.98

Our fine line of Jackets and Skirts must be sold and will be sold at 25c on the dollar.

In order to prove our statement we refer you to the thousands of buyers who have attended this sale.

Boston Cloak and Fur Store

245 West Front Street, Plainfield. Opp. Postoffice

TRY 5 GALLONS

WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER.

Orders by mail promptly filled.
Patent swinging crate, very convenient

Plainfield Spring Water Co
Box 745. Plainfield, N. J.

Jos. W. Gavett.

FRUIT JARS. JELLY GLASSES.

STONE POTS.

. . . JAR RUBBERS . . .

WE GIVE BLUE EXCHANGE STAMPS THEY ARE THE BEST

I. H. BOEHM

109-111-113 West Front Street.
126 Park Avenue.

AUGUST SALE.

We are offering Special Bargains in all Departments, but lack of newspaper space permits the mentioning of only a few of the many good values we are offering.

7c yd—500 yds of new Dress Ginghams, extra quality and all new patterns, val. 9c and 10c yd.
8c yd—1,000 yds of extra heavy Outing Flannel, all new Fall patterns and good colors, val. 11c yd.
10c yd—500 yds Mercerized Voiles, in pink, old rose and light green, reg. price 25c yd.
12½c yd—Special lot of new White Goods, extra fine quality and very desirable patterns, value 15c and 18c yd.
59c yd—10-4 white and gray Blankets, extra heavy quality, reg. value 75c pair.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

49c—Men's Madras Shirts, all new goods and nice patterns, reg. price 75c and 1.00 each.
49c—Men's sateen working Shirts, in black and white stripes and plain black, value 69c.
49c—Men's black and white Cheviot working Shirts, reinforced back and front, val. 69c ea.
95c—Men's Madras Shirts, extra fine quality Madras and extra well made, reg. sold for 1.25 ea.
25c—Men's working Shirts. We are selling an extra good working Shirt for 25c, in black and white stripes, made of good quality Cheviot, value 39c.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

We are showing our new Fall lines of Ready-to-Wear Felts. We have only the newest and most up-to-date styles, in all colors and prices.
Our assortment of Millinery is the largest and prices the lowest in the city.
We are showing all that is new and up-to-date in Breasts, Pompons, Shapes, etc.

HATS PURCHASED HERE TRIMMED FREE.

Trouser Sale.

Timely Summer Needfuls at Slaughter Prices.

2,000 Pairs on Sale.

Prices cut in two—½ off.
Style and Price alike, will tempt you to purchase.

WERNER'S Clothing House....

206 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

THE USE OF

REYNOLD'S PETROLEUM HAIR TONIC

Means Healthy Scalp, Natural Growth of Hair (no falling out), No Dandruff. 50 cents bottle. Prepared only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG

Corner North and Park Aves. THE APOTHECARY. Plainfield, N. J.

ICE CREAM

Wholesale and Retail.

I have vacated my store on Park avenue and am still making PURE ICE CREAM AT 32 BANK PLACE.

All orders by 'phone (No. 470y) or mail will receive prompt attention.

LAKE HOUSE NOW OPEN. JOHN H. TIER.

Advertise in The Daily Press.

RUSSIANS RETREAT

St. Petersburg Admits Defeat, With Heavy Loss.

SIX GUNS, FIFTEEN HUNDRED MEN

Driven Out of Anshanshan, They Fall Back Toward Liaoyang—General Kuroki Cuts the Railway Near Mukden.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Advices from St. Petersburg say that the emperor has received the following telegram from Lieutenant General Sacharoff:

"The troops under my command have retired slowly on Anshanshan. The Japanese bombarded our fortified position, and we replied with such effect that the Japanese were compelled to move their bivouac from Tamsema to Baccizai.

"The hottest fighting occurred on the left flank, where our losses were 200.

"The Japanese had five divisions.

"In the southeast we repulsed all the Japanese attacks, while our troops on the right flank assumed the offensive and drove the Japanese toward Tousinanu and Tasintupu. Our losses there amounted to 400.

"There was a vigorous engagement on the east front, the Japanese advancing on Anpinlan (Anping). They were repulsed, though we had no artillery, the battle being carried on at the point of the bayonet.

"Our troops finally retreated on their principal positions, supported by artillery.

"The Tamboff regiment defended one position from 1 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when its colonel was wounded. The regiment was then driven out of its position by the fire of Japanese guns from the heights.

"We retired on our new positions, while the Japanese advanced to Taempin by way of Yudiukau.

"Six guns were abandoned. Our losses amounted to 1,500."

Advices from Liaoyang say that the Russians have retired from Anshanshan after a fight which commenced on the morning of Aug. 26 and continued in a desultory manner all day and night.

A furious general attack along the whole Russian line by Generals Kuroki's and Oku's united forces has begun.

Kuroki's attack is directed first against Anping, thirteen miles southwest of Liaoyang.

At the same time General Oku has attacked Anshanshan, about ten miles farther south and midway between Haicheng and Liaoyang.

The rapid advance of the Japanese forced their fighting line to within about ten miles of Liaoyang east and south, and their guns have been heard north and east on the Tiatse river.

They have succeeded in commanding Kaofengshik from Paoshankan, where their advance first began on Aug. 25, and also from their position at Liangchikshan, on the east, in such a way as to force the Russian center and right flank, compelling the evacuation of Anshanshan. The Japanese south front is therefore much nearer to Liaoyang.

Japanese shells from a concealed battery in the vicinity of Paoshankan have been falling in the road west of Kaofengshik leading to Liaoyang, thus threatening to sever communication to the west. The Russians still control the road to the north.

As the Russians did not reply to the fire of the battery the Japanese apparently suspended their operations to reconnoiter, while the Russians fell back to a more favorable position.

The gradual withdrawal of the Russians before the Japanese advance the Russians consider as increasing the security of their position, as it is freely acknowledged that the Japanese are able to beat them in detail in the mountains. The Russians generally praise the Japanese ability and valor.

Heavy firing has been heard in the direction of Anshanshan.

A Liaoyang report says that the Russian forces have been disappointed by another unexpected withdrawal. The whole eastern division and the troops on the Anshanshan position have been ordered to fall back to positions nearer Liaoyang just as the soldiers were expecting another advance.

A report from the field headquarters of the Second Japanese army says that the Japanese have driven the Russians back from the first line of defenses outside of Anshanshan. The fighting was confined to an artillery duel and lasted all day, the Japanese troops then advancing toward Liaoyang. General Kuroki has seized and cut the railroad south of Mukden, thus separating the Russian forces and cutting Liaoyang off from a direct line of retreat.

The fighting reported occurring east and southeast of Liaoyang is regarded here as preliminary to a larger contest in the immediate vicinity of Liaoyang. It is expected that Generals Kuroki, Oku and Nodzu will press forward speedily with their commands.

Arrangements for a battle had been completed when the order to retire was given on account of the situation to the east.

The plain between Anshanshan and Haicheng is covered with Japanese troops, who have burned the bridge and shelled the railway station after the Russian retirement.

The Russian losses amounted to 300.

The Japanese are advancing with great rapidity.

A Chefu report says that the Russians have been driven from the fort immediately east of the railroad. This fort is named Rihlungshan and is located on the Tail of the Dragon hills, along the summits of which the eastern defenses of Port Arthur are built.

During the night a heroic band of 300 Japanese attempted to capture fort No.

5 in the midst of a storm. Almost the entire detachment was killed. The Russians since have evacuated fort No. 5 but whether by reason of this assault or the Japanese artillery fire cannot be learned. The Japanese are unable to occupy the fort.

A special from St. Petersburg says that a joint commission representing the foreign and marine ministries, to be presided over by Professor de Martins, professor of international law at the University of St. Petersburg, will sit forthwith to consider the distinction between conditional and absolute contraband of war. The result will be communicated to the British and American ambassadors by the end of the week, and it is believed that it will tend to the removal of existing causes of friction.

A Chefu report says that the Japanese have captured Poyodo, a fort midway between Takushan and the eastern defenses of Port Arthur, and reduced another fort immediately east of the railway. Poyodo mounted only two small guns when the Russians were in possession of it. The assault was preceded by a heavy artillery fire from Takushan, where the Japanese have big naval guns. The Russians lost considerably before they were compelled to retire.

The fort on Liaoti mountain has been fired on from six Japanese torpedo boats, but the result of this action is not known. The Russian marines have left the ships in the harbor and are working at the land batteries.

Shells from the Japanese fire continue to fall in Port Arthur and the dockyards, and the warships have scattered about the harbor in attempts to protect themselves from the enemy's projectiles.

The battleships Retvizan, Poltava and Sevastopol are badly damaged. The first mentioned ship rests low in the water by the stern. The battleship Pobieda is in fighting condition. There are also four gunboats and several torpedo boat destroyers in the harbor. The recent report that eight destroyers escaped from Port Arthur cannot be confirmed.

The Japanese are constructing forts at Louisa bay, northwest of Port Arthur.

WILL NOT STAND DELAY.

Japanese Insist on Immediate Disarming of Warships.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Japan has addressed a note to the powers informing them that unless Russia forthwith disarms her warships in Shanghai Japan will be forced to take whatever steps she deems necessary to protect her interests. Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, called at the state department and left with Mr. Adee, the acting secretary of state, the communication of the Tokyo government.

To a correspondent Mr. Takahira said: "While Japan sincerely hopes that the reported intention of Russia to disarm the Askold and Grozovoi at Shanghai will promptly be executed, my government has felt that it was advisable to inform the powers what must necessarily be its attitude in the event that the disarmament of the Russian ships is delayed. The conditions at Shanghai are peculiar because of the many international interests there, and my government is desirous of giving these interests every consideration."

"Will it be necessary to send a Japanese squadron into Shanghai and take away the Russian ships, as was done with the Ryesheltelni at Chefu?" the minister was asked.

"My government has not indicated in its note to the powers," the minister replied, "just what steps will be necessary if the Russian ships are not immediately disarmed. But it should be remembered that the Ryesheltelni was not completely disarmed when seized by the Japanese, and under the circumstances her presence in Chefu was exceedingly disadvantageous to Japan for military reasons."

When the minister called at the state department he spent some time in conference with Acting Secretary Adee, but further than to receive the communication Mr. Adee was careful not to disclose the attitude of this government, although the minister was assured that the continuation of Chinese neutrality was earnestly hoped for by the United States. The minister told Mr. Adee that Japan had been informed by China that the Russian ships would be disarmed, but as far as the legation here knew no official date for this action had been named.

It is understood that a note similar to that presented by Mr. Takahira was also delivered at the various foreign offices by Japan's diplomatic representatives.

Artful Wins the Futurity.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—On the wide and splendid track at Sheepshead Bay the brown filly Artful, a royal daughter of the great Hamburg, won the rich Futurity stakes and crowned herself the champion two-year-old of the season. Tradition was second. And thereby came about the downfall of the grand Sysonby, the kingly colt of the Keene stable, who, according to all horse lore and tradition, could not be beaten, but only got third place in this great race.

Murder In First Degree.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Aug. 29.—The jury in the case of Ira Green and William Dillon, on trial for the murder of Turnkey Jerry Condo several weeks ago, when they escaped from the county jail, has rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. A motion has been made for a new trial.

Randall Knocked Out Ruhlin.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 29.—Eddie Randall of St. Louis knocked out Harry Ruhlin of Philadelphia in the fifth round of what was to have been a twenty round contest before the North Side Athletic club last night.

NEW JERSEY'S TWELVE-ACRE STORE.

HAHNE & CO.,

BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STS., NEWARK.

Close Friday Evenings; Open All Day Saturday and Evening as Usual.

Prices Drop Lower and Lower

As September days come on.

Summer Goods Must Go.

For we want their room for Fall and Winter supplies.

Thousands of Sacrifices Made on articles of wear and for home, that can be used even as far away as December.

They Must Be Closed Out.

Come and participate in the deepest cut down in profits of the whole year.

Our Store Looks As Bright and beautiful, almost, as at the opening of a season. Broad aisles, perfect ventilation and light, corteous attention and prompt service.

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

HAHNE & CO., NEWARK, N. J.

We Are PREPARED to put up the best awnings at most reasonable prices. A good awning properly put up will last for years. Let us estimate on yours.

We have specially interesting prices on Carpets, Mattings and Window Shades.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON, Babcock Building

THE PLEASURE of a smoke depends on the quality of the Cigar! Spend the lazy hours of your vacation in smoking and you'll find you've got your money's worth every time. Our Cigars are good and the price is low. Sold singly or by the box.

OUR CIGARS,

KIRBY'S

106 Park Avenue, Plainfield.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

PARK AVENUE,

Opp. North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Dealers in

BEST LEHIGH COAL,

LUMBER,

MASON MATERIALS,

&c. &c.

Sole Agents N. J. Pulp Plaster

Use Press Want Ads.

IF you have never succeeded in getting glasses that improved your vision, don't you think it advisable to drop in and see us? It will cost you nothing unless you choose to give us an order.

STILES & CO.

Philadelphia EYE SPECIALISTS

107 E. Front St.

Every Thursday.

Hours:—11:15 a. m. to 1 p. m. and 1:45 p. m. to 4:30 p m.

Just received an assortment of new style

BOX PAPERS.

Also a full line of the leading Magazines and Weeklies constantly on hand.

Harper's,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HOAGLAND'S

EXPRESS and BAGGAGE TRANSFER.

Office 302 Park Ave. Tel. 322 W.

MARCHANT'S MILK IS THE STANDARD-BEARER of HEALTH

OUR customers appreciate the excellent quality of our milk—they know by experience that it comes up to the high standard of merit and healthfulness we claim for it—that it is unequaled for PURITY and RICHNESS.

Use our milk in your home.

Marchant Bros.,

Plainfield Milk and Cream Co.,

191 North Avenue.

A Big Business on a Small Scale is done here. We serve a great number of customers with choice

Roasts, Chops, Steaks,

Provisions and Poultry. Special care is taken in warm weather in selecting meats. Inferior grades of meat are not permitted to enter our store. Our hygenic cold-air refrigeration is the only one in the city, thus ensuring health, fine flavor and condition, that's why our meats taste so good. Try a nice Leg of Lamb for your Sunday dinner. Prices are lower than ever.

Fine Fresh Fish of all kinds can be found in our Seafood Department. Saturday special sale

FRED ENDRESS

131-135 W. Front St.

Delicious Peaches.

We are offering tempting inducements in fine Peaches—their rich, juicy flavor and excellent quality will delight your taste.

Come here for Peaches for canning, preserving and eating raw.

W. W. DUNN.

The Park Grocer,

Duer Street and Lincoln Pl.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Only about 150 Special Bargains of High Class, properly restricted, residential and business locations, on Martine Estate on Park, Prospect, Watchung, Kensington, Hillside, Martine and Thornton avenues, and New avenue, to be an extension of Evergreen avenue. 80 feet wide, from Hillside to Park. Titles insurable. Prices low. Terms easy. Buyers of lots can have houses built to their own order, on terms easier than renting. Your own Broker, or WELLES & CO., 45 Broadway, N. Y. J. F. MACDONALD, 149 North avenue, Local Manager. Telephone.—Don't Delay.

The Park Stables.

Livery and Boarding.

108 Somerset Street

Telephone 493 J. North Plainfield.

High-class Horses and Carriages. Prompt Service.

JAMES D. FRAZER.

FRANK VAN WINKLE

129 North Avenue

Bicycles Photo Supplies

Kodaks and Cameras

Bicycles stored, cleaned and repaired

Developing, Printing and Mounting a specialty

Now is the Time to get cheap lumber. New White Pine Flooring, Window and Door Frames, Siding, etc. You can Save 50 Per Cent.

on this lumber.

ALEX. KANE,

312 Filmore Avenue.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.

START NOW TO

OWN A HOME

of your own by taking out shares in

THE CENTRAL Building and Loan Asso'n.

OF PLAINFIELD.

J. F. MacDonald, Sec'y.

Smalley Building, No 149 North avenue 4 14 tf

MULLINS & SONS

89.50 Will Furnish 4 Rooms.

A Little Down and A Little A Week Will Furnish A Home.

Why Pay More Elsewhere?

COUCHES

BEAUTIFUL COUCHES, in an almost endless variety are found here; deep, rich colors. Made for solid comfort.

3.75 to 75.00.

COUCH—Plain design, hardwood frame, upholstered in velour.....3.98

COUCH—Handsome velour covering, tasty, neat and latest style, comfortable head, tempered steel springs; good value at 10.00. Special....7.50

AT 22.00—This Couch is upholstered in very fine grade velour, fancy tufted seat, handsome hand-made fringe, made by expert mechanics, and at this price is really a snap for some folks. Special.....22.00

GO-CARTS

What a marvel of lightness and compactness is our Folding Go-Carts — They are so light and so easily handled.

FOLDING GO-CARTS—Golden oak, neat design, takes up very little room.....1.98

AT 7.50—Reed Body; the woodwork is of maple; has patent foot brake, green enameled gear, strong and durable, worth 10.00. Special...7.50

AT 11.50—Made of a very high grade of selected reed; the strong and supporting post is wound with the same material and all being well finished in shellac; the running gear contains everything known in the line of up-to-date improvements. It is a bargain at.11.50

PARLOR SUITS

WELL-MADE FIVE-PIECE PARLOR SUIT, mahogany finish, with covering of figured damask, soft springs. Special..... 16.50

AT 24.75—It is an elegant suit, made in the finest manner, mahoganized frame neatly carved, beautifully and thoroughly upholstered; steel tempered springs; several styles of coverings; real value 36.50. A strong special at 24.75

HERE'S A SUPERB PARLOR SUIT, fully 16.00 under what it's really worth; exquisite inlaid marqueterie work in this 5-piece Parlor Suit, sumptuously upholstered in damask, two different patterns of highly polished frames. Specially priced at..... 29.75

UPRIGHT REFRIGERATORS $4.10.

MULLINS & SONS.

218 Market Street, Newark, N. J.

Campaign Pocket Knives

Like the Candidates,

First-class,

Fully Guaranteed

and all right on the Tariff.

GAYLE HARDWARE CO.,

Front St. and Park Ave.

Trolley Rides

these warm days, and evenings, are pleasant and healthy.

A convenient destination, or stopping-off place, is Newark, and our Soda Counters and Ice Cream Parlors are convenient to all car lines. A plate of Ice Cream, any two flavors, 10c; or a glass of Ice Cream Soda or other cooling drink at 5c makes a suitable addition to the evening's jaunt.

Office 151 Market Street

Two Stores, 157 Market and 671 Broad, Newark N. J.

Factory 136-38 Front St

BUTTERMILK

WHY YES

we make it fresh every day, and Potcheese, too. Try some.

LINDSAY DAIRY,

Tel. 451 J. FARM MOUNTAIN AVENUE.

-:- PUTNAM & DEGRAW -:-

Royal Tooth Powder, can.....10c
Royal Talcum Powder, can.....10c
Mennen's Talcum Powder, can.....18c
Witch Hazel, bottle.....10c
Violet Toilet Water, bottle.....25c
Lyons' Tooth Powder, can.....19c

A NOTED PRELATE

Randall Davidson, Archbishop of Canterbury.

IS GIVEN WELCOME TO AMERICA.

Primate of All England and Head of Episcopal Church—Holds One of the Most Ancient Titles Under the British Crown.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—A great welcome was given the Right Rev. Randall Davidson, archbishop of Canterbury, his wife, the Rev. J. H. J. Ellison, vicar of Windsor, and the Rev. Hyla Holden on their arrival in this city on the White Star liner Celtic by Episcopal church dignitaries here.

The archbishop went direct to Quebec and preached in the cathedral in that city, the occasion being the one hundredth anniversary of the dedication of the church. With his party he will also go to Montreal and Toronto. Dr. Davidson is to receive an honorary degree from the Toronto university. In Boston the primate will attend the triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church early in October. He expects also to visit several other American cities.

Special precautions have been made to guard the party against interviewers, it is said, and a special detail of clergymen will aid in this work.

The archbishop of Canterbury, part of whose title is primate of all England, is head of the Church of England and as such takes rank immediately after the royal family, outranking even the dukes not of royal blood. The title of archbishop of Canterbury is very ancient, and among its holders have been some of the most celebrated of English statesmen and churchmen.

The present archbishop was born in Edinburgh on April 7, 1848. He was educated at Harrow and Trinity colleges and was enthroned as archbishop in February, 1903, succeeding the late Dr. Temple. As prelate of the Order of the Garter the present primate was thrown into close association with the court of King Edward, and it is to this association that his ascendency has been ascribed. Dr. Davidson is the first archbishop of Canterbury to visit the United States.

MURDER AT MILLERTON, N. Y.

Myron Wooden, a Farmer, Died Soon After Being Found.

LAKEVILLE, Conn., Aug. 29.—Myron Wooden, a farmer of Chapinville, has been found lying at the rear of Borden's condensed milk factory in Millerton, just over the state line in New York, in a terribly battered condition, and a few hours later he died. His skull was crushed, and near him was found a heavy club, one end of which was covered with blood.

It is the belief that he was murdered for the purpose of robbery, as members of the family stated that when he left his home he had with him over $500 in cash and a draft for a small amount of money. When found the money was gone. There was every evidence of a terrible assault, and an investigation was immediately begun, which resulted in the arrest of Jacob Holder of Salisbury.

It was learned that Wooden and Holder were drinking together in Salisbury early in the day and that the two had started out in the direction of Millerton. A coroner's inquest was held, and Holder was subsequently released, as there was no evidence strong enough to hold him even as a suspect, as he proved that he left Wooden several hours before the latter was found in Millerton.

Wooden was sixty-nine years old and was a prosperous farmer. The day on which the assault took place he sold his dairy, consisting of over fifty cows aside from other farm stock. All the money that he received from this sale he took with him when he left his home.

Train Was Five Days Late.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 29.—The first of the belated and storm bound passenger trains which started for this city over the Santa Fe lines through Arizona, but which were forced to turn back at Albuquerque, N. M., owing to washouts and made a detour via the Southern Pacific from Deming, has arrived in Los Angeles five days late. It carries a party of 202 Canadians en route to San Francisco and is known as the Cuthbert special.

Opponent of P. T. Barnum Dead.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 29.—Frederick Hurd, one of the foremost citizens of this place and vice president and treasurer of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Manufacturing company, is dead, aged seventy-two. He was prominent in politics and at one time was the Democratic candidate for mayor, having as an opponent the late showman, P. T. Barnum, who carried the city in the election.

Chicago Bunched Hits.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Lundgren of the Chicago Nationals was at his best and held Philadelphia safe at all times and allowed but one run, which was scored in the final inning. Chicago made their runs by bunching hits with bases on balls and errors. Donahue's fielding was the feature. The score: Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 1.

Canada's Police For Hudson Bay.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 29.—The Canadian government proposes to charter the sealing steamer Erik to proceed to Hudson bay again with coal, provisions and outfitting material, accompanying the Dominion steamer Arctic. The Erik will take also detachments of the northwest mounted police, landing them at centers where it is intended to establish police posts.

THE DAILY PRESS.

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

305 North Avenue. Telephone Call 6z.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year—in advance. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada. Delivered by carrier or by mail.

THE PRESS has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district. Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day MUST be in this office by 9 a. m.

WHILE ON YOUR VACATION, DON'T FORGET TO HAVE THE DAILY PRESS MAILED TO YOU, AND IN THIS WAY KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME DOINGS. NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR MAILING, AND ADDRESS CHANGED AS OFTEN AS DESIRED. BEST SERVICE GUARANTEED.

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 29, 1904.

A Liberty Corner man who died a few days ago was "an intimate friend of Lincoln." Personal friends of Lincoln and Washington chairs are both plentiful.

An advertisement of food ought to be so appetizing that it actually leaves a flavor in the reader's mouth. There is a restaurant in New York which has the idea. I can read its advertisements twenty minutes after a hearty meal and feel a robust hunger growing in me as a result of its wholesome suggestiveness.—Ex.

In an effort to show that the political complexion of the next House of Representatives is doubtful, the New York Herald dwells at length on the situation in New Jersey. The defeat of the Republican ticket in Union County it attributes to race prejudice, Dr. Jefferson Anderson being the majority party's candidate for coroner. It does not even mention the factional fight between the Kean and Fowler forces, which was the cause of the county being thrown into the Democratic column.

Public safety demands that some action be taken to prevent any more accidents at the trolley station, that section of a public thoroughfare known as Watchung avenue, between North avenue and Second street. On Sunday an automobilist ran down a woman at that spot while the street was crowded with stalled trolley cars. Many similar accidents have occurred there in the past and the warning has not been heeded. Sooner or later some one is bound to meet with a fatal accident. The thoroughfare should be open at all times and there is no sensible reason why the trolley company, or any other concern, should be allowed to occupy it. The trolley company should be compelled to have its station on private property.

AT LAST DEFEATED DUNELLEN

NEW MARKET NINE WON THE FOURTH GAME IN THE SERIES.

New Market defeated Dunellen Saturday for the first time, winning the fourth game of the series. In the first inning Dunellen scored. Giles made a three base hit, followed by Craig's single, which brought in the only run. In the fifth inning the infield made a series of errors and Smith was hit freely, which gave New Market four runs.

After that Dunellen settled down and only gave New Market a run in the seventh inning, but could not score. A feature of the game was four double plays, and Giles' three base hit in the first inning.

The line up:

Dunellen—Matthews, c; Smith, p; Garvey, 1b; Fletcher, 2b; Craig, 3b; Hill, rf; Alberts, cf; Monahan, lf; Giles, ss.

New Market—A. Nelson, c; Squiers, p; Martin, 1b; W. Nelson, 2b; Conover, 3b; S. Nelson, rf; Peddington, cf; Waglow, lf; Mack, ss.

Score by innings:

Dunellen..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
New Market..... 0 0 0 0 4 0 1 0 x—5

Base on balls—Smith, 1; Squiers, 1. Struck out—Smith, 5; Squiers, 4. Two base hits—Mack, Conover. Three base hits—Giles. Safe hits—Off Smith, 9; off Squiers, 5. Double plays—4 —Papers were issued Saturday in the landlord and tenant case of McVey against Dunn. The case is returnable on Tuesday, September 6, at Justice Hand's court.

—One hundred baskets of the very best Jersey peaches go on sale tomorrow early at Neuman Brothers'. The lot includes Mountain Rose, Old Mixer, Reeve's Favorite and Elberta.

PLAINFIELD, TWO; WESTFIELD, NOTHING

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

struck out. NO RUNS.

Fourth inning—Rochford flied to Dietrich, Barry out, Putnam to Smith; McManus singled, stole second, Patience struck out. NO RUNS.

Dietrich flied to Seward, Farmer singled, Smith struck out, Rochford let Walton's third strike get by him and he reached first, Putnam struck out. NO RUNS.

Fifth inning—Mallen out, Putnam to Smith; Waller struck out, Quinby struck out for the third time. NO RUNS.

Cusick foul flied to Barry, Bassford flied to McManus, Oregan died, Waller to Rochford. NO RUNS.

Sixth inning—Seward out, Putnam to Smith; Smithson struck out, Rochford out, Walton to Smith. NO RUNS.

Courtney struck out, Dietrich out, Smithson to Rochford; Farmer struck out. NO RUNS.

Seventh inning—Barry fanned, Farmer dropped the third strike, throwing his man out at first, Farmer to Smith; McManus fanned also, Patience's undoing was from Putnam to Smith. NO RUNS.

Smith hit to Rochford, Waller covering the first bag, Rochford to Waller; Walton out, Barry to Rochford; Putnam hit at three good ones. NO RUNS.

Eighth inning—Mallen was disputing a called strike with the umpire when he got hit with a pitched ball, Putnam got back at him by catching him asleep at the first corner, Putnam to Smith; Waller singled over second, Quinby sacrificed from Courtney to Smith, Seward hit the breeze. NO RUNS.

Cusick fanned, Bassford drove a corking three timer over Mallet's head, scoring on Quinby's bad throw to third to catch Bassford; Oregan flied to Rochford, Courtney struck out. ONE RUN.

Ninth inning—Smithson struck out for the third time, Rochford placed a nice single out in left garden. One of the prettiest plays seen on a diamond took place when Barry hit to Courtney, who was playing in for a bunt. Instead he got a hot grounder, put it to first retiring Barry, Smith returned the ball to Courtney in time to catch Rochford four feet from third, completing a fast double play, Courtney to Smith to Courtney. NO RUNS.

Elmer Walker, of Somerset place, has gone to Chicago, where he intends locating permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hagar, of New York, are visiting Mr. Hagar's sister, Mrs. Mary A. Smith, 128 Grove street.

Charles E. Case, stenographer in Justice Hand's court, has returned from a ten days' vacation at Valley, Hunterdon county. His wife accompanied him.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, etc., etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

OF ALL SIZES.

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Clearing the Surplus of Furniture.

All through August we have been busy clearing out the storehouses making room for Fall shipments, and this week we make the general clean up. There are as many good bargains and some better, but the quantity in many instances is limited.

SALE OF MATTRESSES.

Mattresses at 1.98.
Filled with excelsior, with soft tops, fancy striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 6.98.
The Union Felt, made in two parts, full 45 lbs, good quality fancy striped ticking.

Mattresses at 2.50.
Cotton top, excelsior filled, with blue and white striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 9.50.
The Purity Felt, superior to the best quality hair, made in two parts, full 45 lbs.

Mattresses at 3.98.
Combination, with cotton top, bottom and sides, one or two parts. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 10.98.
The Windsor Felt, equal to any high grade Mattress made, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

Mattresses at 5.98.
Pure white cotton, full 45 lbs, best grade of ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 15.50.
Ostermoor patent elastic Felt, best quality ticking, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

SALE OF PARLOR ROCKERS.

Parlor Rockers, 3.98 quality.....2.50
Parlor Rockers, 4.98 quality.....3.50
Parlor Rockers, 6.50 quality.....4.98
Parlor Rockers, 9.50 quality.....7.98

SALE OF DINING TABLES.

5.00 Tables, now.....3.98
8.98 Tables, now.....7.50
9.98 Tables, now.....7.98
10.98 Tables, now.....8.98
11.98 Tables, now.....9.98
12.98 Tables, now.....10.98

SALE OF BED OUTFITS.

The prices named include Bed, Spring and Mattress.

Bed Outfit No. 1—Regular price 8.50, sale price..... 5.98
Bed Outfit No. 2—Regular price 10.50, sale price..... 7.98
Bed Outfit No. 3—Regular price 12.50, sale price..... 9.98
Bed Outfit No. 4—Regular price 15.00, sale price..... 12.98
Bed Outfit No. 5—Regular price 17.00, sale price..... 14.98
Bed Outfit No. 6—Regular price 19.50, sale price..... 16.98

SALE OF COUCHES

Reg. 5.00 Couches now.....3.48
Reg. 6.50 Couches now.....4.25
Reg. 8.00 Couches now.....5.98
Reg. 10.00 Couches now.....7.75
Reg. 12.50 Couches now.....9.25
Reg. 15.00 Couches now.....10.98

SALE OF SIDEBOARDS.

The 10.98 ones, now...9.25
The 11.98 ones, now...9.75
The 12.98 ones, now..10.75
The 14.98 ones, now..12.50
The 18.50 ones, now..14.98
The 19.98 ones, now..16.50
The 21.50 ones, now..18.25
The 29.50 ones, now..24.75

SALE OF DINING CHAIRS.

Three patterns of solid Oak Chairs, quarter sawed and polished, specially priced at 1.29, 1.48 and 1.78.

SALE OF PARLOR SUITS.

A number of three and five piece Suits that we offer at greatly reduced prices.

SALE OF BEDROOM SUITS.

Several good patterns specially priced this week to make room for the new Fall patterns.

OUR CAKE DEPARTMENT

is one of the most busy departments, so kindly leave your orders as early in the day as possible, to make sure of prompt deliveries.

WOODHULL & MARTIN.

FREEHOLD AND PLAINFIELD N.J.

Levy Bros' TWO STORES

MORE SPLENDID VALUES.

115-117 West Front Street 'Phone 220 Plainfield, N. J.

Our Great Alteration Sale with its many Bargains puts forth unusual attractions for tomorrow.

1.50 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 98c

2.00 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 1.48

45 inch table Oilcloth, yard.....14c
Extra large and heavy Huck Towels, value 15c, for.....10c
75c quality blue and black Brilliantine, 52 inches wide, yard.....49c
3 special lots all Silk Ribbons.....10c, 12½c, 15c
All extraordinary values.

Children's 50c white Aprons.....35c
Summer Corsets.....19c
Shirt Waists, were 75c, for.....39c
Lot of Umbrellas, very elaborate silver plated handles.....85c
Window Shades with fringe, were 49c and 39c, now.....29c
Boys' 25c School Stockings.....15c

Extra heavy Muslin, (unbleached), value 9c, for.....6½c
All wool Dress Goods for School Dresses, value 50c, yard.....19c
1.25 Wrappers.....69c
98c Wrappers.....49c
Black Mercerized Underskirts, worth 98c, for.....49c

Ladies' Fall Walking Hats in the Latest Effects, Now on Sale.

17th ANNUAL

Excursion OF THE Plainfield Grocers' Association TO CONEY ISLAND, Labor Day, Sept. 5, 1904,

Via Central Railroad to Jersey City, then by Iron Steamboat "Coney Island"

A long day at the shore! Last excursion of the season.

Leave Dunellen at 7:45, stopping at Grant Ave. Leave Plainfield at 8 a. m. Returning—Steamer leaves Iron Pier, Coney Island, 8:40 p. m.

Fare from Plainfield—Adults 85c. Children 65c. From Dunellen 95c. Children 75c.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS

August 17, September 2, October 4—St. Louis Exposition. These are all ten-day parties.

Office: 181 North Avenue, Plainfield

Plainfield Property

For Sale, To Let and Exchange.

Now is the right time to buy—have some bargains.

IRA L. LARUE, Coward Building, 109 Park Avenue.

YOUR EDUCATION HAS BEEN NEGLECTED

If you have not been taught the value of money and the advantage of SYSTEMATIC SAVING.

DO NOT ALLOW YOUR CHILDREN

To reach the age of manhood and womanhood without a little money of their own to help them along.

The PENNIES that they have saved,
The DOLLAR that you will add, (and oftentimes more,)

AND THE

DIME SAVINGS INSTITUTION

will accomplish a good result for them.

USE PRESS WANT ADS.

When the Bell Rings Look Out When Passing PECK'S STORE Look In.

ESTABLISHED 1888 E. H. CLEVELY. TELEPHONE 308 W

Restaurant and Lunch Rooms.

OYSTERS will start season on Saturday, August 27. For a good Stew or Fry, follow the crowd.

Horton's Brick Cream 40c a quart.

Take home a Brick. Will keep hard one hour.

155, 157, 159 North Avenue, Opposite C. R. R. Depot.

Local Agent For Horton's New York Cream.

Wholesale——Retail.

KIRCH J. PHILIP KIRCH. CIGARS

We are offering as a special inducement during the dull season, short smokes, such as Robt. Burns, Petit Ducs, Hoffman House, Magnums, Telonettes, and all high grade Tobaccos and Turkish Cigarettes at reduced prices—just to liven things up. The latest is to have your Monogram on your Cigarettes. The additional cost is slight.

120 NORTH AVENUE. Phone 487 J.

Whether you need clothing or not buy it now and profit by these

AUGUST SACRIFICE PRICES.

You never saw better bargains than we are offering in our Great August Sales. If you value economy you can't afford to miss this event.

$15.00 Suits reduced to..$7.95
$12.00 Suits reduced to..$6.50
$10.00 Suits reduced to..$5.95
$8 & $9 Suits reduced to..$4.75

$3.50 & $4 Trousers reduced to.....$2.00
$3.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.69
$2.50 Trousers reduced to..$1.45
$2.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.25
$1.50 Trousers reduced to..85c

The Princely Shirt, regular 75c values, special at.....45c

Regular 50c Balbriggan Underwear reduced to.....25c

Special 20th Century Collars, all styles and all sizes, regular 15c collars, special at.....7c

Boys' Wash Suits in all the latest styles, regular 75c kind, special at.....39c

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

202-204 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Straw Hats, Negligé Shirts Fancy Socks J. R. BLAIR 205 Park Avenue Summer Underwear etc., etc.

SILK UNDERWEAR AT $2.00 PER SUIT

FINEST FRESH FISH.

You are assured of getting the finest Fresh Fish procurable when you order of Ivamy—we guarantee the quality. Come to us for the best selection of Bluefish, Mackerel, Weakfish, Porgies, Soft Shell Crabs, and in fact every good Fish in season. Prices reasonable.

Special Cash Sale Saturday.

FRED. IVAMY.

Successor to Rogers & Co.,

232 West Second St.

Telephone 140.

Brokaw's Creamery

Everything clean, sanitary and up-to-date.

My own make of Butter is simply elegant, so we are told every day; and our Sweet Butter without salt is selling like hot cakes.

My Buttermilk is unsurpassed, everybody says it's the best in the city. A trial will convince you.

One specialty is Fresh Eggs direct from the farm.

Call and we will be pleased to show you what a first-class Creamery is like.

We have everything in the Dairy line, also a nice line of Crackers and Bread.

186 East Front St.

Butter, Milk, Poultry and Eggs

direct from the best Jersey farms.

Also Ham, Bacon, Bolognas and Sausages.

H. H. Smith,

228 Park Avenue, Opp. North.

WARD & COMPANY,

Manufacturers' Agents, 104 McWhorter St., Newark, N. J.

N. J. Representatives for the following:

For a SUMMER BEVERAGE there is nothing like TEA-ETTE

The Tea Free from the Poisonous Tannin.

BOSTON BROWN FLAKES, The only Perfect Breakfast Food.

MALT CREAMLET COCOA, The only Digestible Cocoa and Chocolate.

LYTHIA POLARIS WATER, The King of Table Waters.

MONOGRAM SPICES, Strictly Pure. And Other Specialties.

Send for our weekly Price list, as we are constantly receiving large quantities of all kinds of groceries, some of which may interest you.

WARD & COMPANY,

104 McWhorter St., Newark, N. J.

8 29 eod tf

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER.

JAMES BRONIS, Agent.

Olivers rented. Other makes repaired. A postal to P. O. Box 761 brings Bronis. 8 4 1m

THE PRESS is for Sale at—
UNION NEWS CO. . . . . E. R. Station
J. M. HARPER . . . . . 411 Park Ave
E. A. LAING . . . . . 140 W. Front St
A. D. HALLIDSON, Fourth and Liberty Sts
TROLLEY WAITING ROOM . . Watchung Ave
M. ESTIL . . . . . 111 Park Ave
W. E. MATTISON . . . . . 84 Somerset St
GEO. SCRIBNER . . . . . 231 Watchung Ave
J. HATFIELD . . . . . 218 Watchung Ave

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from any of the following agents for 10c a week.
DUNELLEN . . . . . Wm. Giddes
" . . . . . George Vliet
NEW MARKET . . . . . Herbert Dunham
SOUND BROOK . . . Union News Company
SOMERVILLE . . . . . John Cornett
WESTFIELD . . . C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
SCOTCH PLAINS . . . . . Chas. Elliott
SOUTH PLAINFIELD . . . . Walton Smith
CLINTON AVENUE. Mrs. Meeder, John Ryan
FANWOOD . . . . . Chas. Elliott
BETHERWOOD. L. Uhdal, J. Kiley, T. Leacock
(THE PRESS is also on sale at station.)

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Lester Meserole, William Giddes, Charles Lake and Herbert Wyckoff attended the baseball game, Saturday, in Philadelphia, between the Jersey City and Philadelphia office teams. The company furnished two cars to take all the visitors to the game.

Robert Love, of the Y. M. C. A., had charge of the morning services in the Methodist church yesterday. In the evening, John LaMatta, of the same organization, conducted the service.

The Rev. L. E. Livermore occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church. This was his last preaching before leaving for Connecticut this week.

Miss Edith Boice is spending a few days at Lake Hopatcong with Mrs. P. W. Brakeley and family, who are camping out there.

New Market supporters are very jubilant over their victory Saturday, which they expected in the first game of the series.

Miss Hattie Case and Miss Louise Loudy have returned to Brooklyn, after a two months' stay with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vail, and Miss Birch, of Paterson, spent yesterday at Mauch Chunk, on the Central's excursion.

Miss May Frace, of Clinton, has returned from a visit with Miss Lulu Gise, of North avenue.

Mrs. Margaret Morris is spending some time with her son, William Morris, of Plainfield.

Mrs. John Doty and family spent Saturday with the Hope chapel excursion at Ocean Grove.

Miss Frieda Mundy, of Springfield, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Case have returned from a week's visit with friends in Trenton.

Miss Lilie Kennedy has returned from a visit with friends in West Hoboken.

Miss Lulu Adams returned Saturday from a week's vacation at Ocean Grove.

Miss Mabel Fritz, of Dover, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vail.

Charles Corieli returned yesterday from a week's stay at Ocean Grove.

Harry Boice, of Metuchen, visited friends in town Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Runyon is confined to her bed with illness.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The Colored Giants, of Plainfield, proved to be an easy-mark for the local team on Saturday, the home team winning as they pleased by the score of 27 to 2. Frenta and MacCauley, who were in the points for the home team, proved to be too strong a combination for the visitors, while the support back of them was up to the usual standard. The colored team claimed they were weakened by being unable to bring their regular team, so asked for a return game for Saturday afternoon of this week.

The marriage of Miss Clara Southard, daughter of Elias Southard, of Cook avenue, and David Gordon, of Plainfield, will take place Thursday night at the home of Rev. G. M. Shott. The nuptial event will be a quiet affair owing to a recent bereavement in the bride's family.

Good service was given Sunday by the trolley company. Cars were run regularly during the afternoon under an eight minute schedule. This gave the travelling public cars enough to accommodate all.

Miss Nancy Wade led the weekly meeting of the Epworth League held last night in the Methodist church. The meeting was well attended for a summer's evening session of the League.

The usual crowds were at Galvin's Park yesterday. Sacred concerts were held in the hall both afternoon and night. During the afternoon a balloon ascension was held.

The grandstands at the ball grounds has been sold to the West End team, of Somerville, who took up the local team's schedule of games when the team disbanded.

The local fans in full force were at Crescent Oval, Saturday afternoon, watching Alis give Manager Denman's team another coat of whitewash.

A combination of local and Berkeley Heights talent played the Summit team Sunday afternoon on the Berkeley's diamond. Berkely won 9 to 8.

The weekly B. Y. P. U. meeting was held last night in the parlors of the Baptist church. No evening preaching service was held.

Mrs. Edward L. Hand, who had a set back from her recent serious illness by catching a severe cold, is improving again nicely.

John E. Flannery, of East Second street, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. George H. Johnston, of Westfield avenue.

John Haskard, of Morris avenue, Plainfield, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. John R. Haskard, of Grand street.

Rev. G. M. Shott, who is taking his annual vacation from pastoral work, has been spending a week at Block Island.

Mrs. Agnes Monte, who has been spending two weeks with Miss Susie Parse, has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

James Foley, of South Orange, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Wahl, of Mountain avenue.

One week from tomorrow the public school reopens, much to the regret of the younger element in town.

Miss Mattie Hull, who has been spending her vacation at Forty Forts, Pa., has returned home.

James B. Medhurst has been entertaining relatives from New York over Sunday.

The Misses Shackleton entertained friends from out of town yesterday.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

County Superintendent Willis has sent out a circular letter, calling the attention of the boards of education to the necessary preparation that should be made for school opening, by the cleaning of all school rooms, halls, closets, yards and out buildings, such being required to make the school building legal under the law entitling to school money.

It has been stated that the proposed trolley line extension on Park avenue to Metuchen, is being held up by the refusal of some property owners along the line.

Mrs. W. H. Manning visited in New Brunswick the latter part of last week.

Mrs. D. S. Patterson is spending a week in New York.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—William Jeffery, of Mountain avenue, the real estate boomer, will take up his residence on Duer street in a few weeks, having purchased the Otto Ebel property, No. 95, near Park place.

—The canning season is on and Neuman Brothers have prepared for it. Don't fail to get some of these choice Bartlett pears that go on sale tomorrow. Seventy-five baskets of them at low prices.

—A free trip to Mexico in one of the finest equipped special trains is offered by the "La Luz Drainage and Transportation Tunnel Company, of Philadelphia, Pa." See adv on page two of this issue.

$9.50 Toronto, Ont., and Return via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Tickets will be sold Sept. 2 and 3, good returning until Sept. 10, inclusive. Ask agents Lehigh Valley for further particulars. 8 29 5

Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge H. Neal, of New York, are guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Apgar, of East Front street.

Mase Edwards, of West Seventh street, returned last evening from Caseville, Mich., where he has been sojourning. Mrs. Edwards will remain at Caseville two weeks longer.

There's a Difference In DRUGS.

There's a greater difference in drugs than most people are aware of.

For instance—Common table salt costs ten cents for a 3 lb bag at the grocery; but the same thing, only purified, costs 27c a lb. Commercial Sulphuric Acid costs 2 cents, while chemically pure costs 35 cents. Commercial Murate of Ammonia costs 11 cents, but the chemically pure costs 55 cents. So it is all along the list.

For ordinary purposes the regular is all right—but when it comes to using it medicinally, then the BEST should always be used.

When we fill your prescription you always get the PUREST and BEST carefully compounded.

L. W. Randolph,
The City Pharmacy,
143 West Front Street.

BUTTER

THE KIND THAT ALWAYS PLEASES.

Rockdale Print, lb - - 25c
Rockdale Creamery Butter, lb 24c
Elgin Creamery Butter, lb - 23c

The quality of this butter is unsurpassed by any in the State.

Neuman Bros
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St.

PERSONAL.

Miss Grace Emmons, of Jackson avenue, has been sojourning at Asbury Park.

Miss May Squier, of Astor place, is home after a week's stay at Asbury Park.

Martin Kane, of Brooklyn, is visiting at the home of his parents on West Third street.

Mrs. John H. Cose and children, of Spooner avenue, have returned from a week's stay at Asbury Park.

Mrs. John Raleigh, of Westerly, R. I., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waters, of East Third street.

Jos. Connors, of West Third street, is home after an extended trip through the west inspecting postal stamping machines for the Government.

—Ralph C. Runyan and family have removed from 16 West End avenue to 103 Manning avenue.

EDUCATIONAL.

Mr. Leal's School For Boys.

1882—1904

Has sent boys to College every year for twenty-two years.

Boys have entered sixteen different Colleges, but the great majority have gone to Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Columbia.

Junior Department receives boys 9-10 years of age.

Next school year begins on Tuesday, September 13th.

JOHN LEAL,
Principal.

Cedarcroft School

For Boys

Opens September 14th.

For information apply to
R. M. HUSE, Principal,
8 15 1m 1003 Park Ave., Plainfield.

Plainfield Seminary

will re-open
Thursday, Sept. 15, 1904.
Thirty-seventh Year.

Principals { MISS KENYON / MISS ARNOLD

New York Law School } 35 Nassau St., New York City. { 'Dwight Method' of Instruction.

Students may take Day School or Evening School. LL.B. in two years; I. L. M. in three years. High standards. Prepares for bar of all States. Send for catalogue.
8 1 eod 2m GEORGE CHASE, Dean.

Plainfield Business College
Opens September 1

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION.

Miss Emerson, pupil of Prof. Markees, Berlin, Germany. Fall term begins Sept. 9. Babcock Building, Studio 305. For particulars address Carnegie Hall, 874, New York.

--BOYNTON BEACH--

A High Grade Park of Refined Amusement.

GRAND HOPS

Every Week-day Evening (Monday excepted.)
Cavall's full orchestra constantly in attendance.

Special Attractions For This Week:

Vaudeville Theatre—Madam Meyers, Bearded Lady Astrologer and Palmist. The wonderful Bamboo Slide. Picture Gallery and Music Parlor.

All trolleys direct to Beach.

CARD OF THANKS.

Please allow me through your paper to express in the name of my bereaved mother and family our heartfelt thanks to those persons who were kind to my father in his sudden sickness. Mrs. Cenger, of Mountain avenue, who threw her house open to him in his dying hour, is one of the real heroines of civilization, and these feebie utterances compare odiously with the magnificent reward that awaits her in Heaven. Most respectfully,
ED. GALBRAITH.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
Steam Granite Works.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Townsend's Granite Works,
Fourth and Richmond Streets.
Tel. call 2214. Westfield trolley passes my office.

T. A. MOORE
Undertaker and Embalmer
Office—508 Watchung Avenue Telephone
Residence—503 LaGrande Avenue 491-J
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

GEO. W. COLE
Undertaker and Embalmer
200 W. Second St. Telephone 153
Office Open Day and Night.

Established 1872
P. CASEY & SON
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Res. 417 W. Third St.
Office open day and night. Tel. 1082

WANTS AND OFFERS

Advertisements under this head one cent per word for first insertion and half a cent per word for each additional insertion. No advertisement received for less than ten cents.

☞ Please be sure and mention that you saw the advertisement in The Daily Press.

GOOD young cow for sale cheap. Apply corner Arlington avenue and Randolph road. 8 29 3

TO LET—Three rooms, newly papered; all improvements. 147 East Fifth street. 8 29 3

ALLIGATOR bag, 18x12 inches, little used; cost $18; will sell for $7. Address Alligator, care Press. 8 29 3

DRESSMAKER, at home or out by the day. 428 East Sixth St. 8 29 4

APARTMENT to let, with steam heat. Wm. M Stillman. 8 29 tf eod

YOUNG horse, also cart, for sale; no reasonable offer refused. Call 68 Willow avenue, borough. 8 29 6

GOOD painter wanted. Apply at new house, corner New and Fourth Sts.

HORSE for sale; 7 years old, perfectly sound; sell low if sold at once. Address Horse, care Press. 8 29 3

7 ROOM house to let. 645 East Sixth street; $14.

STORE to let; $15.

12 ROOM house to let; 533 Belvidere avenue; $45. Charles H. Hand, 819 Watchung avenue. 8 29 3 eod

LOST—Saturday evening, watch fob, with initials C. P. M. Reward for return to 1121 Dunellen avenue, near Albert street.

SALESMEN WANTED—Exceptional opportunity. Address Ward & Co, 104 McWhorter street, Newark, N. J. 8 29 tf eod

WANTED—By Scotch girl, situation as chambermaid, waitress or nurse; good personal reference from present employer. 1001 Central avenue. 8 29 3

WILL be pleased to have a description of your property for sale or exchange. William Jeffery, 221 Park avenue. 8 29 tf

WANTED—Reliable person as maid to wait upon elderly lady. 515 Park avenue. 8 29 3

$2,000 to loan on first mortgage; improved property. Apply to Albert Lederer, 115 West Front street. 8 29 3

TWO nicely furnished front rooms to let reasonable; all improvements. 811 Madison avenue. 8 29 6

BOARD and rooms; superior accommodations for those desiring refined home in private family. Address Private, care Press office. 8 29 3

WANTED—An experienced girl for general housework; white preferred. 50 Washington avenue. 8 29 tf

WANTED—At once, white cook and laundress to assist with housework, in small family. Call, with references, 510 West Seventh street.

IF you have any real estate, for sale, exchange, or to let, send or bring full particulars to Charles L. Moffett, No. 109 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 15 tf

ALWAYS have list of desirable properties for sale or rent; fire, life, burglar and accident insurance; first mortgage loans. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

CROCHET baby shoques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. 4 6 tf

WANTED—A $3,500 house centrally located; East Second street preferred; also have a cash customer for a $1,400 house. Abbett & Manning, 168 North avenue. 5 18 tf

FOR SALE—Choice building lots on West End and Rockview avenues at reasonable prices; best location in North Plainfield; short distance from Grant Avenue station and trolley; 50x170; restricted from $1,800 houses up. Call or address P. S. Browne, 109 Park avenue. 7 11 tf

FARMS for sale; real estate and insurance. Wm. H. Rogers, Plainfield, N. J. tf

TO LET—Eight-room flat over Powers drug store. Inquire Alex. Thorn, 87 Somerset street. 1 13 tf

LOTS at great bargain; plot 150x150 feet on Watchung avenue; $5 per foot. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

BARN TO LET on East Second street, near Watchung Ave. Apply at the Daily Press office. 6 7 tf

BIRDS, dogs, cats boarded week or month. Bird store, 48 Somerset street. 8 11 tf

WANTED—Second-hand piano; must be in good condition. Address O. N. A., care Press, stating price and name of make. 8 17 13

CELERY plants for sale; choice varieties. Thos. Mair, 20 Leland avenue, North Plainfield. 8 13 tf

WANTED—An experienced white cook. 1308 Watchung avenue. 8 17 tf

NEWLY decorated rooms with strictly first-class table; also table board. 1121 Putnam avenue. 7 30 1m

FOR SALE—A complete collection of foreign and American stamps; will sell as an entire collection or in lots to suit purchaser. Address Stamp, care Press. 8 9 tf

WANTED—Improved or unimproved property in or near Pittsburg, Pa., in exchange for a nice residence in Netherwood; house is modern in every respect with plenty of land, shade and fruit. Currier Bros, 119 West Front street. 8 23 tf

LARGE furnished rooms to let; reasonable. 127 North Ave. 8 25 6

WANTED—Experienced young man in butcher shop. Apply 198 Somerset street. 8 26 3

WANTED—White girl for general housework in small family; reference required. 633 East Front street. 8 26 3

WANTED—Furnished house with stable; send full particulars and price. Address Furnished, care Press. 8 26 3

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 833 W. Front St. 5 10 tf

LOST—At ball game, yesterday, a gold watch. Finder will receive reward by returning to Roth & Co. 27 3

FOR SALE—Billiard table, size 5x9, first-class conditon; recently overhauled; including set balls, cues, rack and markers complete; $90. Address Billiards, care Press. 8 27 3

YOUNG lady wishes home in exchange for light duties, sewing, etc.; references. Address H. L., care Press. 8 28 3

TO LET—Furnished apartment in perfect order for light housekeeping; or table board near. 127 East Ninth street. 8 27 3

SACRIFICE SALE — Oldsmobile in perfect running order. Address Oldsmobile, care Press. 8 27 6

CHEAP, to close an estate; property, 112 Westervelt avenue corner Jackson avenue; lot 100 x 165 Apply Chas. J. Silvers, Executor, 772 Broad street, Newark, N. J. 8 27 3 s-m-w

TO LET—7-room house; all improvements; rent $16. Inquire 934 West Fourth street. 8 27 3

WANTED—A competent woman to do general housework; a good plain cook, who will also assist with washing; good references required. Apply at 238 East Ninth street, after 7:30 p. m. 8 27 3

ROOMS with board; also table board. 311 East Fifth street. 8 27 1m

LOST—Singer Manufacturing Co.'s receipt book. Return 331 West Front street. Reward. 8 27 3

WANTED—About October first, a house in Plainfield, furnished or unfurnished, for the winter or longer. F. D. Warren, 280 Broadway, New York City. 8 27 3

WANTED—First-class cook and laundress; colored. 911 West Seventh street. 8 27 3

OLD PAPERS for sale; put up in packages of 100 for 20c. Apply at this office. First come, first served 3 26 tf eod

PART OF HOUSE—To let, 3 rooms on first floor; 3 rooms on second and bath; all new plumbing. 808 Third place, 2 doors from Crescent Ave. 8 29 5

TO LET—Large, desirable double room; first-class table; at Mrs. Wagstaff's, 133 Crescent avenue. 8 29 6

LOST—A gold dagger, with pearls in handle. Return to Press office and receive reward.

TWO rooms for rent, unfurnished; city water. Address Pleasant Location, Press office. 8 29 3

WILL LOAN $7,000 on real estate; security, 6 per cent.; in sums to suit. R. Knox, Lawyer, 201 Park avenue. 8 29 4

Early Fall Sale of School Necessities

TUESDAY'S SPECIALS

Remember these specials are for Tuesday only, from 9 a. m to 5 p. m.

At 20c—Ladies' regular 29c Cambric Umbrella Drawers, with hemstitched ruffle. Limit—2 to a customer.

At 6 for 39c—Regular 10c good size Huck Towels.

☞ Watch this block for daily specials.

Fabrics Suitable For Children's School Dresses

At 39c—All shades in Scotch Plaids.
At 50c—Large and Small Plaids in light weight wool, very suitable for early fall.
At 45c—Washable PANAMA Suitings.
At 50c—Light weight Mixed Tweed
At 10c, 12c, 15c—White Apron Checks.
At 17c—Medium weight Figured Madras, for children's dresses and shirt waists.
At 12½c—Large line of DRESS PERCALES.
At 12½c—Various stripes and dots in Galatea.
At 12½c—Colored Duck Suitings, cloth design.

School Hose

Learn to order by number and thus always get what you want.

No. 5—Medium weight Boys' and Girls' School Hose..... 12c
No. 10—Extra quality Children's School Hose, medium weight, 15c
No. 15—Misses' Lisle Thread Hose, special,..... 19c
No. 20—Boys' Heavy Ribbed School Hose 20c
No. 25—Boys' Medium Weight Extra Quality School Hose,..... 25c
No. 30—Boys' Heavy Ribbed School Hose 25c
No. 35—Children's Medium Rib and weight Hose..... 35c

Machine Torchon Lace for trimming school dresses, 5c and 10c per yard.

Large Line of Embroideries, 3c and upwards

Rummage Sale.

Roasting Pan	Poker	ALL FOR 25c
Opal Decorated Pin Tray	Match Safe
Tooth Brush Holder	Potato Knife
1 dozen Butter Dishes	Rolling Pin
Frying Pan	Potato Masher
Stove Lifter	Box Stove Blacking

Tuesday, Wednesday

The original price of this list amounts to over $1.00.
Here is a chance to save over 75c on $1.00 worth of merchandise.

Hill & Shupp

FOR SALE CHEAP—7-room house, new; lot 40 feet front; flagged and curbed; terms to suit. W. H. Abbott, North avenue. 8 14 tf

FOR SALE—1033 feet front on Park avenue at Oak Tree Station, Lehigh railroad, $3 per foot; get after it quick if you want to make money. F. M. Bacon, 102 North avenue. 6 1 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place. 5 4 tf

SIX-ROOM flat, with improvements. Call 30 Somerset place. 5 6 tf

THE highest cash price paid for household goods, furniture, etc. Fred W. Hand, Auctioneer, 136 East Second St. 'Phone 1722. 4 25 tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room, central location, airy and cool; terms moderate. Address Moderate, Press office. 7 20 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for a paying business; 90 acres fertile soil near school, church and village; running stream; 2 houses and buildings in best condition; all stock and machinery; price $6,000, free and clear; for free and clear property. Ira L. LaRue, Coward building. 8 26 tf

TO LET—First floor of new house, corner Fifth street and Stanley place; five rooms; water in kitchen; rent $10. Apply Adam Young, 815 South Second street. 8 24 6

FOR SALE — Farm near Fanwood depot; over twenty acres; would make fine poultry farm; easy terms. Charles L. Moffett, Attorney, 109 North avenue. 8 28 tf

TO LET—10-room house. John Ross, East Sixth street. 8 27 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board, at 219 East Fifth street. 8 29 1m

FOR SALE—Properties from $1,600 to $17,000 to close estate, all in fine condition and good paying investments, and other properties for sale and rent; insurance placed in best companies; also several good lots for sale very reasonable. Mulford's real estate office, opposite depot. 7 15 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, 109 North avenue. tf

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ADVANCEMENT

Without danger to your present connections we assure you of consideration for every position you are competent to fill no matter where located. Our booklets tell how we can bring your ability to the attention of hundreds of employers who need high grade men for Executive, Clerical, Technical and Salesman positions paying from $1,000 to $5,000 a year. Offices in 12 cities.

Hapgoods (Inc.), Brain Brokers
Suite 512, 309 Broadway, New York

THE WALDORF
132-134 Crescent Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

Desirable rooms with board, all conveniences, refined surroundings, superior table, excellent service, transient and table guests accommodated. Summer season, United States Hotel, Ocean Grove, N. J. E. V. and A. L. Waldorf.

This is the man who caters to the 'inner man'

TIMBO'S DINING ROOMS
133-135 North Avenue. Tel. 372 J

Order what you will, you'll find it on our bill. Prices are low; Timbo makes them so.

Advertised Mail Matter.

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 29 1904.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Brooks, Mr William
Burnett, Mrs Clarence
Bonnett, Mr Wm P
Boucher, Mr T J
Campbell, Miss Jennie
Corinio, Mr Scarano
Dowell, Miss Florence
Edmon, J H 2
Galbraith, Mr Peter C
Henderson, Mrs Jean
Hoagland, Rev Warren
Holomes, Mr Biaggio
Higgins, Mrs John
Hetrick, Mr Geo W
Jansen, Mr I.
Jennings, Miss J
Jones, Miss Henrietta 2
Jannas, Mr. Alonso
Happyter, Miss Sofia
Laufenbach, Mr Howard
Michols, Miss Ray
Pakard, Miss Sara DeV
Roy, Miss Helen
Sea, Miss Ida
Sagersband, Mrs Mary
Schurs and Son
Scutter, Mr G W
Shiank, Miss Cora
Slotit, Miss Nora
Fettridge, Mr Samuel
Terry, Mrs M L
Ribbon Co, The United

Please say "Advertised."

Peach and Ice Cream Festival at Marconnier Chapel
Thursday Evening, Sept. 1,
(Benefit of Chapel.)
Tickets including Cream and Cake or Peaches and Cake 15c.

AUCTIONEER LATOURETTE says he had tender perspiring feet since childhood . .

Thorp's Foot Relief

cured them. Ask him about it. 50c per bottle. All druggists.

DR. JOS. E. WRIGHT,
EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE.
Office, Woodhull & Martin Bldg.
Hours Tues., Thurs. and Sat.
2-5 p. m., and by appointment.

DR. FRED HEINECKE
...GRADUATE CHIROPODIST...
For Ladies and Gentlemen.
Woodhull & Martin Building.
Also Manicuring by Mrs. Heinecke.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 6 p. m.

DR. E. B. STOWE,
Graduate Chiropodist,
For Gentlemen and Ladies. Babcock Building.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 6 p. m.
Telephone 367 w. All Instruments Sterilized

USE PRESS WANT ADS

OLDFIELD IS INJURED

Auto Wreck at the World's Fair Races.

FATAL TO TWO TRACK EMPLOYEES

Great Chauffeur Lost Control of His Speeding Motor Car—Struck Two Men Down, Badly Hurting Himself.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 29.—Blinded by the dust thrown by the swiftly moving machine of A. C. Webb of Toledo, O., Barney Oldfield of Cleveland, O., lost control of his machine in a false start of the fifth event of the world's fair automobile speed contest here and, crashing through the outer fence of the course, instantly killed John Scott, a watchman employed at the park, and inflicted injuries upon Nathan Montgomery, a negro, from which he died a few hours later. Oldfield was painfully injured and his machine completely demolished.

The accident occurred after a false start. The flagman vainly attempted to signal Oldfield and Webb, who were leading, that the start was not allowed, but they did not see his flag and continued around the course at a high rate of speed.

Shortly after passing the first turn of the mile track Webb secured the lead by a narrow margin, and the men were in relatively the same position when passing the three-quarter pole. In making the turn Webb's machine skidded and raised a blinding cloud of dust that completely blinded Oldfield and half smothered him.

Not being able to see that he had completed the turn, Oldfield continued his course and crashed through the fence.

When Oldfield failed to appear after Webb had emerged from the dust cloud there was considerable excitement, but as it was announced that he was not seriously injured and shortly afterward he was driven to the clubhouse in an automobile it was not generally known that the accident had resulted fatally.

The race, after a short delay, was run, being won by Webb by a large margin. It was the most important event of the day, the prize being the Louisiana Purchase exposition trophy, valued at $500.

DID NOT ACT.

Soldiers Charged With Neglect of Duty at Statesboro.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 29.—A local newspaper man testified before the court of inquiry into the action of the military at Statesboro at the time of the recent lynching. He said he saw the negro prisoners in Statesboro dragged along the road to the stake within thirty feet of the military camp where fifty men were drawn up in line.

It was testified that there was no movement at that time by the officers and men to rescue the prisoners. The mob of about 200 men were dressed in shirt sleeves, and very few of them were armed, so far as the witness could see. This was at the time Captain Hitch had been pinioned and surrounded in the court house, some distance away.

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE.

Hotel at Elmira Heights Wrecked by Miscreants.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The Avenue hotel at Elmira Heights, three miles away, has been practically demolished by dynamite.

The explosive was placed against the hotel under the window of the proprietor, Pearl Scott, who was in his bedroom. A hole ten feet wide was blown through the building, and the bedroom was completely wrecked. Scott miraculously escaped injury.

A stone building in the rear was demolished, and windows were shattered in all directions. There is no clew to the perpetrator of the outrage.

Parker Will Go to the Fair.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Judge Parker varied his usual Sunday programme by dining in Kingston. With his family he went to the city in his launch and attended service at the Church of the Holy Cross, of which his son-in-law, Rev. Charles Mercer Hall, is rector. After the service they went to dine at the residence of Alfred Tanner, whose wife is Mrs. Parker's sister. Judge Parker will go to Ellenville Wednesday on the special train which will carry a large Kingston delegation to the Ulster county fair. Judge and Mrs. Parker have made it their custom for many years to attend this fair.

Neck Broken In Auto Smash.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 29.—Edwin W. Hagar, president of the Xenia Strawboard works, has been killed in an automobile accident near this city. His body was found under the machine, buried in mud and water. His neck was broken. The position of the controlling lever indicated that the car must have been running at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred.

Senator Hoar Extremely Weak.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 29.—The following bulletin has been issued from the home of Senator George F. Hoar: "Senator Hoar took rather more nourishment than usual. He chatted freely with members of his family, but his condition still is extremely weak."

Gas Explosion Killed Two.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 29.—An explosion of gas in an iron furnace of the La Follette Coal and Iron company at La Follette, Tenn., has resulted in the death of two men and the serious injury of one other.

A BALLOON RACE.

Two Aeronauts Sailed From Fair Grounds at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 29.—Cheered by thousands who watched the start of the novel race, George C. Tomlinson of Syracuse, N. Y., and Professor Carl Meyers of Frankfort, N. Y., superintendent of the aeronautic concourse at the world's fair, soared away from here in their balloons on the first flight of their long journey to the Washington monument in Washington. Five thousand dollars is the prize offered to the man who gets there first or, failing an entirely successful termination to the aerial voyage, to the one who comes nearest to his destination.

The difficulty of the task before the daring travelers was shown in startling fashion soon after the start. The two balloons mounted together into an almost windless sky until they had reached a height of more than 3,000 feet. There they were caught by a strong upper current blowing from the east, and when last seen, two faint specks against the setting sun, they had been carried miles in an opposite direction to their goal.

Both men are unaccompanied, for they realize that in such a long flight as that before them every pound will make a difference to the sustaining power of the machines and that when once the gas begins to lose its buoyancy and escape success ultimately will depend on the amount of ballast that can be thrown over to counteract the gradual collapse of the big rubber bag.

"I am taking every pound of ballast my car can safely hold," said Tomlinson just before the start, "for I expect to be up so long that I shall have to use a great deal of it. There is a sense in which ballast is the life of a balloon even more than the gas with which it is charged."

Both balloons rose together when the last of the anchor ropes were cast loose. The first upward rush was so swift that the watchers gasped and forgot to cheer, but once they were floating high above the earth the speed of their motion was less apparent, and for a few minutes enthusiasm ran riot. From the start the two aeronauts were carried in a slightly westerly direction, but the wind was so light that presently they seemed to hang motionless, and for fully thirty minutes the eager thousands waited to see one or other gain the advantage. Both had reached an altitude of more than 3,000 feet when suddenly they struck a powerful current and, still almost side by side, swept away toward the west.

Both men have taken provisions and have with them carrier pigeons, which will be released at different points to report the progress of the race.

Balloon Did Not Reach Washington.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 29.—Employees of the St. Louis, St. Charles and Western Electric line have reported that Professor Carl Meyer of Frankfort, N. Y., who started from here in the $5,000 balloon contest with G. C. Tomlinson, has landed three miles northwest of St. Charles. He had traveled only twenty-one miles northwest from St. Louis. When Professor Meyer descended both balloons were close together and had been drifting northwest. Soon after the one came to earth, however, it was said the other took a more easterly course and was traveling rapidly when it disappeared. The aeronauts started for Washington.

DAVID B. HILL TO RETIRE.

Now Sixty-one, He Will Rest From Political Labor.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Today is the birthday of Hon. David B. Hill of this city, who will be sixty-one years old, having been born on Aug. 29, 1843. In conversation with some political friends here he has announced that no matter what the result of the present campaign might be, either in the state or nation, he should retire from political activity and leadership on the first day of January next and would not in the event of Democratic success accept any position under the national or state Democratic administrations or again become a candidate for election to any office whatever.

He stated that he had intended to take such action a year ago, but was persuaded by some close personal friends to defer doing so until after the presidential election this year, which he consented to do. Having been engaged in active politics since his youth and having served the people as city attorney, alderman, mayor, member of the legislature, lieutenant governor, governor for seven years and United States senator for six years, he feels that on the one hand he has been sufficiently honored by his party and on the other hand that he has rendered political service during a period of years sufficient to entitle him to be relieved from further active political effort in order that he may devote more time to his personal affairs and professional duties than he has in the past.

He will continue, however, his present arduous labors for the Democratic cause during the pending presidential election, and thereafter, while expecting always to maintain his interest in the success of Democratic principles and candidates, he will after Jan. 1 next do so in his capacity as a private citizen and not as a party manager, leader or officeholder.

Mr. Hill will speak for the Democracy at the county fair to be held at Whitney's Point, in this state, on Wednesday, to be followed by Senator Depew the next day for the Republicans.

Social Leader of Baltimore Dead.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 29.—James H. B. Whitridge, for many years a leader in social and club life here and in other eastern cities, is dead at Johns Hopkins hospital here from the effects of an operation performed three weeks ago. Mr. Whitridge was born in this city in 1862.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of

New Wallpapers.

We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.

Paints, Oils and Varnishes

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE,
145 North Avenue.

APPEARANCE COUNTS

when you want to sell or rent your property. Is your house attractively painted, decorated and papered? You can depend on us always for superior work in this line.

Convincingly Low Prices.

JAS. C. HANSEN.
141 East Front St.

G. A. Woolsey's Standard Paint.
The Best Ready-Mixed Paint in the Market.
—FOR SALE BY—
J. M. CAHART,
PAINTER AND DECORATOR.
DEALER IN
Paints, Oils, Glass, Wallpaper, Etc
Painting, Papering and Decorating. Estimates on application.
201 Park Ave., Cor. Second St.

I. N. WYCKOFF.
PAINTER and DECORATOR,
556 West Front Street.
Papering a specialty. First-class work my motto. Glass furnished and Glazing done.
TELEPHONE 292-L.

1904
WALL PAPERS.
Imported and American Goods.
C. CONOVER & CO.,
Decorators, Painters & Paperhangers. Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Place. 'Phone 226-J.

DRUGGISTS.

PRESCRIPTIONS
Called for and Medicines Delivered.
Telephone, write or call at any time. Let us know what drug store goods you need, and we'll send them right out, without extra charge.

Powers' Somerset Pharmacy.
45 Somerset St. Tel. 161

SODA
With Fruit Syrups Second to None.
MALLINSON'S
LIBERTY AND FOURTH STS.
Segars are one of my specialties

MILLER'S
VEGETABLE BLOOD PURIFIER
combines the best Tonic and Blood Purifying Remedies of the Vegetable Kingdom. Such as Sarsaparilla, Clover Tops, Golden Seal, Turkey Corn, Sassafras, Burdock and Mandrake. Contains no mercury.
DUDLEY S. MILLER, Druggist,
Park Ave. and Fourth St.

Seasonable Goods at Nagle's
Nagle's Egg Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, Extract of Malt, Beef, Wine and Iron. Blands Iron Pills.
Nagle's Blood Purifier and Sarsaparilla, just the medicine for building one up. Moth Balls, Camphor, etc.
C. M. NAGLE,
Telephone 477 r. Front and Grove Sts.

Hodges Pharmacy.
Reliable goods in all Departments. Agency for Belle Mead Sweets.
Tel. 210 A. Y.M.C.A. Building.

HARRY K. LISTER,
161 North Ave. Opp. Depot.
Bicycles, Sundries, Phonographs and Records.
Edison Gold Moulded Records....35c
Columbia X. P. Records.....25c
Bicycles and Phonographs Repaired.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd.
Here's where your cash will do MOST good for you—where accommodation's yours if you want it!
"Money in your Pocket"
The way we're putting prices DOWN means good money in your pocket—we MEAN "reductions" when we talk 'em, and EVERY item in the house has been hard hit. NO reservations of any kind!
You can have goods sent home now or later—all we want is your WORD. Cash or accommodation terms.
See them on Main Floor! Marked in plain figures!
40 different kinds of Couches
at a good big cut, to make "things hum." You can't find their match in value anywhere!
4 out of the number:
$5.98 Velour Couches, best steel springs—heavy fringe. Worth $8.00.
$6.98 Velour Couches, deep tufting, richly fringed. Worth $9.00.
$9.98 Velour Couches—all hair filled, deep dufting. Worth $14.00.
$15.00 Velour Couches, deep tufting, solid oak frame. Worth $20.00.
Those 5 Carloads of Brass Trimmed Enameled Beds are moving fast—a lot of good patterns still left for wise buyers!
½ PRICE!
$1.79 for White enameled Beds—worth $3.50
$5.00 for White enameled Iron Bed, brass rail at head and foot—worth $10.00.
$10.00 for White Enameled Bed, with brass rail at head and foot—heavy brass upright rods
Worth $20.00.
Included in "Midsummer Sale".
Superb "Exposition" Furniture Samples
Just received from late Furniture Exposition, Grand Central Palace (Lex. Ave. and 43d St.)—every piece a marvel of perfect cabinet making, showing maker's finest work!
ALL MARKED FROM ¼ TO ⅓ OFF!!
All Refrigerators and Ice Chests to go cheap! We NEVER "carry over" this stock!
AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Be sure you see "No. 73" and first name "AMOS" before entering our store.
ACCOUNTS OPENED—EASY PAYMENTS
73 MARKET ST., NEWARK, N. J.
Near Plane St., West of Broad St.
All trolleys transfer to our door.

HENRY MEHRTENS,
The Manufacturing Confectioner.
Pure Home-made Candies, Chocolates and Bon Bons fresh daily. Cold Drinks of all kinds. Crushed Fruits. Ice Cream and Water Ices.
Orders delivered promptly.
Telephone. 131 East Front St.

JOHN J. LEAHY,
PLUMBING AND HEATING.
Sewer and Water Connections.
First-Class Work at Reasonable Figures.
302 Richmond St., near Third.

M. ARMSTRONG,
Plumbing and Tinning.
330 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
TELEPHONE 232.

McCULLOUGH'S
STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
210 Park Avenue.

Allen B. Laing,
Electrician —
Tel. 333-J. 134 North Ave.

WILLIAM H. POPE,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of Electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 North Avenue.

LIEFKE & LAING,
Insurance and Real Estate
No. 146 Park Avenue.
Real Estate Appraised. Properties Sold and Rented. Loans Negotiated.

TenEyck & Harris,
—DEALERS IN—
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office 121 Watchung Avenue. Branch Office Frank Rowley's Drug Store, 218 W. Front st.
TELEPHONE 26-F.

PRESS WANT ADS PAY

William Hand & Sons
MOVING VANS and STORAGE WAREHOUSE for Furniture, Pianos, etc.
136 E. 2nd St., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1722.
TRUCKMEN AND RIGGERS.
All work will receive prompt attention.

W. W. WARNOCK,
THE BAKER,
144 West Front St.,
COMPTON'S OLD STAND.
Bread, Cakes, Pies, Etc.
Made of the best Materials.
Early Morning Delivery.
ICE CREAM A SPECIALTY.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Avenue.
William D. Thickstun, John P. Emmons.
Telephone 601.

JOHN JOHNSTON.
All the best grades of
COAL.
929 South Ave. 'Phone 193.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

E. B. MAYNARD.
New Shop, New Furniture, Best Service.
Tonsorial Artist.
Also choice Cigars.
141 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Expressman and Truckman.
All kinds of Express and Trucking business promptly attended to.
Leave your orders at store of Joseph Sattels, Pianos and Organs, No. 108 North Avenue, and the same will receive immediate attention.

TRY
DOBBINS'
NICKEL YARA CIGARS.
228 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries
LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.
FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:
Linden Lodge, Linden, N. J.
87 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
Prudential Building, Newark, N. J.
768 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.
19 West 23d Street, New York City.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

CESSPOOLS AND GARBAGE.
MRS. JOHN BROWN
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
From $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North Avenue. Postoffice box 718
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

GARBAGE REMOVED
Walter M. Ingraham.
TERMS MODERATE.
Address P. O. Box 635, City

Best Lehigh COAL.
Order now and save money.
KEELY COAL CO.
725 South Ave. Telephone 162.

CHAS. E. VAIL,
103 PARK AVENUE,
Watches, Jewelry and Silverware. Repairing in all its branches.
EYES EXAMINED FREE.

HERMAN HANSEN,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
Estimates Furnished.
269 Watchung Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Tel. 454 R.

Plainfield Window Cleaning Co
Floors Oiled and Polished.
Furniture Packed for Shipping.
General House Cleaning a Specialty.
Frank DeHart, 402 E. Third St.
Wm. A. Kline, 611 W. Third St.

TITUS H. LAURY,
Mason and Builder,
Office, 323 E. Front St.
Tile Setting, Mantel & Front work

PARIS NOTES.

Embroidered Silks and Silk Muslins. Dainty Hats.

Some of the silk muslins and embroidered silks are very lovely. They are ultra smart for evening wear.

The marquise hat is finding renewed favor in chips and panamas. There is a new hat also which in shape resembles a curious butterfly bow of straw. It is quite small and turned up abruptly at the back, where it is adorned with scarlet poppies, the rest of the hat being of scarlet and white straw draped with a lace veil.

Very popular are the linens in duck's egg blue embroidered in white. Some of these are made with a very high plain linen collar and a black crepe de chine stock. With this sort of costume is worn a flat double brimmed plateau hat trimmed with a black velvet bow.

Checks still continue popular. Some of the most striking frocks of the season have been worn in checked fabrics of pale colors trimmed with plain silk of a little darker shade.

A NEW TAILOR MADE.

The newest motor or dust cloaks are trimmed with medallions of contrasting silk or motifs of lace, but the lace is lined with chiffon to exclude the dust. These coats are seldom lined. Unlined taffeta coats of half and three-quarter length are used for summer wraps. These come in the palest tints and are much adorned with frills of lace or chiffon.

The picture shows a tailor made suit with a three-quarter coat and a novel shoulder cape. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION'S DICTATES.

Coral Tints Combined With Brown. Black Not Worn So Much.

Many mohair costumes are being worn this season, but they are only pretty when made by a good tailor or dressmaker, as the fit depends greatly on the way the grain of the goods is handled.

Cloth of gold is used instead of pongee for coats and costumes. It is slightly heavier and not quite so apt to wrinkle and grow stringy.

Coral tints in foulards and other silks are all the rage. Coral is particularly pretty in checked materials.

Black is not worn so much this season as formerly. The same is true of black hats and shoes, as the tendency is to match the gown in the accessories.

Brown will be worn again this fall, combined with orange and coral red tints.

The new hats have higher crowns and are smaller in circumference.

When on board a yacht a coat of dark blue pilot cloth lined with scarlet is very useful; also a heavy cream serge lined with pale blue. It is well, in fact, to have two wraps, a white one and a dark one for stormy occasions.

PINK WAIST.

Embroidered silk linens make up beautifully with cream embroideries and heavy yak lace. These are charming and useful for house and street toilets. The fashion in blouses elects that they shall be very sheer and much trimmed. A favorite mode is to combine tan and white lace on the same blouse. It can then be worn either with a white or an ecru skirt.

In the cut we have a pale pink silk waist with a cape effect, enriched with fagoting. The double sleeve has an under puff of pink mull.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

LITTLE FRANCE

A ROMANCE OF THE DAYS WHEN "THE GREAT LORD HAWKE" WAS KING OF THE SEA

BY

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

Author of "Commodore Paul Jones," "Reuben James," "For the Freedom of the Sea," etc.

Copyright, 1901, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

CHAPTER XX.

WET SHEETS AND FLOWING SEAS.

A GRAY sky and an angry sea. A solitary ship in the waste of waters, staggering along in a roaring gale from the west; every rag of canvas that could safely be spread—ay, and even more—urging her forward before the fierce wind; driving her madly through the tossing waves. A lonely, restless man upon her deck passing the long weary hours on the forecastle looking eagerly ahead, ever ahead; turning like a devotee his face to the east, pointing his vessel toward the rising sun; though driven aside by the happenings of the sea, returning to his goal with the accuracy and the persistency with which the polar needle swings toward its star.

Some 200 leagues ahead of the frigate, with the man on the knightheads peering fruitlessly across the dark expanse of tossing water, another vessel, driven in like manner, steadily pursued its course for the same destination. As if conscious of the unwearying, indomitable pursuit, she, too, made her way onward madly, recklessly, crossing the great deep.

Skill and seamanship of the highest type were at her service as well. A willingness to drive was there in almost as great a measure, for this ship was homeward bound. When she dropped anchor in the waters of France, those aboard of her, now held prisoner by the heavy-linked chain of honor, would be free.

And a woman hung over the quarter of the second ship listening indifferently to words of sweetness, responding not at all to passionate pleadings that fell upon her ear; a woman, turning her eyes back toward the west, gazing upon the setting sun that had carried down to darkness with it her maiden heart; a woman marking the long white wake of the ship, her sadness growing greater, her regret deepening, deepening with each swiftly passing league.

And yet the lonely woman on the quarter-deck with the infrequent sunlight losing itself in her midnight hair, with her violet eyes staring backward, backward, backward, from out a pale face whose whiteness matched the foaming wave, was drawing on as surely and irresistibly as the loadstone the needle, the eager man upon the other ship.

"I think there can be no doubt of our observations, captain. You see we have had a double check on them by working them out independently."

"Yes, we have made no mistake, I am sure, and yet there are always happenings for which allowance must be made; things that no mind, no instrument, can check on the sea."

"True, sir; but it has all been plain sailing so far, and the way you have watched and handled this frigate has been a marvel to me, and I have sailed in many ships."

"Thank you. But I have an object in it all."

"Of course, the dispatches to Sir Edward Hawke——"

"Yes, that of course. Do you know, Hatfield, I haven't told you before, and it isn't a thing that a man likes to talk about, any way, but I've got to tell you now, I suppose. Well, the fact is—that cartel, you know, the one I've been trying to overhaul? There is a—lady—a Frenchwoman on board of her—and—you see—I met her five years ago when a prisoner in France and again in Canada—and——"

"I see, sir," answered Hatfield wisely, filling in his superior's lame and halting conclusion by the aid of his own imagination, "and you would see her again? I quite understand."

Grafton, whose face had flushed deeply while he made his executive officer the recipient of these strange confidences, was greatly relieved at his ready comprehension.

"Yes, that's it," he answered, grateful for his lieutenant's tact. "And I mean to see her once more, by heaven, if I have to go into Brest to do it!"

"All right, sir, I'm with you in anything. And if I know our bullies forward, they'd like nothing better than a dash at a Frenchman, for a ship, a woman, or a——"

"That will do, Hatfield," remarked Grafton, with a slight touch of sternness, "I hardly contemplate calling upon the men for any cutting-out expedition in this emergency, though I may want your help, my friend."

The friendship begun years since between the two men had ripened into intimacy—although Hatfield was much the junior in years as well as rank to Grafton—and the footing between them when not on formal service was one of hearty affection and familiar intimacy. This was an unusual relationship between the captain and first lieutenant of a frigate, yet the younger man never presumed upon it, and the older man never condescended on account of it, and no mischance had arisen.

"And you shall have it, Capt. Grafton," replied the younger man, impulsively. "Might I, without presumption, ask the lady's name?"

"De Rohan," answered Grafton. "The Countess de Rohan, the granddaughter of the Marquis de Chabot-Rohan, in whose castle I was confined five years ago. I met her then as a little girl, and as luck, nay, providence, would have it, I fell into her hands again in Canada, when I was wounded and captured, you know."

"WITH ALL MY HEART!"

"It seems to me you have a happy knack of falling into the hands of pretty ladies as a prisoner."

"Yes, haven't I?" assented Grafton, smiling faintly.

"I wish some such luck would come to me, then."

"Don't wish it at all, my young friend, 'tis a dangerous situation to be in."

"Have you found it so?"

"Yes, I'm a prisoner forever."

"Gad, there are worse fates! But are you engaged to the lady, captain? Don't answer me if I ask an impertinent question, but if I am to help you, I should like to know something."

"Well, er—no, not exactly, in fact, not at all. She is betrothed to Lieut. Denis de Vitre, of the French navy."

"Oh, to him!" exclaimed Hatfield, who was familiar with the public history of de Vitre's exploits in Canada.

"Yes."

"And is she—er—in love with him?"

"No."

"Well, is she—ah——"

"Yes, with me."

"And can't you get her to break her engagement?"

"I don't know, I think not. That isn't all. Of course the old marquis, her grandfather and only relative, is to be considered, and he will probably have chosen some one in France for her."

"That is a complication, indeed."

"Yes, isn't it? But it seems to me that the more people there are in the game the better chance for me. You see, so long as she—ah—loves me, I seem to hold the winning card."

"Of course, but what do you propose to do?"

"I'm not sure. I shall deliver the dispatches to Sir Edward, and then I think I shall ask permission to go ashore. You see, I know the lay of the land thoroughly, and I am familiar with the old castle where she lives, the Chateau de Josselin, 'tis called. It lies on the shore off the mouth of the harbor entrance. There is a way into it that no one knows but the lady, and I think——"

"Why do you hesitate?"

"Well, I saved the man's life, and his honor too—de Vitre's, you know—and I hardly like to steal his betrothed bride; you see, he could not very well resent it if I did—er—gratitude. I feel the obligation I have conferred——"

"Nonsense! Forgive my frankness, you've done enough for him already. You gave him life, honor, let him be satisfied with that. Take love for yourself, captain."

"I think I will, Hatfield, and so——"

"In short, you mean to carry her off, do you?"

"Yes, that's about it."

"Cutting out a woman, eh, rather than a ship?"

"Yes. Now that you know the situation, what say you? Will you join me?"

"With all my heart!" cried the younger man, his eyes dancing with excitement, "and I should like nothing better. Gad, 'twould be an exploit indeed if we could succeed! They'd talk about it forever in the clubs."

"Thank you. I knew you would, and we will succeed or die, my friend," responded Grafton impetuously, without considering that the prospect of death could not be so inviting to his friend as it was to himself in case of failure. But Hatfield was game.

"Well," he said, stretching out his hand, "here's by hand on it. Success to our enterprise!"

"That's good," replied Grafton, immensely relieved. "I was sure I could depend upon you."

"Now tell me how you propose to get into the castle if she's there."

"I think she will surely be there. De Vitre is a thorough sailor. I'll say that for him, and a thorough gentleman, too. He picked out the fastest ship in the basin. You know the French build better ships than we do. He has probably driven her as hard as we have and he had several days' start of us. His orders take him to Brest, and 'tis most natural that he should take her to the Chateau de Josselin, which is her grandfather's castle. There is an oriel window in the keep tower overlooking the sea, and there is a practicable way of gaining the balcony surrounding it."

"Land ho!" came floating down from their heads.

"Where away?" cried Hatfield promptly.

"Broad off the weather bow, sir."

"That ought to be Ushant," remarked Grafton.

"Yes, and just where we thought it would be, off yonder."

"Hold on as we are, Hatfield. We will soon raise it from the deck. We must be making all of ten knots in this ripping breeze. Do you think she could stand the mainto'gallant sail?"

"Hardly," answered Hatfield, throwing a glance aloft. "Well, perhaps she might, but what would be the use of it, captain? We'll be there quickly enough, anyway."

"Perhaps you are right. But we ought to have seen some of Sir Edward's fleet before this. I don't understand it. Aloft, there!"

"Sir?"

"Do you see any sails to leeward?"

"No, sir."

"Or anywhere?"

"No, sir."

"Keep a bright lookout for them."

"Ay, ay, sir."

"He'd hardly be cruising so far offshore as this, would he?" said Hatfield. "You know when he blockades he does it closely. They say he's been holding Brest so tightly closed all summer that a bird could not fly in or out of the harbor without being noticed."

"Yes, that's his way. I don't know whether he will be there or not now, though, since it's so late in the season. But let me tell you, Hatfield, he's done an unprecedented thing in sealing up the Brest fleet so long. I think it was old Cloudesley Shovel who said that a man was a fool and ought to be broke if he kept his ships out in the Bay of Biscay after September, and here it is the middle of November, and that war brig we spoke last week said that he was still there when she left, and looking as if he were going to stay there all winter, too."

"Yes, that's like him."

"Like him! I should say so; I was a reefer on the Devonshire when he knocked L'Etenduere's squadron into a cocked hat, and I've cruised with him since; he was an old friend of my father's before he died, used to stop at our house when he came to Boston, while he was on the West India station. In fact, I began my sea service with him. I never saw such a man. He's as swift as a frigate bird, and when he strikes he hits like a storm. He never lets go either, and such a fighter! He's well named Hawke, I think."

"Ay, but I very much doubt our running across him this morning," exclaimed Hatfield. "We should have seen a frigate surely by this time if he were there. You see, this westerly gale has been blowing for three days, or maybe longer, and he'll find it difficult to keep his position with such a heavy fleet on a lee-shore. Besides, the wind keeps the French tight in the harbor. He may have run over to Plymouth, or Torbay, ready to dash out again when the wind shifts."

"And perhaps give the French a chance to slip out, too. I'll wager a pound to a penny he's been praying they would try it all summer long."

The frigate, on the quarter-deck of which the two men had been speaking, had been moving rapidly through the water and they were much nearer the coast now. Indeed, the blink of the land—the dim blue haze upon the horizon which tells of voyages ended and havens near, and sometimes of wreck and disaster, when the storm gods are out—could be seen now from the deck, and the stern cliffs of Ushant were rising higher with every passing moment.

Save for the land before and to the north of them the horizon was clear. There was not a single ship in sight. It was evident that Sir Edward and his blockading fleet had gone away.

"What'll you do now?" asked Hatfield.

"Well, we'll run in a little farther, I think," continued Grafton, "we can at least see if the French are still in port. Perhaps we can find out what they are about to do. Then we'll bear up for Torbay, try to overhaul the fleet, and deliver these dispatches and the news."

"And Mademoiselle de Rohan?"

"As to her, later, I am afraid."

"You won't try for it now, then?"

"I think not, I must deliver these dispatches first of all."

"You have not given up the idea, though?"

"I never give up anything, Hatfield," answered Grafton resolutely, "and I'd as soon give up life as Anne de Rohan."

(CONTINUED)

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

The Standard Railroad of America.

PROTECTED THROUGHOUT BY THE ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC BLOCK SIGNAL SYSTEM.

On and After June 26, 1904.

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

f 2 26 a m—Main Line Express daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor Cars, for Pittsburg and Cleveland, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

f 2 35 p m—Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily, for Nashville (via Cincinnati and Louisville), Indianapolis, Chicago and St. Louis; Dining Car.

f 5 43 p m—Western Express, daily, with Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, for Pittsburg and Chicago.

f 8 37 p m—Pacific Express, daily, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars, for Pittsburg, Toledo and Chicago, daily, for Knoxville, via Shenandoah Valley Route, for Cleveland, except Saturday.

Seaboard Air Line Express, f 1 04 p m daily.

FOR BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH—12 56, 3 26, 9 07, 10 06 a m, 1 04, 10 09 p m On Sunday 44 12 56, 9 07, 10 06 a m, 1 04 and 10 07 p m

FOR NEWARK AND NEW YORK—3 03, 4 07, 5 44, 6 12, 6 50, 6 58, 7 56, 7 15, 7 25, 7 45, 7 56, 8 04, 8 07, 8 16, 9 03, 9 25, 9 56, 9 56, 9 17, 9 26, 9 45, 10 12, 10 47, 10 56, 11 06, 11 47 m, 12 45, 1 04, 1 55, 2 20, 3 03, 3 50, 4 45, 4 51, 4 55, 5 04, 5 45, 6 00, 6 27, 6 45, 6 56, 7 02, 7 21, 7 56, 8 20, 9 04, 9 15, 9 45, 10 15, 10 44, 10 47, 11 15, 11 20 (Saturdays only) p m and 12 12 night, Sundays, 3 03, 4 57, 5 50, 7 54, 8 39, 9 20, 9 51, 10 16, 10 37, 10 56 a m, 12 20, 12 46, 1 36, 3 20, 3 45, 4 44, 4 56, 5 34, 5 45, 7 09, 7 09, 7 26, 7 52, 8 30, 9 09, 9 45, 10 16, 10 44, 11 46, p m and 12 12 night; For New York only, 7 48 a m, and 2 45, 5 49 p m week days.

FOR TRENTON AND PHILADELPHIA—1 01, 6 44, 7 10 (Trenton only), 8 06, 8 38, 9 07, 9 38, 10 03, 11 40 a m, 12 40, 1 04, 2 04, (Trenton only) 3 38, 6 42, 7 35, 7 44, 8 37, 10 03 p m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 10 06, 10 40 a m, 1 04, 5 52, 6 42, 7 44, 8 37, and 10 07 p m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Through Vestibuled Express Trains, Buffet Parlor Cars, Passenger Coach, and Combined Coach, 10 03 a m, and 3 35 p m week-days. Express 1 01, 6 44 8 38 a m, 12 40 p m Sundays, 1 01, 6 51 and 8 38 (Through Vestibuled Train, Pullman Parlor, Dining and Smoking Cars and wide Vestibule Coaches) a m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Via Delaware River Bridge, 1 01 a m, 12 40 and 3 35 p m week days; 1 01 and 6 51 a m, Sundays.

FOR CAPE MAY—Express, 1 01 night, daily.

FOR RAHWAY—1 01, 4 25, 6 40, 6 44, 7 10, 8 06, 9 00, 9 07, 9 46, 11 14, 11 40 a m, 1 04, 1 42, (Saturdays only), 2 04, 2 40 (Saturdays only) 3 13, 3 46, 4 26, 5 00, 5 09, 6 20, 5 38, 6 57, 6 59, 8 05, (except Saturday), 8 12, 8 19, (except Saturday), 8 22, 8 45, 8 51, 7 08, 7 19, 7 44, 8 13, 8 58, 9 54, 10 57, 11 43 p m., and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 8 41, 9 46, 10 25, 10 40 and 11 44 a m, 12 42, 1 50, 3 57, 3 52, 4 42, 5 19, 5 43, 5 58, 7 06, 7 27, 7 44, 8 11, 8 47, 9 13, 10 15, 11 03 and 11 46 p m.

FOR NEW BRUNSWICK—1 01, 6 44, 7 10, 8 06, 9 07, 11 40 a m, 12 40, 1 42 (Saturdays only), 2 04, f 4 38, 5 38, 5 50, 5 09, 6 20, 5 38, 6 57, 6 59, 8 05, (except Saturday), 8 12, 8 19, (except Saturday), 8 22, 8 45, 8 51, 7 08, 7 19, 7 44, 8 13, 8 58, 9 54, 10 57, 11 43 p. m., and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 8 41, 9 46, 10 25, 10 40 and 11 44 a. m., 12 42, 1 50, 3 57, 3 52, 4 42, 5 19, 5 43, 5 58, 7 06, 7 27, 7 44, 8 11, 8 47, 9 13, 10 15, 11 03 and 11 46 p. m.

FOR WOODBRIDGE AND PERTH AMBOY—5 40, 9 46, 11 14, a m, 1 08, 3 11, 4 50, 5 47, 6 13, 7 19, 9 54 p m, and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 25, 11 44 a m, 5 40 and 10 15 p m.

FOR EAST MILLSTONE—7 10 a m, 12 40 and 5 38 p m week-days.

FOR LAMBERTVILLE, PHILLIPSBURG, MANUNKA CHUNK AND STROUDSBURG, VIA TRENTON—8 38, 10 38 a m, 12 40 (Saturdays only), 2 04 and 6 42 p m, week days, 6 51 a m and 6 42 p m Sunday.

FOR FLEMINGTON—10 38 a m and 2 04 p m.

FOR JAMESBURG VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10 a m, 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR FREEHOLD VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10, 8 06 11 40 a m, 4 38 and 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR LONG BRANCH, ASBURY PARK, OCEAN GROVE, AND POINTS ON NEW YORK AND LONG BRANCH R. R., 4 25, 8 19 and 9 26, a m, 1 03, 3 06, 3 44, 5 43 and 7 26 p m week-days. Sundays, 9 05 and 10 25 a m., and 5 40 p m. Stop at North Asbury Park for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

FOR BROOKLYN, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats of Pennsylvania Annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

LEAVE NEW YORK FOR ELIZABETH—From West Twenty-third Street Station, 6 06, 6 25, 7 36, 8 10, 8 36, 8 55, 10 25, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 25, 12 55 (Saturdays only), 1 25, 1 55 (Saturdays only), 2 25, 3 05, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 5 10, 5 25, 5 40, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 8 10, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 45 and 12 10 night. Sundays—6 05, 7 55, 8 25, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 55, 1 55, 2 40, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 6 10, 6 40, 6 55, 7 25, 7 55, 8 25, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55 p m, and 12 10 night.

"f" Stops on notice to Agent or on signal. For time from Desbrosses and Cortlandt streets consult local time-tables to be procured from agents.

W. W. ATTERBURY, Gen'l M'g'r. J. R. WOOD, Pass. Traffic M'g'r.

GEO. W. BOYD, General Passenger Agent.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF,

EAST FRONT STREET.

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accomodations and private dining room.

Hotel Kensington,

(Licensed)

J. H. STAATS, Prop.,

107, 109, 111 North Avenue.

Everything New and Up to Date. An Inspection Solicited

JOHN WIRTH

Successor to Henry Liefke

Bakery and Confectionery 201-203 W. Front St

Telephone No. 723. All orders delivered at short notice.

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING At DOANE'S, 115 PARK AVE.

LAING MACHINE-AUTO REPAIR COMPANY,

416 Sycamore Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Office—134 North Avenue. Telephone 333-J

GREAT BARGAIN SALE OF

Bicycles, Bicycle Sundries, Pianos, Musical Instruments, Sheet Music. Guns and Ammunition.

S. W. Frucht, 224 W. Front St.

SPECIAL LOW PRICES

For all Summer Dresses. Linen Suits a Specialty.

S. Hirsh, - 432 Watchung Ave

WILLIAM H. KIRCH,

Carpenter and Builder,

66 Duer Street.

Estimates cheerfully given. Jobbing promptly attended to.

Telephone 402 J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS.

110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

FLORISTS.

PHONE 398 L.

CHARLES L. STANLEY,

144 NORTH AVENUE.

A large stock of all seasonable Flowers always on hand. Flowering Plants, Palms and Ferns in large assortment. Floral Designs, Baskets and Centre Pieces artistically made up at short notice. Lowest prices. Greenhouses, South Ave., Nether od. Phone 497 J.

Reading System

New Jersey Central.

Stations in New York foot of Liberty, and South Ferry, Whitehall Streets.

Time Table Corrected August 15, 1904

For New York—3 11, 3 57, 5 25, 6 02 6 38, 6 57, 7 25, 7 45, 7 55, 8 02, 8 11, 8 30, 8 56, 9 45, 9 27, 9 55, 10 28, 11 00 a. m., 12 05, 12 44, 1 15, 2 11, 3 45, 3 48, 3 54, 4 12, 4 47, 5 04, 5 32, 5 52, 6 32, 7 05, 7 28, 8 03, 9 05, 10 17, 11 30 p. m. Sunday—3 17, 3 57, 5 05, 7 45, 8 52, 9 45, 10 05, 11 12, 11 30 a. m., 12 05 m., 12 55, 1 45, 2 45, 3 17, 3 30, 4 51, 5 45, 6 05, 6 15, 6 32, 9 45, 10 28 p. m.

For Newark—5 32, 6 20, 7 05, 6 57, 7 05, 7 25, 7 45, 8 11, 8 56, 9 05, 9 20, 9 37, 11 25 a. m., 1 10, 3 21, 3 45, 3 54, 4 52, 5 32, 6 22, 6 32, 7 05, 8 25, 9 05, p. m. Sunday—7 41, 8 32, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 07, 1 45, 3 17 3 30, 5 41, 6 45, 8 05, 8 15, 8 32, 9 45, 10 28 p. m.

For Somerville—5 25, 7 12, 8 21, 9 25, 9 55, 11 00 a. m., 1 01, 2 05, 3 11, 3 55, 4 22, 5 03, 5 32, 5 57 6 04, 6 19, 8 41, 7 12, 7 25, 8 05, 8 21, 9 07, 10 32, 11 20 p. m., 12 10 night. Sunday—8 45, 9 42, 11 14 a. m., 2 05, 3 40, 5 07, 6 35, 6 50, 10 15, 11 10, 11 55 p.m

For Flemington—7 12, 11 00 a. m., 3 11 5 10 6 19 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m., 5 07 p. m.

For Phillipsburg and Easton—5 25, 5 21, 9 54 a. m., 1 01, 2 05, 3 11, 3 55, 4 22, 5 03, 5 32, 5 57 6 04, 6 19, 8 41, 7 12, 7 25, 8 05, 8 21, 9 07, 10 32, 11 20 p. m., 12 10 night. Sunday—8 45, 9 42, 11 14 a m., 2 05, 3 40, 5 07, 6 35, 6 50, 10 15, 11 10, 11 55 p.m

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5 25, 9 54 a. m., 3 11, 5 20 p. m. Sundays—5 45 a. m., 5 05, 5 20 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5 25, 9 54 a m; 5 45 p m. Sundays—5 45 a m, 5 05 p m.

For Long Branch and Ocean Grove, etc—8 11, 11 00 a m, 3 44, 6 22 p m. Sunday (except Ocean Grove)—8 52 a m, 12 56, 3 30, 5 12 p m.

For Red Bank—8 11, 11 00 12 56, 1 18, 3 44, 4 47, 5 52, 11 28 p m. Sundays—8 52 a m, 3 30, 5 12 p m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—(8 11 Lakewood only) 9 27 a m, 1 18, 2 49, (3 44 p m, Lakewood only). Sundays—8 52 a m.

For Toms River and Barnegat—9 27 a m, 1 18, 3 44 p m. Sundays—8 52 a m.

For Philadelphia—5 17, 7 12, 7 44, 8 44, 8 51, 9 44, 10 44, 10 51, 11 44 a m, 12 46, 1 01, 1 30, 2 45, 3 44, 6 45, 7 47, 8 21, p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 05, 10 51 a m, 2 45, 4 55, 5 37, 6 45, 9 07, 11 25 p m, 1 17 night.

For Reading and Harrisburg—5 17, 5 25 8 52, 9 54, (10 44, 11 44 Reading only), a m, 2 11, (5 45 through train), 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 3 08, 5 07, 6 25 p m, 1 17 night.

For Pottsville, Sunbury and Williamsport—5 17, 5 25, 9 54 a m, 2 11 6 21 p m, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 3 08 p m, 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—1 17, 8 51, 10 51, a m, 2 45, 6 45, 7 47 p m. Sundays 10 51 a m 2 45, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. C. M. BURT, Gen. Pass. Agent

Lehigh Valley Railroad

Time Table in Effect Nov. 29, 1903.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

8:08 a.m. daily (except Sunday) local to Mauch Chunk.

8:49 a. m. daily for Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Rochester, Buffalo and principal intermediate stations, connects at Depew Junction for Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge.

2:12 p. m. daily local for Easton, Mauch Chunk, Hazleton, Pottsville and Shenandoah.

4:36 p. m. daily (except Sunday) "Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Express" Solid vestibule train to Wilkes-Barre, Through Parlor Car via D. & H. R. R. to Scranton and Carbondale.

6:21 p. m. daily (except Sunday) local to Easton.

8:40 p. m. daily solid vestibule train to Buffalo, Toronto and Chicago and principal intermediate stations except Rochester

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 115 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J Telephone 115-B.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE,

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m. On Saturday's close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00 5:30 p. m. Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:4 a. m.; 1:20, 2:15 and 7:00 p. m. Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—9:40 a. m.; 2:30 and 5:30 p. m. Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA—West of Easton.

Close 12:35 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—9:40 a. m.; 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 7:00 p. m. Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m. 12:35, 4:30, 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for West and South close 4:30 and 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for East, close 1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE & GALLIA (Mt. Bethel)

Arrive—1:30 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

Watchung—Arrive 6:45 p. m. Close 5:30 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

STONE AT BARTLE'S STONE YARD.

Yard: Corner Church and Second Streets.

Cut Stone, Building Stone—ALL KINDS.

FLAGGING AND CURB STONE.

Have some 18-inch and 2 and 3-ft. walk very cheap. Leave orders for your foundation and cesspool stone with us.

SMALLEY BROS.,

147 North Ave.

Butchers.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Roasting and Broiling Chickens a specialty.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83-A.

H. EGGERDING,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c Cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana Cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of Domestic Cigars.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

Game in Season. Philadelphia Scrapple. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Telephone No. 463 J.

LADIES DESIRING—

Knife-Pleating or Pinking

done, will please leave their orders at No. 22 Duer Street, and it will receive prompt attention.

MRS. PORCH.

PERIL IN VENTRILOQUISM.

Funny Young Man Who Squeaked Too Persistently Is Oiled by an Old Engineer.

Rev. Madison C. Peters, of Philadelphia, who believes that churches, like other properties, should be taxed, is a favorite with boys. Talking to a group of boys one day, he said:

"When I was a youngster I wanted to be a ventriloquist. I wanted to play ventriloquial jokes on everyone in the world.

"So I bought a book on throwing the voice, and, with a friend named Jake, I began to study the difficult art. I had poor success, and Jake also had poor success. He, though, imagined he was doing well, and one day he declared that he was a quite good enough ventriloquist now to begin to do a little fooling.

ENGINEER OILED SQUEAKER.

"Jake knew an old engineer in a factory, and the next afternoon he visited him. He seated himself in a corner, and, after a little conversation, he imitated the squeak of badly oiled machinery.

"The old engineer trotted to a certain valve and oiled it.

"Jake let a few minutes pass and emitted another series of squeaks.

"'Drat that valve,' said the engineer, and he oiled it again.

"A third time there came the squeak, and now the engineer saw through the joke. He walked up quietly behind Jake and squirted a half-pint of oil down the back of his neck.

"'There,' he said. 'There will be no more squeaking to-day, I'm sure.'"

MOSQUITOES TAKE TOWN.

Village Down East Practically Depopulated Because of Ravenous Insect Swarms.

A village of 400 inhabitants 30 miles from Bivalve, Md., is practically depopulated on account of mosquitoes. They are so thick that over two-thirds of the inhabitants have left their homes, going to the bay on steamers to be rid of the pests.

Cattle in the marshes are dying by the score, and many are driven into the river to get relief and are drowned.

VANQUISHED BY MOSQUITOES.

George Phillips, a traveling salesman for a wholesale tobacco firm, of New York city, was attacked by a swarm of the pests. His horses became frantic, throwing him out of his carriage and breaking both his legs and three ribs.

A camp meeting which was in progress had to be postponed. The steamers plying between there and Baltimore run at top speed between Bivalve and Deal's island, and do not stop at these landings on account of the mosquitoes. Deal's island is one of the largest shipping points for soft-shell crabs, and all shipments go to New York city.

Paupers Burn an Almshouse.

The quality of food given to the paupers in Wilchingen, Switzerland, did not come up to their expectations, and they set fire to the almshouse, burning it to the ground.

Victim of Black Spider.

A black spider bit Mrs. J. C. Wilson, of Knoxville, Tenn., and in three hours her entire body had swollen to twice its natural size. In less than 24 hours death resulted.

Compressed Paper Plates.

Plates made of compressed paper are used in some of the cheap restaurants in Germany. Falling on the floor, or other rough usage, does not harm paper plates.

FIVE DROWNED.

Fatal Accidents at Hayden Lake and Mayfield.

SKOWHEGAN, Me., Aug. 29.—At least five and perhaps six persons have lost their lives during the past two days while fishing in the southern part of Somerset county. Four have been drowned at Hayden lake, about six miles from here, while the bodies of two others were discovered in a pond at Mayfield, twenty-five miles to the north.

The dead at Hayden lake are Thomas Weymouth, Charles Newell, Napoleon Prevost, all of Skowhegan, and an unknown man, companion of Weymouth and Newell, is missing.

Those drowned at Mayfield were two brothers of the name of Burden, of Brighton, Me. There were three accidents and only one survivor, Joseph Bolgier.

Prevost and Bolgier were fishing in Hayden lake when the former attempted to put on his rubber coat and in doing so overturned the little boat. Bolgier managed to swim ashore, but Prevost was unable to extricate himself from his coat and was drowned. While the search was being made for his body another boat was discovered floating bottom up, and soon the body of Newell was brought to the surface. As Bolgier stated that he noticed three men in the boat the search was continued, and soon the body of Weymouth was recovered. But after that of Prevost had been found the searching party was unable to discover the body of the companion of Newell and Weymouth.

The two Burden boys left their home in Brighton on Friday for a fishing trip. A fishing rod was found sticking out of a pond in Mayfield by a man who happened to be passing. He managed to haul it ashore and in winding up the line was horrified to find that the end was wrapped around the body of a man. Those living near the pond were notified, and later in the day a second body was recovered. Both were subsequently identified.

ARGENTINE AND URUGUAY.

Uruguayan Troops Fire on Rebels In Argentine Territory.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 29.—A great sensation has been created here owing to the surprising by troops of the government of Uruguay of a Uruguayan insurrectionary force numbering 180 men fully armed and equipped under Colonel Pampillon on a steamer on the Uruguayan coast, but in Argentine territory.

President Ordonez of Uruguay had been warned that preparations were being made for an insurrectionary expedition and dispatched two forces with armed vessels to watch for the expedition. At night the government troops attacked the insurrectionists with a continuous and merciless fire. Many of the latter swam ashore, but eight, badly wounded, were captured. The fate of the others is not known.

The insurrectionary vessel was also captured and with it a considerable quantity of telegraph apparatus.

Diplomatic relations between Argentina and Uruguay have become strained owing to this incident.

Paraguayan revolutionary vessels are extremely active. They are carrying men, horses and arms and are searching all passenger boats.

An Argentine warship has threatened to fire on the revolutionary squadron if it intercepted vessels flying the flag of the Argentine Republic.

HEAD-ON COLLISION.

Engines Locked Together Near Glenwood—Four Hurt.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 29.—In a head-on collision between two passenger trains on the Pittsburg division of the Baltimore and Ohio near Glenwood last night four persons were severely hurt and ten or twelve sustained minor injuries.

T. Lynch, engineer, had both legs crushed and may die; Conductor Heacock had his head, face and body cut and bruised, Mildred Guinea, infant, had head and face cut, serious; Mrs. James Crawford of Washington, Pa., had her head and face cut.

A number of passengers were slightly hurt by broken glass and splinters.

The trains in the collision were the Wheeling accommodation and the train from Wheeling. The road is single track at Glenwood, where these trains usually pass. The northbound train being twenty minutes late was for some reason allowed to go past. The trains came together at Beck's run on a curve.

The engines locked together so tightly that it took nearly three hours to release them, and the coaches on the southbound train were badly wrecked. The engineer and fireman of the northbound train escaped by jumping.

Automobiles Chase Balloon.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—Lebaudy's steerable balloon has narrowly escaped destruction near here. The aeronaut ascended early Sunday morning, but was obliged to come down on account of a gale. The balloon was anchored to a tree, and while there was no one on board it tore loose, rose to a considerable height and drifted toward the sea. Several automobiles started in pursuit of the balloon, which descended at Serquigny and caught in the trees there, forty-four miles from Moisson, whence it started.

Peru Opposed to Revolution.

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 29.—Jose Pardo, who was elected president of Peru in June last, will be inaugurated Sept. 24. Excitement over the political situation in Peru is becoming more calm. It is known that former President Pierola, Dr. Durand and the people are opposed to a revolution.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; west winds.

A Savings Account with THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY will be secure.

It will be convenient.

It will earn interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum.

Interest so earned will be compounded twice a year.

Accounts of this character are solicited by

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST CO.

Capital - -	$100,000
Surplus - - -	100,000
Deposits - -	1,000,000

POLICE DEPARTMENT NEWS

The following cases were disposed of at this morning's session of the city court:

James Brown and John Mara, the former arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and the latter for interferring with an officer; adjourned until Wednesday morning. Stephen Morrisey, arrested by Patrolman Overbaugh for drunkenness, sentence suspended. Frank Conger and William Felon, for disorderly conduct and fighting, adjourned until tomorrow morning at request of Conger's counsel, William G. DeMeza.

Victoria Thompson, Ada Ray, Bettie Brothers and Emma Waller, all colored, arrested for fighting, had sentence suspended. The first three named are sisters and the latter is the wife of their brother. Mrs. Waller had her husband arrested on a charge of assault and after he had been taken to jail, the three sisters called around to argue the matter. A free-for-all followed which ended in the patrol wagon being called and the arrest of the four. Sentence was also suspended on Waller.

Grocers' Excursion.

The seventeenth annual excursion of the Plainfield Grocers' Association to Coney Island will be held on Labor Day, Sept. 5. The trip will be made by the New Jersey Central to Jersey City and from there to Coney Island by the Iron Steamboat Company route, which includes one hour's sail down the bay. The train will leave here at 7:45 in the morning, returning leaving the Island at 8:40 at night.

Death of George Scott.

George Scott, colored, twenty-three years old, died early this morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Scott, of Plainfield avenue. He had been ill for many months with tuberculosis and for the past six weeks had lived in a tent located in his father's yard. Funeral services over the body will be held from Mount Olive Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

Miss Kane to Wed.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Sarah E. Kane, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Krane, formerly of this city, but now of North Fairchild street, Philadelphia, to James J. O'Donnell, also of Philadelphia. The ceremony will take place at St. Edward's R. C. church, Wednesday, September 14, at 5 o'clock.

44 Qualify in Co. K.

First Sergeant Charles Peterson, Sergeant Seiders, Corporal Whitney and Privates Niles, Ford and Davis, of Co. K, qualified as marksmen on the range at Sea Girt on Saturday. This makes a total of forty-four members of the company who have qualified on the range this year, the names having been published in The Daily Press.

Off for Sea Girt.

Corporals Bilyeu and Brennan, Sergeant Hort and Privates Frazee and Porst, of Co. K, who have an average of fours on all ranges at Sea Girt, thereby qualifying them to competition for a position on the Second Regiment team, went to Sea Girt today.

Thieves Enter Factory.

The Fullard machine factory at Fourth and Washington streets, was entered by burglars, early this morning and a quantity of valuable tools were taken. A detailed list was furnished the police and an effort is being made to recover them.

Fireman Hurt.

Milton Miller, driver in the North Plainfield fire department, was badly cut about the hands and knees, this morning, by being thrown from his bicycle as he was on the way to headquarters.

Mr. Dreier's Dinner Party.

David Dreier, of West Front street, gave a dinner yesterday in honor of Miss Rose Freudenthal, of Brooklyn.

—Use Press Want Ads.

APPOINT ELECTION OFFICERS

COMPLETE LIST FOR PLAINFIELD AS NAMED BY COUNTY BOARD.

The Union County Board of Elections has announced the appointment of election officers for the fall election.

These appointments have been made in accordance with the recommendations of the county Republican and county Democratic committees.

Those for Plainfield are: Republican First ward—Andrew J. Stiglitz and David Dunavan (First district), Horace Adams and Guillermo Thorn (Second district). Second ward—J. W. Drayton and J. Hervey Doane (First district), Edward Willis and William R. Townsend (Second district.) Third ward—Theodore LaRue and James M. Leonard (First district), John Cose and Charles Dixon (Second district). Fourth ward—William T. Newman and Daniel Force (First district), Edward Mosher and Ferdinand O. Smith (Second district) Garret Dunham and William A. Craig (Third district).

Democratic: First ward—Vincent L. Frazee and Michael J. DeCouroy (First district), Jacob Voehl and William H. Drake (Second district), Second ward—Charles Messersmith and Joseph Harrigan (First district), James B. Guttridge and Hezekiah Hand (Second district). Third ward—Thomas O'Keefe and Joseph H. Harkins (First district), William Harding and Edwin Finck (Second district). Fourth ward—Michael R. Flynn and John Casey (First district), Clinton Shannon and James J. Kane (Second district), Ira J. Hulbert and John J. Kinnery (Third district).

PERSONAL.

Wm. C. Hubbard, of Madison avenue, has returned from Nortonville, Kansas.

Mrs. John Valiant, Myrtle avenue, is home from her summer outing at Casting, Me.

Mrs. Frank H. Smith, of West Fourth street, has returned home after a two weeks stay at Westerly, R. I.

A. L. Hoagland and family, of West Front street, who have been spending their vacation at Burling, N. Y., have returned home.

Mrs. J. H. Trotter, whose home on Berckman street was recently destroyed by fire, submitted to a serious operation last week, at the Hotel Netherwood where she is now staying. It was performed by Dr. Lawrence Doyle and was entirely successful.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—All bills against the city must be in the city clerk's hands before Wednesday night to insure prompt payment.

—Theodore Wilson, arrested in the borough Saturday night, for drunkenness, will be given a hearing before Recorder Dond tonight.

—Fifty baskets of Acme and Stone tomatoes will be included in Neuman Brothers' big fruit and vegetable display tomorrow. Special basket prices.

Knocked Down by Auto.

A woman, whose name the police could not ascertain, was struck a glancing blow by an automobile on Watchung avenue, yesterday afternoon, just as she alighted from a trolley car. Her dress caught in the front auto wheel and it saved her from falling. She did not suffer any injury beyond bruises.

Ah Boys' Picnic.

The annual outing of the Ah Boy Association was held yesterday at Bartle's Grove, near Alton, there being about thirty members present from this city.

Judge to Judge Babies.

Former Judge William A. Coddington, of this city, has been appointed one of the judges in the Asbury Park parade which takes place Wednesday afternoon.

FROM MONDAY, AUGUST 29, TO SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, INCLUSIVE

WE ARE DOING EVERYTHING

to reduce the cost of keeping the table supplied with GOOD, HEALTHY FOOD, besides, giving S & H Green Trading Stamps Freely, so that you may get your HOUSE FURNISHINGS FREE. Best Goods, Lowest Prices, FULL WEIGHT, Polite and Courteous Treatment. Buy at our stores and save from 25 to 40 per cent. in your household expenses. Enough said

GREAT SPECIAL

Tea and GROCERY Sale

WITH EXTRA STAMPS

64 Stamps with 1 lb. of Fancy Chop Tea at 80c a pound

56 Stamps with 1 lb. of New Crop Tea at 70c a pound

48 Stamps with 1 lb. of Extra Fine Tea at 60c a pound

Full Weight

40 STAMPS with a 1 pound can of best Saigon Cinnamon 50c a Can

60 STAMPS with an 18-oz. can of pure A & P Baking Powder 50c a Can

None better on the market. Try a can

20 STAMPS with a large 2-oz. bottle of A & P pure Extracts 25c a Bottle Any flavor

10 STAMPS with a ½-lb. of A & P best Chocolate 18c a ½-lb. None better

40 Stamps with 1 lb. of Tea at 50c a pound Best sold at the price

30 Stamps with 1 lb. of New Crop Tea at 40c a pound

25 Stamps with 1 lb. of New Crop Tea at 35c a pound

Finest Grown

8 STAMPS with a 10c box (3 cakes in box) of TOILET SOAP

8 STAMPS with two 5c cakes of CASTILE SOAP

8 STAMPS with two 5c cartons of A & P WASHING POWDER

8 STAMPS with a 10c can of (dead shot) ROACH CREMATOR

8 STAMPS with a 10c box of ALBALINE Toilet Soap in Powdered Form

8 STAMPS with a large 10c bottle CURRY POWDER

8 STAMPS with a large 10c bottle sifter of CELERY SALT

8 STAMPS with a 10c box of (none better) A&P SILVER POLISH

The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co

8 Stamps with a 10c can of our celebrated A & P Baking Powder

137 and 139 W. Front St.

CHOOSING COUNTY COMMITTEE

NEW PLAN TO BE INAUGERATED BY SOMERSET'S DEMOCRATS.

The Somerset County Democratic committee met at Somerville and the important feature of the session was the adoption of a new plan for electing members of the county committee. Heretofore the members of this committee have been elected at the primaries held in the various polling districts.

It was decided by a majority vote that the county committee will in the future be elected by the delegates to the county convention.

This plan was vigorously opposed by Walter Linbarger, of North Plainfield, a staunch supporter of Assemblyman Samuel S. Swpokhamer, for the Gubernatorial nomination, and M. Mount Corle, of Neshanic, one of the signers of the recent manifesto addressed to the public under the caption of "An Outraged Democracy."

These two members constituted a helpless minority and were voted down.

Next Saturday's Game.

Instead of Plainfield playing Aeolian on Saturday, the local team will meet Westfield at Recreation Park in another contest in the series of ten games. If Plainfield wins the series will be tie, four and four, and every effort will be made to get another one on Westfield. Saturday's contest makes the third shutout for the Westfield team at the hands of Plainfield.

—St. Gabriel's Academy will reopen on Tuesday, Sept. 6.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Rev. G. M. Shott, who has been visiting Block Island, Newport, R. I., and other points in New England, delivered an address in the Block Island Baptist church on last Thursday night. He spent last Sunday in Newport. He will return through Block Island, reaching home Sept. 1st or 2d, and is expected to preach in his own pulpit Sept. 4 and administer the Lord's Supper. He reports a good time and is specially delighted with Block Island.

Aeolians, 4; West End, 1.

The West End baseball team, of Somerville, was defeated by the Aeolians, of Garwood, Saturday afternoon, in an interesting game. Montross, the West End pitcher, struck out nine men, while Drew, of the Aeolians, only struck out five. The latter, however, prevented the West End batters from bunching their hits. D. Pool, of the Aeolians, scored three of the runs made and got four hits of the six made off Montross. The score:

Aeolians	0 0 0 1 0 1 1 1 0—4
West End	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1

Funeral at Mt. Bethel.

Funeral services over the remains of Anne Bolemy, who died Friday afternoon at Muhlenberg Hospital after undergoing an operation, were held Saturday afternoon at the Mount Bethel Baptist church. Rev. George Bowers, of Warrenville, officiated. Interment was made in the Mount Bethel cemetery.

REV. DR. MOTT'S SERMONS

PREACHED MORNING AND EVENING AT CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH.

For the second week since the absence of the Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Henry Elliot Mott, of Westminster church, Elizabeth, preached there morning and evening yesterday. At the morning service he took for his theme "The Dividing Line of Duty," and developed the thought of true Christianity as shown in actions beyond the narrow range of duty.

In the evening the topic was taken from the closing words of Galatians, Paul's own words, "Remember my bonds." After dealing briefly with an explanation of the occasion of the writing, with Paul a prisoner at Rome and chained to a centurion, he turned the attention of the congregation to the "bonds" in the life of the Christian today. In connection with this statement, he cited examples of such "bonds" in connection, not only with church life, but also with life in business and in the home. His metaphors throughout the discourse were forceful and well chosen.

Next week the pulpit will be occupied, both morning and evening, by Rev. S. T. Livingston, of Hartford Theological Seminary.

Gave a Luncheon.

The Misses Shreve, of Grove street, gave a luncheon at the Park Golf Club Saturday afternoon. Covers were laid for fifteen, several guests being present from out of town.

SPECIAL at ROTH & Co.'s

Tuesday, August 30.

Chuck Steak 6c Per lb

Armour's Best Sugar-Cured Hams 12½c per lb.

ROTH & CO.,

132 East Front Street. Telephone 208

Festival at Marconnier.

A peach and ice cream festival will be held at Marconnier chapel Thursday night, Sept. 1. There will be plenty of peaches, watermelon, ice cream and all the good things.

Ball Player Married.

Followers of the Plainfield A. C. will be interested to learn that "Pop" Dietrich, the popular center-fielder of the team, was married in New York on Wednesday.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 5:26 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:36 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted at 7:36 p.m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday. Ther. 78.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887 — PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1904. — TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

INCENDIARIES DESTROY BARN ON COTTRELL PLACE

Structure Back of the City Fired After Two Unsuccessful Attempts.

'PLAINS FIREMEN THERE

BUILDING A MASS OF FLAMES ON THEIR ARRIVAL AND BEYOND SAVING.

Property Owned by Mrs. Cottrell, of Bayonne, and One Time Worth Many Thousands of Dollars—Residents Fe ar Other Blazes.

After meeting with failure on two previous occasions, incendiaries succeeded last night in setting fire to and destroying the big barn on the Cottrell property, situated in Washington Valley just back of this city. The structure was a mass of flames when the discovery was made, and though the Scotch Plains department hurried to the scene in response to an alarm it was powerless to save anything. The reflection from the fire extended a great distance across the sky, as the property is located on one of the highest points on the mountain, and plainly lighted up the East End of town.

The first attempt to destroy the property was made last winter but was discovered by neighbors in time to be frustrated. Last Thursday, the incendiaries again visited the big barn and all but succeeded in firing it. Robert Murphy and John Archbold were passing by when they noticed a small flame flickering through the weatherboards. They investigated and found that a candle had been placed in a box saturated with kerosene and the latter was just igniting when they discovered it. The fire was put out and a close watch was kept on the place but the incendiaries probably believing that this would be done, failed to return until last night. The watch had been withdrawn then and the third attempt ended in the structure being destroyed.

Mrs. Cottrell, the owner of the property, removed to Bayonne a few years ago and the place has since been unoccupied. At one time it was the handsomest and best kept of the many extending along the Valley road and was worth many thousands of dollars. Nearby residents are highly alarmed over the firing and many of them fear that the incendiarism will extend to other buildings.

ENTERED FOR TOURNAMENT

REINHART, GLENNEY AND ABBOTT TO BE IN GOLF CONTEST.

New Jersey golfers are likely to cut quite a figure in the National amateur golf championship to be started at Baltusrol on Tuesday, September 6. Frank O. Reinhart, of Belvidere avenue, the intercollegiate champion and a member of the Baltusrol Club, has made the round of the course in 75, which is the amateur record for the course.

Reinhart's long game compares favorably with any in the amateur ranks, and the fact that he has twice defeated Travis at match play tends to make him one of the favorites at Baltusrol. It is also probable that Robert Abbott and W. L. Glenney will enter the tournament and they are sure to give a good account of themselves.

Y. M. C. A. Fair.

The Woman's Auxiliary, of the Y. M. C. A., is arranging to hold a fair in Association Hall on September 5, 6 and 7, the proceeds of which will be used to help meet the expense for repairs on the building. There will be a sale of all kinds of useful and fancy articles and supper will be served each night.

Trolley Car Afire.

The fuse burned out in an Elizabeth-Dunellen trolley car yesterday afternoon while the car was passing Terrill road, near Scotch Plains. The floor of the car was soon on fire and the men in the car with much difficulty pushed the trolley a short distance away where water was obtainable. The fire was then soon extinguished. The damage was slight and all the passengers escaped unharmed.

Banner Raising.

The Democrats will raise a large banner at Bernardsville, this afternoon, and Richard V. Lindabury, Esq., of that place, will be among the prominent speakers. Democrats from North Plainfield and vicinity will be present.

MRS. MAXSON DUNHAM DEAD

MOTHER OF MRS. J. C. VANDYKE DIES AT AGE OF SEVENTY-EIGHT YEARS.

Mrs. Maxson Dunham, aged seventy-eight years, for many years a resident of New Market, and the mother of Mrs John C. VanDyke, of East Fifth street, died Sunday night at the home of her son, John Haas, of Millington. She had been in failing health for some time. She spent a month recently with her daughter here and had been at Millington about a month. Mrs. Dunham was born at Bedminister and after her marriage moved to New Market, where she lived the greater part of her life. She was a member of the Seventh-Day Baptist church there for twenty years and was a devoted Christian.

Several years ago while Mr. and Mrs. Dunham were living at New Market, their home was robbed one night by a negro who assaulted them both. For weeks they were in a critical condition and it was a question as to their recovery owing to their advanced age.

The funeral services of Mrs. Dunham will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from the home of John Haas, at Millington, Revs. Dr. Condit and Mr. Gibbs being in charge. Another service will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at Gladstone and the interment will be at the latter place.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING

BUTCHER'S DRIVER IS HELD TO AWAIT ACTION OF GRAND JURY.

Detected in embezzlement, it is alleged, Frank Ringler, a driver in the employ of Fred Endress, the West Front street butcher, was arrested early yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Peter V. Weaver at the store. The papers were issued by the firm from whom it was subsequently found, it is alleged, that Ringler had stolen $8 within the past six weeks. The money was paid him by various customers on account, and instead of turning it over, Ringler had retained it himself, it is said.

In the absence of Justice Hezekiah Hand, from whose court the papers were issued, the offender was brought before Justice Mosher, waived examination and was held under $50 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. The bail was furnished by Stonewall Jackson.

Ringler is about twenty-five years of age, a married man, and lives on West Front street.

GARVIN TO PITCH SATURDAY

MANAGER JOHNSTON SIGNS FORMER BROOOKLYN NATIONAL PLAYER.

The local baseball fans and supporters of the Plainfield A. C. feel sure that the team will add another victory to their string in the contest with Westfield on Saturday, it having been learned that Garvin, formerly of the Brooklyn Nationals, will pitch for the locals. It will be remembered that Garvin was in the box for Plainfield on Saturday, August 6, against Westfield, shutting them out by a score of 6 to 0. In that contest Barry got the only hit, a scratch, and twelve Westfielders struck out. Garvin's work was of the best and he made many friends while here. There are also strong chances that he will pitch for Plainfield the remainder of the season.

Garvin, who recently secured his release from the Brooklyns, reached his home Sunday night from Pittsburg. It was previously known that he wanted to finish the season here before the Brooklyns went west, and upon his return arrangements were made to secure his services.

Mr. Adams Buried.

The funeral services of William Fuller Adams were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the late home on East Sixth street, where a large number of relatives and friends were present. Rev. T. Logan Murphy, formerly rector of the Holy Cross church, conducted the services. The interment took place in Hillside cemetery and the pall-bearers were U. B. Crane, B. S. Braider, Stephen Krom, A. G. Thorn, Charles McGinley and William Morse.

Miss Curry Speaks at 'Plains.

Miss Sara Curry, of the Mary Morgan Home, Netherwood, accompanied by a delegation of the children at the home, visited the First Baptist church at Scotch Plains Sunday, where a special service was held by the organization.

POLITICAL POT IS BOILING IN SOMERSET

Booms for Congressional, Assembly and Shrievalty Nominations in the County.

IN BOTH PARTIES

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS MENTIONED FOR OFFICE.

F. F. Pope Wants to Go to the Legislature As Does Horace Codington—The Shrievalty Fight.

While there has been a great deal of talk about the political outlook in both sides of the house in Somerset county and a free mentioning of candidates for the different offices nothing has as yet been definitely decided upon, although some of those already mentioned have stated that they do not wish a nomination for any of the positions.

The outlook was gone over a few days ago by several prominent politicians, who are on the inside track and know what men are out in earnest for the nominations.

In the Democratic ranks for Congress in the Fourth district Major Nelson Y. Dungan, of Somerville, has come prominently forward and it would not surprise his admirers if he captured the plum. It is said many prominent men in Mercer favor his candidacy. "Senator" Joseph S. Frelinghuysen is the only man Somerset is booming for the Republican nomination.

There are candidates galore in both parties for the nomination for sheriff. Prominent in the Democratic files are Deputy Sheriff John L. Anderson, who is regarded as a very strong man. He hails originally from Bernards township and the voters almost to a man there always back John L. Another is Chairman Jacob Shurts, of the County Democratic Executive Committee. He is very popular with the voters and it is believed he would make a great run. From Montgomery way comes former Freeholder Eugene V. Cruser, who has a big following in that section as well as in other parts of the county. David Carney, of Plainfield, is a general favorite for the office.

The Republicans are considering the booms of former Assemblyman Edward E. Cooper, of Warren, who is very much liked by a large following. Thomas Douglas, of Bernards, and Charles P. Sebring, of North Plainfield, are also in the running with many friends, who are backing them with a will.

Both parties have many favorites for the Assembly, but Lawyer Frederick A. Pope, of Somerville, seems to have the Republican nomination tucked away in his vest pocket he thinks. Among the Democrats who are in line for the office is Lawyer Horace Codington, of Somerville, whose home is in Warren. It is believed he would be a strong candidate.

ELKS ANNUAL JUNKET.

Plainfield Well Represented in Today's Excursion.

The annual excursion of the Elizabeth Lodge of Elks, took place this morning to Witzel's Point Grove, L. I. It was attended by members of the order from all over the county and from indications will be one of the most successful in recent years. The Plainfielders who joined the crowd at Chancellor Dock are Fred Hand, Theodore LaRue, F. W. Westcott, Fred Moore, Thomas Timbo, Charles Flynn, William Feiring, Robert Eick, Frank Eick, Dan Galbraith, William Neal, and William Jukes.

Work Starts on City's New School.

Contract papers were signed and placed on file yesterday between Contractor John Abbott and the City Board of Education for the erection of the new City High School. The excavating work was at once commenced by Isaac Randolph, and as soon as one section of the cellar is completed B. F. Tallamy & Bro. will start the foundation. The school is to be completed and ready for occupancy within one year.

Local Unions' Outing Tonight.

Under the auspices of the Plainfield Building Trades Council, an outing will be held at Riverside Park tonight. The Plainfielders will leave Watchung Avenue station at 7:30 o'clock.

Honeyman Party Home.

The Honeyman party which has been abroad for several weeks, will return home today on the Steamship Bremen.

TRUST CO.'S BIG PURCHASE

Banking Concern Buys a Block of Business Houses in Central Section.

INTEND TO BUILD

On Park Avenue, From Second Street to the Boice Estate—What is Included in the Deal—The Plans.

One of the most important real estate transactions in local business property has just been completed, whereby the Plainfield Trust Company has acquired through purchase the land and buildings situated on Park avenue and extending from the Boice, Runyon & Co. coal and lumber yard to the George W. Force property on West Second street. The deal takes in all of the buildings in this block, many of which are among the oldest in the city.

The purchase was made chiefly for the purpose of giving the Plainfield Trust Company a permanent home. This will be located at the corner of Park avenue and West Second street. It is proposed to erect one of the finest buildings in the city. It will be one story high and will have a marble front. It will be provided with every modern improvement and will be modelled after the more recent structures of the kind in New York city.

Besides giving the company a handsome home, it will be the means of improving that corner which has been occupied for years with old buildings, not in keeping with the progressive spirit of the town. The new structure will extend back as far as the Force property on West Second street, and for a considerable distance south on Park avenue.

It is also proposed to erect on the remainder of the property two or three handsome buildings, the first floor being used for stores and the upper part for offices and suite of rooms, suitable for various kinds of business. These buildings will be modern in every respect and will include the very latest improvements.

Negotiations have been underway for some time for the purchase of this valuable property and the fact that there are several owners has somewhat delayed the consummation of the deal. Among the owners of this property were Mrs. G. W. F. Randolph, Ira F. Randolph, I. H. Boehm and Clifton & Campbell. Various real estate dealers held option on it and the work of getting them all together required considerable time. The money consideration in the deal is not stated, but it is known to aggregate thousands of dollars.

While, according to law, the present tenants must be given three months notice of removal, it is believed that efforts will be made to start the work of demolition as soon as possible, especially at the corner of Park avenue and Second street, where the Plainfield Trust Company will be anxious to commence the work of building its new home. This company since its organization here has steadily grown until today it is recognized as one of the leading banking institutions in the State. While the directors of this company are chiefly interested in this deal, there are a few outside business men who also have interest in it.

The properties affected by the deal include those occupied by Mefford Giles, butcher; William Randolph, barber; Mrs. F. A. VanNest, a restaurant; A. W. Johnston and E. H. Esander, plumbers and tinners; Charles Schantz, saloon; Mrs. Carbone, fruit dealer; Thomas Walsh, fruit dealer; M. O. Dobbins, cigar manufacturer, besides those who have living quarters in the upper part of one of these buildings.

In nearly every case these buildings were erected over twenty-five years ago and they have long been considered landmarks in the city. Ownerships have changed occasionally in one or two instances, but most of the property has been held continuously by the original owners. Sometime ago Sigmund Frucht acquired the property occupied by M. O. Dobbins, Thomas Walsh and Mrs. Carbone, but later he sold out to I. H. Boehm, who in turn sold to the Plainfied Trust Company together with the other owners.

Miss Madeline Debele, of Rock avenue, has returned from a two weeks' stay at Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

WANT DANGER REMOVED AT TROLLEY TERMINAL

Property Owners Declare Watchung Avenue Congestion Should be Relieved.

TWO PLANS SUGGESTED

DOUBLE-TRACKING OF STREET IS FAVORED MOST.

P. S. C. Officials Anxious to Secure This Improvement Before the City Lays Permanent Pavement.

Several accidents occurring recently at the Watchung avenue trolley terminus through the congestion of cars at transfer times, has resulted in a renewal of protests from property owners for a betterment of the conditions. At almost the same time the Public Service officials have made it known that they wish to relieve the traffic in the street and to that end will take steps to get the Common Council's permission to lay two tracks from North avenue around the corner to Somerset and Front streets.

The latter action has been hastened by the determination of the city authorities to lay a permanent pavement on Watchung avenue and the railway people argue that if they are ever to get permission to lay another track, it should be done now. Once a costly pavement is laid it would bar them from making any changes because of the expense. Through lengthening the terminal switches there are already two tracks from North avenue to Second street and it would make no great difference to continue one of them to where the double-track ends on Front street.

One of the heartiest advocates of the two track extension is Charles H. Hand, the well known real estate dealer, who has watched the congestion growing worse year after year. He has given the matter a great deal of personal attention and has arrived at the conclusion that it is the only way to remedy the evil. Several times it has been suggested that another way out of the difficulty is to put a switch in at Fourth street and Watchung avenue and let all Dunellen and through cars diverge at that point and proceed through Fourth street to Grant avenue then out at Front street. The majority of the property owners however, and the P. S. C. want the double track, as it will not only facilitate matters at the transfer station but give the Plainfield people better service.

Mr. Weightman's Will.

Mrs. Robert J. C. Walker, of Germantown, is made probably the richest woman in the world by the terms of the will of her father, William Weightman, who is the grandfather of Aubrey Weightman. Mr. Weightman was the richest man in Pennsylvania, his estate being estimated at more than $50,000,000. Every penny is given to Mrs. Walker, his only surviving child. While no provision is made in the will for the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mr. Weightman, it is the general impression that they were liberally endowed prior to his death. Aubrey Weightman married Miss Fannie Cox, of this city, a year ago.

Boys' Club Outing.

A joint outing of the Senior and Junior Boys' Clubs, of St. Stephen's church, will be held Thursday morning, when a big delegation of members will spend the day in a tramp through the field and woods back of Netherwood. A regular camp will be made at noon, and dinner will be cooked in the fields.

Conroy Sprained His Ankle.

Acting Patrolman John Conroy, who slipped and fell while chasing the supposed murderer along the New Jersey Central tracks Sunday afternoon, received a severely sprained ankle at the time. Yesterday he was forced to call Dr. Lufburrow and he is now confined to his home on West Second street.

Getting Ready for Parade.

The members of former Warren Engine Company will have a practice drill tonight in command of Captain Wm. C. Smith. One or two will be held each week from now on until the parade at Flemington, October 6, in which the borough boys will compete.

Riley's Farm Sold.

William H. Riley's farm of fifty acres, between Berkley Heights and Scotch Plains, was sold today to Horace Roberson, of Bayonne. W. H. Rogers, of Washingtonville, negotiated the sale.

PYTHIANS MAKING READY

LOCAL LODGE MEN DETERMINED TO CAPTURE PRIZES LABOR DAY.

Having decided to compete for the prize offered for the lodge having the largest number of members in line at the Field Day exercises in Somerville, Monday, Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., of this city, is now completing arrangements for the event. The committee appointed for the purpose has planned to have the Plainfielders wear a distinguishing uniform and its details will be considered at Friday night's meetnig. Liberty Drum Corps, of Elizabeth, will accompany Perseverance and the start will be made from this city by train at 11 o'clock. In the event of the local lodge securing the prize of $50 it will be spent in giving the members a dinner some day later in the month.

Crescent Company, the local Pythian uniformed organization, will also compete for the prizes offered the auxiliary body and a meeting will be held this evening to make all arrangements. Several of the Second Regiment officers will be in attendance and it is possible they will explain the details of the day's programme. Crescent Company is attached to the Second Regiment and will be with it during the prize manoeuvres. The Independent Fife and Drum Corps, of this city, will furnish its music.

MR. CALKINS' GOLF IDEA

SCHEME TO BE TRIED AT BALTUSROL NEXT WEEK.

More than ordinary interest is being manifested in the approaching amateur golf championship tournatment to be held at Baltusrol next week, by reason of the fact that the system of qualifying is the invention of Leighton Calkins, of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. It is known as the double system of qualifying and provides that the first day eighteen holes shall be played and thirty-six on the second day. This arrangement will save considerable time over the old system which called for thirty-six holes the first day.

The adoption of Mr. Calkins' scheme is a result of an article written by him and appearing in a recent issue of Golf. The executive committee having charge of the amateur tournament were much impressed with the suggestions and decided to try it.

TO SUPPORT REGULAR TICKET

F. SHATTLE, A SIGNER OF "OUTRAGED DEMOCRACY" ADDRESS, FOR PARKER.

Frank Shattle, president of the William R. Hearst Club, of Plainfield and a member of the Union County Democratic committee, declares that the "Outraged Democracy" address, which has caused such a stir in the minority party's camp, was materially altered since he signed it. He adds, however, that with the alterations and additions, it expresses his sentiments and that he would readily sign the document again.

As for the proposed People's party convention to be held at Atlantic City by Col. Price, the father of the "outraged democracy," on Sept. 7, Mr. Shattle is decidedly opposed to any secession from the regular organization. He declares he will not be a party to the scheme, but intends to support Parker and Davis. The Hearst organization here is said to be solid for the regular ticket.

C. O. GASKILL DEAD.

Duer Street Man Passes Away After Lingering Illness.

Charles O. Gaskill, aged thirty-four years, died this morning at his home, 136 Duer street, from tuberculosis. He had been ill a long time. Mr. Gaskill formerly was employed as driver for Alexander Thorn, a grocer, of Somerset street, and was well-known here. He leaves a wife and one child.

The funeral services will be held from the late home on Thursday afternoon as 3 o'clock. Interment will be in Hillside cemetery, South Plainfield. Friends and relatives are invited to attend the services.

Lodge at Boynton Today.

The Daughters of Rebecca made a trip to Boynton Beach by trolley this morning, and will spend the entire day at the resort. About twenty-five of the sisters made the trip.

—Neuman Brothers will put on sale tomorrow a new consignment of Jersey peaches — Mountain Rose, Old Mixen, Reeve's favorite and Elbertas.

COMMON COUNCIL'S MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

Watchung Avenue Brick Pave Ordinance to Come Up for Final Passage.

CITY TO DO THE JOB

MUCH STREET REPAIR WORK IS TO BE DONE.

Brick Pave to be Laid Before the Cold Weather Sets In—Why the City Will Do the Work.

Monday, September 5, being Labor Day, a legal holiday, the Common Council will probably follow the custom of past years and hold its regular meeting on Tuesday night, September 6. It has never been the custom of the Council to hold a session on a holiday, except on January 1, New Year's Day, this being required according to the city charter which states that the Council shall meet at that time for the purpose of organizing. A short meeting is held for that object and then an adjournment is taken until the following night.

Among the most important matters to be considered at the next meeting will be the paving ordinance which provides for the permanent improvement of Watchung avenue with brick. The ordinance will be introduced for a final reading and adoption. If adopted, and there is every reason to believe it will be, the work of laying the brick will probably be commenced soon afterward.

It has practically been decided that the work shall be done by the city under the direction and supervision of Street Commissioner Gavett, thus saving the city considerable money. If the city does the work it will obviate the trouble of advertising for bids to do the work, which is necessary in other municipal work. The officials do not believe it will be necessary to advertise for bids under the proposed arrangement and if this is true, it will mean a saving in time and enable the city to complete the job before cold weather sets in.

As it has been some time since a Council meeting has been held, there will probably be many matters of more or less importance to consider at the meeting. The street work will need some attention as the recent heavy rains have wrought havoc with streets in all parts of the city. The top dressing in many instances has been washed away and in other cases deep gullies have been left as a danger spot in travelling.

The street committee will probably meet on Thursday night and consider plans for repairing these streets before cold weather arrives. The street appropriation has not yet been exhausted and the street committee feel certain that it will have sufficient funds to put the streets in good repair for the fall and winter.

Outside of matters that must of necessity engage the attention of the Council, the members are not likely to hunt for new business until after election is over.

CAPTAIN MARTIN'S RECORD

CO. K'S COMMANDENT FINISHED SECOND IN NATIONAL SHOOT.

The members of Co. K are especially proud of the work done by Captain Martin at Ft. Riley, where he and fifteen other National Guardsmen took part in the shoots at that place. Although the New Jersey team did not figure in the match after the second day's shooting, owing to being penalized 83 points for shooting over their time allowance, several of the men made good on the Government ranges.

Captain Martin finished second for the New Jersey men, making a total of 374. Lieut. Tewes, of the First Regiment, finished first with 387. The total score of the team, which finished in tenth place, was 3,889 points.

Parrot Talks Spanish.

One of the attractions at Smalley Brothers' meat market on North avenue, is a Venezuela parrot. The bird talks Spanish and English and is fast becoming Americanized under the tutelage of the owner, David C. Smalley. The bird is a gift from former Senator Charles A. Reed. While the Senator and his family were in Venezuela, Miss Reed secured the parrot and her father presented it to Mr. Smalley.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

HEADY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

I. N. Wyckoff, of West Front street, is ready to make contracts for first-class painting and papering and he would like to quote you estimates on work.

Thorp's foot relief has gained a wide reputation for doing great work. If you are troubled with sore feet, try this remedy and you will never be without it.

William Hand & Sons, of East Second street, contracts to do all kinds of moving, both great and small. When you return from your vacation let this firm take care of your trunks.

Hoagland's express and trucking is looked out for by those who want the work done and on time. If you have a train to catch, get Hoagland for your trunks. Office on Park avenue.

Don't give out the contract for that new residence until W. H. Kirch has bid on the plans. House building is his specialty and he is always willing to furnish estimates. He does repair work, too.

J. D. Frazer, the Somerset street liveryman, recently added some handsome new rigs to his equipment and is now better prepared than ever to answer the demands of his customers. Horses and carriages to hire at any time.

B. J. Schreiner recently secured a large line of the very best perfumery and toilet articles which are now on display at his pharmacy on Park avenue at Second street. Everything for the sick room, prescription work and medicines.

A. M. Griffen, the hardware merchant, is offering exceptional bargains in household and kitchen utensils, including oil stoves, baking tins, breadmakers and many other things. First-class plumbing, heating and tinning is done at reasonable prices.

Three per cent. interest compounded semi-annually at the Plainfield Trust Company on all accounts, small or large. Five dollars will start an account there. Bring what you have laid aside and add to it from time to time. You know that old saw about saving the pennies.

You can't do better than drink Watchung spring water. It's good before meals, at meals and between meals. Get a sample glass of it at the office on North avenue and then order a swinging bottle of it, specially adapted for use in the home.

"Come to Peck's," that's the invitation that West Front street firm extends to those who want absolutely the best. And they go there, too. No second invitation is awaited by our local women-folks when they want the most stylish and the best materials and equipments for women-kind. Maybe not "cheap" or not a "bargain," but the best at that.

Just as the summer season is drawing to a close Woodhull & Martin are offering some great bargains in dry goods, housefurnishings and in fact every department. Soon it will be time to display the fall and witenr goods and the firm must make room for these goods by disposing of the summer stock. There will be plenty of warm days yet to come and you will not make a mistake in purchasing these desirable goods now.

The "Surprise Store" on West Front street is doing some remarkable price slashing in men's wear this week. There they are, all kinds of trousers, from the ordinary "working pants" that the song tells about to the kind that you're proud to wear afternoons and evenings. You can't do better than get a line on these prices. They can't last long, so you'd better stop at the store as early in the week as possible. Better values than ever at that store.

"Penny wise and pound foolish" is too often the fault with modern day merchants. They sell goods at a low price, representing them as high grade when they are the cheapest of the cheap, and for the time being make a profit. They lose a customer by it, however, and perhaps several of them. Such has never been the policy at the Fair on West Front street, where everything is just as it is represented or the money is refunded. No cheap goods at high prices, but the best articles in women's and children's wear within the reach of all.

$8.00 to Niagara Fall and Return Via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Grand Labor Day excursion. Tickets on sale September 2 and 3, good returning until September 5, inclusive. A trip of four days to the famous Cataract at minimum cost. Side trip tickets to Toronto and Alexandria Bay on sale at Niagara Falls, at low fares, to holders of excursion tickets. Ask city agent, 218 Front street, for further particulars. 8 19 11

$9.50 Toronto, Ont., and Return via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Tickets will be sold Sept. 2 and 3, good returning until Sept. 10, inclusive. Ask agents Lehigh Valley for further particulars. 8 29 5

ROASTS CHARLES N. FOWLER

SUMMIT RECORD SAYS SOME HARD THINGS CONCERNING HIM.

The Summit Record has this to say concerning Representative Charles N. Fowler, of the Fifth Congressional district:

"Charles N. Fowler has been heard from. To the average resident of this locality the name of Fowler may now have a strange and distant sound but for the benefit of those who do not recognize it, we may add that he is the distinguished statesman who succeeded in securing an election to the House of Representatives from the Fifth Congressional district of New Jersey two years ago. His schemes for improving the condition of Elizabeth by the donation of a library and for assisting the masses of the entire country by a bill revolutionizing its financial affairs were beautiful and alluring. It is true these schemes were heard of only prior to the election but they were beautiful and alluring nevertheless.

"It is likewise true that Fowler was not heard of in the two years since election but that should not be regarded as discreditable. Neither the Standard Oil Company nor the Typewriter Trust had a single important measure before Congress during these two years and it was not necessary for Charley to appear in the House of Representatives. Of course some questions of interest and importance to the Fifth district were brought before the House but Charley never made an appearance and he was seen in the House only three or four times during the session. Now election day is approaching, Charley realizes that a man without an office cuts very little ice with such concerns as the Standard Oil and Typewriter Trust and he emerges again from obscurity.

"The ostensible reason for his present appearance is to give an interview outlining the rosy, charming conditions in New Jersey that Mr. Fowler regards as pointing to a majority of at least 30,000 for the Republican ticket. There is no doubt Charley intends to seek the nomination for Congress again this fall."

DAYS OF DIZZINESS.

Come to Hundreds of Plainfield People.

There are days of dizziness;
Spells of headache, sideache, backache;
Sometimes rheumatic pains.
All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.
Here is proof in Plainfield.

Jepp Zensen, of 782 West Front street, pattern maker by trade, says: "For a year I had a sort of grinding pain across my back at times extending up to my shoulders and there was a lameness over my kidneys and severe headaches. When I stooped I always felt dizzy and sometimes was fairly blinded. In the mornings I felt stiff and sore until I got some exercise. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in my city paper and so highly recommended for kidney complaint that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. They did me a great deal of good. From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I cannot do otherwise than endorse them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Annie Nelson, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. Jeptha Dunham, of West Fourth street.

Mrs. James S. Pray and children, of East Sixth street, have returned from their summer outing at Exeter, N. H.

Miss Carrie Swope, of Somerset street, has returned from a visit of several weeks with Philadelphia relatives.

William D. Murray and family, of East Ninth street, are home from Northfield, Mass., where they spent their summer vacation.

Improving New Era.

Since purchasing the original tract of land between South Plainfield and New Market, known as New Era, the owners have secured an additional sixty acres and this will all be improved. Morris Higgins, of South Plainfield, has the contract to open up and grade twenty-two streets in this new settlement and work will be started soon. It is also proposed to erect a number of fine dwellings.

World's Fair Coach Excursions.

Via the picturesque Lehigh Valley Railroad, $18 for ten-day round trip. The Lehigh Valley Railroad announces the following dates for its coach excursions to the St. Louis Exposition: August 31; September 7, 14, 21 and 28; October 5, 12, 19 and 26. For full information consult Frank Rowley, city ticket agent, 281 West Front street. 8 6 eod

Pants Clearance.

Positively the best values ever offered in Men's and Boys' Pants will be found here during this Clearance Sale. Our usually low prices have been still further reduced, and the result is a genuine surprise to every purchaser.

Men's and Boys' strong working Pants, reduced to..... 75c

Strictly all wool Pants, that will stand washing well, reduced to..... 1.90

Fine fancy worsted Pants, regularly sold for 3.50, reduced to..... 2.50

Finest all wool worsted Pants, equal to any custom made, never sold less than 6.00 reduced to. 4.00

Our reductions in Suits still continue. Same applies to Furnishings, Hats and Shoes.

The ..... Surprise Store

324 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

REMEMBER THE NUMBER.

Continued Special Prices on Summer Goods.

Window Screens—The adjustable pattern—hardwood—
18 inches high, 17c each — 24 inches high, 22c each
28 inches high, 26c each — 30 inches high, 27c each

Screen Doors—98c—Hardwood, fancy spindles, hardware, complete..... 98c

Ten per cent Reductions on all Oil Stoves, Ovens, Refrigerators, Ice Chest, Water Coolers, Hammocks.

Ice Cream Freezers—
Alaska—3 quart size,....1.78 — 4-quart size,.....2.19
White Mountain—3-qt...1.98 — 4-quart size.....2.42

"THE NEWEST THING OUT"

Combination Rod and Reel

See it in our show window.

A. M. Griffen, 119-123 E. Front St.

WE GIVE BLUE EXCHANGE STAMPS

I. H. BOEHM

109-111-113 West Front Street.
126 Park Avenue.

AUGUST SALE.

We are offering Special Bargains in all Departments, but lack of newspaper space permits the mentioning of only a few of the many good values we are offering.

7c yd—500 yds of new Dress Ginghams, extra quality and all new patterns, val. 9c and 10c yd.
8c yd—1,000 yds of extra heavy Outing Flannel, all new Fall patterns and good colors, val. 11c yd.
10c yd—500 yds Mercerized Voiles, in pink, old rose and light green, reg. price 25c yd.
12½c yd—Special lot of new White Goods, extra fine quality and very desirable patterns, value 15c and 18c yd.
59c pr—10-4 white and gray Blankets, extra heavy quality, reg. value 75c pair.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

49c—Men's Madras Shirts, all new goods and nice patterns, reg. price 75c and 1.00 each.
49c—Men's sateen working Shirts, in black and white stripes and plain black, value 69c.
49c—Men's black and white Cheviot working Shirts, reinforced back and front, val. 65c ea.
98c—Men's Madras Shirts, extra fine quality Madras and extra well made, reg. sold for 1.25 ea.
25c—Men's working Shirts. We are selling an extra good working Shirt for 25c, in black and white stripes, made of good quality Cheviot, value 39c.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

We are showing our new Fall lines of Ready-to-Wear Felts. We have only the newest and most up-to-date styles, in all colors and prices.
Our assortment of Millinery is the largest and prices the lowest in the city.
We are showing all that is new and up-to-date in Breasts, Pompons, Shapes, etc.

HATS PURCHASED HERE TRIMMED FREE.

Trouser Sale.

Timely Summer Needfuls at Slaughter Prices.

2,000 Pairs on Sale.

Prices cut in two—½ off.
Style and Price alike, will tempt you to purchase.

WERNER'S Clothing House....

206 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

THE BALANCE OF THE $19,000 SALE

Must Be Sold This Week. Cost Is Not Considered.

Don,t miss this great opportunity, buy your goods now while the prices are in reach of everyone. No matter what your circumstances may be, you can't afford to miss this sale.

Our 20.00 and 15.00 Ladies' Tailor-made Suits reduced to..... 5.98

Our fine line of Jackets and Skirts must be sold and will be sold at 25c on the dollar.

In order to prove our statement we refer you to the thousands of buyers who have attended this sale.

Boston Cloak and Fur Store

245 West Front Street, Plainfield. Opp. Postoffice

ICE CREAM

Wholesale and Retail.

I have vacated my store on Park avenue and am still making PURE ICE CREAM AT 32 BANK PLACE.

All orders by 'phone (No. 470y) or mail will receive prompt attention.

LAKE HOUSE NOW OPEN. JOHN H. TIER.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR BALLANTINE'S IDEAL MALT EXTRACT

"ALL THE MALT."
BUILDS UP THE SYSTEM AND CREATES APPETITE.
TRY IT FOR SLEEPLESSNESS.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR NEW YORK HERALD AND THE WORLD RECEIVED AT THE DAILY PRESS OFFICE AT REGULAR RATES.

FINEST FRESH FISH.

You are assured of getting the finest Fresh Fish procurable when you order of Ivamy—we guarantee the quality.
Come to us for the best selection of Bluefish, Mackerel, Weakfish, Porgies, Soft Shell Crabs, and in fact every good Fish in season. Prices reasonable.

Special Cash Sale Saturday.

FRED. IVAMY,
Successor to Rogers & Co.,
232 West Second St.
Telephone 140.

Brokaw's Creamery

Everything clean, sanitary and up-to-date.
My own make of Butter is simply elegant, so we are told every day; and our Sweet Butter without salt is selling like hot cakes.
My Buttermilk is unsurpassed, everybody says it's the best in the city. A trial will convince you.
One specialty is Fresh Eggs direct from the farm.
Call and we will be pleased to show you what a first-class Creamery is like.
We have everything in the Dairy line, also a nice line of Crackers and Bread.

186 East Front St.

Butter, Milk,
Poultry and Eggs
direct from the best Jersey farms.
Also Ham, Bacon,
Bolognas and Sausages.
H. H. Smith,
228 Park Avenue, Opp. North.

Advertised Mail Matter.

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 29, 1904.
R. H. BIRD, P. M.

Brooks, Mr William
Burnett, Mrs Clarence
Bonnett, Mr Wm P
Boucher, Mr T J
Campbell, Miss Jennie
Corinio, Mr Scarano
Dowell, Miss Florence
Edmon, J H 2
Galbraith, Mr Peter C
Henderson, Mrs Jean
Hoagland, Rev Warren
Holomes, Mr Biaggio
Higgins, Mrs John
Hetrick, Mr Geo W
Jansen, Mr L
Jennings, Miss J
Jones, Miss Henrietta 2
Jannan, Mr, Alonzo
Happter, Miss Sofia
Lauienbach, Mr Howard
Michols, Miss Ray
Pakaed, Miss Sara DeV
Roy, Miss Helen
Ses, Miss Ida
Segersband, Mrs Mary
Schurs and Son
Soutter, Mrs G W
Shisak, Miss Cora
Stott, Miss Nora
Pettridge, Mr Samuel
Terry, Mrs M L
Ribbon Co, The United

Please say "Advertised."

FLORISTS.

PHONE 398 L.

CHARLES L. STANLEY,
144 NORTH AVENUE.

A large stock of all seasonable Flowers always on hand. Flowering Plants, Palms and Ferns in large assortment. Floral Designs, Baskets and Centre Pieces artistically made up at short notice. Lowest prices. Greenhouses, South Ave., Nether'od. Phone 407 L.

FLYING HANDICAP.

Broomstick, Favorite, Won Easily at Sheepshead Bay.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Broomstick carrying 129 pounds and favorite in the betting, easily won the Flying handicap, six furlongs, at Sheepshead Bay. Lady Amelia jumped away in the lead and opened up a gap of two lengths on Broomstick. She continued to show the way to the stretch, where she began to tire, and Broomstick, closing strong, won by three lengths from Lady Amelia, who beat Mineola two lengths for the place.

Woodsaw, who was Artful's stable mate in the Futurity, easily captured the Autumn Maiden stake. Woodsaw broke in front and led all the way. Wild Mint, an added starter, was second, and Heart's Desire was third. Jockeys Martin and Sperling were suspended for three days each.

BASEBALL SCORES.

Results of Yesterday's Games In National and American Leagues.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At St. Louis—
New York ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 0—2
St. Louis ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
Batteries—Ames and Warner; Nichols and Grady.
At Pittsburg—
Brooklyn ..... 0 1 0 0 1 0 1 0 4—7
Pittsburg ..... 3 3 0 1 1 0 1 2 —11
Batteries—Mitchell and Ritter; Leever and Phelps.
Second game—
Brooklyn ..... 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—2
Pittsburg ..... 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 1—3
Batteries—Scanlon and Ritter; Case and Phelps.
At Chicago—
Philadelphia ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Chicago ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 —2
Batteries—Sparks and Dooin; Weimer and O'Neill.
At Cincinnati—
Boston ..... 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 1—3
Cincinnati ..... 0 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 —4
Batteries—Wilhelm and Marshall; Walker and Schlei.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	81	32	.717
Chicago	68	44	.607
Cincinnati	67	47	.587
Pittsburg	65	46	.586
St. Louis	60	56	.517
Boston	43	73	.371
Brooklyn	38	74	.339
Philadelphia	32	82	.281

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At Boston—
Detroit ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0
Boston ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1
Batteries—Killian and Drill; Dineen and Criger.
At Philadelphia—
Chicago ..... 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1
Philadelphia ..... 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 0 *—4
Batteries—Altfock and McFarland; Waddell and Schreck.
At Washington—
St. Louis ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0—2
Washington ..... 1 1 1 0 1 0 0 2 0—7
Batteries—Glade and Sugden; Jacobson and Kittridge.
At New York—
Cleveland ..... 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 1 1—4
New York ..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—2
Batteries—Bernhardt and Bemis; Powell and Kleinow.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	67	43	.609
New York	65	43	.602
Philadelphia	61	44	.581
Chicago	64	48	.571
Cleveland	61	46	.570
Detroit	47	61	.435
St. Louis	42	64	.396
Washington	25	83	.231

John Smulski at Harlem.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—John Smulski won the Junior handicap, the feature of the opening day at Harlem. Smulski ran a splendid race, being last all the way until well into the stretch. He was carrying 117 pounds, and it seemed as though he did not have a chance to win. Helgesen pulled him back, took him up on the outside, and then the colt with a great burst of speed came to the wire two lengths ahead of Cigarlighter. Oliver Mc, the favorite in the steeplechase handicap, had the race almost won, but struck his feet on the last jump and went down.

Tomlinson Landed at Wyoming.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—A telegram has been received by Assistant Chief Percy Hudson of the department of transportation at the world's fair saying that George E. Tomlinson of Syracuse, N. Y., contesting with Carl E. Meyers of Frankfort, N. Y., in a balloon race to Washington, has landed near Wyoming, Ill., after being in the air twenty-four hours. Meyers had landed near St. Charles, Mo., after being in the air a little more than two hours. The contest will be continued until Nov. 1 for a prize of $5,000.

Grand Circuit at Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 30.—Four thousand persons attended the opening of the grand circuit meeting in Narragansett park. While all of the events were decided in straight heats, several of them were extremely interesting. One world's record was smashed, the pacing record for mares without a pacemaker in front. Dariel, the handsome little mare owned by C. H. Chapin of Rochester, N. Y., lowered her own record of 2:03¼ by half a second.

Ed Ball Won by a Nose.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—Ed Ball and Commodore fought it out through the stretch in the fair grounds feature, the former getting the verdict by a nose. Many of the spectators thought Commodore, who finished on the extreme outside, had won, but those in line with the wire agreed with the placing of Judge Murphy. A noisy demonstration took place when Ed Ball's number was displayed as first past the post.

Mayor Would Not Permit Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—The proposed six round boxing contest between James J. Corbett and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, in this city on Sept. 7, has been called off by the management of the Tuxedo Athletic club, before which organization the men were to have met. The reason given is that Mayor Weaver had informed the promoters that he would not permit the contest to take place.

Big Fire Boosts Sugar Market.

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—The largest sugar factory in Germany, named Kulmsee, near Thorn, West Prussia, has been burned, involving a loss of $1,250,000. The fire caused a rise in the sugar market at Hamburg of 3 cents a hundredweight.

AT OLYMPIC GAMES

Great Records Made at the World's Fair Stadium.

EWRY BEAT WORLD'S BROAD JUMP

Athletes From Many Nations Met the Pick of American Sprinters, Jumpers, Distance and Weight Men.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—One world's record was broken, two Olympic records were lowered and one Olympic record was equaled as a result of the first day's events in the Louisiana Purchase exposition revival of the Olympic games.

Athletes from many nations met the pick of American sprinters, jumpers, distance and weight men in the first six events of the card that will last all week. There were also four handicap events that resulted in more even competition and gave several close finishes.

Although the earlier part of the day was threatening, when the games began there was nothing to be desired from a weather standpoint. While the clouds may possibly have kept the attendance down there were about 5,000 spectators present when the first heat in the fifty meter run, the opening event, was run.

A burst of cheering followed the announcement of the time in this heat, 7 seconds, as it equaled the record established at the Paris revival of the Olympic games in 1900. The second heat was also run in record time, as was the final.

The first Olympic record to go was broken by John Flanagan of the Greater New York Irish Athletic association, the holder. His first essay with the sixteen pound hammer resulted in a throw of 168 feet 1 inch, exceeding the record made by him in Paris by nine inches.

The standing broad jump brought out a field that has never been equaled in the history of American athletics. The first jump, that of C. N. King of McKinney, Tex., exceeded the Olympic record by three-fifths of an inch. Ray Ewry of the New York Athletic club, holder of the Olympic and world's records, followed, and on his first jump beat the Olympic record and came within two inches of equaling the world's record with a jump of 11 feet 2 inches.

Ewry demonstrated that his championship form had not deserted him, and he established a new world's record of 11 feet 4⅞ inches. His jumps were as follows: 11 feet 2 inches, 11 feet 2¼ inches, 11 feet 4¼ inches, breaking his own world's record of 11 feet 4 inches and 11 feet 5⅜ inches.

While the record established at Paris by G. W. Orton of the University of Pennsylvania for the 2,500 meter steeplechase was not seriously endangered that event proved one of the most interesting of the day's sport. John J. H. Daly of Ireland got off in the lead and ran a magnificent race, but was headed by James D. Lightbody of the Chicago Athletic association on the last lap and beaten to the tape by a scant margin.

The steeplechase was a novelty in this part of the country and awakened great enthusiasm among the spectators, especially when the contestants negotiated the ten foot water jump. Several of the tired runners failed to clear, and each splash was greeted by prolonged cheering.

Saloon Smashing In Kansas.

CUBA, Kan., Aug. 30.—Armed with hatchets, Mrs. F. O. Fites and Mrs. William McDonald, wives of business men, aided by twenty-five other women, wrecked five saloons here. They first entered the place of Ben Hull, broke every bottle and opened every keg to be found. Later they were joined by twenty-five other women, and the entire party raided the other four saloons in Cuba. The stocks and fixtures at each place were destroyed in prompt order.

Forest Fire In Montana and Idaho.

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 30.—One of the fiercest forest fires on record is raging southwest of here in the main range of the Bitter Root mountains. The fire has burned over a radius of many miles in Montana and Idaho, where there is much fallen timber. Many other large fires in Montana are still burning, and great quantities of timber are being destroyed. This is the dryest season in the history of Montana.

Taft at Portland Tonight.

MILLBURY, Mass., Aug. 30.—Secretary of War William H. Taft is here visiting his mother, Mrs. Alphonso Taft, whose home is in this town. Secretary Taft declined to talk politics further than to express the utmost confidence that President Roosevelt would lead the Republican party to victory. Mr. Taft is booked to speak at Portland, Me., this evening.

A Duel on Main Street, Marion.

MARION, Ark., Aug. 30.—Bitter feeling between rival candidates for sheriff caused a pistol duel on Main street between Sheriff J. F. Williamson and former Sheriff W. F. Warner. Neither participant was injured. It is feared further trouble will result.

Ex-Governor Cornell Very Ill.

ITHACA, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Former Governor Alonzo B. Cornell, who has been ill for several weeks at his home, is in a very critical condition, and there are slight hopes for his recovery.

Bulldog Brought $5,000.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Daily Mail this morning says that George J. Gould has purchased E. A. Mills' champion bulldog Heath Baronet for $5,000.

VICTORY FOR JAPS

Kuroki's Troops at Gates of Liaoyang.

A SHELL KILLS RONTKOWSKY

Kuropatkin Now Pressed Back Toward Mukden.

RUSSIANS LOST THREE THOUSAND

Since the Capture of Anshanshan the Forces of the Mikado Have Pressed on With Irresistible Power, and Now at Liaoyang They Threaten the Practical Annihilation of the Enemy's Whole Army.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Advices from Harbin, Manchuria, say that the Russian losses in the great four days' battle east and south of Liaoyang were 1,000 killed or wounded. The great majority of the casualties were sustained at Anping.

With the enemy now pressing him on three sides General Kuropatkin must repulse the attack of the Japanese or his army will be in a position that will mean its practical annihilation.

The withdrawals of the Russians from their front at Anshanshan and from their eastern position were made simultaneously for strategic reasons to prevent their being outflanked by the Japanese.

In the fighting of Aug. 26 the One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Saraisk regiment, with a battery, executed a particularly successful flanking movement on the Japanese extreme right. The Russians unperceived got in the rear of the Japanese, whole columns of whom were mowed down before they were able to extricate themselves.

Eyewitnesses agree in admiring the fanatical bravery of the Japanese. Many of the wounded committed suicide rather than fall into the hands of the Russians.

An additional detachment of 600 Russian wounded has been sent northward.

The Japanese artillery at Liaoyang resumed the battle at 6 o'clock in the morning, the point of pressure again being the Russian south front. The Japanese infantry then advanced to the attack, the regiments being deployed in open order.

The Russian army has effected its retirement, with transport and artillery, to Liaoyang and is now in position awaiting the advancing Japanese. The progress of the latter has been rapid and determined, the troops sparing no sacrifice.

In the attack on the Sinolandzy position one Japanese battalion lost all of its officers.

The retirement of the Russian transport of four corps across the plains while the artillery and troops in the rear held off the Japanese afforded a magnificent spectacle. All along the extended lines there was an incessant roar of batteries, the Russians working their guns with great coolness and not retiring until the transport was in safety.

General Rontkowsky was killed by a shell while leading his command.

Dispatches received here say that General Kuropatkin's entire army south of Liaoyang has retreated to that place.

The Japanese, numbering 250,000 men, under Generals Oku, Nodzu and Kuroki, are pressing the Russians to the east, south and southwest, trying to force a general engagement.

The Russians are contesting every inch of the ground, and there is severe fighting in progress. General Kuropatkin has sent provisions north and is retiring toward Mukden.

After a reconnoissance in force made by the Japanese they decided that a general advance should be made. So their reserve divisions, which occupied Liandiansian and supported the reconnoissance, were ordered to the firing line. They made a forced march, and the Russian front was attacked in three places.

The Japanese infantry advanced under the cover of a tremendous artillery fire and attacked the Russian line with great courage, and they climbed hills like the Gurkhas. They were met with a murderous hail of magazine fire, but numbers prevailed, and, with ringing shouts, the Japanese cleared the heights with the bayonet, inflicting terrible losses on two Russian regiments.

This success initiated a general retirement in all parts of the Russian line. The center had been diven in, and the flanks therefore fell back.

At Anshanshan the Russians had a stiff task, but held the Japanese off and retreated in good order. In two parts of the field the Japanese were repulsed.

The general staff at St. Petersburg has received a lengthy dispatch from General Kuropatkin to the effect that all his forces south of Liaoyang have been withdrawn north of there. The Japanese are practically at the gates of Liaoyang.

The roads are almost impassable, and the Russian troops in falling back are hampered by the number of baggage and commissariat wagons with them.

The fighting continued all day, resolving itself into a terrific rear guard action.

General Rontkowsky and Colonel von Reshbe are among the killed.

Tokyo advices say that as a result of the combined forward movement of their armies the Japanese have occupied Anshanshan and are now pursuing the retreating Russians.

The Japanese have captured and occupied Anping, which is twelve miles southeast of Liaoyang.

As soon as the Japanese advanced to the attack of Anping the Russians evacuated the place, abandoning quantities of stores.

The Japanese turned the right flank of the Russians at Anshanshan and captured eight guns.

A Shanghai report says that the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Grozovoi has been disarmed, and the cruiser Askold will be dismantled today.

VICE PRESIDENT NO MORE.

G. W. Cummings, Founder of American Press Association, Dead.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—George W. Cummings, vice president of the American Press association, died suddenly Aug. 28 at Banff, Northwest Territories, while on his way from his home in Los Angeles, Cal., to New York.

Mr. Cummings was born near Terre Haute, Ind., in 1848 and was graduated from Indiana State university in 1872. He was married in 1879 to Miss Josephine de Fontaine of Charleston, S. C., who died in 1903. He engaged in journalism in Terre Haute and afterward in St. Louis.

In 1882, in connection with Major O. J. Smith and R. W. Nelson, Mr. Cummings founded the American Press association in Chicago. Last spring he removed from New York, where he had lived for twenty years, to Los Angeles. His health had been impaired for some years before his death. He was identified with a number of business undertakings and died possessed of a considerable fortune. He will be buried in Woodlawn cemetery, New York.

FOR NEW YORK'S GOVERNOR.

The Republicans Will Name Either Woodruff, Higgins or Butler.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—On the eve of the city primaries there is a great deal of uncertainty about the Republican nomination for governor of New York. Some men are beginning to suspect that Governor Odell has been in earnest in the declaration that he has so often made that he did not know who would be named.

Three men only are now talked about—Timothy L. Woodruff, Lieutenant Governor Higgins and Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia college. Mr. Woodruff is the most active candidate, and he believes he is going to win. Governor Odell does not share that confidence, which probably means that Odell is not for the Brooklyn man.

Although Governor Odell has declared from the beginning that he had no candidate and asserted that it would be an open convention, it is not believed that he has ever thought it would be "open" for Woodruff.

Senator Hoar's Birthday Gifts.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 30.—The following bulletin was issued from the home of Senator George F. Hoar: "Senator Hoar has had a comfortable day. He has taken his nourishment regularly and has spent the day sleeping quietly or talking with the members of his family. Beginning early in the morning with a splendid vase of sunflowers sent in by a neighbor, the senator has had messages and flowers from a very large number of friends. These remembrances upon his birthday have been to him a source of great comfort. His condition remains unchanged, and there is no gain in his strength.

Paraguay Revolt Succeeding.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 30.—The Paraguayan insurrectionists are actively preparing for a land attack by foot and mounted forces. Serious resistance is not expected. Government troops at Asuncion are freely deserting. Their rations are now reduced to three biscuits daily. The country is almost entirely dominated by the insurgents. In an interview with Senor Viera, the Paraguayan minister, Jose A. Terry and O. Betbeder, respectively Argentine ministers of foreign affairs and of marine, promised that Argentina would maintain strict neutrality.

Veteran Major Shot Himself.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 30.—Major P. E. Eltonhead, late of the Twenty-first and Fourteenth regiments of United States infantry, a veteran of the Indian and Philippine wars and a member of the Detroit club, has committed suicide in his rooms at the Lothrop apartments by shooting himself through the mouth. Despondency was the cause of the act.

Canterbury at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Aug. 30.—The archbishop of Canterbury spent the early part of the day resting quietly. He was taken by Bishop Dunn to view various points of interest, and last night there was a dinner at Bishop Thorpe's in his honor attended by a large number of the leading churchmen of Quebec.

Plehve's Assassin Not Tried Yet.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30.—The statement made that Sasoneff, the assassin of Minister of Interior Plehve, had been sentenced to death proves to be incorrect. The question as to whether the assassin will be tried by court martial or by a civil court has not yet been decided.

Kid McCoy Place Destroyed.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 30.—The Kid McCoy place at Saratoga lake, owned by Ralph Thompson, was destroyed by fire last night, causing a loss of $15,000.

Two Cruisers at Port au Prince.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Aug. 30.—The United States cruisers Newark and Denver have arrived here.

Open Friday Evening—Close Saturday 12 o'clock (Noon).

BAMBERGER'S
THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE
MARKET & HALSEY STS.

A GREAT SCHOOL SUPPLY SALE.

THE GREATEST BLANKET SALE ON RECORD IN NEWARK

America's foremost mill sends us this gigantic August ending Blanket Sale, we having absorbed the entire surplus line at prices that have never before been equalled on blankets of such a high standard of excellence. This great lot includes odd pairs, blankets made up in excess of orders and those upon which a tiny drop of oil may have fallen in making—1,700 pairs in all—representing the greatest single blanket purchase ever made in Newark.

This huge and altogether wonderful purchase will be ready for you bright and early Monday morning on special tables.

FIRST FLOOR

COTTON BLANKETS — Extra heavy weight, fine, fleecy, large size, in white or gray—a good value at 1.50 or even 1.75, but we have arranged them for quick selling. Special... 1.25

COTTON BLANKETS—10-4 size and of extra good quality, white or gray, good weight and of liberal size, the regular price of this blanket would be 1.00, special, per pair..... 69c

GRAY WOOL BLANKETS—11-4 size and of extra fine qualities, very serviceable, clean and clear, and free from all inferior mixtures, a splendid blanket and one that sells reg. at 3.50, we offer them at..... 2.49

COTTON BLANKETS — Heavy grade in either white or gray, finely woven and well napped, a blanket that would cost you 1.25 a pair if bought in the reg. way, we offer them during this sale at..... 89c

6.00 to 7.50 BLANKETS at 4.98—Five or six varieties at this wonderful price. The heavy California variety, chain warp and all wool filling, red, pink, blue and yellow borders, with 2 and 4 in. silk binding, 10-4, 11-4 and 12-4 sizes for ¾, full size or extra large beds. Not a blanket in the lot worth less than 6.00, and the most of them 7.00 and 7.50, all special at 4.98

HEAVY WOOL BLANKETS—Good substantial quality with cotton chain warp, fine wool filling, pretty red, blue and pink borders, Blankets that you'd have to pay 5.00 for under ordinary circumstances, but we offer them special at..... 3.98

CALIFORNIA WOOL BLANKETS—Extra large size and of exceptionally fine qualities wool, finest woven with pretty blue, pink and red borders, a quality that will satisfy, and all reg. 7.50 and 8.98 goods. Special price 5.98

LAMBS-DOWN BLANKETS — Made of the highest class woven yarn, full size and of superior quality, woven and finished with the greatest care and in all a great bargain. 15.00 grade, special at..... 10.98

HEAVY WOOL BLANKETS—These blankets are finished and filled like the more very reliable and of splendid quality, you will like them sure, reg. 3.98 Blankets, special during this sale, per pair..... 2.98

L. Bamberger & Co
NEWARK, N. J.

TRY 5 GALLONS
WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER.

Orders by mail promptly filled.
Patent swinging crate, very convenient

Plainfield Spring Water Co
Box 743. Plainfield, N. J.

THE PLEASURE
of a smoke depends on the quality of the Cigar! Spend the lazy hours of your vacation in smoking

OUR CIGARS,
and you'll find you've got your money's worth every time. Our Cigars are good and the price is low. Sold singly or by the box.

KIRBY'S
106 Park Avenue, Plainfield.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
PARK AVENUE,
Opp. North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Dealers in
BEST LEHIGH COAL,
LUMBER,
MASON MATERIALS,
&c. &c.
Sole Agents N. J. Pulp Plaster

Use Press Want Ads.

IF you have never succeeded in getting glasses that improved your vision, don't you think it advisable to drop in and see us? It will cost you nothing unless you choose to give us an order.

STILES & CO.
Philadelphia EYE SPECIALISTS
107 E. Front St.
Every Thursday.
Hours:—11:15 a. m. to 1 p. m. and 1:45 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Just received an assortment of new style
BOX PAPERS.
Also a full line of the leading Magazines and Weeklies constantly on hand.
Harper's,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HOAGLAND'S
EXPRESS and BAGGAGE TRANSFER.
Office 302 Park Ave. Tel. 322 W.

DR GOSSOM'S KIDNEY & BLADDER CURE
Is guaranteed to quickly and permanently cure every symptom, irregularity or disease of the Kidneys and Bladder:
Bright's Disease, Dropsy, Backache, Gout, every Urinary Disorder, etc.
It cures after all other medicines and physicians have failed. It never fails.
50 CENTS PER BOX.
T. S. ARMSTRONG,
Cor. North and Park Avenues.

A Big Business on a Small Scale
is done here. We serve a great number of customers with choice
Roasts, Chops, Steaks,
Provisions and Poultry. Special care is taken in warm weather in selecting meats. Inferior grades of meat are not permitted to enter our store. Our hygenic cold-air refrigeration is the only one in the city, thus ensuring health, fine flavor and condition, that's why our meats taste so good. Try a nice Leg of Lamb for your Sunday dinner. Prices are lower than ever.
Fine Fresh Fish of all kinds can be found in our Seafood Department. Saturday special sale
FRED ENDRESS.
131-135 W. Front St.

Delicious Peaches.
We are offering tempting inducements in fine Peaches—their rich, juicy flavor and excellent quality will delight your taste.
Come here for Peaches for canning, preserving and eating raw.
W. W. DUNN.
The Park Grocer,
Duer Street and Lincoln Pl.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Only about 150 Special Bargains of High Class, properly restricted, residential and business locations, on Martine Estate on Park, Prospect, Watchung, Kensington, Hillside, Martine and Thornton avenues, and New avenue, to be an extension of Evergreen avenue, 80 feet wide, from Hillside to Park. Titles insurable. Prices low. Terms easy. Buyers of lots can have houses built to their own order, on terms easier than renting. Your own Broker, or WELLES & CO., 45 Broadway, N. Y. J. P. MACDONALD, 149 North avenue, Local Manager. Telephone. "Don't Delay."

The Park Stables.
Livery and Boarding.
108 Somerset Street
To ophone 493 J. North Plainfield.
High-class Horses and Carriages. Prompt Service.
JAMES D. FRAZER.

FRANK VAN WINKLE
129 North Avenue
Bicycles Photo Supplies
Kodaks and Cameras
Bicycles stored, cleaned and repaired
Developing, Printing and Mounting a specialty

Now is the Time to get cheap lumber. New White Pine Flooring, Window and Door Frames, Siding, etc. You can Save 50 Per Cent.
on this lumber.
ALEX. KANE,
312 Fillmore Avenue.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.
START NOW TO
OWN A HOME
of your own by taking out shares in
THE CENTRAL
Building and Loan Asso'n.
OF PLAINFIELD.
J. F. MacDonald, Sec'y.
Smalley Building, No 149 North avenue 4 14 tf

DIED JUST IN TIME.

Negro Slayer of J. A. Bishop Would Have Been Lynched.

FITZGERALD, Ga., Aug. 30.—A. L. Scott, the negro slayer of J. A. Bishop, died in the city jail here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His death probably averted serious mob trouble, as excitement was at fever heat from the time the special train arrived from Rebecca with the prisoner, who was captured by citizens of that place.

When the first report of Scott's capture reached here Chief of Police Herman Smith, accompanied by six armed citizens, left at once for Rebecca, which is a small village, fearing a general uprising among the negroes. Smith and his party were followed by a special train carrying a heavily armed force from here and gathering up a number en route.

The special train returned at 2:30 o'clock in the morning, carrying the negro, who had resisted arrest until fatally wounded. He was taken to the city jail, and at dawn the mob gathered and there was imminent danger of lynching. The prisoner was removed to the second story of the city hall, a substantial brick structure, and placed under a heavy guard.

Company M, Fourth Regiment Georgia state troops, under command of Lieutenant Charles A. Day, was called to arms and held in readiness for immediate action.

The mob refused to disperse for more than an hour after the death of the negro, declaring the report to be a ruse to deceive the excited populace until he could be removed to Abbeville. He died thirty minutes before the arrival of the sheriff of Wilcox county, and the remains still lie at the city hall.

AUTO INSPECTION TOUR.

General Corbin Well Pleased With Gainesville Camp Conditions.

GAINESVILLE, Va., Aug. 30.—General Corbin, in command of the maneuver camp, has made an inspection of his own camp and that of division No. 2, at Thoroughfare. The inspection tour was made in a high power automobile. The camp of division No. 1, at Manassas, will be inspected today in the same manner.

Reports received from Generals Bell and Grant show that not a man of the 5,000 in the two camps is sick. The location and arrangement of the camps is highly commended by General Corbin, who paid special attention to their sanitary features. It is his desire that the militiamen, who are not accustomed to camp life, shall not suffer during the maneuvers.

Later General Corbin attended the unveiling and dedication of a monument to the Confederate dead of the first battle of Bull Run at Groveton.

Roochiggiani Hanged Himself.

ASCOLI, Italy, Aug. 30.—The photographer Roochiggiani, who was arrested on Aug. 7 in connection with the theft from the Cathedral of Ascoli of a priceless Cope which was afterward bought by J. Pierpont Morgan of New York, has committed suicide here by hanging himself to a bar in his cell. He had refused nourishment for several days. The Cope, which was very ancient and considered priceless, was stolen from the cathedral in 1902. It mysteriously disappeared while repairs were being made to the cathedral, and though the government took measures for its recovery its efforts were unsuccessful.

Last of the Medicine Men.

WHITE EARTH, Minn., Aug. 30.—Shaw Ross Kung, chief oracle and one of the last of the grand medicine priests of the Ojibways, is dead here, aged eighty. A few years ago he became a Roman Catholic, in which faith he died.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Closing Stock Quotations.

Money on call nominally at 1 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 3½@4 per cent; exchanges, $105,928,131; balances, $5,929,830.

Closing prices:

Amal. Copper	58	N. Y. Central	123
Atchison	81¾	Norf. & West	67¾
B. & O.	87	Penn. R. R.	126
Brooklyn R. T.	54	Reading	60½
C., C., C. & St. L.	79¾	Rock Island	25¾
Ches. & Ohio	38¼	St. Paul	155¾
Chi. & Northw.	188¾	Southern Pac.	57¾
Erie	27¾	Southern Ry.	29
Gen. Electric	166	South. Ry. pf.	95
Ill. Central	136	Sugar	131¾
Lackawanna	274½	Texas Pacific	32
Louis. & Nash.	121½	Union Pacific	100¾
Manhattan	155¾	U. S. Steel	12¾
Metropolitan	121¾	U. S. Steel pf.	60
Missouri Pac.	97¾	West. Union	90

New York Markets.

FLOUR—Firm, but slow; Minnesota patents, $5.90@6.40; winter straights, $5@5.25; winter extras, $3.45@4; winter patents, $5.20@5.50.

WHEAT—Opened easy on lower cables and heavy Russian shipments, but soon recovered and was firm on cool weather news and fears of frost; September, $1.10¼@1.11¼; December, $1.10@1.11¾.

TALLOW—Dull; city, 4¼c.; country, 4¼@4¾c.

POTATOES—Easy; Long Island, $1.50@1.62; Jersey, southern, $1.25@1.40; Jersey, sweets, $1.50@2.25.

STRAW—Quiet; long rye, 90c.@$1.

BEANS—Steady; marrow, $2.35; medium, $1.90@1.92½; pea, $1.80@1.82½; red kidney, $3.10.

WOOL—Firm; domestic fleece, 32@35c.

HOPS—Steady; state, common to choice, 1903, 27@35c.; olds, 7@13c.; Pacific coast, 1903, 26@30c.; olds, 7@13c.

BUTTER—Firm; good demand; extra creamery, 19c.; extra nearby prints, 20c.

EGGS—Steady; nearby first, 19½c. at mark; western firsts, 19@20c. at mark.

CHEESE—Fair demand; New York full creams, choice to fancy, 8¼@8½c.; do. fair to good, 8@8¼c.

LIVE POULTRY—Steady, but quiet; fowls, 13½@14c.; old roosters, 9@9½c.; spring chickens, 14@15c.; old ducks, 11@12c.; young do., 12@13c.

DRESSED POULTRY—Steady; fair demand; fowls, choice fresh killed, 14½c.; do., fair to good, 13½@14c.; old roosters, 9½c.; nearby broilers, choice, 18@20c.; do., fair to good, 16@17c.; western do., choice, 17c.; do., fair to good, 13@15c.

Live Stock Markets.

CATTLE—Supply fair; market steady; choice, $5.60@5.75; prime, $5.30@5.50; fair, $3.25@3.50; veal calves, $7@7.50.

HOGS—Receipts fair; market steady; prime heavy, $5.85@5.90; mediums, $5.85@5.90; heavy Yorkers, $4@5.85; light do., $5.90@6; pigs, $5.90@6.00; roughs $4@5.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply fair; market steady; prime wethers, $4.20@4.40; common sheep, $1.50@2; spring lambs $2@5.75.

A SECOND CORPSE.

Colchester Octogenarian Suspected of Other Murders.

NOW IN JAIL FOR DEATH OF PAWEL

Interpreter Grant, Searching Marx Homestead, Found Under a Pile of Stones the Body of Thomas Palm, a Former Farm Hand.

COLCHESTER, Conn., Aug. 30.—Alonzo Grant, a court interpreter, has brought to light the body of a murdered farm hand on the farm of Gershon B. Marx, the octogenarian now in jail accused of the murder of John Pawel, who was employed by Marx after the mysterious disappearance of a farm hand two years ago. Further search is being made in the expectation of recovering the body of a peddler who visited the Marx farm and was seen no more. Jewelry and clothing belonging to the peddler were seen in Marx's possession, it is alleged.

Marx fled from Colchester on April 10, following the discovery of the mutilated body of a man in the cellar of his farmhouse. It was found by a farm hand who had been hired to take the place of John Pawel. Marx said Pawel had returned to Poland, but the body was identified as his.

Marx was captured in Broome street, New York, ten days later, at the home of a former partner named Weiss. A Colchester storekeeper, a shrewd Yankee, tempted by the offer of $1,000 reward for Marx's arrest, ferreted out his hiding place.

The talk of other mysterious disappearances on the Marx farm set Interpreter Grant searching, and he found under a pile of stones the dismembered body of a man believed to be Thomas Palm, Pawel's predecessor in Marx's employ. Bits of clothing helped in the identification. The whole farm is now being carefully gone over for some trace of the body of the peddler.

The theory to account for the murder or murders is that Marx possessed an ungovernable temper and killed those with whom he quarreled. It is also said that when his farm hands came to him for long overdue wages he killed them to avoid the payments. His young wife is also incarcerated with him, awaiting trial.

American Passports In Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30.—While Russia has not yet rejected the proposal of the United States government for the reopening of the negotiations looking to the unrestricted recognition of American passports, it is practically certain that she will decline, as she has heretofore done, to entertain the proposition on the ground that it involves a question of purely domestic policy, and that a compliance with the wishes of the United States would entail a complete change in the laws of the empire in so far as they affect the Jews. Upon the actual intervention of the emperor himself would seem to rest the only possible hope of a Russian agreement even to enter into negotiations on the subject with the United States.

Wireless For Labrador.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 30.—The Canadian cable repair steamer Tyrian, which has arrived here from Belle Isle strait, where she has been establishing additional Marconi wireless telegraph stations, reports that the steamer Viking, from Halifax for Hamilton inlet, Labrador, went ashore Friday last near Belle isle during a fog and is likely to prove a total loss. The Newfoundland government is establishing wireless telegraph stations along the coast of Labrador, connecting that region with the outside world.

N. N. Whitney of Honolulu Dead.

HONOLULU, Aug. 30.—N. N. Whitney, founder of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, is dead in Honolulu from heart disease, aged eighty years. He came to Hawaii in 1849 and in 1856 started the Advertiser. He was its editor for over thirty years and was editor of the Planters' Monthly up to a year ago. He was also the editor of Kuokoa, a native newspaper having wide circulation. In 1850 he became the head of Hawaiian postoffice affairs and establisbed the present system.

Korean Died of Plague at Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—The steamer Coptic, which has arrived here from the orient, was sent to the quarantine station because a Korean passenger died of the plague during the voyage. Among the arrivals on the Coptic were Professors Kitasato and Hozumi of Japan, on the way to the congress of sciences at St. Louis, and Miss Carl, who painted the portrait of the dowager empress of China now on exhibition at the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

Chicago Day at the Fair.

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—In behalf of the city of St. Louis and the world's fair management Mayor Rolla Wells and a committee of the exposition officials called upon Mayor Harrison and presented a formal invitation to Chicago to visit the world's fair city and participate in the observance of Chicago day, Oct. 8. Mayor Harrison accepted.

City of Binang Destroyed by Fire.

MANILA, Aug. 30.—The city of Binang, in Laguna province, island of Luzon, has been destroyed by fire. One hundred persons perished in the flames and 5,000 were rendered homeless. The loss is estimated at $200,000. The government is furnishing shelter and food to the people made destitute by the fire. Binang has a population of 7,358 souls.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair and cool; north winds.

THE DAILY PRESS.

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 62.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year—in advance. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada. Delivered by carrier or by mail.

THE PRESS has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district. Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office. Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day MUST be in this office by 9 a. m.

WHILE ON YOUR VACATION, DON'T FORGET TO HAVE THE DAILY PRESS MAILED TO YOU, AND IN THIS WAY KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME DOINGS. NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR MAILING, AND ADDRESS CHANGED AS OFTEN AS DESIRED. BEST SERVICE GUARANTEED.....

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 30, 1904.

Doubtless there are mysteries in advertising, but they are being gradually uncovered. Among the discoveries which experience has made is this: "In advertising it is not a question of selecting many mediums which are good, but rather the few which are best."—Ex.

The transfer of a big block of property in Park avenue between West Second street and the Boice estate is the largest realty deal here in years and means much for Plainfield. By removing the present store buildings and erecting the structures proposed, a great improvement in the business section of the city will be made. There is a decided boom in realty here and there is no doubt but that this improvement will be followed by others of a similar character in the business portion of the city.

Before the Common Council passes the brick pave ordinance, would it not be timely to consider the subject of ousting the trolley company from using Watchung avenue as a trolley station? There is no just reason why the company should be allowed to block up that busy thoroughfare, especially when accidents are repeatedly occurring there. In years to come the city will be grateful to the Common Council of 1904 if it serves notice on the trolley company to get a depot of its own on private property and not encroach on a public thoroughfare.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., initiated two candidates to the third degree last evening. Refreshments and a social time followed the business session.

Following the business session of Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F., tomorrow evening, a musical entertainment will be presented by the good and welfare committee.

The meeting of Crescent Company, No. 13, U. R. K. of P., this evening, will be of extreme importance to every member as final arrangements for attendance at the Pythian Field Day exercises are to be made.

During the session of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythians, in Louisville, the three representatives from this State were placed on special committees as follows: Walter F. Hayhurst, on the state of the order; Rev. DeWitt C. Cobb, on unwritten work, and Dr. William E. Hitchcock, chairman of the committee on Uniformed Rank.

The proposition to reduce the minimum age limit from twenty-one years to eighteen was defeated by a vote 77 to 47. A two-thirds vote would have been necessary to carry the amendment. It was voted not to adopt the Rathbone Sisters and the Pythian Sisterhood as auxiliaries.

A long discussion was caused by that part of the supreme chancellor's report referring to the advisability of allowing the Uniformed Rank to control itself. The Supreme Lodge voted to continue this branch of the order under the present plan.

New Orleans was selected as the place of meeting in 1906, and the session will convene on the third Tuesday in September.

—Those choice Bartlett pears at Neuman Brothers' are just the thing for canning. A nice, new lot in tomorrow.

—H. J. Harold has returned home from his vacation in the Catskill Mountains and resumed piano tuning and piano regulating. Residence, 142 East Fifth street.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Charles Eger, of The Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is on the sick list.

George Marsh, of Plainfield avenue, has returned home from a visit with friends in Brooklyn.

Charles Utter, of Lyman place, has resigned his position at The Potter Press Company's plant.

William Parquett has returned from a week's vacation which he spent with relatives in New York State.

Maurice Owens, of The Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is still on the sick list, with rheumatism.

William Patterson, of The Walter Scott Company's press works, has returned from a business trip in Philadelphia.

A large lithograph press was shipped to Rio Janeiro, South America, last week from the Scott Press Company's plant.

Raymond Lunger, of the Scott Press Company's plant, has returned to his position after a week's sojourn with relatives in Hunterdon County.

Russell Randolph, of the clerical force of The Pond Machine Tool Company's works, has returned to his position after spending a week's vacation at Asbury Park.

Thomas Hendry, of West Fourth street, has returned to his position at The Pond Machine Tool Company's plant. The large planer he has been running for years past broke down a week ago, and he was laid off until it was put into running order again.

Charles Stansberg, a machinist employed at The Pond Machine Tool Company's works, is suffering from the effects of a fall from a ladder which he received at his home yesterday. It will be several days before he will be able to return to his position.

Walter Foster, electrician at The Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is working at The Metropolitan Street Railway Company's plant in New York. Mr. Foster is attaching a dynamo to each of the three car wheel boring machines which were shipped from the Pond plant last week.

Advices indicate that the steel interests have patched up their quarrel. The structural steel pool has been reorganized and the other pools in which the buyers have been vitally interested will be organized within a short time. As far as the East is concerned, the trouble seems to be temporarily over. The only complications which may yet arise are from the West, where war of railroad rates more than of prices of steel, is threatened. The steel men know by long experience that buyers will not cover on falling markets. They understand that to develop the tendency to buy which has been manifest for so long prices must be kept stable. That was a potent influence in bringing the threatened war to a close.

C. N. B.

An account carried with

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK

will give you much satisfaction. The Bank is an exceptionally strong one. Its investments are made in accordance with strict business principles, and as liberal interest as is consistent with sound and conservative banking, is paid on satisfactory balances.

C. N. B.

Clearing the Surplus of Furniture.

All through August we have been busy clearing out the storehouses making room for Fall shipments, and this week we make the general clean up. There are as many good bargains and some better, but the quantity in many instances is limited.

SALE OF MATTRESSES.

Mattresses at 1.98.
Filled with excelsior, with soft tops, fancy striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 6.98.
The Union Felt, made in two parts, full 45 lbs, good quality fancy striped ticking.

Mattresses at 2.50.
Cotton top, excelsior filled, with blue and white striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 9.50.
The Purity Felt, superior to the best quality hair, made in two parts, full 45 lbs.

Mattresses at 3.98.
Combination, with cotton top, bottom and sides, one or two parts. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 10.98.
The Windsor Felt, equal to any high grade Mattress made, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

Mattresses at 5.98.
Pure white cotton, full 45 lbs, best grade of ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 15.50.
Ostermoor patent elastic Felt, best quality ticking, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

SALE OF PARLOR ROCKERS.

Parlor Rockers, 3.98 quality.....2.50
Parlor Rockers, 4.98 quality.....3.50
Parlor Rockers, 6.50 quality.....4.98
Parlor Rockers, 9.50 quality.....7.98

SALE OF DINING TABLES.

5.00 Tables, now.....3.98
8.98 Tables, now.....7.50
9.98 Tables, now.....7.98
10.98 Tables, now.....8.98
11.98 Tables, now.....9.98
12.98 Tables, now.....10.98

SALE OF BED OUTFITS.

The prices named include Bed, Spring and Mattress.

Bed Outfit No. 1—Regular price 8.50, sale price..... 5.98
Bed Outfit No. 2—Regular price 10.50, sale price..... 7.98
Bed Outfit No. 3—Regular price 12.50, sale price..... 9.98
Bed Outfit No. 4—Regular price 15.00, sale price..... 12.98
Bed Outfit No. 5—Regular price 17.00, sale price..... 14.98
Bed Outfit No. 6—Regular price 19.50, sale price..... 16.98

SALE OF COUCHES

Reg. 5.00 Couches now.....3.48
Reg. 6.50 Couches now.....4.25
Reg. 8.00 Couches now.....5.98
Reg. 10.00 Couches now.....7.75
Reg. 12.50 Couches now.....9.25
Reg. 15.00 Couches now.....10.98

SALE OF SIDEBOARDS.

The 10.98 ones, now...9.25
The 11.98 ones, now...9.75
The 12.98 ones, now..10.75
The 14.98 ones, now..12.50
The 18.50 ones, now..14.98
The 19.98 ones, now..16.50
The 21.50 ones, now..18.25
The 29.50 ones, now..24.75

SALE OF DINING CHAIRS.

Three patterns of solid Oak Chairs, quarter sawed and polished, specially priced at 1.29, 1.48 and 1.78.

SALE OF PARLOR SUITS.

A number of three and five piece Suits that we offer at greatly reduced prices.

SALE OF BEDROOM SUITS.

Several good patterns specially priced this week to make room for the new Fall patterns.

OUR CAKE DEPARTMENT

is one of the most busy departments, so kindly leave your orders as early in the day as possible, to make sure of prompt deliveries.

WOODHULL & MARTIN.

When the Bell Rings
Look Out
When Passing
PECK'S STORE
Look In.

ESTABLISHED 1888 E. H. CLEVELY. TELEPHONE 398 W

Restaurant and Lunch Rooms.

OYSTERS will start season on Saturday, August 27. For a good Stew or Fry, follow the crowd.

Horton's Brick Cream 40c a quart.

Take home a Brick. Will keep hard one hour.

155, 157, 159 North Avenue, Opposite C. R. R. Depot.

Local Agent For Horton's New York Cream.

KIRCH

Wholesale——Retail.

J. PHILIP KIRCH.

CIGARS

We are offering as a special inducement during the dull season, short smokes, such as Robt. Burns, Petit Ducs, Hoffman House, Magnums, Telonettes, and all high grade Tobaccos and Turkish Cigarettes at reduced prices—just to liven things up. The latest is to have your Monogram on your Cigarettes. The additional cost is slight.

120 NORTH AVENUE. Phone 487 J.

We Have Left

in our Special Sale a few pairs Men's Oxfords, regular $4.00 and $3.50 grades at $2.50.

And a lot of Women's Tan Oxfords that were $2.75 at $2.25.

M.C.VanArsdale

127 EAST FRONT ST.

FREEHOLD LD PLAINFIELD N.J.

Levy Bros' TWO STORES

MORE SPLENDID VALUES.

115-117 West Front Street 'Phone 220 Plainfield, N. J.

Our Great Alteration Sale with its many Bargains puts forth unusual attractions for tomorrow.

1.50 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 98c

2.00 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 1.48

45 inch table Oilcloth, yard.....14c
Extra large and heavy Huck Towels, value 15c, for.....10c
75c quality blue and black Brilliantine, 52 inches wide, yard.....49c
3 special lots all Silk Ribbons.....10c, 12½c, 15c
All extraordinary values.

Children's 50c white Aprons.....35c
Summer Corsets.....19c
Shirt Waists, were 75c, for.....39c
Lot of Umbrellas, very elaborate silver plated handles.....85c
Window Shades with fringe, were 49c and 39c, now.....29c
Boys' 25c School Stockings.....15c

Extra heavy Muslin, (unbleached), value 9c, for.....6½c
All wool Dress Goods for School Dresses, value 50c, yard.....19c
1.25 Wrappers.....69c
98c Wrappers.....49c
Black Mercerized Underskirts, worth 98c, for.....49c

Ladies' Fall Walking Hats in the Latest Effects, Now on Sale.

Porch Rockers.
Lawn Settees.
Willow Chairs.

Powlison & Jones,

149 & 151 East Front St.

THE LATEST GOODS IN

ELECTRIC AND GAS STANDS, FINE LAMPS, CHANDELIERS AND BRACKETS.

Jos. W. Gavett.

17th ANNUAL

Excursion OF THE Plainfield Grocers' Association TO CONEY ISLAND, Labor Day, Sept. 5, 1904,

Via Central Railroad to Jersey City, then by Iron Steamboat "Coney Island"

A long day at the shore! Last excursion of the season.

Leave Dunellen at 7:45, stopping at Grant Ave. Leave Plainfield at 8 a. m. Returning—Steamer leaves Iron Pier, Coney Island, 8:40 p. m.

Fare from Plainfield—Adults 50c. Children 25c. From Dunellen 95c. Children 75c.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS

August 17, September 2, October 4—St. Louis Exposition. These are all ten-day parties.

Office: 181 North Avenue, Plainfield

Plainfield Property

For Sale, To Let and Exchange.

Now is the right time to buy—have some bargains. IRA L. LARUE, Coward Building, 109 Park Avenue.

YOUR EDUCATION HAS BEEN NEGLECTED

If you have not been taught the value of money and the advantage of SYSTEMATIC SAVING.

DO NOT ALLOW YOUR CHILDREN

To reach the age of manhood and womanhood without a little money of their own to help them along.

The PENNIES that they have saved,
The DOLLAR that you will add, (and oftentimes more,)

AND THE

DIME SAVINGS INSTITUTION

will accomplish a good result for them.

We Are PREPARED

to put up the best awnings at most reasonable prices. A good awning properly put up will last for years. Let us estimate on yours.

We have specially interesting prices on Carpets, Mattings and Window Shades.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON, Babcock Building

Straw Hats, Negligé Shirts Fancy Socks

J. R. BLAIR

205 Park Avenue

Summer Underwear etc., etc.

SILK UNDERWEAR AT $2.00 PER SUIT

USE PRESS WANT ADS.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. . . . . R. R. Station
J. M. Harper . . . . . 411 Park Ave
E. A. Laing . . . . . 149 W. Front St
A. D. Mallinson . . . . . Fourth and Liberty Sts
Trolley Waiting Room . . . . . Watchung Ave
M. Estil . . . . . 111 Park Ave
W. R. Mattison . . . . . 25 Somerset St
Geo. Scribner . . . . . 231 Watchung Ave
J. Hatfield . . . . . 212 Watchung Ave

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen . . . . . Wm. Giddes
Dunellen . . . . . John Alberts
New Market . . . . . Herbert Dunham
Bound Brook . . . . . Union News Co.
Somerville . . . . . John Gernert
Westfield . . . . . C. P. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Scotch Plains . . . . . Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield . . . . . Walton Smith
Clinton Avenue . . . . Mrs. Meader, John Ryan
Fanwood . . . . . Chas. Elliott
Netherwood . . . . . L. Uhdal, J. Kiley

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Surveyors are still at work mapping out the boundaries of the improvements at the roundhouse. Preparation is now being made for the erection of the new tower which will be done in a short time. John Kennedy will direct the operation. When all the work is finished Dunellen will be quite a railroad centre, which will necessitate an increase of residents and the erection of more dwellings in the borough.

Some miscreant stole all of William Guests' grapes last Friday night. So far no traces of the thief have been found. Such thefts are becoming too common in the borough.

During the continued fine weather many parties from Plainfield and the borough, have visited the Rock, from which a fine view has been obtained for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leibel and family, of New York city, have returned home after a three weeks' stay with Mr. Leibel's brother, at New Market.

Rev. C. W. Kinsey, a former minister here, and now at Little Falls, is conducting a camp meeting from Aug. 30 to Sept. 11, at his home.

Miss Lena Leibel, of New York city, has returned home after a week's visit with her uncle, George Leibel, at New Market.

The excavation of the cellar of Philip C. Smith's house on Dunellen avenue, was started yesterday by George Huff.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bodine, who have been spending the summer at Ocean Grove, are expected home on Labor Day.

Mrs. M. E. Harris and her granddaughter, Miss Marjorie Harris, have returned from a stay at Ocean Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peters, of Nyack, N. Y., spent Sunday with Assessor Peters, of North avenue.

Rev. Charles Douglas, of New York city, visited his sister-in-law, Mrs. Oscar A. Douglas, yesterday.

A valuable dog belonging to Miss Alice Benwood, was struck by the train Saturday morning.

The condition of Mrs. Mary Runyon, who is seriously ill, has not changed for the better.

Mrs. George Schenck and her daughter, Winfred, are spending the week at Ocean Grove.

Miss Irene Day returned Sunday from a three weeks' visit with friends in Canada.

The stores in the Dealaman building are being tinned by George Giles.

Mrs. S. K. Doolittle returned yesterday from a stay at Ocean Grove.

Eugene Runyon is having a cement porch put on his house.

Mrs. John Herbert is ill with inflamatory rheumatism.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Albert Freise, of Plainfield, who was arrested by Officer Seargent Sunday night for starting a "rough house" at Galvin's Park, paid $10 and costs into the township treasury yesterday for his fine. Judge Clark certainly believes in helping a man when he is looking for trouble.

The following delegates to the State convention were selected at the Firemen's Relief Association meeting held Saturday night: John Robison, Edward L. Hand and Phillip Jahn. The convention will be held at Atlantic City, September 14.

Tonight will be ladies' night at the Suburban Club, Fanwood. The members of the fair sex are enjoying these weekly specials when they can enjoy a dance and the privileges of the bowling alleys.

The local ball team meets the Plainfield Colored Giants again Saturday afternoon of this week. On Labor Day morning the Orange F. C. will try conclusions with the locals once more.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard and family, of The Gables, who are spending the summer at Old Forge, in the Adirondack Mountains, will return home in September.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stiliger and children, who have been spending several days with Mr. Stiliger's parents, have returned to their home in Brooklyn.

George Randolph, who has been taking a week's vacation from his duties in the Jersey City office of the Central Railroad, returned to work Monday.

The quarterly meeting of the Ladies' Circle, of the Baptist church, will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Parks Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wahl, of New York, have been the guest over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Wahl, of Mountain avenue.

The members of the Epworth League had charge of the prayer meeting last night at Camp Wolfe, Westfield.

William Ottinger, who has been spending several days with friends in town, has returned to his home in Hoboken.

Mrs. Caroline Hoyt, of Westfield, has been spending several days with Mrs. Charles Haberly, of East Front street.

Miss Sadie Foulks, of Harrison, N. Y., has been spending a week with Miss Elsie Shott at "The Manse."

William Simmonds, of New York, is spending several weeks at The Homestead, Fanwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Morel have been entertaining friends from out of town.

William Trayne, of Westfield, was the guest of friends in town last night.

Mrs. Benjamin Clark has been spending a week at Asbury Park.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Rev. J. A. Cubberley returned home yesterday, and will conduct services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. M. W. Payne and son have returned home after spending a few days with friends in Madison, Morris County.

Fred Latourette has improved his property by laying a new flag stone walk in his doorway.

Mrs. R. Delafield and her mother-in-law, of Plainfield, visited the farm yesterday afternoon.

The house and out buildings on Rufus Delafields' farm will soon be newly painted.

Miss Jennie Woerhly, of Roselle, visited friends here yesterday.

M'KINLEY CLUB TO BE THERE

UNION COUNTY REPUBLICANS TO ATTEND LEAGUE OF CLUBS' AFFAIR.

The League of Republican Clubs will meet next Friday in Asbury Park and the following circular has been issued concerning the event by F. F. Meyer, Jr., of Newark, the president of the league:

"The league convention meets in Asbury Park next Friday, September 2, the arrangements for which are nearly complete and should be remembered by all. The convention is to meet in the Auditorium at 10 a. m. Massmeeting will take place in the afternoon. Pryor's noted band has been engaged."

The McKinley Club, of Elizabeth, has taken hold of the matter in its usual energetic and enthusiastic manner, and arranged to present to each of the first fifty Republicans who declare their intention of accompanying the club delegation a handsome blue silk, gold lettered badge, as a memento of the occasion.

The club delegates are Charles A. Trimble, chairman; William F. Groves, George T. Parrot, Samuel S. Moore and John Eggens, Jr. The alternates are Henry H Drake, Arthur Campbell and Louis M. King.

The club will leave on an early train on Friday, the 2d of September, via the Pennsylvania Railroad. The train will be announced later. Republicans desiring to secure one of the badges can send their names to Mr. Trimble, chairman of the delegation, Dix building, Elizabeth.

There's a Difference In DRUGS.

There's a greater difference in drugs than most people are aware of.

For instance—Common table salt costs ten cents for a 3 lb bag at the grocery; but the same thing, only purified, costs 27c a lb. Commercial Sulphuric Acid costs 2 cents, while chemically pure costs 35 cents. Commercial Murate of Ammonia costs 11 cents, but the chemically pure costs 55 cents. So it is all along the list.

For ordinary purposes the regular is all right—but when it comes to using it medicinally, then the BEST should always be used.

When we fill your prescription you always get the PUREST and BEST carefully compounded.

L. W. Randolph,
The City Pharmacy,
143 West Front Street.

BUTTER

THE KIND THAT ALWAYS PLEASES.

Rockdale Print, lb - - 25c
Rockdale Creamery Butter, lb 24c
Elgin Creamery Butter, lb - 23c

The quality of this butter is unsurpassed by any in the State.

Neuman Bros
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St.

Death of Mrs. Leeson.

Mrs. Barbara Leeson, widow of William Leeson, died at her home on Watchung avenue, yesterday, after an extended illness. She was in her eightieth year and had lived a long time in Plainfield. Funeral services over the body will be held from her late home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made at Millington.

Publists' Editor Visits Martine.

Louis Post, editor of The Publist, of Chicago, Ill., has returned from a visit to James K. Martine, the farmer-orator of Cedar Brook. Mr. Post is a lecturer and writer of National repute. He was much impressed with Plainfield, which he said was "a most attractive and beautiful city."

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hinton, of Washington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hinton, of 981 West Fourth street, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Horne, Miss Elsie Horne and E. Roland Horne, of Willow avenue, have gone to Cincinnati, where they will attend the wedding of George A. Horne and Miss Edith Hoyt Dyer, tomorrow afternoon.

EDUCATIONAL.

Mr. Leal's School For Boys.

1882—1904

Has sent boys to College every year for twenty-two years.

Boys have entered sixteen different Colleges, but the great majority have gone to Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Columbia.

Junior Department receives boys 9-10 years of age.

Next school year begins on Tuesday, September 13th.

JOHN LEAL,
Principal.

Cedarcroft School

For Boys

Opens September 14th.

For information apply to
R. M. HUSE, Principal,
8 15 1m 1003 Park Ave., Plainfield.

Plainfield Seminary

will re-open
Thursday, Sept. 15, 1904.
Thirty-seventh Year.
Principals { MISS KENYON / MISS ARNOLD

Plainfield Business College Opens September 1

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION.

Miss Emerson, pupil of Prof. Markees, Berlin, Germany. Fall term begins Sept. 9. Babcock Building, Studio 305. For particulars address Carnegie Hall, 874 New York.

Go to Boynton Beach for Labor Day.

Last and Greatest Day of the Season. Special music afternoon and evening. Cavallo's orchestra. Dancing from 1 to 12 p. m. Special Vaudeville Show.

All trolleys connect direct for the Beach. Don't miss it.

Bring the children to Boynton Beach—for this week, free Merry-go-round, Swing and Helter Skelter. Every day from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m., same on Labor Day from 10 a. m. until 12 noon.

COME EARLY.

L. L. MANNING & SON,
Steam Granite Works.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Townsend's Granite Works,
Fourth and Richmond Streets.
Tel. call 2214. Westfield trolley passes my office.

T. A. MOORE
Undertaker and Embalmer
Office—508 Watchung Avenue Telephone
Residence—503 LaGrande Avenue 461-J
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

GEO. W. COLE
Undertaker and Embalmer
200 W. Second St. Telephone 153
Office Open Day and Night.

Established 1872
P. CASEY & SON
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Res. 417 W. Third St.
Office open day and night. Tel. 1082

DIED.

GASKILL—In North Plainfield, on Tuesday, August 30, 1904, Charles O. Gaskill, aged 34 years, 6 months and 23 days.

Funeral services from his late residence, 136 Duer street, on Thursday, September 1, at 3 o'clock. Interment at Hillside cemetery, South Plainfield, N. J. Friends and relatives are invited. 8 30 2

SCOTT—In this city, Monday, August 29, 1904, George, son of John T. and Sarah Scott, aged 23 years.

Funeral services at Calvary Baptist church, Wednesday, August 31, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment at Hillside cemetery.

LEESON—On Monday, August 29, 1904, Barbra, widow of William Leeson, in her 80th year.

Funeral services at her late residence, 507 Watchung avenue, on Thursday, September 1, at 10:30 a. m. Interment at Millington, N. J.

WANTS AND OFFERS

Advertisements under this head one cent per word for first insertion and half a cent per word for each additional insertion. No advertisement received for less than ten cents.

☞ Please be sure and mention that you saw the advertisement in The Daily Press.

GOOD young cow for sale cheap. Apply corner Arlington avenue and Randolph road. 8 29 3

TO LET—Three rooms, newly papered; all improvements. 147 East Fifth street. 8 29 3

ALLIGATOR bag, 18x12 inches, little used; cost $18; will sell for $7. Address Alligator, care Press. 8 29 2

DRESSMAKER, at home or out by the day. 428 East Sixth St. 8 29 4

YOUNG horse, also cart, for sale; no reasonable offer refused. Call 68 Willow avenue, borough. 8 29 6

HORSE for sale; 7 years old, perfectly sound; sell low if sold at once. Address Horse, care Press. 8 29 2

WANTED—By Scotch girl, situation as chambermaid, waitress or nurse; good personal reference from present employer. 1001 Central avenue. 8 29 3

WILL be pleased to have a description of your property for sale or exchange. William Jeffery, 221 Park avenue. 8 29 tf

WANTED—Reliable person as maid to wait upon elderly lady. 515 Park avenue. 8 29 3

$2,000 to loan on first mortgage; improved property. Apply to Albert Lederer, 115 West Front street. 8 29 2

TWO nicely furnished front rooms to let reasonable; all improvements. 311 Madison avenue. 8 29 6

BOARD and rooms; superior accommodations for those desiring refined home in private family. Address Private, care Press office. 8 29 3

MIDDLE-aged woman wants housework; small family. 130 Watchung avenue.

WANTED—Competent white cook. Apply 966 Central avenue. 8 30 tf

GOOD seamstress wants work. Mrs. Ortner, 508 Park Ave. 8 30 3

WANTED—One unfurnished room, on lower floor, for single person. Address One Room, care Press. 8 30 2

STANDARD dictionary (Funk & Wagnalls) two volumes and four handsome Turkish rugs, 7x4 feet, for sale cheap. Address Smith, care Press.

SIX-ROOM house to let. U. B. Crane or Adam Young. 8 30 2

IF you have any real estate, for sale, exchange, or to let, send us listing full particulars to Charles L. Moffett, No. 309 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 15 tf

ALWAYS have list of desirable properties for sale or rent; fire, life, burglar and accident insurance; first mortgage loans. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

CROCHET baby mosques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. 4 6 tf

WANTED—A $3,500 house centrally located; East Second street preferred; also have a cash customer for a $1,400 house. Abbett & Manning, 168 North avenue. 8 18 tf

FOR SALE—Choice building lots on West End and Rockview avenues at reasonable prices; best location in North Plainfield; short distance from Grant Avenue station and trolley; 50x170; restricted from $1,800 houses up. Call or address P. S. Browne, 109 Park avenue. 7 11 tf

FARMS for sale; real estate and insurance. Wm. H. Rogers, Plainfield, N. J. tf

TO LET—Eight-room flat over Powers drug store. Inquire Alex. Thorn, 87 Somerset street. 1 19 tf

LOTS at great bargain; plot 150x150 feet on Watchung avenue; $8 per foot. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

BARN TO LET on East Second street, near Watchung Ave. Apply at the Daily Press office. 6 7 tf

BIRDS, dogs, cats boarded week or month. Bird store, 48 Somerset street. 8 11 tf

WANTED—Second-hand piano; must be in good condition. Address O. N. A., care Press, stating price and name of make. 8 17 12

CELERY plants for sale; choice varieties. Thos. Mair, 20 Leland avenue, North Plainfield. 8 18 tf

WANTED—An experienced white cook. 1208 Watchung avenue. 8 17 tf

FOR SALE—A complete collection of foreign and American stamps; will sell as an entire collection or in lots to suit purchaser. Address Stamp, care Press. 8 9 tf

WANTED—Improved or unimproved property in or near Pittsburg, Pa., in exchange for a nice residence in Netherwood; house is modern in every respect with plenty of land, shade and fruit. Currier Bros., 119 West Front street. 8 23 tf

LARGE furnished rooms to let; reasonable. 127 North Ave. 8 25 6

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 822 W. Front St. 5 10 tf

LOST—At ball game, yesterday, a gold watch. Finder will receive reward by returning to Roth & Co. 27 3

YOUNG lady wishes home in exchange for light duties, sewing, etc.; references. Address H. L., care Press. 8 28 3

TO LET—Furnished apartment in perfect order for light housekeeping; or table board near. 127 East Ninth street. 8 27 3

SACRIFICE SALE — Oldsmobile in perfect running order. Address Oldsmobile, care Press. 8 27 6

TO LET—7-room house; all improvements; rent $16. Inquire 984 West Fourth street. 8 27 3

ROOMS with board; also table board. 311 East Fifth street. 8 27 1m

LOST—Singer Manufacturing Co.'s receipt book. Return 331 West Front street. Reward. 8 27 3

PART OF HOUSE—To let, 3 rooms on first floor; 3 rooms on second and bath; all new plumbing. 808 Third place, 2 doors from Crescent Ave. 8 29 5

TO LET—Large, desirable double room; first-class table; at Mrs. Wagstaff's, 133 Crescent avenue. 8 29 6

TWO rooms for rent, unfurnished; city water. Address Pleasant Location, Press office. 8 29 3

WILL LOAN $7,000 on real estate; security, 5 per cent.; in sums to suit. R. Knox, Lawyer, 201 Park avenue. 8 29 4

BEEF cow for sale; nine years old; in fine condition. Enquire Fanwood postoffice. 8 30 3

WANTED—Boy to work in grocery store. Inquire Jos. C. Blimm, 263 East Third St.

PAINTER and practical paperhanger will work for owners or estates; has all tools; first-class work; best materials; estimates given. Address Paperhanger, care Press. 8 30 3

HIGH School girl wishes board; terms moderate. Address A. B., Press office. 8 30 2

WANTED—A competent woman to do general housework; a good plain cook who will also assist with washing; good references required. Apply at 819 East Seventh St. 8 30 2

NEWLY decorated rooms with strictly first-class table; also table board. 1121 Putnam avenue. 8 30 6

WANTED—Three good, sober, honest men; good paying business. Apply at 126 East Front street. 8 30 3

WANTED—A competent nurse girl to attend a year old baby. Apply to Mrs. L. M. Daniel, 606 West Eighth street.

WANTED—To exchange free and clear vacant lots for house and lot. All kinds of real estate bought, sold or exchanged; houses and rooms to rent. C. E. Utter, 822 West Front street. 8 30 2

GIRL wanted for general housework; German or Swede preferred. 962 Hillside avenue. 8 30 2

LARGE furnished room to let, with or without board; terms reasonable. 24 Elm place. 8 30 3

WANTED—An experienced girl for general housework; white preferred. 50 Washington avenue. 8 29 tf

Early Fall Sale of School Necessities

WEDNESDAY'S SPECIALS

At 15c Boys' reg. 25c Bicycle and Medium Ribbed School Stockings. This one day only.

At 6½c Regular 12½c BOURETTE WHITE STRIPE LAWN.

☞ Watch this block for daily specials.

Fabrics Suitable For Children's School Dresses

At 39c—All shades in Scotch Plaids.
At 50c—Large and Small Plaids in light weight wool, very suitable for early fall.
At 45c—Washable PANAMA Suitings.
At 50c—Light weight Mixed Tweed
At 10c, 12c, 15c—White Apron Checks.
At 17c—Medium weight Figured Madras, for children's dresses and shirt waists.
At 12½c—Large line of DRESS PERCALES.
At 12½c—Various stripes and dots in Galatea.
At 12½c—Colored Duck Suitings, cloth design.

School Hose

Learn to order by number and thus always get what you want.

No. 5—Medium weight Boys' and Girls' School Hose 12c
No. 10—Extra quality Children's School Hose, medium weight, 15c
No. 15—Misses' Lisle Thread Hose, special, ... 19c
No. 20—Boys' Heavy Ribbed School Hose 20c
No. 25—Boys' Medium Weight Extra Quality School Hose, ... 25c
No. 30—Boys' Heavy Ribbed School Hose 25c
No. 35—Children's Medium Rib and weight Hose 35c

Machine Torchon Lace for trimming school dresses, 5c and 10c per yard.

Large Line of Embroideries, 3c and upwards

Rummage Sale.

Roasting Pan	Poker	ALL FOR 25c
Opal Decorated Pin Tray	Match Safe
Tooth Brush Holder	Potato Knife
1 dozen Butter Dishes	Rolling Pin
Frying Pan	Potato Masher
Stove Lifter	Box Stove Blacking

Tuesday, Wednesday

The original price of this list amounts to over $1.00.
Here is a chance to save over 75c on $1.00 worth of merchandise.

Hill & Shupp

FOR SALE CHEAP—7-room house, new; lot 40 feet front; flagged and curbed; terms to suit. W. H. Abbott, North avenue. 8 14 tf

FOR SALE—1033 feet front on Park avenue at Oak Tree Station, Lehigh railroad, $3 per foot; get after it quick if you want to make money. F. M. Bacon, 109 North avenue. 6 1 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence Office, 22 Somerset place. 5 4 tf

SIX-ROOM flat, with improvements. Call 20 Somerset place. 5 6 tf

THE highest cash price paid for household goods, furniture, etc. Fred W. Hand, Auctioneer, 136 East Second St. 'Phone 1722 4 25 tf

FOR RENT—Furnished room, central location, airy and cool; terms moderate. Address Moderate, Press office. 7 20 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for a paying business; 90 acres fertile soil near school, church and village; running stream; 2 houses and buildings in best condition; all stock and machinery; price $6,000, free and clear; for free and clear property. Ira L. LaRue, Coward building. 8 26 tf

TO LET—First floor of new house, corner Fifth street and Stanley place; five rooms; water in kitchen; rent $10. Apply Adam Young, 815 South Second street. 8 24 6

FOR SALE — Farm near Fanwood depot; over twenty acres; would make fine poultry farm; easy terms. Charles L. Moffett, Attorney, 309 North avenue. 8 26 tf

WANTED—Married man to take charge and work ten acre poultry and truck farm, close to town, comfortable house and moderate salary to steady man with some experience. Address with full particulars and references, M. O. L., Press office. 8 30 2

FOR SALE—Properties from $1,600 to $17,000 to close estate, all in fine condition and good paying investments, and other properties for sale and rent; insurance placed in best companies; also several good lots for sale very reasonable. Mulford's real estate office, opposite depot. 7 15 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, 309 North avenue. tf

FOR RENT—Immediate possession; charming little house, new, all improvements, 8 rooms and bath. Apply 309 Kensington avenue. 8 30 3

YOUNG German girl wants place as cook; 6 years' reference. Call Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 8 30 2

WANTED—Carpenter (non-union) and man handy with tools to assist, special work may last six or eight weeks. Address Handy, Press office. 8 30 2

ELEVEN-ROOM French roofed house; all improvements; barn and large grounds; rent low. Inquire 95 Westervelt avenue. 8 30 6

TO LET—10-room house. John Ross. East Sixth street. 8 27 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board, at 219 East Fifth street. 8 29 1m

Plainfield Storage Com'y,

Auction and Commission House

326-332 West Front Street,

CHAS. YAEGER, Mgr.

A few vacant rooms to let for storing household goods. A variety of good second-hand furniture always on sale in our auction rooms. Auction Sales will be held when announced in this space.

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER.

JAMES BRONIS, Agent.

Olivers rented. Other makes repaired. A postal to P. O. Box 761 brings Bronis. 8 4 1m

THE WALDORF

132-134 Crescent Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Desirable rooms with board, all conveniences, refined surroundings, superior table, excellent service, transient and table guests accommodated. Summer season, United States Hotel, Ocean Grove, N. J. E. V. and A. L. Waldorf.

Peach and Ice Cream Festival at Marconnier Chapel Thursday Evening, Sept. 1,

(Benefit of Chapel.)

Tickets including Cream and Cake or Peaches and Cake 15c.

AUCTIONEER LATOURETTE says he had tender perspiring feet since childhood . .

Thorp's Foot Relief

cured them. Ask him about it. 50c per bottle. All druggists.

DR. JOS. E. WRIGHT,

EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE.

Office, Woodhull & Martin Bldg.

Hours Tues., Thurs. and Sat. 2-5 p. m., and by appointment.

DR. E. B. STOWE,

Graduate Chiropodist,

For Gentlemen and Ladies. Babcock Building. Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m., 1 to 5 p. m. Telephone 367 w. All Instruments Sterilized

USE PRESS WANT ADS

PULSE OF NEW YORK

GLIMPSE OF THROBBING LIFE OF THE METROPOLIS.

POTTER'S MODEL SALOON

Still Continues to Call Forth Comment —New York Policemen as Heroes —The Old "Camp Meeting" a Thing of the Past.

NEW YORK.—Bishop Potter gave New York its greatest summer sensation, and the sensation is still in working order. Not that the bishop actually started the Subway saloon—which is not in the subway, but on the surface of things, just like any other saloon. The New moral or reform tavern was opened a little while before the service at which the bishop blessed it, but the enterprize first claimed the attention of New York and of the world after the bishop's consecrating act. Mr. Johnson, the shrewd president of this new saloon association—who says that stockholders will get no more than five per cent., and that the markins are to be used to open new saloons of this kind—had scarcely accomplished the diplomacy by which the bishop in person gave his blessing, when a sign was hung at the door:

YES, THIS IS THE SALOON DEDICATED BY BISHOP POTTER YESTERDAY.

YOU ARE WELCOME.

The result was a great rush to the blessed saloon. There is an annex devoted to the sale of "soft" drinks. It bears a sign announcing that "This is the way to the 'Water Wagon.'" But the rush was chiefly to the hard drink bar. Perhaps the investigating customers wished to convince themselves that it was really true that cocktails could be bought in a consecrated tavern. If this was their object they were fully convinced. The saloon is doing a land-office business. And the air of New York is full of loud cries. Nearly every clergyman who has remained in town has expressed an opinion one way or the other on this inovation, and the chorus rises from all parts of the country. Many of the clerical criticisms are exceedingly bitter. A few testify the bishop as having taken part in a purely modern experiment with a benevolent purpose whose outcome should be awaited with reasonable patience. The W. C. T. U. women have called special meetings, and there is lively controversy in many quarters. The newspapers are still giving more space to the discussion than to the war. It must be admitted that up to date the majority opinion runs against Bishop Potter. "Going too far," is the judgment even of the liberals. Perhaps it would have been better if Mr. Johnson hadn't put out the sign. And, by the way, I have omitted to mention that all the other saloonkeepers in New York, who are selling just the same goods, are profoundly disgusted.

Is "Society" Wicked.

A NEWPORT clergyman, speaking gently but firmly of Bishop Potter's inovation, remarks that if the bishop had any sensibility about carousing he would object to the Sunday noises he hears from the Casino near his summer cottage at Newport. There are many indications that the Newport society—which is New York society removed for the summer—is a somewhat godless institution. The searchlight has not been turned on society with a large "S" for some time, and when the thing happens again there will be novel revelations. Yet here is an apologist in Mrs Cornwallis-West, who says society is not so black as it is painted. Mrs. Cornwallis-West, who used to be Lady Randolph Churchill, and before, that Jennie Jerome, of New York, and who is a sister of New York's lively district attorney, says that the "smart set" has been described for the most part by folks who don't know very much about it; that an evil construction is put upon relatively harmless matters; that society women are hard driven by "duties" the number and nature of which people who are not in society can scarcely imagine.

In New York, and in the places visited and populated by New Yorkers in summer, there is less bridge than there was a year ago. This is not because sermons have been preached against it, but because, like ping-pong, it has had its day. Cards will stay, but the card player will turn to the next fashionable phase of it.

Popularity of the "Finest."

THE individual New Yorker may follow the occasional example of a writing critic and fling a sneer at the police. Every time there is a crusade against "graft" the title of "finest police force in the world" may be quoted with derision. Nevertheless the average New Yorker likes his policemen. Part of the remarkable efficiency of the metropolitan police rests in the fact that the police are admired, respected, liked. The recent bestowal of "Slocum Medals," one of the echoes of the steamboat disaster, was a typical incident. Police bravery in any American city is likely to elicit a "bravo" and perhaps a substantial recognition. But in New York there is something like sentimentalism on this subject. The medals presented by the East Side association bear this inscription: "For humane conduct, sympathetic zeal and kindness in relieving distress."

The popular zeal in praising police bravery has just resulted in a police "Board of Honor" which is to look into the claims of policemen for medals and commendation. "Seldom a day passes," says the chief of police, "in which three or four policemen do not receive commendation. Medals are getting common. I think it would be well to know that we have a real hero when a medal is given." The policeman who jumps off a pier and saves a small boy is no longer to be in the way of a medal. This sort of thing is to be regarded as part of his job. But for special or extraordinary acts of bravery there is to be recognition, and it is this new board of honor that is to draw the line between mere duty and special heroism.

Passing of "Camp Meetings."

IN a chain of places immediately around New York are the successors of the old-time "camp meeting." There was no break in the chain of programmes. At Ocean Grove, for instance, they have just been holding their thirty-fifth annual meeting. These meetings, held under the jurisdiction of the Methodist church, were true old-time camp meetings when they began, and they so remained for many—at least a score—seasons. Then modifications crept in, partly because a change had crept into the Methodism of the city and its suburbs. The change extended to other camp meetings—at Newick, for instance, and at Sea Cliff—and these places all became more like permanent summer colonies than like camp meetings. The meeting, lasting for a week or ten days, became an incident, and an incident less and less spectacular. The "shouting" days are over, and with those days have passed the habit of going to camp meeting out of curiosity. The church people tell me that the religious spirit is as strong as ever, and that the fruits of these meetings, which draw together audiences of immense size, are as rich and as gratifying as they ever were.

It is notable that a strong liberal movement has entered these summer meetings in and about New York. Denominational lines are much relaxed, and the whole effect is of a summer church into which it is hoped that all evangelical Christians may be drawn.

The Strenuous Barber Shop.

MODERN phases of the strenuous life may be looked for in many places, but I know of no place where it seems more of a contradiction than at the barber's. In the "tousorial parlor" it used to be the tradition that even the hustling American would relax, take his time, read a pink paper, loll in the far chair without eagerness to be through. Then time began to press. To read and be shaved, was possible. Then to read and smoke and be shaved was possible. Then came the official boot-black who, by the co-operation of the barber, and by means of a moved chair, polished shoes while the bearer read, smoked and was shaved. This seemed like the limit. But the other day I saw a case that added a new element. The barber was cutting the "patient's" hair. The patient had his foot on the boot-black's box. With his left hand he held a newspaper and readjusted his cigar. His right hand rested on the tablet of a manicurist. She was a pretty manicurist, and she bent her blond head over the right hand until it was finished. Then she moved around to the other side of the chair, with her stand and tablet, and manicured the left hand, thereby enforcing the use of the right hand to hold the newspaper.

I can't see how the complexity of life in a barber's shop can be carried much further. But you never can tell. All the fashionable barbers, and some that are not fashionable, have manicurists. They, at least, have come to stay.

OWEN LANGDON.

Another Sermon Spoiled.

He was a very thin man, and undoubtedly he believed his mission in life to be that of reforming the universe. He was death on all bad habits, from smoking to eating hard-boiled eggs, and fishing was down on his list as one of the things likely to encourage laziness.

"Science, art," he sneered, "in fishing! Why, where is it? Why, great big fellows like you spend days sometimes without catching a fish!"

"Quite right," said the fisherman; "and unless you move I shan't get a bite, either!"

"Why should my presence make any difference to the ignorant fish?"

"Well, you see, that thin black line on the top of the water is your shadow, and the fish think it's another fishing rod and won't come near."—Stray Stories.

As He Thought.

"Ah, professor!" exclaimed the conceited young man; "I wish I knew as much as you do."

"You would know more than I," replied the crusty old professor, "if you only knew as much as you think you know."—Town Topics.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of

New Wallpapers.

We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.

Paints, Oils and Varnishes

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE,
145 North Avenue.

APPEARANCE COUNTS

when you want to sell or rent your property. Is your house attractively painted, decorated and papered? You can depend on us always for superior work in this line.

Convincingly Low Prices.

JAS. C. HANSEN.
141 East Front St.

G. A. Woolsey's Standard Paint.
The Best Ready-Mixed Paint in the Market.
—FOR SALE BY—
J. M. CAHART,
PAINTER AND DECORATOR.
DEALER IN
Paints, Oils, Glass, Wallpaper, Etc
Painting, Papering and Decorating. Estimates on application.
201 Park Ave., Cor. Second St.

I. N. WYCKOFF.
PAINTER and DECORATOR,
556 West Front Street.
Papering a specialty. First-class work my motto. Glass furnished and Glazing done.
TELEPHONE 292-L.

1904 WALL PAPERS.
Imported and American Goods.
C. CONOVER & CO.,
Decorators, Painters & Paperhangers. Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Place. 'Phone 226-J.

DRUGGISTS.

PRESCRIPTIONS
Called for and Medicines Delivered.
Telephone, write or call at any time. Let us know what drug store goods you need, and we'll send them right out, without extra charge.

Powers' Somerset Pharmacy.
45 Somerset St. Tel. 161

SODA
With Fruit Syrups Second to None.
MALLINSON'S
LIBERTY AND FOURTH STS.
Cigars are one of my specialties

MILLER'S
VEGETABLE BLOOD PURIFIER
combines the best Tonic and Blood Purifying Remedies of the Vegetable Kingdom. Such as Sarsaparilla, Clover Tops, Golden Seal, Turkey Corn, Sassfrass, Burdock and Mandrake. Contains no mercury.
DUDLEY S. MILLER, Druggist,
Park Ave. and Fourth St.

Seasonable Goods at Nagle's
Nagle's Egg Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, Extract of Malt, Beef, Wine and Iron.
Blands Iron Pills.
Nagle's Blood Purifier and Sarsaparilla, just the medicine for building one up.
Moth Balls, Camphor, etc.
C. M. NAGLE,
Telephone 477 r. Front and Grove Sts.

Hodges Pharmacy.
Reliable goods in all Departments.
Agency for Belle Mead Sweets.
Tel. 210 A. Y.M.C.A. Building.

HARRY K. LISTER,
161 North Ave. Opp. Depot.
Bicycles, Sundries, Phonographs and Records.
Edison Gold Moulded Records....35c
Columbia X. P. Records.....25c
Bicycles and Phonographs Repaired.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd.
Here's where your cash will do MOST good for you—where accommodation's yours if you want it!

"Money in your Pocket"
The way we're putting prices DOWN means good money in your pocket—we MEAN "reductions" when we talk 'em, and EVERY item in the house has been hard hit. NO reservations of any kind!

You can have goods sent home now or later—all we want is your WORD. Cash or accommodation terms.

See them on Main Floor! Marked in plain figures!

40 different kinds of Couches
at a good big cut, to make "things hum." You can't find their match in value anywhere!

4 out of the number:
$5.98 Velour Couches, best steel springs—heavy fringe. Worth $8.00.
$6.98 Velour Couches, deep tufting, richly fringed. Worth $9.00.
$9.98 Velour Couches—all hair filled, deep tufting. Worth $14.00.
$15.00 Velour Couches, deep tufting, solid oak frame. Worth $20.00.

Those 5 Carloads of Brass Trimmed Enameled Beds
are moving fast—a lot of good patterns still left for wise buyers!
½ PRICE!

$1.79 for White enameled Beds—worth $3.50

$5.00 for White enameled Iron Bed, brass rail at head and foot—worth $10.00.

$10.00 for White Enameled Bed, with brass rail at head and foot—heavy brass upright rods
Worth $20.00.

Included in "Midsummer Sale".
Superb "Exposition" Furniture Samples
Just received from late Furniture Exposition, Grand Central Palace (Lex. Ave. and 43d St.)—every piece a marvel of perfect cabinet making, showing maker's finest work!
ALL MARKED FROM ¼ TO ⅓ OFF!!
All Refrigerators and Ice Chests to go cheap! We NEVER "carry over" this stock!

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Be sure you see "No. 73" and first name "AMOS" before entering our store.
ACCOUNTS OPENED—EASY PAYMENTS
73 MARKET ST., NEWARK, N. J.
Near Plane St., West of Broad St.
All trolleys transfer to our door.

HENRY MEHRTENS,
The Manufacturing Confectioner.
Pure Home-made Candies, Chocolates and Bon Bons fresh daily. Cold Drinks of all kinds. Crushed Fruits. Ice Cream and Water Ices.
Orders delivered promptly.
Telephone. 131 East Front St.

JOHN J. LEAHY,
PLUMBING AND HEATING.
Sewer and Water Connections.
First-Class Work at Reasonable Figures.
302 Richmond St., near Third.

M. ARMSTRONG,
Plumbing and Tinning.
330 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
TELEPHONE 232.

Mc CULLOUGH'S
STEAM MILL,
81 Steiner Place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
210 Park Avenue.

Allen B. Laing,
Electrician —
Tel. 333-J. 134 North Ave.

WILLIAM H. POPE,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of Electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 North Avenue.

LIEFKE & LAING,
Insurance and Real Estate
No. 146 Park Avenue.
Real Estate Appraised. Properties Sold and Rented. Loans Negotiated.

TenEyck & Harris,
—DEALERS IN—
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office 121 Watchung Avenue. Branch Office Frank Rowley's Drug Store, 218 W. Front st.
TELEPHONE 26-F.

PRESS WANT ADS PAY

William Hand & Sons
MOVING VANS and STORAGE WAREHOUSE for Furniture, Pianos, etc.
136 E. 2nd St., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1722.
TRUCKMEN AND RIGGERS.
All work will receive prompt attention.

W. W. WARNOCK,
THE BAKER,
144 West Front St.,
COMPTON'S OLD STAND.
Bread, Cakes, Pies, Etc.
Made of the best Materials.
Early Morning Delivery.
ICE CREAM A SPECIALTY.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Avenue.
William D. Thickstun, John P. Emmons.
Telephone 601.

JOHN JOHNSTON.
All the best grades of
COAL.
929 South Ave. 'Phone 193.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

E. B. MAYNARD.
New Shop, New Furniture, Best Service.
Tonsorial Artist.
Also choice Cigars.
141 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Expressman and Truckman.
All kinds of Express and Trucking business promptly attended to.
Leave your orders at store of Joseph Sattels, Pianos and Organs, No. 108 North Avenue, and the same will receive immediate attention.

TRY
DOBBINS'
NICKEL YARA CIGARS.
228 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

Linden Lodge, Linden, N. J.
87 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
Prudential Building, Newark, N. J.
768 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.
10 West 23d Street, New York City.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

CESSPOOLS AND GARBAGE.

MRS. JOHN BROWN
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
From $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North Avenue. Postoffice box 718
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

GARBAGE REMOVED
Walter M. Ingraham.
TERMS MODERATE.
Address P. O. Box 635, City

Best Lehigh COAL.
Order now and save money.
KEELY COAL CO.
725 South Ave. Telephone 162.

CHAS. E. VAIL,
103 PARK AVENUE,
Watches, Jewelry and Silverware.
Repairing in all its branches.
EYES EXAMINED FREE.

HERMAN HANSEN,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
Estimates Furnished.
269 Watchung Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Tel. 454 R.

Plainfield Window Cleaning Co
Floors Oiled and Polished.
Furniture Packed for Shipping.
General House Cleaning a Specialty.
Frank DeHart, 402 E. Third St.
Wm. A. Kline, 611 W. Third St.

TITUS H. LAURY,
Mason and Builder,
Office, 323 E. Front St.
Tile Setting, Mantel & Front work

FOR STREET WEAR.

Blouse Costumes Are the Smartest For Voile and Silk.

The glorified blouse costume is perhaps the prettiest of all street dresses. A costume of this description seen recently was of royal blue voile trimmed with black and white braid and sage green velvet. Another very smart suit was of lavender voile over silk of a slightly darker shade. The very full blouse jacket had a yoke worked in buttonhole embroidery and two flat revers of purple panne edged with gold cord. The high belt was laid in perpendicular tucks. The skirt was very full, with embroidery applications around the bottom.

RED TOQUE.

Some of the new coats are of the short sack description, but these, as a rule, are only becoming to tall women.

After the weather is too cool for linens, silk costumes of every weave and pattern will take their place. A good deal of dull red and dull green silk will be worn this fall.

Black china silk dresses relieved in white are very chic and useful at this time of the year.

The old fashioned flowered muslin frock, whether the muslin be silk or otherwise, is all the rage. Blue and white and pink and white are especially dainty, although some very smart models have been shown in black silk muslin decorated with blurred-in flowers of two tones of reddish pink. The particular dress I have in mind was trimmed with latticework of narrow velvet ribbon in tones of black and pink, and it was further embellished with black fagoting.

The picture shows a toque of deep red chiffon with a border of shaded roses.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FALL FASHIONS.

The Burnoose Shape Revived—A Good Deal of Dark Red to Be Worn.

The burnoose shape is revived as a mantle for the matron, or there are cape shapes with shawl and wing sleeves which are graceful and comfortable.

Much frilled mantles of crystalline, silk grenadine and other semitransparent textures are shown, and these are mostly unlined, but would be ample protection for autumn wear if finished with a lining of glace silk.

DARK RED COSTUME.

The collarless bodice is passing away, but yokes, collars and cuffs have been unlined this summer.

The envelope hat promises to be continued in felt. It is almost universally becoming, especially when trimmed with soft plumage.

A good deal of dark red in all shades will be worn this fall, and red shaded hats will be ultra chic.

There are two kinds of linen costumes. One is heavily embroidered by hand, with a long skirt and wide sleeve ruffles. This is suitable for afternoon wear and even sometimes evening function. Then for outdoor life and morning wear there is the tailor made linen, with its skirt clearing the ground and its jaunty mannish jacket.

Speaking of white linen, Frenchwomen seem to prefer suits of this shade made up with coarse lace of the same tint. There is a silky linen which is most attractive mixed with Irish or with torchon lace. The finer varieties of linen come in a variety of dainty shades and are made up very simply in little Eton or blouse coat models.

The picture shows a deep red blouse costume trimmed with wide braid.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

LITTLE FRANCE

A ROMANCE OF THE DAYS WHEN "THE GREAT LORD HAWKE" WAS KING OF THE SEA

BY

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

Author of "Commodore Paul Jones," "Reuben James," "For the Freedom of the Sea," etc.

Copyright, 1903, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE BOAT IN THE PASS.

IT was evening. The Maidstone was beating to and fro off the mouth of the harbor of Brest. The wind was still blowing hard on the shore and the French ships were securely bottled up. They could not beat out of the narrow channel. At least it would be a dangerous undertaking and the game would be scarcely worth the candle. Therefore the Maidstone, although her approach had been noticed long since, had been permitted to come as close as she dared unhindered.

From the foretop-mast cross-trees by the aid of a good glass Grafton had discovered unmistakable signs of preparation in the French fleet still windbound in the harbor. Many boats were passing between the ships and the shore, troops were being embarked, and provisions and supplies taken on board the huge line-of-battle ships and the frigates. It was quite evident that a movement of some sort was in contemplation; and it was more than probable that as soon as the wind served, taking advantage of the absence of the blockaders, the French would put to sea.

That was news of the highest importance. If they could learn the destination of the fleet there would be nothing left to be desired except an opportunity of meeting them; an opportunity Hawke would make if he were given the vestige of a chance.

"Hatfield," said Grafton, as he came down from the cross-trees for the last time, it being too dark to see farther, "I have changed my mind. I am going ashore to see if I can not find out something about the French fleet."

"And you want me to go with you?"

"No, that can not be. You must look after the ship. I will take the dinghy and one man, old Jabez Slocum. Now, mark me. My plan is to land at a little cove I know of under the lee of the Chateau de Josselin, about which I told you. I shall effect an entrance to the castle immediately, and see if there is anything to be learned there. If not, I will take Jabez and we will sail boldly into the harbor and find out what we can."

"And you will see Mademoiselle de Rohan?"

"Perhaps. I hope so, though that is not my main purpose. At least I would go even if I knew she were not there. Now, if I am not back by eight bells, midnight, you will brace up and make the best of your way to Torbay and tell Sir Edward what we have learned."

"Yes, but you will hardly have time to ge there and back by midnight, Capt. Grafton. Don't you think it would be better to make it, say, eight bells in the midwatch, or four o'clock in the morning? I'd hate mightily to run away and leave you."

"Very well," answered Grafton, "that will give me more time, and perhaps it would be better not to leave without exhausting every possible opportunity of getting information as to the destination of the French fleet, for there is no doubt in my mind that they intend to move."

"Nor in mine."

"Very well, then, we'll make it eight bells in the midwatch."

"And if you are not back then, I'm to make the best of my way to Torbay, or Plymouth, or wherever I can find Sir Edward, deliver the dispatches, and tell what we have seen?"

"That's it. Now, I need not tell you to watch the ship carefully on this hard lee-shore, and when you start for Hawke, if I am not here, drive her for all she has in her."

"I will do both, Capt. Grafton."

"Of course. And if the wind should change and the French should send out a liner or a couple of frigates after you, you are on no account to wait for me or anybody. The information we have gained is of far more importance that a half dozen captured frigates. Remember that running, not fighting, is your role. Don't hesitate on my account. Don't be captured, and don't be wrecked."

"Very good," answered Hatfield, "I shall carry out your instructions to the letter. But I wish I could go with you."

"I wish so, too, but you can't. One of us must stay by the ship. Remember that the fate of England is resting on your shoulders," continued the older man gravely, "for 'tis perfectly well known if the French get away from Brest successfully, and are not beaten elsewhere, they have an army all ready for a descent upon Ireland, or perhaps England herself."

"I shall remember it," answered Hatfield solemnly.

"That's well. Now, heave to and have the dinghy dropped overboard. See that the mast is stepped and the sail is close reefed; put a compass, a beaker of water, a couple of muskets and a bag of bread in her; stow away forward a coil of signal halliards and a stout rope with a grapnel bent on the end of it—about 30 fathoms of each, I think—and send old Jabez to me in my cabin."

"Ay, ay, sir," replied Hatfield, calling the hands to the braces as Grafton turned to the companionway and went below, whither he was followed shortly by the old sailor he had designated, with whom he spent a few moments in busy preparation. Presently the ship was hove to and the dinghy dropped alongside. Grafton and Slocum came on deck. Grafton wore his uniform and both men were fully armed with sword, or cutlass, and pistols.

"You are surely not going in your uniform?" queried Hatfield.

"Yes, why not? I've no mind to hang as a spy, and if I am captured in this uniform I'm a prisoner of war only. Remember my instructions."

"I shall not forget them."

"Good-bye."

"Good-bye, and God bless you. I shall be in a fever of anxiety until you return," exclaimed the lieutenant as they parted.

Waving his hand Grafton stepped to the gangway and dropped easily down the battens into the boat, whither Slocum had preceded him. A vigorous shove sent them clear of the frigate; a bit of close reefed sail was hoisted on the dinghy and she gathered way toward the distant shore.

After two hours of hard running having at last come well within the harbor mouth and reached a point opposite the old chateau, they bore up and began ratching in toward the shore. It seemed to the old sailor at the helm, after they had made several short tacks, that they were getting perilously near the breakers. As he peered ahead he thought he could see the white caps, and he believed, as he turned his ear up to windward, that he could hear the roar of the mighty waves. One more tack and they would certainly be in the midst of them.

Grafton had ordered him to throw the dinghy up into the wind and check her way while he investigated the situation. He had gone forward and was kneeling down by the mast peering ahead trying to get his bearings. Finally, having satisfied himself as well as he could in the darkness, he called out a command to the sailor at the tiller. Although it looked like certain destruction, old Jabez was too thorough a seaman to hesitate to obey, and when Grafton directed him to put the helm over he let her go off, slipped out the sheet, and in a few seconds they gathered way and were rushing straight for the breakers.

They could now dimly make out the black mass of the cliffs before them. In the tower of the chateau which rose above them were two lights. Grafton sought them out from other lights in other windows in the castle. He was sure of the tower, for he thought he recognized its conical top; though the darkness was so deep, there were signs of a break in the clouds—in fact, they had broken over the tower. Was that a star above it to lead him on?

One light Grafton surmised came from the oriel window in the tower, the other from the window of the room adjacent to it. By what happy fortune did they chance to be lighted that night? If he were right in his opinion he knew his course to the mouth of the passage to the little bay. Once in the channel leading to it, he would have to trust to instinct to feel his way through.

"Mind your steering, now, Slocum!" he cried. "Keep your weather eye lifting and obeying my orders exactly! Our lives depend on it. Starboard a little! So! I think we can win through, but it's touch and go. Steady! Do you see those two lights?"

"I sees 'm, sir."

"Keep them in range until I say further. Steady, now! Nothing off, for God's sake, man! Hold her up to it!"

The boat steered with an uneasy helm. She had a tendency to fall off, to go leeward, that is; but old Jabez set his teeth hard, contracted his brows, and, peering steadily out at the lights high above and far ahead of them, kept her on her course.

They were nearing the shore rapidly now; it looked awfully close. The cliffs loomed up in front of them grim and terrible. There was no entrance through them, no rift even, no way that he could see. Their course seemed madness. Another moment and they would be beaten to pieces. But the business of the old sailor was to obey orders and steer the boat. He put everything else out of his heart and watched and listened, all his skill and discipline at his own command, and at his captain's service.

"Well done!" Grafton called back to him. "Now let her go off a little. Easy, now! Very well, dyce! Port, once more. So! Port, port again!"

"Port it is, sir!" cried Jabez, as the boat's head fell off to starboard in obedience to the command.

Then, in compliance with the rapid and changing directions of Grafton, he lulled up to port and then again swung to starboard; twisting about, in obedience to Grafton's instinctive conning, through the narrow pass through the reefs.

They were right in the breakers now. The waves were hissing, boiling and roaring around them on every side. The sea was white with the surf. The old man thought his last hour had come in that riven sea; the rapid succession of commands from the captain, however, left him no time for reflection; the boat whirled about, darted back and forth, swung from side to side like a mad-woman, a Bacchante, under their skillful handling. She seemed doomed a dozen times, and that she was not shattered was wonderful. Suddenly right in front of them loomed a black mass of rock.

"Luff!" roared Grafton. "Luff her hard!"

The little boat spun around once more like a dancing girl, her starboard side just scraping a jagged reef. Then came leaping up into the wind, then bore away on the other tack.

"That was a close shave," screamed Grafton, "but we're all right yet. Give her a good full now. God! But it's dark! We've lost the lights, but I think we can feel our way. Hard over!" he shrieked, as another rock rose up in front of them.

As they cleared the rock, they suddenly whirled about, swept through a narrow opening, and found themselves in smooth water. The cliffs rose high above them on every side. The wind, though they could still hear it roaring faintly, seemed to die away suddenly. The change from the wild clamor of the pass to the silence and stillness in the bay was startling. The dinghy drifted in for a few moments and then slowly came to a standstill, the water lipping along her keel. The men sat quiet, but with beating hearts and panting breaths from their labor and excitement, until they had recovered themselves in a measure. Far above them towered the massive walls of the chateau.

"We are in," said Grafton at last, a note of triumph and relief thrilling through his voice.

He climbed aft and grasped the hand of the old man.

"By heaven, Jabez, I never saw such steering! We were gone a dozen times but for you!"

"'Twant my steerin', yer honor, s'much as 'twas your pilotin' got us in," remarked the old sailor, wiping the sweat from his forehead with his other hand. "'Twas a close shave all the way through. Wot next, sir?"

"Out with the oars, now, and let us row to the shore," he said, taking the tiller while Jabez shipped the oars. "Gently, man!" he added, as the boat surged rapidly forward under the old sailor's powerful strokes.

Presently her prow touched a little stretch of beach a few feet wide, which Philip remembered to have seen right at the foot of the place where he determined to make the attempt to descend the wall of the chateau.

"Now, Slocum," he said, "pass me that coil of signal halliards."

When the mass of light but strong line was handed him he slipped the coil around his neck.

"Ef I mought make so bold, yer honor, wot are ye goin' to do?" asked the sailor.

"I am going to ascend the wall of the castle yonder."

"Good Lord!" ejaculated the old old man, "it can't be done. Why, 'tis a regular pressipyce! I c'n shin up any r'yal mast that ever was set, but that 'ere——"

"That'll do, Jabez. I've been here before and I know it's possible to scale the wall. It has been done before—by a lover."

"'Taint fer the likes o' me to speak to you," said the old seaman; "but lovers allus was fools, they say, w'ich I ain't never been one, an' mebbe Providence watches over 'em special like, but as fer sailors——"

"I am a lover, too, Jabez, if it comes to that. 'Tis not only for England that I go into that tower. Now, we've talked enough. I am going to climb to that window from which the light is coming. D'ye see it? The one with the balcony. Then I am going to drop the end of this piece of signal halliards down to you. I want you to bend on the end of that coil of rope in the bow to it. Be sure to make it fast to the grapnel end. Then I'll haul it up, hook it to the balcony, and have a ladder to come down again."

"Werry good, sir."

"Then you are to stay in the boat here and keep a sharp lookout for anything and everything. Have your muskets ready for use, too. You're a good shot, aren't you?"

"I used to be, sir."

"I remembered it. Now, if I should happen to fall you are to pick up what's left of me and take it back to the ship—if you can get back."

"An' if you don't come down, sir, w'ich God forbid——"

"Wait until about four bells in the midwatch for me, as near as you can guess the time—here, take my watch and then you can be sure—and then make your way as best you can to the ship. It will be easier to get out of this little bay, I think, than it was to get into it, especially if the wind shifts off-shore. Keep her reefed down and take it slowly; you must remember something of the pass from our coming in."

"If you ain't to go with me, cap't, I don't care w'ether I gits out alive or not. I'll jest jam her head fer the openin' an' let her go. Damme, beggin' yer parding, sir, I wish you'd take me into that 'ere tower, too."

"I would rather have you down here, Jabez. Good-by; remember what I told you," Grafton said, extending his hand to his faithful if humble companion.

"I won't forgit none of it, sir," answered the old man in a melancholy voice, shaking his captain by the hand.

[CONTINUED]

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

WILLIAM H. KIRCH,
Carpenter and Builder,
66 Duer Street.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
Telephone 402 J.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
The Standard Railroad of America

PROTECTED THROUGHOUT BY THE ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC BLOCK SIGNAL SYSTEM.

On and After June 26, 1904.

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

f 2 38 a m—Main Line Express daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor Cars, for Pittsburg and Cleveland, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

f 2 55 p m—Chicago and St. Louis Express daily, for Nashville (via Cincinnati and Louisville), Indianapolis, Chicago and St. Louis; Dining Car.

f 6 45 p m—Western Express, daily, with Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, for Pittsburg and Chicago.

f 8 07 p m—Pacific Express, daily, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars for Pittsburg, Toledo and Chicago, daily, for Knoxville, via Shenandoah Valley Route, for Cleveland, except Saturday.

Seaboard Air Line Express, f 1 06 p m daily.

FOR BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH—2 56, 6 26, 9 07, 10 06 a m, 1 04, 10 08 p m On Sunday at 12 56, 9 07, 10 06 a m, 1 04 and 10 07 p m

FOR NEWARK AND NEW YORK—5 26, 6 07, 6 44, 6 12, 6 50, 6 56, 7 08, 7 15, 7 30, 7 45, 7 56, 8 04, 8 07, 8 16, 8 30, 8 38, 8 45, 9 05, 9 17, 9 26, 9 45, 10 17, 10 47, 10 56, 11 08, 11 47 a m, 12 05, 1 06, 1 05, 2 05, 3 15, 3 56, 4 05, 4 47, 4 52, 5 02, 5 26, 6 05, 6 47, 6 56, 7 05, 7 15, 7 30, 7 45, 8 04, 8 15, 9 05, 9 45, 10 15, 10 44, 10 47, 11 12, 11 20 (Saturdays only) p m and 12 12 night. Sundays, 8 05, 8 57, 9 20, 9 54, 9 59, 10 20, 10 51, 10 58, 10 07, 10 56 a m, 12 20, 12 46, 1 26, 2 20, 3 42, 5 44, 6 05, 6 54, 6 56, 7 05, 7 09, 7 26, 7 52, 8 20, 9 09, 9 45, 10 15, 10 44, 11 45, p m and 12 12 night; For New York only, 7 45 a m, and 2 45, 3 49 p m week days.

FOR TRENTON AND PHILADELPHIA—1 01, 6 46, 7 10 (Trenton only), 8 05, 8 56, 9 07, 9 28, 10 05, 11 40 a. m., 12 05, 1 04, 2 04, (Trenton only) 2 35, 6 43, 7 35, 7 44, 8 07, 10 06 p. m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 10 06, 10 40 a. m., 1 04, 5 53, 6 43, 7 44, 8 07, and 10 07 p. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Through Vestibuled Express Trains, Buffet Parlor Cars, Passenger Coach, and Combined Coach, 10 28 a. m. and 2 35 p. m. week-days. Express 1 01, 6 46 8 36 a. m., 12 40 p. m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51 and 8 38 (Through Vestibuled Train, Pullman Parlor, Dining and Smoking Cars and wide Vestibule Coaches) a. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Via Delaware River Bridge, 1 01 a m, 12 40 and 2 35 p m week days; 1 01 and 6 51 a. m. Sundays.

FOR CAPE MAY—Express, 1 01 night, daily.

FOR RAHWAY—1 01, 4 25, 6 46, 7 10, 8 06, 9 00, 9 07, 9 45, 11 14, 11 40 a. m., 1 21, 1 42, (Saturdays only), 2 04, 2 40 (Saturdays only) 3 11, 3 48, 4 38, 4 50, 5 09, 5 20, 5 36, 5 47, 6 09, 6 05, (except Saturday), 6 12, 6 19, (except Saturday), 6 28, 6 45, 6 51, 7 03, 7 19, 7 44, 8 13, 8 52, 9 54, 10 07, 11 19 p. m., and 12 50 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 8 41, 9 50, 10 25, 10 40 and 11 44 a. m., 12 42, 1 20, 2 47, 3 26, 4 45, 5 19, 5 45, 6 52, 7 05, 7 27, 7 44, 8 14, 9 47, 9 12, 10 18, 11 00 and 11 45 p. m.

FOR NEW BRUNSWICK—1 01, 6 46, 7 10, 8 06, 9 07, 11 40 a. m., 12 40, 1 42 (Saturdays only), 3 04, 4 26, 4 38, 5 09, 5 36, 6 05, (except Saturday) 6 42, 6 46, 7 44, 8 37, 10 08, 10 57 p. m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 9 45, 10 40 a. m., 12 42, 1 20, 5 52, 6 43, 7 44, 9 12 and 10 07 p. m.

FOR WOODBRIDGE AND PERTH AMBOY—6 40, 9 46, 11 14, a m, 1 03, 3 11, 4 50, 5 47, 6 12, 7 19, 9 54 p m, and 12 20 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 25, 11 44 a m, 5 40 and 10 15 p m.

FOR EAST MILLSTONE—7 19 a m, 12 40 and 5 36 p m week-days.

FOR LAMBERTVILLE, PHILLIPSBURG, MANUNKA CHUNK AND STROUDSBURG, VIA TRENTON—8 26, 10 36 a m, 12 40 (Saturdays only), 3 04 and 6 42 p m, week days, 6 51 a m and 6 42 p m Sunday.

FOR FLEMINGTON—10 36 a m and 3 04 p m.

FOR JAMESBURG VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10 a m, 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR FREEHOLD VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10, 8 06 11 40 a m, 4 38 and 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR LONG BRANCH, ASBURY PARK, OCEAN GROVE, AND POINTS ON NEW YORK AND LONG BRANCH R. R., 4 25, 8 19 and 9 26, a m, 1 08, 3 06, 3 44, 5 42 and 7 38 p m week-days. Sundays, 9 05 and 10 26 a m, and 5 40 p m. Stop at North Asbury Park for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

FOR BROOKLYN, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats of Pennsylvania Annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

LEAVE NEW YORK, FOR ELIZABETH—From West Twenty-third Street Station, 6 05, 6 25, 7 25, 8 10, 8 25, 8 55, 10 25, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 25, 12 55 (Saturdays only), 1 25, 1 55 (Saturdays only), 2 25, 3 55, 5 55, 4 25, 4 55, 5 10, 5 25, 5 40, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 8 10, 8 55, 9 25, 10 55, 11 55 p m. Sundays—8 05, 7 55, 8 25, 9 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 55 p m, and 12 12 night.

"f" Stops on notice to Agent or on signal. For time from Desbrosses and Cortlandt streets consult local time-tables to be procured from agents.

W. W. ATTERBURY, Gen'l M'g'r. J. R. WOOD, Pass. Traffic M'g'r.

GEO. W. BOYD, General Passenger Agent.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF,
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accomodations and private dining room.

Hotel Kensington,
(Licensed)
J. H. STAATS, Prop.,
107, 109, 111 North Avenue.
Everything New and Up to Date.
An Inspection Solicited

JOHN WIRTH
Successor to Henry Liefke
Bakery and Confectionery
201-203 W. Front St
Telephone No. 723
All orders delivered at short notice.

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING
At DOANE'S,
118 PARK AVE.

LAING MACHINE-AUTO REPAIR COMPANY,
416 Sycamore Street, Plainfield, N. J.
Office—134 North Avenue. Telephone 333-J

GREAT
BARGAIN SALE OF
Bicycles, Bicycle Sundries, Pianos, Musical Instruments, Sheet Music. Guns and Ammunition.
S. W. Frucht, 224 W. Front St.

SPECIAL LOW PRICES
For all Summer Dresses. Linen Suits a Specialty.
S. Hirsh, - 432 Watchung Ave

Reading System
New Jersey Central.

Stations in New York foot of Liberty, and South Ferry, Whitehall Streets.

Time Table Corrected August 15, 1904.

For New York—5 17, 5 32, 6 03, 6 32, 6 38, 6 52, 7 25, 7 38, 7 48, 7 56, 8 08, 8 11, 8 26, 8 56, 9 44, 9 57, 9 58, 10 28, 11 00 a. m., 12 00, 12 44, 1 12, 1 32, 2 05, 2 45, 3 44, 4 12, 4 47, 5 02, 5 32, 6 08, 6 32, 6 56, 7 08, 7 30, 8 05, 9 05, 10 17, 11 00 p. m. Sunday—3 17, 3 57, 6 05, 7 01, 8 02, 8 56, 9 56, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 00 m, 12 02, 1 48, 2 05, 3 17, 3 50, 4 51, 5 32, 6 05, 6 32, 6 56, 8 12, 8 32, 9 05, 10 28 p. m.

For Newark—5 30, 6 32, 7 05, 8 07, 7 05, 7 38, 7 48, 8 11, 8 56, 9 44, 9 58, 9 59, 11 02 a. m., 12 02, 1 12, 1 32, 2 05, 3 44, 5 02, 5 32, 6 08, 6 32, 6 56, 7 08, 7 30, 8 05, 9 05, 10 17, 11 00 p. m. Sunday—7 01, 8 02, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 00 m, 1 45, 3 17 3 50, 5 01, 6 05, 6 56, 8 12, 8 32, 9 05, 10 28 p. m.

For Somerville—5 30, 7 12, 8 21, 9 20, 9 58, 11 00 a. m., 1 01, 2 05, 3 11, 3 58, 6 05, 6 32, 6 56, 7 08, 8 04, 8 10, 8 41, 9 12, 9 58, 10 28 p. m. Sunday—6 05 a. m., 2 05, 3 58, 6 05 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5 25, 9 54 a. m., 2 11, 5 20 p. m. Sundays—5 45 a. m., 2 05, 6 05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5 25, 9 54 a m; 5 45 p m. Sundays—5 45 a m, 2 05 p m.

For Long Branch and Ocean Grove, etc—8 26 a m, 5 20 p m. Sunday (except Ocean Grove)—5 20 p m, 12 05, 2 20, 6 00 p m.

For Red Bank—8 11, 11 00 12 05, 1 18, 5 54, 4 47, 5 52, 11 20 p m. Sundays—8 26 a m, 5 20, 6 13 p m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—(8 11 Lakewood only) 9 27 a m, 1 18, 3 40, (5 44 p m, Lakewood only). Sundays—8 26 a m.

For Toms River and Barnegat—9 27 a m, 1 18, 5 44 p m. Sundays—8 26 a m.

For Philadelphia—5 17, 5 32, 7 48, 8 44, 8 51, 9 44, 10 44, 10 51, 11 44 a m, 12 06, 1 01, 1 30, 2 05, 3 44, 5 05, 7 47, 8 32, p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 56, 10 51 a m, 2 05, 4 55, 6 05, 6 57, 7 47, 9 47 p m, 1 25, 1 17 night.

For Trenton—5 17, 7 12, 7 48, 8 44, 9 44, 10 44, 11 44 a m, 12 06, 1 01, 1 30, 2 05, 3 44, 5 05, 7 47, 8 32, p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 56, 10 51 a m, 2 05, 4 55, 6 05, 6 57, 7 47, 9 47 p m, 1 25, 1 17 night.

For Reading and Harrisburg—5 17, 5 32, 8 56, (10 44, 11 44 Reading only), a m, 2 11, (5 45 through train), 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 3 05, 6 57, 8 26 p m, 1 17 night.

For Pottsville, Sunbury and Williamsport—5 17, 8 26, 9 54 a m, 2 11 8 21 p m, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 3 05 p m, 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—7 17, 8 51, 10 51, a m, 2 45, 6 45, 7 47 p m. Sundays 10 51 a m 3 45, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night.

"Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. C. M. BURT, Gen. Pass. Agent

Lehigh Valley Railroad

Time Table in Effect Nov. 28, 1903.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

8:03 a.m. daily (except Sunday) local to Mauch Chunk.

8:42 a. m. daily for Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Rochester, Buffalo and principal intermediate stations, connects at Depew Junction for Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge.

2.12 p. m. daily local for Easton, Mauch Chunk, Hazleton, Pottsville and Shenandoah.

4:08 p. m. daily (except Sunday) "Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Express" Solid vestibule train to Wilkes-Barre, Through Parlor Car via D. & H. R. R. to Scranton and Carbondale.

6:21 p. m. daily (except Sunday) local to Easton.

6:40 p. m. daily solid vestibule train to Buffalo, Toronto and Chicago and principal intermediate stations except Rochester

FRANK BOWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 118 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J Telephone 115-B.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE,
Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.
On Saturday's close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 6:00 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00, 7:15 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:4 a. m.; 1:30, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30 and 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA—West of Easton.

Close 12:25 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 7:00 p. m.
Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m. 12:05, 4:30, 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for West and South close 4:30 and 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for East, close 1:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE & GALLIA (Mt. Bethel)

Arrive—1:30 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

Watchung—Arrive 6:25 p. m. Close 5:30 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

STONE AT BARTLE'S STONE YARD.
Yard: Corner Church and Second Streets.
Cut Stone, Building Stone—ALL KINDS.
FLAGGING AND CURB STONE.
Have some 18-inch and 2 and 3-ft. walk very cheap. Leave orders for your foundation and cesspool stone with us.

SMALLEY BROS.,
147 North Ave.
Butchers.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Roasting and Broiling Chickens a specialty.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83-A.

H. EGGERDING,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c Cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana Cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of Domestic Cigars.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,
122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Game in Season. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
Telephone No. 463 J.

LADIES DESIRING—
Knife-Pleating or Pinking
done, will please leave their orders at No. 22 Duer Street, and it will receive prompt attention.
MRS. PORCH.

LOCKED UP IN BREAD BOX.

Burglar Scare Is Created by Boy Prisoner's Frantic Efforts to Secure Freedom.

Marvin G. Honiss, of Bloomfield avenue, Bloomfield, N. J., was awakened at an early hour in the morning by a noise which he believed was made by a burglar in the front parlor of his house. He arose, got his revolver, and crept quietly to the door leading to the room, prepared to do battle with the intruder, but could see nobody. The noise continued all the rest of the night and Honiss sat by the window, revolver in hand.

It was daylight when a man on his way to work saw Honiss at his vigil, and asked him what he was doing there. Honiss told him about the strange sounds, which at that moment were repeated. They were traced to a bread box, and Honiss joined the man in an investigation. When they opened the box, which was in front of a grocer's store, a little boy jumped out, much to their amazement.

LITTLE BOY JUMPED UP.

He said he was Johnny Johnson, nine years old. He had gone into the bread box early in the evening while playing hide and seek, and, being tired from playing all day, had fallen asleep. The grocer evidently had fastened the hasp later, and when the little fellow awoke he found himself a prisoner. The noise Honiss heard was his kicking and pounding inside the box. If it had not been for a few gimlet holes in the box the boy undoubtedly would have been suffocated.

CAT AND DOG AS FISHERS.

Declared by Everybody Champion Anglers of Region Surrounding Littleton, N. H.

From Littleton, N. H., a truthful correspondent writes that the champion angler of those parts is a cat which hangs around the establishment of the Saranac Glove company. Her title was disputed by "Mike" Corliss' Newfoundland pup, but with the landing of a 14-pound trout the cat is in the lead.

The cat has been a most persistent angler for some time, bringing in fish, large and small, so regularly that its reputation got abroad. Included in her catches in the last two weeks are a horned pout and a fine speckled trout. Pussy is seven-toed. She knows all the best fishing holes in the neighborhood.

CAUGHT A BIG TROUT.

Mrs. Corliss' dog goes fishing every day, and never comes back without a trophy. His best catch recently was a sucker 15 inches long.

Girl Victor Over Rattler.

Miss Julia Divers, the daughter of W. A. Divers, a prominent citizen of Rocky Mount, Va., kept a large rattlesnake captive under her feet for ten minutes and came out unscathed. She and her father and her little brother were attending a picnic on Grassy hill, the foot of a big mountain near the town. While strolling with her brother Miss Divers stepped on the reptile. The snake was in coil, but unable to strike because of her weight. She realized her danger and planted the other foot firmly on the reptile and called to her little brother. He went nearly a quarter of a mile for his father, who killed the snake. The reptile measured four feet and had nine rattles.

Revived in Nick of Time.

John Cupsick, a miner of Hazleton, Pa., became extremely ill, and in a local hospital, a few days later, was pronounced dead by the doctors. Being friendless, his body was sent for dissection to a Philadelphia hospital. Just as the physicians were about to use the knife John aroused from his trance and asked this conundrum: "Why am I undressed?"

EDUCATE WORKERS.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS IN GERMANY FOR THE YOUNG.

Cap the Common School Education by Fitting Boys and Girls for the Real Business of Life.

The department of commerce and labor is issuing a series of very interesting reports on industrial education in Germany. The latest one is from Deputy Consul Meyer, at Chemnitz, and deals with primary industrial continuation schools. These schools are scattered far and wide, and Mr. Meyer furnishes statistics to show that his branch of education has been quite fully developed in Germany.

The industrial continuation schools are the lowest of the industrial schools, and "cap the common school education by giving the young men and women, who must at once embark upon the task of earning a living, the rudiments of a practical education." Attendance in most cases is compulsory. They teach no particular trade, but maintain distinctly general curriculums, and are valuable to those who have not the wherewithal to obtain a higher industrial education. In describing the schools, Mr. Meyer says:

"In order to offer the most convenient time for instruction, these schools are held largely in the evenings and on Sundays. Such hours are extremely unfortunate, but apparently unavoidable. The student comes to his work tired from the day's labor and in a state of physical and mental lethargy. A movement has been on foot for some time to transfer the periods of instruction, so far as possible, to the daytime, but has met only partial success.

"In almost all of the industrial continuation schools the three great subjects of instruction are German, arithmetic and drawing. There are woven in with these fundamental branches subjects that possess value to local industry. In the larger industrial schools, which include all the general industrial schools of Baden as reorganized in 1868, geometry, trigonometry, algebra, physics, chemistry, natural science and mechanics are taught in elementary form. In the great majority of schools these subjects are, however, omitted as being too advanced.

"A very prominent feature of the work of these continuation schools is the giving of exhibitions, which occur in many parts of the country periodically every year or half-year. The purpose of these displays of the work of the school is two-fold, to incite the students to greater effort in the competition for prizes, which are frequently offered, and to place before the public, and especially before the employers of labor, exhibits which illustrate the capacity of the students and the character of work done by them. In these exhibitions are condensed the best results of the instruction given, and the character of the work displayed may be accepted as a fair criterion by which to judge the efficiency of the school and the capabilities of the students. Not only do the students learn to recognize and appreciate each other's abilities and powers, but the interest of the public is enlivened and strengthened.

"It was in the second half of the last century that the question of compulsory or optional attendance at the general industrial continuation schools was raised. To-day that question seems to have been answered in favor of compulsion.

"On January 2, 1902, Prussia had 1,684 continuation schools, with 203,250 students, of which 1,095 were industrial continuation schools.

"In 1900 Bavaria had 274 industrial continuation schools, of which 225 were independent institutions and 49 were associated with 'real' schools. The total attendance was 39,247. Of the 274 schools 180 had compulsory attendance and 94 optional.

"Saxony has 44 industrial continuation schools at present. In 1899 there were 36 of these schools, of which 24 were maintained by associations, 10 by local political and school bodies, 1 by a guild, and 1 by a private person.

"In 1901 Wurttemberg had 235 industrial continuation schools for boys and 16 for girls. The former were attended by 19,639 students and the latter by 971.

"In 1902 Baden had 46 industrial schools, with 8,152 students, and 96 industrial continuation schools."

An Anniversary.

Office Boy—Mr. Smith, can I get off this afternoon? My grandmother's dead.

Manager—Tommy, don't you know that it is very wrong for you to tell lies?

"But she is dead!"

"When did she die?"

"Two years ago; but to-day's the anniversary and we're going to celebrate it."

And the manager, remembering that it was about two years ago that the grandmother excuse came out, told the little fellow to run along. He then closed down his desk, told the chief clerk that he had to run over to Seattle, but would be back at 5:30—and—followed the boy to the funeral celebration.—Tacoma News.

Imitation Only.

Miss Inez Sent—It's an opal ring Mr. Cheeply gave me.

Miss Sharpe (examining it)—H'm! Do you—er—like it?

Miss Inez Sent—O, yes; but you know the old superstition. I'm afraid it will bring me bad luck.

Miss Sharpe—I wouldn't worry. This can't bring you anything worse than an imitation of bad luck.—Stray Stories.

King Prempeh Apes Chamberlain.

Ex-King Prempeh of Ashantee admired Joseph Chamberlain to such an extent that he ordered for himself a complete suit of clothes and monocle like those worn by the ex-colonial secretary.—London News.

Should Women Vote?

They do vote---in favor of Prudential Protection as being the best provision for the family.

Visit The Prudential's Exhibit, Palace of Education, World's Fair, St. Louis.

The Prudential

Insurance Co. of America. Home Office: NEWARK, N. J.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. EDGAR B. WARD, 2d Vice President.
LESLIE D. WARD, Vice President. FORREST F. DRYDEN, 3d Vice-President.
EDWARD GRAY, Secretary.

C. E. BALL, Sup't, Rooms 2-3-4 Bank Building, E. Front St. and Park Ave. 1950
Box 796, Plainfield N. J. Telephone No. 334-L

FREDERICK J. POPE, District Manager Ordinary Dep't, 179 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

Hugh Gauven, formerly of the Plainfield A. C., has signed to catch for Patchogue for the balance of the season.

While Cotter could not catch for Westfield on Saturday, being ill, he was able to play on Sunday at Ridgewood.

The remaining dates for the Plainfield-Westfield games are Sept. 3 at Westfield, Sept. 10 at Plainfield, Sept. 24 at Westfield.

While Merity's decisions in a few instances may have been a little off on Saturday, his work was far superior to that of Watt, of Westfield.

Bassford's three-bagger on Saturday shows that the right fielder is getting his eye on the ball again. He was always considered a heavy batter.

Manager Johnston, of the Plainfield A. C., has scheduled one game thus far for Labor Day with the Royal Giants. He has not completed arrangements for a second game on that day.

It is likely that the West Ends, of Somerville, with George Wiltse, of the New York Nationals, in the box, will meet the Plainfield A. C. on Crescent Oval on Saturday, Sept. 17.

Neither Cregan, Dietrich, Walton or Putnam had a putout in Saturday's game, an unusual thing. Farmer and Smith had twenty-four between them, while Cusick, Bassford and Courtney each had one.

"Rue" Daily, who caught for the local firemen's team against the Newark fire laddies on Thursday, had three passed balls during the contest. There were twelve errors made by his team, but he did not make them all as reported.

The original Colored Stars have reorganized and on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 8, they will play a game with the Young Men's Progressive Club on Crescent Oval. The contest will be called at 2:30 o'clock and this will be the lineup for the Stars: Wm. Jones, 1b; Tucker Johnson, 2b; E. Carman, 3b; H. Peterson, ss; F. Nelson, c; C. Kline, p; Wm. Randolph, rf; Wm. Kline, cf; Tom Washington, lf.

Beisel, formerly of Brandywine, Pa., who wanted a try-out with the Plainfield team early in the season, and who pitched winning ball for Roselle, has since been taken on by Hoboken. On Saturday he pitched his first game for the Hudson County team against Dover. The score was 5 to 1 in his favor and but eight hits were made off his delivery. Beisel will probably remain with Hoboken now as Lindeman is ill with typhoid fever.

The series of games between Plainfield and Westfield now stands four to three in favor of Westfield and if the locals succeed in winning the contest on Saturday they will then have an even chance of winning the pennant. Thus far Plainfield has whitewashed Westfield three times, while Westfield has only shutout the locals once, excepting the 9 to 0 forfeited game at Westfield on June 11. It is the general opinion that Manager Johnston has much the better team and the fans hope to see it take the series. This is the result of the contests thus far played: May 28—Westfield 7, Plainfield 5; June 11—Westfield 9, Plainfield 0; July 23—Westfield 8, Plainfield 6; July 30—Westfield 0, Plainfield 3; August 6—Westfield 0, Plainfield 6; August 13—Westfield 3, Plainfield 0; August 27—Westfield 0, Plainfield 2.

GOLF.

This is the standing to date for the Golf Committee Cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club:

W. L. Glenney	11 5-6
W. Wadsworth	10½
C. B. Morgan	9
L. Calkins	7½
R. Abbott	6
H. F. Fox	5½
L. B. Taylor	5
G. F. Earl	5
G. F. Schoonmaker	5
E. B. Schoemaker	4
C. E. Halsted	4
S. D. Lounsbury	3½
D. H. Rowland	3
J. E. Erickson	3
F. C. Reinhart	3
Geo. Cathcart	2½
A. L. Otterson	2½
J. A. Tompkins	2 1-3
Olaf Saugstad	2
R. S. Rowland	2
C. W. Abbott	2
C. A. Stover	1½
H. Huntington	1
H. L. Hall	1
E. E. Iremonger	1
G. T. VanBoskerck	1
Arthur Murphy	1
D. W. Taylor	1
E. A. Cruikshank	⅓
H. D. Hibbard	⅓
G. M. Furman	1-3

AUTOMOBILING.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Macintyre and child, of West Sixth street, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Smith, of Mercer avenue, left Sunday for Barnegat, where they will spend several days fishing. The trip is being made in an Oldsmobile touring car.

ROD AND GUN.

Frank Hedden, of East Fourth street, who is on a fishing trip at Barnegat Pier, shipped a barrel of crabs to his friends at the livery yesterday. Hedden expects to return to this city within a few days.

FOOTBALL.

The Orange Field Club will hold an important meeting Wednesday night to make arrangements for the football season. Officers will be elected and a captain chosen.

General Sporting News on Page 3.

His Speedy Little Canoe.

Kenneth Shupp, of Madison avenue, who has just returned from a two weeks' vacation at Harvey's Lake, N. Y., won several races in his sailing canoe at the lake during his stay. The boat is of his own construction, sixteen feet long, fitted with a centreboard and rigged as a cat-boat. Shupp carried a great amount of canvas for the size of the boat, and though he entered about half a dozen races, in each case his craft showed a clean pair of heels to the other contestants.

—Use Press Want Ads.

Attractive Homes

In calling your attention to the fine residences we have for sale, we will tell you why they are so desirable. They are

Modern Houses,

new and up-to date in every particular—well built, of the very best materials, unsurpassed for real home comforts.

Excellent Location.

The finest in the residential sections of Plainfield, which is noted for its beautiful homes, healthfulness and conveniences.

Moderate Prices.

We are offering these properties at very tempting prices—so low that every judicious buyer will find it to his advantage to purchase of us now.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,
171 North Avenue,
Tel. 24. Plainfield, N. J.

POLITICAL CHAT.

PARTY NOMINATIONS.

REPUBLICAN.
For President—Theodore Roosevelt
For Vice President—Charles W. Fairbanks.

DEMOCRATIC.
For President—Alton B. Parker.
For Vice President—Henry G. Davis.

POPULIST.
For President—Thomas E. Watson
For Vice President—Thomas W. Tribbles.

PROHIBITION.
For President—Silas C. Swallow.
For Vice President—George I. Carrol.

SOCIALIST.
For President—Eugene V. Debs.
For Vice President—Benj. Hanford.

SOCIALIST-LABOR.
For President—Charles H. Coregan.
For Vice President—William A. Cox.

Secretary of State Dickinson announces in Jersey City that Senator Fairbanks will speak there about Sept. 20, the date of the Republican State Convention.

The raising of the big Parker and Davis banner across Broad street, Elizabeth, on September 10 will be marked by a big celebration in that city. Preparations are already under way for this event. Chairman of the committee having this matter in charge, James O. Connolly, is arranging at the present time for a speaker of national reputation to be present on that occasion. It is very likely that a number of other speakers well known throughout the county will be there and address the meeting.

The grand stand and speaker's platform will be at the corner of East Jersey street and Broad. There will be a parade, probably, and no pains are being spared to make this an event of much importance The grand stand will be located at the corner of Broad street and East Jersey street.

The committee appointed by William B. Gourley, chairman of the New Jersey Democratic State committee, to organize clubs in the various counties, form them into a State league and arrange for a demonstration in the shape of a convention of the State organization to be held in the latter part of this month or the first of the next, held a meeting last Friday in the Astor House, New York. After consulting with some of the State leaders, Mr. Gourley concluded that a small committee could do better and more efficient work, as it would be easier to get them together; so a committee of five was named, which included Johnston Cornish, of Washington, who was unable to serve. The others are Peter Engenolf, of Elizabeth; Willard W. Cutler, of Morristown; Eckard P. Budd, of Burlington, and Samuel Iredel, of Cumberland. All of them are members of the State committee.

It is being whispered about that the real significance of the recent pronunciamento of Colonel E. L. Price and his nineteen secretaries is that they are preparing to lead the late lamented Hearst into the camp of populism.

It is said that a convention of the People's party will meet in Atlantic City September 7. The movement is being earnestly supported by the Republican leaders. The Republican organs have been assisting the movement by trying to persuade their readers that there are more dissatisfied Democrats in the State than Colonel Price and his "nineteen." The fact is that there is so much real trouble in the G. O. P. camp that the leaders are alarmed and are doing all they can to throw a wet blanket on the enthusiasm and harmony so manifest in the Democratic ranks.

State Committeeman John A. Smith, of Camden, who was one of the leaders in the Hearst movement and one of the signers of the recent address, when seen at his home in Camden, said:

"I know of no such movement as the formation of a People's Democratic party or of a convention to be held in Atlantic City. I would not be identified with such an organization, and you can say for me that I am enthusiastically for Parker and Davis, the regular Democratic nominees."

Charles Napoleon Fowler has snubbed Hamilton Kean, brother of United States Senator John Kean, and chairman of the Union County Republican committee. He has also snubbed John Kean, the Senator himself. Kean's friends think Fowler very discourteous. He will not answer the letters that Senator Kean and brother Ham have written him.

Fowler's friends think the Keans are insulting. First, Ham Kean wrote to Fowler to ask him if he would be a candidate for Congress this fall. That was the insult. The Keans know Fowler and they know he will be a candidate for Congress as long as he's able. Why should Ham Kean do it? Then brother John, the Senator, wrote. Of course, Fowler would recognize the importance of the senior Senator of New Jersey, and cousin of the president of the United States. But Fowler scorned to reply.

The two factions of the Union County Republican party are anxious. They remember that last year Union sent three Democrats to the Legislature with the aid of Fowler Republicans in Plainfield. The Kean people didn't have a chance to cut any Fowler people—there were none on the ticket. This year it's different. Fowler will be on the ticket himself. The Kean men declare Fowler cannot carry the district without Union. He only had 1,149 plurality two years ago and the average Democratic pluralities last year were over 700. If the Kean people get a chance at Fowler this fall they declare he will be cut a great deal worse than Kean's Assembly ticket was last fall.

There is a hint that Fowler is willing to take chances, and, live or die, send a Democratic delegation from Union to vote against Kean's return to the United States Senate.—Trenton True American.

NO MONEY FOR COLORED JURY

UNIQUE TRIAL DOES NOT COME TO PASS, PARTIES SETTLING MATTERS.

Failure on the part of the principals to provide the necessary fees, caused the abandonment of plans to have a colored jury hear the case brought by Mrs. Agnes Holmes against Mrs. Perry Jenkins for non-payment of rent. Trial was set down for today in Justice Hand's court and the papers were in Constable Weaver's hands to serve but as Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Jenkins were averse to piling up the expense account they cut the Gordian knot by settling the matter between themselves without the aid of judge, jury or lawyers.

This abrupt ending of the much-talked of case caused no little disappointment to hundreds of colored people who hovered about Justice Hand's courtroom all morning. The constables could have secured three times the number of jurymen needed had they wanted and the majority would have served without pay. Included in the delegations that were early on the scene were residents of Elizabeth, Somerville, Newark and Westfield. Clergymen were numerous and one of the most conspicuous was Rev. R. T. Taylor, of Newark, who has charge of the Park Ridge and Paramis churches of Bergen county.

New Market's New Pastor.

Rev. H. N. Jordan, who has accepted the call to become the pastor of the New Market Seventh-Day Baptist church, is now in the theological seminary at Alfred University. He will enter upon his new duties Oct. 1, and will conclude his studies at Union Theological Seminary in New York. Mr. Jordan is married, his wife being a sister of Mrs. Wm. H. Rogers, of Central avenue. He is considered a most promising divine and a bright future is predicted for him.

Netherwood Home to Close.

The executive committee of the Mary Morgan Fresh Air Home, of Netherwood, met last evening at the home of David Hand. It was decided to close the home for the season next Monday, and the closing service and exercises will be held Sunday afternoon. Nothing else but routine business was transacted. Financial reports from the treasurer showed a slight margin.

Y. M. C. A. Orchestra.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra, which will again be under the leadership of Martin A. Korff this year, held the first practise of the season in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening. Sixteen members turned out and the time was spent in rehearsing pieces for the concert to be given in a few weeks' time. Another rehearsal will be held a week from Thursday.

—Charles B. Clifton, of West Seventh street, is in Delaware learning the condition of the peach crop in that section in order to make purchases.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Grace M. E. Epworth League will be held on Friday evening.

The Women's Guild, of St. Stephen's church, will hold its organization meeting of the season in the parish house, on September 7.

The Epworth League, of Grace M. E. church, in conjunction with St. Paul's M. E., of Cranford, will have charge of the evening service at the Netherwood Home this evening. Leaguers will leave the trolley station at North avenue on the 7:30 car.

St. Anne's Class, of St. Stephen's Sunday-school, won the banner offered for best attendance and offerings during the month of August. The banner was presented at the session of the Sunday-school on Sunday. Miss Laura Christiansen is the teacher.

The First Presbyterian church has been closed for two weeks to permit a general cleaning and repair of the organ. The instrument has served the church well for a long time without needing any special attention, but it is now thought best to put it in first-class condition. The edifice will be reopened on Sunday, September 11.

Promised to Behave Himself.

Charged by Chief Kiely with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, Arthur Upson, of East Fifth street, was arraigned before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning. He acknowledged his guilt but on promising to behave himself in the future sentence was suspended. Upson was arrested by the chief after he had been summoned to the former's house by neighbors.

Funeral of George Scott.

Funeral services over the remains of George Scott, who died yesterday morning at the home of his father on Plainfield avenue, will be held from the Mount Olive Baptist church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Interment will be at Hillside.

A Chimney Fire.

The borough fire department was called out on a still alarm last evening for a chimney fire at 84 Jackson avenue. It was put out with one extinguisher and the damage was trifling.

—The happy smoker—the man with a Telonette little cigar "in his face." J. Philip Kirch, the North avenue cigar dealer, has a special sale of them this week. Cigars, cigarettes, and pipes—a full line, at special prices.

—Gifford Mayer, of Park avenue, has secured a permit for the erection of an automobile house in the rear of his home. The building will measure 14x20 feet, and will be one story in height. George Studer will do the carpenter work.

Notice to Boards of Registry and Election.

In accordance with the provision of section 11 of "A Further Supplement to an Act, entitled 'An Act to Regulate Elections' (Revision of 1898), approved April fourth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight." Approved April 14, 1903: Notice is hereby given to the Boards of Registry and Election in and for the city of Plainfield, that the following places have been selected for the purpose of registry and election:

FIRST WARD.
1st District—At No. 123 North avenue.
2nd District—At No. 521 East Second street.

SECOND WARD.
1st District—At No. 319 Watchung avenue.
2nd District—At No. 609 South avenue.

THIRD WARD.
1st District—At the Casino.
2nd District—At Clifton's barn, corner Spooner avenue and West Seventh street.

FOURTH WARD.
1st District—At No. 204 West Second street.
2nd District—At corner Spooner avenue and South Second street.
3rd District—At No. 636 South Second street.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk.
Dated, Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 24, 1904. 8 26 2s

Marchant's Famous Buttermilk

Everyone who drinks our Buttermilk is delighted with its splendid flavor and purity. It not only quenches thirst—it accomplishes ever so much more—it is refreshing, satisfying and nutritious.

Physicians recommend it to their patients, because it is so easily digested and has such recuperative properties.

Try it.

Price 5c a quart.

MARCHANT BROTHERS,
Plainfield Milk and Cream Company,
191 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE USE OF
REYNOLD'S PETROLEUM HAIR TONIC
Means Healthy Scalp, Natural Growth of Hair (no falling out). No Dandruff. 50 cents bottle. Prepared only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG
Corner North and Park Aves. THE APOTHECARY. Plainfield, N. J.

Whether you need clothing or not buy it now and profit by these

AUGUST SACRIFICE PRICES.

You never saw better bargains than we are offering in our Great August Sales. If you value economy you can't afford to miss this event.

$15.00 Suits reduced to..$7.95
$12.00 Suits reduced to..$6.50
$10.00 Suits reduced to..$5.95
$8 & $9 Suits reduced to..$4.75

$3.50 & $4 Trousers reduced to.....$2.00
$3.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.69
$2.50 Trousers reduced to..$1.45
$2.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.25
$1.50 Trousers reduced to..85c

The Princely Shirt, regular 75c values, special at.....45c

Regular 50c Balbriggan Underwear reduced to.....25c

Special 20th Century Collars, all styles and all sizes, regular 15c collars, special at.....7c

Boys' Wash Suits in all the latest styles, regular 75c kind, special at.....39c

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
202-204 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

SPECIAL PRICE IN FISH
at
ROTH & Co.'s
Wednesday, August 31.
Weakfish -
Porgies - -
Cod - -
Flounders -
7c Per lb

ROTH & CO.,
132 East Front Street. Telephone 208

Campaign Pocket Knives

Like the Candidates,
First-class,
Fully Guaranteed
and all right on the Tariff.

GAYLE HARDWARE CO.,
Front St. and Park Ave.

BUTTERMILK
WHY YES
we make it fresh every day, and Potcheese, too. Try some.
LINDSAY DAIRY,
Tel. 451 J. FARM MOUNTAIN AVENUE.

R. W. Barnes
Telephone 344-L 217 Park Avenue
FINEST FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND GROCERIES
SUMMER SAUSAGE, BOILED PORK TENDERLOIN, HAM, CORNED BEEF, PICKLES, FANCY CHEESES, PLAIN AND PHOSPHATE SYRUPS, ETC.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW

Royal Tooth Powder, can	10c
Royal Talcum Powder, can	10c
Mennen's Talcum Powder, can	18c
Witch Hazel, bottle	10c
Violet Toilet Water, bottle	25c
Lyons' Tooth Powder, can	19c

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 5:26 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:35 p. m.
Lanterns must be lighted at 7:35 p.m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; probably showers Thursday. Ther. 80.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887 — PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1904. — TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

A PROCTOR THEATRE HERE?

Plainfield Likely to be Added to Circuit of Famous Vaudeville Proprietor's Attractions.

TO BUILD A HOUSE

Representatives of Mr. Proctor Have Been Spending Several Weeks Here Looking for a Desirable Site—Suggested Locations.

The fact that Plainfield is without a first-class amusement place of any kind, has been brought to the attention of F. F. Proctor, the owner of many theatres throughout the country, and for several weeks his representatives been here looking for a suitable site or place to open one of his popular amusement houses. Mr. Proctor has become convinced that such an institution would be a paying investment here and if it is possible to secure a desirable place he will give Plainfielders an amusement house equal to the best.

Mr. Proctor is impressed with the convenience of the town to Newark, New York and Philadelphia, realizing that it would be an excellent place for his stock companies to stop off on their way back and forth between the larger cities and it would also furnish a good place to start new plays before giving them in his other theatres.

One of the sites considered for the theatre is the Hotel Rosell, the location being thought an ideal one, owing to its nearness to the railroad station and its convenience to trolley cars and all sections of the city. In negotiating for this site, the owners, it is said, jumped the price so high that Mr. Proctor's representatives would not consider it at the figures named. Other sites are now being investigated on East and West Front street with the hope of securing something that will answer the purpose. Another location looked upon with favor is at the corner of Front and Somerset streets, where Chris. Gloeckner conducts a saloon. Several attempts have been made to purchase this property, but in each instance the price has been too high for the intended purchaser.

It is said that Mr. Proctor's representatives have looked over Stillman Music Hall, but that there are some things about this building that does not impress them favorably, one being that it would cost a considerable sum to arrange it according to Mr. Proctor's ideas. It is thought that if such a large sum has to be expended in alterations, it would be better to build an entirely new place according to the Proctor style of architecture.

While the enterprise is entirely backed by outside people, several local men are interesting themselves in the matter in the hope of securing for the town an attractive amusement place. It is argued that if such towns as Elizabeth and New Brunswick can support theatres there is no reason why Plainfield cannot, providing such a place is of the right sort and is properly managed. The Proctor enterprises have a well established reputation, only first-class shows being given, and Plainfielders are assured that if an amusement place is opened here the same standard of excellence maintained in other cities by Proctor will be found here.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New York, Aug. 31—A representative of Mr. Proctor said to a reporter today that he knew nothing about the story of a vaudeville house for Plainfield and did not think that Mr. Proctor would go into a city the size of Plainfield.

MICHAEL J. M'CARTHY DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday After Long Illness With Lingering Complaint.

Michael J. McCarthy, for many years employed as a compositor on local papers, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Robert Skinner, of West Fourth street. He had been ill for a long time with a lingering complaint. McCarthy was thirty-eight years old and had resided in Plainfield practically all his life. He was volunteer fireman and a member of old Gazelle Engine Co. He is survived by his mother, two sisters and two brothers, residents of this city, a widow and daughter.

Funeral services over the remains will be held from St. Mary's church Friday morning and interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

A PARKER AND DAVIS CLUB

FIRST ONE IN SOMERSET COUNTY FORMED AT BERNARDSVILLE.

An enthusiastic ratification meeting took place last night in the interest of Parker and Davis at Bernardsville. The gathering was the largest ever held in the county outside of Somerville. Senator S. S. Childs was chairman of the meeting.

Assemblyman Hammil, of Hudson County, the leader of the minority in the last Legislature, made a telling speech in favor of equal taxation, followed by Assemblyamn Swackhamer. There was a large outdoor meeting on account of the hall not being large enough to accommodate the assemblage. In the indoor meeting, W. H. Page, Jr., gave a stirring argument in behalf of the Democratic candidates. Telegrams were forwarded to both Parker and Davis, informing them of the organization of the first Parker and Davis Club in Somerset County.

Among those present, occupying seats on the stage were R. V. Lindabury, William Bromfield, Sheriff McMurtry, N. Y. Dungan, D. J. Carney.

Former Prosecutor N. Y. Dungan, of Somerset, addressed the outdoor meeting.

MARA DIDN'T INTERFERE

WITNESSES SAY HE ONLY MEANT TO HELP THE OFFICER.

Willingness on the part of witnesses to tell "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth," made it easy for Judge Runyon to dispose of the charges against John Mara and James Brown, in the city court this morning.

The former was accused of interferring with Patrolman McKeon in the discharge of his duty, but Mara and three bystanders, Thomas Sheridan, Patrick Breen and Leonard Bunn, told the court he went to help the officer, the witnesses ending up with "Honest Judge, he only laid his hand on McKeon's arm." The entire testimony seemed to bear them out and the complaint against Mara was dismissed.

Brown pleaded non vult for seisting arrest, explaining to the court that he was too drunk to know just what he had done. He was fined $10 with an alternative of twenty days.

Temperance Advocate.

The Plainfield Press editor objects to this newspaper's expression of fear that the Elizabeth sports go to Plainfield for their drinks. "Liquor laws are rigidly enforced here," he says, "but as for Elizabeth, you can get all you want there, Sundays included." The Plainfield editor is a great friend to the temperance cause. Commenting upon the reported "temporary aberration of the mind" that led a Pluckemin man to steal a Peapack man's horse at Somerville, he says: "The place to get that sort of an 'aberration, is in a Somerville saloon."—Newark Evening News.

Improving a Busy Mart.

In order to provide more floor space, Neuman Brothers have commenced quite extensive alterations to the interior of their store. A large order desk in the center has been removed and the present large wooden columns are to be replaced by small iron ones and fewer in number. Display tables near the Watchung avenue entrance are to be either removed entirely or rearranged. The shelving and fixtures are also to be altered. When completed the improvements will add greatly to the comfort and convenience of the firm's patrons.

Insurance Men's Outing.

Superintendent C. E. Ball, of the Prudential Insurance Company, will give his staff a day's outing on Labor Day, the objective point being Mauch Chunk. Through the courtesy of C. M. Burt, general passenger agent of the New Jersey Central, a special car will be attached to the regular excursion train that day. There are thirty-five men on Mr. Ball's staff and they will be accompanied by their wives. This is an annual event given by Mr. Ball.

Broke a Blood Vessel.

While at work as mason on a new house, Saturday, John Britton, of Orange place, in some way slipped and fell down a flight of stone steps, breaking a blood vessel. Dr. Albert Pittis was summoned and the injured man removed to his home, where he is still confined. Britton is in the employ of Titus H. Laury, the mason.

—Careful parents and housekeepers should note change of the only agency for the Willswood Farm's milk and cream to F. W. Dunn's. Route delivery by C. L. Jeter. 8 31 10

EXTENSION OF RURAL FREE DELIVERY SYSTEM

Postmaster Bird Believes That Petition of Mt. Bethel and Vicinity Will be Granted.

TO COVER 22 MILES

ROUTES COVERING 44 MILES SERVED FROM LOCAL OFFICE.

Plan is to Include Whole of North Plainfield Township — Petition Now in Washington.

While there is every reason to believe that sooner or later another rural free delivery route will be established between this city and Warrenville, Mt. Bethel, Smalleytown and other nearby places, in compliance with the petition, the people living in that part of Somerset county are becoming anxious. Some time ago they prepared and signed a petition to have the service extended to their section of the county and it was forwarded to Washington. Since then nothing has been heard from it. Postmaster E. H. Bird, who is interested in the adoption of another route to cover the territory mentioned, believes that the petition will receive official sanction in the near future.

The route proposed in this district will cover about twenty-two miles. For years the people have not been able to have a satisfactory mail service under existing conditions, but with the extension of the rural free service, it is believed they will be able to get their mail regularly. For several years there has been a post-office at Washingtonville, now known as Watchung, and this has served as a distributing point for a few miles in this vicinity, but persons living further up on the mountains have not been taken care of as well. It was this that brought about the desire for the rural free delivery and subsequently the petition for it.

During the past year the growth of this service in this part of the State has been gratifying. There are two routes operating from the Plainfield office, each covering about twenty-two miles. One route covers the territory in the direction of Dog Corner and Alton and the other is in the direction of South Plainfield. A third route has just been established which operates from the Bound Brook post-office and takes in a portion of North Plainfield township. William Polhemus, of Lincoln, has received the appointment of carrier, and he will commence his duties within a few days.

With the establishment of the fourth route petitioned for, North Plainfield township will be thoroughly covered and a majority of the inhabitants will have an up-to-date mail service, equal almost to that of persons living in larger towns and cities.

Since the adoption of two routes in this district, Postmaster Bird has become an enthusiastic advocate of this part of the mail service and it is a source of gratification to him that he has been instrumental in improving the service since entering upon the duties of his office.

DIED AT FOUR SCORE YEARS

MRS. BARBARA LEESON'S FUNERAL TO TAKE PLACE TOMORROW.

Mrs. Barbara Leeson, whose death occurred Monday night at the home of her daughters, Mrs. Irene Irving and Mrs. Melissa Cook, at 507 Watchung avenue, in the eightieth year of her age, was born in Scotland. She came to this country at the age of sixteen years and the remainder of her life she spent at Millington, with the exception of the past four years during which time she lived with her daughters.

Mrs. Leeson's husband, William Leeson, died at Millington thirteen years ago. She was a sister-in-law of the late Ayers Leeson, who was an undertaker here many years ago. Besides the two daughters, Mrs. Leeson leaves a son, Ayers Leeson, of Santa Fe, N. M. The funeral services will be held from the home of the daughters tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, and the interment will be at Millington.

Got Off With Reprimand.

Louis Bimble, of Prideville, was arrested in the borough by Chief Weiss, yesterday, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Recorder Dond let him got with a reprimand last night.

LIKELY CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

William R. Wilson, of Elizabeth, is Said to be the Choice of Minority Party.

FORMER PROSECUTOR

SKETCH OF CAREER OF MAN WHO IS SAID TO BE SLATED.

Flanagan and Martine Decline to Enter the Lists—No Others After the Nomination.

There doesn't appear to be much doubt in some Democratic circles of Union County that the party's Congressional candidate in the Fifth district at the approaching election will be former Prosecutor of the Pleas William R. Wilson, of Elizabeth. It became known yesterday that one of the county leaders of that party had called on Mr. Wilson and made it plain to him that it was up to him to stand for the nomination. It isn't known exactly what the lawyer's reply was, but when a reporter asked about it Mr. Wilson said he "might see it that way when he had had some time to do a little more thinking."

As a Democratic leader put it, there isn't any opposition in Union to Mr. Wilson's becoming the candidate and so far as has been indicated, Morris will indorse the election if Irving E. Salmon withdraws from the race. At the recent Union Democrats' outing, there were three Congressional possibilities talked of and Mr. Wilson was one of them. The others were former Representative DeWitt C. Flanagan, of Morristown, and James E. Martine, of Plainfield.

It has since developed that the Morris millionaire doesn't care for the nomination, at least, so intimate friends declare, while Mr. Martine declines to accept the honor.

At all events, the friends of Mr. Wilson, and they are many, have started his boom with a vengence and they say that the only thing that will deter its sailing right through the convention to success would be Mr. Wilson's backing out. It is Union's turn to receive the nomination, and with no Morris aspirant as a factor, the Wilson boomers feel that the convention's choice is sure to be theirs.

BEATEN AND ROBBED BY THREE HIGHWAYMEN

James McCarthy, Formerly of This City, Waylaid at Fanwood Last Night.

VICTIM BADLY HURT

SUSPECTING HE WOULD BE ROBBED, HID HIS MONEY IN HIS SHOE.

James McCarthy, a Westfield hackman who formerly resided in this city, was held up by three men on Park avenue, Fanwood, last night, pulled from his wagon, robbed of all his small change and then left unconscious from a terrible beating which they gave him. He remained in the road nearly an hour afterward and then recovered sufficiently to get back in the vehicle and drive to his home. Arriving there he collapsed and is now confined to his bed in a serious condition. His body is a mass of bruises where he was struck repeatedly with a heavy stick and his face is hardly recognizable for deep cuts. McCarthy claims to know who his assailants were and the police of this city, Westfield, and Fanwood are looking for them.

McCarthy had been driving several people about the 'Plains and Fanwood during the afternoon and when he finished, stopped at a hotel in the former place. Several men were in the bar room at the time and he says they watched him as he was counting the money paid him by his fares. Just before he started out, three of the men went ahead of him and having a suspicion they might intend something wrong, placed $20 in his shoe.

As he was passing along Park avenue, opposite the "Homestead," three men supposed to be the same who had left the hotel, sprang from behind trees and caught his horse. The next moment he was jerked into the road and while two of the men beat him about the head, the other went through his pockets. When they could find no money beyond the small change they fell upon him until he lost consciousness.

TRUST CO.'S PLANS FOR ITS NEW BUILDING

Block It Has Purchased Includes 160 Feet on Park Ave. and 120 on Second St.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT

NEW STRUCTURE TO BE OF MARBLE AND GRANITE.

Home of Banking Concern to be Occupied by It Exclusively—Anxious to Begin Work.

In connection with the story regarding the purchase of the valuable property on Park avenue from Second street to the Boice estate by the Plainfield Trust Company, published yesterday, it should be stated that the purchase includes the Force property on West Second street. It was reported in various quarters last night that the land and buildings in the block were secured for a figure close to $50,000, and it is said that the Force property was purchased for $6,500.

According to proposed plans the trust company will have about 120 feet on West Second street and 160 feet on Park avenue. The building is to be one story and will be of marble and granite. The main entrance will be on Park avenue, but a novel arrangement is to be provided for the entrance on Second street. This will be intended for women and a driveway will be provided with a porte-cochere. The space to be provided in the rear and on the side will permit persons in carriages to drive in off the street while transacting business in the bank. One great advantage of this will be that women will not be obliged to mingle with the business men who usually engage the attention of bank officials more or less and keep them waiting.

The company will have large and improved vaults of the most approved pattern and every convenience will be provided for the quick dispatch of business. The idea in having the structure one story in height is that the company prefers to occupy it alone and they do not want other tenants in the building.

As stated yesterday it is quite likely that arrangement will be made to demolish the property at the corner of Park avenue and West Second street as soon as possible, for the directors of the Plainfield Trust Company are anxious to commence the work on the new structure. As for the other old buildings they will probably be allowed to stand for the present.

The realty deal, as told in The Daily Press, was the talk of the town yesterday, everyone expressing gratification over the proposed improvement. One prominent business man remarked last night that it is sure to enhance the value of adjacent properties and improve the general character of the neighborhood.

It is understood that the deals for the various properties were negotiated by John G. McLaughlin, of Somerset street, who is connected with the realty department of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York.

THE WHITE-BOWEN WEDDING

ARRANGEMENTS FOR NUPTIAL EVENT IN THE CRESCENT AVE. CHURCH.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Plummer Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliott Bowen, to Dr. Franklin Warren White, of Boston, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock, in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, the Rev. Louis Barton Crane, of Chicago, officiating.

Miss Marion Plummer Bowen will be maid-of-honor. The bridesmaids are Miss Helen Dunbar Talmadge, Miss Elsie Burke, Miss Marion A. Fuller and Miss Constance Holt. The best man is Dr. Robert H. Vose and the ushers are Dr. Frederic C. Colton, Louis K. Morse, Harrison C. Hall, Edward E. Blodgett, L. Maxwell Brigharm and Pierrepont B. Foster.

After the wedding ceremony a reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents to relatiets and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom.

A luncheon was given today at the home of Mrs. Henry P. Talmadge, of Belvidere avenue, in honor of Miss Bowen and the women of the bridal party. Tomorrow morning, Dr. White will entertain his best man and the ushers at a luncheon at the Hillside Golf Club.

BUILDING TRADES' OUTING

PLAINFIELD UNIONS SPENT EVENING AT RIVERSIDE PARK.

Under the auspices of the Plainfield Building Trades Council, a most successful outing was held at Riverside Park, last night. Members of the Council, together with their wives and friends, to the number of 125, made the trip from here by trolley, leaving the Watchung avenue stand at 7:30 o'clock. The car was attractively decorated with flags and bunting.

The party was a little late in arriving at the Park, but the management held the performance in the theatre until they got there. After enjoying a fine performance, the remaining part of the evening was devoted to dancing and at late hour the party returned home.

This committee was in charge of the outing: J. D. McAleer, E. V. Lorton, James Motley, Nimrod Horton, C. Sutton and P. Neylon. These are the officers of the Council: President, P. Neylon; vice president, James Motley; recording secretary, J. D. McAleer; treasurer, Nimrod Horton; sergeant-at-arms, A. L. Brown; trustees, Morgan Turton, E. V. Lorton and C. Sutton.

KEAN HASN'T ASKED FOWLER

U. S. SENATOR DENIES STORY THAT HE WROTE THE REPRESENTATIVE.

Senator John Kean was seen at Elizabeth yesterday by a reporter, who spoke to him about a story printed in a Trenton paper, which set forth that he had written to Congressman Fowler to know if he would be a candidate for re-election this fall.

"I never wrote a line on the subject to Representative Fowler," replied the Senator, "and know absolutely nothing about any such matter. The Union County executive committee may, however, have communicated with Mr. Fowler, in reference to the subject, as it is time to issue a call for the holding of the Congressional convention.

"I do not know whether my brother Hamilton, who is chairman of the committee, has had any communication with Mr. Fowler about it. He perhaps may have written to him in behalf of the county committee."

The reporter learned afterward from a member of the county committee that while it, as a body, did not communicate with Representative Fowler, still its chairman, Hamilton Fish Kean, had written a letter to the Congressman.

What its contents were this committeeman was unable to say. He did not think, however, under the circumstances, there was anything improper in writing to Representative Fowler to get his opinion as to when and where the convention should be held if he desired a renomination.

FIFTH DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The members of the Republican Congressional committee for the Fifth District, representing the counties of Morris, Union and Warren, met at Republican headquarters at Morristown on Monday and determined to call the convention for Tuesday, Sept. 27, at 12 o'clock noon, in Lyceum Hall, Morristown.

Petit Jurors Drawn.

Judge Schenck was present at the drawing of the petit jurors for the September term of the Somerset courts yesterday by Sheriff McMurtry. Those selected from North Plainfield are Edward Mooney, Albert Johnson, Charles Miles, Peter Bower, Jr., John A. Whitenack and Otto Ebel. Warren township will be represented by Edward C. Spencer and Anton Ammon.

Hurt Running for Train.

In running to catch a train at the North Avenue station, Sunday, Raymond Guinn, of Carlton avenue, fell against the Watchung avenue bridge. A bad gash was inflicted in his right leg from the knee down and he received severe bruises that have since kept him at home. It required nine stitches to close the gash. Dr. Wanzer Love was the physician called.

Greatest Excursion Yet.

If you have not yet planned for a place to spend Labor Day, arrange to go to Coney Island with the Plainfield Grocers' Association, and you will not regret it. The train will leave here at 7:45 in the morning and returning leave Coney Island at 8:40 at night. You will have no trouble in spending a pleasant day at this popular resort.

—A fine new lot of peaches, yellow and white fruit, suitable for table or canning, go on sale at Neuman Bros.' tomorrow. Special prices now.

TWO MEN ARE MISSING

Mysterious Disappearances Worry Relatives and Friends in This City.

UNEXPLAINABLE

Daniel Galbraith Missing for Several Days—William Benton Gone a Week—No Reasons Given in Either Case.

The local police were called upon today to begin search for an elderly Plainfielder who has disappeared mysteriously while relatives of another are preparing to send out a general alarm. The first named is Daniel Galbraith, of West Second street, who left his home early Monday morning to go to New York but who has not been seen since. The other man is William S. Benton, of Central avenue, bookkeeper for A. M. Griffen, who went away suddenly one week ago Tuesday and despite a diligent search on the part of relatives and friends not the slightest trace of him has been discovered. In the event of his not being found today the local and New York police are to be asked to join in the search.

Galbraith's disappearance was reported to the police by his son, Joseph Galbraith, who said that he started from the house Monday to visit a daughter, Mrs. Mercein, of 94 West One Hundred and Fourth street, New York. She was to have met him at the ferry but he did not arrive on the train indicated. The family has since been looking for him but without any success. Galbraith is described as being sixty-five years old, black hair, sandy beard and carried a cane. He wore a black cutaway coat, black trousers and a soft hat. The New York police have been looking for him since yesterday.

William Benton, the other man, whose whereabouts are unknown, went away quietly last week and it was supposed at the time he had decided to visit his daughter who is spending the summer in New York State. Word was sent to her but she replied that she had not seen him. Other relatives were informed only to get the same word back and his friends are now seriously alarmed. They refrained from asking police aid because of the anxiety it would cause his relatives, but it is possible a general alarm will be sent out today.

Mrs. Lynus Walpole, of Scotch Plains, came to the city this afternoon, and reported to the police that her husband had failed to return home last night from the Elizabeth Elks' excursion. Plainfielders who attended the affair, when questioned, said they had noticed him on the boat on the return trip, but they could not tell whether he had landed or not. Walpole has always been known as a man who carried a roll of money and wore valuable diamonds and his wife fears he has met with foul play. She stated that he had never been away from home over night without telegraphing her.

Fighting Brother-in-Laws Fined.

Frank Conger and William Polen, the brothers-in-law who fought each other until all Cottage place was aroused, were fined $8 and $5 in the city court this morning. Their counsel, William G. DeMeza, made a strong plea for dismissal but Judge Runyon failed to see any mitigating circumstances.

Their Wedding Date Set.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Frederickson, of 871 Leland avenue, announce the date for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Christina Fredricka Frederickson, to Walter Spering Asbenfelter. The event will be celebrated at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday night, September 14, at 8:30.

Surprised Miss Werring.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered to Miss Emma Werring, of Watchung, at her home last evening. About a dozen of her friends dropped in unexpectedly to spend the evening and the time was passed with music, games and phonograph selections.

Delegates to Convention.

John H. Coss, William T. Newman and William Addis have been elected local delegates to the State Firemen's Association convention at Atlantic City, September 14. Chief Doane will also be in attendance.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

There is no denying the fact that shoppers find great bargains at Hill & Shupp's store on West Front street. Not only occasionally, but every day big values are offered. The dry goods department as well as every other one in the store is just filled with seasonable goods and now is the time to take advantage of the low prices for such excellent quality. The housefurnishing department is the place to secure useful articles very cheap.

There are many grades of coal, but Boice, Runyon & Co., of Park avenue, handle but one, and that is the best. Better let the firm fill your bins now at the present low price.

When you purchase milk, cream, butter and eggs from Marchant Bros., of North aevnue, you have nothing to fear. The purity is absolutely guaranteed and the prices are right.

Before you get ready to start your furnaces it is wise to have them overhauled and there is no better person to do this than A. H. Enander, of Park avenue. He is an expert at this work and guarantees satisfaction.

A big consignment of fall styles in hats and bonnets is now on sale at Bonn's West Front street millinery parlors. The display includes all the latest styles in shapes and trimmings. You would do well to look over the stock before making your fall purchases from any milliner.

James G. Hansen, the East Front street painter, always gives good satisfaction. Many buildings in this city have been treated to a fresh outer covering by his paints. The paints wear and are well put on.

Carefully compounded by expert pharmacists, many prescriptions are daily sent out from Armstrong's Park avenue pharmacy. Complete line of toilet articles always at the store.

Fresh fruits and nuts at Lusardi's stand on West Front street. Oranges, bananas, plums and pears; all sorts of nuts.

AMUSEMENTS.

The New York season is opening this year as suddenly as a Jack Pot seems to open from the view-point of the man who has waited long for the requisite cards. Last week five Broadway theatres began business, among them one of the only two houses managed by Sam S. Shubert that closed for the summer. This house was the Princess, in which on Thursday evening James K. Hackett produced a farce, entitled "Jack's Little Surprise," with a cast including Arthur Byron. The Lyric enters the field and its second season next Thursday with a musical comedy, yclept "The Royal Chef." The Casino, the place of amusement referred to as having been open through the hot weather, continues with "Piff, Paff, Pouf." It is a notable fact, by the way, that the Casino has not been "dark" one night, except Sundays, in seven years. The wide-spread reputation of the theatre makes it an object of curiosity to visitors from out-of-town, and of these alone there are a sufficient number to tide the management over the dog days.

Criterion Theatre—"The Dictator," a farce in three acts, by Richard Harding Davis. Brooke Travers, William Collier; Simpson, his valet, Charles Jackson; Charley Hyne, John Barrymore; Col. John T. Bowie, George Nash; Duffy, Thomas Mc Grath; Rev. Arthur Bostick, Henry J. West; Lieutenant Perry, Howard Estabrook; Samuel Codman, Emmet Whitney; General Santos Campos, Brigham Royce; Dr. Wasques, Francis Sedgwick; Senor Jose Bravo, Louis Egan; Corporal Manuel, Wallace Mc Cutcheon; Col. Garcia, Harry Senton; Smoking Room Steward, Augustus Goodson; Lucy Sheridan, Rosa Flynn; Mrs. John T. Bowie, Lida Hall; Senora Juanita Arguilla, Louise Allen. "The Dictator," which successfully brought last season to a close at the Criterion Theatre, reopened that playhouse Monday night. William Collier was again the star in Richard Harding Davis' merry farce, and in the role of Brooke Travers he was warmly welcomed back to the Criterion stage. John Barrymore resumed his old part of the overworked telegraph operator for the Red C line, and repeated his success in the part. Miss Louise Allen once more played the part of the jealous senora, and many others of the original company were welcomed back. Newcomers in the cast were Charles Jackson, who succeeded Edward Abeles as the valet of Brooke Travers, and Miss Lida Hall was seen in the part originally played by Miss Nanette Comstock. The popular play, well staged and acted, auspiciously opened the season at the Criterion, which had been made bright and fresh within by painter and decorator for the opening of another theatrical year.

J. P. Hall, of East Front street, has returned from a week's stay at Asbury Park.

Pants Clearance.

Positively the best values ever offered in Men's and Boys' Pants will be found here during this Clearance Sale. Our usually low prices have been still further reduced, and the result is a genuine surprise to every purchaser.

Men's and Boys' strong working Pants, reduced to..... 75c

Strictly all wool Pants, that will stand washing well, reduced to..... 1.90

Fine fancy worsted Pants, regularly sold for 3.50, reduced to..... 2.50

Finest all wool worsted Pants, equal to any custom made, never sold less than 6.00 reduced to. 4.00

Our reductions in Suits still continue. Same applies to Furnishings, Hats and Shoes.

The Surprise Store

324 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

REMEMBER THE NUMBER.

Continued Special Prices on Summer Goods.

Window Screens—The adjustable pattern—hardwood—
18 inches high, 17c each — 24 inches high, 22c each
28 inches high, 26c each — 30 inches high, 27c each

Screen Doors—98c—Hardwood, fancy spindles, hardware, complete..... 98c

Ten per cent Reductions on all Oil Stoves, Ovens, Refrigerators, Ice Chest, Water Coolers, Hammocks.

Ice Cream Freezers—
Alaska—3 quart size,....1.78 — 4-quart size,.....2.19
White Mountain—3-qt...1.98 — 4-quart size.....2.42

"THE NEWEST THING OUT"

Combination Rod and Reel

See it in our show window.

A. M. Griffen, 119-123 E. Front St.

WE GIVE BLUE EXCHANGE STAMPS THE VERY BEST

I. H. BOEHM

109-111-113 West Front Street.
126 Park Avenue.

AUGUST SALE.

We are offering Special Bargains in all Departments, but lack of newspaper space permits the mentioning of only a few of the many good values we are offering.

7c yd—500 yds of new Dress Ginghams, extra quality and all new patterns, val. 9c and 10c yd.
8c yd—1,000 yds of extra heavy Outing Flannel, all new Fall patterns and good colors, val. 11c yd.
10c yd—500 yds Mercerized Voiles, in pink, old rose and light green, reg. price 25c yd.
12½c yd—Special lot of new White Goods, extra fine quality and very desirable patterns, value 15c and 18c yd.
59c yd—10-4 white and gray Blankets, extra heavy quality, reg. value 75c pair.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

49c—Men's Madras Shirts, all new goods and nice patterns, reg. price 75c and 1.00 each.
49c—Men's sateen working Shirts, in black and white stripes and plain black, value 69c.
49c—Men's black and white Cheviot working Shirts, reinforced back and front, val. 63c ea.
95c—Men's Madras Shirts, extra fine quality Madras and extra well made, reg. sold for 1.25 ea.
25c—Men's working Shirts. We are selling an extra good working Shirt for 25c, in black and white stripes, made of good quality Cheviot, value 39c.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

We are showing our new Fall lines of Ready-to-Wear Felts. We have only the newest and most up-to-date styles, in all colors and prices.
Our assortment of Millinery is the largest and prices the lowest in the city.
We are showing all that is new and up-to-date in Breasts, Pompons, Shapes, etc.

HATS PURCHASED HERE TRIMMED FREE.

Trouser Sale.

Timely Summer Needfuls at Slaughter Prices.

2,000 Pairs on Sale.

Prices cut in two—½ off.
Style and Price alike, will tempt you to purchase.

WERNER'S Clothing House....

206 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

THE BALANCE OF THE $19,000 SALE

Must Be Sold This Week. Cost Is Not Considered.

Don't miss this great opportunity, buy your goods now while the prices are in reach of everyone. No matter what your circumstances may be, you can't afford to miss this sale.

Our 20.00 and 15.00 Ladies' Tailor-made Suits reduced to..... 5.98

Our fine line of Jackets and Skirts must be sold and will be sold at 25c on the dollar.

In order to prove our statement we refer you to the thousands of buyers who have attended this sale.

Boston Cloak and Fur Store

245 West Front Street, Plainfield. Opp. Postoffice

ICE CREAM

Wholesale and Retail.

I have vacated my store on Park avenue and am still making PURE ICE CREAM AT 32 BANK PLACE.

All orders by 'phone (No. 470y) or mail will receive prompt attention.

LAKE HOUSE NOW OPEN. JOHN H. TIER.

WARD & COMPANY,

Manufacturers' Agents,
104 McWhorter St., Newark, N. J.
N. J. Representatives for the following:

For a

SUMMER BEVERAGE

there is nothing like

TEA-ETTE

The Tea Free from the Poisonous Tannin.

BOSTON BROWN FLAKES, The only Perfect Breakfast Food.
MALT CREAMLET COCOA, The only Digestible Cocoa and Chocolate.
LYTHIA POLARIS WATER, The King of Table Waters.
MONOGRAM SPICES, Strictly Pure. And Other Specialties.

Send for our weekly Price list, as we are constantly receiving large quantities of all kinds of groceries, some of which may interest you.

WARD & COMPANY,

104 McWhorter St., Newark, N. J.

8 29 eod tf

THE PLEASURE

of a smoke depends on the quality of the Cigar! Spend the lazy hours of your vacation in smoking

OUR CIGARS,

and you'll find you've got your money's worth every time. Our Cigars are good and the price is low. Sold singly or by the box.

KIRBY'S

106 Park Avenue, Plainfield.

FINEST FRESH FISH.

You are assured of getting the finest Fresh Fish procurable when you order of Ivamy—we guarantee the quality.
Come to us for the best selection of Bluefish, Mackerel, Weakfish, Porgies, Soft Shell Crabs, and in fact every good Fish in season. Prices reasonable.

Special Cash Sale Saturday.

FRED. IVAMY.
Successor to Rogers & Co.,
232 West Second St.
Telephone 140.

Butter, Milk, Poultry and Eggs

direct from the best Jersey farms.

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK.

Eggs 26c dozen.

Every Egg guaranteed strictly fresh. Also Delicatessen goods delivered.

H. H. Smith,

228 Park Avenue, Opp. North.

Advertised Mail Matter

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 29, 1904.
R. H. BIRD, P. M.

Brooks, Mr William	Jones, Miss Henrietta 2
Burnett, Mrs Clarence	Jannan, Mr. Alonzo
Bonnett, Mr Wm P	Hapyter, Miss Sofia
Boucher, Mr T J	Leutenbach, Mr Howard
Campbell, Miss Jennie	Michols, Miss Ray
Corinio, Mr Scarano	Pakaed, Miss Sara DeV
Dowell, Miss Florence	Roy, Miss Helen
Edmon, J H 2	Sen, Miss Ida
Galbraith, Mr Peter C	Sagershand, Mrs Mary
Henderson, Mrs Jean	Schurs and Son
Hoogland, Rev Warren	Scutter, Mr G W
Holomes, Mr Biaggio	Shlank, Miss Cora
Higgins, Mrs John	Sloth, Miss Nora
Hetrick, Mr Geo W	Pettridge, Mr Samuel
Jansen, Mr I.	Terry, Mrs M L
Jennings, Miss J	Ribboa Co, The United

Please say "Advertised."

FLORISTS.

PHONE 398 L.

CHARLES L. STANLEY,

144 NORTH AVENUE.

A large stock of all seasonable Flowers always on hand. Flowering Plants, Palms and Ferns in large assortment. Floral Designs, Baskets and Centre Pieces artistically made up at short notice. Lowest prices. Greenhouses, South Ave., Nethers od. Phone 407 L.

The Fair

130 West Front Street, Plainfield

Last Day Of The CLEARANCE SALE

Grasp the importance of this event. The last day of the Great Clearance Sale. Then come to The Fair tomorrow prepared to find the greatest money-saving opportunities ever presented. Tremendous Price Concessions, making the day memorable for its Unparalleled Savings.

Great Sale of Women's Garments.

	WERE	NOW
White Washable Shirt Waist Suits	4.00-5.98,	1.98 to 2.98
Fancy Washable Suits	3.90-7.50,	1.98 to 3.98
Washable Dress Skirts	75c-2.98,	43c to 1.69
Tailor-made Suits	10.00-25.00,	4.48 to 9.98
Tailor-made Skirts	2.48-10.00,	1.19 to 4.98
Silk Skirts	10.00-12.50,	4.98 to 6.98
Covert Coats	7.50-10.00,	3.48 to 5.98
Silk Coats	7.50-10.00,	3.98 to 5.98
Silk Waists	2.48-3.98,	1.39 to 1.98
Children's Silk Coats	5.00-10.00,	2.48 to 3.98

Women's Hosiery.
Cotton Stockings, fast black, seamless, double feet, heel and toe, value 15c, special at..... 10c

Women's Imported Cotton Stockings, Richelieu ribbed, Hermsdorf dye, also a lot of over lace Stockings in black. Not a pair worth less than 25c, at..... 19c

Women's Vests.
Regular 15c Cotton Ribbed Vests, low neck, no sleeves, neck and arms neatly finished, very elastic. They come in pink, blue, black and white; 15c Vests, at..... 10c

Women's 25c Vests or Pants, Vests are either straight or shaped, 29c values, at..... 19c

Sale of Corsets.
Summer weight Coutille, Batiste and Net, straight front, French shapes and girdles in pink, blue and white, 50c to 75c values, at... 48c-25c

Sale of Wrappers.
Women's Lawn Wrappers, light and dark figures and stripes, with fancy braid, embroidery and lace trimming. 1.00 and 1.25 values, special this sale at..... 75c

Infants' and Children's Wear.
Children's Body Skirts of Cambric, wide hem, 25c. Infants' long Slips, finished with ruffle..... 25c

Children's Suspender Dresses of Chambray, with white Lawn Waists, 89c values, at..... 59c

FALL HOUSECLEANING.

The return from the mountains or the shore is the signal for a renovation of the home.

In the general cleaning don't forget your

GAS BURNERS.

Do they need overhauling?

Their perfect condition insures perfect light.

Good burners mean small gas bills. We make all tip renewals free.

Best Welsbach Burners, complete, 60 cents to $1.10.

Mantles, 15 cents and upwards.

GAS DEPARTMENT.

PUBLIC SERVICE.

TELEPHONE 467 L.

Schreiner's PHARMACY

PARK AVE. AND SECOND ST.

RUBBER GLOVES—
Very goods to wear for housework, they keep the hands clean and prevent cracking of skin.

Ice Cream Soda and Confectionery.

Straw Hats, Negligé Shirts Fancy Socks

J. R. BLAIR

205 Park Avenue

Summer Underwear etc., etc.

SILK UNDERWEAR AT $2.00 PER SUIT

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

George Wilson, of West Sixth street, has returned from a week's vacation which he spent at Asbury Park.

The employes at The Standard Surgical Instrument Company's plant have resumed work again. The plant was closed yesterday as the engine was out of order. Several of the men worked all night to get the plant in running order.

Randolph Marsh, of Plainfield avenue, spent yesterday fishing at Scwaren.

Samuel Bowden, of The Manganese Steel Safe Company's plant, found a gold watch on West Front street last night. Later in the evening he saw Mrs. Hallard, of Clinton avenue, looking about the street for something, and after inquiring found that she had lost the timepiece.

George Craig, of the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, is spending a week's vacation with relatives at Stroudsburg, Pa.

George Nichols, of West Sixth street, has taken a position at The Plainfield Auto Garage.

REDUCED RATES TO BALTIMORE.

Via Pennsylvania Railroad, Account National Convention Fraternal Order of Eagles.

For the National Convention Fraternal Order of Eagles, at Baltimore, Md., September 12 to 17, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets to Baltimore, at greatly reduced rates, from all stations on its lines east of and including Pittsburg, Erie, and Buffalo.

The rate from Pittsburg will be $9, from Altoona $7.49, Erie $12, Williamsport, $9.33, Buffalo $11, Canandaigua $9.70, Elmira $8.50, New York $6.30, Newark, N. J., $6.10, Reading $5.15, Wilkesbarre $7.05, Dover, Del., $3.90, with corresponding reductions from all other points.

Tickets will be sold on September 11 and 12, good for return passage leaving Baltimore until September 19, inclusive. On payment of $1 to joint agent at Baltimore an extension of return limit to September 25 will be obtained.

Tickets via Philadelphia permit stop-over within limit, if deposited with the ticket agent at Broad Street Station.

For the accommodation of those desiring to visit Washington during this meeting, excursion tickets from Baltimore to Washington will be sold September 15 and 16, good returning within two days, including date of sale, at rate of $1.60.

What Did the Wogglebug Say?

Who is the Wogglebug? The Wogglebug is IT, with a big I and a big T. He is also T. E., which, being translated into United States, means Thoroughly Educated. He has all the learning of the ages packed away in the smallest noddle you ever saw. He looks like his pictures—just as wise; and he gained his wisdom by living in a schoolhouse—crawled through the books and absorbed all they had in them. The Wogglebug comes from Oz—a mysterious land beyond the planets. He is to visit the United States. He is accompanied by several companions. One is the Scarecrow, found in a field in the land of Oz. Though filled with life, he is stuffed with straw and has no brains. Another companion is the Tin Woodman, made of things from a tinsmith's shop. He has no heart. Then there is Jack Pumpkinhead, made by a boy named Tip. He was made to scare a witch. The witch sprinkled the powder of life on him and made him walk and talk. Tip stole the powder of life, sprinkled it on a Sawhorse, and the Sawhorse cantered away with Jack on his back. Then all of the Onites came across the Gump. The Gump is two high-backed sofas lashed together with a stuffed deer's head and palm leaf fans for wings. The Gump is the vehicle on which the Wogglebug, the Scarecrow, the Tin Woodman, Jack Pumpkinhead and the Sawhorse have come to the United States. The visitors from Oz will go to all parts of the United States and see all there is to be seen. The Wogglebug, wisest of insects, is the guide of the party, and the questions that puzzle the visitors he is always prepared to answer. All the doings of the visitors will be chronicled in The Sunday North American. The Wogglebug's answers are not told, but are left for the reader's ingenuity. Those who solve them will be entitled to $500 in cash each month. The North American of Sunday, September 4, will contain the first pictured story of the doings of the people from Oz.

$9.50 Toronto, Ont., and Return via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Tickets will be sold Sept. 2 and 3, good returning until Sept. 10, inclusive. Ask agents Lehigh Valley for further particulars. 8 29 5

Henry Pound, of East Second street, has returned from a cruising trip in New York State.

ATTACKS LIAOYANG.

General Kuropatkin Gives Battle With 180,000 Men.

HOLDS FATE OF RUSSIAN ARMS.

The Japanese Opened With a Rain of Shrapnel Which Swept the Entire Russian Front—Mukden Reports a Japanese Repulse.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Advices from Tokyo say that with 240,000 men Generals Kuroki, Oku and Nodzu are pressing their attack on Liaoyang, where General Kuropatkin is strongly fortified with an army of 180,000 men.

The battle that has developed and still continues is the greatest of the war, and upon its result practically depends the fate of the Russian arms.

At 5 o'clock in the morning the mikado's troops, moved by the knowledge that it was the anniversary of the mikado's birth, opened their assault with a rain of shrapnel which swept the entire Russian front. Under cover of the heaviest kind of cannonading, so fierce that the hills appeared ablaze and the individual detonations of the guns could not be distinguished, the infantry advanced.

In four hours they were close upon the Russian line. On the west it was reported that the Russian cavalry had checked the forward movement, but on the south, where the fighting was fiercest, they came into hand to hand conflict with the Russians, and bayonet charges resulted. The Russian losses have been heavy.

From an early hour the wounded have been pouring in a steady stream into the city.

It is estimated that more than half a million men are engaged in the battle.

A late dispatch from Liaoyang says that a Russian correspondent has supplied the following:

"The historical moment has arrived, and the battle of Liaoyang is in progress.

"It was not 6 o'clock in the morning when the first gun was fired, but soon afterward hundreds of cannon were thundering along our southern and eastern fronts.

"The center of our position is located near the famous tower of Liaoyang, about seven miles to the southeast. The fighting there is of the most desperate character.

"The hissing of the shells is distinctly audible, and from the city it is easy to see the shells bursting.

"Heavy guns were brought into action by both sides, and their dull roar was discernible above the sharper detonation of field and mountain guns.

"The Russians are using big ordnance, which is in position in the inner ring of the Liaoyang forts.

"The noisy Chinese population has suddenly become quiet. The main street of Liaoyang, always the scene of the busiest traffic and usually resounding with thousands of shrill voices from sunrise to sunset, is now as silent as if it were night.

"The inhabitants are watching the distant battle from the housetops and watch towers or are wandering gloomily in the streets.

"We are asking ourselves if the tide of battle is going to swamp the city will it be destroyed by the Japanese?"

A dispatch from Mukden says that in the stubbornly fought battle which has been in progress near Liaoyang all attempts of the Japanese to turn the Russian flank have been repulsed. It is said at Mukden that the Japanese lost over ten guns, but details had not yet been received.

The Japanese have 1,200 guns near Liaoyang.

A severe rifle and artillery duel preceded the Japanese advance. The Japanese left column, the principal strength of which was in infantry, attacked an eminence north of Tahsikou at dawn. The Russian artillery was in semipermanent fortifications north of Tatientsu and northwest of Kaofengsu and in strength was superior to that of the Japanese. The Russian fire dwindled at times, but the Japanese were unable to silence the enemy's guns. The Russian infantry was re-enforced and pressed against the left wing of the Japanese left column. The Japanese troops were dangerously exposed, and the advance of the left column retired. In the meantime the Japanese center had pierced the Russian line, completely dividing it, but both the Russian wings held their positions firmly.

Through mists and haze all three of the Japanese columns moved forward. The Russians resisted this advance vigorously, and it was nightfall before the Japanese were in possession of the long ridge of Hungshaling. The most fierce engagements occurred at Hungshaling and Kungchangling.

The moonlight revealed the Japanese troops as they advanced. The Russian defenders of these positions, besides opening a fierce rifle fire on the enemy, rolled bowlders down the hillside upon the climbing Japanese soldiers. The Japanese reserved their fire and climbed steadily upward, finally reaching the summit and driving the Russians out.

The main force retreated toward Liaoyang. The Japanese casualties in this fighting number about 2,000.

The Japanese army which operated against Anshanshan has advanced along the Haicheng-Liaoyang road, clearing away small forces of Russians. The Japanese line is extended from Shanghibichiatzo to the west of Sumati. The Japanese pursued the enemy and overtook them east of the road in the neighborhood of Tiaochuntai, Tashihtao and Pakuakou and attacked vigorously. The column of infantry and artillery, which pursued the Russians on the west side of the Haicheng-Liaoyang road, overtook the main body of the enemy and was retiring to the northwest and drove it also toward North Tahe.

In these engagements the Japanese captured eight guns and a number of ammunition and commissary wagons.

A Chefu report says: "All is quiet on the eastern front of Port Arthur's fortifications. The guns on Quail hill and the shore batteries successfully bombarded the enemy on the western front. The Japanese have occupied the quarantine station at the village of Dayangow. The battleship Sevastopol went out to bombard the enemy in Tahe bay, but withdrew under cover of the batteries upon the appearance of the cruisers Nisshin and Kasuga with a detachment of torpedo boats.

"The Japanese have delivered three assaults on the battery, but were driven off by shrapnel from the rear with heavy losses. They are hurriedly intrenching at the foot of Ouglovaya or Corner hill, to the northeast of Port Arthur."

A VIRGINIA UNPLEASANTNESS.

Hard Shell Baptist and Seventh Adventist Meeting Disturbed.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 31.—A Tazewell (Va.) special says:

"Information has reached town of a bloody fight between the Whitakers and Altizers, at their homes on Indian creek, on the border of West Virginia, about fifteen miles north of Tazewell. As a result of the fight Noah Altizer is dead, Lee Whitaker is seriously injured, Bill Whitaker is shot through and through, with the chances of his recovery very small, and John Stanson, a sympathizer of the Altizers, is seriously injured.

"The trouble occurred at a meeting of Hard Shell Baptists and Seventh Adventists, with whom the Whitakers and Altizers affiliated. The services were in progress when some one fired a shot, and a general fusillade began. The Whitakers and Altizers had been enemies for thirty years."

WILL NOT CALL OFF STRIKE.

Butchers' Union Will Continue the Struggle at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—The national executive board of the butcher workmen has voted not to call off the strike. Instead the struggle is to be continued until the strikers are "accorded an honorable adjustment," according to a statement issued by President Donnelly.

After a conference with members of the executive committee of the strikers' national organization President Donnelly refused to divulge what had taken place. He admitted that means of securing money for the strikers had been discussed, but he refused to say what else had been talked of at the conference. President Donnelly said that a general mass meeting would be held by the striking unions today at 2 p. m. at Watita hall, near the stockyards. Plans of action will then be discussed.

Gold Cup Stays In Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—The Cleveland challenge gold cup remains in Cleveland for another year, as it has been won by H. M. Hanna's Aerolite, driven by H. K. Devereux, president of the Cleveland club. Sadie Mac, owned and driven by E. E. Smathers of New York, won the first heat and finished first in the second, but was set back in consequence of swerving in the stretch, a violation of amateur driving rules. The other races were won by Mustard, Dutch Mowrey, Glad News and Clarita W. of Cleveland, Queen Wilkes of New York and Sylvia of Syracuse.

Captain and Crew Drowned.

ADEN, Arabia, Aug. 31.—A boat containing the captain and sixteen members of the crew who had left the British steamer Baron Innerdale, from Kurrachee, British India, for the United Kingdom or the continent, which was ashore at the Kuria Muria islands, off the southeast coast of Arabia, capsized, and all the occupants were drowned with the exception of one boy, who was saved by natives.

Strike Seems Ended.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 31.—So far as Kansas City is concerned the packers believe the strike is ended. Many of the extra watchmen employed when the strike was ordered have been discharged. A packing house manager said that at least one-half of the strikers have gone back to work, and about one-fourth of them have left the city.

Minto and Lady at Soo.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Aug. 31.—Lord and Lady Minto were the guests of the Canadian Soo, and a big crowd of citizens turned out to receive them. Speeches were made by prominent citizens. Lord Minto is making a farewell trip before giving up his seat as governor general and will visit the entire Dominion.

Seized With Epilepsy In Water.

SANDUSKY, O., Aug. 31.—Attorney Charles W. Knight of Delaware, O., suffered an attack of epilepsy while in bathing at Cedar Point and was drowned in the presence of his two sisters, who were spending the day with him as his guests on an excursion.

Governor Davis For Panama.

COLON, Aug. 31.—Governor Davis of the Panama canal zone has arrived here on the steamer Finance from New York and went to Panama on a special train, accompanied by Rear Admiral Walker and other canal commissioners.

John Mitchell's Return.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 31.—President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America has reached Indianapolis after an absence in Europe of nearly three months.

NEW JERSEY'S TWELVE-ACRE STORE.

HAHNE & CO.,

BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STS., NEWARK.

Closed Friday Evenings. Open All Day Saturdays Including Evenings.

Last Week of Victor's Royal Venetian Band Concerts.

Wind-up of Our Cut Price Furniture Sale.

We have quite a number of Summer furniture articles, but hardly enough to carry over. We reduced their prices rather than do that. These goods have the best character and are such as change very little in style from year to year. The prices we make for them suggest a purchase for next Summer, or even for use in your homes in the coming Winter. Choice is not vast, so come at once, "first come, first served."

Hickory Furniture.

Armchairs—Reg.	2.25	2.60	3.25	4.50
Spec.	1.70	2.00	2.50	3.30
Rockers—Reg.	1.75	2.60	3.50	4.50
Spec.	1.35	2.00	2.60	3.25
Tables—Reg	3.40		3.75	4.50
Spec.	2.50		2.80	3.25
Tabourettes—Reg.	1.15			1.50
Spec	90c			1.10

Settees—Light finish maple frame, covered with matting. Reg. 10.50, spec. 5.25. Reg. 11.50, spec. 5.75.

Armchairs—Reed, light finish.

Regular	1.85	2.25	3.00
Special	1.40	1.70	2.25

Armchairs—Reed, green finish.

Reg. 2.25, special 1.70. Reg. 2.75, special 2.00.

Settees—Reed, light finish.

Regular	4.75	5.50	6.00
Special	3.50	4.25	4.50

Reed Rockers—Light finish.

Regular	1.70	2.25	2.98	4.50
Special	1.25	1.75	2.25	3 38

Reed Rockers—Green finish.

Regular	2.25	2.75	3.50
Special	1.70	2.00	2.60

Settees—Reed.

Green finish—Regular	5.00	5.25	5.50
Special	3.75	4.00	4.25

Furniture Upholstered in Matting and Fibre Cloth.

Furniture made of ash, green finish, upholstered in matting and fibre cloth.

Rockers—Regular	9.75	13.50	16.00	16.50
Special	7.25	10.00	12.00	12.25
Armchairs—Regular		10.50	15.00	16.00
Special		7.75	10.00	11.25
Tables—Regular		7.25	8.00	12.00
Special		5.50	6.00	9.00

Rustic Furniture for Out-of-door Use.

This furniture is also popular for Libraries, Dens and Offices.

Side Chairs—Reg. 5.00, special.....3.75
Rockers—Reg. 6.00, special.....4.50
Conversation Chairs—Reg. 12.00, special.....9.00
Flower Stands—Reg. $6, spec. 4.50; reg. $9, spec. 6.75

HAHNE & CO., NEWARK, N. J.

A Big Business on a Small Scale

is done here. We serve a great number of customers with choice

Roasts, Chops, Steaks,

Provisions and Poultry. Special care is taken in warm weather in selecting meats. Inferior grades of meat are not permitted to enter our store. Our hygenic cold-air refrigeration is the only one in the city, thus ensuring health, fine flavor and condition, that's why our meats taste so good. Try a nice Leg of Lamb for your Sunday dinner. Prices are lower than ever.

Fine Fresh Fish of all kinds can be found in our Seafood Department. Saturday special sale

FRED ENDRESS
131-135 W. Front St.

Delicious Peaches.

We are offering tempting inducements in fine Peaches—their rich, juicy flavor and excellent quality will delight your taste.

Come here for Peaches for canning, preserving and eating raw.

W. W. DUNN.
The Park Grocer,
Duer Street and Lincoln Pl.

Just received an assortment of new style

BOX PAPERS.

Also a full line of the leading

Magazines and Weeklies

constantly on hand.

Harper's,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

The Park Stables.

Livery and Boarding.

108 Somerset Street

To ophone 403 J. North Plainfield.

High-class Horses and Carriages, Prompt Service.

JAMES D. FRAZER.

FRANK VAN WINKLE

129 North Avenue

Bicycles Photo Supplies

Kodaks and Cameras

Bicycles stored, cleaned and repaired

Developing, Printing and Mounting a specialty

Now is the Time to get cheap lumber. New White Pine Flooring, Window and Door Frames, Siding, etc. You can Save 50 Per Cent.

on this lumber.

ALEX. KANE,
312 Filmore Avenue.

YOU WILL NEVER BUY A HOME WITH MONEY PAID FOR RENT IN THE PAST.

START NOW TO

OWN A HOME

of your own by taking out shares in

THE CENTRAL Building and Loan Asso'n.

OF PLAINFIELD.

J. F. MacDonald Sec'y.

Smalley Building, No 149 North avenue 4 14 tf

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.

110 E. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

WILLIAM H. KIRCH,
Carpenter and Builder,
66 Duer Street.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
Telephone 402 J.

HOAGLAND'S
EXPRESS and BAGGAGE TRANSFER.
Office 302 Park Ave. Tel. 322 W.

We Are PREPARED

to put up the best awnings at most reasonable prices. A good awning properly put up will last for years. Let us estimate on yours.

We have specially interesting prices on Carpets, Mattings and Window Shades.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON, Babcock Building

TRY 5 GALLONS
WASHINGTON ROCK SPRING WATER.

Orders by mail promptly filled.

Patent swinging crate, very convenient

Plainfield Spring Water Co
Box 743. Plainfield, N. J.

THE USE OF
REYNOLD'S PETROLEUM HAIR TONIC

Means Healthy Scalp, Natural Growth of Hair (no falling out), No Dandruff. 50 cents bottle. Prepared only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG

Corner North and Park Aves. THE APOTHECARY. Plainfield, N. J.

Advertise in The Daily Press.

DOLPHIN STAKES.

Beldame Won the Fortune at Sheepshead Bay.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Beldame, at 1 to 7 in the betting, and with 126 pounds up, won the Dolphin stakes, for three-year-olds, one mile and a furlong, at Sheepshead bay. The Octagon filly was giving away big weight to her field and was not extended during any part of the journey, winning easily by four lengths. Ormonde's Right was second, with Aurumaster third. The mile and a furlong was run in 1:53.

St. Bellane, carrying 126 pounds and conceding weight to his field, captured the Partridge stakes, for six furlongs on the turf, by two lengths from the favorite, Bedouin. Gleneche was third. Bedouin was an added starter and was heavily played, being backed from 5 to 2 to 8 to 5.

First Mason easily defeated the odds-on favorite Delhi in the fifth race. Letola, favorite, won the first race and also broke the track record for the full Futurity course by covering the seven furlongs in 1:24 4-5.

BASEBALL SCORES.

Results of Yesterday's Games In National and American Leagues.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At Cincinnati—
New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	0	—3
Cincinnati	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—1
Batteries—Mathewson and Bowerman; Hahn and Peitz.
At Chicago—
Brooklyn	1	0	6	0	0	0	1	0	0	—8
Chicago	0	0	0	1	0	0	3	0	0	—4
Batteries—O. Jones and Bergen; Wicker and Kling.
At Pittsburg—
Boston	2	0	2	0	0	0			0	—4
Pittsburg	0	0	1	0	0	0			0	—1
Batteries—Willis and Moran; Phillippi and Phelps.
At St. Louis—
Philadelphia	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	1	—4
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	—2
Batteries—Corridon and Doolin; Taylor and Grady.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

	W.	L.	P.C.
New York	82	33	.713
Chicago	78	45	.602
Cincinnati	67	48	.583
Pittsburg	65	47	.580
St. Louis	60	57	.513
Boston	44	73	.376
Brooklyn	39	74	.345
Philadelphia	33	82	.287

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At New York—
Cleveland	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
New York	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	—1
Batteries—Joss and Bemis; Orth and Kleinow.
At Boston—
Detroit	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
Boston	1	0	3	0	0	2	7	0		—13
Batteries—Kitson and Beville; Young and Criger.
At Philadelphia—
Chicago	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	0	0	—3
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—0
Batteries—Patterson and McFarland; Henley and Schreck.
At Washington—
St. Louis	0	1	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	—3
Washington	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	—2
Batteries—Glade and Sugden; Jacoobson and Kittridge.
Second game—
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	—1
Washington	2	0	1	0	0	0	0	0		—4
Batteries—Howell and O'Connor; Patten and Clark.

TABLE OF PERCENTAGES.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Boston	68	43	.613
New York	66	43	.606
Philadelphia	61	45	.576
Chicago	65	48	.575
Cleveland	61	47	.565
Detroit	47	62	.431
St. Louis	45	65	.336
Washington	26	84	.236

Hicks Won Marathon Race.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31.—The Olympic Marathon race at the world's fair stadium, the third foot race contest of the kind ever held and the first ever held on American soil, participated in by thirty-one men classed among the fleetest runners of the world, was won by Thomas J. Hicks of Cambridge, Mass., who is the first American to win this event celebrated in the revival of Olympic games. Albert J. Corey of Chicago, a native born Frenchman, crossed the goal line second, and A. L. Newton of New York city crossed third. The distance of the race was forty kilometers, equal to 24 miles and 1,500 yards. This distance was run by Hicks in the officially announced time of 3 hours, 28 minutes and 53 seconds.

Surprise at Highland Park.

DETROIT, Aug. 31.—Surprises were plentiful and complete at Highland park, the greatest coming out of the running of the feature event, a handicap of a mile and seventy yards. In a field of five Autolight was held an even money favorite, but he finished a bad last, while Aden, an outsider in the betting, won the decision in a driving finish with Pretension and Spencerian, and in doing so broke the track record. Kilts, heavily played at a long price, was an easy winner in the fourth. Jade, the winner of the second race, was the only favorite to score brackets.

Sis Lee Won All the Way.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Fossil was heavily backed in the third race at Harlem, the odds being pounded down from 15 to 1 to 5½ to 1, and the bets were still going in when the horses were at the post. Fossil looked to have the race, but in the last furlong Bragg came very fast and took first place by a narrow margin. The victory of Sis Lee in the first race was something of a surprise, but she had the speed of the lot of maidens that faced the barrier and won all the way.

Seventy Drowned In Poland.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Berlin says a telegram has been received there from Lodz, Poland, announcing that a ferryboat capsized on the river Kamien, resulting in seventy persons being drowned. Thirty of the passengers were saved. It is added that the boat was licensed to carry only thirty passengers.

The March of Electricity.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 31.—It has been announced that fast expresses on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad between New York and Boston will be lighted by electricity in place of gas within a short time. The equipment is being installed.

SULTAN'S FEAR ENDS

Turkish Sovereign's Brother Dead at Golden Horn.

SAID TO BE INSANE; WAS DETHRONED

Real History of Cruel Imprisonment Will Probably Never Be Known. Claimed by the Young Turks Faction That He Was Sane.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 31.—Ex-Sultan Murad V. is dead here of diabetes, from which he had long suffered.

The remains of the former sultan were interred in the Yenidjami mausoleum at Stamboul, where his mother is buried.

It was reported last May from Vienna that Murad V., the thirty-third sovereign of the house of Osman, was dying. At the same time it was reported from the same source that his adherents all over Turkey, known as the Young Turks, were secretly arming and only awaited the signal to rise in insurrection.

Murad V. was born in 1840 and ascended the throne after the murder of the Sultan Abdul Aziz, May, 1876. In July of that year Murad was placed under the regency of his brother, the present sultan, Abdul Hamid II., and on Aug. 31 he was dethroned.

Outwardly this act was performed legally by the council of ministers on the ground that he was insane. The real facts in the case, however, will probably never be known, but it has been claimed that Murad was a good deal more sane than his brother, and one of the greatest terrors of Abdul Hamid's existence was the fear that this Turkish "man with the iron mask," as he has been termed, might escape from his place of confinement in the Cheragan palace. About six years ago he was removed to the Malta kiosk, in the grounds of the Yildiz palace, which is surrounded by lofty walls.

In spite of the secrecy of Murad's removal he was seen by several foreigners as he passed, who declared that though he had aged and was haggard in appearance he had not lost his majestic bearing and preserved the appearance of a man in the full possession of his mental faculties.

The confinement of Murad has been of the cruelest character. Only his jailers were allowed to see him, and every precaution was taken to prevent any intelligence of what was going on in the outside world from reaching him. Ostensibly, however, Murad was under the charge of General Riza Pasha, son of the old field marshal of that name, who had known Murad from childhood and was deeply attached to him.

Had he recovered his reason Abdul Hamid's tenure of the throne would have ended. The Young Turk party has persistently claimed that Murad was sane and that he was kept in confinement only to prevent his recovering possession of the throne. No European specialists had seen Murad since 1876.

Trade In Canal Zone.

PANAMA, Aug. 31.—Minister of Foreign Relations Arias and Mr. Barrett, the American minister, have held a conference regarding the commencement of negotiations looking to the establishment of trade relations between Panama and the canal zone. Minister Arias will wait until he hears from General Obaldia, the Panama minister at Washington, before formally entering upon negotiations, but it is believed that a tentative agreement will be made before the departure of the canal commission.

Hamburg Liner Drifting.

BREMEN, Aug. 31.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm, which has arrived here, reports sighting on Aug. 27 the Hamburg-American line steamer Phoenicia, which left New York Aug. 20, in latitude 46, longitude 34, apparently drifting. It is probable that the Phoenicia's engines were out of order when she was sighted by the Kronprinz Wilhelm. The Phoenicia is a twin screw steamer of 7,412 tons burden.

Alaska-Seattle Cable Opened.

SKAGWAY, Alaska, Aug. 31.—The Alaska-Seattle cable has been opened for business after an exchange of congratulations. The people of Seattle and Alaska were allowed the free use of the cable to express their congratulations on the opening of communications. The new cable makes a substantial reduction in the cost of transmitting commercial matter, but does not affect the press rates.

On the Way Home From Circus.

JELLICO, Tenn., Aug. 31.—While on their way home from attending a circus Floyd Hilton of Halsey, Ky., shot and killed Will and Flem Bray of Mud Creek, Ky., and dangerously wounded their father. Hilton claims that during an altercation the Bray boys threw him from their wagon, and the shooting followed.

Robbed the Postoffice.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 31.—A special from Enfield, N. C., says: "The postoffice here was robbed about 1 o'clock in the morning of about $1,000 in stamps and money, of which $250 belonged to the postmaster. The robbers escaped. Bloodhounds are now on the scent."

Leon County Goes Dry.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Aug. 31.—The wet or dry election was held in this (Leon) county. Returns received up to this hour show a majority against the sale of intoxicants of 62. This is believed to insure the closing of barrooms.

THE DAILY PRESS.

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.

E. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 6r.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year—in advance. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada. Delivered by carrier or by mail.

THE PRESS has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district. Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change the same day MUST be in this office by 9 a. m.

WHILE ON YOUR VACATION, DON'T FORGET TO HAVE THE DAILY PRESS MAILED TO YOU, AND IN THIS WAY KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR HOME DOINGS. NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR MAILING, AND ADDRESS CHANGED AS OFTEN AS DESIRED. BEST SERVICE GUARANTEED.....

Plainfield, N. J., Aug. 31, 1904.

Newspaper report says "General assault has commenced on Port Arthur." For the benefit of an expectant public we hope he will be more successful than the Generals who have preceded him.

A York, Pa., girl in order to learn the feeling of her family and friends toward her, hid herself behind an organ in the house for seven days. When men want to gain the same information they go into politics.

Mrs. Anne M. Weightman Walker, who inherited her father's $60,000,000, has given further evidence of her remarkableness. She has refused to talk since the money fell to her and so far not a Philadelphia newspaper has been able to get her picture. Mrs. Walker is truly a woman out of the ordinary.

We don't wish to sicken our readers by "blowing our own horn," but just let us remind you that whenever there is any important story concerning this city The Daily Press is the first to publish it. A short time ago we published exclusively the story about Senator Kean having introduced a bill in Congress to provide for a $100,000 postoffice building for this city. Only yesterday, we gave the first news of the Plainfield Trust Company's purchase of $50,000 worth of property on which it proposes to build a handsome home for itself. Today we furnish our readers with the exclusive account of F. F. Proctor's efforts to obtain a suitable site for the erection of an amusement house here. Read "Plainfield's leading paper" for news that is news and is reliable news.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliff Neilson, of Church street, have returned from a visit with relatives at Passaic.

Mrs. P. Frank Stone, of West Front street, who has been very ill with acute indigestion, is slowly improving.

Mrs. L. E. Cole, of West Front street, who has been spending several weeks at Asbury Park, is expected home next week.

William Grover, of Coudersport, Pa., is visiting his uncle, L. W. Niles, of Orchard place.

Rev. George B. Shaw and family, of Central avenue, will return this week from their outing in Wisconsin.

Miss Angelina Jackson, a graduate of the North Plainfield High School '04, and who has been attending the summer school of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pa., is visiting her brother, Harold, of Wilkinsburg, Pa., prior to the opening of the fall term of college on Sept. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Charles and two daughters, from Brooklyn, are the guests of Mrs. B. F. Moore, of North avenue.

Miss Elizabeth Drake, of Jersey City, has returned home after spending several days as the guest of David Ryno, of East Second street.

William Deane, of East Sixth street, left Saturday to visit his home in Flemington. Mr. Deane will be gone two weeks.

The Misses Edna and Frances Jenkins, of Camden, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harder, of Madison avenue.

C. P. Daley and Miss M. E. Daley, of Manning avenue, have returned home after a two weeks' stay at Sunset Hall, Asbury Park.

W. W. Warnock, of Craig place, is entertaining his aunt and cousin, Mrs. Gilmore and Mrs. Johanson, of New York.

Patrick Moran, a Civil War veteran, is seriously ill at his home on West Fourth street.

Walter Smain, of Craig place, left Monday to spend the week at Asbury Park.

PERSONAL.

Miss Clara Denton, of Washington avenue, is spending a few days at Portchester, N. Y., where she is visiting relatives.

George W. Brown, of Somerset street, has returned after a two weeks' vacation.

L. M. Packer, of East Sixth street, is at Asbury Park for two weeks.

J. F. Parker, of Grove street, is home from Belgrade Lake, Maine.

D. S. Alpaugh, of East Fifth street, has returned from Bethlehem, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. MacDonald, of West Sixth street, are home from Spring Lake Beach, N. J.

Miss H. M. Krietling, of West Front street, has returned home from Long Branch.

C. L. Nicholson, the East Front street real estate man, is registered at the Hotel Matthew.

Mrs. W. Jarrad and daughter, Elizabeth, of Lansing, Mich., has been visiting her brother, George McGinnis, of Somerset street.

W. J. Roome and family, of Sycamore avenue, have returned from an extensive sight-seeing tour through Canada.

Senator Charles A. Reed, of Myrtle avenue, has returned after spending several weeks at Cape May.

Miss Adams, of Netherwood avenue, is visiting at Martinsville.

Morris VanArsdale and family, of Norwood avenue, returned home yesterday from Asbury Park, where they have been spending three weeks.

The Misses Helen and Dorothy Martin, of Elizabeth, have returned home after spending a week with their uncle, Howard A. Pope, of East Fifth street.

Miss Hazel Morrison, of South avenue, is visiting at the home of her grandfather, James Morrison, of Brooklyn.

Miss Loretta Lammerding, of Rahway, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Shattle, of East Sixth street.

Alex. Muir, of Essex street, will leave today for Lake Hopatoong, where he will join the Hope Y. M. A. campers for a week.

Miss Helen Callahan, of Richmond street, has returned home after spending the week with her aunt, Miss Anna Seery, of Dyker Heights, Long Island.

Edward Goldberg, of Philadelphia, who has been spending the summer with David Dreier, of West Front street, returned to his home Sunday.

Mrs. Charles A. Reed and daughter, of Myrtle avenue, have returned from a vacation sojourn at Belmar.

Miss Laura J. Runyon and Miss Elliott, of Madison avenue, are spending some time at Asbury Park.

Wood Titsworth, of this city, has been spending several weeks at Asbury Park.

Mrs. Henry Leifke and her niece, Miss Irene Samuels, of West Front street, are stopping at Asbury Park.

STORAGE VAULTS

For Large Trunks, Boxes, Valuable Packages, etc., etc.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

OF ALL SIZES.

ABSOLUTE SECURITY PROVIDED.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Clearing the Surplus of Furniture.

All through August we have been busy clearing out the storehouses making room for Fall shipments, and this week we make the general clean up. There are as many good bargains and some better, but the quantity in many instances is limited.

SALE OF MATTRESSES.

Mattresses at 1.98.
Filled with excelsior, with soft tops, fancy striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 6.98.
The Union Felt, made in two parts, full 45 lbs, good quality fancy striped ticking.

Mattresses at 2.50.
Cotton top, excelsior filled, with blue and white striped ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 9.50.
The Purity Felt, superior to the best quality hair, made in two parts, full 45 lbs.

Mattresses at 3.98.
Combination, with cotton top, bottom and sides, one or two parts. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 10.98.
The Windsor Felt, equal to any high grade Mattress made, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

Mattresses at 5.98.
Pure white cotton, full 45 lbs, best grade of ticking. Made in all sizes.

Mattresses at 15.50.
Ostermoor patent elastic Felt, best quality ticking, full 45 lbs, made in two parts.

SALE OF PARLOR ROCKERS.

Parlor Rockers, 3.98 quality.....2.50
Parlor Rockers, 4.98 quality.....3.50
Parlor Rockers, 6.50 quality.....4.98
Parlor Rockers, 9.50 quality.....7.98

SALE OF DINING TABLES.

5.00 Tables, now.....3.98
8.98 Tables, now.....7.50
9.98 Tables, now.....7.98
10.98 Tables, now.....8.98
11.98 Tables, now.....9.98
12.98 Tables, now.....10.98

SALE OF BED OUTFITS.

The prices named include Bed, Spring and Mattress.

Bed Outfit No. 1—Regular price 8.50, sale price..... 5.98
Bed Outfit No. 2—Regular price 10.50, sale price..... 7.98
Bed Outfit No. 3—Regular price 12.50, sale price..... 9.98
Bed Outfit No. 4—Regular price 15.00, sale price..... 12.98
Bed Outfit No. 5—Regular price 17.00, sale price..... 14.98
Bed Outfit No. 6—Regular price 19.50, sale price..... 16.98

SALE OF COUCHES

Reg. 5.00 Couches now.....3.48
Reg. 6.50 Couches now.....4.25
Reg. 8.00 Couches now.....5.98
Reg. 10.00 Couches now.....7.75
Reg. 12.50 Couches now.....9.25
Reg. 15.00 Couches now.....10.98

SALE OF SIDEBOARDS.

The 10.98 ones, now...9.25
The 11.98 ones, now...9.75
The 12.98 ones, now...10.75
The 14.98 ones, now...12.50
The 18.50 ones, now...14.98
The 19.98 ones, now...16.50
The 21.50 ones, now...18.25
The 29.50 ones, now...24.75

SALE OF DINING CHAIRS.

Three patterns of solid Oak Chairs, quarter sawed and polished, specially priced at 1.29, 1.48 and 1.78.

SALE OF PARLOR SUITS.

A number of three and five piece Suits that we offer at greatly reduced prices.

SALE OF BEDROOM SUITS.

Several good patterns specially priced this week to make room for the new Fall patterns.

OUR CAKE DEPARTMENT

is one of the most busy departments, so kindly leave your orders as early in the day as possible, to make sure of prompt deliveries.

WOODHULL & MARTIN.

FREEHOLD AND PLAINFIELD N.J.

Levy Bros' TWO STORES

MORE SPLENDID VALUES.

115-117 West Front Street 'Phone 220 Plainfield, N. J.

Our Great Alteration Sale with its many Bargains puts forth unusual attractions for tomorrow.

1.50 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 98c

2.00 White Bed Spreads, special for..... 1.48

45 inch table Oilcloth, yard.....14c
Extra large and heavy Huck Towels, value 15c, for.....10c
75c quality blue and black Brilliantine, 52 inches wide, yard.....49c
3 special lots all Silk Ribbons.....10c, 12½c, 15c
All extraordinary values.

Children's 50c white Aprons.....35c
Summer Corsets.....19c
Shirt Waists, were 75c, for.....39c
Lot of Umbrellas, very elaborate silver plated handles.....85c
Window Shades with fringe, were 49c and 39c, now.....29c
Boys' 25c School Stockings.....15c

Extra heavy Muslin, (unbleached), value 9c, for.....6½c
All wool Dress Goods for School Dresses, value 50c, yard.....19c
1.25 Wrappers.....69c
98c Wrappers.....49c
Black Mercerized Underskirts, worth 98c, for.....49c

Ladies' Fall Walking Hats in the Latest Effects, Now on Sale.

17th ANNUAL

Excursion OF THE Plainfield Grocers' Association TO CONEY ISLAND, Labor Day, Sept. 5, 1904,

Via Central Railroad to Jersey City, then by the Iron Steamboat "Coney Island"

A long day at the shore! Last excursion of the season.

Leave Dunellen at 7:45, stopping at Grant Ave. Leave Plainfield at 8 a. m. Returning—Steamer leaves Iron Pier, Coney Island, 8:40 p. m.

Fare from Plainfield—Adults 80c. Children 65c. From Dunellen 95c. Children 75c.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS

August 17, September 2, October 4—St. Louis Exposition. These are all ten-day parties.

Office: 181 North Avenue, Plainfield

Plainfield Property

For Sale, To Let and Exchange.

Now is the right time to buy—have some bargains.

IRA L. LARUE,
Coward Building, 109 Park Avenue.

YOUR EDUCATION HAS BEEN NEGLECTED

If you have not been taught the value of money and the advantage of SYSTEMATIC SAVING.

DO NOT ALLOW YOUR CHILDREN

To reach the age of manhood and womanhood without a little money of their own to help them along.

The PENNIES that they have saved,
The DOLLAR that you will add, (and oftentimes more,)

AND THE

DIME SAVINGS INSTITUTION

will accomplish a good result for them.

USE PRESS WANT ADS.

When the Bell Rings Look Out When Passing PECK'S STORE Look In.

ESTABLISHED 1888 E. H. CLEVELY. TELEPHONE 398 W

Restaurant and Lunch Rooms.

OYSTERS will start season on Saturday, August 27. For a good Stew or Fry, follow the crowd.

Horton's Brick Cream 40c a quart.

Take home a Brick. Will keep hard one hour.

155, 157, 159 North Avenue, Opposite C. R. R. Depot.

Local Agent For Horton's New York Cream.

Wholesale——Retail.

KIRCH J. PHILIP KIRCH. CIGARS

To lovers of Porto Rican Tobacco, we are offering a special inducement in Rucabado's "Maximo," to go at $1.50 per box of fifty. A chance of a lifetime. Do It Now.

120 NORTH AVENUE. Phone 487 J.

Whether you need clothing or not buy it now and profit by these

AUGUST SACRIFICE PRICES.

You never saw better bargains than we are offering in our Great August Sales. If you value economy you can't afford to miss this event.

$15.00 Suits reduced to..$7.95
$12.00 Suits reduced to..$6.50
$10.00 Suits reduced to..$5.95
$8 & $9 Suits reduced to..$4.75

$3.50 & $4 Trousers reduced to.....$2.00
$3.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.69
$2.50 Trousers reduced to..$1.45
$2.00 Trousers reduced to..$1.25
$1.50 Trousers reduced to..85c

The Princely Shirt, regular 75c values, special at.....45c

Regular 50c Balbriggan Underwear reduced to.....25c

Special 20th Century Collars, all styles and all sizes, regular 15c collars, special at.....7c

Boys' Wash Suits in all the latest styles, regular 75c kind, special at.....39c

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

202-204 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Campaign Pocket Knives

Like the Candidates, First-class, Fully Guaranteed and all right on the Tariff.

GAYLE HARDWARE CO.,

Front St. and Park Ave.

Marchant's Famous Buttermilk.

Everyone who drinks our Buttermilk is delighted with its splendid flavor and purity. It not only quenches thirst—it accomplishes ever so much more—it is refreshing, satisfying and nutritious.

Physicians recommend it to their patients, because it is so easily digested and has such recuperative properties.

Try it.

Price 5c a quart.

MARCHANT BROTHERS,

Plainfield Milk and Cream Company,

191 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

BUTTERMILK WHY YES

we make it fresh every day, and Potcheese, too. Try some.

LINDSAY DAIRY,

Tel. 451 J. FARM MOUNTAIN AVENUE.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Union News Co. . . . . R. R. Station
J. M. Harper . . . . . 411 Park Ave
E. A. Laing . . . . . 149 W. Front St
A. D. Mallinson . . . . . Fourth and Liberty Sts
Trolley Waiting Room . . . . . Watchung Ave
M. Estil . . . . . 111 Park Ave
W. R. Mattison . . . . . 85 Somerset St
Geo. Scribner . . . . . 331 Watchung Ave
J. Hatfield . . . . . 212 Watchung Ave

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen . . . . . Wm. Giddes
Dunellen . . . . . John Alberts
New Market . . . . . Herbert Dunham
Bound Brook . . . . . Union News Co.
Somerville . . . . . John Gernert
Westfield . . . . . C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Scotch Plains . . . . . Chas. Elliott
South Plainfield . . . . . Walton Smith
Clinton Avenue . . . . Mrs. Meader, John Ryan
Fanwood . . . . . Chas. Elliott
Netherwood . . . . . L. Uhdal, J. Kiley

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Miss Nellie Birch, of Paterson, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Arthur Vail.

Bernard Siriski is having a well dug in back of his store.

Augustus Todd and his daughter, Laura Todd, have returned from a visit with relatives in New York State.

According to the New York Journal, "Mayor" Bill Smith has offered a prize to the first couple in Dunellen to unite in matrimony. The "Mayor" is growing a "Van Dyke" at present.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Casselbury are expected home today from a month's stay at Ocean Grove.

Alfred Wilson's horse ran away yesterday near the New Market school house. By the time that the barnyard was reached the wagon was nearly smashed to pieces.

Alfred VanNuis, while working around his horse, was seriously injured by being kicked in the abdomen.

Mrs. Paget, formerly of New Market, has taken rooms in Frank Nye's house. He intends to start a notion store in the building owned by Abe Nelson.

William Dann is able to be around again after a two weeks' attack with inflamatory rheumatism.

Frank Nelson is spending his vacation at home.

Percy Vail and family have returned home from a month s visit at Atlantic City.

The road from the New Market postoffice to Thornton's Hotel, has been macadamized and rolled. It was torn up by the recent severe storm. The work is under the county supervisor. George Coriell did the job under the direction of the district Freeholder, Alexander Manning.

A window in Arthur Vail's store was broken last night by a thrown ball. The boy who did the act is out some money.

The Dunellen A. C. plays Clinton Avenue this Saturday.

Miss Ella Dunham, a former resident, and now of Plainfield, with her sister-in-law from Mississippi, visited friends in town yesterday.

Al. Giddes and William Brokaw left yesterday for Boston, ,Mass. where they will spend some time taking in the sights there and in the historic vicinity. Part of the trip will be made by water.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The members of the Suburban Club and their women friends enjoyed a pleasant evening together last night at the club's home in the borough. An informal programme of bowling and dancing passed away several pleasant hours together. During a short intermission refreshments were served. Ladies' nights at the club are becoming very popular with the club and each week finds a larger attendance of the fair sex. When the fall season opens in October the club members intend making this part of their club life a leading feature.

The Republican voters of the borough at their primary held Saturday night, elected the following delegates to the coming conventions: County convention, Charles Sheelan; State convention, Dr. F. W. Westcott; Congressional, J. D Gilmour. Dr. F. W. Westcott was elected member of the county committee for one year.

James McLoughlin, of Bermuda, is spending a week with his sister, Mrs. Ola Johanson, of Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheelen, of the borough, are entertaining Mrs. Sheelen's cousins, the Misses Murphy, of Brooklyn, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robison, of the borough, have been entertaining out of town friends for a few days.

A meeting of the Township Committee will be held in the town rooms Friday night.

The Cuban Giants, who were defeated last Saturday by the local ball team, will make an effort to redeem themselves Saturday afternoon, when the two teams meet again on the local diamond.

James H. Buckley and family removed yesterday from Plainfield to their house on Stout avenue.

The ringing of an alarm of fire creates more excitement in town in five minutes than can be found at any other time in a month. When the alarm was rung Monday night for the Cottrell fire, fully 200 people were on the street before the apparatus was out of the house. The no exemption from taxes will no doubt hurt the several companies in keeping up to the usual membership carried, but as for volunteer help there is always plenty of it to be had when the apparatus is run.

James Johnston and Joseph Clark have been appointed as the Republican members of the Board of Registry.

The Orange Field Club, of Plainfield, holds a business meeting tonight at the home of Clifford Smith, of Westfield avenue.

George Archibold, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Archibold, of Washington Valley, has returned to his home in Westfield.

Manager Johnston intends to tie that series with Westfield when the two teams meet at Recreation Park Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Otto Peterson, who has been spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Clark, has returned to her home in Newark.

Miss Mamie Mercein, of West Fourth street, has been spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mercein, of Grand street.

The public school is undergoing a thorough cleaning preparatory to the opening of school on Tuesday morning. Several of the class rooms are being painted, besides the building is being wired for electric lights. The latter is a much needed improvement.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

A little son has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Biddle. The young man arrived yesterday.

Mrs. David Bigely and daughter, Mrs. Harry Tappen and daughter, of Plainfield and Miss Edith Ayers, of Plainfield, spent today with Mrs. Oscar Thorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Harlow, Mrs. John Maher and Mrs. Morris Higgins are spending the day at Coney Island.

Howard Lautenbach has removed to the home of George Smith on Maple avenue.

H. H. Gallagher is enjoying his semi-monthly vacation with friends in Rahway.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman, Miss Maude Honeyman and E. Maxwell Honeyman, of Grove street, have returned from Christmas Cove, Maine.

Miss Nellie Messenger, of North avenue, has returned from a vacation spent at Asbury Park.

Miss Alice Higgins, of West Front street, started Monday on a vacation of two weeks.

Mrs. G. Honeyman and her son, Edwin, of East Second street, have returned from a month's vacation at Budd's Lake.

Miss Colton, of Grove street, has spent the past few weeks visiting friends in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Charles H. Smith, of Grove street, accompanied by her sons, Dorrance and Clarence, has gone to Femly Farm, Lebanon, N. J., for their vacation.

Mrs. George H. Babcock and son, George L. Babcock and Miss Myra Clark, of West Eighth street, returned Monday from their trip abroad with the Honeyman party.

$8.00 to Niagara Fall and Return Via Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Grand Labor Day excursion. Tickets on sale September 2 and 3, good returning until September 5, inclusive. A trip of four days to the famous Cataract at minimum cost. Side trip tickets to Toronto and Alexandria Bay on sale at Niagara Falls, at low fares, to holders of excursion tickets. Ask city agent, 318 Front street, for further particulars. 8 19 1

There's a Difference in DRUGS.

There's a greater difference in drugs than most people are aware of.

For instance—Common table salt costs ten cents for a 3 lb bag at the grocery; but the same thing, only purified, costs 27c a lb. Commercial Sulphuric Acid costs 2 cents, while chemically pure costs 35 cents. Commercial Murate of Ammonia costs 11 cents, but the chemically pure costs 55 cents. So it is all along the list.

For ordinary purposes the regular is all right—but when it comes to using it medicinally, then the BEST should always be used.

When we fill your prescription you always get the PUREST and BEST carefully compounded.

L. W. Randolph,
The City Pharmacy,
143 West Front Street.

BUTTER

THE KIND THAT ALWAYS PLEASES.

Rockdale Print, lb - - 25c
Rockdale Creamery Butter, lb 24c
Elgin Creamery Butter, lb - 23c

The quality of this butter is unsurpassed by any in the State.

Neuman Bros
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St.

EDUCATIONAL.

Mr. Leal's School For Boys.

1882—1904

Has sent boys to College every year for twenty-two years.

Boys have entered sixteen different Colleges, but the great majority have gone to Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Columbia.

Junior Department receives boys 9-10 years of age.

Next school year begins on Tuesday, September 13th.

JOHN LEAL,
Principal.

Cedarcroft School
For Boys
Opens September 14th.
For information apply to
R. M. HUSE, Principal,
8 15 1m 1003 Park Ave., Plainfield.

Plainfield Seminary
will re-open
Thursday, Sept. 15, 1904.
Thirty-seventh Year.
Principals { MISS KENYON / MISS ARNOLD
New York Law School { 35 Nassau St., New York City. { 'Dwight Method' of Instruction.
Students may take Day School or Evening School. LL.B. in two years; LL.M. in three years. High standards. Prepares for bar of all States. Send for catalogue.
8 1 eod 2m GEORGE CHASE, Dean.

Plainfield Business College Opens September 1

VIOLIN INSTRUCTION.

Miss Emerson, pupil of Prof. Markees, Berlin, Germany. Fall term begins Sept. 9. Babcock Building, Studio 305. For particulars address Carnegie Hall, 874, New York.

IF you have never succeeded in getting glasses that improved your vision, don't you think it advisable to drop in and see us? It will cost you nothing unless you choose to give us an order.

STILES & CO.
Philadelphia EYE SPECIALISTS
107 E. Front St.
Every Thursday.
Hours:—11:15 a. m. to 1 p. m. and 1:45 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.

DR. JOS. E. WRIGHT,
EYE, EAR, THROAT AND NOSE.
Office, Woodhull & Martin Bldg.
Hours Tues., Thurs. and Sat. 2-5 p. m., and by appointment.

DR. E. B. STOWE,
Graduate Chiropodist,
For Gentlemen and Ladies. Babcock Building.
Office Hours—9 to 12 a. m., 1 to 6 p. m.
Telephone 367 w. All Instruments Sterilized

L. L. MANNING & SON,
Steam Granite Works.
Corner Central Avenue and West Front Street. Opposite First Baptist Church.

Townsend's Granite Works,
Fourth and Richmond Streets.
Tel. call 2214. Westfield trolley passes my office.

T. A. MOORE
Undertaker and Embalmer
Office—508 Watchung Avenue Telephone
Residence—508 LaGrande Avenue 46r-J
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

GEO. W. COLE
Undertaker and Embalmer
200 W. Second St. Telephone 153
Office Open Day and Night.

Established 1872
P. CASEY & SON
Undertakers and Embalmers.
Office 116 Park Ave. Res. 417 W. Third St.
Office open day and night. Tel. 1082

DIED.

GASKILL—In North Plainfield, on Tuesday, August 30, 1904, Charles O. Gaskill, aged 34 years, 6 months and 23 days.

Funeral services from his late residence, 136 Duer street, on Thursday, September 1, at 3 o'clock. Interment at Hillside cemetery, South Plainfield, N. J. Friends and relatives are invited. 8 30 2

McCARTHY—In this city, August 30, 1904, Michael J. McCarthy, in his 38th year.

Funeral from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Robert Skinner, 202 West Fourth street, Friday, Sept. 2, at 8:30 a. m., and from St. Mary's R. C. church at 9 a. m., where a requeim mass will be offered for the repose of his soul. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. 8 31 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

Advertisements under this head one cent per word for first insertion and half a cent per word for each additional insertion. No advertisement received for less than ten cents.

☞ Please be sure and mention that you saw the advertisement in The Daily Press.

GOOD young cow for sale cheap. Apply corner Arlington avenue and Randolph road. 8 29 3

TO LET—Three rooms, newly papered; all improvements. 147 East Fifth street. 8 29 3

DRESSMAKER, at home or out by the day. 428 East Sixth St. 8 29 4

YOUNG horse, also cart, for sale: no reasonable offer refused. Call 68 Willow avenue, borough. 8 29 6

WANTED—Reliable person as maid to wait upon elderly lady. 515 Park avenue. 8 29 3

TWO nicely furnished front rooms to let reasonable; all improvements. 311 Madison avenue. 8 29 6

BOARD and rooms; superior accommodations for those desiring refined home in private family. Address Private, care Press office. 8 29 3

WANTED—Competent white cook. Apply 966 Central avenue. 8 30 tf

GOOD seamstress wants work. Mrs. Ortner, 508 Park Ave. 8 30 3

GIRL wanted for general housework; German or Swede preferred. 962 Hillside avenue. 8 30 2

SIX-ROOM house to let. U. B. Crane or Adam Young. 8 30 2

APARTMENT to let, with steam heat. Wm. M. Stillman. 8 29 tf eod

TO LET—Seven-room house. Inquire 103 Grandview avenue. 8 31 4

TO LET—7-room house; all improvements; rent $16. Inquire 934 West Fourth street. 8 31 4

500 BUSHELS potatoes for sale; delivered at Plainfield. Address Henry Zimmerman, Martinsville, N. J. 8 31 6

TO LET—Six-room house; all improvements. 738 East Seventh street. 8 31 3

WANTED — Pleasant furnished room, with or without board, by lady of refinement; terms reasonable. Address Immediate, care Press. 8 31 2

WANTED—At once, first-class help for first-class places. H. Briske's Intelligence Office, 409 Watchung avenue. 8 31 4

WOMAN wants place as first class cook; best of city references. Call 57 Pearl street. 8 31 2

TO LET—Two rooms on first floor, (front); suitable for an office or dressmaker; centrally located. Address 329 Madison avenue. 8 31 3

IF you have any real estate, for sale, exchange, or to let, send or bring full particulars to Charles L. Moffett, No. 309 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 15 tf

ALWAYS have list of desirable properties for sale or rent; fire, life, burglar and accident insurance; first mortgage loans. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

CROCHET baby shoques for sale; all prices; also ladies' knitted sweaters made to order. Mrs. Mayer, 54 Pearl street, North Plainfield. 4 6 tf

WANTED—A $3,500 house centrally located; East Second street preferred; also have a cash customer for a $1,400 house. Abbott & Manning, 168 North avenue. 5 13 tf

FOR SALE—Choice building lots on West End and Rockview avenues at reasonable prices; best location in North Plainfield; short distance from Grant Avenue station and trolley; 50x170; restricted from $1,800 houses up. Call or address P. S. Browne, 109 Park avenue. 7 11 tf

FARMS for sale; real estate and insurance. Wm. H. Rogers, Plainfield, N. J. tf

TO LET—Eight-room flat over Powers drug store. Inquire Alex. Thorn, 57 Somerset street. 1 12 tf

LOTS at great bargain; plot 150x150 feet on Watchung avenue; $8 per foot. J. T. Vail. 6 24 tf

BARN TO LET on East Second street, near Watchung Ave. Apply at the Daily Press office. 6 7 tf

BIRDS, dogs, cats boarded week or month. Bird store, 43 Somerset street. 8 11 tf

CELERY plants for sale; choice varieties. Thos. Mair, 20 Leland avenue, North Plainfield. 8 13 tf

WANTED—An experienced white cook. 1206 Watchung avenue. 8 17 tf

FOR SALE—A complete collection of foreign and American stamps; will sell as an entire collection or in lots to suit purchaser. Address Stamp, care Press. 8 9 tf

WANTED—Improved or unimproved property in or near Pittsburg, Pa., in exchange for a nice residence in Netherwood; house is modern in every respect with plenty of land, shade and fruit. Currier Bros., 119 West Front street. 8 23 tf

WANTED—By Scotch girl, situation as chambermaid, waitress or nurse; good personal reference from present employer. 1001 Central avenue. 8 29 3

LARGE furnished rooms to let; reasonable. 127 North Ave. 8 25 6

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 322 W. Front St. 5 10 tf

YOUNG lady wishes home in exchange for light duties, sewing, etc.; references. Address H. L., care Press. 8 29 3

SACRIFICE SALE — Oldsmobile in perfect running order. Address Oldsmobile, care Press. 8 27 6

ROOMS with board; also table board. 311 East Fifth street. 8 27 1m

PART OF HOUSE—To let, 8 rooms on first floor; 8 rooms on second and bath; all new plumbing. 808 Third place, 2 doors from Crescent Ave. 8 29 5

TO LET—Large, desirable double room; first-class table; at Mrs. Wagstaff's, 138 Crescent avenue. 8 29 6

TWO rooms for rent, unfurnished; city water Address Pleasant Location, Press office. 8 29 3

WILL LOAN $7,000 on real estate; security, 5 per cent.; in sums to suit. R. Knox, Lawyer, 201 Park avenue. 8 29 4

BEEF cow for sale; nine years old; in fine condition. Enquire Fanwood postoffice. 8 30 3

HIGH School girl wishes board; terms moderate. Address A. B., Press office. 8 30 2

WANTED—A competent woman to do general housework; a good plain cook who will also assist with washing; good references required. Apply at 319 East Seventh St. 8 30 2

NEWLY decorated rooms with strictly first-class table; also table board. 1121 Putnam avenue. 8 30 6

WANTED—Three good, sober, honest men; good paying business. Apply at 125 East Front street. 8 30 3

WANTED—To exchange free and clear vacant lots for house and lot. All kinds of real estate bought, sold or exchanged; houses and rooms to rent. C. E. Utter, 322 West Front street. 8 30 2

LARGE furnished room to let, with or without board; terms reasonable. 94 Elm place. 8 30 3

WANTED—One unfurnished room, on lower floor, for single person. Address One Room, care Press. 8 30 3

7 ROOM house to let. 645 East Sixth street; $14.

STORE to let; $15.

12 ROOM house to let; 533 Belvidere avenue; $45. Charles H. Hand, 819 Watchung avenue. 8 29 3 eod

SALESMEN WANTED—Exceptional opportunity. Address Ward & Co., 104 McWhorter street, Newark, N. J. 8 29 tf eod

CHEAP, to close an estate; property, 113 Westervelt avenue corner Jackson avenue; lot 100 x 165 Apply Chas. J. Silvers, Executor, 772 Broad street, Newark, N. J. 8 27 3 s-m-w

OLD PAPERS for sale; put up in packages of 100 for 20c. Apply at this office. First come, first served 2 26 tf eod

TO LET—10-room house. John Ross, East Sixth street. 8 27 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board, at 219 East Fifth street. 8 29 1m

WANTED—An experienced girl for general housework; white preferred. 80 Washington avenue. 8 29 tf

Early Fall Sale of School Necessities

THURSDAY'S SPECIALS

6 for 39c GOOD SIZE HUCK TOWELS —Special for Thursday.

At 6½c Regular 12½c BOURETTE WHITE STRIPE LAWN.

☞ Watch this block for daily specials.

Fabrics Suitable For Children's School Dresses

At 39c—All shades in Scotch Plaids.
At 50c—Large and Small Plaids in light weight wool, very suitable for early fall.
At 45c—Washable PANAMA Suitings.
At 50c—Light weight Mixed Tweed
At 10c, 12c, 15c—White Apron Checks.
At 17c—Medium weight Figured Madras, for children's dresses and shirt waists.
At 12½c—Large line of DRESS PERCALES.
At 12½c—Various stripes and dots in Galatea.
At 12½c—Colored Duck Suitings, cloth design.

School Hose

Learn to order by number and thus always get what you want.

No. 5—Medium weight Boys' and Girls' School Hose..... 12c
No. 10—Extra quality Children's School Hose, medium weight, 15c
No. 15—Misses' Lisle Thread Hose, special,..... 19c
No. 20—Boys' Heavy Ribbed School Hose 20c
No. 25—Boys' Medium Weight Extra Quality School Hose,..... 25c
No. 30—Boys' Heavy Ribbed School Hose 25c
No. 35—Children's Medium Rib and weight Hose..... 35c

Machine Torchon Lace for trimming school dresses, 5c and 10c per yard.

Large Line of Embroideries, 3c and upwards

Rummage Sale.

Roasting Pan,	Poker	ALL FOR 25c
Opal Decorated Pin Tray	Match Safe
Tooth Brush Holder.	Potato Knife
1 dozen Butter Dishes.	Rolling Pin
Frying Pan.	Potato Masher
Stove Lifter.	Box Stove Blacking

Tuesday, Wednesday

The original price of this list amounts to over $1.00.
Here is a chance to save over 75c on $1.00 worth of merchandise.

Hill & Shupp

FOR SALE CHEAP—7-room house, new; lot 40 feet front; flagged and curbed; terms to suit. W. H. Abbott, North avenue. 8 14 tf

FOR SALE—1088 feet front on Park avenue at Oak Tree Station, Lehigh railroad, $2 per foot; get after it quick if you want to make money. F. M. Bacon, 103 North avenue. 6 1 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence Office, 23 Somerset place. 5 4 tf

SIX-ROOM flat, with improvements. Call 30 Somerset place. 5 6 tf

THE highest cash price paid for household goods, furniture, etc. Fred W. Hand, Auctioneer, 136 East Second St. 'Phone 1722. 4 25 tf

WILL be pleased to have a description of your property for sale or exchange. William Jeffery, 221 Park avenue. 8 29 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for a paying business; 90 acres fertile soil near school, church and village; running stream; 2 houses and buildings in best condition; all stock and machinery; price $6,000, free and clear; for free and clear property. Ira L. LaRue, Coward building. 8 26 tf

PAINTER and practical paperhanger will work for owners or estates; has all tools; first-class work; best materials; estimates given. Address Paperhanger, care Press. 8 30 3

FOR SALE — Farm near Fanwood depot; over twenty acres; would make fine poultry farm; easy terms. Charles L. Moffett, Attorney, 309 North avenue. 8 23 tf

WANTED—Married man to take charge and work ten acre poultry and truck farm, close to town, comfortable house and moderate salary to steady man with some experience. Address with full particulars and references, M. C. L., Press office. 8 30 2

FOR SALE—Properties from $1,600 to $17,000 to close estate, all in fine condition and good paying investments, and other properties for sale and rent; insurance placed in best companies; also several good lots for sale very reasonable. Mulford's real estate office, opposite depot. 7 15 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, 309 North avenue. tf

FOR RENT—Immediate possession; charming little house, new, all improvements, 8 rooms and bath. Apply 809 Kensington avenue. 8 30 3

YOUNG German girl wants place as cook; 6 years' reference. Call Swedish intelligence office, 23 Somerset place. 8 30 2

WANTED—Carpenter (non-union) and man handy with tools to assist, special work may last six or eight weeks. Address Handy, Press office. 8 30 2

ELEVEN-ROOM French roofed house; all improvements; barn and large grounds; rent low. Inquire 95 Westervelt avenue. 8 30 6

WANTED — German girl as good general housewerker; must have good reference; good wages. Call between 5 and 7 o'clock at 1001 Central avenue. 8 31 3

TO LET—Furnished rooms, with or without board; bath, gas, steam heat; terms moderate. 223 Somerset St.

WANTED—First class waitress and chambermaid: call at once; references required. H. Briske's Intelligence Office, 409 Watchung avenue.

FOR SALE — Up to-date dwelling; plenty of fruit and shade trees; convenient to station. For particulars address Dwelling, care Daily Press. 8 31 4

HOUSE AND LOT for sale on Leland avenue, about one minute walk from trolley. Call 228 Leland avenue. 8 31 3

WE FILLED 2,124 POSITIONS

last month. Could have filled more if we could have found the right men. During 1903 we listed over 25,000 high grade opportunities. Positions paying from $1,000 to $6,000 a year now open for competent Salesmen, Executive, Clerical and Technical men. Offices in 19 cities. High grade exclusively. If you are a capable man write for plan and booklet.

HAPGOODS (Inc.), Brain Brokers
Suite 512, 309 Broadway, New York

WANTED:

Orders for Drawn Work Sheets and Pillow Cases, Embroidery and Plain and Fancy Sewing of all kinds. Lessons given. Address
8 31 tf M. A., Press Office.

AUCTIONEER LATOURETTE says
he had tender perspiring feet since childhood . .
Thorp's Foot Relief
cured them. Ask him about it. 50c per bottle. All druggists.

THE OLIVER TYPEWRITER.
JAMES BRONIS, Agent.
Olivers rented. Other makes repaired.
A postal to P. O. Box 761 brings Bronis. 8 4 1m

THE WALDORF
132-134 Crescent Ave., Plainfield, N.J.
Desirable rooms with board, all conveniences, refined surroundings, superior table, excellent service, transient and table guests accommodated. Summer season, United States Hotel, Ocean Grove, N. J. E. V. and A. L. Waldorf.

USE PRESS WANT ADS

HONOR TO THE DEAD

Monument to Confederates Who Fell at Bull Run.

UNVEILED ON OLD BATTLE GROUND

Governor Montague and General Corbin Eulogized the Bravery and Fighting Qualities of Southern Troops in the War.

GAINESVILLE, Va., Aug. 31.—Troops of the United States army, General Corbin in command, participated at Groveton in the dedication of a monument to the memory of the Confederate dead of the first battle of Bull Run, fought forty-two years ago. The principal address was delivered by Governor Montague. General Corbin spoke briefly, and J. B. McCabe of Leesburg also participated.

Troops of cavalry converged at Groveton from Thoroughfare, Manassas and Gainesville, all arriving at the exact hour appointed. Over every road leading to the place soldiers equipped for war were to be seen.

The exercises at the monument began with prayer by Chaplain Newson of the Seventh cavalry. The unveiling was done by the Bull Run auxiliary, Daughters of the Confederacy, assisted by the Manassas auxiliary and the Eighth chapter of the same organization as well as the Women's auxiliary of R. E. Lee camp, Mrs. James E. Alexander presiding. Music was furnished by the Seventh cavalry band.

After the unveiling the citizens and troops adjourned to a nearby grove, where the speechmaking took place.

Governor Montague reviewed the splendid fighting qualities of the Confederate troops as displayed in the Bull Run battles. This devotion to duty and splendid courage, he said, was the only redeeming feature of war, and this was the lesson which the cultivation of the memory of the dead of that day should teach.

General Corbin identified himself as a Virginian and congratulated the state on its dead heroes and its living gentlemen and the United States army for the privilege of learning lessons of warfare on the historic ground to the end that the injunction of George Washington might be carried out, "In time of peace prepare for war."

After the exercises a luncheon was served under the trees. The practice march of General Bell's troops from Thoroughfare was declared to be satisfactory. Five divisions were dispatched over as many roads, and all reached their destination at precisely the time ordered.

General Corbin and staff were escorted from headquarters camp by Captain Brewer's troop of cavalry as a guard of honor.

Learned Men Gathered at Basel.

BASEL, Switzerland, Aug. 31.—The second international congress of the history of religions opened here today. Over 300 learned men from all parts of the world were present. Professor von Orelli of Basel welcomed the delegates. Among the other speakers was Dr. Hauptmann of Baltimore, who addressed the congress in behalf of the United States government. It was announced that the object of the conference was purely scientific. A propaganda in favor of any particular sect would not be allowed.

Senator Johnson For Governor.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 31.—Harmony characterized the Democratic state convention, which was held at the International auditorium here. Former State Senator John A. Johnson was unanimously nominated for governor. Following is the full ticket named: Governor, John A. Johnson, St. Peter; lieutenant governor, Fendall G. Winston, Minneapolis; secretary of state, John E. King, Red Lake Falls; treasurer, Byron J. Mosher, Stillwater; attorney general, T. J. McDermid, St. Paul.

Officer Shot by Negro.

DANVILLE, Va., Aug. 31.—Officer John J. Hall, who was shot by a negro desperado here, is still alive and in all probability will recover. Chief of Police J. B. Akers telegraphed to Portsmouth for bloodhounds to put on the trail of the escaping negro, but was unable to secure the animals, and he is trying to get dogs from the state penitentiary. Four negro suspects have been arrested near Chatham.

Commander Perry Retires.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Commander James H. Perry of the bureau of steam engineering will retire for age today with the rank of captain. With him goes from the active list of the navy one of the last of the volunteer officers who entered the navy during the civil war. He is now ill in this city with typhoid fever.

President Ready to Resign.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 31.—It is reported at Asuncion, capital of Paraguay, that President Ezzurra is willing to resign, but that so far he has been dissuaded from so doing by Generals Caballero and Escobada, who, actuated by personal reasons, have brought pressure to bear upon the executive.

Descendant of Schuyler Dead.

GENEVA, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Walter S. Church is dead here, aged seventy-two years. He was a direct descendant of General Philip Schuyler and of Jonathan Trumbull. He was a member of the hydrographic survey of the Croton watershed and later in the employ of the Peruvian government.

Servia Wants Six Millions.

BELGRADE, Servia, Aug. 31.—The government proposes to raise a loan of $6,000,000 for the purpose of extending the railway system of the kingdom.

MARX M[illegible]

Officers Searching For Bodies of Jew Peddler and Boy.

COLCHESTER, Conn., Aug. 31.—That Gershon E. Marx, now held in the Norwich county jail, is the perpetrator of a series of cold blooded murders probably without precedent in the history of Connecticut is the belief of the state officials, who have begun a systematic search for bodies on the Marx farm. Four murders and an attempt to poison another man can, it is believed by these officials, be traced to Marx.

The bodies of two of Marx's victims, Joe Pavol and Joe Palm, have already been found, and Marx is awaiting trial charged with the murder of Pavol, his wife being held as a witness for the state. The two bodies for which the search was begun are those of an eighteen-year-old boy and a Hebrew peddler.

The boy, who was known as Harry, arrived in New York from Russia about three years ago, and he came here soon after to work for Marx. He worked on the farm for about six months and then suddenly disappeared. Marx was asked to explain the lad's absence and said he had gone to Hartford to find employment. Beyond that he would not talk about the boy.

The Hebrew peddler went to the Marx house one evening two years ago, and he was not seen alive again so far as known.

ZEIGLER HOLDS THE BODY.

Los Angeles Doctor Will Ask Police Protection at Chicago.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 31.—The body of Mrs. J. P. McVicker, widow of the former Chicago theatrical manager, together with all of her effects at the Pasadena hotel, where she died, are being held by her physician, Dr. L. C. H. Zeigler, who has indicated that he will not surrender the body or the effects on the order of her stepson, Horace McVicker of Chicago.

Dr. Zeigler is quoted as saying that he will start east with the body of Mrs. McVicker as soon as a few preliminaries are arranged and expects to reach Chicago on Monday next. He states that he has made arrangements for police protection there and will resist any effoft on the part of the Chicago relatives to gain possession of the body. A conference of the California relatives of the deceased was held in the offices of local attorneys here, and it is said it was decided to make a vigorous contest for a share of the McVicker estate.

Wanted a Game Bird From Senator.

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 31.—United States Senator W. A. Clark was attacked here by an insane man known on the streets as Joe Peg, who thought the senator had been breaking the game laws and was carrying a grouse in his pocket and who threatened to take the senator's life. Peg followed Senator Clark several blocks, persistently calling upon him to hand over the grouse. Senator Clark ran panting into the lobby of the Florence hotel and demanded protection. He was sure that Peg had a gun, as he threatened to shoot unless the senator would give up his game bird. The insane man was finally overpowered.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; south winds.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Closing Stock Quotations.

Money on call nominally 1 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 3½@4 per cent; exchanges, $207,091,019; balances, $15,481,583.

Closing prices:

Amal. Copper	57½	N. Y. Central	122½
Atchison	81½	Norf. & West	68⅝
B. & O.	86⅝	Penn. R. R.	135⅝
Brooklyn R. T.	54⅝	Reading	62⅝
C., C., C. & St. L.	78	Rock Island	25⅝
Ches. & Ohio	38⅝	St. Paul	154⅝
Chi. & Northw.	187	Southern Pac.	56⅞
Erie	27⅝	Southern Ry.	28⅞
Gen. Electric	166	South. Ry. pf.	94½
Ill. Central	138⅛	Sugar	131¼
Lackawanna	274⅝	Texas Pacific	31½
Louis. & Nash.	120⅝	Union Pacific	100½
Manhattan	155½	U. S. Steel	12½
Metropolitan	119⅝	U. S. Steel pf.	60⅝
Missouri Pac.	97⅛	West. Union	90

New York Markets.

HAY—Quiet; shipping, 67½c.; good to choice, 95c.

HOPS—Steady; state, common to choice, 1903, 27@35c.; olds, 7@13c.; Pacific coast, 1903, 26@30c.; olds, 7@12c.

WOOL—Firm; domestic fleece, 32@35c.

PORK—Quiet; family, $14.50@15; short clear, $13.50@15.50; mess, $13.25@13.75.

POTATOES—Steady; Long Island, $1.50@1.62; Jersey and southern, $1.25@1.40; Jersey sweets, $1.50@2.25.

WHEAT—Quiet, but steady.

CORN—Quiet, but steady.

OATS—Dull and ½c. lower.

BUTTER—Firm; good demand; extra western creamery, 19c.; extra nearby prints, 20c.

EGGS—Steady; fair demand; nearby firsts, 19½c. at mark; western firsts, 19@20c. at mark.

CHEESE—Quiet, but steady; New York full creams, choice to fancy, 8¼@9¼c.; do., fair to good, 8@8½c.

FRESH FRUITS—Apples, Alexander, hand picked, per double head barrel, $1.50@2; Gravenstein, Wealthy and Duchess of Oldenburg, $1.50@1.75; Twenty Ounce, $1.50@2; Codling and Maiden Blush, $1.25@1.50; Fall Pippin, $1.25@1.75; Nyack Pippin, $1.25@1.50; Orange Pippin, $1.25; open heads, $1@1.50; windfalls and common, 50c.@$1; pears, Bartlett, per barrel, $3@4.50; Clapp's Favorite, $3@4.50; Flemish Beauty, $1.50@2.25; cooking sorts, $1@2; plums, copper and table varieties, per 8 pound basket, 20@25c.; egg and green gage, 10@20c.; Lombard, 14@16c.; common green and Burbank, 10@15c.; peaches, Jersey, per basket, 35@85c.

LIVE POULTRY—Steady; fair demand; fowls, 13½@14c.; old roosters, 9@9¼c.; spring chickens, 13@15c.; ducks, old, 11@12c.; do., young, 12@13c.

DRESSED POULTRY—Steady; fair demand; fowls, choice fresh killed, 14½c.; do, fair to good, 12½@14c.; old roosters, 9½c.; nearby broilers, choice, 17@19c.; do., fair to good, 15@16c.; western do., choice, 16c.; do., fair to good, 13@15c.

DRESSED MEATS—Beef slow at 7@9c. per pound for native sides, with a little extra beef selling at 9½c.; city dressed veals at 8½@13c. per pound; country dressed at 8@11½c.; grassers and buttermilks at 5½@7c.; mutton steady at 6@8c. per pound.

Live Stock Markets.

CATTLE—Supply light; market steady; choice, $5.60@5.85; prime, $5.30@5.50; fair, $3.30@3.80; veal calves, $7@7.50.

HOGS—Receipts light; market active; prime heavies, $5@5.35; mediums and heavy Yorkers, $5.05@5.10; light Yorkers, $5.25@5.05; pigs, $5.20@5.30; roughs, $4@4.75.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply light; market steady; prime wethers, $4.20@4.40; common sheep, $1.50@2; spring lambs, $5.50@6.50.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

We call your attention to our fine display of

New Wallpapers.

We can't describe the patterns, but they are new, striking and effective, and with our large assortment we are sure to please.

Paints, Oils and Varnishes

WOOLSTON & BUCKLE,
145 North Avenue.

APPEARANCE COUNTS

when you want to sell or rent your property. Is your house attractively painted, decorated and papered? You can depend on us always for superior work in this line.

Convincingly Low Prices.

JAS. C. HANSEN.
141 East Front St.

G. A. Woolsey's Standard Paint.
The Best Ready-Mixed Paint in the Market.
—FOR SALE BY—
J. M. CAHART,
PAINTER AND DECORATOR.
DEALER IN
Paints, Oils, Glass, Wallpaper, Etc
Painting, Papering and Decorating. Estimates on application.
201 Park Ave., Cor. Second St.

I. N. WYCKOFF.
PAINTER and DECORATOR,
556 West Front Street.
Papering a specialty. First-class work my motto. Glass furnished and Glazing done.
TELEPHONE 292-L.

1904 WALL PAPERS.
Imported and American Goods.
C. CONOVER & CO.,
Decorators, Painters & Paperhangers. Window and Plate Glass.
115 Elmwood Place. 'Phone 226-J.

DRUGGISTS.

PRESCRIPTIONS
Called for and Medicines Delivered.
Telephone, write or call at any time. Let us know what drug store goods you need, and we'll send them right out, without extra charge.
Powers' Somerset Pharmacy.
45 Somerset St. Tel. 161

SODA
With Fruit Syrups Second to None.
MALLINSON'S
LIBERTY AND FOURTH STS.
Sugars are one of my specialties

MILLER'S VEGETABLE BLOOD PURIFIER
combines the best Tonic and Blood Purifying Remedies of the Vegetable Kingdom. Such as Sarsaparilla, Clover Tops, Golden Seal, Turkey Corn, Sassfrass, Burdock and Mandrake. Contains no mercury.
DUDLEY S. MILLER, Druggist,
Park Ave. and Fourth St.

Seasonable Goods at Nagle's
Nagle's Egg Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, Extract of Malt, Beef, Wine and Iron. Blands Iron Pills.
Nagle's Blood Purifier and Sarsaparilla, just the medicine for building one up. Moth Balls, Camphor, etc.
C. M. NAGLE,
Telephone 477 r. Front and Grove Sts.

Hodges Pharmacy.
Reliable goods in all Departments.
Agency for Belle Mead Sweets.
Tel. 210 A. Y.M.C.A. Building.

HARRY K. LISTER,
161 North Ave. Opp. Depot.
Bicycles, Sundries, Phonographs and Records.
Edison Gold Moulded Records....35c
Columbia X. P. Records.....25c
Bicycles and Phonographs Repaired.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
WATCHES, CLOCKS & JEWELRY.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd.
Here's where your cash will do MOST good for you—where accommodation's yours if you want it!

"Money in your Pocket"
The way we're putting prices DOWN means good money in your pocket—we MEAN "reductions" when we talk 'em, and EVERY item in the house has been hard hit. NO reservations of any kind!

You can have goods sent home now or later—all we want is your WORD. Cash or accommodation terms.

See them on Main Floor! Marked in plain figures!

40 different kinds of Couches
at a good big cut, to make "things hum." You can't find their match in value anywhere!

4 out of the number:
$5.98 Velour Couches, best steel springs—heavy fringe. Worth $8.00.
$6.98 Velour Couches, deep tufting, richly fringed. Worth $9.00.
$9.98 Velour Couches—all hair filled, deep tufting. Worth $14.00.
$15.00 Velour Couches, deep tufting, solid oak frame. Worth $20.00.

Those 5 Carloads of Brass Trimmed Enameled Beds
are moving fast—a lot of good patterns still left for wise buyers!
½ PRICE!

$1.79 for White enameled Beds—worth $3.50

$5.00 for White enameled Iron Bed, brass rail at head and foot—worth $10.00.

$10.00 for White Enameled Bed, with brass rail at head and foot—heavy brass upright rods

Worth $20.00.

Included in "Midsummer Sale".
Superb "Exposition" Furniture Samples
Just received from late Furniture Exposition, Grand Central Palace (Lex. Ave. and 43d St.)—every piece a marvel of perfect cabinet making, showing maker's finest work!
ALL MARKED FROM ¼ TO ⅓ OFF!!
All Refrigerators and Ice Chests to go cheap! We NEVER "carry over" this stock!

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Ltd.
Be sure you see "No. 73" and first name "AMOS" before entering our store.
ACCOUNTS OPENED—EASY PAYMENTS
73 MARKET ST., NEWARK, N. J.
Near Plane St., West of Broad St.
All trolleys transfer to our door.

HENRY MEHRTENS,
The Manufacturing Confectioner.
Pure Home-made Candies, Chocolates and Bon Bons fresh daily. Cold Drinks of all kinds. Crushed Fruits. Ice Cream and Water Ices.
Orders delivered promptly.
Telephone. 131 East Front St.

JOHN J. LEAHY,
PLUMBING AND HEATING.
Sewer and Water Connections.
First-Class Work at Reasonable Figures.
302 Richmond St., near Third.

M. ARMSTRONG,
Plumbing and Tinning.
330 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
TELEPHONE 232.

Mc CULLOUGH'S
STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
210 Park Avenue.

Allen B. Laing,
Electrician —
Tel. 333-J. 134 North Ave.

WILLIAM H. POPE,
ELECTRICIAN.
All kinds of Electrical work done at reasonable prices.
116 North Avenue.

LIEFKE & LAING,
Insurance and Real Estate
No. 146 Park Avenue.
Real Estate Appraised. Properties Sold and Rented. Loans Negotiated.

TenEyck & Harris,
—DEALERS IN—
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office 121 Watchung Avenue. Branch Office Frank Rowley's Drug Store, 218 W. Front st.
TELEPHONE 28-F.

PRESS WANT ADS PAY

William Hand & Sons
MOVING VANS and STORAGE WAREHOUSE for Furniture, Pianos, etc.
136 E. 2nd St., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1722.
TRUCKMEN AND RIGGERS.
All work will receive prompt attention.

W. W. WARNOCK,
THE BAKER,
144 West Front St.,
COMPTON'S OLD STAND.
Bread, Cakes, Pies, Etc.
Made of the best Materials.
Early Morning Delivery.
ICE CREAM A SPECIALTY.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Avenue.
William D. Thickstun, John P. Emmons.
Telephone 601.

JOHN JOHNSTON.
All the best grades of
COAL.
929 South Ave. 'Phone 193.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

E. B. MAYNARD.
New Shop, New Furniture, Best Service.
Tonsorial Artist.
Also choice Cigars.
141 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Expressman and Truckman.
All kinds of Express and Trucking business promptly attended to.
Leave your orders at store of Joseph Sattels, Pianos and Organs, No. 108 North Avenue, and the same will receive immediate attention.

TRY
DOBBINS'
NICKEL YARA CIGARS.
228 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

Linden Lodge, Linden, N. J.
87 Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.
Prudential Building, Newark, N. J.
768 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.
10 West 23d Street, New York City.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

CESSPOOLS AND GARBAGE.

MRS. JOHN BROWN
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
From $3.00 Upwards.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North Avenue. Postoffice box 718
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

GARBAGE REMOVED
Walter M. Ingraham.
TERMS MODERATE.
Address P. O. Box 635, City

Best Lehigh COAL.
Order now and save money.
KEELY COAL CO.
725 South Ave. Telephone 162.

CHAS. E. VAIL,
103 PARK AVENUE,
Watches, Jewelry and Silverware.
Repairing in all its branches.
EYES EXAMINED FREE.

HERMAN HANSEN,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
Estimates Furnished.
269 Watchung Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Tel. 454 R.

Plainfield Window Cleaning Co
Floors Oiled and Polished.
Furniture Packed for Shipping.
General House Cleaning a Specialty.
Frank DeHart, 402 E. Third St.
Wm. A. Kline, 611 W. Third St.

TITUS H. LAURY,
Mason and Builder,
Office, 323 E. Front St.
Tile Setting, Mantel & Front work

Husbands And Wives

Just a Few of the Well Known Types

"NO matrimony for me!" exclaimed the very eligible bachelor of forty-five. In order to rob this remark of sensationalism I must add that the subject was being discussed in general.

"Were you ever in love?" soulfully inquired the woman who scented a romance.

"Yes, when I was twenty-four I was engaged," replied the bachelor, "and I'm thankful enough to say I broke it off while there was yet time."

"Why, what was the trouble? Didn't she love you?"

"She loved me too much, according to those who maintain that jealousy is a sign of true love. She felt from the moment I told her I loved her as if she owned me body and soul. She ordered me right and left. Woe to me if I was not on hand at all hours! And if I was five minutes late she never rested until she found out with what girl I had spent those five minutes while she was having nervous prostration waiting for me! Each time we met it was one perpetual catechism, one perpetual recrimination and 'do you love me?' Finally my common sense came to the rescue, and I said to her: 'My dear, we are both young; let us begin all over again and forget this unpleasant episode. If this is hell before marriage, what will it be afterward?' So that was the end. The girl's friends cut me dead, but I didn't care. I felt I had done the girl a service as well as myself and had prevented one more addition to the ranks of jealous married couples."

"Are there many of those?"

"Are there many? My dear child, jealousy is the bane of married life. The wife believes she owns her husband body and soul and that he mustn't even bat his eyelids save in her direction. The husband is equally sure that he ought to hold a first mortgage on his wife's private thoughts even. Hence trouble in the shape of continual bickerings."

"What about the husband who believes he has the right to flirt, but who would sand bag his wife if she attempted the same?"

"Every town, every district, every summer resort, is full of his kind. 'I am my own master. I refuse to give an account of myself to any woman. If she chooses to object to anything that I do she can leave me.'"

"FLIRTS."

"Have you any type of married woman sufficiently bad to offset this?"

"Yes, the neurotic wife. We are having a good deal of her in literature just now. She is modeled on that supersensitive creature Marna in 'The Confessions of a Wife.' Marna, with her perpetual soul rackings and feeling dissections, nearly drives her husband distracted and finally pretty nearly estranges him for good and all."

"Don't forget the married woman flirt, and also the stupidly virtuous woman who takes no interest in her husband's affairs?"

"To tell you the truth, I'm not so against the married woman flirt as I might be. She is pretty, interesting and clever, and more often than not her flirtations are harmless, and they serve the purpose of engrossing her husband's attention and keeping him out of mischief himself. In fact, I want to tell you that one of the most congenial married couples I have ever met were both pronounced flirts and flirted even in the presence of each other with the most amicable understanding for their little weakness. But don't ask me to talk about the bundle of clothes and prim virtue, if virtue consists in being mentally and physically a blank, that so many women become after marriage. We all know the sort of woman. Her husband can only talk to her about three things—the children, the kitchen and herself. Give, oh, give me the married people who are good chums, who avoid a quarrel as they would fire, who know how to forgive as they know how to be forgiven and who have enough respect for each other's individuality never to nag, but to agree and disagree on certain subjects as men friends do, and on all the other subjects to be enthusiastic together like children." MAUD ROBINSON.

LITTLE FRANCE

A ROMANCE OF THE DAYS WHEN "THE GREAT LORD HAWKE" WAS KING OF THE SEA

BY

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY

Author of "Commodore Paul Jones," "Reuben James," "For the Freedom of the Sea," etc.

Copyright, 1901, by D. Appleton & Co., New York.

CHAPTER XXII.

LIKE A BIRD IN THE AIR.

GRAFTON sprang lightly to the shore, and finding a suggestion of a path up the cliff, clambered slowly over the stones, until he stood on the narrow shelf of rock at the foot of the tower. He threw his head far back and looked up along its slanting surface. The clouds had broken now, and though the sky was still adrift with them racing before the wind, he could see, around the black edge of the crenellated top, a star or two.

As he gazed upward that peculiar optical delusion which seizes people who look up at the sheer pitch of a lofty building came upon him. It seemed to him as though the castle were swaying toward him; as though in another moment it might fall and crush him. He lost all sense of the considerable inclination of the tower, or if there were any variation from the perpendicular; it seemed to him to slope back over his head, instead of away from him. It was an appalling sight. He stood at gaze a second or two and looked straight before him.

"This will never do," he murmured, "if I hesitate longer I shall be lost."

He leaned his forehead against the wall and closed his eyes, breathing a prayer at the same time, and having recovered his calmness thereby, he slowly and cautiously began the ascent. He put his foot on the first projecting stone and reached across the rough surface until his fingers clutched another jutting block. Then he swung himself into the air.

He looked neither up nor down, nor sidewise, but stared straight at the wet stones in front of him as he monotonously plodded up. He dared not look elsewhere, in fact. He found the angle between the tower and the wet presently and with infinite care he made his way painfully upward. Once he glanced quickly above him. The goal was miles away, yet it seemed as if he had been crawling up those rocks for hours.

Once his foot slipped on a round damp stone, and it was only by a superhuman effort, aided by a little larger projection which happened to be under his right hand, that he kept himself from falling. But presently, as he fearfully made the slow ascent, his courage returned to him. He forgot the danger and began to feel himself immune from it. England and her service came back to him, Anne sprang into his mind. She was there, perhaps, behind that window, from which the light streamed out into the darkness, waiting for him, dreaming of him; he should see her in a moment.

The thought lent him wings, he forgot the dizzy depths below him, the unscaled heights above him, he forgot his imminent deadly peril, he forgot himself, in fact. However, he relaxed none of his precaution, as he painfully wormed himself up the face of the tower. With each step he was drawing nearer to Anne, that was the burden of his thoughts.

Presently his head struck the projection at the foot of the balcony surrounding the oriel window. Here was the most difficult part of the ascent; but he was full of confidence now. A few more cautious efforts and his hands clasped the coping of the balcony. Slowly, painfully, he drew himself up, swung his feet over the wall, and dropped softly down to the stone floor.

He was trembling under the strain he had undergone; and until that moment he had not realized what it had been; cold perspiration had broken out on his forehead, his hands were bleeding, but he had achieved the feat. An undertaking, by the way, had he but known it, which the unfortunate Baron de Croisic had only compassed because he had been aided by a rope dropped by the hands of the fair Jehane. Grafton's ascent, therefore, had been unparalleled.

HE STOOD AT GAZE.

He waited a few moments until he had recovered himself, and then, although he was consumed by an eager desire, without looking at the shuttered window, which happened to have the curtains drawn before it as well, he rose slowly to his feet; he took the coil of rope from his neck drooped it down to the foot of the tower, waited a few moments until he felt a slight tug upon it, and then hauled up the rope, to the end of which was fastened one of the heavy grappling irons, or grapnels, from the ship. He hooked it securely over the coping, coiled the signal halliards up at his feet with sailor-like care, and thus having secured his retreat turned toward the window.

Barred shutters fastened inside prevented him from reaching the glass of the window or the hangings therein. He could see nothing. Here was an unforseen obstacle. After all that he had gone through was he to be stopped by a shutter?

He stood a moment thinking deeply and yet seeing no way. Suddenly he remembered that there were other windows on the other sides of the oriel. He stepped quickly around to the other face, and by happy chance found one open. The guiding light had come from it. The curtains hanging before it were fluttering in the air. He drew them aside a little and cautiously looked in.

The room presented an entirely different appearance from his remembrance of it the night in which he had held Anne in his arms there. Then it had been bare, unfurnished, empty; now, thick luxurious rugs were stretched across the floor, inviting couches and chairs, and several gilded tables were scattered around the apartment. Rich hangings depended from the wall. On one table by a vase of roses an elaborate candelabra displayed many lights. A spinet stood against the wall of the room, a piece of music lying upon its rack. The whole room was filled with signs of a woman's occupancy. What woman?

There was a shawl over a chair, a shawl he had seen Anne wear; a workbasket sat upon a low table, and in front of it lay a careless little slipper. He knew its jeweled buckle. He longed to get to it. There was no other foot in France—in the world, even—for that dainty slipper but hers, he thought fatuously. In an instant he divined that Anne had indeed come back and had chosen to make this room her boudoir. His heart gave a great leap as he thought of that association of ideas by which she had been led to establish herself in this spot sacred to both of them.

He would see her in a moment perhaps. She might be in the adjoining room yonder. His heart beat louder than it had on the tower wall. To enter the room seemed almost a sacrilege. Still, there was no other way.

Just as he was about to climb over the sill he heard a footstep in the corridor outside the room. For an instant he thought it might be hers, but a second thought undeceived him. He drew back, let the curtain fall, and waited with his eye comprehending the room through the corner of the drapery. The door opened, the hangings before it were lifted, and the sturdy figure of Josette appeared in the doorway.

"Well!" ejaculated the maid, as she stepped into the room and stood looking about her with her arms akimbo, "that's done, at any rate. Mon Dieu! How beautiful Mademoiselle Anne looked to-night! But how sad her heart! 'Helas, Josette,' she said, as I was dressing her, 'I care not how beautiful I am now.' And yet Monsieur le Comte is a gallant gentleman, noble and rich. God send me such a lover some day. Poor Monsieur de Vitre, how sad he looks, too; and as for that English knight, Sir Grafton—well, 'tis he that mademoiselle loves; yes, for him she breaks her heart. 'Twas for him she always looked back, back, back, on that hateful ship. Me, I like not the sea. I'm glad 'tis not I who have so many lovers. One will suit me, if I may choose. That poor Englishman. Dame, if I had been he I had stolen her away willy-nilly. She would have forgiven him, I know; love like hers forgives all. But now she will never see him again——"

"Don't be too sure of that, Josette," whispered Grafton in her ear.

Taking advantage of a moment when she had turned her back to the window, he had slipped into the room and approached her. He must trust some one, and who better than the girl whom he knew to be devoted to her mistress and not unfriendly toward him either?

She promptly opened her lips to scream, an attempt which Grafton frustrated by clapping one hand over her mouth and forcing her into a chair with the other, sternly bidding her be quiet as he did so.

"Is it a spirit?" she wailed. "Oh, monsieur, for the love of Heaven——"

"Nonsense!" softly answered Grafton, "be silent! Can't you see and feel that I am alive?"

"But we left you in Quebec, ill, wounded——"

"Did you think that I would stay there forever? I have recovered, as you see, and I have come for mademoiselle. Where is she? Is there not some place where we can talk? Will any come here?"

"No one will come here, monsieur, at least not now, I think. I alone have access to mademoiselle's apartments."

"Where is she?"

"At dinner, monsieur."

"Oh, and is there any one else here?"

"Yes, monsieur, the Marquis de Chabot gives a dinner to Monsieur le Marechal de Conflans and the officers of his fleet to announce the betrothal of his grand-daughter to——"

"De Vitre?"

"No, monsieur, certainly not. He is much too little for so grand a lady as mademoiselle."

"To whom, then?"

"To his old friend, Monsieur de Kersaint."

"Good Heaven!" exclaimed Grafton "The other man!"

"Yes, monsieur."

"And the countess, does she consent?"

"Her consent was not asked, monsieur. The marquis announced it when they arrived three days ago. 'Twas settled before we came."

"And de Vitre?"

"He is in agony, monsieur. Monsieur le Marquis laughed at her when she tried to tell him. He said it was nothing, impossible, preposterous. Oh, you should see that poor young man, his heart is breaking!"

"I care nothing for his heart, Josette, but as to mademoiselle?"

"Her heart is breaking too, and she says——"

The maid hesitated, perhaps fearing she was betraying her mistress.

"Yes, what does she say?" he questioned her, bending on her a compelling gaze.

"She says she does not care who it is, since—so long as it is not—you, monsieur."

"O Josette, bless you for those words! What does Monsieur de Vitre intend to do?"

"I know not. He speaks of carrying mademoiselle off, but she will not hear of it. He appealed to her plighted word, but she says she will approach her grandfather in time. He must give her time. The French fleet is going to capture the English, they say. Monsieur de Kersaint and Monsieur de Vitre go with it. Mademoiselle says 'who knows?'—but I ought not to tell you this, monsieur, you are an enemy."

"Not your enemy, Josette, nor mademoiselle's."

"I ought to give monsieur up to the marquis," remarked the Breton girl doubtfully, "he would never forgive me if he knew."

"Do you serve mademoiselle or the marquis, Josette?"

"Mademoiselle," exclaimed the maid fervently.

"And would she give me up, think you?"

"No."

"She loves me?"

"Ah, monsieur!" cried the girl, "you cannot know how she feels. If monsieur could see her with her pale face and with her eyes full of tears! If monsieur could hear her murmuring in her sleep his name! She chose this tower for her room because the window looked toward Canada where she thought monsieur was. Alas, poor mademoiselle!"

"When will she come back here?"

"After the dinner is served, I think, when the gentlemen take their wine."

"Josette, I must be taken where I can see them at the dinner."

"'Tis not possible, monsieur!" cried the girl.

"It must be; there must be some way, some place where you can put me! I remember! Doesn't the armory open from the dining-room?"

"Yes, but——"

"Take me there, then."

"But your uniform! If they see you as you go through the hall?"

"Bring me your long cloak, Josette. We are about the same height, are we not? Wrap that around me. I will draw the hood over my head. You must go with me. Will any one question you?"

"No one, unless we meet Jean-Renaud or the steward, and they are both likely to be in the dining-room."

"We will have to chance that, then. Come, no more objections! 'Tis for the Countess Anne's sake. I must see her. I will save her. Remember, if you betray me, you break your mistress' heart!"

"Very well, monsieur, remain where you are," cried the girl, convinced at last. "I will get the cloak. For Heaven's sake, sir, stay quietly in the room until I return."

[CONTINUED]

ESTATE OF John Dargatz, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber, under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the ninth day of August, 1904, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

WALTER L. HETFIELD, Executor.

8 10 9w

BOICE, RUNYON, & CO.,

PARK AVENUE,

Opp. North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Dealers in

BEST LEHIGH COAL,

LUMBER,

MASON MATERIALS,

&c. &c.

Sole Agents N. J. Pulp Plaster

Use Press Want Ads.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

The Standard Railroad of America.

PROTECTED THROUGHOUT BY THE ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC BLOCK SIGNAL SYSTEM.

On and After June 26, 1904.

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

f 9 26 a m—Main Line Express daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor Cars, for Pittsburg and Cleveland, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

f 2 35 p m—Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily, for Nashville (via Cincinnati and Louisville), Indianapolis, Chicago and St. Louis; Dining Car.

f 6 45 p m—Western Express, daily, with Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, for Pittsburg and Chicago.

f 8 07 p m—Pacific Express, daily, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars for Pittsburg, Toledo and Chicago, daily, for Knoxville, via Shenandoah Valley Route, for Cleveland, except Saturday.

Seaboard Air Line Express, f 1 06 p m daily.

FOR BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH—3 58, 6 56, 9 07, 10 06 a m, 1 04, 10 05 p m On Sunday at 12 56, 9 07, 10 05 a m, 1 04 and 10 07 p m

FOR NEWARK AND NEW YORK—3 02, 4 57, 5 44, 6 12, 6 30, 6 36, 6 54, 7 15, 7 30, 7 45, 8 05, 8 07, 8 10, 8 35, 9 05, 9 45, 9 47, 10 00, 10 17, 10 47, 10 56, 11 05, 11 47 a m, 12 45, 1 04, 1 55, 2 20, 3 15, 3 30, 3 45, 4 42, 4 52, 5 08, 5 24, 5 45, 6 00, 6 27, 6 48, 6 56, 7 05, 7 21, 7 56, 8 32, 8 54, 9 15, 9 45, 10 12, 10 44, 10 47, 11 13, 11 20 (Saturdays only) p m and 12 12 night. Sundays, 3 02, 4 57, 5 20, 7 54, 8 50, 9 50, 9 52, 10 15, 10 27, 10 56 a m, 12 50, 12 56, 1 08, 2 25, 3 46, 4 56, 5 04, 5 45, 7 05, 7 09, 7 35, 7 39, 8 30, 9 04, 9 45, 10 15, 10 44, 11 46, p m and 12 12 night; for New York only, 7 48 a m, and 2 46, 3 49 p m week days.

FOR TRENTON AND PHILADELPHIA—1 01, 3 46, 7 10 (Trenton only), 8 06, 8 38, 9 07, 9 38, 10 06, 11 40 a m, 12 40, 1 04, 3 04, (Trenton only) 3 38, 6 42, 7 35, 7 44, 8 37, 10 06 p m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 9 07, 10 06, 10 40 a m, 1 04, 5 58, 6 42, 7 44, 8 37, and 10 07 p m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Through Vestibuled Express Trains, Buffet Parlor Cars, Passenger Coach, and Combined Coach, 10 05 a m, and 3 35 p m, week-days. Express 1 01, 3 46 8 36 a m, 12 40 p m. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51 and 8 32 (Through Vestibuled Train, Pullman Parlor, Dining and Smoking Cars and wide Vestibule Coaches) a m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY—Via Delaware River Bridge, 1 01 a m, 12 40 and 3 35 p m week days; 1 01 and 9 51 a m, Sundays.

FOR CAPE MAY—Express, 1 01 night, daily.

FOR RAHWAY—1 01, 4 25, 6 40, 6 45, 7 10, 8 06, 9 00, 9 07, 9 46, 11 14, 11 40 a m., 1 21, 1 42, (Saturdays only) 2 04, 2 40 (Saturdays only) 3 11, 3 49, 4 38, 5 09, 5 36, 6 06, 6 37, 6 55, 8 05, (except Saturday), 8 13, 8 19, (except Saturday), 8 28, 8 45, 9 51, 7 05, 7 19, 7 46, 8 13, 8 52, 9 54, 10 07, 11 42 p. m., and 12 50 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 01, 6 51, 8 41, 9 46, 10 25, 10 40 and 11 44 a. m., 12 45, 1 50, 3 47, 5 25, 6 45, 8 15, 7 5 40, 8 58, 7 05, 7 21, 7 44, 8 14, 8 47, 9 13, 10 15, 11 00 and 11 46 p. m.

FOR NEW BRUNSWICK—1 01, 6 45, 7 10, 8 06, 9 07, 11 40 a. m., 12 40, 1 42 (Saturdays only), 3 04, 4 38, 5 09, 5 36, 6 05, (except Saturday) 7 46, 7 55 9 07, 10 03, 10 07 p. m. Sundays, 1 01, 8 51, 9 07, 9 46, 10 40 a. m., 12 40 p. m. and 12 50 night.

FOR WOODBRIDGE AND PERTH AMBOY—6 40, 9 46, 11 14, a m, 1 03, 3 11, 4 50, 5 47, 8 12, 7 19, 9 54 p m, and 12 30 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 25, 11 44 a m, 5 40 and 10 15 p m.

FOR EAST MILLSTONE—7 19 a m, 12 40 and 5 36 p m week-days.

FOR LAMBERTVILLE, PHILLIPSBURG, MANUNKA CHUNK AND STROUDSBURG, VIA TRENTON—8 26, 10 32 a m, 12 40 (Saturdays only), 3 04 and 6 42 p m, week days, 8 51 a m and 6 42 p m Sunday.

FOR FLEMINGTON—10 32 a m and 3 04 p m.

FOR JAMESBURG VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10 a m, 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR FREEHOLD VIA MONMOUTH JUNCTION—7 10, 8 06 11 40 a m, 4 38 and 4 38 p m week-days.

FOR LONG BRANCH, ASBURY PARK, OCEAN GROVE, AND POINTS ON NEW YORK AND LONG BRANCH R. R.—4 25, 8 19 and 9 32, a m, 1 03, 3 03, 3 44, 5 43 and 7 38 p m week-days. Sundays, 9 05 and 10 25 a m, and 5 40 p m. Stop at North Asbury Park for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

FOR BROOKLYN, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats of Pennsylvania Annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

LEAVE NEW YORK FOR ELIZABETH—From West Twenty-third Street Station, 6 00, 6 25, 7 25, 8 10, 8 25, 8 55, 10 05, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 25, 12 55 (Saturdays only), 1 25, 1 55 (Saturdays only), 2 25, 3 05, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 5 15, 5 35, 6 05, 6 40, 6 55, 8 0 12), 9 25, 9 55, 7 25, 9 10, 9 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 45 and 12 10 night. Sundays—2 05, 7 55, 8 25, 8 55, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55, 11 55 a m, 12 55, 1 55, 2 40, 3 55, 4 25, 4 55, 6 10, 6 40, 6 55, 7 25, 7 55, 8 25, 9 25, 9 55, 10 55 p m, and 12 10 night.

"f" Stops on notice to Agent or on signal. For time from Desbrosses and Cortlandt streets consult local time-tables to be procured from agents.

W. W. ATTERBURY, Gen'l M'g'r. J. R. WOOD, Pass. Traffic M'g'r.

GEO. W. BOYD, General Passenger Agent.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF,

EAST FRONT STREET.

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accomodations and private dining room.

Hotel Kensington,

(Licensed)

J. H. STAATS, Prop.,

107, 109, 111 North Avenue.

Everything New and Up to Date. An Inspection Solicited

JOHN WIRTH

Successor to Henry Liefke

Bakery and Confectionery 201-203 W. Front St

Telephone No. 723

All orders delivered at short notice.

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING At DOANE'S, 115 PARK AVE.

LAING MACHINE-AUTO REPAIR COMPANY,

416 Sycamore Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Office—134 North Avenue. Telephone 333-J

GREAT BARGAIN SALE OF

Bicycles, Bicycle Sundries, Pianos, Musical Instruments, Sheet Music. Guns and Ammunition.

S. W. Frucht, 224 W. Front St.

SPECIAL LOW PRICES

For all Summer Dresses. Linen Suits a Specialty.

S. Hirsh, - 432 Watchung Ave

Reading System

New Jersey Central.

Stations in New York foot of Liberty, and South Ferry, Whitehall Streets.

Time Table Corrected August 15, 1904

For New York—2 11, 3 37, 5 03, 6 02, 8 33, 9 37, 11 25, 1 37, 2 37, 4 11, 5 37, 6 35, 8 02, 9 11, 10 00, 11 30 a. m., 12 01, 12 44, 1 12, 2 02, 2 42, 3 44, 4 15, 4 47, 5 22, 5 52, 6 22, 6 52, 7 25, 7 52, 8 22, 9 00, 10 17, 11 30 p. m. Sunday—3 17, 3 37, 5 05, 7 41, 8 01, 8 52, 9 05, 10 05, 11 10 a. m., 12 02 m., 12 58, 1 45, 2 45, 3 17, 3 55, 5 42, 6 45, 8 32, 9 15, 9 32, 9 45, 10 30 p. m.

For Newark—5 02, 6 30, 7 05, 8 07, 7 05, 7 30, 7 45, 8 11, 8 34, 8 46, 9 00, 9 37, 11 05 a. m., 1 15, 2 02, 3 00, 3 44, 5 02, 5 32, 6 32, 7 05, 7 30, 9 00, 9 45, p. m. Sunday—7 41, 8 01, 10 15, 11 10 a. m., 12 02 m., 1 45, 3 17 3 55, 5 42, 6 45, 8 32, 9 15, 9 32, 9 45, 10 30 p. m.

For Somerville—5 02, 7 12, 8 11, 9 34, 9 55, 11 00 a. m., 1 01, 2 02, 3 11, 3 34, (5 02, 6 02, 7 02, 8 07, 9 04, 9 34, 10 43, 11 38 p. m. Sunday—8 11, 9 34, 11 00 a. m., 12 50 night. Sunday—5 45, 11 14 a. m., 2 05, 5 40, 6 07, 6 35, 8 03, 10 15, 11 35, 11 35 p.m.

For Flemington—7 12, 11 00 a. m., 2 11 5 10 6 10 p. m. Sundays—8 45 a. m., 5 07 p. m.

For Phillipsburg and Easton—5 02 8 11, 9 54 a. m., 2 11, 5 10, 6 41 p. m. Sunday—5 45 a. m., 2 05, 6 35 p. m.

For Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5 02, 9 54 a. m., 2 11, 5 10 p. m. Sundays—5 45 a. m., 2 05, 6 35 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5 02, 9 54 a. m; 5 40 p m. Sundays—5 45 a m, 5 05 p m.

For Long Branch and Ocean Grove, etc—8 11, 11 00 a m, 3 44, 6 32 p m. Sunday (except Ocean Grove)—8 50 a m, 12 05, 3 30, 8 12 p m.

For Red Bank—8 11, 11 00 12:05, 1 12, 3 44, 4 47, 5 05, 11 25 p m. Sundays—8 05 a m, 3 30, 8 12 p m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—(8 11 Lakewood only) 9 27 a m, 1 15, 3 49, (5 44 p m, Lakewood only). Sundays—8 50 a m.

For Toms River and Barnegat—9 27 a m, 1 15, 3 44 p m. Sundays—8 50 a m.

For Philadelphia—5 17, 7 12, 7 44, 9 44, 3 51, 9 44, 10 44, 10 51, 11 44 a m, 12 46, 1 01, 1 30, 3 45, 3 45, 5 45, 7 47, 9 23, p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 05, 10 51 a m, 3 45, 4 05, 6 45*, 8 27 7 47, 9 47 p m, 1 25, 1 17 night.

For Trenton—5 17, 7 12, 7 44, 9 44, 9 44, 10 44, 11 44 a m, 12 46, 1 01, 1 30, 3 44, 6 45, 8 21, p m, 1 17 night. Sunday—5 17, 5 45, 9 05, 10 51 a m, 3 45, 4 05, 6 45, 8 27, 9 47 p m, 1 25, 1 17 night.

For Reading and Harrisburg—5 17, 6 55, 9 54, (10 44, 11 44 Reading only), a m, 3 11, (5 45 through train), 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 2 05, 6 37, 8 35 p m, 1 17 night.

For Pottsville, Sunbury and Williamsport—5 17, 5 35, 9 54 a m, 3 11 5 35 p m, 1 17 night. Sundays—5 17 a m, 3 05 p m, 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington—1 17, 5 51, 10 51, a m, 2 45, 6 45, 7 47 p m. Sundays 10 51 a m 2 45, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night.

*Change cars at Bound Brook.

W. G. BESLER, Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr. C. M. BURT, Gen. Pass. Agent

Lehigh Valley Railroad

Time Table in Effect Nov. 29, 1903.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

2:05 a.m. daily (except Sunday) local to Mauch Chunk.

8:23 a. m. daily for Easton, Wilkes-Barre, Rochester, Buffalo and principal intermediate stations, connects at Depew Junction for Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge.

2:12 p. m. daily local for Easton, Mauch Chunk, Hazleton, Pottsville and Shenandoah.

4:58 p. m. daily (except Sunday) "Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Express" Solid vestibule train to Wilkes-Barre, Through Parlor Car via D. & H. R. R. to Scranton and Carbondale.

6:31 p. m. daily (except Sunday) local to Easton.

6:40 p. m. daily solid vestibule train to Buffalo, Toronto and Chicago and principal intermediate stations except Rochester

FRANK BOWLBY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J Telephone 113-B.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE,

Office opens 7 a. m., closes 7 p. m.

On Saturday's close half hour later.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00 6:30 p. m.

Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.

Arrive—3d a. m.; 1:30, 2:15 and 7:00 p. m.

Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30 and 5:30 p. m.

Close—7:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30, 6:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA—West of Easton.

Close 12:35 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:30, 5:30 p. m.

Close—7:30, 9:30 a. m.; 1:00, 2:30 and 6:00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 7:00 p. m.

Close—7:15, 7:30, 9:30 a. m. 12:35, 4:30, 7:45 p. m.

Through fast mail for West and South close 4:30 and 7:15 p. m.

Through fast mail for East, close 1:30 and 7:15 p. m.

WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE & GALLIA (Mt. Bethel)

Arrive—1:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

Watchung—Arrive 6:45 p. m. Close 5:30 p. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

STONE AT BARTLE'S STONE YARD.

Yard: Corner Church and Second Streets.

Cut Stone, Building Stone—ALL KINDS.

FLAGGING AND CURB STONE.

Have some 18-inch and 2 and 3-ft. walk very cheap. Leave orders for your foundation and cesspool stone with us.

SMALLEY BROS.,

147 North Ave.

Butchers.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Roasting and Broiling Chickens a specialty.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83-A.

H. EGGERDING,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c Cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana Cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of Domestic Cigars.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

Game in Season. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Telephone No. 463 J.

LADIES DESIRING—

Knife-Pleating or Pinking

done, will please leave their orders at No. 22 Duer Street, and it will receive prompt attention.

MRS. FORCE.

CRANKY SHOPPER PUNISHED

A New York Incident Which the Governor of Washington Remembers with Pleasure.

Henry McBride, the governor of Washington, was talking about department stores.

"A department storekeeper in Seattle," he said, "complained to me one day about the people, in outlying sections of the city, who were always having delivered to their homes papers of pins, thimbles, finger rings and similar infinitesimal packages. He said that sometimes a two-horse team would travel a mile to carry home a half dozen shoe buttons or a skein of silk.

"Then he described a trick that an old employer of his in New York had once played on a woman. She was a chronic offender. Two or three times a week she would harass a half dozen salesgirls an hour or more, and finally buy, and order delivered, a paper of needles or a quarter of a yard of ribbon.

KICKED SPOOL INTO THE GUTTER.

"So the man decided to make an example of her.

"One afternoon, after her usual shopping excursion, there drove up to her door a huge dray, drawn by four horses, and containing six brawny, bare-armed laborers.

"A crowd collected. It was thought an enormous safe was to be moved.

"The woman stood at her front door. The laborers laid a heavy plank from the wagon to the sidewalk, and then, with many loud grunts of effort, they rolled barrel fashion on to the plank and thence down to the street a tiny spool of cotton thread. They carried the thread painfully to the woman's doorstep, and there, after a desperate struggle, they up-ended it.

"Then they departed. The woman kicked the spool into the gutter immediately, but this action on her part only made more pleasing to the neighbors the little joke that had been played on her."

THIS DOG LIKES TOBACCO.

He Is a Black Spaniel and Recognized as Champion Stump Shooter of Philadelphia.

Every now and then a dog is heard of that has tastes in the way of beer or other intoxicants, but the distinction of owning a tobacco-loving dog belongs to Ellis Ward, the veteran rowing coach of the University of Pennsylvania, says the Philadelphia Record. Tobacco is as repulsive to the average dog as it is to some people, and though they will stamp out or bite out a lighted cigar, a little of the leaf in their mouth causes a splutter of many minutes. But it is quite different with the little black spaniel of Ward's. When only a puppy he would chew cigar stumps with a relish, and now the habit has so possessed him that he is never so happy as when a bit of tobacco is thrown his way.

WAITING FOR A SNIPE.

He will watch a cigar smoker with more eagerness than the "stump-shooting" urchin, ready to dash for the discarded bit. Recently the dog has developed a taste for Turkish tobacco, and a Turkish cigarette gives him exquisite pleasure. The tobacco is not only chewed, but also swallowed, yet no matter how much is consumed the dog shows no signs of illness, and he is now a particularly healthy canine.

Nursery Hint from Far East.

The native women of the Himalaya mountains have a singular way of putting their children to sleep in the middle of the day. The child is put near a stream of water, and by means of a palm leaf or a tin scoop the water is deflected so as to run gently over the back of the child's head. The water pouring over the child's head apparently sends it to sleep and keeps it so, while the mother proceeds with her work in the fields.

BEGS FOR MISTRESS.

MONGREL DOG KEEPS WOLF FROM BLIND NELL'S DOOR.

Old Woman Is Too Ill to Take Accustomed Place So Cur Holds Cup to Receive Pennies of the Charitable.

"Blind Nell," the organ grinder who for years has gathered the pennies and the nickels of the charitable that pass State and Van Buren streets, at Chicago, is ill, but she placed her faith in a dog, and the animal is now earning the bread that means life for both.

There are few people in the downtown district who do not know "Blind Nell." There are few business men who remember when she came. She was on the southeast corner when they were clerks in the stores that they now own. She was the link that connected them with the day that had been, and sometimes they paid her well for the memory. And the old dog, a yellow cur, was always at her side.

"Why do you keep him? He's getting old, isn't he?" inquired some of the old business men.

"He's all that I have," was the answer.

So it wasn't strange that men stopped and listened when they first the elevated and the street cars the other morning. Usually it was one of "Blind Nell's" airs that told them that they had reached the scene of another day's activity. Some of them stood in the middle of the street and waited for the familiar strains. But the old hand organ was silent. They crossed to "Blind Nell's" corner and there stood the dog, alone.

If he had been a man people would have said that he was transfigured. It seemed that he had shaken the years from him and that he realized his importance. It was the placard on his side that attracted everybody's attention. "I am 'Blind Nell's' dog. 'Blind Nell' is sick. I can be trusted. Please help us both," it read.

WARNED THE STRANGER AWAY.

There was a cup fastened to his muzzle and he seemed to know his friends. Whenever one of them appeared he advanced and rubbed his nose against their legs. The caress told much. It told of how "Blind Nell" had at last given away and how she was lying ill in some uncomfortable spot. It told why the hand organ was silent. It told that even a mean, yellow cur was not without a heart and that he alone stood between the old woman and starvation. And the caress touched many and there was a heap of bright silver in the cup before the day's work had begun in the downtown district.

He disappeared while the morning was still young. His course was in Van Buren street and down Wabash avenue. All trace of him was lost as he rounded the corner, but the meeting of the old woman and the old dog with a cup of silver must have been a happy one.

He was back at the corner when the shoppers began to arrive. The women were touched by the story told on the placard and they contributed freely. At noon the dog disappeared again. He rested this time and perhaps the old woman told him what a great friend he was, for it was almost time for the stores to close when he reached the corner.

There was another flow of pennies, nickels and dimes and the cup was half full when a thief came along. He stooped and patted the animal on the back and at the same time tried to empty the cup. But "Blind Nell's" dog had learned to read men, and a growl warned the stranger that it would be unsafe for him to take any of the money. The dog disappeared as darkness came and "Blind Nell" will have all to eat that she wants for the next few days at least.

Has Troubles of His Own.

R. D. Urquhart, of Lynchburg, Va., is six feet six inches in height, and weighs 375 pounds. While stopping at a hotel in a North Carolina town he put up in a room which had four beds. He was the only occupant of the chamber. The first bed he crawled into was crushed under his weight. He tried each of the others in turn, and the slats of the three others also collapsed.

New Far Western Industry.

Men make five dollars a day in the forests of western Washington, peeling cascara bark. It sells for eight cents a pound, and is used medicinally. One load of dry bark makes enough liquid extract to sell for two dollars at wholesale.

A Savings Account with THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY will be secure.

It will be convenient.

It will earn interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum.

Interest so earned will be compounded twice a year.

Accounts of this character are solicited by

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST CO.

Capital - - - -	$100,000
Surplus - - - -	100,000
Deposits - - -	1,000,000

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

A record of the work of three leading pitchers in the National League, shows that Mathewson leads with twenty-seven victories. He has taken part in only nine defeats. McGinnity has twenty-five victories to his credit and has lost in ten contests. Harper of the Cincinnati's, is credited with seventeen victories and has taken part in twenty-one defeats.

Wolf, pitcher for Rahway A. C., has not lost a game this year for the team.

John Harkin's team from New Brunswick will play the West Ends at Somerville on Saturday. On Labor Day the Clintons will play two games at Somerville.

The Somerville Baseball Association has purchased 190 feet of bleachers from the Scotch Plains Club, which will be moved to Somerville by Saturday.

Now that "Red" Waller has "made up" with the Bridgeport, Conn., team's manager, and will not pitch for Westfield again this year, it is said that Osteen, a National League utility man, will finish the season for Manager Denman. Great things are promised by Westfield for Saturday, it being claimed that Plainfield will "bite the dust" good and hard.

Jack O'Neill, of the Orange A. C., who is catching for Jersey City, of the Eastern League, is helping the league out temporarily. O'Neill has a good position and can make more money playing independent ball.

ROD AND GUN.

Ira F. Randolph, of Central avenue, who has been spending the summer at Barnegat Bay, returned yesterday to transact some business in this city. He brought with him a big mess of fine fish, which he has distributed among his friends here. Randolph has been a constant companion of Captain Dorsett, of Barnegat, during his stay, and has made many a fishing trip in his schooner. He will return for more fishing the latter part of the week.

Frank Hedden, of East Fourth street, returned yesterday from a three weeks' fishing trip at Barnegat. Frank made his headquarters at Waretown, N. J., within a stone's throw of the sea, and was out for fish every day during his absence. He brought home a fine mess.

ON THE TRACK.

Dr. Munroe B. Long, of Park avenue, has purchased a fast brown Hamiltonian colt.

General Sporting News on Page 8.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Rev. S. T. Livingtson, of Hartford Theological Seminary, will occupy the pulpit at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church on Sunday.

—Daughters of Rebecca will hold a sociable Friday afternoon and evening at the home of George Ludgate on Clinton avenue.

—At a meeting of Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., held Monday evening, it was decided to omit next week's meeting on account of the day being Labor Day.

—A basement store is to be built at the residence at 214 New street and the work will shortly be commenced under a permit granted today. Mrs. Jane B. DeMott is the owner of the property. Wearren & Son will have charge of the construction.

Dr. George Ryder, of New York, has been spending a month's vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. Charles E. Ryder, of East Front street.

Mrs. C. E. Ball, of Sycamore avenue, is spending the week at Long Branch.

Mrs. Eleanor T. Banks and Mrs Ernest Austin, of Park avenue, are spending this week with friends at Germantown, Pa.

CELEBRATING GYPSY WEDDING

THE HAPPY SEQUEL TO ROMANCE BETWEEN TWO TRIBES.

The gypsy camp along Springfield avenue, Hilton, is in gala attire today, and the two-score Romanies composing the camp are wearing their brightest colored apparel, while enthusiasm is at a high point. To an inquisitive stranger desiring to learn the reason for all this, the information is imparted that a wedding festival is on, and the principals are Miss Julia Riley, aged eighteen years, and Elisha Cooper, aged twenty-one, members of the celebrated Riley and Cooper gypsy families of New Jersey. The ceremony uniting the young couple took place last night in the office of Justice of the Peace John H. Schmidt, of Millburn, and was the sequel to a romantic elopement that occurred last March.

The members of the Riley family at that time were in camp near this city, where they had a few days previous brought the remains of the celebrated gypsy, "Queen Bess," the head of the clan, for interment. The bride is a lineal granddaughter of "Queen Bess," and during the period of mourning, following the departed queen's death, the camp was visited by the Coopers. During this mourning period, young Cooper wooed Miss Riley with such persistency that in a short time their troth was plighted and, in true lovers' fashion, they left camp one night and began travelling about the country. A month ago they were located at the Hilton camp.

During the interim Father Riley was ever watchful to locate the recreant pair, and, hearing of their proximity, he paid a visit to the camp Sunday and had a heart-to-heart talk with the pair. As a result yesterday they decided to have the marriage legally solemnized. Patrick Gorman, the head of one of the other camps at Hilton, was let into the secret, and, together with a younger sister of the bride, they attired in their best and drove to Milburn. They called first at the justice's office in the postoffice building on Main street, but, not finding him in, they repaired to his residence, where their wants were made known.

The justice fell into the idea at once. He was elected only last spring and he had never experienced the joy of tying a nuptial knot. The assemblage started back to the justice's office and there met former Township Clerk B. L. Farrell, of Springfield. Judge Schmidt thought he would doubly clinch the legality of the ceremony with Mr. Farrell as a witness, and he broached the proposition to the Springfield man. Mr. Farrell was willing.

It required but a few minutes for the justice to search out the marriage ceremony in his lawbooks, and requesting the young couple to join hands and stand before him, he asked the legal questions in true judicial style. The witnesses signed the certificates, and after the payment of the fee the couple departed for the camp.

PERSONAL.

David E. Titsworth and family, of Madison avenue, are attending the Seventh-Day Baptist Conference in Nortonville, Kansas.

Arthur Crone and family, of College place, have returned from their vacation spent in New York State.

Dr. J. T. Fritts, of Park avenue, is enjoying a vacation in the Pocono Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Runyon, of Madison avenue, returned Monday from Atlantic City, where they have been for a month past.

Theodore Shirley, of the firm of Shirley & Johnston, is enjoying the sights at the St. Louis Exposition.

Rev. Dr. H. A. Griesmer, of Baltimore, who occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church on Sunday, was entertained while here by B. J. Shreve, of Grove street. He will again occupy the pulpit on Sunday.

Sale of Lands for Unpaid Taxes and Assessments.

Collector's Office, City of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Notice is hereby given that the subscriber, the Collector of the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, pursuant to the authority of the statute in such case made and provided, will on Thursday, the 22d day of September, A. D., Nineteen hundred and four, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the said Collector's office, No. 151 North avenue in said city expose for sale and sell the several tracts or parcels of land hereinafter specified, or any parts thereof severally sufficient for the purpose, on which taxes for the year Nineteen hundred and three remain in arrears, to such person or persons as will purchase the same for the shortest term and pay the tax lien including interest and costs of sale, or in fee where no one will bid for a shorter term.

This sale is made under the provisions of the act of the Legislature entitled: "An act for the assessment and collection of taxes," approved April 8, 1903, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

Further particulars of the land to be sold may be obtained at the office of the subscriber any week day prior to the day of sale, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., except holidays and Saturdays, and on Saturdays between 9 a. m. and 12 noon.

The following list contains the lot and block numbers of the lots, tracts and parcels of land to be sold in pursuance of this advertisement, as they appear on the official assessment maps of the City of Plainfield, on file in the office of the City Collector, together with a statement of the Wards of the city wherein said lands are respectively situated, and the amount due from each of said lots respectively. To the amount due on each lot and parcel as hereinafter designated, there will be added the fees provided by said act of the Legislature, viz.: for preparing and publishing notices of sale twenty-five cents for each parcel of land advertised; and for selling, twenty-five cents for each parcel sold; and for each certificate of sale, fifty cents, besides necessary disbursements for printing, postage, affidavits and acknowledgements, which are hereby estimated at three dollars for each item of arrearage thereon, except that only one-half of such fees shall be chargeable when the city is a purchaser, and the City Clerk's fee for recording report, ten cents for each parcel of land sold, and all said fees and expenses shall form part of the tax lien and be paid by the purchaser at the tax sale.

Sale Number	Supposed owner or person to whom assessed.	Ward	Block No. City Assessment Maps.	Lot No. City Assessment Maps.	Street or Avenue.	Year.	Amount of Tax.	Date from which interest will be added at 10 per cent. per annum to date of sale
1	Samuel Armstrong	1	109	230-232	E. Front st.	1903	21 42	Nov. 20, 1903
2	Marie True	1	152	1119-1123	E. Front st.	"	87 57	"
3	Virginia Pike	1	116	408-412	E. Front st.	"	60 48	"
4	J. Wallace Holmes	1	155	1305-1307	E. Front st.	"	5 04	"
5	Albert I. Drayton	1	155	1309-1315	E. Front st.	"	10 08	"
6	Theo. F. Reynolds	1	155	1331-1419	E. Front st.	"	69 30	"
7	Joseph Bird, Trustee	1	156	1421-1475	E. Front st.	"	70 56	"
8	Stephen McCormick	1	127	744-752	E. Front st.	"	16 38	"
9	Stephen McCormick	1	127	802-810	E. Front st.	"	15 12	"
10	N. J. Building L. & Inv Co.	1	146	920-922	E. Front st.	"	6 93	"
11	Albert I. Drayton	1	158	1300-1418	E. Front st.	"	115 29	"
12	Julia Peck	1	102	114-120	E. Second st.	"	78 12	"
14	Stephen McCormick	1	127	745-747	E. Second st.	"	5 04	"
15	Stephen McCormick	1	127	817-823	E. Second st.	"	7 56	"
16	Albert I. Drayton	1	158	1301-1421	E. Second st.	"	43 84	"
17	Albert I. Drayton	1	160	1300-1420	E. Second st.	"	43 84	"
18	A. V. Nolan	1	122	509	E. Third st.	"	12 60	"
19	Julia Peck	1	102	121-125	North avenue	"	176 61	"
20	Lorenzo Paoli	1	103	126-128	North avenue	"	88 20	"
21	S. C. Moore	1	167	1241-1243	North avenue	"	3 78	"
22	Unknown owner	1	168	1457-1459	North avenue	"	2 52	"
23	Henry R. Gaffner	1	167	1234-1236	Columbia ave	"	2 52	"
24	Lorenzo Paoli	1	167	1315-1318	Columbia ave	"	16 38	"
25	Lorenzo Paoli	1	168	1324-1326	Columbia ave	"	1 26	"
26	Unknown owner	1	129	825-835	George st	"	3 78	"
27	Sana Bellis	1	144	909	George st	"	63	"
28	Unknown owner	1	131	829-831	St. Mary's ave	"	2 52	"
29	Annie P. Brady	1	135	908-910	St. Mary's ave	"	1 26	"
30	Anna E. Case	1	107	213-215	Church st	"	32 76	"
31	Estate Amy L. Moore	1	116	111	Washington st	"	16 38	"
32	John C. W. Spreen	1	146	144-146	Jackson ave	"	2 52	"
34	Estate Judiah G. Higgins	1	145	208-210	Jackson ave	"	2 52	"
35	Edw. Coughlin	1	144	254	Jackson ave	"	1 26	"
36	James McKenna	1	141	259	Netherwood ave	"	2 02	"
37	Hugh Gallagher	1	141	263	Netherwood ave	"	2 02	"
38	Lavina F. Choate	1	141	264-266	Watson ave	"	2 53	"
39	A. Sjostrom	1	138	318-320	Watson ave	"	2 52	"
40	Eugene Schlaich	1	140	278-280	Leland ave	"	2 52	"
41	A. W. & Virginia Costales	1	140	288-290	Leland ave	"	2 52	"
42	Unknown owner	1	168	336-338	Terrill road	"	2 52	"
43	Estate Geo. W. Moore	1	112	42-44	Elm place	"	18 90	"
44	Hattie L. Gibbons	1	113	38-35	Westervelt ave	"	52 92	"
45	Samuel H. Williams	1	115	60	Sandford ave	"	64 89	"
47	Catherine McClure	1	121	318-320	Filmore ave	"	32 76	"
48	Emma Darling	2	203	916-922	South ave	"	54 81	"
49	Wm. H. Sebring	2	213	229-233	E. Seventh st	"	83 16	"
50	Plainfield Fndy. Co.	2	256	708-710	E. Seventh st	"	23 31	"
51	Unknown owner	2	240	501	E. Seventh st	"	3 78	"
52	Ida W. Yates	2	207	141-143	Crescent ave	"	143 00	"
53	A. V. Nolan	2	211	718-720	Watchung ave	"	124 74	"
54	Minnie Stryker	2	249	1216-1218	Watchung ave	"	68 04	"
55	Jacob L. Voorhees	2	240	609-613	Richmond st	"	22 05	"
56	Ethel Lloyd	2	249	959-961	Kensington ave	"	6 30	"
57	Wm. J. Mattox	2	246	725-727	Webster place	"	13 86	"
58	Estate Geo. W. Moore	2	251	1339	Highland ave	"	1 26	"
59	Estate Geo. W. Moore	2	251	1333	Lake st	"	63	"
60	Wm. H. Bagnell	2	232	528-530	Belvidere ave	"	51 03	"
61	Joseph Brick	2	206	17	E. of Belvidere ave	"	2 52	"
62	G. C. Hall	2	280	1206-1210	Henry place	"	1 89	"
63	Harriett Hubler	2	284	951-959	Leland ave	"	7 56	"
64	Leonolia W. Sheldon	2	292	1342-1350	Evergreen ave	"	15 75	Nov. 20, 1903
65	C. E. Gulick	2	297	1287-1280	Marion ave	"	45 99	"
66	Edw. G. Wilson	2	297	1291-1293	Marion ave	"	3 15	"
68	John T. Flournoy	3	326	541-543	W. Fourth st	"	21 42	"
69	E. M. French	3	347	669	W. Fourth st	"	3 97	"
70	Experience Moe	3	321	419-423	W. Fifth st	"	47 88	"
71	Estate Wm. Courtright	3	321	425-429	W. Fifth st	"	45 36	"
72	Frank M. Bacon	3	320	418-420	W. Fifth st	"	63 16	"
73	Frank M. Bacon	3	320	422-424	W. Fifth st	"	100 80	"
74	Estate Patrick Keirnan	3	327	525-527	W. Fifth st	"	30 37	"
75	Sigmund Frucht	3	367	1109-1111	W. Fifth st	"	5 04	"
76	Estate S. McCormick	3	367	1133-1149	W. Fifth st	"	21 42	"
77	Estate S. McCormick	3	366	1233-1245	W. Fifth st	"	14 49	"
78	Geraldine Broadbelt	3	361	950-952	W. Sixth st	"	37 80	"
79	Duane E. Minnard	3	367	1130-1136	W. Sixth st	"	20 16	"
80	Catherine W. Bowman	3	371	941-945	W. Seventh st	"	121 59	"
81	F. Margentino	3	369	1230-1232	W. Seventh st	"	83 16	"
82	Elizabeth Arthur	3	372	912-916	Sherman ave	"	4 41	"
83	Isabella Hetfield	3	304	806-808	Park ave	"	110 25	"
84	Rose C. Tillotson	3	335	1032-1042	Park ave	"	132 30	"
85	Rose C. Tillotson	3	335	1033-1043	Arlington ave	"	15 12	"
86	Edw. Burke	3	335	1081-1083	Arlington Ave	"	5 04	"
87	R. M. Stelle	3	337	955	Union st	"	25 85	"
88	R. M. Stelle	3	337	959-961	Union st	"	5 04	"
89	R. M. Stelle	3	337	963-965	Union st	"	25 20	"
90	R. M. Stelle	3	337	967-969	Union st	"	35 91	"
91	R. M. Stelle	3	333	960-964	Union st	"	15 75	"
92	R. M. Stelle	3	333	968-974	Union st	"	65 52	"
93	Ferdnand Bader	3	336	1063	Rose st	"	1 89	"
94	Geo. H. Kitchen	3	336	1077-1079	Rose st	"	2 52	"
95	Abram Smith	3	336	1095-1097	Rose st	"	2 52	"
96	R. M. Stelle	3	338	957-961	Madison ave	"	18 90	"
97	R. M. Stelle	3	338	973-987	Madison ave	"	34 02	"
98	Julia R. Stelle	3	331	950-990	Central ave	"	99 29	"
99	Estate Manning Stelle	3	332	965-999	Central ave	"	381 15	"
100	Estate Manning Stelle	3	397	1007-1011	Central ave	"	38 43	"
101	Estate Manning Stelle	3	397	1025-1041	Central ave	"	104 58	"
102	Sigmund W. Frucht	3	326	401	Plainfield ave	"	11 34	"
103	Walter Scott	3	329	715	Plainfield ave	"	50 40	"
104	John A. Doty	3	385	1201-1223	Plainfield ave	"	23 31	"
105	A. Rodman Parsons	3	394	1303-1311	Plainfield ave	"	11 34	"
106	Richard Curel Daniel	3	394	1313-1323	Plainfield ave	"	11 97	"
107	James Bolmer	3	355	500-502	Grant ave	"	7 93	"
108	Wm. H. Reynolds	3	371	724-734	Grant ave	"	87 86	"
109	Estate E. W. Runyon	3	386	519	Elizabeth st	"	1 26	"
110	Plainfield Ass'n for Relief of Disabled Firemen	3	389	420-426	Elizabeth st	"	5 04	"
111	do	3	389	432-434	Elizabeth st	"	2 52	"
112	R. K. Brown	3	391	420-434	Beatrice st	"	5 04	"
113	John C. Doty	3	385	512-530	Beatrice st	"	6 30	"
114	Frank L. Perley	3	392	421-427	Beatrice st	"	2 52	"
115	A. Rodman Parsons	3	392	429-435	Beatrice st	"	2 52	"
116	John C. Doty	3	384	513-531	Beatrice st	"	6 30	"
117	John A. Doty	3	391	433-435	Pemberton ave	"	7 56	"
118	S. McCormick	3	389	1085-1087	Field ave	"	1 26	"
119	John A. Doty	3	391	1301-1311	Field ave	"	3 15	"
120	S. McCormick	3	386	1100-1108	Field ave	"	2 52	"
121	S. McCormick	3	386	1116-1118	Field ave	"	1 26	"
122	Arthur Boone	3	371	722-726	Hobart ave	"	85 05	"
126	Minnie L. Stryker	4	466	961-965	W. Front st	"	42 96	"
127	M. A. Haven	4	467	900-902	W. Front st	"	71 82	"
128	Heirs of Hugh McLaren	4	466	1147-1153	W. Front st	"	15 53	"
129	Estate Wm. Howatt	4	401	214	W. Second st	"	28 98	"
130	Lawrence Green	4	425	515	W. Third st	"	7 60	"
131	Estate Roana Anderson	4	435	714-716	W. Third st	"	20 16	"
132	W. E. J. Pearson	4	442	930	W. Third st	"	18 44	"
134	Gaetarno Miller	4	404	300-302	W. Fourth st	"	28 98	"
135	Geo. H. Moore	4	426	602	W. Fourth st	"	13 23	"
136	John T. Flournoy	4	408	1123-115	Central ave	"	25 60	"
137	Edward B. Ryder	4	414	312-314	Central ave	"	34 02	"
138	Chas. McCarthy	4	424	207	Plainfield ave	"	10 08	"
139	Chas. McCarthy	4	424	209-211	Plainfield ave	"	10 08	"
141	R. M. Stelle	4	441	324-326	Stebbins Place	"	24 57	"
144	Dunellen Brick Co	4	473	1414-1432	Dunellen ave	"	2 52	"
145	Dunellen Brick Co	4	474	1413-1433	Dunellen ave	"	5 04	"
146	Frank A. Marrenscheck	4	481	96-98	Jefferson ave	"	13 23	"
147	Mar. T. Odams, children	4	463	220-222	Evona ave	"	2 52	"

Dated, Aug. 17, 1904.

FRANK H. SMITH, Collector.

-:- PUTNAM & DEGRAW -:-

Royal Tooth Powder, can	10c
Royal Talcum Powder, can	10c
Mennen's Talcum Powder, can	18c
Witch Hazel, bottle	10c
Violet Toilet Water, bottle	25c
Lyons' Tooth Powder, can	19c

Mrs. Lulu Packer and daughter, Lulu, of East Sixth street, have gone to Asbury Park for a week.

Among the guests registered at the Sunnyside Hotel, Lake Hopatcong, are Mrs. James F. Buckle and James F. Buckle, Jr., of Plainfield.

The Misses Louise, Alice and Lucia Wood, of East Sixth street, are summering in Maine.

Miss Susan McGinley, of East Seventh street, has returned from a two weeks' visit at Roslyn, L. I.

Martin Phelan, of Roslyn, L. I., is the guest of his uncle, Charles McGinley, of East Seventh street.

Charles R. Huff, of Mexican City, Mexico, is visiting E. A. Vermeule, of Jackson avenue. He was a former resident of this city many years ago.

MAIL AND TELEPHONE ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. PRINTED POSTALS FREE.

S. SCHEUER & CO.

GROCERS AND BUTCHERS,

are offering these specials

Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

120 Stamps with 1 lb best New Crop Teas 70c lb	100 Stamps with 1 lb extra New Crop Teas, 60c lb.	100 Stamps with 1 lb Prem. Bkg Powder 45c	70 Stamps with 1 lb fancy New Crop Teas 50c lb.

Force, per package	11c
Pettijohn, Breakfast Food, pk	12c
Postum Cereal, package	11c
Cooper's Gelatine, pkge	5c
Hire's Root Beer, bot	12c
Campbell's Sal. Dressing, bot	8c
Beef Extract (25c kind), jar	19c
Swift's Lard, lb	8c

$3.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Best Mocha and Java Coffee, per lb..32c
$2.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Premium Java Coffee, per lb..27c
$2.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Maracaibo Coffee, per lb..23c
$1.00 worth Stamps with 1 lb Golden Santos Coffee, per lb..18c

10 Stamps with 1 lb. best quality Peanut Butter, 20c lb.	10 Stamps with 1 bottle Celery Salt, 10c.	10 Stamps with 2 cans Scheuer's Milk, 10c can.	10 Stamps with 1 can best Clover Leaf Salmon, 20c.

Ten Stamps with pony basket Sweet Potatoes..25c
Ten Stamps with pony basket Red Onions..30c
Ten Stamps with pony basket Apples..19c
Ten Stamps with pony basket Jersey Potatoes..20c

10 Stamps with 3 lb. basket Grapes, 18c.	10 Stamps with pony basket Parsnips, 25c.	10 Stamps with 2 large Egg Plants, 10c.	10 Stamps with 1 dozen Green Peppers, 10c.

IN OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT.

50 Stamps with 5 lbs. Plate Corned Beef.	20 Stamps with each Leg Mutton or Lamb.	10 Stamps with a Shoulder Lamb or 2 lbs Hamburg.	10 Stamps with a ½ lb Boiled Ham or Cook. Corned Beef

1.00 IN STAMPS with following articles:
1 bottle Vanilla Extract,..15c
1 bottle Jamacia Ginger..18c
1 large bot Worc. Sauce..12c
1 bot Premium Catsup..13c
1 bottle Premium Vinegar..10c
1 bot Ammonia..10c
1 bot Blue..10c
1 bot. Royal Shoe Polish..10c
1 box Tooth Powder..10c
1 box Talcum Powder..10c
2 packages Tooth Picks, each ..5c

1.00 In stamps with any of the following articles:
3-lb box Argo Starch..20c
7 cakes Laundry Soap..25c
3 lb box choice Rice..20c
3 lbs Pearl Barley..15c
1 pkg Macaroni..10c
1 pkge Pearl Tapioca..10c
1 package Hasty Tapioca..10c
1 pkge Premium Farina..10c
1 package Rolled Oats..10c
1 pkg Parlor Matches,..12c
1 pkg Washing Powder..10c
1 bottle Pickling Spice..12c

1.00 In stamps with any of the following crackers:
1 lb Choc. Vanilla Fruit..16c
1 lb Chocolate Sensations..15c
1 lb Cocoa Macaroons..16c
1 lb English Wine Crackers..12c
1 lb Fruit Crackers..15c
1 lb Walnut Glace..20c
1 lb Grandma's Cookies..12c
1 lb Spice Jumbles..12c
1 lb choice Mixed Cakes..12c
1 lb pkge Graham Crackers..12c
2 package Social Teas, ea..10c
2 pkge 5 O'clock Teas, ea..10c

Ignito, Self-lighting Gas Mantel. No Match required, it lights itself. 30c ea at Scheuer's.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—A suggestion for canning time from Neuman Brothers: Bartlett pears and Damson plums; quality choice, special price by the basket.

—Plans have been completed for an extension to be built at the side of Leslie Matthew's house on Lee place. The extension will measure 7x11 feet and will be one story high.

—Through recent action of the Elizabeth Board of Aldermen, a large tract of water front property adjoining the Staten Island and Elizabethport ferry, has recently been purchased as a site for a recreation pier. The price paid for the property was $18,000.

—Several Plainfielders who are at Asbury Park have decided to remain at the shore until after the baby parade which takes place this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Randolph, of West Sixth street, have moved to Shiloh, N. J.

—The Building Hall Association will hold an entertainment in T. A. B. Hall on Labor Day night.

—The Public Service Corporation is about to install two new switches on West Front street near Grant avenue, to replace those worn out in service.

—Health Inspector Richards learned today that the young man who was admitted on Friday last to the Emergency Hospital at Elizabeth sick, and who, it was discovered yesterday had smallpox, belongs in Harrisburg, Pa., not Harrison, N. J., as at first supposed. The patient says he is Henry Bergh, seventeen years old. He had been removed to the isolation hospital, where there are only two other patients. Meanwhile the Emergency Hospital has been placed under quarantine and closed for fifteen days.

—Gently the Plainfield Press insinuates that the Democratic viewings with alarm, so notably lacking in their platform, are being saved up until after the election returns come in.—Newark News.

—Beginning September 1, M. R. Giles, proprietor of the Park avenue meat market, will discontinue all credit business and conduct a strictly cash market, which will enable him to sell meats and vegetables at prices that will surely make it profitable to trade at his stand. Attention is called to advertisement in this issue.

Notice of Primary Election.

Notice is hereby given that in each election district of the four wards of the City of Plainfield a primary election will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 13, 1904, from 1 o'clock p. m. to 9 o'clock p. m., to nominate candidates for the following offices:

From each ward a member of the Common Council, a Justice of the Peace and a Constable. From each of the First, Second and Third wards two members of the County Committee and three members of the City Committee; and from the Fourth ward three members of the County Committee and three members of the City Committee.

Also to nominate in each election district delegates to the State, Congressional, County and City conventions of the respective political parties. The number of delegates to the convention will be as follows:

	State.	Cong.	Co.	City.
Rep.
First Ward	2	4	4	4
Second Ward	2	5	5	5
Third Ward	2	5	5	5
Fourth Ward	3	7	7	7
Dem.
First Ward	2	3	3	3
Second Ward	2	3	3	3
Third Ward	2	2	2	2
Fourth Ward	3	5	5	5

Notice is also hereby given that the following places have been designated for the primaries to be held on the above date:

First ward, 1st district—No. 123 North ave.; 2d district—No. 521 East Second street.

Second ward, 1st district—No. 319 Watchung avenue; 2d district—No. 699 South avenue.

Third ward, 1st dist—At the Casino; 2d district—Clifton's barn, West Seventh street and Spooner avenue.

Fourth ward, 1st district—No. 204 West Second street; 2d district—South Second street and Spooner avenue; 3d district—No. 836 South Second street.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk.

8 31 2 eod

Go to Boynton Beach for Labor Day.

Last and Greatest Day of the Season. Special music afternoon and evening. Cavallo's orchestra. Dancing from 1 to 12 p. m. Special Vaudeville Show.

All trolleys connect direct for the Beach. Don't miss it.

Bring the children to Boynton Beach—for this week, free Merry-go-round, Swing and Helter Skelter. Every day from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m., same on Labor Day from 10 a. m. until 12 noon.

COME EARLY.

Peach and Ice Cream Festival at Marconnier Chapel Thursday Evening, Sept. 1,

Tickets (Benefit of Chapel.) including Cream and Cake or Peaches and Cake 15c.

For Cash Only!

Beginning Sept. 1, the Park Avenue Meat Market, corner Park avenue and West Second street, will conduct a STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS. Patrons will be enabled to procure High Grade Meats, Vegetables, etc., at prices that will surely make it profitable for them to trade here.

Orders called for and delivered

We feel confident that the change will be for the good of the public as so much capital must be tied up in a credit business that the prices are always much higher on that account.

Special Sale Saturday on All Meats . . .

The past six years' experience compels us to adopt this method, because it lessens the labor, thereby allowing us to reduce the prices on the goods we offer for sale. Thanking the public for so generous a share of their patronage in the past, we remain, yours respectfully,

Park Avenue Meat Market,

M. R. Giles, Proprietor

Use Press Want Ads